CASE APPEAL STATEMENT

1. Defendant Brian Yu is the appellant filing this case statement appeal.
2. Appealing for Hon. Judge Bill Henderson "ORDER FROM HEARING ON MARCH 10, 2023". Filed April 14, 2023.
3. Plaintiff Ruorong Yu is the respondent of this appeal. Address: 6721 Old Valley Street Las Vegas, NV 8949. Tel: 929-355-0048, email: ruorongyu.lv@yahoo.com.
4. Appellant is filing appeal in proper person.
5. BRIEF DESCRIPTION of the above Court Order; a). court's FINDINGS (1) & (2) saying Synchrony Bank account was a concealed account that was misled by Plaintiff. The money deposited into those accounts were from community property GE Interest Plus account. Therefore, they are not concealed accounts. b). (3) When figuring out Plaintiff's share of sick & vacation hours, totally ignore the sick and vacation hours Defendant accrued before the marriage was wrong, after deducted those hours correct figure should be half of $36,572.70 c). Defendant owes after she pocketed her half of $52,789.00 by signed agreement, Plaintiff $19,989.00 for short fall of the E-Trade 0241 account should be offset by Plaintiff's attorney Mr. Kurk withdrew $20,000 from Defendant solely own Synchrony Bank account by 7-20-2017 Court Order for his attorney fee, that Plaintiff should responsible for. COURT ORDERS; a). After Plaintiff pocketed her share half of GE account money of $52,788.84 by signed agreement, Plaintiff filed the false claims on Defendant's half of GE Interest Plus account money that were deposited into Synchrony Bank account Gain Capital and Chase Bank account from GE account, then all accounts were frozen. Synchrony Bank 2-01-2016 account balance was around $60,000. By 7-20-2017 ORDER Plaintiff's attorney Mr. Kurk withdrew $20,000 from this account. Now, account balance was around $45,000 (including interest). Court Ordered Defendant pays Plaintiff half 2-01-2016 account balance of $30,000 is unrealistic. Undisputable evidence shown this account should be Defendant solely owed property. b). After deducted sick and vacation leave hours Defendant accrued before marriage, Plaintiff should have half of $36,572.70 that is $18,286.35. c). Defendant owes Plaintiff $19,989.00 for the shortfall of E-Trade 0241 account should be offset by her attorney Mr. Kurk withdrew $20,000 for his attorney fee from Defendant's solely owned Synchrony Bank account.

Journal Entry Details:

