

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

MATTHEW TRAVIS HOUSTON
Appellant

No. 86972

FILED

VS.

APPELLANTS' OPENING

CALVIN JOHNSON, WARDEN; AND
THE STATE OF NEVADA, Respondents.

ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

THE Court will take notice that this brief shall also suffice as a PETITION TO ESTABLISH FACTUAL INNOCENCE
PURSUANT TO NRS 34.900 AND PART III OF PERSONAL RESTRAINT PETITION? RESPONSE TO "FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS
OF LAW AND ORDER" FILED SEPTEMBER 06, 2023 AND ALSO AS A CONTINUED/RENEWED RESPONSE TO "ORDER GRANTING IN PART/
DENYING IN PART DEFENDANTS' PRO PER MOTION TO DISMISS COUNSEL" FILED 02/01/2023 AS A BRANDEIS BRIEF.

It is asked of this Court: why did the innocent man have to become wrongfully convicted to fire Ben Little?
Mr. Little submitted his MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL on October 05, 2021. And during that time a pro se MOTION
TO DISMISS the fraudulent charges was submitted to the clerk.
The petitioner-appellant is in opposition to "the state of being without legal significance" of Tierra Danielle Jones especially because Mr. Houston was not provided the name of the Substitute judge, Nancy A. Becker (who misappointed Anthony M. Goldstein to properly withdraw petitioner-appellants' ILL  until the innocent appellant had been excessively incarcerated for 4 years. This dereliction of duty has nothing short of a miscarriage of justice, adding insult to injury while defaming the character of the innocent man.

24-02087