1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 The Court's three recent orders, issued December 5, 2022, January 26, 2023, and 4 February 3, 2023, provide a roadmap to bring this litigation to a final resolution. The orders
5 should be enforced and followed, as they are the result of substantial motion practice. The Court
6 has clearly and unambiguously ordered (and neither Plaintiffs nor Defendants have sought 7 reconsideration of) the following:

- 8 1. The Receiver's conservative calculations submitted on December 19, 2022 are 9 accepted until a true-up can be conducted by the Receiver. (Order, filed January 26, 10 2023; Receiver's Omnibus Reply, filed December 19, 2022 at Ex. 1.)
- 11 2. Plaintiffs have filed a notice of non-objection and Defendants have filed an objection 12 to the Receiver's conservative calculations. (Plaintiffs' Non-Objection to Receiver's 13 Calculated Fees, filed February 15, 2023; Defendants' Objection to Receiver's 14 Calculations Contained in Exhibit 1 Attached to Receiver's Omnibus Reply to 15 Parties' Oppositions to the Receiver's Motions for Orders & Instructions, filed 16 February 16, 2023.) The Court must rule upon Defendants' objection.
- 17 3. If the Court overrules Defendants' objection – which it should – then Defendants 18 must deposit $1,103,950.99 into the Receiver's bank account. (Order, filed 19 January 26, 2023 at 3.)
- 20 4. Upon receipt of the fees and prior to making any disbursements, the Receiver must 21 file a motion with the Court “outlining the funds received and the proposed 22 distributions for the Receiver's fees and expenses as well as amounts set aside for 23 reserve and any proposed distributions to the Parties.” (Id. at 3-4.)
- 24 5. After the Receiver and his counsel are paid, he “shall carry out his obligation” to 25 recalculate the Daily Use Fee, Shared Facilities Use Fee, and the Hotel Expenses, and 26 apply these fees to true-up the parties' accounts, set the budget for 2023, and 27 undertake any other tasks outlined in the Receiver's Response to Motion to Compel 28 Receiver to Prepare Report on Defendants' Request for Reimbursement of Capital

Expenditures. (Order, filed February 3, 2023 at 1-2; see also Receiver’s Response to Motion to Compel Receiver to Prepare Report on Defendants’ Request for Reimbursement of Capital Expenditures, filed January 9, 2023, at 4-5.)

6. Once these fees are calculated, Plaintiffs may obtain their own appraisal for the fair market value of their units. (Order, filed December 5, 2022 at 7.)

7. The Court will oversee the appraisal process and provide a procedure to determine the fair market value of the Plaintiffs’ units. (Id.)

8. The Court will oversee the sale of the parties’ units and the distribution of the proceeds to the parties. (Id.)

9. The Court will determine the procedure to handle Plaintiffs’ retained claims after the GSRUOA is wound up, as necessary. (Id.)

10. Upon the final sale of the parties’ units, Defendants may begin the wind-up of the Grand Sierra Resort Unit Owners’ Association (“GSRUOA”). (Id.)

Now, notwithstanding the above clear roadmap to resolution, Defendants have filed their Motion to Modify and Terminate Receivership and Approve Sale of Condominium Hotel (“Motion”) purportedly to obtain a Court order on two of the items above, but wholly disregarding every other critical task. To worsen matters, Defendants’ Motion also improperly and untimely seeks to reconsider the Court’s December 5, 2022, January 26, 2023, and February 3, 2023 Orders, and overlooks and omits critical aspects of the orders.

The Court’s December 5, 2023 Order provided that Defendants could proceed with their vote to terminate the GSRUOA pursuant to NRS 116.2118, eq seq., “along with Court supervision” as outlined in that Order. Such supervision consists of six tasks: (1) ensuring the Receiver and his counsel are paid, (2) determining the scope of the wind-up process for the GSRUOA and the Receiver’s oversight of this process, (3) confirming there will be payment funds for any amounts awarded during the hearings on Plaintiffs’ motions for orders to show cause, (4) determining a process by which Plaintiffs will be paid all amounts they are owed, including for their retained claims, (5) overseeing the determination of fair market value for the units prior to the units being sold, and (6) supervising the appraisal process for such

1 determination. Defendants' Motion improperly addresses only two of these six tasks, and 2 indeed, expressly departs from or entirely omits the remaining tasks, effectively seeking 3 untimely reconsideration of the Court's recent orders.

4 Plaintiffs have prevailed on their claim for a receivership, which is in place to protect the 5 value of Plaintiffs' property through the duration of this litigation. Plaintiffs have further 6 succeeded on their claims for damages related to Defendants' bad faith actions: fraud, deceptive 7 trade practices, demand for an accounting, tortious interference with contract, and conversion.
8 Defendants should not be allowed to improperly reconsider the Court's previous orders, 9 circumvent special procedures in place to thwart Defendants' bad acts, and ultimately steal even 10 more from Plaintiffs. Thus, Defendants' Motion must be denied at this point.

11 II. ARGUMENT

12 A. A Special Assessment is Inappropriate to Compensate the Receiver

13 Defendants' Motion suggests that the Receiver "should levy a special assessment for his 14 bill and that of his attorney through the wind-up process to ensure payment even after 15 dissolution." (Motion at 5:19-20.) Defendants argue this special assessment will suffice to both 16 reimburse unit owners who paid an improper, Defendant-implemented special assessment which 17 the Court ultimately invalidated, as well as leave sufficient funds to pay the Receiver. This 18 argument is fatally flawed in that it clearly seeks to reconsider the Court's previous order which 19 dictates the Receiver is to be paid from rental proceeds and seeks to reconsider the Court's order 20 invalidating assessments to fund the Receivership.

21 This is not the first time Defendants have concluded that a special assessment is the only 22 way to pay the Receiver. (See Plaintiffs' Motion to Stay Special Assessment, filed August 20, 23 2021, seeking to stay a special assessment intended to pay the Receiver.) The Court ordered 24 Defendants to rescind the special assessment as a result of this motion practice. (Order Granting 25 Motion to Stay Special Assessment, filed January 4, 2022 at 5:10-12.) Although Defendants 26 sought to reconsider this order, among others, the Court recently denied such motion, thereby 27 affirming that a special assessment is an inappropriate method to pay the Receiver. (Order filed 28 November 14, 2022 at 1:26-2:7.)

1 Now, despite the Court denying the propriety of a special assessment to fund the 2 Receivership on two occasions, Defendants seek to repeat this exact strategy – wasting the time
3 and resources of the Court and Plaintiffs. This request should be construed as a second motion
4 for reconsideration of the Court’s previous Order Granting Motion to Stay Special Assessment, 5 and must be denied for being untimely and for the same substantive reasons as Defendants’
6 initial motion for reconsideration was denied. (Id., holding “the motion does not present 7 substantially different evidence or a demonstration that the order is clearly erroneous.”) See also 8 DCR 13(7); WDCR 12(8). Defendants’ Motion seeks the same relief which was previously 9 sought in 2021 – implementing a special assessment – for which reconsideration was sought, and 10 which has yet to succeed. The Court should therefore ignore this argument altogether as 11 untimely and unmeritorious.

12 Moreover, the Court has already found that the Receiver is to be paid from the rental 13 proceeds of the units. (Order, filed January 26, 2023 at 2, “the rent from the units owned by the 14 parties are to be . . . utilized for the purposes identified in the Appointment Order including 15 payment of the Receiver’s expenses” (emphasis added).) As this Court is aware, Defendants 16 have withheld a substantial amount of rental proceeds from Plaintiffs since January of 2020. The 17 Receiver has conservatively estimated these withheld rental proceeds through only the end of 18 2021 exceed $1 million (not including the rents stolen by Defendants in 2022 and 2023). Indeed, 19 the Court has set forth a procedure under which the Receiver is to be paid from such wrongfully 20 withheld rental proceeds: the Receiver provided his conservative calculations, Defendants 21 objected, the Court must rule on such objection, then Defendants will turnover the rental 22 proceeds, the Receiver will request payment, the Court will rule on such request, and then 23 Receiver will calculate the fees and true-up the parties’ accounts, distribute the proceeds, and 24 take any other necessary actions. (See id. at 3; Order, filed February 3, 2023.)

25 In reality, the Defendants’ request for a special assessment flies in the face of justice 26 given that Defendants continue to steal Plaintiffs’ rental revenue month after month. On top of 27 having all the rental revenue stolen monthly by Defendants so that neither the Receiver nor the 28 Plaintiffs can be paid, Defendants now argue that Plaintiffs should be required to fund an

1 additional special assessment to essentially replace the stolen rents which are to be earmarked for 2 paying the Receiver. The audacity of requesting a special assessment under these facts would be 3 shocking were it not coming from these Defendants, who have been caught red handed 4 committing fraud. To give the Court an even clearer picture of Defendants' inappropriate 5 conduct, a February 16, 2023 Owner Account Statement for one of the Plaintiff's units shows
6 that even under Defendants' improper inflated fees (which directly conflict with the Receiver's
7 calculations), the subject Plaintiff is owed $7,931.53 in rent. (See Ex. 1, November 2022 Owner 8 Account Statement.) Yet, the Defendants have failed and refused to pay the Plaintiff even the 9 grossly understated amount under Defendants' wishful fees – continuing the blatant theft.
10 Further, Defendants have again, without Court or Receiver approval, increased the fees charged 11 to the Plaintiffs – conduct for which the Court has previously granted Plaintiffs' motion for order 12 to show cause. (Compare Ex. 2, January 2023 Owner Account Statement, showing daily use fee 13 of $40.40 and contracted hotel fees at $991.44, with Ex. 1, showing daily use fee of $38.07 and 14 contracted hotel fees of $981.02; see also Order, filed February 1, 2023, granting Plaintiffs' 15 motion for order to show cause regarding Defendants' unilaterally increasing fees charged to 16 Plaintiffs which were not calculated nor approved by the Receiver.)

