Re: Yu vs. Yu – Case No. 86578

Dear Ms. Yu:

This court has received the enclosed letter from you regarding directing telephone correspondence to your son so that he may act as your interpreter. The Supreme Court of Nevada will not be able to direct correspondence to your son because your son is not your counsel of record. Therefore, your letter to this court is being returned unfiled.

Sincerely,

Melissa F.
Deputy Clerk

RE: Yu v. Yu

Supreme Case No: 86578

Dear Clerk Elizabeth

Appellee Ruorong Yu could not understand English, especially on the phone. If Clerk Elizabeth needs to call me, please call this number "702-606-3682, Kenneth Xu", he is my son. Works in DC. He will interpret for me. Or send me email. Thank you very much.

8/11/23 order page 2 line 1 "yet Plaintiff would often not use an interpreter". Similar out of nothing happened many times on Court Minutes. (The situation is not significant, the impact is very bad. Because there are many times.) 702-671-4578, This is the phone number for the translation office of the court. There should be a record of where/date/time the interpreter is scheduled for each hearing. Because the court translation office advanced the interpretation fee. I am very grateful to the judge for his understanding and kindness in signing the "Order to Procedure in Forma Pauperis" for me for two consecutive years.

Sincerely

Ruorong Yu