Court interpreter Yaomin Lei present for the Plaintiff. Attorney Fred Page present for the Plaintiff. Plaintiff and Defendant sworn and testified. Court reviewed case history. Discussions between Court and counsel. Arguments by counsel. Court stated its FINDINGS, COURT ORDERED, the following: #1. Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff ALIMONY of $1,950.00 per month in two (2) separate installments of $975.00 on the first and $975.00 on the 15th of each month until he retires or until there is sufficient change of financial circumstances. Court shall retain JURISDICTION. #2 Plaintiff shall be awarded the home on 6721 Old Valley Street. Plaintiff shall buy out Defendant's interest at $60,000.00. #3 The PERS/HARTFORD account shall be equally divided but from Plaintiff's one-half of the $60,000.00 buyout for the house will be deducted from her one-half. #4 The GE INTEREST PLUS ACCOUNT is marital property estimated at approximately $90,000.00 and shall be split 50/50. On both #3 and #4, Qualified Domestic Orders may be necessary. Plaintiff shall receive Survivor's benefit for the option but only for the purpose of protecting her one-half and not for purpose of providing her any access to Defendant's one-half on his demise. #5 DEBT: There is an issue of approximately $28,000.00 in debt incurred by Plaintiff in the eight (8) month period from the separation in October 2012 until Defendant commenced paying alimony in June 2013. Defendant shall pay $10,000.00 of that $28,000.00 and shall be paid by check to Attorney Page's office by next Friday, 8/29/14 by 5:00 p.m. Plaintiff also alleges she incurred approximately $8,800.00 in debts subsequent to March 2014 when she was no longer depositing the Alimony checks. However, it has been determined that although Plaintiff did not deposit such checks that she or her counsel have received them. Therefore, Plaintiff shall NOT be entitled any contribution from Defendant for any portion of this $8,800.00 debt that she incurred from March 2014 forward. #6. COURT FINDS, the SNOWDEN CONDOMINIUM valued at $70,000.00, that in 2008 Defendant drafted an agreement which was signed by Defendant that upon Defendant's death, the condominium will pass to Plaintiff. #7. ATTORNEYS FEES is clearly a Sergeant case. The $10,000.00 from issue #5, the debt incurred during the eight (8) month period, that $10,000.00 plus the un-cashed Alimony checks of $2,100.00, Defendant has offered to replace that with a check for the whole amount. Once Attorney Page receives the replacement checks for the un-cashed Alimony checks from March 14 forward, those amounts shall be applied to Attorney's Fees; not just the $10,000.00 from issue #5 but also the reimbursement check for the un-cashed Alimony checks from March 2014 forward. Those two checks shall be made out to Attorney Page. If the check is inadvertently received by the Plaintiff, she shall endorse it and forward to Attorney Page. Those amounts shall be applied to Attorney's Fees, but in fairness due to gross disparity in earning capacity, one having significant and the other having none, nevertheless somewhat significant accommodation has to be made in the realm of about $13,000.00. The $6,570.00 has already been paid. After Attorney Page receives the $10,000.00 check from issue #5 and the replacement check from the Alimony, that roughly $13,000.00, $14,000.00 additional should be paid from Defendant to Plaintiff. Defendant did satisfy the $6,750.00 from an earlier Order, but he shall owe another $7,500.00. Defendant shall pay the $7,500.00 by 3/15/15 or it shall be REDUCED TO JUDGMENT collectible by any lawful means. #8. All accounts other than the WELLS FARGO account shall be divided equally. The Wells Fargo account shall be left open. Both counsel shall try to resolve this matter. If they are unable to, counsel can request a telephonic conference with the Court. Within the next thirty (30) days, counsel shall meet and confer regarding the Orders. COURT ORDERED, an

MINUTES 1. Defendant's motion set for 2/18/16 is denied, and removed from calendar, pursuant to EDCR 2.20 for failure to provide points and authorities, and because he requests the same relief previously denied at the hearing of 11/30/15, which was his request to reopen the Divorce and change substantive terms. He still provides no legal basis to re-open the Divorce, and instead just continues to provide a narrative of his allegations and concerns. 2. Defendant still is unable to demonstrate that property of substantial value was not addressed in the Decree, so that claim of his is now barred. 3. As to Plaintiff's personal property, she will list these items that have still not been returned to her. Defendant shall return them by Saturday 2/20/16, at Noon, with Plaintiff going to the residence with a police escort. 4. As to the Court preserving the argument to Defendant as to the inequitable division of real property, Defendant was provided repeat opportunities to present documentation to establish and advance this argument. He still hasn't done so, and therefore that claim is permanently barred. In fact, Court finds that Defendant received the more valuable piece of real property, and Defendant has presented nothing to meaningfully dispute such conclusion. 5. Defendant still has not documented the removal of the $176,000., which, incident to the Divorce, Defendant apparently moved, transferred or concealed in order to deny Plaintiff her rightful share of such proceeds. Therefore, Plaintiff will receive a judgment against Defendant for one-half of that amount, or $88,000. Therefore, as to the frozen accounts, they are ordered immediately unfrozen so Plaintiff can receive one-half of all such accounts, plus an additional $88,000 to be deducted from Defendant's share of those accounts, to compensate Plaintiff for her $88,000, or one-half entitlement, to the $176,000. of funds which Defendant apparently concealed and converted for his exclusive use. Upon presentation of this order to the agency or bank holding these funds, the accounts will be immediately unfrozen, and the funds will be distributed pursuant to this order, with Plaintiff Ms. Yu receiving her full one-half share, as well as $88,000. from Defendant Mr. Yu's one-half share. 6. Mr. Blau is entitled to withdraw as Plaintiff's attorney. 7. Both parties are deemed vexatious litigants, and are prohibited from filing further motions without obtaining prior court approval. Court Clerk shall place a note in Odyssey at this hearing under Judicial Dept. Misc. indicating; vexatious litigants: no motions to be filed without court permission. This shall be entered in open court, and the Clerk's Office will thus accept no further filings. 8. Based on a deluge of attempted improper ex parte communication from Plaintiff, she is hereby instructed that any further attempts to submit improper ex parte communications to chambers may result in a finding of contempt against her, and possibly for sanctions as well for wasting court resources and possibly attempting to create bias and/or attempting to receive improper preferential treatment and improper advantages. 9. Plaintiff is to prepare the order. Her son, who was present in court, offered to assist Plaintiff in this regard due to her language difficulty. ;

PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTION TO DEFENDANT'S CLAIM OF EXEMPTION FROM EXECUTION, REQUEST TO REOPEN DISCOVERY, REDUCE AWARD(S) TO JUDGMENT, FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS, AND FOR OTHER RELATED RELIEF Robert Kurth present on behalf of Plaintiff in an UNBUNDLED CAPACITY. Mandarin Court Interpreter, Wai-Mei Borgel, present with Plaintiff. Court noted, an Order was not prepared from the 1/30/17 hearing. Mr. Kurth provided the Order, which was EXECUTED IN OPEN COURT and returned to counsel for filing. After extensive discussion and argument by Mr. James regarding improper proof of service of the E-Trade writ, Mr. James stated Defendant's willingness to withdraw the improper service argument on this writ. Discussion regarding the stipulation and order entered into between the parties to release funds from the E-trade account, determining the increase/decrease to the accounts from June 2015 and whether the increase/decrease is community property, Defendant's desire to file a motion to stay the enforcement of all orders pending the results of the appeal, removing the vexatious litigant status of the parties, and attorney's fees. COURT FINDS, enforcement of the Court's Orders is necessary at this time. COURT ORDERED as follows, 1. Based on Defendant's representation that there are enough funds in the Mass Mutual Account to make Defendant whole should he prevail on appeal, Defendant's oral request to stay enforcement of the Court's Orders is DENIED, WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Court shall reserve the right to reverse its decision should the parties discover there are not enough funds in the accounts to make Defendant whole in the event he succeeds on appeal. 2. The Stipulation and Order to Release Funds from the E-Trade account for the purpose of paying Plaintiff $88,000.00 is AFFIRMED AND ADOPTED. Stipulation and Order EXECUTED IN OPEN COURT and returned to counsel for filing. The remainder in the account shall remain FROZEN. Mr. Kurth shall inform the Court and opposing counsel upon Plaintiff receiving the $88,000.00. 3. Mr. Kurth shall provide the completed IRA Distribution Request Form to Mr. James for signature. 4. Counsel shall confer and attempt to reach an agreement on the release to Plaintiff of one-half of the balances that were in the accounts as of June, 2015 (less $88,000.00). In the alternative, the accounts shall remain frozen. 5. Based on the representations of counsel, the VEXATIOUS LITIGANT RESTRICTION shall be LIFTED, as the cause for imposing the restriction has been removed and the parties are represented by highly skilled counsel that the parties expect to retain indefinitely. 6. The Massachusetts/Mass Mutual Account shall be UNFROZEN for the payment of ATTORNEY'S FEES, with $20,000.00 to be paid to Law Offices of F. Peter James and $20,000.00 to be paid to Kurth Law Office, subject to redistribution. The balance, after the $40,000.00 is paid, shall remain FROZEN until further Order of the Court. Mr. Kurth shall prepare the Order from today's hearing and a separate Order for the release of the Mass Mutual Account funds; Mr. James shall review and sign off.;