17 There is already a procedure put into place by the Court to ensure the Receiver is paid in 18 full. This procedure does not involve any extra charges to Plaintiffs while the rents are being 19 stolen, which is especially appropriate considering Plaintiffs are owed a substantial amount of 20 money by Defendants, going back to 2020, and are being inappropriately gouged still in 2023.
21 Defendants' Motion with respect to how the Receiver is to be paid should be denied and the 22 Court should enforce its orders already in place to achieve this goal.

23 B. Any Winding-Up of the GSRUOA is Premature

24 Contrary to Defendants' Motion, it is entirely inappropriate to begin the wind-up process
25 for the GSRUOA before the parties' units are sold and the proceeds are distributed. The Motion 26 suggests that the wind-up process should include facilitating the sale of the parties' units, paying 27 the Receiver and his counsel, and distributing the remaining proceeds. (Motion at 4: 7-11.) This 28 is improper as the first of these two tasks must be completed according to existing Court orders.

1 (See Order, filed December 5, 2023, Order filed January 26, 2023, and Order filed February 3, 2 2023.) Moreover, whereas the Receiver has full control and authority over the GSRUOA to 3 protect the rights of Plaintiffs, Defendants argue that a team of three individuals should be 4 appointed now to oversee the wind-up of the GSRUOA. Tellingly, Defendants propose to 5 appoint two Defendant-allied individuals, who together will be able to outvote the Receiver and 6 return to operating the GSRUOA in a way that is detrimental to Plaintiffs. Certainly, Defendants 7 cannot be allowed to retake control of the GSRUOA and then facilitate the sale of the parties' 8 units and ensure the Receiver has been paid (the lack of payment being solely caused by 9 Defendants' refusal to turn over rental proceeds).

10 Additionally, there are numerous other tasks which must be completed in order to prepare 11 the GSRUOA to be wound up. These tasks include, but are not limited to, the Receiver 12 calculating the appropriate fees to be charged, conducting a true-up of the parties' accounts, and 13 distributing positive balances, and the Court determining the fair market value of the parties' 14 units. (Id.) Neither of these tasks have even begun, so any consideration of winding up the 15 GSRUOA at this point is premature. Defendants argue that "the Receiver should begin the 16 process of dissolution"; however, there is substantial work to be completed prior to the 17 GSRUOA being wound up.

18 Importantly, the Court has already provided a procedure under which the units will be 19 sold, the Receiver will be paid, and the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' accounts will be trued-up and 20 the proceeds distributed accordingly. (Id.) Defendants have not moved to reconsider any of 21 these procedures provided by the Court, so the instant Motion cannot seek to rewrite the Court's 22 previous orders. DCR 13(7); WDCR 12(8). The Court should deny Defendants' request to stray 23 from the previous Court orders to facilitate the sale of the parties' units, pay the Receiver, and 24 distribute remaining proceeds, and instead confirm that the Court's orders will be followed in 25 order to close out this litigation and, only then, allow the GSRUOA to be wound up after all of 26 the Court's orders are complied with.

27 Plaintiffs' success on their claim for a receivership cannot be understated. The 28 appointment of the Receiver followed the Court finding that Defendants could not be trusted to

1 oversee the GSRUOA in a way that was fair toward Plaintiffs. Now, Defendants are attempting 2 to further this inequitable operation.¹ If the history of this litigation is any indication, 3 Defendants, if allowed to retake the GSRUOA, will do everything in their power to ensure 4 Plaintiffs do not receive fair market value for their units, do not receive the rents owed since 5 2020, and the Receiver is left unpaid.²

6 Such inequity surely cannot be allowed at the very end of this litigation. The Court
7 should therefore enforce its orders and (1) deny Defendants' objections to the Receiver's 8 conservative calculations, (2) order Defendants to turnover the long-overdue rental proceeds 9 calculated by the Receiver, (3) allow the Receiver to be paid and to distribute such rental 10 proceeds, (4) order the Receiver to conduct a true-up of the parties' accounts after calculating all 11 of the applicable fees for Court approval and distribute the proceeds accordingly, (5) oversee the 12 appraisal process for the parties' units and the determination of fair market value thereof, and (6) 13 ensure there is a process for the Plaintiffs to be promptly paid their proceeds from the sale of the 14 units, for their long-overdue rental proceeds, and their retained claims. (Order, filed 15 December 5, 2022; Order, filed January 26, 2023; Order, filed February 3, 2023.) Only after all 16 these tasks are completed can the wind-up of the GSRUOA truly begin.

18
19 20 ¹ The Receivership has been far from perfect in protecting Plaintiffs' rights throughout this litigation. But, the 21 Receiver has certainly served as somewhat of a deterrent for Defendants committing bad acts toward Plaintiffs,
22 which was part of the reason the Court appointed the Receiver. The scheduled trial on Plaintiffs' numerous Motions 23 for Order to Show Cause scheduled to commence in April should get the Receivership back on track and ensure the 24 Defendants are deterred from further interfering with the Receivership.

25 ² Pursuant to the Court's existing orders, the Receiver is charged with collecting the rents of both Defendants' and 26 Plaintiffs' units. (Order, filed January 26, 2023, at 2.) In the likely scenario that Defendants simply refuse to 27 turnover to the Receiver the stolen rents going back to 2020, the Receiver can use the current rental income from 28 Defendants' approximately 570 units as a source of payment to pay the Receiver and back due rents to the Plaintiffs.
Accordingly, the Receiver must continue to rent the units until the date of sale. This is critical for multiple reasons which were laid out in the briefing of Plaintiffs' Motion for Instructions to Receiver Concerning Termination of the Grand Sierra Resort Unit Owners' Association and Rental of Units Until Time of Sale, filed January 26, 2023. In short, first, the Receiver needs a source of payment for the work that still needs to be done (determination of fees, determination of reserve accounts and distribution of reserve account balances proportionally to the unit owners, final accounting for the GSRUOA, handling the sale of the units and distribution of sale proceeds, etc.). Second, if history repeats itself, the rental revenue from the monthly rental of the Defendants' units will be necessary for the Receiver to pay Plaintiffs the stolen rents dating back to 2020. Third, it would be economic waste for the units to sit empty until the time of sale.

1 C. Defendants’ Entirely Omit Their Responsibility for Amounts to be 2 Potentially Awarded During the OSC Trial to be Heard in April

3 A critical portion of the Court’s December 5, 2022 Order which Defendants now seek to 4 avoid through their Motion is “the responsibility for any amounts which are awarded as a result 5 of the pending Applications for OSC.” (Order, filed December 5, 2022 at 7.) The Court has 6 scheduled a multi-day trial on certain of Plaintiffs’ applications for orders to show cause. (See 7 Order, filed February 1, 2023.) At this trial, the Court will determine whether Defendants are 8 guilty of contempt, and may impose monetary fines, imprison Defendants, and/or require 9 Defendants to pay Plaintiffs’ fees in seeking to enforce the Court’s orders. (Id.) See also NRS 10 22.100. Thus, Defendants may be monetarily liable to Plaintiffs and the Court.

11 Defendants’ Motion fails to mention this trial, even once, let alone the potential monetary 12 liability following the trial, including the duty to deposit millions of dollars that were 13 misappropriated by Defendants from the reserve accounts. (See generally Motion; see also 14 Order, filed February 6, 2023, granting Plaintiffs’ motion for order to show cause regarding 15 Defendants’ improper withdrawals from the reserve accounts exceeding $12 million.)
16 Termination of the Receivership before these issues are resolved would be absurd.³

18
19 ³ From a practical standpoint, it seems unlikely Defendants’ rents will be sufficient to replace the over $12 million 20 Defendants wrongfully withdrew from the reserve accounts without Court or Receiver approval. (See December 29, 21 2022 Motion for Order to Show Cause; Order, filed February 6, 2023.) Thus, the Receiver, after the sale of the 22 units, may need to use Defendants’ proceeds to replace the reserves so they can be distributed proportionally to the 23 unit owners. NRS 116.21183(2)(e). It is critical that all of the funds for rental, fees, and reserves during the 24 Receivership be accounted for and distributed through the Receivership – otherwise the Plaintiffs would have 25 damages for that time period. Notably, Plaintiffs’ damages are only calculated through the date of the October 9, 26 2015 Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Judgment. After that date, the condo rental was facilitated by the 27 Receiver. During the pendency of the appeal, however, there was no active Receiver and Defendants 28 misappropriated funds during that time period. (See Minutes of October 20, 2019 Hearing (“Disgorgement Order”).) As a result of that Disgorgement Order, the Receiver used rental proceeds that would have gone to Defendants to repay the misappropriated amounts during the appeal. (See Receiver’s Report, filed December 10, 2019, showing that he completed the disgorgement.) After that time period, the Receivership was properly operated until January of 2020. Thus, Plaintiffs need to be paid the amounts owed to them for rents from January of 2020 through the date of the sale through the Receivership; otherwise, additional litigation would need to be pursued and the Receivership would be a failure, despite Plaintiffs having prevailed on their claims for both an accounting and receivership. Importantly, while Plaintiffs initially sought additional compensatory damages after the matter was remanded, if the receivership operates correctly--rents owed to them from January 2020 to present are paid through the Receivership there will be no additional damages for improper rental of the units. (See, e.g., Reply in Support of Motion in Support of Punitive Damages Award, filed July 30, 2020 at 1, explaining the matter should proceed to a final judgment and “ongoing receivership issues” can be dealt with separately.)

