7/14 arrest caused great and unusual punishment to be inflicted upon Houston what with him being cleared his medical disability rating and Dr. dangerously impairment of his ability and him being forced to relocate from Iowa and recover from an unnecessary eviction from his out-of-home legal advocacy office at 435 S Linn St #917, Tracy, CA 95240. Sedgwick used overreaching tactics to force Houston into an unmanageable situation of homelessness. A criminal negligent and willful commission of neglect of Houston's reports to D. Ferrante caused not only further injury to Houston, not other injured workers under D. Ferrante's irresponsible mishandling and ~~odious~~ odious nuisance and must be held accountable for depriving Houston of his service animals.

APPELLANT'S OPENING BRIEF(S)- PART III- AND

EMERGENCY MOTION TO STRIKE FROM THE RECORD IN THE EJDC

THE "INFORMATION" FILED AUGUST 3RD, 2021, "UNDER NRS 27(e) emergency relief is necessary retroactively from September 30th, 2016"
"Hearing Requested"

Plaintiff-in-Error moves this court for an ORDER TO SUPPRESS and strike from the record the illegal "INFORMATION" due in part not only to the following facts: N.R.S. 178.145 clearly states that there must NOT be any agreements made before a defendant is found competent. However, misconduct committed by certain individuals not limited to: KRISTINA A. RHOADES and STEVEN B. WOLFSON/John T. Jones, Jr.

BENARD H. LITTLE, AMY CHELINI, JEREMY WOOD, STEPHANIE DIEZ, HARMONY T. LETIZIA, turned into prosecutorial malice when they ignored the fact that the warrant in event number 210300101590 was not authorized by any magistrate, judge or judicial officer. Their negligence and continued misconduct included ignoring the NRS General Provisions

178.145, 178.417, 178.420 and 178.425 among other laws of the land in the State of Nevada, the United States of America in the 9th.

Cir. and showed the upmost disrespect towards the Declaration of Human Rights, in blatant disregard of our nations Fourth Amendment, the 5th AMDT, the 6th AMDT, the 7th AMDT, the 8th AMDT and the 14th AMDT.(s).

No. 1210652 @ HDSP

To Box 650

1 "A Failure to Investigate Competency" in defense of the 2 Plaintiff-in-Error's Battered Person's Syndrome, C.P.T.S.D., ie
3 Complex Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder and Traumatic Brain Injuries. Very 4 many judicial standards have been developed in the following cases:

5 Medina v. California, 505 U.S. 437, 439,
6 112 S.Ct. 2572 L.Ed. 2d 353 (1992)

7 "It is well established that the Due Process
8 Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment prohibits 9 the criminal prosecution of a defendant who 10 is not competent to stand trial." That was set thirty 11 years ago, before the false arrest of the Plaintiff-in-Error on July 14, 2021.

12 United States v. Kauffman, 109 F.3d 186 (3d Cir. 1997)

13 "failure to conduct any investigation into possible 14 insanity defence was ineffective assistance." Especially because 15 the false arrest caused Plaintiff-in-Error to miss his doctor's appointments.

16 See Taylor v. Horn, 504 F.3d 416, 438 (3d Cir. 2007)

17 "a failure to request a competency hearing may 18 violate the right to effective assistance of 19 counsel if (1) there was sufficient indicia of 20 incompetence to give objectively reasonable 21 counsel reason to doubt the defendant's
22 competency; and (2) there is a reasonable 23 probability that the defendant would have been 24 found incompetent to stand trial had the 25 issue been raised and fully considered" The Plaintiff-26 in-Error's appointment with Dr. Tyson Ward, at Nevada Retina Specialists, 27 right next door to the Best Western was missed on July 15, 2021, 28 because of the false arrest which deprived him of his service animals.

1 Failure to Investigate Competency in Defense
2 of Battered Person's Syndrome, Complex Post Traumatic (C.P.T.S.D.)
3 Stress Disorder and Traumatic Brain Injury (continued)
4 <sup>In further</sup> elaboration of Standards, the record shall reflect the following: See
5 Bouchillon v. Collins, 907 F.2d 589, 592
6 (5th Cir. 1990)
7 "a court cannot accept a guilty plea from an 8 individual that is mentally incompetent; failure
9 to investigate competency is prejudicial if there
10 is a reasonable probability that the defendant
11 was incompetent to plead guilty." The false arrest also 12 deprived Plaintiff-in-Error of his neurological exam with Dr. Awagleri.
13 McLuckie v. Abbot, 337 F.3d 1193, 1199 (10th Cir. 2003) 14 ("a failure to timely investigate a client's mental 15 state, let alone a failure to assert a mental state
16 defence at trial, falls well below an objective standard
17 of reasonableness" where a defendant exhibits
18 "severe mental problems") Had Plaintiff-in-Error been able to attend 19 his check-up with Dr. Awagleri on August 14, 2021, his diminished mental 20 state declined. <sup>See</sup> Cases to which Benard Little and the court ignored:
21 Hull v. Kyler, 190 F.3d 88, 110 (3d Cir. 1999) 22 (trial counsel was ineffective when he failed to present any of 23 the numerous pieces of available evidence regarding competency
24 or to challenge the government's single witness at defendant's 25 short competency hearing). The now withdrawn counsel was given 26 access to Plaintiff-in-Errors team of almost a hundred experts, 27 including Dr. Okeeffe at Grand Desert Psychiatry however, his 28 dereliction of duty was a direct cause of multiple wrongful convictions.

MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON

No 1210652 e H.O.S.P.

P.O. Box 65x

Indian Springs, NV 89070 0650

This Failure to Investigate Competency of Plaintiff-in-Error was furthered into the ~~double-jeopardy~~ <sup>double-jeopardy</sup> cases in Las Vegas Municipal Court (case(s) C1248384A and C1237802A). Not once did

Benard Little discuss Cases with the Plaintiff-in-Error. See Hummel v. Prosecutor, 564 F.3d 290, 302-03 (3d Cir. 2010)

(trial counsel was ineffective ~~when he~~ stipulated to defendant's competency when he had never met with defendant). Benard Little did not ask Plaintiff-in-Error or his alibi witnesses about anything whatsoever, quite similar to the case of Thomas v. Lockhart, 738 F.2d 304 (8th Cir. 1984)

(failure to investigate alibi witnesses and defendant's competency was ineffective assistance and rendered defendant's plea unknowing and involuntary). As Clark County Public Defender's Cassandra Diez failed to provide the court with ANY of Plaintiff-in-Error's medical records,

See, Evans v. Lewis, 855 F.2d 631, 636-639 (9th Cir. 1988)

(counsel's failure to pursue the possibility of establishing the defendant's mental instability constituted ineffective assistance). Her dereliction of duty is put further on record and her neglect is reflected and summarized by

Dutcher v. Whitley, 884 F.2d 1152, 1159-60 (9th Cir. 1998)

("counsel made no tactical decision not to investigate [the defendant's] possible mental impairment. He simply failed to do so"). Causing a disabled person to become wrongfully convicted is in no way ANY sort of "tactical decision" as this case demonstrated the upmost brutality of law enforcement. The truth is that an insanity defense incinuates bias, prejudice and injustice;

MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON
 No. 1210652 in H.D.S.P.
 P.O. Box 650
 Indian Springs, NV 89070-0650

1 in that a Failure to Investigate Competency in Defense of Battered
 2 Person's Syndrome (for an Insanity Defense) which, indicates bias, even mo
 3 Bias from the general public, the legal system and big insurance claims. ~~It~~ Ti insanity defense has often provided meritorious reason to overturn fraudulently erroneous
 4 convictions; is often times abused by ~~defendants~~ defendants in the criminal justice system. ~~See~~
 5 The insanity defense portrays how the Appellant was abused by the Respondents.
 SEE Maddox v. Lord, 818 F.2d 1058, 1061-62 (2d Cir. 1987)
 6 (failure to develop psychiatric testimony to support
 7 extreme emotional disturbance defense was deficient
 8 performance; case remanded for a determination of 9 prejudice). In this case, the Clark County Public Defender's social worker, 10 Rosandra Diaz neglected her duty in providing court with <sup>Petitioner-</sup>Appellant's files. See 11 Jacobs v. Horn, 395 F.3d 92 (3d Cir. 2005)
 12 (counsel's failure to investigate defendant's competency 13 was ineffective assistance; error was compounded by 14 attorney's failure to notify psychiatrist examining 15 defendant that defendant was facing death penalty). To elaborate on a 16 remedy; Becton v. Barnett, 920 F.2d 1190 (4th Cir. 1990) shows what we 17 ignored; (remanding for a hearing on claim that attorney was 18 ineffective for failing to investigate defendant's competency 19 despite signs of instability). Obviously, this case should be remanded. As 20 was Lockett v. Anderson, 230 F.3d 695, 715-17 (5th Cir. 2000)
 21 (defendant was prejudiced under Strickland based on 22 counsel's failure to investigate mitigating evidence relating to mental 23 condition). This case should be remanded because the court failed 24 in considering the competence of the Plaintiff-in-Error even 25 before the criminal complaint was filed on April 26, 2021.
 26 If the fraudulent hearsay within that complaint would have been 27 even remotely truthful, it would have revealed that (according to Capital 28 Police Officer <sup>#C6056</sup> Montero's communications with Iowa Police) the Appellant
 29 was in fact the victim, having been abused by the criminal justice system.

MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON
 No. 120652 G H.D.S.P.
 P.O. Box 650
 Indian Springs, NV 89070-0650

1. As the Plaintiff-in-Error had requested help for his mental illness, a most
 2. real illness, and was off his medication, is a perfect reason that
 3. hearsay evidence is not to be admissible in court, even if the
 4. alleged evidence meets the admission requirements set forth by
 5. the BUSINESS RECORDS EXEMPTION. See, e.g. Uniform Rule
 6. 63(13), is that there is no such thing as an "Iowa Police
 7. Department" and a false police report defines 'manifest injustice'.

8. This case is a perfect example of how hearsay exceptions
 9. jeopardize the constitutional guarantee of confrontation, especially
 10. because criminal exceptions are more narrow in allowing any sort
 11. of exception. Here in Nevada, the NRS 171.146 allows hearsay
 12. evidence to be admissible ONLY if the defendant was charged
 13. with a sexual offense committed against a child, abuse of a child,
 14. or an act which constitutes domestic violence. Even more strict
 15. requirements are set forth in NRS Chapter 11 - Limitations of
 16. actions; Chapter 47: limiting weight and credibility, effect of error,
 17. preliminary questions of admissibility, limited admissibility, matters
 18. of fact and law (most especially 47.160 granting a party an
 19. opportunity to be heard), limits on presumptions (making such
 20. presumptions disputable) and Chapter 48 - placing even more strict
 21. requirements to limit the admissibility of falsehood. NRS 178.145
 22. clearly states that there may not be any sort of indictment or an agreement
 23. to any sort of plea until the defendant was supposed to have been
 24. determined by the court to be found competent. In no way, shape
 25. or form were ANY of those requirements met. See page 76 (attached)
 26. MOTION

26. WHEREFORE, the undersigned prays that the court grant Plaintiff-
 27. in-Error / Petitioner - appellants Motion To Strike. x. Matthew Travis Houston

28. DATED: this 29th day of April, 2022. BY: Matthew Travis Houston, No. 120652. And

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

NRS. 176.165 PROVIDES:

A motion to withdraw a plea of guilty or nolo contendere may be made only before sentence is imposed, or imposition of sentence is suspended. To correct manifest injustice, the court, after sentencing, may set aside the judgment of conviction and permit the defendant to withdraw his or plea.

Failure to adequately inform a defendant of the full consequences of his/her plea creates manifest injustice which could be corrected by setting aside the conviction and allowing him/her to withdraw the guilty plea. Meyer v. State, 603 P.2d 1066 (Nev. 1979), and Little v. Warden, 34 P.3d 560 (Nev. 2001).

Defendant herein alleges that his/her plea is in error and must withdraw the plea pursuant to the following facts: The courts have refused to provide any transcripts from any of the cases that caused this and without a written notice C-17-313, 14-1, A-17-75191, -C,

2-C-019810, 2-CR035713, 21P01275 and in Las Vegas Municipal Court
C1248387 and C1231041. The failure of Las Vegas Municipal Court to provide 3 accurate petitions in 3 separate addresses and 2 additional 2 misstatements of numbers and 3 separate derivation of duties after the double jeopardy of C-1248387 and C1231041.

1 After the ignored POINTS AND AUTHORITIES of the false arraignment
2 of Houston on 7-14-21, a STATEMENT OF CASE <sup>Travis</sup> must be truthful.

3 On August 3, 2021, Matthew <sup>Travis</sup> Houston (hereinafter "Defendant") was charged by way
4 of Information with Aggravated Stalking (Category B Felony - NRS 200.575). On August 4,
5 2021, Defendant was arraigned ~~in court~~. That same day,
6 Defendant's <sup>unsigned</sup> ~~Court~~ Guilty Plea Agreement (hereinafter "GPA") was filed, <sup>Def.'s</sup> without (his) express
7 consent. On October 5, 2021, <sup>Benora Little</sup> ~~Defendant~~ filed a Motion to Withdraw as Attorney of Record and 8 Appoint Alternate Counsel in Order for Defendant to Withdraw His Guilty Plea. However, ~~as~~ 9 December 6, 2021, Defendant <sup>where is any proof that on</sup> confirmed upon Court's inquiry that he no longer wished to 10 withdraw his guilty plea. On that same date, Defendant was sentenced to a maximum of ninety-

11 six (96) months and a minimum of twenty-four (24) months in the Nevada Department of 12 Corrections (hereinafter "NDOC") with ninety-three (93) days credit for time served. <sup>on 12/10/21</sup>
13 <sup>ON FEBRUARY 8, 2021, the Judgment of Conviction was filed, then HOUSTON WAS</sup>
14 <sup>ON FEBRUARY 8, 2021, the Judgment of Conviction was filed, then HOUSTON WAS</sup> On January 3, 2022, Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss Counsel. On January 24, 15 2022, this Court granted the Motion to Dismiss Counsel but denied his request to recuse Judge
16 Jones and denied his request for money. The Order Granting In Part, Denying In Part 17 Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Counsel was filed on February 1, 2022.

18 On February 18, 2022, Defendant <sup>timely and expedited</sup> filed a Notice of Appeal. On March 29, 2022, 19 Defendant filed another Notice of Appeal to and Response to this Court's Order Granting in 20 Part, Denying in Part Defendant's Pro Per Motion to Dismiss Counsel from February 1, 2022.
21 On March 15, 2022, Defendant filed an Emergency Motion to Oppose Remand and Dismiss 22 Case in its Entirety. On March 31, 2022, Defendant filed a Notice of Motion and Motion for 23 Transcripts at the State's Expense. As of May 15, 2022 not one transcript provided.

24 On April 2, 2022, Defendant filed the Emergency Motion for an Order to Suppress 25 Hearing from December 6, 2021 (hereinafter "Motion"). The State filed its Opposition on 26 April 19, 2022. <sup>Def.</sup> ~~he~~ has also filed a Motion For Taken Pandukht to READ.

27 On April 13, 2022, Defendant filed the instant Motion to Withdraw Plea (hereinafter 28 "Motion"). The State's Opposition <sup>was inept.</sup> ~~is~~ (But be careful, because the only
29 grounds Taken is using against <sup>the Def.</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>is</sup> the hearsay that ~~he~~ <sup>has</sup>
30 already moved the court to have SUPPRESSED and stricken from 31 the record). Why did Taken blatantly lie thru above lines 5-6?

1 In regards to freestanding "claims" of innocence,
 2 why doesn't Taleen comment about the

 4 blatantly ignored? As this "factual synopsis"

 24 COGNIZABLE EVEN IN POST-CONVICTION PROCEEDINGS

25 Defendant claims he innocent of the crime he pled guilty to in his Motion. Motion at 3.
 26 However, while Defendant's Motion is four (4) pages, this is the only actual claim in his 27 Motion. Regardless, Defendant's claim he is innocent is not cognizable in the current Motion.
 28 // Well, why don't we ask the judge to read the motion for 29 themselves, instead of allowing the STATE OF NEVADA to publish 30 more of the defamation of character against the Defendant?

