It is the Order of the Board that Parole is GRANTED. The effective date of parole is: When Eligible.

Release to the community or to a consecutive sentence is authorized on the above specified date. If "when eligible" is indicated, release is authorized on or after the date of this hearing upon attaining minimum eligibility, as determined by the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC).

You are expected to program and/or work constructively regardless of institutional setting, and you are expected to abide by the rules of the NDOC. Failure to work and/or program constructively, or violation of the rules of the NDOC may result in the rescission of this order and denial of parole.

NOTE: A parolee who violates a condition of his or her parole forfeits all or part of the credits for good behavior earned by the parolee after release on parole at the discretion of the Board. A parolee whose parole is revoked for having violated a condition of parole forfeits all credits for good behavior previously earned to reduce his or her sentence pursuant to NRS 209. The Board may restore any forfeited credits at its discretion.

THIS ACTION APPLIES TO THE FOLLOWING SENTENCE(S):

*Controlling sentence denoted by , Case #: Count: Offense Description:

C-14-299737-1;2;CHILD ABUSE W/SBH
C-14-299737-1;3;CHILD ABUSE W/SBH
C-14-299737-1;1;CHILD ABUSE W/SBH

Reason(s) for action:

Grant Reason: There is community and/or family support.

Grant Reason: The inmate has no prior or minimal criminal conviction history.

Grant Reason: The parole guideline recommends that parole be granted, and there are no serious reasons to deviate from the guideline recommendation.

Recommendation of the panel who conducted the hearing: Grant Parole

Commissioner Donna Verchio; Deny Parole

Commissioner Lancia Bailey; Grant Parole

The final action was ratified by the following Members of the Board of Parole Commissioners:

Commissioner Lancia Bailey; Grant Parole

Commissioner Donna Verchio; Deny Parole

Commissioner Eric Christiansen; Deny Parole

Commissioner Susan Jackson; Deny Parole

Commissioner Tony Corda; Grant Parole

Commissioner Mary Baker; Grant Parole

Chairman Christopher Dericco; Grant Parole

The following conditions apply to all active parole cases supervised in the community, including any previously granted sentences not specified on this Order of which these conditions replace and supersede.

- * You must complete a Mental Health assessment within 30 days of release from NDOC. Participate in treatment as instructed until released by a qualified treatment provider.
- * Directives: You shall follow the rules of the Division of Parole and Probation to include the following:
 - * A. You shall not change your place of residence without first obtaining permission from the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * B. You shall report in person to the Division of Parole and Probation as instructed by the Division or its agent. You shall submit a written report each month on forms supplied by the Division. This report shall be true and correct in all respects.
 - * C. You shall seek and maintain legal employment, or maintain a program approved by the Division of Parole and Probation and not change such employment or program without first obtaining permission. All terminations of employment or program shall be immediately reported to the Division.
 - * D. You shall pay any court ordered restitution by making payments until the balance is paid in full. The minimum monthly payment shall be established by dividing the balance owed at the time of release on parole by the number of projected months to be served on parole. If, after dividing the total restitution owed by the number of projected months to be served on parole the monthly payment is equal to an amount less than $50, the monthly payment shall be $50 until the balance is paid in full.
 - * E. Pay all applicable fines and fees on a schedule determined by the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * F. You shall not leave the state without first obtaining written permission from the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * G. You shall not associate with convicted felons, persons who are engaged in criminal activity, or other persons with whom your supervising officer instructs you not to associate.
 - * H. You shall follow all the directives of your assigned Parole Officer.
 - * I. You shall satisfy any outstanding warrants within 90 days of your release from custody.
- * Controlled substances: You shall not use, purchase or possess any illegal drugs, or any prescription drugs, unless first prescribed by a licensed medical professional. You shall immediately notify the Division of Parole and Probation of any prescription received. You shall refrain from the use and possession of any synthetic/designer drug or any mind and/or body altering substance. You shall submit to drug testing as required by the Division or its agent.
- * Recreational Marijuana: You shall not purchase, consume or have under your control marijuana in any form, except when such use is prescribed for use as a medicine in accordance with the provisions of chapter 453A of NRS.
- * Intoxicants: You shall not purchase, consume or have under your control any alcohol beverage, unless specifically permitted by special condition of the Board. Upon the direction of the Division of Parole and Probation or other peace officer, you shall submit to a medically recognized test for blood/breath content.
- * Weapons: You shall not possess, have access to, or have under your control, any type of weapon unless the item is used in conjunction with the duties of legitimate employment and has been approved in writing by the Division of Parole and Probation or its agent.
- * Laws: You shall comply with all institutional rules, municipal, county, state, and federal laws and ordinances.
- * Conduct: You shall comply with all the provisions stated on the parole agreement and your conduct shall justify the opportunity granted to you by this community supervision.
- * No Victim Contact: You may not contact or communicate with the victim or any person directly and proximately harmed by the commission of a criminal offense under any law of this State, or solicit another person to contact or communicate on your behalf with the victim or any person directly and proximately harmed by the commission of a criminal offense under any law of this State unless approved in writing by the Division of Parole and Probation.