1 D. There is No Process to Pay Plaintiffs' Long-Overdue Rental Proceeds

2 This Court is aware that Plaintiffs are owed substantial amounts of money by Defendants 3 for overdue rental proceeds (from January of 2020 to the present). The Receiver has 4 conservatively estimated those amounts through December 31, 2021 to exceed $1 million.
5 (Receiver's Omnibus Reply to the Parties Oppositions to the Receiver's Motion for Orders &
6 Instructions, filed December 19, 2022 at 4:20-23.) The Receiver must calculate the proper fees
7 to be charged and true-up the parties' accounts to determine the actual amounts owed to Plaintiff 8 to the current date.

9 In recognition of this substantial debt Defendants' owe to Plaintiffs, and the likely 10 supplemental amounts to be owed to Plaintiffs following the true-up, the Court barred any sale of 11 the parties' units until a Court order was entered which "includes a process for the resolution of 12 any retained claims by Plaintiffs" (Order, filed December 5, 2022 at 7.) Chiefly among 13 those retained claims is Plaintiffs' claims for their outstanding rental proceeds.

14 The Court, however, has already issued orders which set forth the procedure for Plaintiffs 15 to recover these long-overdue rents, including the additional rents discovered through the 16 Receiver's true-up. The Receiver has submitted his conservative calculations, Defendants have 17 objected to these calculations, the Court should overrule such objection, then the Receiver is to 18 calculate all of the fees charged to Plaintiffs' units, true-up the parties' accounts, and disburse the 19 monies appropriately so the parties' accounts are current and fully disbursed. (Id.; Order, filed 20 January 26, 2023; Order, filed February 3, 2023.)

21 The Court has yet to issue an order regarding Plaintiffs' other retained claims for 22 diminution in value of their units. Defendants do not provide any proposal as to how the Court 23 should handle these remaining claims. Accordingly, because the Court has partially ruled upon 24 how Plaintiffs' overdue rents are to be paid, and Defendants fail to propose any procedure for the 25 Court to handle Plaintiffs' retained claims, the Court should deny Defendants' Motion.

1 E. The Court Should Provide a Schedule for Plaintiffs to Submit Their 2 Appraisal; But, Defendants and the Receiver Must First Provide Certain 3 Information

4 Defendants repeatedly bemoan the fact that Plaintiffs have not submitted their own
5 appraisal for the parties' units nor objected to Defendants' appraisal. (See generally Motion.) 6 The Court has already invalidated Defendants' appraisal because it "was not done by the 7 GSRUOA." (Order, filed December 5, 2022 at 6.) True to form for these Defendants, their 8 appraiser relies on the judicially invalidated Ninth Amendment to the CC&Rs which attempts to 9 improperly allocate fees to the Plaintiffs. (See Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Instructions 10 to Receiver, filed January 4, 2022 at 3:14-3:19, 5:20-21.) In addition, Defendants' appraiser 11 attempts to use comps for sales to the Defendants taking place at a time when Defendants 12 charged fees in violation of the Governing Documents, effectively stealing rental revenue from 13 the sellers. The Defendants' appraiser obviously was not advised about the facts of the sales 14 before using them as comps and thus such comps must be disregarded.

15 As a result of Defendants' unauthorized/improper appraisal, the Court ordered it will 16 "permit owners to contest the appraisals and present their own appraisals setting forth their 17 claimed fair market value." (Order, filed December 5, 2022 at 6.) The Court has not set forth a 18 schedule for Plaintiffs to submit such a competing appraisal.

19 More importantly, however, Plaintiffs cannot prepare a fully informed appraisal until 20 they are provided certain information from Defendants and the Receiver. Indeed, in order to 21 prepare an appraisal for the fair market value of their units, Plaintiffs must have accurate rental 22 information verified by the Receiver as well as the recalculated fees from the Receiver, and any 23 other information Plaintiffs' appraiser deems necessary. Until such information is prepared and 24 provided, Plaintiffs are unable to provide an accurate/meaningful appraisal of their units.
25 Plaintiffs have retained an appraiser at this point; however, they are unable to progress with 26 having an appraisal prepared until the above-described information is provided.

27 Plaintiffs therefore request the Court deny Defendants' implications that Plaintiffs have 28 acquiesced to Defendants' appraisal, order Defendants and the Receiver to provide the above

1 information to Plaintiffs, and allow Plaintiffs to properly obtain a fully informed appraisal for the 2 fair market value of their units.

3 III. CONCLUSION

4 This matter has made significant strides since the current Judge was assigned. However, 5 the above makes clear there is substantial work remaining that requires a Receiver to bring this 6 litigation to a final resolution. Defendants' Motion is both premature and an effort to reconsider 7 the Court's previous orders. Accordingly, it should be denied in full. Instead, the Court should 8 follow its orders already issued to bring this litigation to a close.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 Defendants bear the burden of establishing the need for their requested stay that would 4 halt the Court-ordered turnover of Plaintiffs' conservatively calculated rents for 2020 and 2021, 5 which are needed to both operate the receivership and partially compensate Plaintiffs. Any stay 6 requires the Court to consider: "(1) whether the object of the appeal or writ petition will be 7 defeated if the stay or injunction is denied; (2) whether appellant/petitioner will suffer irreparable 8 or serious injury if the stay or injunction is denied; (3) whether respondent/real party in interest 9 will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay or injunction is granted; and (4) whether 10 appellant/petitioner is likely to prevail on the merits in the appeal or writ petition." NRAP 8(c).

11 Defendants cannot demonstrate the need for a stay under the four factors for a variety of 12 reasons. It cannot be understated that the requested stay concerns the release of conservatively 13 calculated rental proceeds under Court-approved fees in the amount of $1,103,950.99¹, not 14 damages. Moreover, Defendants are entitled to keep half of the rental proceeds after fees under 15 the existing Unit Rental Agreements ("URAs") and thus cannot suffer any irreparable monetary 16 harm. Instead, Plaintiffs will continue to be harmed by Defendants' failure and refusal to turn 17 over the rental proceeds, especially considering that the conservatively calculated rents to be paid 18 out do not even encompass all of the back-due rental proceeds owed to Plaintiffs at this point.

19 To the extent Defendants argue they will not be able to recover any overpaid proceeds, 20 this argument is hollow and must be rejected. First, Plaintiffs already have an unpaid existing 21 judgment against Defendants exceeding $25 million, which has been and will continue to accrue 22 interest until it is paid in full. Second, both Defendants' and Plaintiffs' condominium units are 23 now owned by GSRUOA with the Receiver as trustee, virtually eliminating any chance that the 24 Receiver could not account for or equalize any amount Defendants would be owed as a result of 25 an appeal through the rental proceeds from the units. Relatedly, the rents are also the source of

26
27 ¹ While $1,103,950.99 is a significant amount of money, because of the number of condominium units under the 28 receivership (670), that amount is minimal. Plaintiffs' units earn about $3 million per year in rental proceeds, and Defendants' units earn over $13 million per year. Thus, $1 million is a drop in the bucket.

1 payment for the Receiver, and the Receiver has stopped critical work as a result of nonpayment, 2 thus threatening Plaintiffs’ and Defendants’ units. Third and finally, under the Agreement to 3 Terminate Condominium Hotel, Condominium Hotel Association, and Declaration of Covenants, 4 Restrictions and Reservation of Easements recorded February 27, 2023 (“Agreement to 5 Terminate”), “title to that real estate, upon execution of this termination agreement, vests in the 6 Association with the Receiver as trustee for the holders of all interest in the units.” (Ex. 1, 7 Agreement to Terminate at 2.)

8 The critical situation wherein the Receiver is trustee over the GSRUOA, the entity that 9 owns the units, and has been ordered to continue renting all of the units until they are sold, but is 10 not completing any work because he is not getting paid is unsustainable and cannot continue 11 without inevitable prejudice to all former unit owners, including Plaintiffs. (See Ex. 2, email 12 memorializing that as of April 1, 2023, Receiver will not work without payment, does not know 13 if the units are still being rented, and the rents are still not being turned over even after the 14 change of ownership of the units.) A stay would only serve to exacerbate this current situation of 15 the stalled/failing receivership.

16 In addition, the request for a stay is based upon a misunderstanding of the case at best, or 17 blatantly false statements at worst. This Court is acutely aware that coming up to speed in this 18 matter is no simple task. Unfortunately, it appears Defendants’ new counsel has not yet fully 19 grasped the posture of this matter, including the history of the fee calculations and the status of 20 the Receiver’s conservatively calculated fees at issue. For instance, Defendants falsely claim 21 “the Court in its January 4, 2022 Order made clear that the Receiver’s calculations were 22 ‘incorrect’ and ordered that the calculations to be redone [sic] . . .” and that “[t]he Receiver’s 23 calculation is clearly erroneous and should be set aside.” (Motion at 6:18-19, 7:4-5.) These 24 assertions simply ignore the record and the Court’s recent unequivocal approval of the fees.