See "it" = THE STATE OF NEVADA

Because it is inherently and without-a-doubt, the most rotten definition of corrupt Nevada state law does not recognize freestanding claims of actual innocence in a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, but rather only provides for claims of actual innocence where a defendant is attempting to overcome a procedural bar caused by an untimely or successive petition. See Mitchell v. State, 122 Nev. 1269, 1273-74, 149 P.3d 33, 36 (2006); See also Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525-26 (2003). This is consistent with the Nevada Supreme Court's adoption of the standard established in Schlup v. Delo. See 513 U.S. 238, 315, 115 S. Ct. 851, 861 (1995) (quoting Herrera v. Collins, 506 U.S. 390, 404, 113 S. Ct. 853, 862 (1993)) ("Schlup's claim of innocence is thus not itself a constitutional claim, but instead a gateway through which a habeas petitioner must pass to have his otherwise barred constitutional claim considered on the merits."). In contrast, a freestanding claim of actual innocence is a claim wherein a petitioner alleges actual innocence alone, rather than actual innocence supported by a claim of constitutional deficiency, warrants relief. See Herrera, 506 U.S. 390, 113 S. Ct. 853 (1993). The Herrera Court acknowledged that claims of actual innocence based on newly discovered evidence have never been held as a ground for habeas relief absent an independent constitutional violation in the underlying criminal proceeding. Id. violation. <sup>this case is nothing but a constitutional violation.</sup> The Court noted such claims were traditionally addressed in the context of requests for executive clemency, which power exists in every state and at the federal level. Id. at 414-15, 113 S. Ct. at 867-68. However, the Court assumed, arguendo, that a federal freestanding claim of actual innocence may exist where a petitioner was sentenced to death and state law precluded any relief. Herrera, 506 U.S. at 417, 113 S. Ct. at 869; Schlup, 513 U.S. at 317, 115 S. Ct. at 862. The United States Supreme Court has never found a freestanding claim of actual innocence to be available in a non-capital case. See, e.g., Herrera, 506 U.S. at 404-405, 416-417; House v. Bell, 547 U.S. 518, 554, 126 S. Ct. 2064, 2086 (2006); see also Carriker v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 476 (9th Cir. 1997); Jackson v. Calderon, 211 F.3d 1148, 1165 (9th Cir. 2000). <sup>law library</sup> (Most probable is that Defendant is denied access to court and is why Defendant fails to cite any Nevada authority which would allow him to raise a freestanding claim of actual innocence and improperly suggests such a claim before this Court. <sup>so what is this kid even typing?</sup> "Actual innocence" is a term of art that should only be raised in the context of an attempt to

1 overcome post-conviction procedural bars to petitions for writ of habeas corpus. Even in the 2 post-conviction context, where at least "actual innocence" claims can be made in order to have 3 other arguments heard on the merits, there is no such concept as a "freestanding" actual 4 innocence claim where a person can claim they deserve some kind of relief solely because
 5 they proclaim their innocence. Now "guilty" vs. "not-guilty" is defined by <sup>actual</sup> ~~freestanding~~ <sup>freestanding</sup>
 6 So, ~~freestanding~~ Defendant's claim should be denied, because Nevada has no laws?

7 II. DEFENDANT FAILED TO ESTABLISH ACTUAL INNOCENCE

8 Should this Court address the merits of Defendant's claim, it still fails because there is 9 no evidence nor specific factual allegations, and it is belied by Defendant's GPA, which was 10 unsigned. Actual innocence means factual innocence not mere legal insufficiency. Bousley v.
 11 United States, 523 U.S. 614, 623, 118 S.Ct. 1604, 1611 (1998); Sawyer v. Whitley, 505 U.S.
 12 333, 338-39, 112 S.Ct. 2514, 2518-19 (1992). To establish actual innocence of a crime, a 13 petitioner "must show that it is more likely than not that no reasonable juror would have 14 convicted him absent a constitutional violation." Calderon v. Thompson, 523 U.S. 538, 560, 15 118 S. Ct. 1489, 1503 (1998) (emphasis added) (quoting Schlup v. Delo, 513 U.S. 298, 316, 16 115 S. Ct. 851, 861 (1995)). Actual innocence is a stringent standard designed to be applied
 17 only in the most extraordinary situations. Pellegrini, 117 Nev. at 876, 34 P.3d at 530.

18 "Without any new evidence of innocence, even the existence of a concededly
 19 meritorious constitutional violation is not itself sufficient to establish a miscarriage of justice 20 that would allow a habeas court to reach the merits of the barred claim." Schlup, 513 U.S. at 21 316, 115 S. Ct. at 861. The Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals has "rejected free-standing claims 22 of actual innocence as a basis for habeas review stating, '[c]laims of actual innocence based 23 on newly discovered evidence have never been held to state a ground for federal habeas relief
 24 absent an independent constitutional violation occurring in the underlying state criminal 25 proceeding.'" Meadows v. Delo, 99 F.3d 280, 283 (8th Cir. 1996) (citing Herrera v. Collins, 26 506 U.S. 390, 400, 113 S. Ct. 853, 860 (1993)). Furthermore, the newly discovered evidence 27 suggesting the defendant's innocence must be "so strong that a court cannot have confidence 28 in the outcome of the trial." Schlup, 513 U.S. at 315, 115 S. Ct. at 861. Once a defendant has

1 made a showing of actual innocence, he may then use the claim as a "gateway" to present his
2 constitutional challenges to the court and require the court to decide them on the merits. Id.

3 Here, Defendant claimed he never called any of the victims and that he is innocent of 4 the crime he pled guilty to. Motion at 3. However, Defendant has not alleged any specific facts
5 nor provided any evidence of his innocence apart from his ~~own~~<sup>dog's</sup> self-serving statement. Further,
6 he does not allege any constitutional violations. Outside of the single claim, Defendant only 7 generally complains that the people involved in his case colluded against him, causing 8 unidentified errors and "cluster trucks." Motion at 2-3. Simply put, there is no evidence, let 9 alone coherent argument that Defendant is innocent outside of his one-sentence claim.

10 Furthermore, Defendant pled guilty in this case. Thus, his claim is belied by his signed 11 GPA. Defendant's GPA states, "I hereby agree to plead guilty to: AGGRAVATED 12 STALKING (Category B Felony - NRS 200.575 - NOC 50333) ...I understand that by 13 pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I
14 now plead as set forth in Exhibit '1'." GPA at 1, 3. Additionally, Defendant was canvassed
15 and affirmatively stated he was entering a plea of guilty freely and voluntarily. Reporter's 16 Transcript of Proceedings, Initial Arraignment 08/04/2021, at 6. Defendant had multiple 17 opportunities to plead not guilty or state his innocence, but he failed to do so. He admitted all 18 of the facts of the elements of the offense and admitted he was guilty of Aggravated Stalking.

19 Therefore, Defendant's claim of innocence should be denied, because Taken

20 // must not have read the title page of the original

21 <sup>EMERGENCY</sup> MOTION TO WITHDRAW PLEA at Lines 18-19, -

22 // where Houston reminded the sleepy court of

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the State respectfully requests Defendant's Emergency Motion to Withdraw Plea should be denied, since they stole my service animal. (S)

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

MATTHEW HOUSTON,

Appellant,

v.

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Case No. 84886

Respondent.

RESPONDENT'S ANSWERING BRIEF

Appeal from Denial of a Motion to Withdraw Guilty Plea Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County

ROUTING STATEMENT

This appeal is presumptively assigned to the Court of Appeals because it is a post-conviction challenge to a guilty plea involving a category B felony, NRAP 17(b)(3).

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES

1. Whether the district court properly denied Houston's Motion to Withdraw Plea

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Preliminarily, it is difficult to determine what case Appellant Matthew Houston is appealing from, much less what order of the district court he is Defendant's All Pending Motions. 2 ROA 326-328.<sup>1</sup> That Order denied four motions, three of which are not appealable: Defendant's Pro Se Motion For an Order to Suppress Hearing from December 6, 2021, Defendant's Emergency Motion requesting hearing De Novo and Release to Intensive Supervision, and Defendant's Pro-Se Motion for An Order to Appear By Phone Or Video and Notice of Motion. 2 ROA 327. The Order also denied Defendant's Emergency Motion to Withdraw Plea, and the denial of a motion to withdraw plea is an appealable order. NRS 177.015. Accordingly, the State assumes that is the order that Houston is appealing from.

On April 27, 2021, Houston was charged, by way of Criminal Complaint, with one count of Making Threats Or Conveying False Information Concerning Act of Terrorism. 1 ROA 4.

On August 2, 2021, Houston waived his right to a preliminary hearing, agreeing to plead guilty to one count of Aggravated Stalking (Category B1 felony) with certain conditions that, if followed, could allow Houston to withdraw his plea and plead guilty to a gross misdemeanor Aggravated Stalking offense. 1 ROA 39.

