3               THE COURT: So, Counsel in D.O.T., what we're going
4 to do, if you don't mind, what we're going to do is we're going
5 to ask you to come one by one to the podium to make your 6 appearances. For those of you who used to do CD or other
7 cases, this shouldn't be a new process. That way we can hear
8 your appearances clearly, and then we can argue the motions.

9               And as you know, we're going to do, if you all agreed
10 upon the order of the motions, then we'll do your order. If 11 not, the Court's going to pick an order. So if you don't mind, 12 since people are...

13              So would you all like to begin with doing your 14 appearances, please. But let me call the case number first if 15 you don't mind. Thank you so very much.

16              In Re: D.O.T. --

17              Counsel, I need to start to have them make 18 appearances. So if you don't mind, please no chatting right 19 now. Thank you so very much. So we can get you taken care of.
20 Do appreciate it.

21              In Re: D.O.T. Litigation, Case 787004, 22 pages 3 through 30.

23              Counsel, if you don't mind just doing your 24 appearances, appreciate it.

25              MR. SCHWARZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Joel Schwarz

1 and Eric Hone on behalf of defendant Lone Mountain Partners.

2 MR. ROSE: Good morning. Christopher Rose, 7500, for 3 Wellness Connection of Nevada.

4 MR. WOLPERT: Good morning, Your Honor. Leo Wolpert,
5 Bar Number 12658, on behalf of GreenMart of Nevada NLV, LLC.

6 MR. GUTIERREZ: Good morning, Your Honor. Joseph
7 Gutierrez on behalf of CPCM Holdings, LLC, Cheyenne Medical, 8 LLC, and Commerce Park Medical, LLC.

9 THE COURT: Counsel. Counsel. I've got to ask you
10 again, please they're making appearances, and then you're 11 talking and laughing. You can appreciate we can't hear the 12 appearances. Second time. Please. Thank you.

13 Would you mind --

14 THE COURT RECORDER: I got it. Mr. Gutierrez.

15 THE COURT: You heard it. Okay.

16 MR. GUTIERREZ: You got it. Thank you.

17 THE COURT RECORDER: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead, please.

19 MS. SMITH: Good morning, Your Honor. Stephanie 20 Smith on behalf of Natural Medicine.

21 MR. RULIS: Good morning, Your Honor. Nate Rulis on 22 behalf of plaintiffs MM Development Company and LivFree
23 Wellness.

24 THE CLERK: And, sir, what is your bar number?

25 MR. RULIS: 11259.

1 THE CLERK: He's on here. Okay. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: Thank you. We have a wonderful clerk
3 helping us out today. So bar numbers are also helpful just in 4 case if you don't mind.

5 MR. PARKER: No worries, Your Honor. Teddy Parker on 6 behalf of Nevada Wellness Center.

7 THE CLERK: We have you. Thank you.

8 MR. PARKER: Perfect. Thank you.

9 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Good morning, Your Honor. Pete
10 Christiansen on behalf of Qualcan. You have my Bar Number 11 5254.

12 THE COURT: Yeah. If they don't have it, they just 13 may need to ask you all. Thank you so much. Go ahead, please.

14 MR. BECKSTROM: Good morning, Your Honor. James
15 Beckstrom, 14032 on behalf of ETW Management, Global Harmony,
16 Just Quality, Libra River (as said) Center, Rombough Real
17 Estate and Zion Gardens.

18 THE COURT: Thank you. Go ahead, please.

19 MR. GRAF: Good morning, Your Honor. Rusty Graf on 20 behalf of Clear River. 6322.

21 MS. HIGGINS: Good morning, Your Honor. Brigid
22 Higgins, also on behalf of Clear River, LLC, Bar Number 5910.

23 THE CLERK: 59- ?

24 MS. HIGGINS: One zero.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay. So remotely.

1           Madam Court Recorder, can you go to the top of the 2 chat. What I'm going to do is I'm just going to say their name
3 and ask them to make their appearances on behalf of their name
4 and their parties, okay, straight from the chat.

5           THE COURT RECORDER: Yep.

6           THE COURT: That way we've got it in the same order.
7 That should be helpful. Okay.

8           So Mr. Dzarnoski, I'm just doing it in the order that 9 you checked in the chat. So if you all put your chats on on 10 your end, right, and remember, everyone's got to be 11 audiovisual. This Court only approved for audiovisual. Please
12 feel free to read the order. If you're not audiovisual, you
13 don't exist unless you're a member of the public, and then 14 you're more than welcome.

15           MR. DZARNOSKI: Yes. Good morning, Your Honor. Mark
16 Dzarnoski, Bar Number 3398 on behalf of the TGIG plaintiffs.

17           THE COURT: Thank you.

18           Mr. Rich.

19           MR. RICH: Good morning, Your Honor. Jonathan Rich, 20 Bar Number 15312 on behalf of defendant Jorge Pupo.

21           THE COURT: Thank you.

22           Williamson.

23           MR. WILLIAMSON: Good morning, Your Honor. Richard 24 Williamson on behalf of defendant Deep Roots Harvest, Inc., Bar
25 Number 9932.

1 THE COURT: Appreciate it.

2 Madam Court Recorder, can you move up the chat a
3 little bit so I can see the next series of names. Thank you so
4 much.

5 Hold on a second.

6 (Pause in the proceedings.)

7 THE COURT: Mr. Newby.

8 MR. NEWBY: Good morning, Your Honor. Craig Newby on 9 behalf of the Department of Taxation and its Cannabis
10 Compliance Board. 8591 is my bar number.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 And then we get to Mr. Slater.

13 MR. SLATER: Good morning. Craig Slater, Bar
14 Number 8667, on behalf of Clark Natural Medicinal Solutions,
15 Nye Natural Medicinal Solutions, Clark NMSD and Inyo Fine
16 Cannabis Dispensary.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 (Pause in the proceedings.)

19 THE COURT: Ms. Sugden and then Mr. --

20 Go ahead.

21 MS. SUGDEN: Good morning, Your Honor. Amy Sugden, 22 Bar Number 9983, on behalf of THC Nevada, LLC.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Mr. Donath, please.

25 (No audible response.)

JD Reporting, Inc.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Donath, I see your name in the chat,
2 but I do not hear anybody --

3 THE COURT RECORDER: He's up there in the far left.
4 He's muted.

5 THE COURT: Maybe did you meet yourself, Counsel?

6 MR. KAHN: I'm sorry. Was that Mr. Khan?

7 THE COURT: We're going to go to Mr. Kahn, and then
8 we'll go back to Mr. Donath.

9 Mr. Kahn, please.

10 MR. KAHN: Thank you. Jared Kahn on behalf of 11 Helping Hands Wellness Center, 12603.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Gamble.

13 MR. GAMBLE: Yes, Your Honor. Clarence Gamble on 14 behalf of Rural Remedies, Bar Number 4268.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Puzey.

16 MR. PUZEY: This is Jim Puzey on behalf of High
17 Sierra Holistics, LLC, State Bar 5745.

18 Mr. Scow.

19 MR. SCOW: Good morning, Your Honor. Steven Scow, 20 9906 for Nevada Organic Remedies.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Donath, were you able to get 22 that fixed? Can we do you, or should I keep going?

23 (No audible response.)

24 THE COURT: It looks like he needs another minute.
25 So then we can keep going down.

1 THE COURT RECORDER: That's the end of it.

2 THE COURT: That's the end of it.

3 Okay. Mr. Donath, do want to put your appearance --
4 are you having --

5 THE COURT RECORDER: He is in the chat.

6 THE COURT: You're in the chat. Well, if you're 7 planning on speaking today, you need to get your audio fixed,
8 but --

9 MR. DONATH: Your Honor, can you hear me?

10 THE COURT: There we go. Would you like to make your 11 appearance?

12 MR. DONATH: Your Honor, this is Nick Donath. Can 13 you hear me?

14 THE COURT: We can now. Thank you.

15 MR. DONATH: I'm so sorry. My unmute button froze.

16 Nick Donath, 13106, on behalf of Green Leaf Farms
17 Holdings, LLC, Green Therapeutics, LLC, NevCANN, LLC, and Red 18 Earth, LLC. Thank you very much.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 Mr. Bice, you just popped up in the chat. Go ahead,
21 please.

22 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor. I apologize for not 23 being in the chat. Todd Bice on behalf of the Essence parties,
24 and also on is Jordan Smith on behalf of the Essence parties.

25 MR. J. SMITH: Good morning, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Has everyone else had an opportunity? We went 3 through everyone in the chat. So anybody else who did not put 4 their name in the chat?

5 (No audible response.)

6 THE COURT: Okay. So we're moving on.

7 So I do appreciate, like I said, sorry we would have
8 liked to have gotten you started. I should've started you
9 around 8:40. Calendar calls usually take about 10 minutes to 10 get the docs and move on.

11 Friendly reminder, if anyone might have upcoming 12 trials this is supposed to be easy things. Please read the 13 trial orders in 2.673 and 2.69. It's actually easy.

14 In any event, that being said, do you all have a
15 request on who's going next? Because I know we got started,
16 but we did not obviously get to everyone. Remember I asked you
17 that last time; if you all had a particular order, we would do
18 it.

19 MR. ROSE: Your Honor, Chris Rose, for the record. I
20 haven't spoken to anyone. As the Court knows from the first 21 hearing, it ruled on the motion to retax as to the Essence
22 parties.

23 THE COURT: Correct.

24 MR. ROSE: It seems to make sense to me, since 25 Essence is a nonsettling defendant --

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. ROSE: -- it would seem to make sense --

3 THE COURT: Do you want to go next?

4 MR. ROSE: Yeah. I think it makes sense to proceed
5 with the nonsettling defendants and those costs.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I mean, that seems to make the 7 most practical sense to the Court as well, because you all have 8 some similarity potentially of arguments and responses.

9 Any reason not to, Mr. Rulis?

10 MR. RULIS: Hang on.

11 THE COURT: Oh, sorry.

12 MR. RULIS: Your Honor, Nate Rulis for the record.

13 I generally agree with what Mr. Rose proposed. I
14 would go a step further and actually say, as far as parties go,
15 I would propose we go Wellness Connection, Deep Roots --

16 THE COURT: Okay. Hold on a second. Remember I can 17 write so fast, but go ahead. Wellness Connection, Deep Roots, 18 and then what?

19 MR. RULIS: Clear River.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone dis -- let me just do a --

21 MR. RULIS: And then there are other ones after that,
22 but I then don't have an interest in. I think it's Lone
23 Mountain, Thrive --

24 THE COURT: Well, let's get through the first three,
25 and then we'll --

1           Anyone disagree with that order? Silence is 2 acquiescence.

3                               (No audible response.)

4           THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Rose, you're up. And 5 remember, particularly since we have this very large number of 6 people -- welcome, of course -- please do restate your name and 7 your parties right before you argue.

8           MR. RULIS: And, Your Honor, sorry, before Mr. Rose
9 starts, I just want to make sure -- it is our motion to retax.
10 So I want to make sure we get the last word.

11          THE COURT: Well, that's what -- but the way you had 12 wanted it before --

13          MR. RULIS: Understood.

14          THE COURT: I'm sorry. But good point. The Court
15 was basing it on at the hearing in which the arguments went on 16 for Essence that you kind of wanted them to go first and then 17 be able to respond. If you want it in the standard motion to 18 retax format so that you would go first, then they would go,
19 and then you would go last in light of you already have the 20 benefit of hearing some of the arguments, and the Court is fine
21 with that as well, because I want to make sure you get your 22 proper format.

23               If you wish Mr. Rose to go first, he's standing at 24 the podium. It's really up to you all. What do you want?

25          MR. RULIS: We can shortcut. And that's -- we can

1 continue with the same pattern. I just wanted to make sure we 2 were on the same page, that as the moving party we got the last 3 word.

4 THE COURT: You do. And you can have the first and
5 last word if you want it because you're the moving party. Do
6 want to first and last? Do you want Mr. Rose to go first?

7 MR. PARKER: Your Honor, we're fine with him going 8 first, and we'll take -- we'll bat clean up.

9 THE COURT: Sounds good. Just don't be the Dodgers
10 this year. Go ahead. That would be postseason, not 11 (indiscernible) regular season.

12 But go ahead, Counsel.

13 MR. ROSE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Oh, and thank you. Since we have a 15 wonderful clerk helping us out today, in fairness to her, can 16 you also state the name of your motion when you speak so we 17 just get it clearly for your record.

18 MR. ROSE: Yes.

19 THE COURT: It's not your motion. It's technically 20 your motion -- you know what, Luisa just raised a very good 21 point. You know what, sorry, Mr. Rose. I have to have 22 Mr. Rulis first because we have to have the, quote, the motion
23 first in order for your record, in order to get these clarified
24 because of the number.

25 MR. ROSE: Your Honor, I'm fine with however the

1 Court would prefer to proceed.

2 THE COURT: You can stay a podium. Mr. Rulis is 3 staying near counsel table. Or if he wants to bump you from 4 the podium...

5 MR. RULIS: That works.

6 MR. ROSE: I'll take a seat.

7 MR. RULIS: Thank you.

8 MR. ROSE: You can stand where you are.

9 MR. RULIS: I'm hemmed in a little bit anyway.

10 THE COURT: Okay. You can sit down, stand up,
11 whatever makes you comfortable. Because remember people
12 remotely are sitting down. So feel free to sit down, stand up, 13 whatever makes you comfortable.

14 Go ahead, Counsel.

15 MR. RULIS: Appreciate that, Your Honor. Nate Rulis
16 on behalf of MM and LivFree, and it is the nonsettling -- or 17 excuse me, the settling plaintiff's motion to retax and settle 18 costs regarding Wellness Connection of Nevada, LLC, that was 19 filed on August 12th at 8:14 p.m.

20 THE COURT: Thank you so much for all of that.
21 Appreciate it. Go ahead.

22 MR. RULIS: And I think -- so Wellness Connection has 23 a specific issue that I think needs to be addressed.

24 THE COURT: He would have no idea what document 25 numbers are.

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Oh, okay.

2 MR. RULIS: Sorry. I had them at one point. I don't
3 have that specifically in front of me, and I apologize.

4 But there is one specific issue that we do need to 5 address with Wellness Connection I think before we get into the 6 meat of the costs that are being requested, and that is 7 Wellness Connection has also separately filed a notice of 8 appeal in the interim after filing their memo of costs. And 9 the reason that I think that becomes an issue is because in 10 their notice of appeal, which was filed on September 2nd at 11 1:56 p.m., they specifically appeal the prior orders of the 12 Court relating to motions for fees, but also the order granting 13 motions to retax, including prior motions to retax as it
14 relates to Wellness's costs. And so we had --

15 THE COURT: So that appeal, contrary to the general
16 rule of fees and costs, separate appealable order that still 17 can be done by a District Court, even pending appeal, you're 18 saying interrelates here because of the overlap with other fees
19 and costs? Is that what --

20 MR. RULIS: I believe that is an issue, Your Honor, 21 yes, because they have specifically appealed motions to retax,
22 and that's what we're here to deal with, and I believe that 23 they had -- and Mr. Rose can correct me if I'm wrong. I
24 believe they filed, or at least they've conveyed to the 25 settlement Judge at the Supreme Court that they'd like to get

1 this resolved first, but there is an issue, and it may be
2 that --

3 THE COURT: Which this? Which this? I'm sorry,
4 which this is this?

5 MR. RULIS: Fair, Your Honor. The Wellness
6 Connection costs is that Wellness Connection would like to 7 proceed with a decision on their costs here before moving
8 forward on anything on their specific appeal. I think just as 9 far as jurisdictional issues, if Your Honor is going to move
10 forward on a decision on Wellness Connection's costs, then it
11 may be that we are also required to go through the Huneycutt
12 procedure, which wasn't previously addressed in part because 13 the notice of appeal wasn't filed until after the motion was 14 filed.

15 THE COURT: All right. Huneycutt and its progeny
16 were what the Court has -- Nevada Supreme Court has modified 17 and given some clarification with regards to Huneycutt, and 18 then you've got the -- okay.

19 So let me at least give you a minute or two to 20 discuss that so we don't get side railed with everybody else on 21 what you are requesting the Court to rule on today and how 22 that -- if you think that does or does not impact your pending
23 appeal, but the shorter version versus the substantive if you
24 don't mind. Thanks.

25 MR. ROSE: Yes, Your Honor. Chris Rose, 7500 for

1 Wellness Connection.

2           Clearly, what the Court has before it today, clearly
3 does not affect our appeal. I understand why Mr. Rulis is 4 mentioning these issues; none of them have been briefed. But 5 here's the issue, and Mr. Bice in the original argument really 6 cleaned this issue up.

7           After the trial two years ago, we were -- there might 8 have been another party, I'm not sure, but I think we were one
9 of if not the only party in 2020 to file a memorandum of costs.
10 We also filed a motion for attorneys' fees.

11           What we are appealing is the denial -- or actually 12 the grant of those motions to retax. And, as Mr. Bice already 13 explained to the Court, Mr. Bice presented you a copy of the 14 order. I've got another copy if the Court would like it.

15           Here's what the Court did back in 2020. It said the 16 award of costs is premature because there's not a final
17 judgment. I'm paraphrasing. Final judgment will be issued.
18 This decision -- and so it granted the motion to retax, and we 19 were not allowed to recover costs in 2020. And I quote, "This 20 decision is without prejudice to seek recovery of costs at the 21 time of the final judgment." I just read from the order filed
22 August 30th, 2021 at 9:39 a.m.

23           So, Your Honor, we appealed that order because we 24 didn't want to lose our rights to appeal it, but because there
25 have been new memorandums of costs filed and new motions to

1     retax, the Court's free to proceed and rule on these issues to 2     grant us our costs, to deny the motions to retax, and it would 3     render this moot.

4             And, as Judge Gonzalez ordered, we are allowed to do
5     exactly what we did, which was to file -- to refile our 6     memorandum of costs after the final judgment was issued.

7             There's no Huneycutt issue here, Your Honor. So I
8     believe the Court -- I understand Mr. Rulis raised the issue.
9     There's no issue for us as far as what we're asking for. We 10    think we're entitled to our costs. Judge Gonzalez in her 2020
11    order ordered that we could seek costs at a later date, which 12    we did. They are now trying to retax, and that's the issue
13    before the Court. There's nothing, including our appeal,
14    there's nothing that prevents the Court from going forward.

15            And, as the Court knows, when a final judgment has 16    been entered, it can make rulings about costs and attorneys'
17    fees, and that's what's before the Court. So if they don't --

18            THE COURT: Unless it's otherwise already before the 19    appellate court, but, yeah. Unless it's already before the 20    appellate court.

21            MR. ROSE: Well, what's before the appellate court is 22    the appeal of the prior order, not any appeal regarding any of 23    the issues relating to our memorandum of costs just filed
24    recently. So completely separate issues.

25            THE COURT: Then from a pure chronological

1 standpoint, the Court's going to have a real quick question.
2 Is chronology -- you don't disagree; right? August 12th was 3 the motion to retax against your client, and then the appeal is 4 September. Is that correct or incorrect?

5 MR. ROSE: I would have to double check the date that 6 we filed the appeal, but if Mr. Rulis is representing those 7 dates, I don't have any dispute.

8 THE COURT: And you said September 2nd; did you
9 not?

10 MR. RULIS: Your Honor, Nate Rulis for the record.
11 Yeah, September 2nd, at 1:56 p.m.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. ROSE: So it would have been a timely appeal
14 based on when the final judgment was entered.

15 THE COURT: I'm not -- my question was more from a 16 chronological standpoint. Here, if costs are raised in your 17 appeal, and they postdate the date of the motion to retax
18 costs, and the intervening order from Judge Gonzalez, which was 19 August 30th, that still would predate your appeal. So if 20 you're the master of your appeal, are you saying the appeal
21 does not address costs at all? I mean, the chronology I
22 understood, right, is August 12th motion -- well, memorandum
23 of costs. You did one in 2020. You did another one in 2022;
24 correct?

25 MR. ROSE: Correct.

1 THE COURT: That's what I show.

2 MR. ROSE: Correct.

3 THE COURT: And then I show August 12th is the 4 motion to retax. The motion to retax pretty much addressing
5 the most recent -- but then you have, in the interim time
6 period, you have the pending motion before Judge Gonzalez that 7 she ruled on August 30th that -- wait. August 30th of 8 2021, what's the date of that order, 2021 or '19?

9 MR. ROSE: August 30th of 2021.

10 THE COURT: 2021.

11 MR. ROSE: That the rulings were made, I believe in 12 2020, and the plaintiffs entered the orders later on in 2021,
13 but the rulings, Your Honor, on appeal pertain to the 14 memorandum of costs filed in 2020.

15 THE COURT: Before you had the -- but you had it 16 after you had already the order saying that it was without 17 prejudice; correct?

18 Okay. I'm sorry. What's the year of the appeal?
19 Was it 2021 or 2020?

20 MR. ROSE: No. Your Honor, let me give the Court the 21 chronology.

22 THE COURT: Yeah. Because your dates aren't making
23 sense as I'm -- okay. Go ahead.

24 MR. ROSE: Here's the chronology, and I won't give 25 specific month or dates, but in 2020, we filed our memorandum

1 of costs.

2 THE COURT: Right.

3 MR. ROSE: In 2020, certain plaintiffs also filed
4 motions to retax those costs.

5 THE COURT: Correct. That's the order for August 30,
6 2021; correct?

7 MR. ROSE: The order granting the motion to recosts,
8 (as said) was filed August 30th, 2021, saying that we could 9 refile our costs, memorandum of costs at a letter date.

10 THE COURT: Right.

11 MR. ROSE: After the final judgment was entered in 12 this case, just a few months ago, we filed our memorandum of 13 costs. That was filed August 9th, 2022, completely different 14 memorandum of costs. It's not the memorandum of costs that was 15 at issue in the prior ruling and the prior motions.

16 And then the plaintiffs filed their motion to retax.

17 THE COURT: August 12th.

18 MR. ROSE: Correct.

19 THE COURT: And then September 2nd, you filed your 20 appeal 2022.

21 MR. ROSE: Yeah. And again, I don't have the 22 specific date, but we filed our appeal within 30 days, but that 23 appeal is at the denial of costs and attorneys' fees that we 24 sought in 2020. They're unrelated to what's pending before the 25 Court.