25 The reality is that Plaintiffs have not been paid their units’ rental proceeds since 2020.
26 Instead, Defendants have wrongly withheld these rents – effectively stealing from Plaintiffs 27 again – month after month, despite multiple Court orders demanding the proceeds be turned 28 over. To add insult to injury, every year Defendants issue Plaintiffs 1099s which show that

1 Plaintiffs are earning rental proceeds – which have absolutely not been paid out. (See Ex. 3, 2 Sample 1099.) Similarly egregious, the Receiver has gone without payment since October 2021, 3 and now, for many months, has refused to perform any tasks beyond the bare minimum until he 4 is paid (worse, at present, the Receiver refuses to perform any tasks at all due to nonpayment).

5 The Receiver has prepared conservative calculations of what Plaintiffs are owed through 6 December 31, 2021, thus excluding over a year’s worth of rental proceeds which are rightfully 7 owed to Plaintiffs (all of 2022 and 2023 up to present). The Court has ordered this conservative 8 amount be turned over in the interim so the Receiver can be brought current and complete his 9 tasks, and so Plaintiffs can be paid part of those funds they have been owed for years.
10 Defendants, unsurprisingly, have now moved the Court to stay this order so Defendants can 11 continue stealing from Plaintiffs and undermining the receivership under the guise that turning 12 over these proceeds would cause irreparable harm to Defendants. Defendants wholly, but 13 characteristically, disregard and discount the magnitude of harm that their continued blatant 14 thievery causes the Plaintiffs, many of which are in their retirement years.

15 As referenced above, now that Defendants have been allowed to terminate the Grand 16 Sierra Resort Unit Owners’ Association (“GSRUOA”), the Receiver has control over the 17 parties’ units and the rental proceeds therefrom, and the Court has ordered the Receiver to 18 continue renting all of the units until they are sold. For Defendants to terminate the GSRUOA, 19 which statutorily requires the association, through the Receiver, to take over the units and the 20 rental thereof, and then deny the Receiver’s authority to do this is brazenly hypocritical and 21 reveals Defendants’ true motive in terminating the GSRUOA: steal even more from Plaintiffs to 22 leave them so financially distraught that they forgo the pursuit of this action any further and 23 stop/terminate the receivership by stopping payment to him. This absurdity must end.

24 The Court must reject Defendants’ attempts to continue making this litigation “unjust, 25 dilatory, and costly” for Plaintiffs. (Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Judgment dated 26 October 9, 2015 at 2:22-25). The transparently nefarious goal of Defendants is to continue to 27 stop the Receiver from doing his job, to prejudice the Plaintiffs, and maintain effective control of 28 the condominium units for their own profit.

1 Without the required payment being made by Defendants – comprised of money owed to 2 Plaintiffs, not damages – the Receiver cannot and will not complete any of the necessary tasks to 3 protect the units and to bring this proceeding to a close. The Court should not allow Defendants 4 to continue making a mockery of the justice system by granting a stay. Instead, the Court should 5 deny Defendants’ motion and require Defendants to turn over the conservatively calculated 6 rental proceeds to the Receiver so this action can proceed to a conclusion under the supervision 7 of the Court through the receivership.

8 II. RELEVANT FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9 The Receiver has been vested with authority to take all rental proceeds from both 10 Plaintiffs’ and Defendants’ units since the receivership was put into place in 2015. (See Order 11 Appointing Receiver and Directing Defendants’ Compliance, filed January 7, 2015 at 5:17-19, 12 the Receiver is authorized “[t]o demand, collect and receive all dues, fees, reserves, rents and 13 revenues derived from the Property.”)

14 Defendants began refusing to provide the Receiver/Plaintiffs with rental proceeds in 15 2020, arguing the fees charged to Plaintiffs should undoubtedly exceed their units’ revenue, so 16 no rental proceeds existed. This baseless refusal ignores the track record of the units producing 17 rental revenue and prompted a variety of motions by Plaintiffs, including motions for instructions 18 to the Receiver to take over the rental proceeds and motions for orders to show cause relating to 19 Defendants’ improper refusal to turn over the rental proceeds as required. As a result of the 20 former, on January 4, 2022, the Court issued a number of orders including its Order Granting 21 Receiver’s Motion for Orders & Instructions (“Orders & Instructions”) and its Order Approving 22 Receiver’s Request for Approval of Updated Fees (“Fee Approval Order”). The Orders & 23 Instructions provided that

24 [T]he Receiver shall recalculate the DUF, SFUE, and HE based on 25 the same methodology as has been used in calculating the fee 26 charges for 2021, subject to Court approval of such methodology.
27 Those fees in place prior to the Court’s September 27, 2021 Order shall remain in place until the fees for 2020 are recalculated and approved by this Court such that only a single account adjustment will be necessary.

28 (Orders & Instructions at 7:1-5.)

1 That same day, the Court issued the Fee Approval Order, providing that, “The Receiver’s 2 new fee calculations as submitted to the Court should immediately be applied retroactive to 3 January 2020 and going forward until a subsequent order from the Court is issued. . . .” (Fee
4 Approval Order at 2:3-5.) These two orders make clear the calculations submitted and approved
5 by the Court in the Fee Approval Order supersede the placeholder pre-September 27, 2021 fees, 6 and thus the explicitly approved fees are to be applied as ordered. Notably, the Receiver appears 7 to agree with this interpretation. (Reply to Defendants’ Objection to Receiver’s Calculations 8 Contained in Exhibit 1 Attached to Receiver’s Omnibus Reply to Parties’ Oppositions to the 9 Receiver’s Motion for Orders & Instructions, filed February 24, 2023 (“Receiver’s Reply to 10 Objection”) at 4:9-16.)

11 To resolve any doubt, the Court granted the Receiver’s recent Motion for Orders & 12 Instructions which provided the Receiver’s conservative calculations of the amounts owed to 13 Plaintiffs for 2020 and 2021, and provided the parties an opportunity to object to the Receiver’s
14 “temporary but understated” calculations. (See Omnibus Reply at Ex. 1; Ex. 1, Receiver’s Letter 15 dated March 23, 2023 at 2; Order, filed January 26, 2023.) Defendants filed an objection, 16 recycling the same doomed arguments they have made previously: the Receiver has not properly
17 calculated the fees to be charged to Plaintiffs to leave Plaintiffs upside down in their unit 18 ownership, and thus, Defendants should not have to turn over the rental proceeds because the 19 fees that purportedly should be charged exceed the revenue. (Defendants’ Objection to 20 Receiver’s Calculations Contained in Exhibit 1 Attached to Receiver’s Omnibus Reply to 21 Parties’ Oppositions to the Receiver’s Motion for Orders & Instructions (“Defendants’ 22 Objection”), filed February 16, 2023.)

23 The Court ultimately rejected these arguments for a third time: “these are the arguments 24 which have been rejected by the Court” in previous Court orders – namely the Fee Approval 25 Order and the Orders & Instructions. (Order, dated March 27, 2023.) The Court then ordered 26 Defendants to deposit the conservatively calculated total fees with the Receiver within five 27 judicial days from entry of the March 27, 2023 Order. (Id.) That order was entered on March 28 27, 2023, so Defendants’ deposit was due no later than April 3, 2023.

1 Defendants now seek a stay of this order requiring them to pay these rental proceeds – 2 while also criticizing the Receiver for not completing his tasks and arguing that Defendants must 3 undertake such tasks instead. Defendants are trying to turn this issue into a never-ending cycle:
4 the Receiver will not perform the calculations (in an incredibly lopsided way that creates an 5 unsubstantiated windfall for Defendants) without being paid, and Defendants will not turn over 6 any payment until the calculations are done, thus leaving everything at a standstill. This farcical 7 exercise must be rejected outright, and the cycle must be broken.

8 Moreover, the parties have previously undertaken this exercise wherein the Receiver's 9 fees are applied for multiple years. (Order Granting Motion for Instructions to Receiver, filed 10 February 15, 2019, where the Court ordered the Receiver to disgorge wrongly charged fees and 11 implement the prior receiver's fees from 2016 for multiple years.) During that time, Defendants 12 did not seek relief from the Court to stop the use of the prior Receiver's fees, and payment of 13 rents continued until January of 2020. (See Receiver's Report re GSRUOA, as of May 22, 2019, 14 dated May 23, filed May 23, 2019 at 6, noting $194,575.22 had been disgorged for the difference
15 between the previous receiver's fees and the Defendants-imposed fees; Receiver's Report re 16 GSRUOA, for the Period from May 23 through June 30, 2019, filed July 2, 2019 at 7-8, noting 17 an additional disgorgement of $194,516.46; Receiver's Report re GSRUOA as of August 31, 18 2019, dated September 15, filed September 17, 2019 at 7, noting a cumulative disgorgement of 19 $590,079.07; Receiver's Report re GSRUOA for the Period from September 1 through 20 September 30, 2019, filed October 7, 2019 at 5, noting full disgorgement and an unauthorized 21 offset of over-disgorgement against upcoming payouts to Plaintiffs.)

