8 when she drank she was a little odd, you
9 kind of angry and mean. And so, you know
10 personal thing between the two of them th
11 to make a decision that, like, you know,
12 around someone who is going to drink and 13 want to stay in, you know what I mean, a
14 that.

15 MR. ROGAN: Right.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 063:
17 kinds of different relationships. But at 18 you know, know anything else about that e
19 experiences. But it would be really hard
20 and not know somebody who hasn't been in

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 063:

10 I believe so.

11 MR. ROGAN: You believe so?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 063:

13 MR. ROGAN: Do you think you can

14 some hesitation?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 063:

16 know, when you say that about anything, it

17 give you hesitation to say life in prison

18 know what I mean. You shouldn't just be,

19 that. So I would say the hesitation is in 20 I answered you truthfully.

21 MR. ROGAN: And you would consider

20 THE COURT: Okay, so that's an e

21 factor.

22 Mr. Coffee, your call. You're

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 067:

24 home by 5:30, and I think I probably woul

25 4:45.

8 MR. ROGAN: Yes, Your Honor.

9 MS. MERCER: Sure.

10 MR. COFFEE: We can.

11 THE COURT: All right. Sir, we

12 morning.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 067:

14 problem. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: And you've got a co

16 to be done at 4:45 to get you where you r

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 067:

18 THE MARSHAL: 9:45.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 067:

20 THE COURT: You have a nice eve

21 again, sir, for working with us.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 067:

23 you.

24 THE COURT: All right. Now wha

25 to do is I'm going to ask Ms. Mansfield a

8 recollection what you saw on the media co

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

10 your question about had I seen it, and wh

11 there was that murder in front of the kid

12 really struck me because of my own person

13 that's about all I recall, and I knew it

14 side of town from where I am.

15 THE COURT: And because it was

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

17 than that.

18 THE COURT: And you don't remem

19 it other than it was in front of the kids

20 resonate with you because of what had hap

21 cousin?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

25 THE COURT: Are you going to be

8 trying to ask you the questions delicately

9 one who tells us what you're feeling, because

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

11 you're saying. I mean, my concern is that

12 belief that in relationships no relationships

13 whether it's work or personal or whatever

14 situations you just walk away, you know.

15 happen, obviously, with my cousin and I had

16 the baby. The baby was six months old.

17 honestly don't know. I am surprised at my

18 in a way. But it is what I am, who I am.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. I appreciate

20 and openness.

21 Mr. Rogan, did you wish to inquire

22 to Ms. Thompson?

23 MR. ROGAN: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Coffee, did you have

25 questions outside the presence of the other

8 that.

9 THE COURT: Yeah.

10 MR. COFFEE: The media issue, t
11 questions earlier about we understand eve
12 TV is not always exactly one-on-one with 13 remember a question like that from Mr. Ro

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

15 MR. COFFEE: The same thing wit
16 would you agree with that? For example,
17 always get things right, the TV doesn't a
18 right?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

20 Correct. But they report what they repor

21 MR. COFFEE: They report what t
22 reported in fact in this case that Mr. Wh
23 with murder. But I have to tell you, I'm 24 when you said there was a murder in front

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

8 child neglect I think that were outlined
9 children in the home. You understand that

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

11 heard.

12 MR. COFFEE: What you heard. E
13 coverage and your background and what you
14 concerned about whether or not you could 15 sounded. Is that fair?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

17 concerns.

18 MR. COFFEE: And look, you don't
19 anybody's expectations here and there's r
20 in any of this, but we do need to figure
21 get together a fair panel. Does that make

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

23 MR. COFFEE: Okay. Is there any
24 media coverage or that other background t
25 were sitting in this gentleman's chair --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

9 understand what question you're asking me

10 MR. COFFEE: Okay, my fault. M

11 asked very artfully. Let me make it real

12 of the day are you sure that you can be f

13 there still concerns and you just can't a

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

15 MR. COFFEE: Okay.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

17 emotionally charged issue for me.

18 MR. COFFEE: Okay.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

20 I get very skittish. Like I said earlier

21 of those programs. I'm probably the only

22 that hasn't seen "Scandal" or "How to Com

23 MR. COFFEE: All right.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

25 MR. COFFEE: No, that's okay.

8 And, ma'am, thank you again for 9 that it's not easy.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 116:

11 MR. COFFEE: I hope I didn't get
12 there, Judge.

13 THE COURT: You were fine. I'm
14 if we can cut her loose. And Ms. Mansfield
15 issue. She identified herself as having

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

17 THE COURT: Ms. Mansfield, pick
18 whichever looks most comfortable this late

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
20 downstairs by the door?