1 THE COURT: The denial, slash, it wasn't yet ripe
2 ruling?

3 MR. ROSE: That's exactly right.

4 THE COURT: So it's not to any substantive costs. It
5 was just to the fact that it wasn't ripe? That's the 6 structure -- that's what I'm trying to get, because the bottom
7 line is I can appreciate your costs may be different, but 8 there's going to be an overlap because you don't have new 9 dollars, trial -- I'll say new discovery dollars. Make my life
10 easy; right? You don't have new discovery dollars that all of 11 a sudden pop up between August 30th, 2021, and today; right?
12 Or August 12th, 2022, in the motion to retax. So those 13 aren't new discovery dollars. So there's no overlap.

14 But you're saying your appeal is to the decision that 15 it was not ripe and it has nothing to do with the underlying 16 dollars and the costs that would overlap with what's before the 17 Court today. That's really -- that's where I'm seeing a 18 distinction between what you may be arguing, Mr. Rulis is 19 arguing because if it's an overlap of the dollars, right, if 20 your appeal is not only that Judge Gonzalez said that her 21 denial was by saying it's not ripe also denied you somehow the 22 dollars, discovery dollars, make my life easy, right, discovery
23 dollars substantively, then there's a Huneycutt analysis.

24 If your appeal doesn't, it always disagrees with the 25 decision that it is not yet ripe, and there, quote, therefore

1 was no -- nothing on the merits and doesn't impact discovery
2 dollars. Again, once again, that's my easy example, then there
3 isn't likely a Huneycutt analysis.

4 So that's where I'm trying to get the framework
5 correct on what you each are asserting.

6 MR. ROSE: Understood. And I can tell you the appeal
7 is only of the Court's order that our memorandum of costs was 8 premature. It's a procedural issue. It never took --

9 THE COURT: Procedure, no substance. Okay.

10 MR. ROSE: Yeah, the Court never reached whether we 11 were entitled to costs, what the costs were, whether they were 12 reasonable. All the Court did was say this should not have 13 been filed at this point. You can refile later. So it's 14 purely a procedural issue, and for that reason doesn't affect 15 anything the Court --

16 THE COURT: Mr. Rulis, do you agree that the -- the 17 master of the appeal says that their appeal only covers that 18 procedural determination. Basically it's a not ripe yet
19 decision, or it's a denied without prejudice because there's no
20 final judgment. It's procedural; it's not substance. So if 21 there's not an overlap with what's before the Court today, so
22 therefore there's no Huneycutt analysis, or do you have a
23 different opinion?

24 MR. RULIS: Well, Your Honor -- Nate Rulis for the 25 record.

1 I guess I appreciate Mr. Rose is saying that. From 2 what I've seen of the appellate documents, I can't make that
3 determination. I just -- what I have is the notice of appeal
4 that specifically says they're appealing the order granting
5 motions to retax that includes the granting of TGIG plaintiff's
6 motion to retax Wellness's memorandum of costs, and ETW
7 plaintiff's motion to retax Wellness's memorandum of costs
8 entered on August 30, 2021, which is attached.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Circle back to that order. Does
10 that grant the motion to retax, or does that just say
11 procedurally it grants it because procedurally it's not ripe
12 before it? Okay?

13 MR. RULIS: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Well, here's what the Court is 15 going to do. The Court is going to do -- I've got a
16 representation --

17 MR. DZARNOSKI: Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: Sorry. Who wants to speak that's trying 19 to speak? Go ahead.

20 MR. DZARNOSKI: Yes. This is Mark Dzarnoski, Your 21 Honor. We also filed a motion to retax Wellness Connection, 22 and I would like to be addressed on this one issue.

23 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead, please.

24 MR. DZARNOSKI: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 Unfortunately or the counsel is only referring or so

1 far have only referred to one of the orders that is subject to
2 the notice of appeal. The notice of appeal specifically
3 references several orders, one of which was in connection with 4 a Wellness Connection of Nevada filing a motion for attorney
5 fees wherein they are -- and this was on October 13th of 6 2020, and therein they argue that they were entitled to their 7 attorney fees in part because they were a prevailing party.
8 And so the issue of prevailing party was presented not only in 9 the motion to retax that they are discussing now, but it was 10 also presented in the motion for attorney fees and costs.

11 The Judge Gonzalez, by order dated August 27th of 12 2021, issued an order denying the motion for attorney fees.
13 And in that order there was a substantive determination.

14 And I will read directly from the order of 8/27/2021:
15 Quote, Plaintiff's claims were brought with 16 reasonable basis. Other applicants like Wellness Connection of 17 Nevada, LLC, were joined as a result of motion practice brought 18 related to joinder issues on the petition for judicial review
19 claim. Wellness Connection of Nevada, LLC, does not satisfy
20 the analysis for a prevailing party under these circumstances.

21 The notice of appeal filed on September 2nd appeals
22 directly that order which substantively has entered a ruling
23 not only that is applicable to Wellness Connection, but it's 24 also by implication and by the words used by Judge Gonzalez
25 applicable to the other applicants who would join solely for

1 purposes of the judicial review claim.

2           So what we've got is a situation where as of 3 September 2nd, after we filed our motion to retax, the appeal
4 occurred, which in our opinion, divested the Court of 5 jurisdiction to consider matters that were related to the 6 issues that are presented in the current motion, that the rule
7 as set forth in Bongiovi vs. Bongiovi, 94 NEV 321 (1978), is 8 that unless the issue before the District Court is entirely
9 collateral to and independent from that part of the case taken
10 up by appeal, then subject matter jurisdiction no longer lies.

11           And I would suggest to the Court that not only does
12 the issue of prevailing party, as ruled upon by Judge Gonzalez
13 and is now on appeal, not only does it bar or take away
14 jurisdiction for Wellness Connection's claims here until the 15 appeal is resolved, but it also does as to all others similarly 16 situated applicants, and so there is a substantive order, and I
17 think you need to look at the notice of appeal as to the orders 18 for both the motion for attorney fees and the motion for 19 retaxing.

20           And if you look at them both together, I believe that 21 you do have a Huneycutt issue.

22           Thank you.

23           MR. ROSE: Your Honor, may I address this?

24           THE COURT: Okay. You get two minutes because I've 25 got everyone else that's got to get taken care of; right?

1 MR. ROSE: Well, you can see why the plaintiffs don't 2 want to get the issue -- to the issue of costs. This has 3 already been addressed. As Mr. Bice pointed out last time,
4 they raised this argument about Judge Gonzalez's order. They 5 don't want to talk about the cost. They want to talk about our 6 request for attorneys' fees, which is completely unrelated to 7 what we're here to talk about.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to tell you where the Court's
9 going. The short answer is that order on 8/27, Document 2750,
10 is attorneys' fees. It doesn't say cost by its nature. The 11 motion before the Court for that order was attorneys' fees
12 only. The analysis was on a PJR for attorneys' fees only.
13 This is not a situation where you have an overlap with a 68 or 14 an old seventeen, one, one, five, et cetera, whatever; however, 15 you'd like to go.

16 The Court is not going to take a determination solely 17 on an attorneys' fees motion based on that attorneys' fee
18 motion being the sole issue before the Court, which is now this 19 Court -- because first it was 11. Just add 20. Now it's 31,
20 okay. That it applies to the cost, because as you all know,
21 there's different sources for costs versus attorneys' fees.
22 There' are different case law: Cadle vs. Woods and Erickson,
23 In Re Dish Network, Bobby Berosini, hypothetically on costs, 24 Brunzell on attorneys' fees. I'm not saying that those are 25 exhaustive.

1 But this -- are separate case law. So the statutory
2 basis on costs versus on attorneys' fees, this is not an issue
3 that's been presented to this Court that is one of those 4 overlap situations. The order on its face is clear. Motion
5 for attorneys' fees and that that ruling was on regards to the 6 motion for attorneys' fees.

7 Interestingly enough, a couple days later, there's a
8 motion on costs. If they were interrelated, it would have been 9 a crossover, cross-reference or wouldn't -- it said one has a
10 substantive ruling on a prevailing party. The cost, however,
11 is just opposite. The cost says it's not yet ripe. It doesn't 12 say because you're not a prevailing party, see the 8/30 --
13 (indiscernible) sake of my court reporters and everyone, I'm 14 going to delve into the 8/30 order granting motion to retax is 15 2752. Different document, different notice of entries of 16 order. Different orders under Division of Family Services. Of 17 course, the orders, as memorialized, right, are the official
18 orders of the Court, Rust versus Clark County as well. So no
19 Huneycutt.

20 Let's move to substance, folks.

21 MR. ROSE: Thank you, Your Honor. I'll sit down and 22 let Mr. Rulis proceed.

23 THE COURT: And Mr. Dzarnoski, to the extent that 24 he's on this part of it as well.

25 Go ahead.

1 MR. RULIS: Thank you. Your Honor, Nate Rulis for
2 the record. Thank you for it least addressing that first and 3 foremost so we could go forward.

4 THE COURT: At least -- I gave you case law.
5 Go ahead.

6 MR. RULIS: No, you certainly did, and that's --

7 THE COURT: I give you citation. I'm kidding you.
8 I'm kidding.

9 MR. RULIS: -- I just wanted to make sure --

10 THE COURT: Sorry. You can tell it's already been a 11 long morning. Do you want to provide me a foot of stuff too
12 to --

13 Go ahead.

14 MR. RULIS: I'm just trying to make sure we have a 15 clear record moving forward.

16 THE COURT: Clear record. I've dealt with saying 17 there's not a Huneycutt issue. Now, you're going to go to the 18 substance of your actual motion to retax. Go ahead, please.

19 MR. RULIS: So, Your Honor, and I don't want to 20 belabor the same issues that we have previously argued. I will 21 simply state that obviously from our briefs we believe that as 22 far as the settling plaintiffs go we are considered a
23 prevailing party. I know we had that discussion last time,
24 but, you know, one of the issues is, and one of the examples
25 that I wanted to come back to that I touched on last time, but

1 I don't know that we got into is take, for example, Planet 13.

2           They were asking for, as part of this litigation, a
3 license at a location that they had specifically disclosed in 4 their application. That's what the appeal that got, you know,
5 a writ of mandamus allowing our appeal to go forward in front
6 of the D.O.T. was about was that we had a location of where the 7 application had required a location, and we were scored less
8 because we had an actual location versus those that had a 9 hypothetical, mythical plan that never actually got put in 10 place.

11           We got a license, we being Planet 13, got a license
12 out of this litigation and opened that very store that we were 13 asking to get a license to open. So as far as the -- I know
14 that when we're talking about a prevailing party analysis, it's 15 what did we -- did we get what we tried to out of this 16 litigation, and it is, as I'm using Planet 13 as an example, 17 they got the location they were trying to get.

18           So, you know, it wasn't like -- and this is the same
19 thing that we were talking about before, but it's we weren't 20 asking to take somebody's specific license. We were asking for 21 a license that we could open up that store, which they got, and 22 they did, and that's why, as far as a prevailing party analysis
23 goes, we believe that we should be considered a prevailing
24 party, and costs should not be awarded against us.

25           Now, you know, that's one of the examples that I just

1 wanted to clarify because we were talking about last time,
2 but --

3 THE COURT: So that's a bit of a different framing
4 than Mr. Bice's framing, right, the last time, on licenses.
5 You're talking about licenses and specific location versus 6 licenses overall; right?

7 MR. RULIS: Yeah. And that's why I guess, and I
8 apologize if I wasn't clear enough on that, but that's what 9 the -- when I was talking about last time, we had the motion
10 for summary judgment that was granted in my client's favor,
11 allowing their appeals to go forward in front of the Department
12 of Taxation. It was related to the scoring issues, and for 13 Planet 13 it was specific. It was location specific, and it
14 was we have a location that we have presented that we're asking 15 for a license for, and we got scored lower than we believe we 16 should have because we should've gotten a license for that 17 location. That's what they've got then as part of the 18 settlement, is a license that they went and opened that very 19 location.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. RULIS: Now, LivFree had the same sort of thing
22 where they had a scoring issue. We got a writ of mandamus
23 allowing them to go forward with their appeal. Their appeal 24 was then rendered moot because they got a license that they 25 were able then to go open their store. That's, you know -- and

1 the other thing that came up is I know -- I don't think that
2 Wellness Connection is necessarily one that intervened, but 3 some of the, you know, Essence was one. I know Clear River is 4 one of the parties. It wasn't that they were brought in after 5 subsequent motion practice. It was they intervened. As a
6 matter of fact, Essence did it over our opposition.

7 THE COURT: We're not -- the Court's
8 (indiscernible) --

9 MR. RULIS: I know. I'm not --

10 THE COURT: I appreciate it, but I think we have 11 enough other parties that want to be heard today. Let's not go
12 back to the other time period. Thank you so much.

13 MR. RULIS: So as far as Wellness Connection, they 14 were brought in when it related to it, you know, via the long I
15 think motion practice in front of Judge Gonzalez that said for 16 purposes of a petition of judicial review, you have to include
17 the applicants.

18 So they were then brought in as it relates to the 19 petition for judicial review, which by the way I think is an 20 important point to remember when we're talking about the costs
21 that were incurred. They were brought in because they were 22 supposed to be named as a party to the petition for judicial 23 review, which is, by the way, that's the argument that Clear
24 River, which we'll get to, was making in front of 25 Judge Gonzalez.

1 I know. I know, but that's just some context for how 2 this came up and how Wellness Connection ended up getting in 3 here is because their codefendant said they need to be included
4 as part of this litigation. And Judge Gonzalez said for 5 petitions for judicial review, which Your Honor has said was 6 essentially one day, it's limited to the record, that's what 7 they were brought in for.

8 So, you know, again, when it comes to the costs that 9 are being requested for what they were brought in for, not only 10 do we think that they shouldn't be allowed any of them because 11 they're not a prevailing party, but they're unreasonable and 12 excessive, and I think specifically to Wellness Connection, the 13 motion and the reply address specific issues that again, I
14 think all of them probably are not allowable as the party to 15 the judicial review, but specifically you have legal research,
16 runner services, photocopies, trial services and outside
17 copies, which do not have sufficient supporting documentation
18 under Nevada law, that's Berosini, Fairway Chevy, Villa
19 Builders (phonetic), that says Your Honor can award those costs 20 to them, and so those costs, at a minimum, again, you know, we 21 believe that they shouldn't be awarded any costs against 22 settling plaintiffs, but at a minimum, those costs that I've 23 enumerated should not be allowed.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor --

1 THE COURT: Let me --

2 MR. ROSE: Yeah. You're going to have --

3 THE COURT: Mr. Dzarnoski, are you in this? Do you
4 need to be heard on this portion or not? I didn't --

5 MR. PARKER: Yes. I mean, I'm one of the settling
6 plaintiffs, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: No. No, Mr. Dzarnoski had asked --

8 MR. PARKER: Oh, he's jumping in.

9 THE COURT: I wasn't sure.

10 MR. PARKER: Oh, that's fine, Your Honor. Whatever 11 order you want to take it in.

12 THE COURT: You get to jump in in two seconds, but go
13 ahead. Just --

14 MR. PARKER: Go right ahead. Let Mr. Dzarnoski jump 15 in.

16 MR. DZARNOSKI: This is Mark Dzarnoski, and basically 17 the only thing I'd add, I concur with what Mr. Rulis said, but 18 the thing I would add is and emphasize is that the sole reason
19 other applicants are involved in terms of you getting and 20 making an analysis as to who is a prevailing party is because 21 they needed to be brought in pursuant to the District Court's 22 order to deal with the judicial review.

23 So to the extent that they prevailed in judicial 24 review, okay, look at their costs. However, costs aren't 25 recoverable in a judicial review proceeding. So I agree with

1 what Mr. Rulis said, and I'll leave it at that.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

3 Mr. Parker, would you like to --

4 MR. PUZEY: Your Honor. This is Jim --

5 THE COURT: Wait just a second. I'm letting
6 Mr. Parker next. Wait a second. You don't get to just please
7 talk. Mr. Parker, I said he would be next. So he gets to be 8 next. We'll get you in just a second, Counsel.

9 MR. PARKER: Thank you. Thank you, Your Honor, and I
10 guess I'm going to use the podium.

11 THE COURT: Sure. Go ahead, please.

12 MR. PARKER: Your Honor, getting to the substance,
13 and I'll start there in terms of costs, and then I'll work back
14 to some of my concerns regarding whether or not costs are 15 reliable in these types of cases and whether or not your review
16 of Golightly, the Golightly Vannah case and then your case,
17 Your Honor, the Torres case that came a few years later in 2018
18 applied to this, and hopefully the Court remembers your 19 decision you made in the Torres case.

20 THE COURT: In a very different situation in which
21 Judge Gonzalez set a separate petition for judicial review. I
22 had a different case. There was rulings in there. Yeah, I'm a
23 little familiar with it. Go ahead.

24 MR. PARKER: Good enough. Good enough.

25 THE COURT: Top of the head recollection. Go ahead,

1 please.

2 MR. PARKER: I like it. I like it, Your Honor.

3 So looking -- starting at the actual memorandum, Your 4 Honor, if you look at this document, it includes costs quite
5 often without dates. Some, the more expensive ones, the video 6 deposition, transcript fees, you don't see dates there. And,
7 of course, you would need dates to be able to make a decision
8 on these costs.

9 Now, what Mr. Rulis said earlier regarding the 10 circumstances that brought Wellness Connection into this case,
11 he's repeating or paraphrasing from paragraph 4 of our Second 12 Amended Complaint. The Second Amended Complaint in the 13 petition for judicial review or writ of mandamus filed on 14 behalf of Nevada Wellness Center is dated March 26, 2020, and 15 paragraph 4 reads verbatim,

16 The following defendants are applied -- are 17 all applied for recreational marijuana licenses
18 and are being named in accordance with Nevada
19 Administrative Procedure Act.

20 That's exactly the reason why they were brought in.
21 We didn't identify them originally as defendants, and it was 22 over a year before they were named as defendants in our 23 complaint, similar to the majority of the settling plaintiffs.

24 So the reason I bring this up, is if you look at all
25 of the costs prior to March 26, 2020, they weren't a defendant

1 in our case. Fees should not be awarded to them.

2 So and I believe that's similar to all of the 3 settling plaintiffs. So I wanted to make sure from looking at 4 the cost, because Mr.-- and I think this is where Mr. Rulis
5 left off. We are running away from the costs themselves.
6 Well, we're not. I want to address that upfront so that 7 there's no confusion that we're not afraid to address the 8 costs.

9 But the Court has to be aware of the timing of the 10 incurrence of these costs.

11 So in terms of his memorandum, everything prior to 12 March 26, 2020, shouldn't be considered, and everything after 13 we settled, July 29th, 2020 should not be considered.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Repeat those dates again, please.

15 MR. PARKER: Sure. March 26, 2020, and I brought a
16 copy of the complaint for the Court's ease of reference if you
17 want it, Your Honor, just so you could have paragraph 4 in 18 front of you.

19 THE COURT: Sure. So you're telling me I don't have 20 to go keep looking back and forth on it.

21 MR. PARKER: You don't have to. I brought it for 22 you.

23 THE COURT: I appreciate it. Thank you.

24 MR. PARKER: Of course. Any time.

25 THE COURT: Please continue. Go ahead.

1 MR. PARKER: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: You said March 26, 2020.

3 MR. PARKER: Yes, it's right on the front page.

4 THE COURT: Or before, and then afterwards.

5 MR. PARKER: After we settled, I believe July 29th,
6 2020, Your Honor. So anything before and anything after 7 shouldn't be considered as to the settling plaintiffs. They 8 may have a different argument with the nonsettling plaintiffs,
9 but certainly in terms of the settling plaintiffs.

10 Now, Your Honor, I thoroughly, probably more often
11 than I wanted to, read through the Golightly & Vannah PLLC
12 versus TJ Allen case. You've probably read it more than you
13 wanted to, and it's referenced in the Supreme Court's 14 affirmance of your second ruling in this case, and in this 15 case, they found that through the interpleader action, and 16 Golightly was an interpleader action, the Torres case was a --
17 started out as a PI case seeking benefits under an insurance
18 policy and then later turned into a declaratory relief action.
19 That it was brought under 483, and eventually they got it.

20 THE COURT: Two different departments, two different
21 rulings, two different aspects depending on participation. Two 22 different aspects under the minimal insurance statute
23 provision.

24 MR. PARKER: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: If my recollection is correct.

1 MR. PARKER: That's correct. And in that case,
2 eventually the plaintiff received a judgment below 20,000 and
3 then fees and costs afterwards.

4 Looking at this case, Your Honor, I'm not sure that 5 Wellness Connection ever answered our complaint. And the 6 reason I bring that to the Court's attention is in Golightly,
7 in the Golightly case, there were several, several people,
8 medical providers that had an interest in the case, and that's 9 a perfection of an attorney lien case, but only two of the 10 potential creditors answered the complaint. There were no fees
11 or costs given to those who didn't answer the complaint.

12 And in this case, we named a lot of defendants, but 13 not all of them answered, and as a result, not all of them are 14 here before you asking for fees or costs.

15 Now, I can also tell you that certainly, if they did
16 answer, they would be entitled to costs or fees until after 17 that point. So when you look at March 26, 2020, that's the 18 earliest date. If they didn't answer at all, I would say 19 they're not entitled to any fees and costs against any of the 20 settling plaintiffs. Because if you simply apply Golightly, 21 that's what happens.

22 Now, one other thing I want to point out, Your Honor, 23 and this is not -- this is something that we're going to 24 support in our competing orders when it comes to Essence, but 25 it's applicable here. We're going to provide the Court the

1 dates of when we filed the complaint, which the Court knows,
2 the dates where their costs may have actually been incurred
3 after they answered and then when those costs should be cut off
4 based upon our settlement.

5 And by way of example, Essence didn't answer our 6 complaint. So I'll give them credit for answering it, but they
7 didn't answer it until July 8th, 2020. So when the Court
8 sees the competing orders for the cost, you'll have an 9 understanding because we're going to do the same thing when it
10 comes to Wellness Connection, and they may not have answered
11 because there were several that did nothing.

12 In fact, we have no answer, you'll find this out, and 13 I'll wait. I don't want to go beyond what I'm -- right now.

14 THE COURT: Yeah, please, because, realistically,
15 I've got two hours and 10 minutes. We're going to have to take 16 a 10-minute break at some point for my team, to get you all
17 taken care of, and, you know what I mean, so --

18 MR. PARKER: Of course. Of course, Your Honor. I'm 19 putting this in front of Your Honor because when you strictly 20 review these cases, Wellness Connection is not a prevailing 21 party. Nevada Wellness received a Clark County license. When 22 we filed our motion for settlement, the same way all the other
23 plaintiffs did, settling plaintiffs did, there was no
24 opposition from any of these defendants, and they received the 25 benefit of our settlement because we didn't continue

1 cross-examining the witnesses. We didn't bring any further
2 witnesses. We didn't do a closing argument.