22 Defendants argue the enforcement of the subject orders must be stayed pending appeal, 23 but this argument lies on an improper foundation. The amounts to be turned over are for rents, 24 not damages subject to any remotely viable argument on appeal. The amounts are rental 25 proceeds that are rightfully owed to Plaintiffs for Defendants' rental of Plaintiffs' units, of 26 which, under the existing URAs, the Defendants already keep half after fees. The 27 juxtaposition of these categories of funds cannot be understated: Defendants have no right to 28 withhold funds which are absolutely owed to Plaintiffs for the rental of their units.

1 The payment of these understated rental proceeds will not only partially compensate 2 Plaintiffs for the use of their units, but it can also provide desperately needed funding for the 3 Receiver to pay his and his counsel's invoices and to complete critical tasks to bring this 4 litigation to a close. Such critical tasks include those tasks the Receiver now has been assigned 5 as a result of the Agreement to Terminate.² The Receiver has rightfully, and repeatedly, 6 reiterated that he will not work without payment. (See Ex. 2.) The turnover of the subject
7 understated rental proceeds is imperative to keep this case moving forward. Without the rents 8 being paid to the Receiver, the matter will continue residing in this judicial purgatory where 9 Defendants continue to refuse complying with Court orders and Plaintiffs are forced to continue 10 their expensive efforts to force Defendants to follow the hard-won Court orders.

11 III. LEGAL STANDARD

12 The proponent of a stay bears the burden of establishing its need. Clinton v. Jones, 520 13 U.S. 681, 708 (1997). Before granting a stay pending appeal, the Court must generally consider: 14 “(1) whether the object of the appeal or writ petition will be defeated if the stay or injunction is 15 denied; (2) whether appellant/petitioner will suffer irreparable or serious injury if the stay or 16 injunction is denied; (3) whether respondent/real party in interest will suffer irreparable or 17 serious injury if the stay or injunction is granted; and (4) whether appellant/petitioner is likely to 18 prevail on the merits in the appeal or writ petition.” NRAP 8(c). Although Defendants provided 19 the Court with a declaration from their counsel, Defendants do not provide any other evidence 20 demonstrating these factors weigh in favor of a stay.

21 While no one factor alone is sufficient for a stay to be granted, “there must be a 22 ‘threshold showing’ for each factor before a court can even begin balancing them.” Guardado v.

24 ² Under the Agreement to Terminate, “[u]ntil the sale has been concluded and the proceeds thereof distributed upon 25 Court approval in the Receivership Action, the Association continues in existence with all powers it had before 26 termination under the receivership. Upon execution of the sale documents and distribution of the proceeds and an 27 order issued in the Receivership Action the Association will terminate.” (Agreement to Terminate at 2.) 28 Defendants’ agreement to the aforementioned language in the Agreement to Terminate contradicts their immediate about-face in refusing to turn over the rents necessary for the receivership to operate. Clearly, Plaintiffs and the Court believed the Agreement to Terminate would be key to Defendants’ cooperation to bring this matter to an efficient conclusion; however, Defendants continue to do everything possible to prevent the Receiver from doing his job to let the parties reach a long overdue conclusion of this litigation.

1 Nevada, 2:18-cv-0198-GMN-VCF, 2018 WL 6435328, at *1 (D. Nev. Dec. 6, 2018) (quoting
2 Leiva-Perez v. Holder, 640 F.3d 962, 965-66 (9th Cir. 2011)). “[I]f the appeal appears frivolous 3 or if the appellant apparently filed the stay motion purely for dilatory purposes, the court should 4 deny the stay.” Mikohn Gaming Corp. v. McCrea, 120 Nev. 248, 253, 89 P.3d 36, 40 (2004).

5 IV. ARGUMENT

6 A. The Object of Any Appeal Here Cannot be Defeated if the Stay is Denied

7 The object of an appeal will only be denied when denying a stay would result in 8 duplication of litigation, nullification of results, or irreversible waivers. See Mikohn, 120 Nev.
9 at 253, 89 P.3d at 39 (where appeal of order denying motion to compel arbitration warranted a 10 stay because of “the interlocutory nature of an appeal seeking to compel arbitration, and the 11 purposes of arbitration”); Hansen v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 116 Nev. 650, 657-58, 6 P.3d 982, 986 12 (2000) (where appeal of order denying motion to quash service of summons did not warrant a 13 stay because the appellant’s appearance below would “not waive [the appellant’s] jurisdictional 14 defense by answering after its motion to quash was denied”). Defendants argue the purpose of 15 their appeal will be defeated without a stay because they will be unable to recover any 16 overpayment of rental proceeds. There are two fundamental flaws with this argument.

17 First, Defendants have not set forth facts and legal authority indicating the orders at issue 18 here are appealable and therefore appropriate for a stay pursuant to NRAP 8. Instead, the law is 19 clear: the orders are not interlocutory orders capable of an interlocutory appeal. NRAP 3A(b). A 20 stay allowed for under NRAP 8, which is the type of stay sought here, is therefore unavailable to 21 Defendants as they seek to stay the Court’s January 26, 2023 and March 27, 2023 Orders.

22 Second, and more importantly, the object of Defendants’ purported appeal will not be 23 denied by requiring Defendants to pay a limited portion of the sorely overdue rental proceeds, 24 which have been conservatively estimated. Defendants argue they have numerous legal 25 arguments to present on appeal regarding the calculation of the fees; however, Defendants have 26 yet to set forth a single colorable argument. (Compare Motion at 9:22-24, “these orders present
27 substantial legal questions that warrant Supreme Court review” with Order, filed March 27, 2023 28 at 1:24-25, “these are the arguments which have been rejected by the Court.”)

1 There is nothing irreversible about requiring Defendants to pay these overdue rental 2 proceeds to the Receiver for dissemination to Plaintiffs – who are the rightful owners of such 3 proceeds. In fact, as described in more detail below, there are multiple funding sources from 4 which the Defendants could be reimbursed for any overpayment. Thus, there is no reason the 5 object of the appeal would be denied if a stay is not put into place. This factor therefore weighs 6 heavily against any stay.

7 B. The Only Parties Who Will be Harmed by a Stay Are Plaintiffs

8 There is only one side that has suffered prior to and throughout these proceedings, and 9 will suffer further if a stay is imposed: Plaintiffs. Beginning with Defendants’ blatant thievery, 10 to which nothing has been paid on the existing judgment, and continuing with Defendants’ gross 11 discovery abuses leading to case-terminating sanctions, a wrongful dismissal which was 12 successfully overturned on appeal, and now Defendants’ complete refusal to turn over rental 13 proceeds rightfully owing to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs have suffered at Defendants’ hands for over a 14 decade. Now, Defendants hypocritically argue they will suffer irreparable harm if they are 15 required to turn over the amounts the Receiver has conservatively underestimated Defendants 16 have stolen from Plaintiffs during 2020 and 2021. Defendants argue they may not be able to 17 recoup these amounts in the unlikely event the conservative calculations exceed the true 18 calculations, and therefore Defendants will be irreparably harmed. This argument is not only 19 hollow, it falls absolutely flat in light of the history of this case and far short of the threshold 20 necessary to warrant a stay.

21 “Generally, stays should not be indefinite in nature.” Dependable Highway Exp., Inc. v.
22 Navigators Ins. Co., 498 F.3d 1059, 1066 (9th Cir. 2007). Indeed, a stay “should not be granted 23 unless it appears likely the other proceedings will be concluded within a reasonable time.”
24 Levy v. Certified Grocers of California, Ltd., 593 F.2d 857, 864 (9th Cir. 1979). Only when a 25 stay will be limited in nature can it be non-prejudicial to the other party. Singer v. Las Vegas 26 Athletic Clubs, 376 F.Supp.3d 1062 at 1071 (D. Nev. 2019). When “the underlying proceedings 27 could be unnecessarily delayed by a stay,” a stay should not be granted. Hansen, 116 Nev. at 28 658, 6 P.3d at 987. Defendants imply this stay will remain in place while they seek appellate

1 review of the final judgment – for which their opening brief is not due until June 2023 and the 2 parties have estimated will take about eighteen (18) months to be fully decided. This type of 3 significant delay certainly cannot be acceptable – especially provided the circumstances 4 surrounding this litigation. A stay will unnecessarily delay the proceeding because the Receiver 5 will not complete necessary work without payment which, under longstanding Court orders, is 6 derived from the rents the Defendants refuse to release.

7 Moreover, “if the appeal appears frivolous or if the appellant apparently filed the stay 8 motion purely for dilatory purposes, the court should deny the stay.” Mikohn, 120 Nev. at 253, 9 89 P.3d at 40 (emphasis added). It is clear here that Defendants’ motion for stay is a dilatory 10 tactic intended to delay the final resolution of this matter – which will undoubtedly require 11 Defendants to disgorge substantial amounts of stolen rental proceeds to Plaintiffs.

12 i. These amounts are rental proceeds, not damages

13 That the amounts to be paid to the Receiver pursuant to the Court’s March 27, 2023 14 Order are not damages cannot be understated; rather, these amounts are rental proceeds.
15 Damages are intended to make a plaintiff whole. Davis v. Beling, 128 Nev. 301, 316, 278 P.3d 16 501, 512 (2012); Martin v. Sears, Roebuck and Co., 111 Nev. 923, 929, 899 P.2d 551, 555
17 (1995); Univ. of Nevada v. Tarkanian, 110 Nev. 581, 597-98, 879 P.2d 1180, 1190 (1994).
18 These rental proceeds, on the other hand, are not intended to make Plaintiffs whole as a result of 19 Defendants’ bad actions. The rental proceeds to be turned over are simply what Plaintiffs are 20 owed for Defendants’ rental of Plaintiffs’ units during 2020 and 2021 under the Receiver’s 21 Court-approved calculations. Plaintiffs need this rental revenue, in some cases to service debt on 22 the units and in all cases, to fund this endless litigation to protect their property interests.