Plaintiff is represented by her attorney of record, David Ortiz, Esq.; Defendant is represented by his attorney of record, Soraya Veiga, Esq. This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's Motion and Notice of Motion for Orders to Set Aside Order, Judgment, and/or Default filed 09/05/2019. The Certificate of Service Plaintiff filed 09/05/2019 states she served Defendant directly rather than his attorney of record. She did not state the day she mailed the motion to Defendant. In her motion, Plaintiff seeks set aside or reconsideration of the order filed 08/23/2019 and Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO) filed 09/03/2019. Plaintiff filed a Notice of Appeal on 09/13/2019. According to her case appeal statement, she seeks relief related to the terms of the Order filed in this case on 08/23/2019 and QDRO filed 09/03/2019. Pursuant to NRCP 6, a party filing a motion is required to serve the opposing party with a copy of such motion and notice of motion at least 21 days before the scheduled hearing date to the opposing party's address of record and/or his or her attorney. Pursuant to EDCR 5.206(b), a copy of any papers filed must be served on all other parties to an action, in accordance with the Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure, the Nevada Electronic Filing and Conversion Rules, the Eighth Judicial District Electronic Filing and Service Rules, and these rules, within 3 calendar days of submission for filing. The Court FINDS THAT service of Plaintiff's Motion and Notice of Motion is defective. THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the hearing scheduled for Thursday, 10/10/2019 at 10:00 a.m. is VACATED. A copy of this Minute Order shall be served on the counsel of record. ; Minute Order - No Hearing Held |

Motion for Attorney David Ortiz to Withdraw

05/14/2021

Minute Order (1:30 PM) (Judicial Officer: Henderson, Bill)

Minute Order - No Hearing Held;

Journal Entry Details:

MINUTE ORDER- NO HEARING HELD NRCP 1 and EDCR 1.10 state the procedure in district courts shall be administered to secure efficient, speedy, and inexpensive determinations in every action. In the interest of judicial economy and interest of justice, this Minute Order issues pursuant to EDCR 2.23(c), which allows this Court to consider a motion and issue a decision on the papers at any time without a hearing. This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff, Ruorong Yu's Motion for Attorney David Ortiz Withdraw filed 04/07/2021. She alleges she retained Attorney Ortiz on 09/17/2019 to draft a motion and that he did not draft a motion. She further alleges that he did not perform work or withdraw from the case. THE COURT FINDS that Attorney David Ortiz filed a Notice of Withdrawal of Counsel for the Plaintiff on 04/02/2021, which he served on Plaintiff the same day according to the attached Certificate of Service. THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Attorney Ortiz filed a Notice of Appearance on 09/18/2019. He filed Re-Notice of Motion for Orders to Set Aside Order, Judgment, and/or Default (on a motion Plaintiff previously drafted in proper person) and Plaintiff's Rule 62(b) Motion to Stay Execution of Judgment Pending Hearing, which is a motion Attorney Ortiz drafted. He also was actively engaged in the appeal process on Plaintiff's behalf in this case according to the documents from the Supreme Court filed in this case, such as the Request for Transcripts of Proceedings filed 10/23/2019, even though Plaintiff filed the Notice of Appeal in proper person well prior to retaining Attorney Ortiz. THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Attorney Ortiz appeared at the 11/26/2019 hearing on behalf of Plaintiff on the above motions. THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Plaintiff has an extensive history throughout this case of differences of opinion on strategy with her numerous attorneys that have resulted in similar allegations. The Court, therefore, is unable to make a finding that Attorney Ortiz violated the rules of professional conduct as Plaintiff alleges. THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's motion for withdrawal is DENIED because it is MOOT and unsupported by the record. A copy of this minute order shall be served on the parties or their attorneys and Attorney David Ortiz. CLERKS NOTE: Emailed to the parties and their Attorney's and mailed to Attorney David Ortiz.;

Court stated its FINDINGS, COURT ORDERED, the following:

#1. Defendant shall pay to Plaintiff ALIMONY of $1,950.00 per month in two (2) separate installments of $975.00 on the first and $975.00 on the 15th of each month until he retires or until there is sufficient change of financial circumstances. Court shall retain JURISDICTION.

s interest at $60,000.00.