3 Now, if you look at the Torres case and the Golightly
4 case, at the end of these cases, the Supreme Court says that --
5 and they determine whether the prevailing -- who the prevailing
6 party is based upon the recovery. And if you want to really 7 boil it down to the essential holding, it says, we conclude
8 that Torres succeeded on a significant issue at trial.

9 Now, my client filed a motion for summary judgment as 10 to a portion of this case, and we succeeded on that summary
11 judgment in that the original process violated the statute, and 12 we won on that issue. We also received, like I said, our Clark
13 County license, which is worth millions given what we've been 14 told by the defendants in their oral arguments because they 15 said that they are maintaining their licenses 'cause they're 16 worth millions. So certainly gaining licenses worth millions
17 is also significant.

18 Reading the Golightly case and the Torres case.

19 Additionally, the Court granted our preliminary
20 injunction and a permanent injunction. My first -- the first 21 cause of action in the complaint we had is for declaratory
22 relief. We also have a cause of action for permanent 23 injunction. Granted.

24 There's no way in this world this Court can say that 25 in terms of Wellness Connection the settling plaintiffs did not

1 prevail, or not the prevailing parties because we all received
2 licenses. In fact, I believe Qualcan received two licenses.
3 So we all received licenses. We all had motions granted in our 4 favor. We all got the benefit of a temporary and permanent
5 injunction, Your Honor, and the Court found numerous
6 irregularities in the process.

7 So to say we didn't win using these cases, Your 8 Honor, I believe is simply inviting error into a determination
9 that Wellness Connection could be the prevailing party.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you so very much.

11 MR. PARKER: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Appreciate it.

13 Now, is counsel remotely, I don't know exactly who 14 that was because there's so many boxes, but if you wish to 15 speak, go ahead next, please. Please just identify yourself
16 first, please.

17 MR. PUZEY: Thank you, Your Honor. This is Jim Puzey
18 on behalf of High Sierra Holistics, and as it pertains to 19 Wellness Connection, I would just like to draw the Court's 20 attention when it ultimately made its decision to the Wellness
21 Connection of Nevada, LLC's, Omnibus opposition to moving 22 parties motion to retax and settle costs and all joinders, and 23 they identify the High Sierra Holistics motion to retax and 24 settle costs in that. And on page 2 of 14 of footnote 3, it
25 says to the extent that HSH moving parties did not allege

1 claims against Wellness or name Wellness as a defendant, then
2 Wellness is not seeking to recover its costs against HSH moving
3 parties. I just want to make sure I bring that to the Court's 4 attention.

5 Wellness Connection obviously saw what High Sierra
6 was doing. They've agreed not to bring costs there, and I
7 think that Wellness's logic applies to the balance of the 8 people who have moved for costs, including Essence and Clear
9 River and the balance of everyone, but specifically Wellness
10 has said they're not recovering costs from High Sierra, and I
11 just wanted to make sure the Court was aware of that.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. PARKER: Your Honor did he give you the document
14 number? I apologize.

15 THE COURT: I was about to ask for that.

16 MR. PARKER: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Counsel, doc number? Date at least if 18 you don't have a document number.

19 MR. PUZEY: Absolutely.

20 THE COURT: And, Counsel, just to let you know, 21 it's --

22 MR. PUZEY: Your Honor, I don't have document
23 numbers, but the opposition was filed on August 25th at -- 2022 24 at 10:16 a.m.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Can you repeat that date, please.

1 MR. RULIS: Your Honor, this -- sorry, Nate Rulis for 2 the record. I have a copy if you would like me to --

3 MR. PUZEY: August --

4 THE COURT: Oh, just a second. Mr. Rulis says he has 5 a copy he can hand me.

6 So did Mr. Parker need to see that? Because you were 7 the one that asked. Who is --

8 MR. PARKER: I just needed the document number, Your 9 Honor, but it doesn't have it on here.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I can find it by date,
11 folks. I still was looking for --

12 Marshal, I do appreciate it. Thank you so much.

13 MR. ROSE: And, Your Honor, he's referencing page 2, 14 Footnote 3 of our brief.

16 quickly.

17 Remember, there's 3,000 entries here. It means I
18 have to click through all of them, but you have to understand,
19 if I click too many times, it then phases out, and so it's not 20 responding. So I have to wait.

21 (Pause in the proceedings.)

22 THE COURT: Well, Counsel, I can't find the document.
23 Realistically, I'm still in 2020.

24 MR. PARKER: No worries, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: And it would take me way too much time

1 to --

2 MR. PARKER: No worries.

3 THE COURT: -- to try and find that. So page 2,
4 Footnote.

5 MR. PARKER: 3.

6 THE COURT: 3.

7 (Court reading out loud.)

8 MR. ROSE: Or named Wellness as a defendant.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So, Counsel, Mr. Rose, did you
10 answer the complaint of Mr. Parker's clients?

11 MR. ROSE: Yes, Your Honor, I believe we did.
12 Absolutely.

13 THE COURT: Can you give me a date?

14 MR. ROSE: We answered a number of complaints from 15 the various plaintiffs. I believe we answered all of the 16 complaints by all of the plaintiffs. I don't have the date,
17 Your Honor, because this is an argument that he's raising now
18 that was not raised in any of the briefing --

19 THE COURT: But wouldn't it have been your obligation
20 when you were seeking your costs to set forth who you were 21 seeking the costs against and to have had a basis to seek the 22 cost -- I appreciate your Footnote 3, but --

23 MR. ROSE: No, Your Honor, the statute says you file
24 your memorandum of costs. When you have multiple plaintiffs,
25 the statute doesn't say you have to pick and choose or specify

1 the dates. You're hearing a lot of arguments that were not
2 raise in any of the briefing.

3 THE COURT: Well, I'm hearing a lot of arguments that 4 weren't raised in a variety of different things, appreciating
5 that I've got lots of entries on these.

6 Okay. So.

7 MR. ROSE: Understood, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, well, Mr. Last word, go ahead.

9 MR. ROSE: Are we going to have --

10 THE COURT: I have a couple more.

11 MR. ROSE: Oh, whoever is next. I know Mr. Dzarnoski
12 also is going to go.

13 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Dzarnoski just got to go, but I
14 haven't heard Mr. Christiansen. I think you want to speak and 15 you haven't had a chance. Go ahead, please.

16 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Super brief, Your Honor. I join
17 in all the other arguments. I'd point out that my client
18 Qualcan -- again, Pete Christiansen for the record on behalf of 19 Qualcan -- started -- was not part of the initial preliminary 20 injunction. Motion work was not part -- was not even -- didn't 21 even have a complaint for any of that. So costs, as I point
22 out, as Mr. Parker did, associated with that, my client wasn't 23 even in the case.

24 So with that being said, Qualcan came out, started
25 with zero licenses, came out with two licenses worth multiple

1 millions of dollars each. So they're a prevailing party, not 2 the moving parties.

3 And secondly, I'd point out, just as a particular
4 matter, they're seeking costs, like, by way of example, Judge,
5 for video and depo transcripts for all depositions. I mean,
6 isn't that double dipping by definition?

7 THE COURT: Just to let you know, there are 8 significant issues with the costs under Cadle versus Woods &
9 Erickson, In Re Dish Network and Bobby Berosini, okay.
10 Realistically, where the Court, I have to focus on the first 11 step --

12 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Understood.

13 THE COURT: -- in light of each of you all's unique
14 arguments on, A, are you in this? I'll use the term rubric;
15 right, are in this multifamily dwelling, okay, of various 16 parties? And if you are, how long have you lived in the 17 dwelling; right? Or how -- when did you come in and out of the 18 rubric.

19 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Correct. And I want to give the 20 Court that information for my client. Qualcan's complaint
21 following the administrative order directing Qualcan to name
22 all the applicants was filed February 11th, 2020. I do not 23 believe it was answered by this moving party, nor Clear River, 24 and the settlement is the same day that everybody else settled
25 in July.

1 Thank you, Judge.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else need to be heard? If
3 not come I'm going to ask Mr. Rose a question.

4 (Multiple parties talking, indiscernible speech.)

5 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else is probably not my 6 best choice of words.

7 The challenge with remote aspect is we have to do
8 this in some type of order. So before people speak, let's turn 9 on your little green lights, and let's see who's about to 10 speak, and then we'll call one at a time.

11 We know one counsel is not speaking because they're 12 on the phone with another case it looks like or maybe somebody 13 else.

14 Okay. Who else -- and remember, folks, when the 15 Court's ruling specifically says that you have to be 16 audiovisually, that really does mean that, particularly if you
17 want to be heard; right?

18 Well, that eliminates a lot of people. Don't get to 19 be heard, right, because they don't care to be audiovisually.
20 It sounds like I've just shortened this.

21 So anybody who is on audiovisually still need to be 22 heard who has not had a chance to be heard?

23 MR. SLATER: Your Honor, Craig Slater. I would like
24 to be heard on one point just very briefly.

25 THE COURT: Sure. And you're on audiovisually so you

1 can be because anybody who chooses not to comply with a Court
2 order, I'm not seeing how you can speak, unless -- because no
3 one has given us any good cause or any request differently.

4 Go ahead, Counsel.

5 MR. SLATER: Your Honor, my clients filed a joinder
6 in this action to a point that was raised by several of the 7 moving parties who filed motions to retax. That point is -- 8 the argument that's been made repeatedly with the judicial 9 review action, costs are not awarded to the prevailing party.
10 That is relevant to my clients because they only filed the 11 judicial review claim. We did not participate in the trial. I
12 know Mr. Williamson last hearing cited to the transcript where 13 I was present at the trial, but being present and observing is 14 not participating.

15 THE COURT: But did you make an appearance, Counsel?

16 MR. SLATER: I would just ask that this Court make a
17 declaration on that issue as to whether she's awarding costs
18 pursuant to all of the causes of action or only the nonjudicial
19 review causes of action because it impacts my client
20 specifically. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, here's the question,
22 Counsel. Remember, it was represented to this Court, and it
23 was not -- nobody brought anything forward on the opposite side
24 that you actually made an appearance, that it was on the record
25 that you made an appearance versus observation; right?

1 Appearance is participating and being there as part of a case.
2 Observation is, you know, observation. Any member of the 3 public can observe whatever they'd like to observe.

4 So are you stating that you did not make an
5 appearance on the record, that the representation to the Court
6 that you made an appearance on the record was not a correct
7 representation?

8 MR. SLATER: That is correct, Your Honor. I never 9 made an appearance at the trial. I never once spoke.

10 THE COURT: Well, I'm not talking about speaking.

11 MR. SLATER: I believe what happened --

12 THE COURT: I'm talking about, like, for today, when 13 you all make an appearance, remember, the distinction between 14 making an appearance, right, as an attorney on behalf of a
15 party, you may choose not to speak. You do lots of CD cases.
16 You know in CD cases, sometimes I have a courtroom of 40
17 people, and only two people speak. Sometimes only one.
18 Usually it's two or three.

19 So speaking is not the issue; right? It's whether or 20 not actually making an appearance on behalf of parties. So
21 that's why the Court was asking that question. I thought
22 someone quoted me from a transcript that it was an appearance.

23 Now, granted that's been a little bit of time. I
24 have a few matters that I've taken care of in the intervening
25 time. So are you saying you never made an appearance?

1 MR. SLATER: Well, Your Honor, we appeared in this
2 case because all of these cases were consolidated together, but
3 at the time of trial, I never formally made an appearance. I
4 was there every day. I observed -- or pretty much every day.
5 I observed, and I know you weren't there, but --

6 THE COURT: I wasn't.

7 MR. SLATER: If you recall, the set up, I was in the 8 very back row with all of the other clients, the client
9 representatives for the very reason that I was not 10 participating. I was back there with a couple of other 11 attorneys, and we were placed there because we were not 12 participating. There was a seating -- this trial occurred 13 during the height of COVID. So there was a seating chart that 14 we had to strictly adhere to, and the people who were not 15 participating were put in the very back, and that included 16 myself.

17 THE COURT: As you stated, I wasn't there, and as you
18 heard me say earlier this morning, I neither have a crystal
19 ball, nor am I a fly on the wall. I'm only where I'm at where 20 you can, you know, see me. I wasn't at that. I had other 21 things going on during that time in my own docket. So -- which 22 was my own docket at the time. Different than my docket now.

23 So I've heard what you said.

24 Anybody else remotely need to be heard who's on 25 audiovisually?

1 MR. GAMBLE: Clarence Gamble.

2 THE COURT: And that means audiovisually the whole
3 time, folks. That doesn't mean that you can flip it on and 4 off; right? I mean, folks, we need to know who's participating
5 in this hearing, which is why this order was clear. Please
6 feel free to read the Supreme Court order. Feel free to read
7 the administrative order, and please feel free to let me
8 address this case instead of have to keep on reminding people
9 about appearances, please. You guys have limited time.

10 MR. GAMBLE: Yes, Your Honor. I did file a notice of 11 appearance consistent with the Court's order, consistent with 12 the statute, well in advance of this hearing, certainly well in 13 advance of the five days that is required.

14 Again, my name is Clarence Gamble. I represent Rural 15 Remedies, and my bar number is 4268.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. GAMBLE: And I do want to --

18 THE COURT: And what was the date you filed your 19 joinder or your motion, Counsel, with relationship to the 20 current motion at issue?

21 MR. GAMBLE: Your Honor, I don't have that in front
22 of me, but as the motions were filed for retaxation, I joined 23 in them within a day of them being filed or the same day, but I
24 don't have those in front of me right now. I can certainly get 25 those for the Court.

1 I just want to bring a couple of points to the 2 Court's consideration because while we did settle our case with 3 the Department of Taxation and with Jorge Pupo, our posture is 4 a bit different than those who actually proceeded to trial on 5 Phases 2 and 3.

6 On June 30th, 2021, Judge Gonzalez granted Rural 7 Remedies' motion to sever them from that trial; it's pages
8 2 and 3.

9 I had a situation in which I couldn't participate in 10 the trial. Certainly the Court was going to move the trial, 11 under the circumstances. So the Court granted a motion to 12 sever Rural Remedies' actions against D.O.T. and Jorge Pupo.

13 On July 20th, 2022, before this Court certified as 14 a final judgment the Phase 2 and Phase 3 of the trial and 15 before Rural Remedies ever had an opportunity to go to trial
16 against D.O.T. and Jorge Pupo, Rural Remedies went into a
17 settlement agreement with Department of Taxation, Jorge Pupo, 18 and also Lone Mountain Partners, to resolve Rural Remedies'
19 claims.

20 And on July 21st, 2022, Rural Remedies and the 21 Department of Taxation, Jorge Pupo, entered a stipulation and 22 order which was signed by this Court and entered on July 21st
23 to dismiss with prejudice Rural Remedies' operative complaint
24 in this consolidated action with each party bearing their own
25 attorneys' fees and costs.

1           And why I emphasize the language of Rural Remedies'
2       operative complaint is because Rural Remedies' operative
3       complaint is not before the Court because it's dismissed before
4       a final award was entered certifying Phases 2 and 3 of the 5       trial, before a final -- excuse me, before a certification of 6       any manner has been entered.

7           So there's no -- at the time that Rural Remedies'
8       operative complaint was dismissed, there was no final judgment 9       and no applications for costs had been filed or sought by any 10      party.

11          So as far as I'm concerned, Rural Remedies is out of 12      this action. Rural Remedies is out of this action with a 13      stipulation and order was entered, and this Court entered its 14      order dismissing the operative complaint with each party
15      bearing their attorneys' fees and costs. And by extension, the 16      actions against the defendants, applicants, both successful
17      applicants and unsuccessful applicants, they're -- they were 18      dismissed out of this action as well as it relates to Rural 19      Remedies' operative complaint because Rural Remedies --

20          THE COURT: Counsel. Counsel. I need you to point
21      me to where in your joinder, the date of your joinder was filed
22      and where this is presented to the Court versus new information
23      provided at the time of the hearing. Because remember,
24      Counsel, the Court realistically didn't need to have a hearing,
25      EDCR, right, 2.23. It can do things on the papers, but you

1 have to have it in your joinder.

2           Nonsubstantive joinder does not give me an 3 opportunity at the time of the hearing for the first time to 4 raise arguments not in your pleadings. That's why I was asking
5 each party, as you notice, they've either handed me in court if 6 they're here in court, a reference document, or they're citing
7 the day of their joinder.

8           So, please, just so I can go back because I'm hearing
9 you, and I'm stopping you because I don't recall -- now,
10 granted, I read a lot, but all of these arguments were in your 11 joinder -- in your pleadings. So, please. You got to tell me
12 the date you filed it so I can take a look to see if these are 13 new arguments or not, Counsel, please.

14           MR. GAMBLE: Your Honor, you know, I, certainly with 15 candor to the Court, these arguments are somewhat new because 16 I, quite frankly did not know whether or not I was the subject
17 of these motions or these bills and costs or not because my 18 complaint was dismissed before they were filed.

19           THE COURT: Right. But, Counsel, you can appreciate
20 you can't bring up something for the first time in oral 21 argument. So that's why I let you go on for a bit, but --

22           MR. GAMBLE: All right.

23           THE COURT: -- that's why I need you to tell me the 24 date of your joinder. If you don't have the document number,
25 at least the date.

1 MR. GAMBLE: Your Honor, I will -- I won't hold up
2 the matter. I'm going to look through all of my dates, and 3 then I will come back to the Court if you just give me a minute
4 while (indiscernible).

5 THE COURT: We're going to move on, because remember
6 there's over 3,063 entries in this case.

7 While I appreciate this is limited to about 50 some 8 odd ones and 60, which are cross-referencing other ones, so
9 realistically, folks, we're going to need to, before you argue,
10 tell me which one so we can keep it to where the actual issues 11 are.

12 So at this juncture, I have had the movant. I've had 13 the movements. I think I've taken care of the joinder parties.

14 Is there any joinder party that filed a substantive 15 joinder other than just saying they joined in arguments that 16 has something they wish to say?

17 No. Okay.

18 Mr. Rose, you had an opportunity to speak, have you
19 not, and addressed all your issues; correct?

20 MR. ROSE: No, I have not, Your Honor. These are -- 21 we have not been able to. I think the plaintiffs have now
22 gone. And we have not had a chance to respond.

23 THE COURT: On this topic, on the substance, yes. So
24 go ahead.

25 MR. ROSE: Thank you.

1           THE COURT: You get five minutes, because 2 realistically this is --

3           MR. ROSE: Well, I'll try my best, Your Honor.

4           THE COURT: You guys had to preempt two other Judges.
5 You could and preempt me on this case? Really? I'm just -- 6 you understand I'm kidding. I'm more than glad to do this.
7 It's just --

8           MR. ROSE: I do understand, Your Honor.

9           Chris Rose, 7500 for Wellness Connection.

10          90 percent of what you just heard in oral argument
11 was not in any of the motions.

12          THE COURT: That's why I keep asking.

13          MR. ROSE: And we didn't have a chance to respond to 14 it, and so I'm very surprised, and it's challenging for us and 15 we think it's highly improper for these arguments to be raised.

16          The prevailing party issue, that ship has sailed.
17 This Court ruled on that. There's a piece of the pie as far as 18 the number of licenses. We owned a piece of the pie. As a 19 result of the litigation, none of the plaintiffs got any 20 licenses. They did not get any licenses as a result of the 21 trial or the Court's rulings.

22          You've heard several plaintiffs say, but we ended up
23 with a license. We ended up with two licenses. That was 24 outside the litigation due to a private settlement. So that 25 argument, Your Honor, is a completely -- a red herring. They

1 did not get anything from us based on this Court's reasoning
2 before.

3 THE COURT: Would you like me to shorten to where the 4 questions are from the Court realistically? It's the PJR
5 question, okay. PJR, it's the dates of the litigation with 6 regards to each of the respective parties, and then we've got 7 challenges under Cadle versus Woods & Erickson, In Re Dish
8 Network, Bobby Berosini, and there's a fourth case whose name
9 is escaping me at this particular moment. The Chevy case.

10 Counsel, Mr. Rulis.

11 MR. RULIS: Fairway Chevrolet and Villa Builders.

12 THE COURT: Fairway Chevrolet, (indiscernible)
13 Chevrolet cases, okay, because you don't have documentation.
14 You don't have things like that.

15 So realistically, where the Court's going, I mean,
16 I'm going to be consistent with my ruling last time --

17 MR. ROSE: Yep, Your Honor, I appreciate --

18 THE COURT: -- okay, but there is some nuances here.
19 And if parties were not in the case, right, if you didn't 20 answer to them, then you can't prevail against somebody that 21 you're not a party to if that's accurate, but once again, I
22 don't have the information there to make that determination.
23 If the parties were only in a case for a particular short 24 period of time, then their pieces of pie that they're going to 25 have to pay is going to have to be smaller. The PJR versus the

1 litigation is it, you know, potentially different piece of the 2 pie, and then get to the substance of where the dollars are.

3 Realistically, that's where the Court's inclined to 4 go. Of course, I want to fully hear everything you say, but I
5 got that from the pleadings.

6 Go ahead.

7 MR. ROSE: Well, a number of issues they just raised
8 as far as not answering and different dates, that was not in 9 the pleadings.

10 THE COURT: In some of the pleadings with regards --
11 in some of the pleadings with regards, I have it in some, yes.
12 I may not have it with everyone who decided to chime in today.
13 That's correct.

14 But the issues were enough there, and since you're 15 the one seeking costs, you have to show, right, as you're 16 initial burden to get the costs, who you get it against. So
17 that's why the Court can take that part into consideration.

18 MR. ROSE: Sure.

19 THE COURT: But go ahead, Counsel, please.

20 MR. ROSE: Well, and I appreciate the Court's 21 clarification. Let me start with the PJR issues.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. ROSE: If you look at our memorandum of costs,
24 you'll see that none of the costs we are seeking have anything
25 to do with the PJR. So it was interesting that the main

1 argument that the plaintiffs raise in their motions and the 2 replies is that you can't recover costs for PJR. Not a single 3 cost pertains to the PJR.

4           You know what the PJR was? It was a two-hour hearing
5 with arguments, and we didn't even participate in it. We 6 listened to it, but we didn't incur any costs for that. We 7 didn't file a brief in the PJR matter. There was no, as the 8 Court knows, there's no discovery or depositions. We didn't 9 sit through a month-long trial related to the PJR. matter.
10 That's completely separate.