23 Indeed, the Court’s Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Judgment, filed October 9, 24 2015 (“FFCLJ”), and the Court’s Order granting punitive damages, filed January 17, 2023, are 25 what provide damages to Plaintiffs as a result of Defendants’ bad acts. Neither of these Court 26 orders, however, provide for the rental proceeds owed to Plaintiffs from 2020 to present. In fact, 27 the receivership was put into place partially to ensure these proceeds were provided to Plaintiffs, 28 thereby stopping the continuous damages claims. Plaintiffs otherwise would have to reopen the

1 prove-up hearing conducted in March 2015 and show further damages resulting from Defendants 2 continuing to rent Plaintiffs' units and failing to turn over the rental proceeds therefrom from 3 January of 2020 until the sale of the units. As this Court is aware, Plaintiffs forewent that avenue 4 of recovery in favor of having the Receiver take control of the rents – as he is authorized and 5 required to do pursuant to Court orders – and distribute the proceeds to Plaintiffs under the 6 Governing Documents and the Court's orders.

7 Further, now under the recently recorded Agreement to Terminate, the Receiver should 8 have complete control over the parties' property and indeed the GSRUOA now holds title to all 9 of the units with the Receiver as trustee. The Receiver should therefore be receiving and 10 distributing all of the current rental proceeds. Thus, because the rents are not damages and the 11 Receiver has control of the rental proceeds now as trustee over all of the units, there is no
12 legitimate legal issue pertaining to the turnover of the Receiver's conservatively calculated fees.
13 Thus, the distinction between the amounts owing to Plaintiffs and any damage amounts must 14 guide the Court to reject Defendants' Motion and order the funds paid immediately.

15 ii. There are multiple funding sources from which Defendants could recover for 16 any (highly unlikely) overpayment

17 Defendants argue they will suffer irreparable harm if they follow the Governing 18 Documents and Court orders to turn over the conservatively calculated proceeds to the Receiver 19 for distribution to Plaintiffs. This argument is wholly belied by the record in this matter, as there 20 are at least three (3) revenue streams from which Defendants could recover any overpayment. At 21 the outset, however, it is critical to note the Receiver has described his own calculations as 22 understated on numerous occasions and believes the actual amounts owed to Plaintiffs will be 23 higher than the amount Defendants must turn over now. (Omnibus Reply at 4:23-25, noting the 24 actual amount owed will likely be "somewhat greater than $1,103,950.99"; Ex. 4, Receiver's
25 Letter at 2, referring to the calculations as "temporary but understated" (emphasis added); 26 Receiver's Reply to Objection at 4:26-5:2, noting that the final amounts owed will be greater 27 than the conservative estimation.) Accordingly, the chances of Defendants overpaying Plaintiffs 28 for the rental of Plaintiffs' units is incredibly slim.

1 Underlining the audacity of Defendants’ irreparable harm arguments, Defendants take in 2 over $13 million per year from their units in rents. Plaintiffs own approximately 100 3 condominium units and Defendants own approximately 560. Defendants issued 1099s to 4 Plaintiffs for the annual rental of Plaintiffs’ units, an exemplar of which demonstrates that 5 approximately $30,000 each year is generated in rent from a single unit. (See Ex. 3.) Thus, 6 Plaintiffs’ units generate rents of approximately $3 million annually and Defendants’ units more 7 than $13.5 million annually. Accordingly, turning over $1,103,950.99 in rents is minimal given 8 that rents have not been paid out since December of 2019. Going back to January of 2020, 9 roughly $50 million in rental revenue has been received for the res of the receivership (Plaintiffs’ 10 and Defendants’ units) and no rents have been turned over to the Receiver – making a mockery 11 of the Court’s orders and the receivership. The $1,103,905.99 is a long overdue drop in the 12 bucket that certainly will not leave Defendants penniless, as they attempt to imply.

13 In any case, there are numerous funding sources from which Defendants could recoup 14 any overpayment. First, as Defendants and the Court are keenly aware, Plaintiffs have won a 15 judgment which is approximately $25 million and will continue to accrue interest until satisfied.
16 (See FFCLJ; Order, filed January 17, 2023.) Despite Defendants’ belief that an appeal will 17 overturn this entire monetary award, that is even more unlikely than Plaintiffs being overpaid as 18 a result of the Receiver’s conservative calculations. Further, as the Court is aware, portions of 19 the judgment are beyond any dispute whatsoever: Defendants admittedly rented Plaintiffs’ units 20 without rental agreements and then stole all the rental revenue. Thus, the judgment is an ample 21 funding source from which Defendants could recoup any unlikely overpayment of these proceeds 22 by way of a setoff.

23 Second, the Court has ordered the Receiver to continue renting the parties’ units until 24 they are sold. (Order, filed March 14, 2023 at 2:2-3, “The Receiver is instructed to continue to 25 rent the former units under the URA.”) One exemplar owner account statement shows that even 26 under Defendants’ wrongly inflated fees, the unit earns about $950 per month. (See Ex. 5, Unit 27 1886 February Statement at 2.) Thus, the Receiver should be receiving a substantial amount 28 each month for Plaintiffs – even under Defendants’ wrongly inflated fees. The continued rental

1 revenues are thus another viable pool of funds from which Defendants could recoup any unlikely 2 overpayment of fees. Lending to the viability of this method of recovery, Defendants did just 3 this after inadvertently over-disgorging previous overcharged fees. (See Receiver's Report re
4 GSRUOA, for the Period from September 1 through September 30, 2019, filed October 7, 2019
5 at 6, discussing unauthorized setoff of over-disgorged fees from rental proceeds.)

6 Finally, the Court has allowed Defendants to terminate the GSRUOA with the 7 expectation that the former units will be sold. (Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part 8 Plaintiffs' Emergency Motion for Instructions to Receiver to Not Execute Documents 9 Terminating the Grand Sierra Resort Unit Owners' Association Without Necessary Revisions to 10 the Subject Documents, filed January 26, 2023 at 3:12-19, 4:1-4.) Although the actual fair 11 market value of the units has yet to be determined, these sale proceeds certainly provide a third 12 source of funds in the unlikely event Defendants overpay those proceeds to Plaintiffs.³

13 As is clear, Defendants' concern about their potential inability to recoup the Receiver's
14 admittedly understated rental proceed calculations is misplaced.⁴ Primarily, this concern is of no 15 import because the Receiver has stated several times his calculated total proceeds for 2020 and 16 2021 are likely understated; thus, upon any true-up, Plaintiffs will be owed more than what 17 Defendants must turn over now.⁵ Secondly, even if Defendants did overpay Plaintiffs these 18 proceeds, there are ample funds from which Defendants could easily recover any overpaid 19 proceeds from Plaintiffs (or the Receiver). There is thus no irreparable harm to Defendants 20 posed by this payout of the rental proceeds because any harm could be easily remedied.

22 ³ One such task the Receiver must complete is the calculation of the proper fees for all years after 2020 (which will 23 be true-up against the currently-approved placeholder fees) so the actual rental revenue can be calculated. It is 24 impossible to value the units without the Receiver calculating the fees and the proceeds generated by the units. As 25 the Defendants well know, the value of the units is a function of the income they generate.

26 ⁴ In fact, the opposite is true: if the Defendants are permitted to continue to steal Plaintiffs' rents, which has occurred 27 since 2020, it might be difficult or impossible for the Plaintiffs to recover the stolen rents from Defendants. The 28 fraudster Defendants should not be permitted to continue to hold Plaintiffs' rents.

⁵ Plaintiffs are aware of at least one reason the amounts owed to them will be greater than currently calculated by the Receiver. It is undisputed that the Daily Use Fee ("DUF") is at least in part to cover housekeeping services provided to Plaintiffs' units. However, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Defendants were not causing the rooms to be cleaned on a daily basis. Despite this decrease in housekeeping costs, Defendants were still charging Plaintiffs the old DUF on a daily basis, not providing for any reflection of the decreased amount of man hours spent on housekeeping through this time period.

1 iii. Defendants have had years to figure out their options upon the Court
2 rightfully ordering these proceeds be paid to Plaintiffs

3 Defendants next argue they require more than five judicial days to “consider all options.”
4 (Opposition at 6:6-7.) This argument is disingenuous considering the length of time Plaintiffs 5 have been demanding Defendants turn over the rental proceeds rightfully belonging to Plaintiffs.
6 Similarly, the Court has ordered Defendants to turn over these rents on more than one occasion.
7 For example, in the Court’s Orders & Instructions, the Court ordered the Receiver to open a 8 separate bank account “into which all rents received by Defendants” for the parties’ units would 9 be deposited. (Orders & Instructions at 7:6-9.) The same day, the Court issued another order 10 which directed Defendants “to comply with the Appointment Order’s direction to cooperate with 11 the Receiver to effect the dictates of this order,” including, but not limited to, depositing rental 12 revenue from the parties’ units into a separate account held by the Receiver. (Order Granting 13 Plaintiffs’ Motion for Stay of Special Assessment, filed January 4, 2022 at 5:13-17.)