41. (He also received various release benefits and an agreement that the State would not oppose probation. Id. On August 3, 2021, Houston was accordingly charged, by way of Information, with one count of Aggravated Stalking (Category B Felony). )

<sup>1</sup> For the reasons just explained, ROA refers to the Record on Appeal from case C357927. The Record on Appeal from the A-case appears to be irrelevant to the instant proceedings.

2021, the district court filed a Judgment of Conviction reflecting Houston's Conviction. 1 ROA 94-95.

Houston filed a slew of motions thereafter, including Notices of Appeal on February 22, 2022, and March 30, 2022. Both of those appeals were dismissed. See Houston v. State, 84281, Houston v. State 84478.

Relevant to this appeal, Houston filed an "Emergency Motion to Withdraw Plea" (hereinafter, Motion") on April 13, 2022. 1 ROA 226-230. The State opposed on April 21, 2022. 2 ROA 264-270. The Motion was denied on April 25, 2022, and the order denying the Motion was filed on May 10, 2022. 2 ROA 326-328.

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

The Court relied on the following factual synopsis in sentencing Houston:

A detective of LVMPD was assigned to investigate the offense of Threat/False Info Regarding Acts of Terrorism, which said investigation developed the defendant, Matthew Houston aka Matthew Travis Houston, as the perpetrator thereof.

On December 23, 2020, Mr. Houston left a voicemail at the Office for Consumer Health Assistance. When victim 1 returned his call, Mr. Houston stated he had a case in the Supreme Court and said he was being harassed by an individual. Victim 1 attempted to explain the process to help Mr. Houston and point him in the right direction. However, Mr. Houston became angry and began yelling and said he should be afforded all the benefits due to him instead of being harassed by the government. He then said that no one should be surprised if/when he goes on a mass shooting rampage like the one committed on October 1st.

Victim 1 felt scared that Mr. Houston would carry out the threats he had expressed.

The detective later found out that on July 23, 2020, Mr. Houston had phoned victim 2, who was employed by his insurer. Mr. Houston threatened to murder everyone at Sedgwick and their families, and to "eat their hearts." On March 16, 2021, victim 3, who is an employee at the Department of Administration Hearings Division, advised Capitol Police that Mr. Houston had also made threats on their voicemail line. Mr. Houston stated that he "Needed immediate assistance because [he] was going to fucking murder every fucking employee at Mandalay Bay, MGM, and everyone in the State of Nevada if [you] fucking people don't give me my fucking money." Contact was then made with an officer of Iowa Police Department. He stated that Mr. Houston had been responsible for (21) calls for service in Iowa City and that he was mentally unstable.

A warrant of arrest was issued for Mr. Houston; and on July 14, 2021, he was arrested, transported to the Clark County Detention Center, and booked accordingly.

1 ROA 86-93.

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

The district court correctly denied Houston's Motion to Withdraw Plea because he provided no legal basis or coherent argument supporting his Motion.

ARGUMENT

1. THE DISTRICT COURT CORRECTLY DENIED HOUSTON'S MOTION TO WITHDRAW PLEA

Houston's Motion asserted various grievances, but none which would permit withdrawal of his guilty plea. He complained that unknown individuals had stolen his seeing eye dogs, and complained that district court judges were in some manner interfering with Houston's (apparently civil) claims against other people. 1 ROA 227. He engaged in an extended rant, at the end of which he denied making the phone call that (presumably) was the basis for the initial terroristic threats charge. Id. at 228.

After a sentence has been imposed, a post-conviction habeas petition takes the place of a motion to withdraw guilty plea. Harris v. State, 130 Nev. 435, 437, 329 P.3d 619, 621 (2014). Given the rambling motion, the district court apparently denied the pleading as a motion to withdraw plea rather than a post-conviction habeas petition.<sup>3</sup> This was erroneous, but harmless. This Court will affirm the district court if it reaches the right result for the wrong reason. Wyatt v. State, 86 Nev. 294, 298, 468 P.2d 338, 341 (1970). Additionally, any error, defect, or irregularity which does not affect substantial rights shall be disregarded. NRS 178.598.

As the State noted in its response, the single-sentence denial of making the phone call essentially amounted to an assertion of actual innocence. But actual innocence is not a free-standing claim in the habeas context. Nevada state law does not recognize freestanding claims of actual innocence in a Petition for Writ of <sup>3</sup> No transcript was apparently generated, nor minutes provided. The minutes that do exist do not provide any additional detail. That a simple Order denying the motion, rather than a Findings of Fact, was filed seems to indicate that the Court denied the pleading as a motion rather than a habeas petition.

Habeas Corpus, but rather only provides for claims of actual innocence where a defendant is attempting to overcome a procedural bar caused by an untimely or successive petition. See Mitchell v. State, 122 Nev. 1269, 1273-74, 149 P.3d 33, 36 (2006); See also Clem v. State, 119 Nev. 615, 621, 81 P.3d 521, 525-26 (2003). This is consistent with the Nevada Supreme Court's adoption of the standard established in See Schlup v. Delo, 513 U.S. 238, 315, 115 S. Ct. 851, 861 (1995) (quoting Herrera v. Collins, 506 U.S. 390, 404, 113 S. Ct. 853, 862 (1993)) ("Schlup's claim of innocence is thus not itself a constitutional claim, but instead a gateway through which a habeas petitioner must pass to have his otherwise barred constitutional claim considered on the merits."). In contrast, a freestanding claim of actual innocence is a claim wherein a petitioner alleges actual innocence alone, rather than actual innocence supported by a claim of constitutional deficiency, warrants relief. See Herrera, 506 U.S. 390, 113 S. Ct. 853 (1993). The Herrera Court acknowledged that claims of actual innocence based on newly discovered evidence have never been held as a ground for habeas relief absent an independent constitutional violation in the underlying criminal proceeding. Id. The Court noted such claims were traditionally addressed in the context of requests for executive clemency, which power exists in every state and at the federal level. Id. at 414-15, 113 S. Ct. at 867-68. However, the Court assumed, arguendo, that a federal freestanding claim of actual innocence may exist where a petitioner was sentenced to death and state law precluded any relief. Herrera, 506 U.S. at 417, 113 S. Ct. at 869; Schlup, 513 U.S. at 317, 115 S. Ct. at 862. The United States Supreme Court has never found a freestanding claim of actual innocence to be available in a non-capital case. See, e.g., Herrera, 506 U.S. at 404-405, 416-417; House v. Bell, 547 U.S. 518, 554, 126 S. Ct. 2064, 2086 (2006); see also Carriger v. Stewart, 132 F.3d 463, 476 (9th Cir. 1997); Jackson v. Calderon, 211 F.3d 1148, 1165 (9th Cir. 2000).

Houston failed to cite any Nevada authority which would allow him to raise a freestanding claim of actual innocence and improperly suggested the claim before the district court. “Actual innocence” is a term of art that should only be raised in the context of an attempt to overcome post-conviction procedural bars to petitions for writ of habeas corpus. Even in the post-conviction context, where at least “actual innocence” claims can be made in order to have other arguments heard on the merits, there is no such concept as a “freestanding” actual innocence claim where a person can claim they deserve some kind of relief solely because they proclaim their innocence.

Moreover, Houston’s claim that he did not make the phone call was belied by the record. Actual innocence means factual innocence not mere legal insufficiency. Bousley v. United States, 523 U.S. 614, 623, 118 S.Ct. 1604, 1611 (1998); Sawyer v. Whitley, 505 U.S. 333, 338-39, 112 S.Ct. 2514, 2518-19 (1992). To establish actual innocence of a crime, a petitioner “must show that it is more likely than not that no reasonable juror would have convicted him absent a constitutional violation.” Calderon v. Thompson, 523 U.S. 538, 560, 118 S. Ct. 1489, 1503 (1998) (emphasis added) (quoting Schlup v. Delo, 513 U.S. 298, 316, 115 S. Ct. 851, 861 (1995)). Actual innocence is a stringent standard designed to be applied only in the most extraordinary situations. Pellegrini, 117 Nev. at 876, 34 P.3d at 530.