11           THE COURT: I've done a few.

12           MR. ROSE: Exactly. So, Your Honor, there was zero
13 costs related to the PJR. We don't think their argument's 14 properly founded anyway, but it's irrelevant. That's not what 15 we're seeking costs for.

16           Number two, the dates, there's an order, and I don't 17 have it with me, but I believe the order was filed December 18 31st.

19           First of all, I want to mention we were not parties
20 at the time of the injunction proceedings either in 2019. It 21 was later after that that the plaintiff said, you know, we 22 think we want to name everyone. D.H. Flamingo was the first 23 party to name us as a defendant.

24           And then there was an order coincidentally by Nevada
25 Wellness, Mr. Parker's client, who had filed a motion for

1 summary judgment. This order is December 31st, 2019, I
2 believe, and the Court held a hearing, and even though it was a
3 summary judgment motion, all the plaintiff said, we want to 4 name all of the other parties who received a license as well.
5 That was December 31st, 2019. We had already been in the 6 case at that point, but that's when they got permission and 7 leave to file and bring us in.

8           So as far as the dates, Your Honor, I haven't seen,
9 because this is a new argument that wasn't presented, I haven't 10 seen any authority that says I'm only responsible for costs on 11 the day we filed the answer. We answered the complaints that 12 were filed against us, Your Honor. And because of the 13 extensive pleadings, as the Court knows, and because this issue
14 was just raised right now, I haven't been able to provide the 15 dates of all the answers, but they're in the record.

16           But there's no authority that says if I filed the 17 complaint and they answered on January 31st, 2020, they can 18 only get costs against me from that day forward. I'm not aware 19 of the case law that provides for that. That's not what the 20 statute provides.

21           These plaintiffs all decided that they wanted to name 22 everyone under the sun, and now they want to try and pick and 23 choose and dice the costs up based on these arguments that 24 don't have any support under the case law. There's no legal 25 authority. That's certainly not in the statute, and the

1 statute is what we have to follow.

2 The Nevada Legislature, if they wanted to say you
3 only get costs from the date you're named, and you answer, then
4 they would put that in the statute. There's no case law;
5 there's no statute that supports that.

6 So that's as to their arguments about when they filed
7 their complaint and when they got an answer, and some of them
8 are saying they didn't get an answer who did file our answers.

9 Let me move to the closing date, because they're 10 saying, well, and then we settled in the end of July of 2020.
11 No one settled with us. No one settled with the Essence
12 parties, and this is exactly the same as the Essence parties.

13 THE COURT: You're saying you had to go through the 14 trial.

15 MR. ROSE: We sat through dozens of depositions. We 16 had to sit through a month-long trial, and, Your Honor, I want
17 to point out, I don't think this really is a determining factor 18 whether a defendant intervened in the case or whether they were 19 just involuntarily named.

20 But I will point out we did not choose to be here.
21 We were involuntarily brought into this case. We did not
22 intervene, and so to say you can't recover any costs against me
23 because I've settled with other parties who have nothing to do
24 with you, again, there's no case law for that. You named us as 25 a party. You named -- brought claims against us, and you did

1 not settle with us, and the Court entered a judgment and ruling
2 that is binding on you as to the claims that you alleged 3 against everyone, including us. There's no cutoff date based 4 on their settlement with other parties, which is completely
5 irrelevant to us, no case law that supports that. They haven't 6 presented you with anything.

7 So, Your Honor, we've been named as a party. I think
8 I've addressed the periods.

9 Have I addressed all of the Court's questions except 10 for the --

11 THE COURT: The substance of the dollars, yeah.

12 MR. ROSE: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 MR. ROSE: Your Honor, you're going to see, in our 15 memorandum of costs, I do things a little bit differently. I
16 not only put the memorandum of costs, I present an extensive
17 declaration that supports why the costs were incurred and why
18 they were necessary, and that complies with the case law.
19 Remember, the case law says you can't just state that a cost
20 was incurred and necessary. You have to explain why. And we 21 do that in our memorandum.

22 THE COURT: But you also have to have the receipts.
23 Remember with Cadle versus Woods & Erickson, I think it was 24 less than $50 worth of copies. I think it was less than 20, 25 but I'll just say 50 to make it easy. Remember the fact that

1 they just had an attorney declaration saying that those copies
2 were necessary it wasn't sufficient. You actually had to show
3 that you had some kind of, like, tracking system; right? Or 4 you had a system where you have to type in maybe a case number,
5 and then you get -- sorry, typing with my fingers; right?
6 Okay. So those type of issues.

7 So there are for different ones, right, and if you
8 want a video dep in addition to a hard copy transcript, you 9 have to show the reason why you wanted a video depo, it was 10 necessary, if you wanted expedited, you have to show why it's 11 expedited. So it blends. I don't see that you have all of 12 that.

13 MR. ROSE: So, Your Honor, we didn't notice these.
14 We didn't choose to do a video deposition. We put video 15 deposition not because we chose to have a video deposition, but 16 because someone else noticed it and did a video deposition.

17 THE COURT: But did you have to buy both? Did you
18 have to buy the video deposition and the transcript?

19 MR. ROSE: I don't think we're -- we're not seeking 20 costs for videos. We're not -- we didn't include any video -- 21 video costs here.

22 And, Your Honor, again, this is the disadvantage I'm 23 at. If you look at their motion --

24 THE COURT: That's a disadvantage I'm at. I don't 25 have a courtesy copy of your actual --

1 MR. ROSE: Of our --

2 THE COURT: So remember, each time anyone of you all
3 are speaking, right, I have to go and click with one exception
4 that doesn't apply here because I do have Mr. Bice's binders.
5 Remember, I have to keep going back to the document
6 electronically other than the couple that were handed to me
7 here in court.

8 MR. ROSE: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: I don't have courtesy copies. Please see
10 the EDCR. So while you're referencing different things, I then 11 have to go back and try and find each page you're talking about 12 other than my memory or my notes.

13 MR. ROSE: Yes. Yes. So our memorandum of costs was 14 filed August 9th.

15 THE COURT: Right, which is why you got the August 16 12th on the other one.

17 MR. ROSE: Yes. At 2:44 p.m.

18 But we did not seek costs for the -- it's called a 19 video deposition because someone else noticed it for a video
20 and took a video.

21 And when we get an invoice, that's the invoice we 22 get, but that's not what we asked for. And all the invoices
23 that we -- all the costs that we're seeking are supported by 24 the invoices.

25 And, Your Honor, if you look at their motions, and

1 we -- I've got the notice of this, if you look at page 7 of MM,
2 Qualcan, Natural Medicine, Nevada Wellness motions, page 7 of 3 their opposition filed August 12th, 2022, 8:14 p.m., that's 4 the only point where they talk about our costs, and they don't 5 challenge a specific item at all. They don't. They don't 6 point out what costs should not be granted because of the lack 7 of documentation. All they say is --

8 THE COURT: Mr. Rulis's clients, he does in his;
9 right?

10 MR. ROSE: No. His -- that's part of his brief.
11 He's a part of that brief.

12 THE COURT: Hold on.

13 MR. ROSE: So if you go to that brief, all they say
14 is, well, the costs are not reasonable and you didn't provide 15 documentation. They don't explain how or why, and so if you
16 look at our memorandum of costs, Your Honor, we've attached the 17 supporting document as exhibits. We have seven exhibits that 18 includes all of the support --

19 THE COURT: That you say comply with EDCR 2.27.

20 MR. ROSE: Am I claiming it complies?

21 THE COURT: Yeah.

22 MR. ROSE: I -- yes, I believe it does.

23 THE COURT: Hold on a second. We're talking about 24 Document 2900 filed on 8/9/2022.

25 Remember, the challenge also that your transcript is

1 going to have, right, with multiple parties having the word
2 Wellness in the middle of their name. If you call yourselves
3 just Wellness and don't distinguish which Wellness entity you
4 are, you're going to have fun reading the transcript. I'm just 5 saying, I've got Wellness Center. I've got Wellness, you know
6 what I mean, on opposite sides.

7 MR. ROSE: Too many Wellnesses, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: So there's Wellness and Wellness.

9 MR. ROSE: I understand.

10 THE COURT: No. I'm not taking anything negative on 11 the names. I'm just saying, please, you all might want to be 12 clear on --

13 MR. ROSE: I understand.

14 THE COURT: -- stating your parties' names.

15 MR. ROSE: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: We are looking --

17 MR. ROSE: We've got supporting documentation for 18 each category of costs that we're seeking.

19 THE COURT: And the answer is it doesn't comply with 20 EDCR 2.27, but that's --

21 MR. ROSE: I believe it does.

22 THE COURT: Your 64-page document complies with 23 EDCR 2.27? It has numbering in the lower right-hand corner of 24 each of your exhibits? It does?

25 MR. ROSE: I thought that was over 100 pages.

1           THE COURT: Over 100 pages there has to be an
2 appendices; right? That's a separate sentence of EDCR 2.27.
3 It has to be a separate appendices filed on a different day
4 with a table of contents; right?

5           MR. ROSE: Okay.

6           THE COURT: Feel free to chuckle. I see the 7 chuckles. Nicely turning your head down.

8           MR. PARKER: You can see me through Mr. Rulis, or is 9 that someone else?

10          THE COURT: I'm not saying who I'm referring to.

11          MR. PARKER: Okay.

12          THE COURT: I'm just saying I have a decent line of 13 vision and decent hearing.

14          But, Counsel, I'm still taking it into consideration.
15 I mean, honestly, you all have had to come back more than one
16 time, okay, and nobody raised that in their briefs, but, no, it
17 doesn't comply.

18          MR. ROSE: Okay.

19          THE COURT: With that being said, where do you
20 show -- okay. I'm in your 64-page document. You have a couple 21 of (indiscernible), and I appreciate you put the 22 documentation -- you put your stamp on some of those aspects,
23 but you're telling me the copies are articulated in here?

24          MR. ROSE: Copies would be supported by -- there's 25 $312 worth of copies that they're raising, and if we referred

1 to Exhibit 3, Your Honor, I believe that is --

2 THE COURT: And where would I find that in the 64
3 pages?

4 MR. ROSE: I don't have the PDF page, Your Honor,
5 specifically.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. (Indiscernible.)

7 You understand it's blocked out with all of the 8 billed and paid and stuff like that; right? It's redacted
9 without any agreement or order by the Court on sealing and 10 redacting under Supreme Court Rule 3. Sorry I have to keep 11 naming these, but --

12 MR. ROSE: Some of the invoices, if it was privileged 13 information, we would have redacted it.

14 THE COURT: The discounts and billed amount and paid 15 amount is privileged information with relationship to 16 electronic prints?

17 MR. ROSE: Well, if it's for costs that we're 18 seeking, it would not have been redacted.

19 (Pause in the proceedings.)

20 MR. RULIS: Chris, I brought it. You can look at 21 mine if you want, but it is redacted. The Court is correct.

22 THE COURT: Amazing that the Court is correct; right?
23 I'm looking at something, and --

24 MR. PARKER: No, I just wanted (indiscernible) from 25 the copy that we brought.

1 THE COURT: Yeah. Do you see it? You see the whole
2 big box?

3 MR. ROSE: Oh, correct.

4 THE COURT: Right? But then you've got a total of 5 $312, which you just referenced. That's the reason why the 6 Court went to the redaction. I listened to what you said and 7 the amount that you were saying, and then I looked and saw
8 there was the redactions, and we don't know what was actually 9 billed to the client.

10 MR. ROSE: Well, Your Honor, I can represent what 11 would've been billed would've been the 312, but I understand
12 the Court's questions about the $312, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Cadle versus Woods & Erickson is a lot
14 less than that on copies, folks. I mean, it's not that I'm 15 going into the weeds, it's that the Supreme Court does it;
16 right?

17 MR. ROSE: Understood. And out of our costs, I think 18 that's -- well, there is a smaller item for the witness fee.

19 I understand the question -- the questions the Court
20 has on that. $312 (indiscernible).

21 THE COURT: Do you understand also are contesting --

22 MR. ROSE: And, Your Honor, can I just add, if they 23 were --

24 THE COURT: -- to the extent it's not just copies
25 thereto; right? You got copies also under your Exhibit 2 on

1 what's called a recap of cost detail; right? Whereas
2 timekeepers and codes and things like that. There's $986.92 on 3 7/9, 9/11/2020. Well, I'm not sure, size of binders.

4 And there's -- and they did mention the online
5 research; right? The online research isn't broken down to 6 whether or not that online research is particularly for this
7 case, whether that's a monthly bill charged for online
8 research, and if you potentially allocate a certain portion to 9 a particular client or a particular case or whether or not that 10 online research could also be done free and whether or not --

11 MR. ROSE: Well --

12 THE COURT: It's those challenges. It was raised in 13 the box. It didn't say the specific amount and say it should 14 be X instead of the Y that was charged, but the global concepts
15 were presented in the motions to retax.

16 MR. ROSE: Your Honor, I don't -- I don't believe
17 they were. Otherwise, we could have addressed it. If you 18 look, we put in our declaration you have a -- this is not just 19 a memorandum of costs that has a number out there that's out in 20 oblivion. It's supported by my declaration that addresses the 21 Westlaw research showing that that was performed for this case
22 and that it was necessary.

23 So between the documents that show the cost that was 24 incurred and my declaration, that specifically addresses that.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I'm just -- go ahead. Finish. Go

1 ahead, please.

2 MR. ROSE: We think we've complied with that, and 3 again, if these are issues that they would have specified in 4 their brief, we could have addressed it, but they weren't.
5 They weren't brought up, and I think the documentation we 6 provided is similar to -- or more detailed than documentation
7 in other memorandums as well.

8 THE COURT: Well, that doesn't -- okay. Anything
9 else? Go ahead, Counsel. I didn't mean to stop you. Go
10 ahead, please.

11 MR. ROSE: And, Your Honor, did I address the Court's 12 questions that it had raised so far?

13 THE COURT: You did. I appreciate it. Thank you so
14 much.

15 Okay. And I'm just --

16 MR. GAMBLE: Your Honor, this is Clarence Gamble
17 again. I apologize for interrupting the Court, and I know the 18 Court wanted to know when I filed these joiners. I --

19 THE COURT: The joinder with Wellness Connection,
20 yeah. Wellness Connection is the only one we're on. So the 21 joinder regarding against Wellness Connection was filed on what 22 date, please, Counsel?

23 MR. GAMBLE: My first substantive points and 24 authorities regarding costs was filed on -- Court's indulgence.

25 THE COURT: Sure. And remember, we're only

1 addressing Wellness Connection, if you don't mind, Counsel,
2 because that's the only --

3 MR. GAMBLE: I understand, but this -- my substantive
4 points and authorities addressed all efforts to tax costs
5 against Rural Remedies, and that was filed on or about --

6 THE COURT: They have a stamp on the upper right-hand
7 corner.

8 MR. GAMBLE: Yes, Judge. It was filed on or about 9 September 23rd, 2020. Why it was filed in 2020, because, as 10 was previously mentioned by Mr. Dzarnoski and others, there was 11 an effort to seek tax -- to tax costs after the Court had 12 entered its order on Phase 1 and 2.

13 THE COURT: Right, but did --

14 MR. GAMBLE: Just one moment, Your Honor.

15 And in that particular substantive points and 16 authorities, I raised to the Court at that time that Rural 17 Remedies' action had been severed and --

18 THE COURT: Counsel, the reason why I'm stopping you 19 is that's already subject to a ruling back in 2021 by 20 Judge Gonzalez. The --

21 MR. GAMBLE: Right, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: The motion to retax under the rules has 23 to be filed after a memorandum of costs. If you already had a 24 motion to retax that was granted, right, and says that it's 25 without prejudice for them to file a new memorandum of costs,

1 then the operative memorandum of costs was the one filed in 2 August of 2022, and I'm dealing only with Wellness Connection.
3 I'm really trying to get to the rest of your cases, but --

4 MR. GAMBLE: Right, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: But realize --

6 MR. GAMBLE: And I joined on --

7 THE COURT: -- so that's why the Court was asking
8 with regards to Wellness Connection, please give the Court the 9 date of your joinder to Wellness Connection after it filed its 10 memorandum of costs on August 9th, 2022, which would then 11 trigger any motions to retax before the Court.

12 MR. GAMBLE: Well, we filed joinders and motions to 13 retax filed by TGIG, High Sierra, Holistics and Deep Roots, and 14 Clear River. We filed those motions on August 11th, 2022.

15 We also filed motions -- joinders and motions to 16 retax on August 9th, 2022.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. GAMBLE: And also, Your Honor, on August 17th,
19 2022, I filed a motion -- I filed a notice with the Court
20 because I wasn't present, I was out of the country on the 21 hearing on September 16th, 2022. I filed a motion with the 22 Court or actually the points and authorities with the Court
23 indicating that I was submitting my matter on the record and 24 for the Court to consider all my joinders for retax and also 25 those separate points and authorities previously filed on the

1 issue of the bill of costs which was filed on September 23rd,
2 2020. So your original --

3 THE COURT: But you can't do that, Counsel.

4 MR. GAMBLE: -- comment to me was where did you
5 substantially raise the issue of the fact that your case had 6 been severed and the fact that you didn't go to trial when 7 everybody else went to trial, and your case got settled before
8 you went to trial. That was raised in my points and 9 authorities --

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Gamble -- Mr. Gamble. We need
11 to move on. The Court can only consider what it can consider 12 under the rules on timely filed memorandum of costs, timely
13 filed motions to retax costs, timely filed joinders to motions
14 to retax costs.

15 The Court can't have parties say, go back in the 16 3,000 plus pleadings, and I'm incorporating things in those 17 3,000 plus pleadings; right? Remember, the Court has to rule
18 on what the Court can take into consideration under the 19 applicable statutes, case law, et cetera. So that's the only 20 thing the Court can look at. That's the only thing the Court
21 does look at because this is not a situation where there's an 22 independent stipulation of the parties where they've agreed to 23 something different as far as the scope of what the Court can 24 look at in the pending motions.

25 So thank you so very much, Mr. Gamble. Thanks for

1 pointing out those document numbers. I do appreciate it.

2 Mr. Rose, have you had an opportunity to finish your
3 argument? If so, I need to move to the people --

4 MR. ROSE: Yes, Your Honor. I'll just say that 5 whether someone severed their case, whether they settled with 6 other parties, they did not do that with us, and we're entitled 7 to the costs that we're seeking.

8 THE COURT: I do appreciate it. Thank you so very 9 much for your argument.

10 MR. ROSE: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. RULIS: Thank you, Your Honor. Nate Rulis, for 13 the record, Your Honor. A couple of quick points that I want
14 to address.

15 First, I'm going to go to, Mr. Rose said that things
16 were not mentioned in the pleadings. I want to direct and be 17 clear, especially when we're talking about spending time
18 talking about Westlaw research. It's the -- and Mr. Rose
19 actually cited to the exact page of our motion where it talks
20 about it, which is the motion to retax and settle costs
21 regarding Wellness Connection and Nevada filed by Qualcan on 22 August 12th, at 8:14 p.m., and I apologize. I don't have the 23 docket number, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: It's okay.

25 MR. RULIS: But on page 7 of that document, at lines,

1 let's see here, 12 through 16, one of the things that is very
2 specifically addressed is the fact that their legal research
3 does not have supporting -- the necessary and supporting 4 documentation for them to be entitled to that.

5           Additionally, I think in the reply that was then
6 filed on September 9th at 5:47 p.m., on page 11, there are 7 additional -- the categories that I previously mentioned that 8 are talked about, which are that Mr. Rose's memorandum of costs
9 and the supporting documentation do not meet the requirements
10 for them to be awarded those costs. And that's in accordance 11 with the case law that Your Honor has already cited that's 12 simply stating that this is online research, and an attorney 13 declaration saying it was done for the case is not sufficient.

14           They have to show was that the research actually was 15 done, what it was done for, why, and I don't believe that what 16 they've provided meets the necessary requirements. I think as 17 Your Honor had already alluded to, photocopies, we have no idea
18 what those photocopies were. They're completely redacted, but 19 that also goes to, as I mentioned before, the runner services, 20 the trial services, the outside copies, and I will say that in 21 looking back at the memo of costs as it relates to deposition
22 and transcript fees, while I believe many of them are for 23 transcripts, they do include in at least one occasion, video
24 and the transcript of deponents. So they are, in fact, asking
25 to essentially double dip on some of these costs.

1           And, you know, the problem with being able to say
2 they should only be allowed X costs is when you can't tell what 3 the costs were incurred for. All I can do is say we don't have 4 the information to challenge specific cost, and therefore the 5 whole category should not be allowed.

6           So that's on substantive costs.

7           I do want to address the PJR, and I think Mr. Rose 8 seems to have a fundamental misunderstanding of what's being -- 9 of what was addressed in the pleadings and what's being argued,
10 and that's -- you heard him say that none of their costs were 11 incurred in relation to the PJR claims, and that's fascinating,
12 and I think that's important because the only reason Wellness
13 Connection was named is because, as Mr. Parker was reading in 14 his amended complaint, is in relation to the PJR claims. And 15 so what they've said to you here today is --

16           THE COURT: And Mr. Parker on behalf of Nevada
17 Wellness Center.

18           MR. RULIS: Correct.

19           MR. PARKER: Correct, Your Honor.

20           THE COURT: Go ahead.

21           MR. RULIS: Is that the only -- that all of the costs
22 that they incurred and are asking for were incurred in relation 23 to claims that they were not a party to and not part of this 24 litigation for. They were brought into the litigation as 25 parties to the PJR claim. Under the Nevada Administrative Act,

1 and I apologize, Mr. Parker can address that more fully, but 2 that's what they were brought in for, and they said that they 3 don't -- they're not asking to recover any costs related to the 4 reason they rebutted the lawsuit.

5 THE COURT: Wait. But if you look at the dates in 6 their memorandum of costs, right, the dates, they say that
7 they -- by the way, they did say they filed a business court
8 answer in this case on 2/12/2020.

9 MR. PARKER: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Just to let you know in their memorandum
11 of costs, right. So the Court was going to have a question
12 about how there was filings predating filing an answer that 13 they're seeking costs for, but since this was not a -- I had to 14 double check it wasn't a motion to dismiss, but once again, so
15 if you look at their dates, other than the two motion -- other 16 than $7, okay, looking at page 1 of 8, the very first page;
17 right?

18 MR. RULIS: Yep.

19 THE COURT: The rest of their costs start, that's 20 what I was -- part of the reason I was trying to get their 21 chronology here, folks, right, because chronologies matter --
22 starts in February of 2020 and then goes on from there. I
23 shouldn't say that. There was a couple of hearings in 2019, 24 that there's some parking charges for.