14 Notably, these orders derived from motions filed in October and August 2021, 15 respectively. Defendants have thus had since at least late 2021 to determine their options if the 16 Court ordered Defendants to turn over rental proceeds belonging to Plaintiffs – as the Court very 17 well should considering the proceeds are Plaintiffs’. It is absurd for Defendants to now argue 18 that during these eighteen (18) months, Defendants did not consider this possibility a single time
19 and plan for the very likely event that Defendants would be ordered to turn over Plaintiffs’ rental 20 proceeds. Accordingly, there is simply no irreparable harm to Defendants, either due to the size 21 or the timing of this Court ordered turnover of the rental proceeds.

22 Rather, Plaintiffs are unduly prejudiced by the threat of a stay in that a stay, and the 23 continued refusal to turn over rental proceeds from 2022 to present deprives Plaintiffs of much-24 needed proceeds from their properties and causes financial hardship. (See Opposition to 25 Defendants’ Motion to Continue April 3, 2023 Trial (First Request), filed March 10, 2023 at Ex.
26 1 at 2, “I have been financially devastated by Defendants’ refusal to pay out the rental proceeds 27 from [my units] since 2020”) The balances of hardships related to a stay tips steeply in 28 favor of Plaintiffs.

1 C. Defendants Are Highly Unlikely to Succeed on Appeal Because They Cannot 2 Credibly Argue the Fees Are Incorrect

3 Defendants have made the same, tired arguments about the correctness of the Receiver's 4 fees for many months, if not years, and the arguments have never succeeded. The reality is that 5 the Court has approved these fees – twice. (Fee Approval Order; Order, dated January 26, 2023, 6 accepting Receiver's conservative placeholder fees; see also Order, dated March 27, 2023, 7 overruling Defendants' objections because "these are the arguments which have been rejected by 8 the Court" already.) Nevertheless, Defendants argue that the "Receiver had made erroneous fee 9 calculations that had previously been addressed and corrected by prior orders of the Court."
10 (Motion at 6:18-19.) This statement is patently false. Defendants cite the Court's Orders &
11 Instructions to support their assertion. The cited language, however, directly belies Defendants' 12 argument. And, Defendants overlook further language in the very same order which directs the 13 Receiver with respect to the fees.

14 The Orders & Instructions addressed the Receiver's confusion as to which fees were to be 15 applied following the Court's Order Granting Clarification, filed December 24, 2020. Therein, 16 the Court informed the Receiver that his then-calculated 2020 fees were incorrect and invalid 17 under the Governing Documents. (Order Granting Clarification, filed December 24, 2020 at 18 3:23-4:10.) The Defendants then argued those fees in place prior to the December 24, 2020
19 Order, which the Court had stated were incorrect, should be utilized – but the Court soundly 20 rejected this argument because the suggestion to use such fees "directly contradicts the Court's 21 December 24, 2020 Order, is inequitable, and thus is outright denied." (Orders & Instructions at 22 2:10-11.) The fees the Court deemed incorrect and rejected were the fees Defendants had 23 improperly influenced by convincing the Receiver a plethora of additional expenses not provided 24 for in the Governing Documents were to be charged to Plaintiffs. (December 24, 2020 Order at 25 3:11-17, "Defendants' interpretation of the Court's October Order, . . . , was inaccurate and not 26 supported by the language of the orders or the record.") The only fees the Court has deemed 27 patently incorrect then are those Defendants argued for and wrongly convinced the Receiver 28 to apply.

1 The Court accordingly ordered the fees to be recalculated and the prior Receiver’s fees to 2 be applied until such recalculation. (Id.) The Court then reconsidered the December 24, 2020
3 Order and struck the application of the prior Receiver’s fees. (Findings of Fact, Conclusions of 4 Law and Order, filed September 29, 2021.) In the Orders & Instructions, the Court further 5 clarified that “[t]hose fees in place prior to the Court’s September 27, 2021 Order shall remain in 6 place until the fees for 2020 are recalculated and approved by this Court.” (Orders &
7 Instructions at 7:3-5.) In the Order Approving Fees, issued the same day, the Court issued such a 8 subsequent Court order approving fees to be “immediately applied retroactive to January 2020 9 and going forward until a subsequent order from the Court is issued.” (Order Approving Fees at 10 2:3-5.) Thus, it is clear that after January 4, 2022, the Receiver’s calculations approved in the 11 Order Approving Fees were to be retroactively applied from 2020 going forward until new fees 12 were submitted and approved: “in the interim, rental revenue shall be calculated based upon 13 the Receiver’s 2021 calculations.” (Id. at 2:14-15.)

14 Defendants argue they have set out the “clear errors” in the Receiver’s calculations in 15 both their opposition to the Receiver’s recent Motion for Orders & Instructions, and in 16 Defendants’ Objection. (Motion at 6:17-19.) To begin, Defendants’ opposition does not even 17 address the propriety of the actual fees – nor could it, because the Receiver did not submit those 18 calculations until he filed his Omnibus Reply, to which the Court duly allowed the parties to 19 respond. (Order, dated January 26, 2023.)

20 Defendants make a single, convoluted argument in both Defendants’ Objection and 21 Motion: the fees the Receiver applied in his conservative calculations cannot be correct because 22 they “most certainly had not been approved at or prior to September 27, 2021.” (Objection at 23 8:28-9:1.) This single argument has a gaping factual chasm that, when taken into consideration, 24 completely remedies the purported error: the Court approved the Receiver’s calculations for 25 2020 in the Order Approving Fees and such approved fees were to be applied “immediately . . .
26 retroactive to January 2020.” (Order Approving Fees at 2:4.) Thus, the fact that these fees were 27 not approved until January 4, 2022 makes no difference – they are to be applied immediately, 28 retroactively to January 2020, and going forward until a further order. (Id.) These approved fees

1 thereby displaced and superseded whatever fees were being charged prior to the September 27, 2 2021 order. Indeed, this is what the Receiver's calculations are correctly based upon. Any 3 argument to the contrary must absolutely fail. Most importantly, the Court again approved the 4 fees in the orders Defendants now seek to stay, making any argument about the need for 5 corrections to these calculations under the prior orders entirely moot.

6 Finally, Defendants make no arguments as to the veracity of the actual fee calculations 7 themselves. The Receiver supplied a comprehensive analysis of his conservative calculations, 8 setting forth the exact ways the Receiver implemented various Court orders. Defendants provide 9 no response or objection to the Receiver's actual numerology. Instead, they simply attack the 10 Receiver's purported failure to apply now-superseded calculations – which, again, is irrelevant
11 because the Court has approved the Receiver's calculations and ordered such fees be applied 12 retroactively to January 2020 and going forward until further order. There is simply no support 13 in the record on appeal for Defendants to dispute the fees.

14 In short, Defendants have argued ad nauseum that the January 4, 2022 orders are 15 conflicting, confusing, and require clarification. Plaintiffs have easily interpreted these orders 16 and the Receiver has similarly interpreted these orders with ease. Defendants are the only parties 17 in this matter who struggle to comprehend simultaneously issued orders which clearly work in 18 harmony with one another. The Court's orders are clear, unambiguous, and provide for the 19 Receiver to apply his fees as he has done to warrant the payment of over $1 million to Plaintiffs:
20 funds which are long overdue and sorely needed.

21 D. The Receivership Must Be Paid to Function Properly and Prevent Further 22 Prejudice to the Plaintiffs

23 This matter is effectively hamstrung until Defendants remit rental proceeds to the 24 Receiver such that the Receiver's invoices can be brought current and the Receiver can 25 undertake his many overdue tasks, and so Plaintiffs can be partially paid a conservatively
26 calculated estimate of their two years' worth of wrongfully withheld rental revenue. The Court 27 is no stranger to the circumstances surrounding the Receivership and the critical necessity to get 28 the Receiver paid so he can perform vital tasks to bring this litigation to a close.

1 All unit owners will endure considerable prejudice if the Receiver is not paid so he can 2 actively manage the units now that the units are owned by the GSRUOA with the Receiver as 3 trustee. (See Agreement to Terminate at 2, “following termination, title to that real estate, upon 4 execution of this termination agreement, vests in the Association with the Receiver as trustee for 5 the holders of all interest in the units.”) The current situation wherein the Receiver is not doing 6 necessary work because he is not getting paid is a recipe for disaster and cannot continue.

7 V. CONCLUSION

8 This matter has grinded to a halt as a result of Defendants refusing to turn over rental 9 proceeds to the Receiver so the Receiver can be paid and the appropriate proceeds can be 10 distributed to Plaintiffs. Defendants have been wrongly withholding these proceeds since 11 January 2020 – effectively stealing from Plaintiffs for over three years without repercussion.
12 Now that the Court has ordered Defendants to pay a conservatively calculated amount to the 13 Receiver for these reasons, Defendants have made a concerted effort to dodge any such order and 14 continue refusing to turnover the rents. The Court must see through Defendants’ transparent 15 attempts as they are nothing more than a continuation of Defendants’ previous efforts to do
16 “everything possible to make the proceedings unjust, dilatory, and costly.” (FFCLJ at 2:24-25.)

17 Granting Defendants’ request for stay would only serve to further delay this matter, as the 18 Receiver cannot and will not work without payment, and such payment is to come from the 19 rental proceeds. Accordingly, the Court must deny Defendants’ motion in full in order to bring 20 this litigation to a close. Plaintiffs urge the Court to do so.