#3 The PERS/HARTFORD account shall be equally divided but from Plaintiff s one-half of the $60,000.00 buyout for the house will be deducted from her one-half.

#4 The GE INTEREST PLUS ACCOUNT is marital property estimated at approximately $90,000.00 and shall be split 50/50. On both #3 and #4, Qualified Domestic Orders may be necessary. Plaintiff shall receive Survivor s benefit for the option but only for the purpose of protecting her one-half and not for purpose of providing her any access to Defendant s one-half on his demise.

#5 DEBT: There is an issue of approximately $28,000.00 in debt incurred by Plaintiff in the eight (8) month period from the separation in October 2012 until Defendant commenced paying alimony in June 2013. Defendant shall pay $10,000.00 of that $28,000.00 and shall be paid by check to Attorney Page s office by next Friday, 8/29/14 by 5:00 p.m. Plaintiff also alleges she incurred approximately $8,800.00 in debts subsequent to March 2014 when she was no longer depositing the Alimony checks. However, it has been determined that although Plaintiff did not deposit such checks that she or her counsel have received them. Therefore, Plaintiff shall NOT be entitled any contribution from Defendant for any portion of this $8,800.00 debt that she incurred from March 2014 forward.

#6. COURT FINDS, the SNOWDEN CONDOMINIUM valued at $70,000.00, that in 2008 Defendant drafted an agreement which was signed by Defendant that upon Defendant s death, the condominium will pass to Plaintiff.

#7. ATTORNEYS FEES is clearly a Sergeant case. The $10,000.00 from issue #5, the debt incurred during the eight (8) month period, that $10,000.00 plus the un-cashed Alimony checks of $2,100.00, Defendant has offered to replace that with a check for the whole amount. Once Attorney Page receives the replacement checks for the un-cashed Alimony checks from March 14 forward, those amounts shall be applied to Attorney s Fees; not just the $10,000.00 from issue #5 but also the reimbursement check for the un-cashed Alimony checks from March 2014 forward. Those two checks shall be made out to Attorney Page. If the check is inadvertently received by the Plaintiff, she shall endorse it and forward to Attorney Page. Those amounts shall be applied to Attorney s Fees, but in fairness due to gross disparity in earning capacity, one having significant and the other having none, nevertheless somewhat significant accommodation has to be made in the realm of about $13,00.00. The $6,570.00 has already been paid. After Attorney Page receives the $10,000.00 check from issue #5 and the replacement check from the Alimony, that roughly $13,000.00, $14,000.00 additional should be paid from Defendant to Plaintiff. Defendant did satisfy the $6,750.00 from an earlier Order, but he shall owe another $7,500.00. Defendant shall pay the $7,500.00 by 3/15/15 or it shall be REDUCED TO JUDGMENT collectible by any lawful means.

#8. All accounts other than the WELLS FARGO account shall be divided equally. The Wells Fargo account shall be left open. Both counsel shall try to resolve this matter. If they are unable to, counsel can request a telephonic conference with the Court.

1. Defendant's motion set for 2/18/16 is denied, and removed from calendar, pursuant to EDCR 2.20 for failure to provide points and authorities, and because he requests the same relief previously denied at the hearing of 11/30/15, which was his request to reopen the Divorce and change substantive terms. He still provides no legal basis to re-open the Divorce, and instead just continues to provide a narrative of his allegations and concerns.
2. Defendant still is unable to demonstrate that property of substantial value was not addressed in the Decree, so that claim of his is now barred.
3. As to Plaintiff s personal property, she will list these items that have still not been returned to her. Defendant shall return them by Saturday 2/20/16, at Noon, with Plaintiff going to the residence with a police escort.
4. As to the Court preserving the argument to Defendant as to the inequitable division of real property, Defendant was provided repeat opportunities to present documentation to establish and advance this argument. He still hasn t done so, and therefore that claim is permanently barred. In fact, Court finds that Defendant received the more valuable piece of real property, and Defendant has presented nothing to meaningfully dispute such conclusion.