“Without any new evidence of innocence, even the existence of a concededly meritorious constitutional violation is not itself sufficient to establish a miscarriage of justice that would allow a habeas court to reach the merits of the barred claim.” Schlup, 513 U.S. at 316, 115 S. Ct. at 861. The Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals has “rejected free-standing claims of actual innocence as a basis for habeas review stating, ‘[c]laims of actual innocence based on newly discovered evidence have never been held to state a ground for federal habeas relief absent an independent constitutional violation occurring in the underlying state criminal proceeding.’” Meadows v. Delo, 99 F.3d 280, 283 (8th Cir. 1996) (citing Herrera v. Collins, 506 U.S. 390, 400, 113 S. Ct. 853, 860 (1993)). Furthermore, the newly discovered evidence suggesting the defendant’s innocence must be “so strong that a court cannot have confidence in the outcome of the trial,” Schlup, 513 U.S. at 315, 115 S. Ct. at 861. Once a defendant has made a showing of actual innocence, he may then use the claim as a “gateway” to present his constitutional challenges to the court and require the court to decide them on the merits. Id.

Here, Houston claimed he never called any of the victims and that he is innocent of the crime he pled guilty to. 1 ROA 228. However, Houston did not allege any specific facts nor provided any evidence of his innocence apart from his own self-serving statement. Further, he did not allege any constitutional violations. Outside of the single claim, Houston only generally complained that the people involved in his case colluded against him, causing unidentified errors and “cluster trucks.” ROA 227-228. Simply put, there is no evidence, let alone coherent argument that Houston is innocent outside of his one-sentence claim.

Furthermore, Houston pled guilty in this case. Thus, his claim is belied by his signed GPA. Houston’s GPA states, “I hereby agree to plead guilty to: AGGRAVATED STALKING (Category B Felony – NRS 200.575 – NOC 50333) ...I understand that by pleading guilty I admit the facts which support all the elements of the offense(s) to which I now plead as set forth in Exhibit ‘1’.” 1 ROA 43-45. Additionally, Houston was canvassed and affirmatively stated he was entering a plea of guilty freely and voluntarily.

Houston had the opportunity to move to withdraw his plea and chose not to. 2 ROA 338. He pleaded guilty to the offense, and that guilty plea was further supported by the victim impact speakers at sentencing, as well as the voicemail message of Houston making the call that was played at sentencing. 2 ROA 338-353. Houston presented no evidence in his Motion that would call into question either his guilt or his desire not to withdraw his plea.

Finally, any error in construing the Motion as a motion should be disregarded for at least two reasons. First, Houston neither alleged that his plea was entered into without the effective assistance of counsel nor that it was not freely and voluntarily entered into, the only two bases upon which he could have challenged his guilty plea in a habeas proceeding. NRS 34.810. Second, as noted previously, Houston has a pending habeas petition that has not yet been decided wherein he is again challenging his guilty plea. 1 ROA-A853203 1-40. To the extent he has any cognizable claims or can meet the standard for a habeas petition, his claims will be resolved when that litigation concludes.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the State respectfully requests that this Court AFFIRM the district court's denial of Houston's Motion.

On October 13, 2022, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against Defendants<sup>1</sup> for false imprisonment, legal malpractice, coercion, extortion, embezzlement and malicious prosecution. See Complaint, Doc 1, ¶¶ 2-6. The remainder of the Complaint is rambling and incomprehensible. For the reasons set forth below, the Court should determine that the Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted and dismiss this case.

II. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT DOES NOT STATE CLAIMS UPON WHICH RELIEF MAY BE GRANTED.

1. Essential Pleading Requirements to State a Claim

Nev. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2), requires that a Complaint must contain "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." In addition, "[e]ach averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct." Nev. R. Civ. P. 8(e)(1). Finally, Nev. R. Civ. P. 10(b) mandates "separate counts . . . whenever separation facilitates the clear presentation of the matters set forth." The fundamental purpose of these provisions is to give to the court and to the parties the claims being presented. The failure to comply with basic rules of pleadings deprives a responding party of due process.

Nev. R. Civ. P. 8, is based on Fed. R. Civ. P. 8, and this Court can consider federal law evaluating the rule. In Ashcroft v Iqbal, 556 US 662 (2009), the Court concluded that the purpose of these specific pleading requirements is to enable the Court to determine whether the plaintiff has stated "a plausible claim for relief." Ashcroft, 556 U.S. at 679 (internal citation omitted). To state a plausible claim for relief, a complaint must contain both sufficient factual allegations (i.e. names, dates, and facts) and legal conclusions (i.e., specific laws defendants allegedly violated) that create a reasonable inference of liability. Id. at 678-79. Plaintiff's Complaint does not meet these <sup>1</sup> It is unknown whether Defendant Karlie Gabour was served with the summons and complaint. Nevertheless, if the Court grants this motion, the same relief should be granted to Ms. Gabour.

LIPSON NEILSON P.C.

1 minimal standards. Rather, Plaintiff's Complaint is riddled with incomprehensible
 2 statements that fail to provide notice of the specific reason for the lawsuit. The 3 Complaint does not describe the alleged conduct at issue for each Defendant, what 4 alleged conduct gives rise to this suit, how each Defendant harmed the Plaintiff, or 5 where and when each of the alleged actions or inactions occurred. Although the 6 standard under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) does not require detailed factual allegations, a 7 plaintiff must provide more than mere labels and conclusions. Bell Atlantic Corp. v.
 8 Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555, (2007). A formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause
 9 of action is insufficient. Id. Important to this motion is the rule that even a liberal 10 construction of a complaint filed by a pro se litigant may not be used to supply essential
 11 elements of a claim absent from the complaint. Bruns v. Nat'l Credit Union Admin., 12
 12 F.3d 1251, 1257 (9th Cir. 1997) (quoting Ivey v. Board of Regents, 673 F.2d 266, 268 13 (9th Cir. 1982)).

2. Rule 12(b)(5) Standards of Review

15 In reviewing a motion to dismiss, the court shall determine whether or not the 16 challenge pleading sets forth sufficient allegations to make out the elements for a claim 17 for relief. See Edgar v. Wagner, 101 Nev. 226, 699 P.2d 110 (1985). The test for 18 determining whether the allegations of a complaint are sufficient to assert a claim for 19 relief is whether the allegations give fair notice of the nature and basis of the legally 20 sufficient claim and relief requested. Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp., 109 Nev. 842, 21 846, 858 P.2d 1258 (1993). Accordingly, when all of a plaintiff's allegations are 22 accepted as true and still do not justify any relief, the trial court should properly dismiss 23 the claims. Blackjack Bonding v. City of Las Vegas Municipal Court, 116 Nev. 1213, 24 1214, 14 P.3d 1275, 1278 (2000); Bergman v. Boyce, 109 Nev. 670, 756 P.2d 560
 25 (1993); see also, Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 US 662, 678 (2009) (A Court should not accept 26 legal conclusions and "[t]hreadbare recitals of the elements of a cause of action" as 27 true.) To survive a motion to dismiss, those well-pled facts must allow the Court to 28 reasonably infer that the defendant is liable under the stated claim. Id. at 678-79.

8900 Covington Cross Drive, Suite 120, Las Vegas, Nevada 89144
Telephone: (702) 382-1500 Facsimile: (702) 382-1512

1 Dismissal is appropriate when it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff could prove no
2 set of facts, which if accepted by the trier of fact, would entitle him to relief. Bratcher v.
3 City of Las Vegas, 113 Nev. 502, 937 P.2d 485 (1997).

4 Plaintiff's Complaint is incomprehensible and violates Nev. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2), 5 (e)(1) and 10(b). It does not plead the elements of any other claims stated as captions
6 in paragraphs 2-6 of the Complaint i.e., false imprisonment, legal malpractice, coercion, 7 extortion, embezzlement and malicious prosecution. In short, the Complaint does not
8 state a claim and should be dismissed.

9 III. CONCLUSION

10 Based on the foregoing, Defendants request that the Court grant this Motion to 11 Dismiss and enter an order dismissing the Complaint as to all parties.

Case No.: A-17-758861-C

DEFENDANTS.

ORDER ON PENDING MOTIONS

Plaintiff's Emergency Notice of Motion and Statement of Facts was filed on April 11, 2023 and is currently set for hearing on May 16, 2023. Plaintiff also has several other Motions set for hearing on May 25, 2023, and June 8, 2023. Having read the pleadings and papers on file, the Court hereby DENIES Plaintiff's pending motions with prejudice for the following reasons.

Plaintiff filed his Complaint on July 24, 2017. The parties proceeded to mediation and on May 17, 2019, the parties agreed to settle Plaintiff's claims, with the agreement being reduced to writing in the Mediation Settlement Agreement. As of June 7, 2019, Defendant had satisfied all conditions of the Mediation Settlement. On August 1, 2019, Plaintiff executed the Release of All Claims and Agreement to Indemnify. On January 30, 2020, an Order was entered dismissing and closing the case and granting Defendant's Motion to Compel Settlement. This Order dismissed Case No. A-17-758861-C with prejudice. Plaintiff has appealed the Court's Orders several times without success. The last appeal was dismissed by the Nevada Supreme Court on March 30, 2023.