21 THE COURT: Soon. Earlier today
22 questions about whether anybody saw media
23 your hand.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

25 THE COURT: Can you tell me what

8 now? It's funny because if I hadn't heard
9 stuff I probably would not have remembered
10 some of the facts that were presented about
11 there and stuff, and you know how the media
12 things up, goes for the drama. And I don't know
13 specific details about it, I just -- I just find it
14 horrific. I mean, you know, you just -- 15 It doesn't make sense to me, so -- it's just 16 and so awful.

17 THE COURT: So based on what you
18 -- based upon what you recall seeing before
19 today can you set that aside and give everyone
20 a good, fair and impartial trial?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
22 I -- I don't recall like hearing facts or 23 facts that I would use in this case to make
24 opposed to what I hear in the courtroom,
25 asking me.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Coffee, would y

9 MR. COFFEE: Just briefly. I m

10 said you had heard in the media it was a

11 understand why we would be concerned, sta

12 so to speak, if you came in with any pre-

13 Do you understand that concern?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

15 yeah. And what I said was I found it to 16 The media -- not that the media said it w

17 their word for it. I mean, it is a horri

18 know how anyone can say it's not.

19 MR. COFFEE: And nobody would t

20 though, the media may have made some conc

21 the event was criminally. Does that make

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

23 MR. COFFEE: For example, the m

24 tagged this as this is, you know, the wor

25 history. The media does all kinds of thi

8 together and I remember my reaction to th
9 even remember specific -- a lot of specif
10 reports. I just remember my reaction to 11 like this happens on a daily basis and it
12 me. I mean, it's like they were talking
13 should you have a concealed carry permit.
14 should have a permit to have a gun, perio
15 civilian. And I don't think people that 16 guns that are civilians should be out in 17 in somebody else's home with them. I mea
18 of this going on. So it's very -- I don'
19 a societal problem.

20 MR. COFFEE: That's certainly -
21 about rights to carry weapons and whatnot
22 suppose, is that because you view this as 23 you can't consider some other possibiliti
24 point you may be asked to consider whethe
25 degree murder, second degree murder, mans

8 a lot of details about the case or about
9 differences in first degree, second degree
10 levels of punishment for first degree, for 11 have a problem with people not being accused
12 think because somebody gets mad is an excuse

13 MR. COFFEE: Understood.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

15 it's a reason why you should get a lesser
16 do bad behavior. So until you explain all 17 me, I can't tell you how good I'd be at 18 understand a lesser this or that, you know
19 versus second degree or manslaughter or 20 this punishment versus that punishment.

21 MR. COFFEE: And we do these things
22 artificially. There were a number of questions
23 about first degree murder and to a lay person

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

25 MR. COFFEE: -- you may not understand

8 get into too much detail, so we're kind of
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
10 with there is that you can't really know
11 somebody's head. And earlier when asked
12 had worked with a woman for a couple years
13 her husband and I worked pretty closely with 14 their wedding. That's how close I had gotten 15 like a year after their wedding he murdered
16 so bizarre about it is -- I mean, after that 17 after all that, you know, months later when 18 emotion and you're looking back and trying to 19 happened, I had thought he was kind of a sociopath
20 you know, it's like -- and when you're going back
21 you think, well, maybe he just got mad that 22 something. But, I mean, it's like, you could be 23 going on. I actually think he was a sociopath
24 right things. You know, if you asked him to 25 answer it the right way and come across to

8 arena when we're talking about murder, first
9 second degree murder or manslaughter, men
10 important. The judge will give you instructions,
11 you may not agree with the instructions,
12 the way the instructions are written, you
13 personal feeling that, you know, if someone 14 though the judge tells me if something was 15 I don't see it that way, I don't think that 16 to reduce something. The concern is that 17 the instructions and follow the instructions
18 don't exactly mesh maybe with what you think
19 be. Do you understand the point?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
21 instructions. What I'm saying is that I
22 would agree that the mental state fits that 23 a lesser charge or a lesser penalty because 24 you can tell from what's being said what

25 MR. COFFEE: And we're too early

8 had been properly diagnosed and from the 9 comfortable that this person really was s
10 mean, I'm probably using extreme examples
11 really believe that so they can't be held
12 then I would follow the instructions. I'
13 that I'm not going to follow the instruct 14 got to be held accountable.