Parole Agreement

EXHIBIT B

State of Nevada
Board of Parole Commissioners
PAROLE AGREEMENT

DWIGHT SOLANDER was sentenced in the State of Nevada to imprisonment in the Nevada Department of Corrections for the crime of CT. I, II, III-CHILD ABUSE WITH SUBSTANTIAL BODILY HARM. The Board of Parole Commissioners, by virtue of the authority vested in it by the laws of the State of Nevada, hereby authorizes the Director of the Department of Corrections to allow said DWIGHT SOLANDER on the 26TH day of FEBRUARY, 2021, or as soon thereafter as a satisfactory program can be arranged and approved by the Division of Parole and Probation, to go upon parole outside the prison buildings and enclosure, subject to the following conditions:

Parole Conditions

- * You must complete a Mental Health assessment within 30 days of release from NDOC. Participate in treatment as instructed until released by a qualified treatment provider.
- * Directives: You shall follow the rules of the Division of Parole and Probation to include the following:
 - * A. You shall not change your place of residence without first obtaining permission from the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * B. You shall report in person to the Division of Parole and Probation as instructed by the Division or its agent. You shall submit a written report each month on forms supplied by the Division. This report shall be true and correct in all respects.
 - * C. You shall seek and maintain legal employment, or maintain a program approved by the Division of Parole and Probation and not change such employment or program without first obtaining permission. All terminations of employment or program shall be immediately reported to the Division.
 - * D. You shall pay any court ordered restitution by making payments until the balance is paid in full. The minimum monthly payment shall be established by dividing the balance owed at the time of release on parole by the number of projected months to be served on parole. If, after dividing the total restitution owed by the number of projected months to be served on parole the monthly payment is equal to an amount less than $50, the monthly payment shall be $50 until the balance is paid in full.
 - * E. Pay all applicable fines and fees on a schedule determined by the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * F. You shall not leave the state without first obtaining written permission from the Division of Parole and Probation.
 - * G. You shall not associate with convicted felons, persons who are engaged in criminal activity, or other persons with whom your supervising officer instructs you not to associate.
 - * H. You shall follow all the directives of your assigned Parole Officer.
 - * I. You shall satisfy any outstanding warrants within 90 days of your release from custody.
- * Controlled substances: You shall not use, purchase or possess any illegal drugs, or any prescription drugs, unless first prescribed by a licensed medical professional. You shall immediately notify the Division of Parole and Probation of any prescription received. You shall refrain from the use and possession of any synthetic/designer drug or any mind and/or body altering substance. You shall submit to drug testing as required by the Division or its agent.
- * Recreational Marijuana: You shall not purchase, consume or have under your control marijuana in any form, except when such use is prescribed for use as a medicine in accordance with the provisions of chapter 453A of NRS.
- * Intoxicants: You shall not purchase, consume or have under your control any alcohol beverage, unless specifically permitted by special condition of the Board. Upon the direction of the Division of Parole and Probation or other peace officer, you shall submit to a medically recognized test for blood/breath content.
- * Weapons: You shall not possess, have access to, or have under your control, any type of weapon unless the item is used in conjunction with the duties of legitimate employment and has been approved in writing by the Division of Parole and Probation or its agent.
- * Laws: You shall comply with all institutional rules, municipal, county, state, and federal laws and ordinances.
- * Conduct: You shall comply with all the provisions stated on the parole agreement and your conduct shall justify the opportunity granted to you by this community supervision.
- * No Victim Contact: You may not contact or communicate with the victim or any person directly and proximately harmed by the commission of a criminal offense under any law of this State, or solicit another person to contact or communicate on your behalf with the victim or any person directly and proximately harmed by the commission of a criminal offense under any law of this State unless approved in writing by the Division of Parole and Probation.

Credits: You shall receive no credit on this sentence during any period of time that you are absent from supervision and deemed to be an absconder. The projected parole expiration date is based upon the assumption that you will earn the maximum number of credits available to be earned while on parole. If you fail to work and/or program diligently, fail to keep current with any payments toward restitution and supervision fees or fail to comply with the terms of parole, you may not receive the additional credits off your sentence that have been projected on this document. The Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) is responsible for calculating and applying credits to the sentences of inmates and parolees. The projected parole expiration date on this document is subject to change based on credit earnings and/or adjustments as determined by the NDOC. Credits for good time earned on parole may be forfeited if you are found guilty of a violation. Pursuant to NRS 213.15185, all good time credits previously earned to reduce your sentence are forfeited upon revocation of parole.

This parole is granted to and accepted by you, subject to the conditions stated herein, and with the knowledge that the Board of Parole Commissioners has the power, at any time, in case of violation of the conditions of parole to cause your detention and/or return to prison.

Your Projected Parole Expiration Date based on maximum credit earning is: 08/24/2023.