Accordingly, the Court finds that Case No. A-17-758861-C has been closed since January 30, 2020. As such, Plaintiff's pending Motions seeking relief from this Court in this case are

JACOB A. REYNOLDS
DISTRICT JUDGE
DEPARTMENT XXIX

1 DENIED as moot and untimely. If Plaintiff seeks further relief, that relief would require the 2 initiation of a new Complaint. No further Motions from Plaintiff will be considered in this case.
3 Accordingly and for good cause appearing,

4 Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Statement of Facts is hereby DENIED.

5 Plaintiff's Emergency Supplement and Ex Parte Motion for Reconsideration as a Renewed
6 Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus under 28 U.S.C. 2241, Meritorious Interpleadings and Joinder
7 of Appeal in all Cases of the Petitioner-Plaintiff-Appellant is hereby DENIED.
8

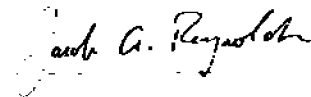

9 Plaintiff's Emergency Motion to Compel an Answer from Aaron D. Ford Under NRAP
10 3C127E as a Notice of Motion is hereby DENIED.

11 Plaintiff's Emergency Motion and Order for Transportation of Inmate for Court Appearance
12 or, in the Alternative, for Appearance by Telephone or Video Conference is hereby DENIED.
13

14 The hearings currently set on this matter for May 16, 2023, May 25, 2023, and June 8, 2023
15 are hereby VACATED.

16 This Case remains CLOSED.

WHEREAS the instant case involves an incarcerated party who wishes to be transported to Court for the scheduled small claims hearing, and

WHEREAS NRS 209.274 only mandates inmates transportation when an inmate "is required or requested to appear before a court", and

WHEREAS this language merely means that if a court mandates the offender's presence, he must be allowed to be transported here, and the statutory language not grant an inmate the right to be transported upon the inmate's own request; and

WHEREAS in the case of Barry v. Lindner, 119 Nev. Op. No. 45, 81 P.3d 537 (2003), the Nevada Supreme court held that telephonic testimony may be used, in lieu of a court appearance, when exigent circumstances exist; and Re: Grievance / Brian Clark, Esq.

Dear Mr. Houston:

Thank you for taking the time to submit your grievance to the State Bar of Nevada regarding attorney Brian Clark. We take every submission seriously, and we understand how important this matter is to you. After careful consideration, we have decided we cannot pursue this matter further at this time.

If the court finds there was attorney misconduct, then please re-submit the court's findings for our reconsideration.

Thank you again for taking the time to submit your grievance and for your understanding regarding this decision.

Sincerely,

20 Could the both of you type up some letters of reference

By the looks of this 9TH CIR. ORDER, I'm not being treated fairly either, especially by the ineffective aid of counsel of ALEXIS M. What up THOMAS or CYNTHA or VERONICA?
I was trying to obtain Emily Strand to type up my briefs to get me out of this wrongful conviction - as I am factually innocent and actually innocent, however
Thomas said Emily works for Clark County Public Defenders now, the same people who conned me into agreeing to a GPA and ruining my life. Solitary confinement for over a year now certainly hasn't helped anything (oo).

Dear Mr. Houston,

We received your package. Thank you for writing to us and considering our firm to take on your case.

Unfortunately, our firm does not currently take on post-conviction cases, so we are unable to take your case at this time. We also aren't aware of any firm that we can refer you to. Our only suggestion is to contact the Nevada State Bar. They may be able to assist you with finding counsel. Their phone number is (702) 382-0504.

Enclosed, we are returning the document you provided to us. Once again, thank you for your consideration. We wish you the best of luck with this matter.

Thank you Mr. Comacho for your letter in my post-conviction litigation(s) in reconsideration?

Perhaps Miss Cynthia or Emily Strand or a new and for your review of my traumatic situation, etc.

Dear Matthew,

Thank you for contacting Just Detention International (JDI), a health and human rights organization that seeks to end sexual abuse behind bars.

We received your request for assistance. However, your request falls outside the scope of our mission. We do not have the resources or the expertise to provide assistance with matters that are not directly related to addressing sexual violence in detention.

PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL LEGAL MAIL

Dear Mr. Houston,

We received your letter asking for help with your case. The Rocky Mountain Innocence Center (RMIC) is a private, non-profit organization that investigates prisoner claims of innocence.

Because RMIC has limited resources and relies mostly on volunteers, we can consider only a very small number of cases. In order for us to consider your case, you must meet the following requirements:

- You must have been convicted of a serious felony in Nevada, Utah, or Wyoming.
- You must have more than seven years left on your prison sentence.
Your trial and direct appeals must be finished, and you are not currently represented by an attorney.
- You must be completely innocent (no involvement whatsoever in the crime, the events leading up to the crime or any related events following the crime).
- Significant new evidence must be available to prove your innocence.

RMIC also cannot consider the following cases: cases of self-defense; cases of consensual sex; and cases in which the prisoner was involved as an accessory or a party-to-the-crime and claims he/she did not play a major role in the crime.

If your conviction was child sexual assault/lewdness, there must be DNA evidence available to help prove your innocence or the victim must have changed his or her claim against you.

Also, RMIC cannot take your case if you are serving a lengthy sentence for another, unrelated conviction, and exoneration on the conviction for which you are innocent would not free you from prison.

In the event that you meet all of these criteria, please complete and return the "Screening Questionnaire" and "Waiver and Authorization For Release Of Records And Information." Do not send us any other documents or materials, because we cannot look at them at this time or return them to you.

By sending you this letter and the questionnaire, RMIC is not agreeing to accept your case for investigation. At this point in time, RMIC has agreed to perform work on your case for the limited purpose of screening your case for investigation.

Because we get many requests for help, it will take up to a year for us to screen your case. If your case is accepted for investigation, you will go onto a waiting list until the other cases before yours have been investigated.

Please do not telephone or write additional letters asking about your case, because this will only slow down the screening process. We will contact you after we have screened your case. Thank you very much for your patience.

Kind regards,

Amanda Darcy, Atty.
RMIC Legal Fellow

CRITICAL RESISTANCE

May 29, 2023

Peaceful greetings comrade,

Many appreciations for your interest in our newspaper, the Abolitionist! This letter is to confirm that you've been subscribed. We've included the two most recent issues for you:

- Issue 37, with features on different angles of housing justice and prison industrial complex (PIC) abolition went to print in June 2022 and was mailed out to over 5,500 subscribers. The feature analysis with CR member and senior organizer with Right to the City Alliance, Kamau Walton.
- Issue 38, Focused on labor struggles & PIC abolition is packed full of timely and useful analysis, reflection and resources for organizing inside and outside of cages, including articles on decriminalizing sex work, recent general strikes in Ecuador and Colombia, challenging the 13th Amendment and prison labor, and more. There's a interview with Melissa Burch, former Critical Resistance (CR) staffer and past editor of The Abolitionist, current long-time CR at-large member, and director of the Afterlives of Conviction Project, on the rise of employment barriers and discrimination against formerly imprisoned people and people with conviction history, arrest, court, and legal records.

We hope to get the next issue out later this year during the summer, which will focus on reproductive rights as they relate to the PIC.

In struggle & solidarity,

CR volunteer

Dear

Unfortunately, we are not able to provide legal support, but on the back of this letter is a list of pro bono legal resources that may help you in your struggle.

In working towards abolishing the Prison Industrial Complex, we use a combination of strategies, including public education, campaign work and coalition building. We believe prisoners are a central part of this work and encourage writings, criticism, advice and feedback.

Although we cannot guarantee a quick response due to the high volume of mail we receive each week, we hope that you will continue writing and conversing with us on topics that are of interest to you. We love ongoing communication with folks inside and want to build with you as well as give you any information we can.

In Solidarity & Struggle,

On behalf of Critical Resistance

Dear Mx. Houston,

Thank you for your letter requesting assistance from the Roderick and Solange MacArthur Justice Center. I was so sorry to read about all the problems you described.

The MacArthur Justice Center is a public interest law firm whose mission is to litigate cases aimed at challenging injustices in the criminal legal system and holding people in power accountable. Because we have a small staff and are currently operating at a full case load, we are often unable to provide assistance in individual cases and situations.