25 MR. RULIS: Right.

1 THE COURT: But it's --

2 MR. RULIS: And, Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: So I'm trying to reconcile what you're 4 saying with these dates.

5 MR. RULIS: Well, so let me answer on the answer.

6 I believe Wellness Connection filed an answer to 7 D.H. Flamingo's complaint.

8 THE COURT: Oh.

9 MR. RULIS: But they're not here, not to my 10 complaint, not to MM and LivFree's complaint. Not to Nevada
11 Wellness Centers complaint. They filed an answer to 12 D.H. Flamingo, who then, I believe dismissed their claims, and 13 that's, you know, that's, if you go back to the notice of 14 appeal, I believe D.H. Flamingo's voluntary dismissal of their 15 claims is one of the things that Wellness Connection is 16 appealing, but that's the answer that they filed is to the 17 D.H. Flamingo complaint.

18 THE COURT: Wait a second.

19 What I'm looking at is I'm trying to reconcile what 20 you're saying with regards to the receipt for $1,483 with a
21 Case Number of 787004-B, which is the case number here; right?
22 Which is -- and then it's not one of the -- are you saying that 23 yours is one of the consolidated cases?

24 MR. RULIS: Yes. My --

25 THE COURT: And so that your case wasn't yet existing

1 at the time of the complaint? I mean, do you mind just 2 clarifying what you mean.

3 MR. RULIS: No, no. My case was certainly existing.
4 The MM case was the first one filed. Our case is I think 18.

5 THE COURT: You're one of the 18s.

6 MR. RULIS: Yes. We are one of the 18s.

7 And I guess I haven't -- admittedly, I haven't gone
8 back and looked at that exact answer, but as I recall, that is 9 the answer to D.H. Flamingo's complaint.

10 THE COURT: Now, granted, the answer is not until 11 July 28th, 2020, interestingly enough, which is a question I
12 was going to see if somebody brought up to the Court.

13 MR. RULIS: And that also brings up the date of 14 settlement, which, you know, I don't want to rehash, but we did 15 address that in the supplemental briefing that we filed related 16 to Essence's motion, and so I have that brief. I don't have 17 that document number, and I apologize, but the date of 18 settlement for the settling parties was, we believe was 19 July 29th, at which time it was announced to the Court, and 20 the Court excused the settling parties from any further 21 participation in the trial.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Do you want to address Mr. Rulis's
23 statement with regards to didn't necessarily need to be a party 24 in order to get some of the costs that he's seeking, and 25 answering party? I'm just asking if you want to address it.

1 MR. RULIS: Sure. I mean --

2 THE COURT: If you don't, that's fine, but it was
3 brought up, that question came up today. I had an opportunity
4 for one side. So I'm going to give the opportunity to the 5 other side if you want to.

6 If not, I'm moving on. I've got more than enough
7 other parties that want to get taken care of.

8 MR. RULIS: I would -- I'll leave that to Mr. Parker,
9 and I would simply join and agree with what he said previously,
10 which is under the cases, Golightly, if you don't answer,
11 you're not a party, and you're not entitled to costs and fees.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Let's walk the circle through with 13 everybody else on the motions to retax with regards to the 14 current pending. I'm going to give you two minutes most, each
15 side.

16 I gave Mr. Rulis actually -- you got two minutes and 17 eight seconds.

18 So, Mr. Parker, you can have your two minutes and 19 eight seconds as final words, and go circle around with other
20 people just so I can get everyone taken care of, folks.

21 MR. PARKER: Your Honor, I wanted to add -- to 22 actually address something that Mr. Rose said regarding the 23 dates being brought up and how important those dates are to the 24 Court's consideration of costs.

25 In the -- in Mr. Rose's opposition, the Omnibus

1 opposition to the motion to retax, he indicates in a footnote,
2 the dates of the Second Amended Complaint.

3 My point is it's not -- it shouldn't be new or 4 unexpected that these dates would play an important part in the 5 Court's consideration of what costs are awardable against 6 certain plaintiffs.

7 Your Honor, I gave you a copy of our complaint so you
8 wouldn't have to take my word for it, and that paragraph 9 specifically says that they're being brought in because of the 10 PJR, and that's why they were brought in. We were forced to.
11 We didn't want to. My initial complaint did not identify 12 anyone other than the D.O.T.

13 Mr. Rulis's complaint only identified the D.O.T.

14 The Judge said we had to name them, and that we had 15 to name them and get them served. We didn't want to do any of 16 it.

17 THE COURT: But, Counsel, and the reason I'm going to 18 interrupt you, because in addition to the whole analysis I did
19 on Golightly, right --

20 MR. PARKER: Sure.

21 THE COURT: Think about it in the intervening time
22 as, well.

23 MR. PARKER: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Let's think about, right, there is other 25 cases where you mandatorily, right, have to include parties to

1 a case; right, or if the law requires it. So I'm hearing the 2 argument, but the wanting to include people if there's a
3 requirement in order to get the relief you're potentially 4 requesting you have to include certain people, right, just like
5 you've got to sue the AG's office right, if you want to test
6 contest constitutionality; right, to give them a chance -- the 7 opportunity to respond; right?

8 MR. PARKER: Certainly.

9 THE COURT: There's compulsory counterclaims. There
10 are certain parties that use as few or as necessary parties.
11 If you don't include them, then you can't move forward with 12 your cases. There's a whole slew of things I could cite, which 13 I really don't want to take the time doing.

14 MR. PARKER: Absolutely.

15 THE COURT: So how is this different that you're 16 saying? I appreciate you didn't want to, but isn't that the 17 case in a lot of things?

18 MR. PARKER: Absolutely, Your Honor, and that's why
19 I, again, read Golightly more than I wanted to. And the way
20 you differentiate the position that Mr. Rose finds himself in 21 today versus in that case, the interpleader action requires you
22 to identify everyone who may have a stake in that claim.
23 That's what eventually Mr. Vannah did, and unfortunately he 24 submitted his --

25 THE COURT: Didn't do it the way he needed to, yeah.

1 MR. PARKER: -- his lien too late.

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 MR. PARKER: And that's what happened with him, and 4 as a result, he had to take a pro rata share of that $15,000 --

5 THE COURT: Didn't get his prayer.

6 MR. PARKER: Didn't get his -- exactly.

7 The difference here, Your Honor, is that Mr. Rose 8 didn't have to answer the complaint if he chose not to. He 9 could've stayed on the sidelines the entire time because the --

10 THE COURT: Didn't you all -- just -- the reason I'm 11 going to stop you.

12 MR. PARKER: Go right ahead.

13 THE COURT: There's a whole bunch of three day
14 notices, intent to take default, and since there are prechanges
15 of 2019, changes to the NRCPP, they would get three days, not 16 seven days, but there's a whole bunch of those; right? If they 17 didn't, wouldn't they be defaulted, and couldn't they have 18 lost --

19 MR. PARKER: They wouldn't have lost their licenses.
20 How would they have lost their licenses?

21 THE COURT: Well, that's why I stopped at lost. I
22 didn't say what they could have lost. I said lost.

23 MR. PARKER: Okay. Good enough.

24 THE COURT: I said lost.

25 MR. PARKER: Good point. No different than -- no

1 different than an interpleader action. If you choose not to be
2 a part of it --

3 THE COURT: Right. You don't get a piece of the pie.

4 MR. PARKER: Right. And in this case, they already 5 had their piece of the pie, and the point was, and this was 6 raised in one of the briefs, the reason why they joined is 7 because they felt that the D.O.T. may have been -- may not have 8 adequately represented their positions. That's what they say,
9 and I believe that will come up in one of the briefs that was 10 submitted, Your Honor, and they chose to come in and get 11 involved in this case.

12 So my complaint is very clear as to why we brought 13 them in, and if that's the case, then certainly the comments
14 made by Mr. Rulis should resonate with the Court, because he is 15 now saying that he didn't -- he being Mr. Rose from Wellness
16 Connection, did not incur any costs related to the PJR. The 17 only reason they're in this case.

18 When you look at their memorandum of costs, Your 19 Honor, the largest single item is the deposition transcripts
20 and fees for $31,000, and I'm sure you see that in front of 21 you, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Starting what dates though?

23 MR. PARKER: This is page 2 of 8.

24 THE COURT: No, I'm sorry.

25 MR. PARKER: It doesn't say. It doesn't say what

1 phase. It says deposition and transcript fees, 31,885.17.

2 THE COURT: You all are -- you had highlighted over
3 and over again why it's so necessary to have courtesy copies in 4 something like this.

5 MR. PARKER: I can bring you a copy of it, Your 6 Honor.

7 THE COURT: No. No. You gave me -- I'm just --

8 MR. PARKER: Right.

9 THE COURT: I mean, I'm clicking back and forth. You
10 noted your -- I was circling back because remember, I have to 11 click thing by thing by thing.

12 Going back, there is at least 15 more, three-day
13 notices of intent to take defaults against a variety of 14 different entities, okay. At least one of them has a Wellness
15 in it. I didn't click on it to see which Wellness entity it
16 was, okay.

17 So if they didn't participate --

18 MR. PARKER: They didn't -- if they didn't 19 participate.

20 THE COURT: You're saying there's no risk for a
21 default standpoint?

22 MR. PARKER: Unless they felt that the D.O.T. didn't 23 adequately represent their interests, but the D.O.T. was 24 representing the interests of the Department of Taxation and 25 its process. This was a process issue.

1           My complaint, Mr. Rulis's complaint,
2           Mr. Christiansen's complaint, none of them said I want
3           Essence's license. I want Wellness Connection's license, and I
4           want Clear River's license. We said the process was flawed.
5           That's what we said, and in part, the Court upheld --

6           THE COURT: By the way, you filed several of those 7           three-day notices of intent to default.

8           MR. PARKER: I had to. I appreciate you whispering
9           it, Your Honor. No one else heard.

10          But, yes.

11          THE COURT: That's why I brought up previously.

12          MR. RULIS: No, where it -- we had -- Your Honor, we 13          were instructed on what we had to do. You will notice for the 14          first year our complaint didn't have them as defendants.
15          That's not what we wanted to do, but we did it because of the 16          PBR (sic) requirement, and that's exactly why Mr. Rose's client 17          was made a defendant, and so for him to say that his client
18          didn't incur these costs as a part of the PBR seems 19          disingenuous, Your Honor.

20          And when I look at the deposition of transcript fees,
21          again, the largest -- the bulk of his costs, there's not a 22          single date for which the Court can analyze whether or not he's 23          entitled to that. And it is his burden. He would turn this 24          process on his head by saying it's our burden to say -- or to 25          save him from himself, to indicate which transcripts are from

1 what date and what part or what cause of action it applied to.
2 This Court is left to the -- is left to the exhibits and this 3 memorandum.

4 The Court's only conclusion could be that his client
5 Wellness Connection and several of the other defendants were 6 brought in as a result of the PBR, and based upon Rule 30, 7 they're not entitled under Rule 233 B. They're not entitled to 8 any costs, period. And then the Court's analysis stops there.
9 But Mr. Rulis is correct. He does mention that in terms of the 10 deposition of Robert Porter (phonetic), he asked for the video
11 and the transcript. It doesn't matter if someone asked for the 12 video deposition. You can just simply just get the transcript,
13 Your Honor. You know you don't have to request the video.
14 Certainly that exercise before you, starting this morning at 15 8:30 demonstrates the problems of trying to use a video versus 16 a transcript.

17 So, Your Honor, and then if you look at the parking,
18 all of these parking dates are ahead of my Second Amended
19 Complaint. I'm just giving the Court examples of why this 20 memorandum does not comply with the rules. It doesn't comply
21 with Brunzell, and I don't know how you've been offered
22 sufficient information and backup material to clarify what goes
23 with what cause of action, and so I would suggest that it's all
24 related to the PPR, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate it. Thank you so

1 much.

2 MR. PARKER: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Before I go on to anybody else, I do need
4 to ask Mr. Rose, I do need to ask you a question.

5 MR. RULIS: Your Honor, if I could make one
6 clarification.

7 THE COURT: No. I'm going to ask Mr. Rose a
8 question. Like I said I was going to. And then I will give 9 you the same.

10 MR. RULIS: Apologies. I just want to make one
11 clarification before we go too far.

12 THE COURT: The receipt for the answer, the $1,483
13 that's attached, okay, says 7/28/2020. Is that the day you
14 answered one of the underlying consolidated cases, or is there
15 an earlier one?

16 MR. ROSE: There's definitely earlier answers, Your 17 Honor. I just don't have the dates with me. I would have to 18 go back.

19 THE COURT: Maybe Mr. Rulis, that's the point maybe
20 that he wants to make. Let's hear it.

21 MR. ROSE: Yeah, and I'd have to go back and check.
22 That's my belief, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Someone was on their phone. Go
24 ahead. Did you get an answer?

25 MR. RULIS: It is, Your Honor, that's a -- I don't

1 want it to be a misrepresentation to this Court. I had my 2 office look. I will admit that Mr. Rose's clients did, in 3 fact, file an answer to the MM and LivFree Wellness Second
4 Amended Complaint, and that was -- the answer was filed on June
5 29th of 2020. So I would say they it could request costs
6 between June 29th, 2020, and July 29th, 2022, to the extent
7 that they complied with the rules, are determined to be a
8 prevailing party and have provided Your Honor sufficient 9 documentation.

10 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Same clarification for Qualcan.
11 Mr. Rose answered on the 30th of June, 2020, Your Honor, and I
12 had somebody send it to me.

13 THE COURT: Somehow I thought with all these 14 wonderful attorneys in here somehow that clarification would 15 magically appear.

16 Okay. Mr. Rose, do you have a different viewpoint
17 than other than what's been stated that in the late June time
18 period the answers occurred with regards to some of the parties 19 that had filed the motions to retax?

20 MR. ROSE: No. For those, I don't. I'd have to go
21 back and check. I do believe there were some earlier answers,
22 but I just, because this was an issue that wasn't raised in the 23 briefing, I'm just not prepared to talk about that today.

24 THE COURT: I was trying to cross-reference your 25 memorandum of costs, right, and what I saw in your memorandum

1 of costs was only the 7/28/2020 for a filing fee; correct?

2 MR. ROSE: Correct. Correct.

3 THE COURT: I didn't see multiple filing fee
4 receipts. I only saw that one, and so, correct me if I'm 5 wrong, but that was your Exhibit 1.

6 MR. ROSE: Correct, Your Honor. And I'm not sure
7 exactly why. Obviously we filed multiple answers. I'm not
8 sure why in our system only that one cost was shown. So I
9 don't have an answer for that.

10 THE COURT: Were you in this case in 2019?

11 MR. ROSE: We were named as a defendant in 2019. The 12 first plaintiff to name us was D.H. Flamingo. I don't believe 13 we had answered, but we did start attending hearings, Your 14 Honor. In fact, I believe we were at the hearing in December 15 of 2019 when all the plaintiffs asked for leave, and they were 16 not ordered. It was not mandatory for them to bring us in. It
17 was leave. They were given leave so...

18 THE COURT: Okay. Appreciate it. Thank you so very 19 much. Thank you for answering that question. Thank you for 20 the points of clarification.

21 MR. PARKER: I got a date.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Parker.

23 MR. PARKER: I got a date for you, Your Honor.
24 That's the only reason I stood up. I didn't want to take much 25 more of --

1 THE COURT: No worries. Go ahead.

2 MR. PARKER: I got a text from my associate as well.
3 6/29/20 for Mr.--

4 THE COURT: That's why I'm saying the end of June
5 time period.

6 MR. PARKER: You're right. I just wanted to make
7 sure. I was trying to save Mr. Rose some time as well.

8 MR. ROSE: And, Your Honor, they've raised some new 9 issues even in their reply arguments.

10 THE COURT: Yeah, I know. But, okay. I -- that's 11 something we get a lot of lawyers together; right? Okay. A
12 lot of experienced lawyers. You all like to speak, and so much
13 for two minutes, and now it's 11:00 o'clock.

14 So here's what we're going to do. We're going to 15 take a 10-minute break. We're going to see you back at 11:10.
16 Thank you so very much. Have a good one.

17 (Proceedings recessed at 10:59 a.m., until 11:11 a.m.)

18 THE COURT: Okay. So we are back on the record, same
19 case, same parties. Nobody needs to do introductions again.
20 We were just --

21 I see Mr. Rose standing. Was there something that 22 you need to say real briefly?

23 MR. ROSE: I do want to provide the Court some dates
24 if I could, to give some context --

25 THE COURT: Of course.

1 MR. ROSE: -- Court's question.

2 So the Court asked whether we were in the case in
3 2019. I had a call to an associate in our office. On January
4 4th, 2019, D.H. Flamingo named us in its complaint.

5 On September --

6 THE COURT: Did you answer that complaint?

7 MR. ROSE: Not --

8 THE COURT: That's why I was asking, yeah, when you
9 were in the case. Go ahead, please.

10 MR. ROSE: Right. On September 6, 2019,
11 D.H. Flamingo filed its First Amended Complaint. They had 12 given us an extension to answer. So we hadn't answered at that 13 point.

14 We filed our answer to D.H. Flamingo's First Amended
15 Complaint on February 12th, 2020.

16 So that's the context, Your Honor, of how we did get 17 involved in 2019, and it kind of snowballed from there.

18 I will say, Your Honor, again the statute doesn't 19 provide for it. I haven't seen the case law that says you're 20 only liable for court costs for certain time frames and dates.

21 We were on all of the deposition notices that they --
22 when they were conducting depositions in January, in February
23 and March, they noticed us on everything, Your Honor, and 24 Judge Gonzalez required us to be at every hearing.

25 THE COURT: Starting when?

1           MR. ROSE: In December. So we were at the 2 hearings --

3           THE COURT: You're saying that there's a specific 4 order --

5           MR. ROSE: No, there --

6           THE COURT: I looked through every single hearing,
7 and I --

8           MR. ROSE: No, there's not an order, Your Honor, but 9 I do recall in 2019 telling the Judge that we hadn't been 10 served and had to answer. And she said you knew about the 11 case. You need to be here. You need to be involved, and so 12 that was verbally. It's not a written order, Your Honor, but 13 the parties who were named -- that's because we were named, and 14 even though D.H. Flamingo hadn't required us to answer, we were 15 involved in this, and so the plaintiffs included us on the 16 service of all of their deposition notices that they're now
17 complaining about, and all of the other pleadings as well.

18           So in addition to there being no case law and no
19 statute that allows them to cut and pick and choose what costs
20 they should be liable for based on when they filed the 21 complaint and when they answered, that's not how they conducted 22 themselves. That's not how they acted in this case. And 23 then --

24           THE COURT: Well, I think you all just presented this 25 Court a question; right? And the reason why I'm stopping you

1 is because I'm hearing what you're saying.

2 Folks, I would like to try and get as many of you
3 taken care of today as possible because I think, in fairness of 4 to you all who keep coming, you would like to get this taken
5 care of; however, you do realize this issue has come up, and I
6 do not want anyone after the fact saying that they did not have 7 an opportunity to brief the issue of whether or not someone can 8 seek costs before they officially are in a case, okay.

9 I was not the Judge back, as you all know, in '19,
10 '20, '21 until September of 2021 when this case -- it was 11 either September or October. The reason why I say that is once 12 the docket went over in September, you all had a couple of 13 preempts. I don't remember. I got this in September or 14 October. Close enough, right, of 2021, after things had all
15 been done other than these pending issues for costs and fees
16 type issues, mostly costs.

17 What the Court's trying to contemplate is resolution
18 so that you all can get resolution here. I think that I can 19 rule based on my knowledge of the law, my knowledge of 20 statutes, my knowledge of plain interpretation; however, I am
21 also appreciative this issue of when is an entity a party for 22 purposes of seeking costs? If that's going to be an 23 overarching issue that I have some number, we'll see, of people
24 that are going to ask me to do a supplemental brief just on 25 that specific topic, then I'm going to determine whether I

1 should rule today or should not rule today, taking nothing into 2 account. I've already ruled on Essence. They are done. They 3 are taken care of. It was not issued -- the Court doesn't --
4 everything that was presented to the Court at that time --

5 Mr. Bice, your client, I ruled on.

6 Did I just say the wrong name?

7 MR. PARKER: Not on the amount, Your Honor, you ruled 8 on --

9 THE COURT: No. I ruled on the ruling, but not on 10 the --

11 MR. PARKER: Amount, right.

12 THE COURT: -- dollars. Yes.

13 MR. PARKER: Right. So I -- that's the only thing
14 I've looked physical for.

15 THE COURT: I'm just saying, I'm not taking back -- 16 this is not a sua sponte reconsideration of my analysis and my 17 ruling from the prior hearing to the extent that what I ruled
18 on with regards to what I've already ruled on is where I was 19 going, okay. I wasn't -- you all were given a chance first to 20 try and agree upon dollars, but that being said --

21 MR. PARKER: That is part of the subsequent briefing;
22 however, with -- even with Essence, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. PARKER: So that's out there.

25 THE COURT: It's out there --

1 MR. BICE: The only --

2 THE COURT: -- get you all -- I'm not trying to 3 reopen up everything, folks. Really what I'm trying to do is 4 if this is an overarching issue that I have people, I'm not 5 saying how many counsel that's going to take, right, but if 6 it's a single person, single counsel's issue, I'm going to rule
7 today, okay.

8 If it's an overarching issue that a multitude of the 9 parties feel that needs to be briefed for whatever your reasons
10 it may need to be briefed so that you feel that it's an 11 overarching issue that's going to impact a multitude of parties
12 and/or counsel, then I'm at least -- the only thing I'm going
13 to ask is really simply this. If there's anyone on remotely
14 that is going to ask for supplemental briefing on the issue,
15 the very, very narrow issue of can you see costs before you
16 actually answered in a situation where you have not filed a 17 motion to dismiss, that's not the situation on a motion to 18 dismiss yet, right, can you seek costs prior to the time of 19 answering, okay, then I'm just going to see if that is being 20 requested of the Court.

21 So for anyone who is on remotely, put it in the chat
22 if you're requesting it, and you've got a minute or two, and 23 I'm just going to say globally here in court, I don't want long
24 discussions by anyone. If anyone is going to request that,
25 please stand up and let me know if you're going to request.

1 Oh, okay. So let me be clear. This is not reopening
2 up anybody's argument. It's a very simple, yes, I'm requesting 3 supplemental briefing, or no, Your Honor, I am not requesting 4 supplemental briefing on behalf of my client or clients or part
5 of clients if you represent multiple clients.

