PREAMBLE

A lawyer should always show personal courtesy and professional integrity in the fullest sense of these

10. We will consult other counsel regarding scheduling matters in a good-faith effort to avoid scheduling conflicts.
11. We will endeavor to accommodate previously scheduled dates for hearings, depositions, meetings, conferences, vacations, seminars, or other functions of other counsel.
12. We will explain to our clients that cooperation is the professional norm. We will explain how procedural agreements do not compromise the clients' interests.
13. We will draft document requests and interrogatories without placing an undue burden or expense on any party.
14. We will ensure that our clients respond to document requests and interrogatories without strained interpretation. We will not produce documents nor answer interrogatories in a manner designed to hide or obscure the existence of documents or information.
15. We will be punctual and prepared for all Court appearances so that all hearings, conferences, and trials may commence on time.
16. We will not engage in conduct that brings disorder or disruption to the legal proceeding. We will advise our clients and witnesses of the proper conduct expected and, to the best of our ability, prevent our clients and witnesses from creating disorder or disruption.

IN SUMMARY

In summary, consistent with the lawyer's oath, lawyers are expected to commit to the spirit and letter of these standards, affirming that these guidelines do not denigrate the lawyer's duty of zealous representation. Law schools and continuing legal education courses should incorporate these standards when teaching professionalism to law students and practicing lawyers alike. Lawyers should make copies available to clients and adjudicators should reinforce these standards in the courtroom to reinforce our obligation to maintain and foster these standards and to make it clear that incivility may hurt the client's case.

11 STATE BAR OF NEVADA STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SUPREME COURT RULE
12 42 (3) (b)

13 THE STATE BAR OF NEVADA, in response to the application of 14 Petitioner, submits the following statement pursuant to SCR42(3):

15 SCR42(6)Discretion. The granting or denial of a motion to associate 16 counsel pursuant to this rule by the court is discretionary. The 17 court, arbitrator, mediator, or administrative or governmental 18 hearing officer may revoke the authority of the person permitted to appear under this rule. Absent special circumstances, repeated appearances by any person or firm of attorneys pursuant to this rule shall be cause for denial of the motion to associate such person.

19 (a) Limitation. It shall be presumed, absent special 20 circumstances, and only upon showing of good cause, that 21 more than 5 appearances by any attorney granted under this rule in a 3-year period is excessive use of this rule.

22 (b) Burden on applicant. The applicant shall have the 23 burden to establish special circumstances and good cause
24 for an appearance in excess of the limitation set forth in subsection 6(a) of this rule. The applicant shall set forth the special circumstances and good cause in an affidavit attached to the original verified application.