This is not to say that your case does not have merit. We have made a record of your letter in our database in the event that circumstances in the future might allow us to be of service. Unfortunately, because we have limited resources and select our cases with many factors in mind, we cannot pursue your case at this time. There are other organizations that may be able to help you, however. Please see the enclosed page for that contact information. The ACLU of Nevada has an office in Las Vegas and their phone number is (702) 366-1226. In addition, the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada might be able to direct you to an attorney who could assist you: Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada, 725 E. Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, NV 89104, (702) 386-1070.

Thank you for reaching out to us. I'm very sorry we can't help with your case at this time. Please know that you are in our thoughts.

June 28, 2023

As always, I want to express my deepest apologies for the gap since our last newsletter. The short story is that once the legislative session started, it was chaos trying to get all of the bills passed, keep families up to date with ways they could help move the legislation and handle everything outside of the legislative session. We were barely holding our heads above water, but- we made it, and while we may not have won everything we wanted, we did historically pass all the bills we were running and supported many others.

Before I get to the bill updates, I want to review some things I have been responding to over the past few months and remind you what we do, what we don't do and why, especially regarding legislation. First, our work focuses on widespread change and how what is happening impacts the most people when improved. It also is focused on laying the foundation for future work. Legislative change isn't an END to a fight, it is the beginning of a journey of change, and even once we win, we must hold decision-makers and leadership accountable. We know that. Without accountability, why make laws?

AB121: First, This bill protects physical mail from electronic scanning. There is a clause that the Director can stop physical mail if he completes a study and provides data proving that the mail is causing a health and safety risk to staff or offenders. Second, NDOC must provide medication refills when due, without the incarcerated person filing a request/Kyte. Third, it requires NDOC to create a policy that will provide your contact person notification of hospitalization for a critical illness within 24 hours upon admission into the hospital or to give you access to contact your people within 4 hours of an incident that requires a trip to the hospital, but no admission. Effective July 1, 2023.

AB452: This bill has two distinct things: visitation and oversight. First, it protects in-person visitation upon the implementation of any electronic visitation. (In other words, they can never go to video only, it can be an option but not at the removal of in-person visits). The bill also requires Director or Deputy Director approvals for cancellations of visits and an annual report to the legislature with all cancellations and their reasons.

The other part of the bill will develop an office of the corrections ombudsman. A neutral third party with access to NOTIS to pull incident reports/complaints, freely investigate with access to facilities, data, staff, and residents (you)- make recommendations to the Director and the state with suggested resolutions. One key component of this office is to provide oversight to protect your due process rights by watching grievance timelines and problems with that process. It will also have a reporting component that will report to the legislature annually for accountability. Effective 10.1.23

SB107: Ends the exemption to the (public) administrative rule-making process previously granted to NDOC. When legislators initially passed the 233b process, NDOC was exempt. The past few years have proven that oversight is necessary, and we won an end to this exemption. It requires a public and legislative approval process covering all fiscal policies, visitation, and mail. Effective 7.1.23

Together, SB107 and the ombudsman make a significant impact on necessary oversight and accountability of Nevada's prisons. The ombudsman will be following reports of complaints and grievances inside the prison, and the 233b process creates a public process that needs legislative approval for specific changes. It doesn't mean we can stop everything we don't like, but we get a voice and an opportunity to do that. Right now, when we fight, it's trying to stop a policy change with 72 hours' notice, and it is a miracle that we have been able to get anything done that way.

SB307: Limits segregation to 15 consecutive days. Daily health and welfare checks while in segregation. Effective 1.1.24

SB413 This will change the current good time/meritorious credit system to a flat percentage of time served. This bill passed with a percentage of 65% of time served, making you eligible for parole. It is also supposed to make parole presumptive unless there have been significant or repetitive disciplinary actions. Effective 1.1.25

This bill was a very complicated bill change that followed five decades of changes to the credit system depending on the political climate at the time. We had to make some difficult choices in negotiating the bill because there are two types of bills- ones that focus on policy and ones that focus on values. With the current Governor, winning legislation that was "value" based was close to impossible. We had an opportunity to take a historical step towards fixing the credit system and stop the problem of moving days and confusion on your time.

Who is eligible became the "value" question. While we disagree with carve-outs for certain classifications of crimes, that is a value question we must address through education, and there was no avenue to succeed during the session. We need time to be able to do that, and it is on our agenda. We opposed several bills with carve-outs because of the damage it would do

Remember that sometimes, we have to move incrementally and change things one piece at a time, other times- we go all or nothing. This bill made sense to take this step and return for more in subsequent years.

SB416- This bill built off the caps on restitution deductions in 2021 and further expands additional financial protection. As I said at the beginning of the session, we asked for EVERYTHING on this, knowing we would need to negotiate to win anything, and this has additional next steps.

What we won: an end to all medical co-pays, man-down fees for medical emergencies (they are still allowed to charge for self-harm, riot or fight-related injuries, sports injuries) and, room and board fees, and an end to limitations on the amount you can spend on commissary. In addition, the end to hygiene markups is now LAW- so zero markups on hygiene are here to stay! Effective 10.1.23

**Remember, they can raise prices if the supplier increases the cost, but they can't mark that cost up****

What we left on the table: Ending trust accounts for people on DR or LWOP and a reduction in the cost of food- which I know is disappointing, BUT if we took a reduction in the markup, we couldn't come back later for no markup, and this is part of a more extensive conversation around funding prisons. (I will expand this in future newsletters).

AB292-Dignity for Incarcerated Women- which provides free feminine hygiene products and protections around physical searches. (I don't have all the final language on this because we didn't lead the negotiations, and I am not exactly sure where it ended as it went into last-minute negotiations)

SB153- Now requires cultural competency training for corrections officers to improve their interactions with people who identify as trans or non-binary.

SB351-Changes the rules for visitation to allow people with prior felonies the same rights to visitation as everyone else. People will not automatically receive a visitation denial for a felony conviction, but the felony must be evaluated individually according to when it happened and what it was. So far, the administration has said things that involve bringing contraband into a prison and visitation with children or victims, dependent on the conviction. The second part of this bill requires written notification of the denial reason.

The Legislative Session is Over- Now What?

Our work never ends! Here is a summary of some of the things we are still working on and some new things that we have started, and a list of ways you can help- We have several volunteer workgroups that will be working on specific campaigns-

The Food Fight- this workgroup is addressing food insecurity issues in Nevada prisons (and beyond). It involves addressing the Aramark contract, the intersection of commissary/pricing, and the monopoly on vendors. This group is working on a long-term campaign to end the Aramark contract and address all food issues/concerns. PLEASE fill out the attached survey to help them in their work. Feel free to share; people can write their answers on blank paper. Your voice matters!

II. Women's Sentencing & Policy Group: This workgroup will start later this summer, and more details and surveys will be coming to you. We are building a coalition of organizations interested in doing this work by several social workers, policy experts, and legal experts from UNLV and UNR who are interested in working with us to address specific issues & policies impacting incarcerated women and women in the criminal legal system. As soon as we have this up and running, I will send the info directly to the FMWCC and JCC women. If you identify as a woman and are at another facility, please let us know, and we will include you in the surveys.

III. The Pardon Advocacy Project: This is about to go through a transformation because we are running into nonstop roadblocks in successfully getting people onto an agenda. We hoped pressure would make a change, but so far, very little has happened. If you are part of the 2023 cohort, you will remain on the cohort indefinitely, BUT we are adding another layer to this, and it falls under policy work.

Beginning immediately, we are using the lack of progress to show why the pardon board is problematic and can't be the only way that we address the numbers of people who have been unfairly and excessively sentenced, people who were sentenced under laws that don't exist anymore and other injustices- we are beginning the work to establish a Prosecutorial Sentencing Review Board.

More information is coming in the following newsletter (Fall 2023). In the meantime- share your story with us. If you have already shared it- send us a brief letter and tell us that you are interested in using your story as an example, and we will pull it from our database for review. We will review all pardon board applications we have previously received to find highlight stories to show why this needs to happen. If your story is one we are interested in, got it to us.

IV. Family Council Roundtables: Return Strong has worked very hard to build communication and transparency with the new administration, and together, we have made significant progress. both in the legislature and regarding other work that impacts all of you in your daily lives.

To know what is happening and keep our finger on the pulse of what is happening in facilities- we need YOU to be writing to us because you understand everything at a deeper level. The other way is to have quarterly roundtables with families from each facility to gain additional information and insight for our meetings with the Director and his administrative team.