5. Defendant still has not documented the removal of the $176,000., which, incident to the Divorce, Defendant apparently moved, transferred or concealed in order to deny Plaintiff her rightful share of such proceeds. Therefore, Plaintiff will receive a judgment against Defendant for one-half of that amount, or $88,000. Therefore, as to the frozen accounts, they are ordered immediately unfrozen so Plaintiff can receive one-half of all such accounts, plus an additional $88,000 to be deducted from Defendant's share of those accounts, to compensate Plaintiff for her $88,000, or one-half entitlement, to the $176,000. of funds which Defendant apparently concealed and converted for his exclusive use. Upon presentation of this order to the agency or bank holding these funds, the accounts will be immediately unfrozen, and the funds will be distributed pursuant to this order, with Plaintiff Ms. Yu receiving her full one-half share, as well as $88,000. from Defendant Mr. Yu's one-half share.

6. Mr. Blau is entitled to withdraw as Plaintiff s attorney.

7. Both parties are deemed vexatious litigants, and are prohibited from filing further motions without obtaining prior court approval. Court Clerk shall place a note in Odyssey at this hearing under Judicial Dept. Misc. indicating; vexatious litigants: no motions to be filed without court permission. This shall be entered in open court, and the Clerk s Office will thus accept no further filings.

8. Based on a deluge of attempted improper ex parte communication from Plaintiff, she is hereby instructed that any further attempts to submit improper ex parte communications to chambers may result in a finding of contempt against her, and possibly for sanctions as well for wasting court resources and possibly attempting to create bias and/or attempting to receive improper preferential treatment and improper advantages.

- PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTION TO DEFENDANT'S CLAIM OF EXEMPTION FROM EXECUTION, REQUEST TO REOPEN DISCOVERY, REDUCE AWARD(S) TO JUDGMENT, FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS, AND FOR OTHER RELATED RELIEF

Robert Kurth present on behalf of Plaintiff in an UNBUNDLED CAPACITY.

Mandarin Court Interpreter, Wai-Mei Borgel, present with Plaintiff.

Court noted, an Order was not prepared from the 1/30/17 hearing. Mr. Kurth provided the Order, which was EXECUTED IN OPEN COURT and returned to counsel for filing.

After extensive discussion and argument by Mr. James regarding improper proof of service of the E-Trade writ, Mr. James stated Defendant's willingness to withdraw the improper service argument on this writ.

Discussion regarding the stipulation and order entered into between the parties to release funds from the E-trade account, determining the increase/decrease to the accounts from June 2015 and whether the increase/decrease is community property, Defendant's desire to file a motion to stay the enforcement of all orders pending the results of the appeal, removing the vexatious litigant status of the parties, and attorney's fees.

COURT FINDS, enforcement of the Court's Orders is necessary at this time.

COURT ORDERED as follows,

1. Based on Defendant's representation that there are enough funds in the Mass Mutual Account to make Defendant whole should he prevail on appeal, Defendant's oral request to stay enforcement of the Court's Orders is DENIED, WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Court shall reserve the right to reverse its decision should the parties discover there are not enough funds in the accounts to make Defendant whole in the event he succeeds on appeal.
2. The Stipulation and Order to Release Funds from the E-Trade account for the purpose of paying Plaintiff $88,000.00 is AFFIRMED AND ADOPTED. Stipulation and Order EXECUTED IN OPEN COURT and returned to counsel for filing. The remainder in the account shall remain FROZEN. Mr. Kurth shall inform the Court and opposing counsel upon Plaintiff receiving the $88,000.00.
3. Mr. Kurth shall provide the completed IRA Distribution Request Form to Mr. James for signature.
4. Counsel shall confer and attempt to reach an agreement on the release to Plaintiff of one-half of the balances that were in the accounts as of June, 2015 (less $88,000.00). In the alternative, the accounts shall remain frozen.
5. Based on the representations of counsel, the VEXATIOUS LITIGANT RESTRICTION shall be LIFTED, as the cause for imposing the restriction has been removed and the parties are represented by highly skilled counsel that the parties expect to retain indefinitely.
6. The Massachusetts/Mass Mutual Account shall be UNFROZEN for the payment of ATTORNEY'S FEES, with $20,000.00 to be paid to Law Offices of F. Peter James and $20,000.00 to be paid to Kurth Law Office, subject to redistribution. The balance, after the $40,000.00 is paid, shall remain FROZEN until further Order of the Court.