15 MR. COFFEE: Understood. There
16 criminal mental illness. This is just av
17 person, no mental illness, but mental sta
18 classification of crimes.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
20 instructions. I can't promise that I'll 21 mental state was sufficient that it shoul
22 strong factor or a weighting factor in le
23 What is -- I don't know the legal terms.

24 MR. COFFEE: I understand. I u

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

8 sense.

9 MR. COFFEE: Okay. So, for example,
10 well, I'll consider everything, but even 11 everything I would never really come to 12 we might have an issue.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
14 give it due consideration. No. That's my

15 MR. COFFEE: Right.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:
17 do my best. I have a problem with the 18 my best.

19 MR. COFFEE: Okay. Thank you for 20 appreciate it.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 122:

22 THE COURT: Anything else on that
23 outside the presence of the jury?

24 MR. ROGAN: No, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Ma'am, thank you very

8 Ms. Tawatao, good evening.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

10 THE COURT: We are going to ask
11 questions. Since we understood this was 12 you and we wanted to give you the chance

13 there were other people watching you as y

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

15 THE COURT: So if there's other
16 wanted to tell us, similar to what you we

17 Mr. Rogan at the time we broke, you can e

18 can let him start asking the questions ag

19 minutes.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

21 is the thing is, sorry, I might start cry

22 THE COURT: It's all right. Yo

23 Kleenex over there?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

25 Thank you. So I've been married twenty y

8 never think of these kind of things, you
9 the person experiencing it. I mean, this
10 ever got called for jury service and ever
11 going to be easy, in and out. And then I
12 almost 5:00, and it's a sensitive subject
13 That's the only reason why I started cryi

14 THE COURT: Our biggest concern
15 you can be fair and impartial in hearing
16 making a decision at the end. Do you thi
17 given how you feel about how lucky you ar

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:
19 it's really hard to say. I can't totally 20 everything. I don't know if I'd cast --
21 judgmental or whatnot. I don't know. Yo
22 has a temper. You know, I think everybod
23 never gotten to a point where I felt a da
24 sense? So I don't know if I could be, yo
25 don't know.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

9 MR. ROGAN: On both sides?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

11 MR. ROGAN: And the Court is co
12 sides want people who are sitting over th
13 evidence who are fair and impartial to bo
14 Mr. White. And the best that I think we 15 try. Can you try?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

17 MR. ROGAN: And can you listen
18 evidence and the testimony without thinki
19 on in your own life?

20 MR. ROGAN: Yeah, of course. I
21 always have to separate ourselves from th
22 with our patients.

23 MR. ROGAN: And that's exactly
24 to do here. You can bring in your common
25 but you've got to evaluate the testimony

8 could sit in judgment of Mr. White and co
9 forms of punishment, all three possible f
10 if he was found guilty of first degree mu

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

12 MR. ROGAN: You don't think tha
13 of those three? Do you want me to go ove

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

15 it's in my place to judge somebody. It's

16 MR. ROGAN: Okay.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER 075:

18 don't know what the circumstances were, w
19 were. That's between him and God and it/
20 say, okay, given the facts.

21 MR. ROGAN: Judge, I think both
22 stipulate to let Ms. Tawatao go.

23 MR. COFFEE: No objection.

24 THE COURT: All right. Ma'am,
25 ahead and excuse you. Thank you very muc

8 THE MARSHAL: Yes, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

10 All right, counsel, I should be

15 THE COURT: You've got to email
16 or my assistant.

17 MR. ROGAN: Okay.

18 THE COURT: Not to me, because
19 originals, I will lose them.

20 MR. COFFEE: Judge, before we g

Body You are awesome. A true friend. Thankyou. I'm jus gonna tel it as someone who, didn't cross any linez that I didn't want c goes...my ex, which u know we are still actually married, said want it all back. The family. The little things she missdd about marriage. Everything back. Wow. I was shocked. I was mad. and don't trust this until it happens. I say that because.....she but.....you troy hv to gv me time. Her time she said, is to do able to come back. Well I'm wondering and ask her. What do to make it work then come back now. Or why didn't you mak come back now before you told.me? Ofcourse I ultimately wa many reasons. But I'm shocked that she does. I was moving seriously almost over her. Honestly. Now wtf!!! And so she ex till her "time" is ready to come back. I said I love you and wa your not telling me why you can't come back now and why y how much time. I told her. I wont nor can I wait forever. I am
I was in my life and move on. If and when you decide to com great. This IS BS!!!