Some of the things we have been able to resolve in the past few months (even with legislative pressure restricting our capacity)- include addressing the missing disciplinary sanctions, which resulted in people being sanctioned/charged with murder when no murder occurred, monitoring water issues at NNCC due to repeated water main breaks, visitation policy issues at several facilities, lack of water drinkable water at HCC, attorney access at HDSP, missing food at Carlin camp- and many more.

Our goal is NOT to be a constant bandaid, and please, if it isn't urgent- do not send your family to us on every issue- follow the process that exists both with NDOC and with our method of you writing to us with your concerns and your loved ones attending our VIRTUAL roundtables and facility workgroups and us to get updated information- we can't answer individual questions and concerns, we need you and your loved ones to meet us halfway.

Our goal IS to be aware of the issues so that we can prioritize and get as many problems addressed through our meetings with the administration as possible. We need to know what's happening to get it addressed. Letters, roundtables, and family council workgroups are how people can help.

We have recently made significant progress with 1983 cases, specifically on correctional abuse. If you are a jailhouse lawyer with active cases nearing the point that you need representation, please send us case summaries and information with a request to pass it on to our attorney for screening.

V. Impact Teams are our way of educating decisionmakers, community leaders, families, educators on the reality of prison. If you know someone who may be interested in being a spokesperson and part of the work we are doing, especially people who have done a significant amount of time and want to be an advocate for change, we are creating that platform. Please have them email us at info@returnstrongnv.org and tell us who they are and why they are interested. If YOU are interested when you come home, please contact us. We are working together to create a movement! Be the change!

YOU can help by sharing your story or making us aware of facility problems by writing to:

Return Strong!
PO Box 1155
Carson City, NV 89702

Volunteer as a unit organizer- we continue to grow our reach inside to ensure we can provide you with information and streamline communication when necessary. You are responsible for ensuring that people on your unit, wing, or group of associates know what we are working on.

Organize a fundraiser or stamp drive. The women at Florence McCiure recently contacted us and offered to do a fundraiser to donate proceeds to Return Strong! to continue their work. If you are interested in organizing one at your facility and need help, we have volunteers to help you manage it. Any funds raised would help us with communication costs and improve our ability to stay in communication with you.

Your loved ones can get involved by attending Zoom workgroups, joining Facebook, or becoming a monthly donor (even $10 a month is a huge help when coupled with a large number of people)
Email info@returnstrongnv.org for information on any of the above.

In Solidarity!

Jodi & The Team at Return Strong

Staff, CORE volunteer leaders, Impact Team members and all of our activists and supporters.
We are stronger together!

The Food Fight Survey :

The following survey is related to Return Strong's campaign on food insecurity, hunger, water, and climate change. We have received hundreds of letters from all of you, as well as calls, comments, and emails from your families about food, temperature, environmental concerns, and water issues. Our goal with this survey is to add your voices and experience to the data and research available on these issues to get a deeper understanding. We understand there have been significant changes in the past year; our goal is to understand the differences better so that we can address the issue beyond the obvious.

You are welcome to copy this, handwrite it, and share it- the more responses we have from various facilities, the better we can identify the issue and work to find solutions. In addition, while we have standard answers, YOUR STORIES and details are powerful, and we want to hear them. Thank you- we are stronger together. Thank you for trusting us enough to work with us because, remember, there is no us without you.

Plaintiff moves this Honorable Court to examine the intentional gross negligence of the Law Library as demonstrated by Document 47, filed July 06, 2023, pages 5-15. Obviously, as the pages are incomplete and haphazardly thrown together, they're not taking their job(s) seriously. Their unnecessary roughness has further blocked, thwarted and hindered the factually and actually innocent Plaintiff, causing misinterpretation and vexatious abuse of the court's resources. As filed in EDOC Case No. A-23-865442-C by the plaintiff,
The court will PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that according

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

"Motion to modify sentence" is limited in scope to sentences based on mistaken assumptions about defendant's criminal record which work to defendant's extreme detriment, while "Motion to correct illegal sentence" addresses only facial legality of sentence. State v. District Court, 100 Nev. 90, 97, 677 p.2d 1044 1048 (1984), and Edwards v. State, 918 p.2d 321 (Nev. 1996).

Further N.R.S 176.555 Motion to Modify and/or Correct a sentence, may be filed at any time.

Defendant herein alleges that his sentence should be modified and/or corrected pursuant to the following facts:

Not at any time did the Plaintiff-in-Error / Petitioner-Appellant (Matthew Travis Houston) harass, extort, threaten, or "aggravated stalking" any of the parties in any of his cases. neither did he act aggressively towards any other individual, business or entity. Mr. Houston is a victim of crime, especially considering that he in fact was kidnapped from his home in Iowa City, Iowa, after false police reports were made by the alleged victim, Rosemarie McMorris-Alexander, who is the supervisor of Diane Ferrante at SEDGWICK CMS, the claims manager for Mr. Houston's workers compensation claim ID# 3016661201-001, and is a defendant in Mr. Houston's third party personal injury case A-17-758861-C. The defendants made their false police reports about Mr. Houston so that they could avoid having to pay his workers compensation claim by causing him to become wrongfully convicted repeatedly, and is proven by documents including but NOT limited to the attached 'STATEMENT OF FACTS': NOTHING was or is legal regarding ② the sentence of Mr. Houston.

STATEMENT OF FACTS: Kidnapped from his home in Iowa

2. ~~City IA~~ On July 14, 2021, MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON (hereinafter "Petitioner-Appellant")
3 was abducted from his hotel room at the Best Western located at [REDACTED] 3041 4 St. Rose Parkway in Henderson, Nevada, as he was not served with any sort of 5 summons or WARRANT, nor was told or read that he had any kind of rights. This 6 false arrest prevented Petitioner-Appellant from attending his appointment the very 7 next day at Nevada Retina Specialists, with Dr. Tyson Ward on July 15, 2021, while 8 this continued imprisonment of his person also prevented him from attending his medical 9 disability ruling in Reno, Nevada, on August 15, 2021, with Dr. Dwagleri. Both appointments
10 of which had been scheduled by the abductors, SEDGWICK's Dianne Ferrante, and her 11 alleged supervisor, Rosemarie McMorris-Alexander, as was the booking of his room.
12 The Petitioner-Appellant's attempt at release from CIBC was intended so that he could 13 search for and hopefully, retrieve his service animals. However, the now-dismissed counsel, J.
14 Wood & Bernard Little, provided misinformation regarding the lack of a directly related "City Jail 15 Detainer Hold". Counsel had told Petitioner-Appellant, all the while coercing his client into a 16 potential release from custody, that he did not see a detainer hold - when, in fact, there was.
17 This coercion of the client by his previous representation created a second double-jeopardy -
18 in LAS VEGAS MUNICIPAL COURT #1248384A + #1237802A; with the first being by J. Wood
19 in the EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT 21-CR-019840 + 21-CR-033713. A. Goldstein <sup>Alexis Dueck</sup> NEVER visited 20 Mr. Houston. These traumatic events are a cruel and unusual punishment being inflicted upon an abused
21 and innocent man, who was forced into an involuntary relocation, with unnecessary hardships
22 causing the eviction of his law office located at 435 South Linn Street #927, in Iowa 23 City, Iowa (52240), $36.5 million of property damage and the destruction of his K-9(s).
24 Due to crimes both civil and criminal, not to mention the willful omissions of Rosemarie
25 McMorris-Alexander and Dianne Ferrante, SEDGWICK and the prosecutions' most unlawful use
26 of overreaching tactics and their exploitation of the innocent man has put the Petitioner-Appellant 27 into an unmanageable state of duress, homelessness, and extensive incarceration. Not at any 28 time did Mr. Houston harass, threaten, extort, or "aggravated stalking" any of the 29 parties involved with his cases, neither did he act aggressively towards any 30 other individual, business or entity. Mr. Houston is a victim of crime.

Thereby, pursuant to the facts and the law stated herein, Defendant, request that his sentence be modified/corrected as follows: This court allowing it to be manipulated by ROSEMARIE MCMORRIS-ALEXANDER ET AL is very much in fact ILLEGAL as it has allowed the false imprisonment of the factually innocent man to prevail. This is unfortunate to the people of the STATE OF NEVADA, the people of the United States, and ALL Courts of JUSTICE. Mr. Houston should be expeditiously returned to normalcy and liberty.

Dated; this 11th DAY OF September, 2023.
