ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS

Appellant, proceeding pro se, has filed a motion to transmit “all pivotal exhibits” from the district court. Appellant states that there were over 160 exhibits admitted in the underlying district court case. Appellant fails to identify with particularity which exhibits he wishes to have transmitted. Additionally, appellant fails to explain why the exhibits are incapable of being reproduced in an appendix, if appellant was permitted to file an appendix. See NRAP 30(d), (i). Accordingly, the motion is denied without prejudice to appellant’s ability to file a motion to transmit any original exhibits under NRAP 30(d), and/or to file a motion seeking leave to file an appendix containing copies of specific exhibits accompanied by a proposed appendix of exhibits.

Proposed amici curiae Oscar Williams, Janice Hermsen, Lena Alexander, and David Chamberlain have filed a pro se motion for leave to file a brief of amicus curiae in support of appellant. The motion is only signed by Williams who, as a non-attorney, may not pursue this relief on behalf of the others. See NRAP 25(a)(5) (requiring that all documents submitted for filing by an unrepresented party include the original signature of that party); Guerin v. Guerin, 116 Nev. 210, 214, 993 P.2d 1256, 1258 (2000) (providing that while an individual can represent himself or herself in court, no rule or statute permits a non-attorney to represent any other person in court). Accordingly, the motion is denied without prejudice. The clerk of this court shall return, unfiled, the proposed amicus brief and accompanying appendix received on December 19, 2023.¹

It is so ORDERED.