Mr. Kurth shall prepare the Order from today's hearing and a separate Order for the release of the Mass Mutual Account funds; Mr. James shall review and sign off.

- MINUTE ORDER- NO HEARING HELD

NRCP 1 and EDCR 1.10 state the procedure in district courts shall be administered to secure efficient, speedy, and inexpensive determinations in every action. In the interest of judicial economy and interest of justice, this Minute Order issues pursuant to EDCR 2.23(c), which allows this Court to consider a motion and issue a decision on the papers at any time without a hearing.

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff, Ruorong Yu's Motion for Attorney David Ortiz Withdraw filed 04/07/2021. She alleges she retained Attorney Ortiz on 09/17/2019 to draft a motion and that he did not draft a motion. She further alleges that he did not perform work or withdraw from the case.

THE COURT FINDS that Attorney David Ortiz filed a Notice of Withdrawal of Counsel for the Plaintiff on 04/02/2021, which he served on Plaintiff the same day according to the attached Certificate of Service.

| PRINT DATE: | 05/16/2023 | Page 58 of 80 | Minutes Date: | May 17, 2013 |
|-------------|------------|---------------|---------------|--------------|

Notice: Journal entries are prepared by the courtroom clerk and are not the official record of the Court.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Attorney Ortiz filed a Notice of Appearance on 09/18/2019. He filed Re-Notice of Motion for Orders to Set Aside Order, Judgment, and/or Default (on a motion Plaintiff previously drafted in proper person) and Plaintiff s Rule 62(b) Motion to Stay Execution of Judgment Pending Hearing, which is a motion Attorney Ortiz drafted. He also was actively engaged in the appeal process on Plaintiff s behalf in this case according to the documents from the Supreme Court filed in this case, such as the Request for Transcripts of Proceedings filed 10/23/2019, even though Plaintiff filed the Notice of Appeal in proper person well prior to retaining Attorney Ortiz.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Attorney Ortiz appeared at the 11/26/2019 hearing on behalf of Plaintiff on the above motions.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS that Plaintiff has an extensive history throughout this case of differences of opinion on strategy with her numerous attorneys that have resulted in similar allegations. The Court, therefore, is unable to make a finding that Attorney Ortiz violated the rules of professional conduct as Plaintiff alleges.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff s motion for withdrawal is DENIED because it is MOOT and unsupported by the record.

A copy of this minute order shall be served on the parties or their attorneys and Attorney David Ortiz.

CLERKS NOTE: Emailed to the parties and their Attorney's and mailed to Attorney David Ortiz.

- RETURN HEARING: RE: COURT'S DECISION ON PENDING ISSUES FROM 11/15/2022
EVIDENTIARY HEARING...HEARING

Both parties appeared IN PERSON.

Court stated it has dealt with these issues extensively and will not be able to solve additional or further problems today.

COURT stated the following FINDINGS:

(1) On June 26, 2015, about a week and half after the decree of divorce was entered, Defendant created and funded the Synchrony Account with monies that were community or marital and were concealed from Plaintiff at the time of the divorce. Court stated this ruling was previously established at the 02/01/2016 and became in order on 04/26/2016.

(2) The Gain Capital was likewise concealed from the decree of divorce and thus at the hearing of 02/01/2016 the Court ordered Plaintiff was to be awarded half of the Gain Capital account.