6 Okay. I'm starting here in court.

7 MR. PARKER: This is the yes, I think, standing up,
8 Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Pardon?

10 MR. PARKER: I think these are the yesses standing up 11 currently.

12 THE COURT: That's what I'm about to find out if 13 these are the yesses standing up. Okay.

14 MR. GRAF: As to which memorandum, the cause, motion.

15 THE COURT RECORDER: You guys have to make sure you
16 identify yourselves.

17 THE COURT: Wait. Wait. Wait.

18 MR. GRAF: Again, Rusty Graf on behalf of --

19 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to rephrase my question
20 issue so that everyone is the same, okay.

21 The sole question this Court is asking is are there
22 counsel on behalf of their clients that feel before the Court
23 should make a ruling on the pending motions to retax costs,
24 either in their entirety for ones that have not yet had a 25 ruling or as to the dollar amount to the ones that already has

1 a ruling in part, that --

2           Whoever is off of mute right now, please put yourself
3 on mute until I at least finish my question because now --
4 okay.

5           Is the request supplemental briefing on the topic of 6 when can costs start for purposes of the pending cases in the 7 consolidated cases 787004 under the statute. That is in no way
8 an opportunity for anybody who has not already filed a joinder,
9 substantive joinder, right, or joinder, not anyone who has 10 filed a motion to retax, not anyone who's filed a memorandum of 11 costs, okay, and it's not to open up any other issues, any 12 other questions, any other arguments.

13           So realistically, it would be like five pages or 14 less, because not including the caption page. So that on this 15 topic that I narrowly tailored.

16           So it's either I need to know how many people are 17 going to be requesting it, and that's the sole thing that does 18 not open up any other questions on any other topics.

19           Mr. Schwarz, go ahead.

20           MR. SCHWARZ: Solely on this topic, just for a
21 purpose of clarification to be able to answer the Court's 22 question, and I'll sit down if the answer is no and I won't say 23 anything further.

24           Although --

25           THE COURT RECORDER: Mr. Schwarz, can you --

1           THE COURT: I don't want to hear any analysis. It's 2 really very simple. Supplemental briefing yes or no?

3           MR. SCHWARZ: To be able to answer the question, I
4 need to know one thing. Although we are differently situated,
5 although our client Lone Mountain is differently situated in 6 that --

7           THE COURT: I don't want to hear about different
8 situations or any analysis.

9           MR. SCHWARZ: It is similarly situated to Essence on 10 one key issue that informs this discussion, which is we 11 intervened at exactly the same time as Essence, in May of 2019, 12 and so --

13           THE COURT: That's the reason why -- Counsel, I'm 14 going to stop here. I cannot have an analysis because if I
15 give you an opportunity for analysis, every other person is 16 going to ask me, or at least most will or some will. I've got 17 to be fair; right? So that's why said part of the case; right?

18           MR. SCHWARZ: Sure.

19           THE COURT: So whether it's intervention, whether 20 it's answering, it's becoming a part of the case.

21           And since there -- I appreciate there was a TRO. I
22 did not see any motions to dismiss at the early stage, right,
23 so I don't see that that necessarily would apply, but if 24 somebody is arguing that they filed a motion to dismiss, and 25 therefore it should be from motion to dismiss date, if somebody

1 is saying that they filed an answer, and so it should be the 2 preanswer or answer date, if somebody is saying they intervene,
3 and it should be preintervention or intervention date, it
4 really is that there may be some different topics depending on 5 where somebody's shoes may be, or in this case where their 6 store may be or when they got their store or whatever the case
7 may be, but the very simple thing is the statute has language,
8 right, the rule has language.

9           So that is where the question is, and it's a simple
10 yes or no. And if somebody doesn't have -- if somebody needs a
11 clarification I'm just going to really ask you yes or no. You
12 can choose a yes, no, yes or no, okay, because I'm going around
13 to everyone. There's not going to be any clarifications
14 because I cannot have further arguments, folks. It's not fair
15 to everybody else.

16           MR. SCHWARZ: I just think Mr. Bice and I both need 17 to know whether it is being reopened as to his client based on 18 upon --

19           THE COURT: I was being very clear. I thought to the 20 extent that a portion, anything that the Court's already ruled 21 on, it is done and ruled on.

22           To the extent that there may be dollars that are 23 impacted, right, that has not been ruled on.

24           Mr. Bice, do you understand the distinction between 25 what I've ruled on on the merits versus the actual dollars?

1 MR. BICE: I do, and the problem that I -- I do, Your
2 Honor, and so I object to the plaintiffs trying to relitigate,
3 which is what much of this is, relitigate the Essence motions
4 that you've already resolved. This issue has been resolved.

5 THE COURT: Okay. I'm -- I thought I was clear about 6 saying that I am not revisiting any of my analysis; right?

7 MR. PARKER: You were.

8 MR. BICE: Right.

9 THE COURT: If we're talking -- okay. So we're not 10 revisiting anything because we've ruled what we've ruled. This 11 did not come up in the first day.

12 To the extent that somebody may say that their client
13 has a -- I articulated who I did. I have not seen proposed 14 orders. So I'm not saying that there is anything that would 15 apply to that. Because remember, on that we do have the oral
16 ruling of the Court and while not memorialized in writing
17 because I don't have orders yet, folks.

18 MR. PARKER: That's right.

19 THE COURT: EDCR 7.21, and I know I gave you some 20 additional time, but you might want to double check when that 21 time frame was up.

22 That being said, I need to see if people are yeses or 23 nos. So what Mr.--

24 MR. PARKER: I'm ready to start the ball off, Your 25 Honor. Teddy Parker on behalf of Nevada Wellness Center. Yes.

1 MR. RULIS: Nate Rulis on behalf of MM Development
2 and LivFree Wellness, yes.

3 MR. CHRISTIANSEN: Pete Christiansen for Qualcan,
4 yes.

5 MR. BECKSTROM: James Beckstrom on behalf of ETW and 6 the five related clients, yes.

7 MS. SMITH: Stephanie Smith on behalf of Natural
8 Medicine, yes.

9 MR. GRAF: Rusty Graf on behalf of Clear River, yes.

10 MR. ROSE: Christopher Rose for Wellness Connection
11 of Nevada, yes.

12 MR. SCHWARZ: Joel Schwarz on behalf of Lone Mountain
13 Partners. Based upon the discussion of Mr. Bice, no. I'm 14 preserving the right to object to what I think will be now an 15 improper attempt to argue reconsideration on already decided 16 issues.

17 THE COURT: This is a -- okay.

18 Anybody else in court wish to be heard? Some people
19 have not stood up. If you wish to say your yeses or nos, 20 great. Nobody is forcing you to.

21 And, no, sir, you're not on this case. So you didn't 22 get --

23 Sorry. We have our wonderful tech person who was 24 just stretching. I was kidding him.

25 You were starting to stand up and stretch a little

1 bit. I was kidding you.

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Brian, say, yes.

3 Okay. So nobody else in court wishes to be heard one
4 way or another; is that correct? Because I'm moving on to 5 remote.

6 Remote, I said I was going to look in the chat
7 because that was my easiest way. A simple yes or no.

8 Okay. Let's go to the top.

9 Can we go up a little bit so I can see?

10 THE COURT RECORDER: Yeah, that's it. It's at the 11 top right there.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Smith is the top; is that 13 correct?

14 THE COURT RECORDER: No, that was two hours ago, 15 Judge. That's him signing in.

16 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry.

17 THE COURT RECORDER: So Ms. Sugden is.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Sugden. Okay. So I'm just going to 19 go to the people who put in the chat just so that I can hear it 20 verbally.

21 Ms. Sugden, your position, yes or no?

22 MS. SUGDEN: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: On behalf of?

24 MS. SUGDEN: THC Nevada, LLC.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Dzarnoski.

1 MR. DZARNOSKI: On behalf of the TGIG plaintiffs,
2 Your Honor, yes.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Puzey.

4 MR. PUZEY: On behalf of High Sierra Holistics, yes.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Williamson.

6 MR. WILLIAMSON: Your Honor, I object to the 7 timeliness of the plaintiffs' request, but if they are 8 submitting the supplemental briefs on this issue, yes, I would 9 also like to respond to those.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Gamble.

11 MR. GAMBLE: On behalf of Rural Remedies, yes.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Slater.

13 MR. SLATER: On behalf of my clients Inyo Fine
14 Cannabis and the Nuveda entities, yes.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Scow.

16 Can you go scroll down?

17 MR. SCOW: Your Honor, yes, Your Honor. Steven Scow
18 for Nevada Organic Remedies, and we'd like a chance to 19 respond --

20 THE COURT RECORDER: That's as far as that goes.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

22 THE COURT RECORDER: That's as far as it goes down.
23 That's it.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So does anybody else wish to say a
25 yes or a no, or they're going to raise an objection? Just say

1 I'm going to object or, since I have two people doing that even
2 though it was a yes or no, in fairness to anybody else, I don't
3 want them to think that they are complying with what the Court
4 said, yes or no, and somehow didn't have their opportunity to 5 say I object or anybody else wish to be heard?

6 MR. DONATH: Your Honor, Nick Donath on behalf of 7 Green Leaf Farms Holdings, Green Therapeutics (video 8 interference), Red Earth and NevCANN, yes, we would like to 9 have the opportunity.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Bice, I don't think you've 11 taken yourself off of mute. It looks like you might be trying 12 to speak.

13 MR. BICE: No, Your Honor. I wasn't saying anything.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. BICE: I've made my position clear along with 16 Mr. Schwarz and Mr. Williamson.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Anybody else?

18 (No audible response.)

19 THE COURT: No. Okay. Well, the yeses have it. So
20 here's what we're going to do.

21 You realize that means I'm not going to move forward
22 with a ruling today for anything that I have not already ruled
23 on. It in no way is any reconsideration of anything that I
24 have already ruled on, fully appreciating that I made an oral
25 pronouncement from the bench, okay. That means, of course,

1 that if I get written proposed orders, I may sign a written
2 proposed order or maybe not. I have to review it. I can't 3 take anything anticipatory in between now and when the briefing
4 is done. I may sign an order, or I may not. It depends on, A,
5 I haven't gotten any. So I can't know, but I'm just making
6 clear it clear. It's not as if I'm saying I'm holding up
7 everything. If I made a ruling and I feel it's appropriate to 8 sign in order on something I've already ruled on, then I will 9 do so.

10 If I don't have any orders, then, of course, I can't.
11 I'm not going to have time to draft my own right now in the 12 next week. So that was not going to happen.

13 So, Mr. Rose, you're standing up. I'm going to give 14 you the date. Is that what you were about to ask the Court?

15 MR. ROSE: Just also to clarify that for someone to 16 file the brief they had to have filed a timely motion to retax
17 or a joinder to a motion; correct?

18 THE COURT: They have to either file -- now remember
19 it's not just impacting you, right, your client. They had to 20 have either filed a memorandum of costs timely. They had to 21 file a motion to retax timely or a joinder, and if they filed a 22 joinder, it's only to -- same thing, on the motions in the 23 joinders, it's only as to the parties that either filed the 24 motions or filed the joinders.

25 So for a hypothetical circumstance, say somebody

1 filed a joinder as to two motions, but not to more than two 2 motions, then their supplement's only on behalf of those
3 parties that they timely filed a joinder. This is in no way
4 adding anything to anyone. This is realistically, since the 5 Court has the full discretion on the supplemental issue, and 6 hear (indiscernible) that that was a request.

7 I'm not even ordering it. This is a voluntary one.
8 I'm going to give people a specific date, and there's not going
9 to be simultaneous back and forth. It would be a specific date
10 and a specific time.

11 Anybody who files it by that specific date and time
12 will be reviewed. Anybody who does not meet that specific date
13 and time, you all understand it will not be considered. You
14 have waived your right, okay.

15 So if you have issues with your computers, feel free
16 to come to the courthouse and file it in person. I'm sure you
17 all have sophisticated systems on a multitude of ways or you
18 can get one of your friends, right, to file it on your behalf
19 if that's an issue. And there's lots of tech people and 20 third-party entities that would probably be glad to do it for 21 you as a pay concept.

22 So in any event, there's multiple ways to get that 23 done.

24 So realistically, how -- I don't want to open this 25 up. Give me a quick second to look at my schedule. Oh, gosh.

1 Oh, golly.

2 Okay. Realistically I'm trying to decide if I should
3 give you all two weeks is where I am leaning to do because I
4 figured you're busy with other things going on, and this is 5 adding to whatever you're doing, but I'm also trying to take
6 into account to get this taken care of for you.

7 One second. Let me see what that --

8 Well, this is just a very simple question with no
9 analysis, please. Is there anybody that has any deadline,
10 such -- I'm not saying anybody is appealing, filing writs or 11 anything like that, but is there anybody who has a specific 12 deadline that the Court would not be aware of that's going to 13 impact just the date -- and, please, if you have personal
14 issues, I appreciate you all have personal issues. You all 15 have very busy schedules. I appreciate that.

16 I'm just trying to make sure that I do not pick a 17 date that somehow would negatively impact somebody's rights if 18 they're thinking they're doing something from a legal process
19 in this case, okay. So that realistically is going to appeals
20 because writs don't really have deadlines, but in general. I'm 21 not taking an affirmative (indiscernible) on anything the 22 appellate courts do. I'm just saying they sometimes have done
23 it a year later. So I'll just phrase it that way.

24 Is there any appellate deadline that somehow the 25 Court has to be cognizant of in giving you your schedule? This

1 is purely just to ensure you get enough time and then pick a
2 new date for a hearing.

3 Anybody have, like, an appellate deadline that I may 4 not be aware of?

5 MR. ROSE: Chris Rose for Wellness Connection, no,
6 Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Anybody have one? Please speak.

8 You understand what I'm doing. I'm trying to make 9 sure you don't miss a deadline by me picking a date that's 10 going to negatively impact you.

11 If there's one, let me know. If there's not, I'm 12 going to take silence as being no.

13 (No audible response.)

14 THE COURT: Okay. I'm checking remotely. I'm going
15 to double check the chat just to make sure that somebody didn't 16 have an audio issue, that they couldn't speak.

17 There is nobody putting anything in the chat telling 18 me they have an audio issue and they can't speak.

19 Okay. So.

20 Is there something I'm missing that I should be 21 taking into consideration for the three counsel that are kind
22 of talking, which I can hear you, by the way. I have really --

23 MR. PARKER: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: The audio coming from there to here, just 25 to let you know is --

1 MR. PARKER: We apologize, Your Honor.

2 MR. GRAF: Rusty Graf on behalf of Clear River. Just 3 we were assuming that you're going to give us a new date to 4 come back also after this pleading gets filed. They were 5 asking more about my motion for fees, also whether or not we 6 would do something with that today. I would prefer that we
7 argue it all at the same time for Clear River --

8 THE COURT: You are correctly anticipating that I was 9 going to ask that question at the end on what else you want
10 done.

11 MR. GRAF: Yes, ma'am. Yes, ma'am, thank you.

12 MR. PARKER: I don't know where that came from, Your 13 Honor, but, yes, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: No worries. Okay.

15 Mr. Rose, are you standing up because you have a date
16 issue?

17 MR. ROSE: Your Honor, I was just going to say,
18 without conferring with anyone, as much as the Court has heard
19 as far as argument, and as much briefing as the Court has heard
20 for -- well, it's not our motion, but I'm willing to have the 21 motion as to our costs decided on the papers once the briefs
22 are submitted.

23 THE COURT: But you asked for a supplemental -- oh,
24 you mean on the brief. Okay. I gotcha.

25 MR. ROSE: After the briefs are submitted for the

1 Court to rule on.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I'll leave that to if you
3 all want to do stipulations to hear things only on briefs;
4 right? After the submission date. I'm going to give you a new 5 date. I'm just going to give you two dates.

6 Like I said, I'm just trying to make sure we're not
7 making impacting something that I might not be aware of. Maybe
8 somebody has a licensing meeting that all of a sudden they need
9 to have taken care of, right, or an appeal or something that I
10 just --

11 MR. ROSE: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: I try and keep abreast of most things,
13 but online is, like I said, I don't have a crystal ball
14 (indiscernible). So I can't know everything and don't know
15 everything.

16 Today is still the 21st; right?

17 Okey-dokey.

18 Next week is Nevada day. So I'm not going to make it 19 due then.

20 Okay. I normally would not like to push you out,
21 okay; however, here's the question. I'm trying to balance the 22 rest of my schedule here, folks.

23 The first day, you may have heard me say this this 24 morning when you weren't here, the first day I do not have -- 25 the only couple of days I don't have trial, I've got motions on

1 the 21st of November. Okay. I'm not trying to push you out
2 necessarily a month, but I can give you two weeks to file all
3 of your whatevers, and then do any steps or agreements because 4 you might revisit certain things and hear what the Court said
5 and maybe you agree to certain dollars or things or maybe
6 you'll agree to certain things. Who knows.

7 If I gave you all two weeks and then put it on the 8 21st at 1:00 p.m., I'll give you the 1:00 p.m. to a few minutes
9 before 5:00 p.m. slot, is there any reason not to do that? I'm 10 trying to balance -- I've got back to back to back trials. So
11 I can give you less time before then, but that's the first day
12 I do not have a trial currently.

13 I'm not saying any of these aren't going to flow
14 over.

15 Go ahead, Counsel.

16 MR. ROSE: Teddy Parker on behalf of Nevada Wellness
17 Center, Your Honor. The timing of the brief is fine. I think 18 November 4th will be two weeks.

19 THE COURT RECORDER: Mr. Parker, I'm really
20 struggling to hear you. Sorry.

21 MR. PARKER: No worries. Is that better?

22 (No audible response.)

23 MR. PARKER: Okay. So November 4th I believe will 24 be two weeks, Your Honor. That would be fine in terms of 25 briefing. I'm in a trial starting on the 14th of November. I

1 am sure it will go through the 21st. I would much prefer to be 2 here on that date, but it's in front of -- it's in federal
3 court. So it's a firm date. It's not being changed.

4 THE COURT: I appreciate people might have conflicts.

5 Okay. I was just going to stop at the one. Okay.

6 You all understand no matter what date I pick it's 7 going to be problematic and challenging for somebody, okay,
8 which is why people want to do things on the briefs, that would 9 be okay for briefs. If people want to come in, do something 10 coming in.

11 My other choice, realistically, is to -- I can ask
12 you all to talk with each other and come to a stipulation on a 13 potential day, but the challenge there is it really just took 14 so much administrative time to get you to what was today
15 because you all have very busy schedules, and you're probably 16 less likely to tell me some of your other reasons than you are 17 if you talk among yourselves. I appreciate that in open court 18 you might only give me the trial trials, right, or the 19 arbitrations, whereas if you're among yourselves you might have 20 other dates.

21 I'm also trying not to give you the Wednesday before
22 Thanksgiving, folks. I'm trying not to give you, you know what 23 I mean. I am appreciative many people, even though
24 Thanksgiving really is on Thursday, that they take Wednesday, 25 and they spend family time. So that's why I was trying to

1 focus on Monday.

2 Tuesday, I can push it to Tuesday, the 22nd.

3 Literally, I'm here on Wednesday, but I don't think
4 anybody else wants to be here Wednesday.

5 MR. PARKER: I'm here on Wednesday too, Your Honor,
6 and I'm --

7 THE COURT: I'm not trying to do a who's going to be
8 here. If anybody had family time that they're trying to spend 9 on Wednesday, right, but I'm going to be cognizant of that, and 10 I'm not setting this on Wednesday.

11 MR. PARKER: You can't do the whole week, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Is that what you were talking about?

13 MR. PARKER: Mr. Rulis can't --

14 MR. RULIS: That's what I was standing up to say.
15 I'm out of the jurisdiction that week. I believe we have other 16 plaintiffs counsel that --

17 THE COURT: Okay. I --

18 MR. PARKER: So that whole week, unfortunately.

19 THE COURT: Okey-dokey.

20 MR. PARKER: Your Honor, one other thing that you
21 mentioned that I thought was something that we were also doing
22 in the future, you gave us supplemental briefing opportunities
23 on the Essence related numbers. The last brief that I saw from 24 Mr. Bice's office was filed on September 26 at 5:55 p.m. I
25 thought when we came back here that that supplemental briefing

1 would lend itself to our finalization of our oral argument on 2 those briefing topics.

3 THE COURT: Did you really want me to circle there,
4 or did you want me to finish with this one first?

5 MR. PARKER: I'm going to sit down and let you
6 finish, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Only because if we start these segues,
8 you each will have a little segues.

9 MR. PARKER: No, I just thought we could do
10 everything on the same day.

11 THE COURT: Right. Let's just get to -- well, I'm 12 going to ask Mr. Bice his position too because you -- the 13 parties that were involved in that one, but let me finish with 14 this bigger issue, and then let's go to that one. Okay?

15 MR. PARKER: All right.

16 THE COURT: Okay. As well as the fees motion, which 17 I have to ask Mr. Graf on. So I realize there's a couple 18 other. There's lots of -- since it's Halloween and pro bono
19 month --

20 Remember, it's pro bono month, folks. Okay. But I'm 21 supposed to say it's also Halloween.

22 Well, I can't tell you that I'm going to have time
23 next week because you'd be thinking, oh, maybe that trial,
24 right, that you heard about. They somehow magically came to 25 some resolutions supposedly that they're going to tell me at

1 12:45. So I can't --

2 MR. PARKER: We're excited for you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Welcome to my world. It's a lot, but I
4 enjoy what I do.

5 Here's what I am going to do. I'm not going to have 6 you all sit here waiting, okay, while I try and look at dates,
7 okay. I'm going to have to hear what they tell me at 8 12:45 with regards to what their issue is.

9 I'm also in the midst of another trial that they just 10 told me late yesterday afternoon that they're not going to 11 finish in their allotted additional extra time, and I'm already 12 in back-to-back trials thereafter. So I have a couple of 13 moving parts that I, in order to ensure that everyone is fully 14 and fairly and equitably taken into account and taken care of,
15 so it seems to me I'm going to have to coordinate with my JEA
16 to try and see when we have some time. And some of you are 17 also in another case that I'll be seeing you on the 4th anyway
18 for opioid litigation. So I'm trying not to double balance 19 people who may be in that as well so that they can take care of 20 that.

21 No, I don't have Real Water cases for a little bit.
22 Those I took (indiscernible). That's my '23 and '24, end of 23 '23 and '24 time years.

24 So, Counsel, Mr. Rulis.

25 MR. RULIS: Your Honor, Nate Rulis.

1 THE COURT: When do you leave the jurisdiction?

2 MR. RULIS: Nate Rulis for MM, LivFree. I'm just 3 going to offer I'd be happy to try and coordinate on behalf of 4 plaintiffs. If we could have one person on behalf of 5 defendants, we could coordinate with your chambers as finding a 6 new date.

7 THE COURT: I only have one JEA. I am very
8 appreciative of that offer. I'm also very appreciative to try
9 and get you to today's date, how much time that took on hers.
10 So what we're going to do is we're just going to have to pick a
11 date. I'm appreciative blocking out that week of Thanksgiving 12 is fair because so many people have family obligations, and 13 that's preset. I think any other date I pick may impact 14 someone, but the bottom line is we're going to do it, and 15 people are going to have to make it work because I would love
16 to accommodate each and every one of your schedule and count
17 the number of people you are and do that, but in reality, you
18 all as very busy attorneys are going to have a conflict
19 somewhere.

20 So as long as I don't pick Thanksgiving, which I
21 think is the fair week, because people would've already made
22 family and holiday plans, okay. I think if I pick another date
23 it's going to be this is it. Find a way to make it work, or 24 you can choose to send somebody else from your office, or you
25 can get everyone on your case to agree to have it be done on

1 the pleadings.

2 And remember, only if I have every single joinder,
3 every single movant and the person who filed the memorandum,
4 right, agreeing. That's the only way I will do anything on the 5 pleadings. If I do not have that all, and please do not tell
6 me the day before the hearing, right. That's going to have to 7 be by your -- on your actual pleading for the supplemental.
8 It's going to have to be an additional stipulation from 9 everyone who relates to that particular motion and joinders
10 thereto, okay. That way we just have one pleading date. We 11 don't have different people calling. We don't have different
12 people doing anything.

13 Everybody understands that for the agreements?

14 MR. RULIS: Yes, Your Honor.

15 MR. PARKER: Yes, Your Honor.

16 MR. ROSE: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: So I'm going to speak with the other 18 counsel on their trial at 12:45 to see if by chance I have 19 opened up any dates then. I will tell you possibly depending 20 on what they say maybe I might have the morning of the 31st,
21 and maybe I'm doing them in the afternoon of the 31st. So 22 maybe your Department 31 on Halloween trick or treat. Who 23 knows, Nevada Day, realistically, 1864; right?

24 So we're going to need to find you a date. We're 25 going to tell you the date.

1           The reason why I'm probably not going to pick the 2 31st is I just told you two weeks. I'm sorry. I'm trying to 3 balance, okay. I just misspoke. So it won't be the 31st.
4 That option won't help you, but maybe they'll get done early.
5 Who knows? I'll find you a date. So you will hear from us by 6 tomorrow on what your new date is. You've got the timing of 7 your brief.

8           Page limit on the briefs, when I said five pages, not 9 including the caption page, I did mean five pages not including 10 the caption page.

11           When I -- people think that they're going to attach 12 hundreds of pages of exhibits and other pleadings and 13 incorporate them, no, you're not. At maximum, 10 pages of 14 exhibits.

15           And if you get to that 10th page, please make sure
16 you read EDCR 2.27.

17           Thank you so much.

18           MR. ROSE: Your Honor, is that 5 pages of briefing
19 plus 10 pages of exhibits?

20           THE COURT: A maximum of 10 pages of exhibits and 5
21 pages of briefing, maximum.

22           Now, what I understand -- wait. Don't leave yet
23 because I have to have Mr. Bice and Mr. Graf question; right?
24 I have to ask Mr. Graf --

25           UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, I've got a quick

1 question on the --

2 THE COURT: Hold on a second. I'm asking Mr. Bice
3 and Mr. Graf a question.

4 THE COURT RECORDER: You guys --

5 THE COURT: This is not an open forum for people to 6 talk, please, okay. There is some other pending motions that 7 were not the cost motions.

8 Mr. Graf, one of them was yours.

9 MR. GRAF: Yes, ma'am.

10 THE COURT: Do you wish this to be continued to the 11 new date, or did you wish to still be heard today in the next 12 10 to 15 minutes.

13 MR. GRAF: Yeah, Your Honor, let's continue it to the 14 next day.

15 THE COURT: Does anyone object for Mr. Graf's motion
16 to be heard on the continued date? If so, speak now.

17 MR. PARKER: No objection, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Silence is acquiescence. No one is 19 subjecting.

20 Okay. Mr. Bice, you also had --

21 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: -- the dollars. I would call it the 23 dollar portion; right, to be completed.

24 MR. BICE: Correct. Yes.

25 THE COURT: Now, I will tell you the Court is not

1 going to take any different position if you hear it today
2 versus you hear it on the new date as to what impact, if any,
3 any of the supplemental briefing would have. Let me be clear
4 from that. That's not going to impact yours. Yours is where 5 it's at, okay.

6 MR. BICE: Right.

7 THE COURT: What do you wish? Go ahead, and then
8 let's hear the other parties on that one.

9 MR. BICE: Oh, well, Your Honor, if the Court can 10 hear it -- the reason that we don't have an order to you --

11 THE COURT: Just the dollars.

12 MR. BICE: -- and this was our prime misunderstanding
13 was the dollars. So if the Court is prepared to address that 14 now, we're prepared to address it now.

15 THE COURT: Okay. That means you get total of 10
16 minutes for everyone for oral argument. Everybody understands
17 that?

18 MR. BICE: Understood.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Everybody else on that motion?

20 MR. PARKER: Yep.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Does anyone disagree? Anyone say
22 that it shouldn't be heard today?

23 No. Okay. I'm not hearing any disagreement.

24 So we're just going to be discussing, just so that we 25 have clarity, just, folks, let's make sure because while it's

1 on our nice listing, what I'm going to reference is back on
2 September 16th is my recollection; is that correct?

3 MR. RULIS: That's correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So on September 16th, if we go
5 to that date. On September 16th we heard TGIG's motion to 6 retax and settle costs, and related joinders and supplements
7 thereon.

8 I just misspoke. Sorry. And we had -- so the 9 Essence entities. Let me go back. I've got so many of these 10 motion titles.

11 Mr. Bice, can you please give me the title of the 12 motion. It's going to be easier than me going back and 13 looking.

14 MR. BICE: Your Honor, this was the motion --
15 Mr. Rulis I think -- it was Mr. Rulis's motion to retax.

16 THE COURT: Right. So was I correct on the titling?

17 MR. RULIS: That's correct, Your Honor. Nate Rulis
18 on behalf of MM and LivFree.

19 It was the motion to retax and settle costs filed on 20 August 8th, 2022, at 5:15 p.m., filed by my office.

21 THE COURT: Right. Okay.

22 THE COURT RECORDER: Judge, there's a question in the 23 chat. I just wanted to make you aware of that.

24 THE COURT: There's a question in the chat.

25 Your Honor, is the time for the briefs due any time

1 that day?

2 No. I said end of day, 5:00 p.m. 5:00, p.m. Not in
3 my 5:00 p.m., it does not exist on November 4th. That's 4 5:00 p.m. Pacific time, not Hawaii time.

5 MR. ROSE: And, Your Honor, for that brief, could the 6 Court also order that at the -- to facilitate it for the Court,
7 that whoever files a brief they have to state at the beginning
8 the date that they filed their timely memorandum of costs or 9 motion to retax or joinder? That way we know they have the 10 right to file that supplement?

11 THE COURT: So what you're saying is take a one 12 sentence at the beginning, so-and-so on behalf of blank, the 13 date of the joinder, motion to retax or memorandum was filed on 14 blank timely? I think that's -- actually that would help the 15 Court honestly because then I have a cross reference of where 16 it is, and we don't have somebody raising the issues of the 17 timely, and you all aren't looking back through more than 3,063
18 entries.

19 Is there any reason not to just add the date that you
20 filed your original one?

21 MR. RULIS: Just a clarification. Nate Rulis again.

22 THE COURT: If you filed on more than one dates on 23 behalf of more than one party, drop it in a footnote.

24 MR. RULIS: Exactly. To the extent that you're 25 addressing time frames for more than one party, it will address

1 all of the necessary motions.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. Timely filed on behalf of blank on 3 X date. Timely filed on behalf of blank and blank on Y date.
4 Timely filed on behalf of blank, blank and blank on Z date. If 5 there's an X Y and Z date, or if it's the same and it's on 6 behalf of blank, blank and blank, blank, blank, all on the same
7 date. It's an easy little footnote; right? Any reason -- it's 8 a good idea.

9 MR. ROSE: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: It will help the Court for cross
11 reference.

12 MR. ROSE: For the record, Mr. Schwarz gets credit
13 for that idea.

14 THE COURT: Very good idea.

15 MR. SCHWARZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Everybody heard that, 17 just drop a footnote so that we have the timeliness issue so 18 that we don't have a long time on people saying people did or 19 did not file things timely.

20 Okay. Let's get to Mr. Rulis with regards to 21 Essence. The dollars you had, remember, the Court, you got the 22 supplemental. You were given an opportunity to potentially 23 agree.

24 So please set forth if you have a total number,
25 please set forth where you're at with regards to that pending

1 motion. Go ahead, Counsel.

2 MR. RULIS: So, Your Honor, I just want to make sure
3 we do -- that there's -- and again, Nate Rulis for the record.

4 THE COURT: There's joinders, yes.

5 MR. RULIS: There were a couple -- there were two 6 issues that we were addressing. It wasn't just numbers. It
7 was also part of it was what impacted the numbers, which was 8 what was the settlement date.

9 THE COURT: Correct.

10 MR. RULIS: So as we addressed in the supplement, we 11 believe, and I talked about it earlier that the settlement
12 date, as it was put on the record before the Court was July 13 29th, 2022, at which time Judge Gonzalez said that those 14 settling -- so those of you who are plaintiffs who have settled
15 are welcome to leave. You're also welcome to stay because this 16 is a public hearing.

17 And then she proceeded and said we're going forward
18 with whoever is left. She basically excused the settling
19 plaintiffs and didn't participate thereafter.

20 So I believe that the -- I apologize. The amounts
21 that occurred after that date total -- sorry, Your Honor. I
22 don't think I have it totaled. I have it broken down by per 23 charge on the top of page 3 of that supplement.

24 THE COURT: Well, I'd offer to loan you a calculator,
25 but the last time I loaned out my calculator the counsel took

1 it with him. So I don't have it. Somebody I'm sure on their
2 phone or -- okay. So why don't you just set forth your two 3 issues. I'll circle back with you on your final -- with a
4 number, right.

5 MR. RULIS: Okay.

6 THE COURT: Because -- or you can break it down,
7 however you want to do it. Go ahead, please.

8 MR. RULIS: So there's the costs that were incurred
9 postsettlement, and I'll sit down and calculate that and give 10 Your Honor the total amount of costs. But there were also -- 11 that relates then to the -- there were costs that were included
12 for parties that either did not testify at trial or testified
13 after the settlement date. That total was $16,189.61 in costs
14 related to trial subpoenas for those parties. That's addressed
15 on pages 3 and 4 of the supplemental brief. And then there was 16 the discussion of insufficient documentation, which is again I
17 have those broken down per item. So let me sit down and 18 calculate those and give you the total number.

19 THE COURT: Right. And if you want to walk through 20 your individual items, that's fine so that the various parties
21 can respond as well. That's perfectly fine too.

22 MR. RULIS: Yes. Let me do that. I would be happy
23 to.

24 So the specific items that we are addressing that we 25 talked about, presented to Mr. Bice and Mr. Smith by e-mail is

1 there are video deposition charges and synced DVD copies. That 2 would be in addition to the transcript charges that they've
3 already included. That total is $42,400, and we don't believe
4 that that's allowed under NRS 18.005, sub 5.

5 THE COURT: Did you say 4200 or 42,000?

6 MR. RULIS: $42,400.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. RULIS: There are photocopy costs of $3,315.52,
9 which is the only documentation is they made copies. There's 10 nothing that says what those copies were or what they were for.
11 So under Berosini, I don't believe that those are allowable.

12 There are AT&T long-distance phone calls in a total 13 of $234.36. Again, there's nothing that provides why they were 14 charging long distance phone calls, much less why we're still 15 charging long distance phone calls in the era of cell phones.
16 But nonetheless, there's nothing that identifies what the call
17 was for or why we're being charged for it.

18 There are runner fees for $550. Again, nothing that 19 supports that why that was reasonably or necessarily incurred.

20 Legal research in the total of $9,230.30, nothing
21 that supports what the research was, why it was done and why it
22 was reasonable and necessary other than I believe a declaration
23 by counsel that just said we did it --

24 THE COURT: -- declaration.

25 MR. RULIS: -- and it was necessary.

1           And then there are trial technician fees of $5,075.22
2 and discovery related, and Mr. Smith clarified that that is for 3 HOLO costs of $8,061.52.

4           And specific to the HOLO costs, we had a depository
5 in this case that everyone had the availability to use at Lit
6 Services. It was free. What Mr. Smith told me is that they
7 did not like it, and so they chose to pay for and utilize HOLO
8 instead and are seeking to recoup those costs because they 9 didn't want to use the free lit services.

10           THE COURT: But I did not see anything in the briefs
11 that you all were required to use any particular vendor or not 12 use any vendor; correct?

13           MR. RULIS: There was no requirement. It was 14 simply -- it was available and free and utilized I think by 15 everybody but them.

16           THE COURT: Okay. So you've got the DVD, the 17 photocopies, the AT&T, the fees for the 550, the legal 18 research, the discovery and the trial tech; correct?

19           MR. RULIS: That is correct, Your Honor.

20           THE COURT: Okay.

21           MR. PARKER: Your Honor, I added them up if that 22 would make the Court -- if it would be easier for the Court.

23           THE COURT: Sure. That's fine. Great.

24           MR. PARKER: Again, Teddy Parker on behalf of Nevada
25 Wellness Center, Your Honor.

1           We worked on the supplemental brief together with
2 Mr. Rulis's office, and, of course, the other settling
3 plaintiffs' offices.

4           The total we have in the form of reduction is 5 $82,896.03 is I believe the number.

6           THE COURT: Okay.

7           MR. PARKER: Which reads --

8           THE COURT: That covers both categories of topics?

9           MR. PARKER: It covers the e-filing costs of 10 $1,257.10, the video deposition costs --

11          THE COURT: Wait. Wait.

12          MR. PARKER: -- of $38,400.

13          THE COURT: I didn't hear Mr. Rulis's -- I didn't 14 hear you say the e-filing costs, the 1,000.

15          MR. PARKER: I think it's in here, Your Honor.

16          THE COURT: No, when he verbally was going through a 17 listing.

18          MR. PARKER: Okay.

19          MR. RULIS: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I believe what 20 Mr. Parker -- and Nate Rulis for the record.

21           I believe what Mr. Parker is talking about is the 22 first category of costs that I was talking about that I said I
23 was going to sit down and calculate, which was costs incurred
24 after the settlement date is --

25          THE COURT: Okay. So is the 82,896.03, costs

1 incurred after settlement, or is that the total of all of the 2 costs, both on the --

3 MR. PARKER: That's total all that we believe would 4 not be recoverable based upon all of our arguments, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. PARKER: And which leaves, just for the Court's 7 ease of reference, which leaves $98,137.92 by my calculations.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 MR. PARKER: You're welcome, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Does anybody else on the movant's 11 side need to be addressed? If not, I'm going to go to the 12 opposition side.

13 Are you also moving? Not seeing a negatory nod here
14 in court.

15 Anybody? I'm not seeing anybody.

16 Well, whoever's gone off audiovisual, I can't see
17 you. So I can't do it.

18 Mr. Bice, do you wish to be heard in opposition?

19 MR. BICE: Yes, Your Honor, I do. So thank you, Your 20 Honor. So let me --

21 THE COURT: And remember to state your clients.

22 Mr. Bice, I need you to state your clients. Thank you.

23 MR. BICE: Todd Bice on behalf of the Essence
24 parties, and I appreciate the Court getting this issue
25 resolved.

1           So, Your Honor, the first issue that they raise is 2 the fact that they entered into a settlement, but they didn't
3 enter into a settlement with my client, just like they didn't
4 enter into a settlement with a whole host of the parties here.
5 So their settlement where they agreed to waive costs with the 6 parties with whom they settled has nothing to do with my 7 clients.

8           And I dispute Mr. Rulis's characterization of what 9 Judge Gonzalez -- they were free to proceed with the trial
10 against my client if they had wanted to, or they were free not 11 to. And the fact that they then chose by their own actions to 12 settle with certain of the defendants in order to get licenses,
13 that was in their economic interests, but that doesn't diminish
14 the fact that the trial proceeded against my client, and 15 Judge Gonzalez ruled that that judgment that Essence obtained
16 in its favor applied to all the plaintiffs.

17           So the settlement that they entered into has nothing
18 to do with Essence. That is a settlement that they chose to 19 enter into with certain defendants and not others.

20           And so that has nothing -- that date -- the date they 21 entered into a settlement is a complete red hearing. It has 22 nothing to do with Essence. It may have -- if some of the 23 other parties who they settled with had made claims for costs,
24 then their settlement agreement might be relevant, but it
25 doesn't have anything to do with my client.

1           So then let me deal, Your Honor, with just kind of 2 the order in which they raised some of these issues in their 3 supplemental briefing.

4           They protest, one of the cost matters that they
5 protest, Your Honor, is they say that we had a whole host --

6           Your Honor, there's one other point I want to make 7 about the settlement agreement and the date they're trying to 8 use. That settlement agreement is something that actually 9 specifically provides in it that it's only effective upon 10 approval of the cannabis compliance board, and they didn't get 11 approval of that until later.

12           So again, this attempt to use that settlement
13 agreement has nothing to do with my client, and the fact that 14 they had a tentative resolution and they chose to not continue 15 to appear at the trial, that's up to them. That has nothing to 16 do with my client.

17           So now turning to the specific expenses. They 18 complain about $16,000, Your Honor, and some change relating to 19 trial subpoenas that we had to try and serve on all the 20 plaintiffs. It was all these plaintiffs that brought us into 21 this action, and the arguments that they want to make about 22 somehow, well, they didn't want to bring us in, I mean, I
23 actually agree with that. They didn't want to bring us in.
24 What they wanted to do was litigate our licenses without us
25 being present to defend ourselves.

1           And so that's why we were necessary parties, and 2           that's why we were brought into these actions.

3           So that, number one, has nothing again to do with it.
4           We had to subpoena all these parties. Many of them dodged
5           service, refused to appear. One of the most notable was the 6           TGIG representative, Mr. Ritter. It was extensively discussed
7           at trial. And another one who dodged service repeatedly, and 8           we made multiple attempts to serve him was Frank Hawkins for 9           Nevada Wellness Center, Mr. Parker's client.

10          So we incurred an awful lot of expense in serving 11          these people because we needed to have them potentially 12          available at trial depending on what the plaintiff put on as a 13          case, Your Honor.

14          So I don't know how you can object to us serving 15          parties with subpoenas to appear at trial when we're the 16          defendants, and we have to anticipate -- we have to be ready to 17          call any witness depending upon which case the plaintiff sets
18          forward. So those were, as Mr. Smith's affidavit attests, 19          those were incurred in defense of the action, and they are 20          reasonable.

21          And by the way, they are necessary in order to have 22          people in attendance.

23          So let me turn then, Your Honor, to the real big one
24          that they are complaining about, which is really the issue
25          about depositions.

1           And so my client, the Essence parties, Your Honor,
2 took almost all of the depositions on behalf of -- or we 3 noticed them on behalf of the defense side of the case because 4 we tried to do this on the defense side of the case. We tried 5 to coordinate it and have a single sort of party doing it so
6 that we wouldn't run into conflicts, and we tried to 7 coordinate.

8           So the Essence party, my firm, took on the 9 responsibility of noticing all the depositions and setting up
10 all of the court reporters, which is what we did.

11           So they argue, Your Honor, that you can't recover on 12 a deposition for both a video and the transcript, and that's 13 just wrong. Under the law, Your Honor, you have to have the 14 transcript because that's the official proceeding, but at the 15 same time, Your Honor, the plaintiffs here are the ones who 16 demanded -- so in other words, Your Honor, the transcript, you
17 actually, if you have motion practice, you file the transcript.
18 That's what the statute already provides for.

19           But the plaintiffs demanded a trial with live
20 witnesses, with witnesses on the stand, and it is both 21 reasonable, customary and necessary for lawyers to do
22 videotaped deposition, and I daresay that the lawyers on the 23 plaintiff side of this case do that as well, and they did it in 24 this case. They videotaped depositions because they recognized
25 we were going to trial, and the statute doesn't say that you

1 can't recover for videotaping a deposition.

2           We are a defendant. We were forced into this case
3 because they were trying to take our licenses away and 4 reallocate them to themselves, and we noticed depositions. We have 5 transcripts, as the law requires, and we had video because they 6 were demanding a trial, and it is both -- and they -- you'll 7 notice, Your Honor, neither Mr. Parker nor Mr. Rulis would dare
8 submit a declaration suggesting to the Court that it is not 9 reasonable and customary in this jurisdiction to videotape
10 depositions in a case in which there's going to be a trial
11 because they both do it, and their firms do it, and they did it
12 in this case.

13           So let me turn next, Your Honor -- so there should be 14 no denying our recovery for the notice of depositions that we 15 did in this case, both for the transcripts as well as the 16 video.

17           And the same is true, Your Honor, for the syncing
18 because in order to use the deposition, the video deposition and with the 19 official transcript, which the law requires, those have to be 20 synced together, and that is a reasonable cost. It is a 21 customary cost incurred in this jurisdiction, and it is a
22 necessary cost.

23           Number two, Your Honor, that they raise, they 24 complain about are the photocopies in this case, Your Honor.
25 The statute specifically provides that you can recover for

1 photocopies in this case, Your Honor. We, and Mr. Smith has 2 attested, we -- in his declaration, these were reasonable and 3 actually incurred in defense of this case. These actually,
4 Your Honor, fortunately, because everything is so electronic 5 anymore, our photocopying was quite limited, as you can see 6 from the amount.

7           The statute also allows us to recover for long
8 distance charges, and yes, I actually agree with Mr. Rulis, 9 those are becoming less and less, but in this case,
10 particularly, Your Honor, our client's headquarters was in 11 Chicago, and we had a month long trial, and we had to have 12 extensive conference calls with the client.

13           THE COURT: And you're telling that cell phones were 14 not covering long distance charges?

15           MR. BICE: No. We weren't -- we didn't charge, Your 16 Honor -- we didn't charge for use of our cell phones when we 17 had a call with the, you know, just a one-off. These would be 18 charges, Your Honor, that we would incur if we had to set up a 19 conference bridge.

20           THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead, please.

21           MR. BICE: So we would have, you know, we would have 22 multiple people on a call.

23           And then, Your Honor, on the runner issue, again, we,
24 just like everybody else in town, we will use runners from time
25 to time, and we will charge a service for that.

1           On a legal research, and again, by the way, the 2 defendants side do that as well, and they know that.

3           On the legal research side, Your Honor, again, this
4 charge is very reasonable. This was a very large matter
5 involving a tremendous amount of money, as they have attested
6 to. They're claiming these licenses were worth millions, and 7 we were trying to protect our share of that multi-,
8 multimillion dollar pie, and we did so successfully.

9           THE CLERK: Okay.

10          MR. BICE: And then finally, Your Honor, and again,
11 that's simply a $9,000 charge for the entirety of this case,
12 Your Honor. It was more than reasonable, and the statute
13 expressly allows you to recover that.

14          I daresay, Your Honor, I would ask the defendants to 15 disclose to the Court what their charges were to their clients
16 for legal research, and I will bet you that ours is eminently 17 reasonable compared to their own.

18          THE COURT: Okay.

19          MR. BICE: And then on the trial tech, Your Honor,
20 again, we're a defendant. The plaintiff was the one who wanted
21 a trial and forced this case to go to a trial. It is both
22 reasonable and customary in this jurisdiction to have a trial
23 tech. I believe there is, in fact, one sitting in your 24 courtroom right now because I saw him when the camera turned 25 the other direction.

1           So that should hardly be a surprise, and they do
2 not -- they provide no affidavit.

3           THE COURT: Okay. Okay.

4           MR. BICE: -- saying that that amount is 5 unreasonable --

6           THE COURT: Counsel. I've got -- remember the deal
7 was you each got less than five minutes if we were doing it.
8 So.

9           MR. BICE: Sorry. Sorry, Your Honor. All right. So
10 with that, Your Honor --

11          THE COURT: Because 12:05 --

12          MR. BICE: -- the HOLO cost, Your Honor, again, no
13 declaration from the defense saying it's unreasonable.

14          THE COURT: Okay.

15          MR. BICE: Thank you very much.

16          THE COURT: Okay. I appreciate it. Thank you.

17          Counsel, you will get last word, but here's my quick
18 question. What actually are the charges that you are saying 19 are post? It was not clear, post what you were saying the 20 resolution. Were you saying all the subpoenaed witnesses, the 21 bundle? Because you weren't saying the bundle of the 42,400.
22 So just --

23          MR. RULIS: Nate Rulis for the record.

24          Postsettlement, the costs total $2,811.99, and those 25 are the -- and I'll list them off because they are on --

1 THE COURT: Yeah, I need them.

2 MR. RULIS: -- page 3 of our motion, but it's e-file
3 charges of $436, copy charges of $70.60, long distance
4 telephone charges of $60.37, legal research charges of $432.04, 5 trial technician charges of $650 and discovery related costs of 6 $1,162.98.

7 THE COURT: Okay. You have a minute if you want to 8 summarize anything else, either of you because I've got to get 9 to -- remember.

10 MR. PARKER: Your Honor, I think -- I enjoy arguing
11 against Mr. Bice because you can tell a lot by what he does not 12 say. He first starts out with we forced him in. He intervened 13 before we brought him into this case, before we named him, he 14 intervened. It's hilarious to me that he keeps saying we 15 forced them in.

16 THE COURT: Folks, folks, you're all part of the 17 case, realistically. The case is the case. Go ahead.

18 MR. PARKER: Thank you. I just -- it just seems 19 somewhat humorous that he would keep raising that issue.

20 THE COURT: And when I say that, at various times
21 your parts of the case, in no way anybody take my statement as 22 saying that everyone was from start to finish. Go ahead.

23 MR. PARKER: And I do appreciate that last comment,
24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Because you're still with this.

1           MR. PARKER: I'm still with this, Your Honor, and 2 I'll see you January 3rd in addition to these other times.

3           THE COURT: Okay.

4           MR. PARKER: Your Honor, he does not differentiate
5 between conference calls and cell phones. So your question hit
6 the nail on the head. Where -- and it's his burden to explain
7 the difference. So if it was a conference call that he had to 8 pay some amount for, it's not explained in his affidavit or 9 declaration. It's not identified or explained in his moving
10 papers. So he shouldn't get the benefit of that.

11           Your Honor, he also argues about the legal research,
12 but we don't know what the research was a hundred percent
13 related to the PBR. We have no idea. So if it related to the 14 petition for judicial review, then I don't see how that's 15 recoverable, and I don't think he understands -- or I believe 16 he understands, but perhaps he's simply skipping over it. The 17 requirement is necessary and reasonable. If the services for 18 litigation services are being provided for everyone, how 19 reasonable or necessary is it for him to charge $13,000
20 additionally. Certainly that charge wasn't reasonable because 21 it was already available to him, and it was not necessary.

22           The other thing I thought was very telling is that 23 Mr. Bice said, I scheduled most of the deposition. I being 24 Mr. Bice and his client scheduling most of the plaintiffs'
25 depositions. They weren't in the defense of the case. He did

1 it because he believed it was a way, I guess, of simply 2 increasing the cost and making it less desirable for us to be
3 in the case, but I will tell you, Your Honor, he took a lot
4 longer than that, but just give me one more second.

5 THE COURT: But you had an intro.

6 MR. PARKER: Thank you, Your Honor. And you've been 7 very fair today.

8 THE COURT: Every day.

9 MR. PARKER: But, Your Honor, his arguments, his 10 excuses in terms of what he did not and did provide are not 11 consistent with the Fairway Chevrolet case, and just for the 12 cite, because we talked about it all day, it's 484 Pacific 3d
13 276 Nevada 2021.

14 And then just because I know my client, he reads this 15 transcript he'd want me to say this, my client was deposed
16 twice. My client was on the stand twice. To say he was not 17 available, especially since he was listening in and on the 18 phone every day for that trial is completely inconsistent in 19 terms of his availability.

20 So, Your Honor, I don't believe -- I believe that the 21 numbers we have provided to the Court is consistent with the 22 costs that are allowable under the statute and under the rule,
23 and I'll end with that, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you so much. Here's the 25 Court's ruling.

1           Let's go first -- I am sorry. I said on behalf of 2 whoever. You've got -- I mean, I've got to get this -- okay.
3 So here's what we're doing.

4           With regards to the Court -- we're now looking at the 5 numbers portion with regards to the motion to retax the 6 joinders thereto, the opposition, thereto, the replies,
7 thereto, all the joinders taken fully into account.

8           With regards to the legal research, the legal 9 research is going to be granted as far as the motion to retax
10 and reduce. Fairway Chevrolet, that's cited in all -- both of 11 the supplemental briefs and other pleadings. It sets forth
12 what was provided, and I appreciate some of this was provided.
13 It's a newer case; right? Fairway Chevrolet is a newer case,
14 but it really is not saying anything new. It's just a newer
15 case.

16           So the 9,230, reduced.

17           Then we go to the AT&T charges. Sorry, in today's 18 day and age, the Court cannot find it would be reasonable or 19 necessary to incur long distance charges when people do have 20 cell phones. If you choose to use some other function when you
21 can use a cell phone, then it's not necessary. You can use the 22 cell phones. You can easily do conference calls on cell
23 phones. You can appear on BlueJeans on cell phones. You can 24 do Zoom meetings. They are free, okay. All those options are.
25 So the Court does not find that the $234.36 reasonableness,

1   sorry, et cetera, so it does not meet the statutory provision.
2   So it is reduced.

3           Photocopies. Photocopies, straight out of Cadle
4   versus Woods & Erickson. Here Woods and Erickson failed to 5   show why copying costs were reasonable and necessary. The 6   affidavit of counsel told the Court that the costs were 7   reasonable and necessary but did not demonstrate how such fees
8   were necessary to and incur the present action, and it cites to 9   PETA, which is the Bobby Berosini that we referenced before,
10   114 Nevada at 1352 because District Court had no evidence which 11   to judge the reasonable and the necessity of each photocopy
12   charge. It's not the photocopy charged in total. Each
13   photocopy charge we conclude the Court lacked justifying
14   documentation to award photocopy costs. Same here. I don't 15   have it for each photocopy.

16           I appreciate that people don't necessarily go into 17   the minutia, but the Supreme Court tells me what I've got to 18   do. I've got to follow the Supreme Court. Cadle versus Woods
19   & Erickson, that reduces the $3,315.51.

20           Next, we go to the DVD and the various video 21   depositions and the syncing. The Court is going to reduce the 22   syncing. While I appreciate it is a wonderful trial technology
23   that gets utilized, it is not something that is necessary, 24   okay. People do do video clips without the syncing of all the 25   transcript. I'm not saying it's not helpful. I'm just saying

1 I have to look at the statute, and what the Supreme Court has
2 interpreted the statute, and that's pretty narrowly. Take a
3 look at the whole plethora of cases that have been cited here
4 today, cited in that briefs, et cetera.

5 So I don't have a breakdown to the specific syncing
6 charge. So the syncing has to be reduced from the 42,400. The 7 rest is reasonable.

8 The reason why the Court is going to say it's 9 reasonable here in this particular situation, and this is not 10 obviously the global, sometimes it's just the video deps.
11 Sometimes it's just the hard copy deps. Sometimes it is both, 12 but here the breadth and depth of the nature of this case, the 13 fact that you all really were doing things as video deps, the 14 number of parties, the way that it allowed the case to go
15 forward, I also take into account some of this was done during 16 COVID related times. Realistically, video deps were 17 appropriate in this case. So the Court is going to allow the 18 remainder but reduce the syncing charge from the video deps and 19 DVD.

20 I didn't see a breakdown of the 42,400 specifically
21 with syncing, Counsel. If you've got that number, then I will 22 give that specifically.

23 MR. RULIS: I believe that number is $4,000, Your 24 Honor. Mr. Bice or Mr. Smith can correct me, but I believe 25 from their memo that --

1 THE COURT: Is the syncing 4,000, Counsel?

2 MR. BICE: Sorry, Your Honor. I'm looking. I have
3 no reason to doubt Mr. Rulis's representation, and if we have a
4 disagreement, we'll work that out in the form of the order,
5 Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Sounds good.

7 MR. BICE: I think he's probably right on that.

8 THE COURT: So the Court will say 4,000 unless the 9 parties agree it's a different number. So when you all do the 10 math, okay, make that appropriate.

11 MR. BICE: Understood.

12 THE COURT: I've given you the analysis with regards
13 to the rest of the charges being appropriate and the 4,000 why
14 it's not appropriate.

15 So now we get to the $550. That's appropriate. It
16 meets all of the appropriate standards. So does the HOLO, and 17 so does the document retention.

18 Let me walk through the document retention and the 19 HOLO charges because that would be something you probably want 20 a little bit of analysis on.

21 Here, realistically, with breadth and depth in this 22 case, the number of parties that you had, remember you also had 23 a unique location where you were doing this, right. You didn't 24 even have the standard courthouse with all of its -- you had 25 some unique aspects. Realistically, having a trial technician

1 through that proceeding would be appropriate.

2           While I fully appreciate that some of the parties
3 say, well, guess what, we didn't need that moving forward in 4 the trial because we did different things. All those things
5 really had to be set up, and the Court doesn't see that there
6 is a specific breakdown that there would be a charge that would 7 not have been a charge because of the settling versus those 8 needs for all of those charge that would've realistically been 9 incurred, okay. So that goes to the trial technician. That's 10 why it would be reasonable and necessary. It was actually 11 incurred. They showed the appropriate bills and receipts.

12           Then we go to the addition of HOLO.

13           Realistically, if there wasn't an order document
14 retention, there's not a CMO that goes to a document retention, 15 i.e., CD cases, other complex cases where you all agree, and 16 you have something from a stipulation standpoint, if somebody 17 wishes to use something else, it ends up so then you have to 18 look at is it reasonable and is it necessary. The charge is 19 reasonable in and of itself. So the question really becomes is 20 it necessary because you had this other option.

21           Realistically, the multiple parties, in order to get 22 things the way that they were done, I don't see how it's not 23 necessary to actually have that charge here in this situation
24 from what has been presented in the pleadings and taking fully 25 into account the supplemental pleadings, okay. That's the

1 basis of where I can actually have that information.

2 So now we go to those additional charges. The 3 additional charges --

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Sorry. Sorry.

5 THE COURT: Okey-doke. The copying charges, that's 6 $71. That was included, was it not, in the total copying
7 charges that are $3,315.51?

8 MR. RULIS: Yes. Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: So I've already taken care of that;
10 right?

11 Okay. With regards to long-distance, I believe I've 12 taken care of that in the global charge that the Court has 13 already addressed.

14 I believe with regards to the extra days in which you 15 show for discovery HOLO, I think the Court has taken into 16 account that; correct?

17 And your 432.04, remind the Court what you -- I wrote 18 that one really --

19 MR. RULIS: Nate Rulis for the record.

20 That's legal research chargers, which Your Honor has 21 already taken care of.

22 THE COURT: Which I already took care of. Okay. I
23 already have checked off as I took care of that in my general
24 analysis.

25 So what item have I not taken care of from the

1     retaxing parties' perspective?

2             MR. RULIS: I believe the only thing that would be
3     left, Your Honor, is the Odyssey e-file charges of $436.

4             THE COURT: Okay. And I was trying to look through 5     those because generally they would be -- obviously they're 6     reasonable. That's what the Court charges.

7             The necessary aspect, because they were hard really
8     to try and track down because the argument was on a pure timing
9     standpoint, but I don't know if it relates to anything in 10    between the fact that there was the initial agreement, when it 11    gets approved or anything that really impacted your clients or 12    not.

13            Can somebody just enlighten me on those e-filing
14    charges you want to break down?

15            Mr. Bice, do you want to break down the 436?

16            MR. BICE: Your Honor, I actually can't break those 17    down. Just I need a little clarification from Mr. Rulis. Is 18    he saying that those 436 were charges that were incurred after 19    the date he claims that his clients entered into the settlement
20    agreement?

21            THE COURT: That's what this Court understood.

22            Mr. Rulis; is that correct?

23            MR. RULIS: Yes. Nate Rulis for the record.

24            That's correct. These are charges that were incurred
25    after July 29th, 2020, and if Mr. Bice wants it, it's

1 specifically on Essence appendix 13 through 15. That's the 2 verified memorandum at pages 2 to 3.

3 THE COURT: He took the time -- he took the time and 4 dates of those various e-filings and put them after, and he did
5 the mathematical calculations of the 350 times the number of 6 things saying that his part is -- his client could not have 7 been a part of that because they were no longer participating.
8 So none of those filings would apply to him.

9 Now, obviously there's going to be a couple of orders
10 that will apply to them, but I didn't see necessarily the 11 breakdown that I could get through each and every one of those 12 filings.

13 Counsel, what's your position?

14 MR. BICE: And fair, Your Honor. I understand that.
15 I believe it's 400 and some dollars, Your Honor. We're burning
16 more in attorneys' fees arguing about those. So although I
17 think we're entitled to it, I'll just wait for the Court's
18 ruling.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Wait or waive? I'm sorry. Did
20 you say w-a-i-v-e or w-a-i-t?

21 MR. BICE: I'll just ask the Court to rule because I
22 can't break it down in any greater detail.

23 THE COURT: Well, the movants -- it's the party who's 24 seeking the cost whose obligation is to break it down to the 25 specific detail.

1           See In Re Bobby -- In Re Dish Network, Bobby
2 Berosini, Fairway Chevrolet and Cadle versus Woods and 3 Erickson.

4           In the absence of doing so, then while that is an 5 allowable cost in general, without it being shown that it would 6 apply to the movants that sought the retaxing, the Court has to 7 reduce it by the 432.04, and I was trying to figure out how you
8 really got to the 4 cents because it's generally a straight
9 350.

10           MR. RULIS: Your Honor, let me clarify. The 432.04
11 was legal research charges.

12           THE COURT: Okay.

13           MR. RULIS: That's the e-filing is $436 even.

14           THE COURT: Oh, sorry. There it is. Okay. I had 15 them marked as right next to each other. It was 436, which 16 would be the 350, times the number of entries.

17           I mean, realistically, you broke it down. I think 18 you probably would have gotten a few of them, but I can't see,
19 and that would've been your obligation.

20           MR. BICE: Understood, Your Honor.

21           THE COURT: So 436 is reduced.

22           So I did not do the math. I have told you the ones
23 that have been reduced. I have granted in part and denied in 24 part. I believe I have taken care of each of --

25           So, Mr. Parker, go ahead.

1 MR. PARKER: Did you address the parking fees, Your 2 Honor, of 372?

3 THE COURT: Oh.

4 MR. PARKER: Because --

5 THE COURT: I did not. Thank you so much for 6 bringing that to the Court's attention.

7 When I looked at the 372, realistically, by cross
8 referencing the dates, parking generally is reasonable. I
9 didn't see that you had parsed out specifically some dates that 10 would have been -- the parties still -- they still needed to 11 come to court. They still needed to know, even though your 12 clients may not have been officially part of the trial, there's 13 still going to be potential rulings. There's going to be a 14 judgment. There's going to be things regarding approvals on 15 the cannabis compliance board that they're so going to need to 16 go to court, which would be an allowable cost. So therefore I 17 was finding it was reasonable, necessary and appropriate, the 18 372.

19 Go ahead.

20 MR. PARKER: Yes. There was no parking charge for 21 parking at the trial, Your Honor. It was at the convention
22 center. It was free parking. So in terms of the trial, there
23 was no parking charge.

24 And then there was no indication of the parking dates
25 prior to Nevada Wellness Center bringing in Essence as a

1 defendant.

2 So I don't know how you can award that since there
3 was no parking charges for the trial whatsoever.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. BICE: So there were no parking charges at the 6 trial. He's right on that, Your Honor, but the parking charges
7 are for going to court, which we only had the trial itself at 8 the convention center. We had lots of motion practice and lots
9 of hearings at the court. And this argument now trying to slip
10 in at the end that says, well, before they brought Essence in,
11 that argument was never made before, and I object to this new 12 attempt.

13 THE COURT: The 378 -- the 372 stays in. It's a
14 standard parking charge with regards. The Court doesn't see 15 that it would be excessive. It's appropriate here around the 16 courthouse you do need to. Sorry for the error. I was not 17 thinking on the convention center. So realistically --

18 MR. PARKER: The problem is, Your Honor, you cannot 19 split the dates because you don't then show the dates. Let me
20 see if I can pull it for you.

21 THE COURT: But he does show a range of dates which 22 are the dates in which this case occurred, and he shows that 23 those -- look at some of the receipts and things that they have 24 for the various dates of parking.

25 MR. PARKER: I'm pulling it up right now, Your Honor.

1           THE COURT: Realistically, that's going to be the
2 Court's ruling, Counsel, from looking at all of this
3 information, okay.

4           Reasonable, necessary, actually incurred.

5           MR. PARKER: It doesn't have any dates, Your Honor.
6 It doesn't say anything.

7           THE COURT: It does have the dates. It has a range
8 of dates with regards to parking, doesn't it?

9           MR. PARKER: No. I just see --

10          THE COURT: Okay. Let me go back to --

11          MR. PARKER: Other reasonable -- parking. It says
12 expenses, parking.

13          THE COURT: Give me the date.

14          MR. PARKER: Expenses, parking, 372, no date.

15          THE COURT: Counsel, give me the date of the pleading
16 again. I just --

17          MR. PARKER: I can just bring it to you, Your Honor, 18 if you want.

19          THE COURT: Okay. Sure. I just clicked off this 20 document so.

21          MR. PARKER: May I approach?

22          THE COURT: Yes.

23                       (Pause in the proceedings.)

24          MR. PARKER: There is no date. It's right at the 25 bottom. It says parking.

1           MR. BICE: Actually, Your Honor, it's on page 9 of 2 our memorandum of costs, Item F that lists every date, and it
3 lists the place where the parking occurred. It's at the Bank
4 of America Plaza on almost all of the locations.

5           THE COURT: Okay. There. I feel about her. I was 6 like I remember seeing those.

7           MR. PARKER: I stand corrected, Your Honor. I didn't 8 see --

9           THE COURT: Yeah. I was, like going, I know he had 10 those because I cross -- okay. 'Cause I was double checking
11 the 2019s and everything when I was looking at those things.

12           Look at the bottom. See the bottom section, the 13 chart at the bottom, the page, I left it open to the page, and 14 then it goes.

15           Anyway, that's the Court's ruling.

16           MR. PARKER: Yes, Your Honor.

17           THE COURT: All right. So you see it on there.
18 Yeah.

19           Okay.

20           MR. PARKER: I think that's all we have, Your Honor.
21 We're going to submit a supplemental brief that remains on that 22 one portion in terms of when they became a party, and our 23 understanding of when all of these --

24           THE COURT: It does not apply. The Court made its 25 ruling with regards to Essence. Essence is done and taken care

1 of. The only thing in Essence is proposed orders as to 2 everybody else.

3 MR. PARKER: Right.

4 THE COURT: Supplemental briefing, 5:00 p.m. on the 5 4th. We're going to get you a date.

6 Also, at the request of the other parties, Mr. Graf
7 is doing the other hearing on the new date.

8 MR. RULIS: Sorry, Your Honor. Before we -- there
9 was the other issue of the process server fees for those people
10 that either did not testify or testified after. I just -- I
11 didn't discuss.

12 THE COURT: The Court granted those because,
13 realistically, remember, all of those had to go out. Didn't 14 know what was going to happen, didn't know where things were 15 going to be. And that just is in the same thing is if you
16 decide not to call one of your experts or one of your witnesses
17 during the course of trial, that's still a cost that has been 18 incurred to be reasonable and necessary. The Court finds it
19 that way.

20 Thank you so very much. Have a nice day.

21 MR. RULIS: Sorry.

22 THE COURT: Thank you so very much have a nice day.

23 MR. RULIS: You said granted. You said granted, and 24 I think Mr. Bice wants to clarify that you're allowing those 25 costs.

1 THE COURT: You are correct. I am allowing that
2 cost. I find it an appropriate cost under the memorandum of 3 costs. So you are correct. I should have said that portion
4 has been denied. So hence granted in part, denied in part,
5 consistent with what all the Court said today. Thank you for 6 that clarification.

7 Goodbye, everyone.