Real Property : The legal description is included in Exhibit A attached hereto. This legal description is Exhibit A from the Declaration.

The undersigned Hotel Unit Owner and the owners of units at the Condominium Hotel representing at least eighty percent (80%) of the votes in the Association defined above (the "80% Units' Owners") hereby agree as follows:

1. Termination of Condominium Hotel. At a meeting conducted by the Association on January 18, 2023 (the "Meeting"), Hotel Unit Owner and 80% Units' Owners approved the termination of the Condominium Hotel. The Condominium Hotel is terminated effective upon the filing of this Agreement in the records of the Office of the County Recorder of Washoe County, State of Nevada.

2. Sale of Common Elements, Shared Components, and Units. Following termination of the Condominium Hotel, all of the common elements, shared components, and units of the Condominium Hotel shall be sold pursuant to the terms of a subsequently drafted Agreement for Sale of Condominium Hotel Interests and further Court Order from the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada in and for the County of Washoe in Case No. CV12-02222 ("Receivership Action"). Pursuant to NRS 116.2118(5), approval of the yet to be drafted Agreement for Sale of Condominium Hotel Interests must take place at a meeting and receive approval from the Hotel Unit Owner and 80% of the Units' Owners and be approved by the Court in the Receivership Action.

3. Approval of Sale of Real Estate. At the Meeting, Hotel Unit Owner and 80% Units' Owners authorized the Association controlled by the Receiver appointed in the Receivership Action, on behalf of the Units' Owners, to contract for the sale of real estate owned by the Units' Owners in the Condominium Hotel. For all real estate to be sold following termination, title to that real estate, upon execution of this termination agreement, vests in the Association with the Receiver as trustees for the holders of all interests in the units. And as long as the Association hold title to the real estate, each of the Unit's Owners shall have a right of occupancy as provided in the Declaration and during that period of occupancy, each of the Units' Owners shall remain liable for all assessments, shared expenses and other obligations imposed on Units' Owners by applicable Nevada law or the Declaration.

4. Termination of Association. At the Meeting, Hotel Unit Owner and 80% of Units' Owners approved the termination of the Association. The Association defined above now has all powers necessary and appropriate to affect the sale. Until the sale has been concluded and the proceeds thereof distributed upon Court approval in the Receivership Action, the Association continues in existence with all powers it had before termination under the receivership. Upon execution of the sale documents and distribution of the proceeds and an order issued in the Receivership Action the Association will be terminated.

5. Termination of Declaration. The Declaration is terminated effective upon the filing of this Agreement in the records of the Office of the County Recorder of Washoe County, State of Nevada unless otherwise ordered by the Court in the Receivership Action, or the Association is terminated in accordance with paragraph 4 herein. A Rescission and Notice of Termination of the Declaration shall also be recorded on or before the date identified in Section 8 below.

Good afternoon Jarrad.

1. The Receiver does not know if the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units are still being rented. As you are aware, the Defendants have complete control over the rental program for the units, and as there are no funds to operate the Receivership (since the Defendants have refused to turn over the rents as ordered by the Court).

2. The rents for the units formerly owned by Defendants and Plaintiffs are NOT being provided to the Receiver and the Defendants are well aware that they are supposed to be renting the units and turning the rents over to the Receiver which they have failed and refused to do.

The Receiver has not and will not perform any additional work until the outstanding amounts owed to the Receiver and our firm are paid. Right now, we are doing the minimum amount of work possible as we do not wish to generate any more fees with no indication whatsoever if or we will ever be paid. The Court agreed with the Receiver's calculations (as set forth in its January 26th order) and issued a subsequent order on March 27th in which the Court confirmed its agreement with the Receiver's calculations and ordered that the Defendants were to comply with the prior orders of the Court, which include the deposit of $1,103,950.99 with the Receiver. There is now a pending motion to stay these orders. As soon as the amounts due and owing to the Receiver and our office are paid and there is a mechanism in place to pay future fees, the Receiver will commence work.

Best regards,

Stefanie

Id. at page 2, paragraph 3. Further, on March 14, 2023, the Receiver was instructed by the Court to continue to rent the former units.

Can you please confirm the following now that the units are owned by the Association with the Receiver as trustee:

1. That the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units are still being rented.
2. That the rents for the units formerly owned by Defendants and Plaintiffs are being provided to the Receiver given that the Association owns the units? If not, has the Receiver, since February 27, 2023, demanded the rents from the Defendants or demanded that those rents be deposited in the Association's account, under the control of the Receiver?

Your attention to this matter would be greatly appreciated as we would like to proceed with the appropriate motion practice if now that the units are owned by the Association, under the exclusive control of the Receiver, the rents are still being stolen by the Defendants.

Best regards,

Honorable Elizabeth Gonzales,
Senior Judge
Second Judicial Court
Department Number 10
75 Court 'Street
Reno, Nevada 89501

Re: Receivership In Re Case No. CV12-02222

Re: ex parte communication with the Court regarding judicial action

Dear Judge Gonzales:

I am writing this letter to Your Honor pursuant the Order Appointing Receiver and Directing Defendants' Compliance, filed on January 7, 2015 (attached), in which, at paragraph 1.d. it states that the Receiver "is entitled to effectuate [its] duties conferred by this Order, including the authority to communicate ex parte on the record with the Court when in the opinion of the Receiver, emergency judicial action is necessary".

I need guidance and assistance from the Court so that I am able to carry out the Court's Orders forthwith, and in particular am able to collect the rental income from the rental of the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' condominium units and to make certain that rental income that I receive is based on compliance with the provisions of Unit Rental Agreement in terms of there being a fair rotation of the rentals between the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units, that there are no improper or excessive number of complimentary nights of occupancy of any of the units, and that rents charged for the rooms are consistent between the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units in respect to the square footages and types of rooms.

Any further delay in my ability to carry out the Orders is depriving the Plaintiffs to receive the net rentals to which they are entitled, subject to adjustments to be made for the fee charges for 2020 and 2022, and for year-to-date 2023, and to the reserve charges for 2020 through year-to-date 2023, all of which will be in the Plaintiffs' favor. In this regard, the following events are most relevant for enabling this Receiver to fully comply with the Court Orders.

- On March 3, 2023, the Court granted the Motion for Instructions to Receiver Concerning Termination of The Grand Sierra Resort Unit Owners' Association and Rental of Units Until Time of Sale that was filed on January 26, 2023 in which "the Receiver should be instructed to continue to rent Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units under the existing receivership orders...", despite the Defendants' Opposition to this Motion filed on February 14, 2023.

In the Court's granting of this Motion filed on March 3, 2023, it said, "The Receiver is instructed to continue to rent the former units under the URA" (Emphasis added).

- However, on February 13, 2023, the Defendants had filed a Motion to Modify and Terminate Receivership and Approve Sale of Condominium Hotel, to which, on February 24, 2023, Plaintiffs filed an Opposition to Motion to Modify and Terminate Receivership and Approve Sale of Condominium Hotel. Lastly, on March 3, 2023, the Defendants filed its Reply to Opposition to Motion to Modify and Terminate Receivership and Approve Sale of Condominium Hotel.

The Court has not yet rendered a decision whether or not to grant Defendants' Motion.

- Additionally, on January 26, 2023, included in the Court's ruling on the Receiver's Motion for Orders & Instructions, filed on December 1, 2022, the Court stated that "If either Plaintiffs or Defendants object to the [Receiver's] calculations... a written objection shall be filed within 15 judicial days", and that "If an objection is filed, the Receiver may file a response to the objection within 15 days of the filing of the objection". On February 16, 2023, Defendants filed Defendants' Objection to Receiver's Calculations Contained in Exhibit 1 Attached to Receiver's Omnibus Reply to Parties Oppositions to the Receiver's Motion for Orders & Instructions and on February 24, 2023, the Receiver filed "Reply to Defendants Objection to Receiver's Calculations Contained in Exhibit 1 Attached to Receiver's Omnibus Reply to Parties Oppositions to the Receiver's Motion for Orders & Instructions".

The Court has not yet rendered a decision on whether the net rentals due to Plaintiffs, as calculated in Exhibit 1 to Receiver's Motion for Orders & Instructions, filed on December 1, 2022, in the amount of $1,103,950.99, is to be paid to the Receiver by the Defendants.¹

The issue of timing for the Plaintiffs and Defendants being able to receive the correct total of net rentals due to them to date is that the fee charges and reserve charges need to be calculated and approved by the Court. The process of determining the proper fee charges involves performing an in-depth analysis in order to ascertain that they will be calculated in accordance with the governing documents. This process, among other things, includes the Receiver going to GSR to test enough of the expenditures that it reports in its annual budget and for determining the daily use fees ("DUF") to be assured that those expenditures used in determining the fee charges and DUF charges agree with the expenditures in GSR's general ledger and in turn in the relevant components used in preparing its annual financial statements.

In order for me as to be able to move forward with being in compliance with the Court Order to rent the condominium units and collect the rents and in turn pay the Plaintiffs and Defendants the net rentals, after determining the appropriate fee and reserve charges to be deducted from the gross rentals to be collected, I, along with my attorney, must be paid the outstanding balance owed to us, which continues to increase each month, and need to continue to be paid for the substantial amount of work that is yet to be performed. If I, as Receiver, could at least receive the $1,103,650.99 that I calculated as a "temporary but understated" amount due to Plaintiffs at the ¹This Receiver intends to file a Motion to request guidance along with my suggestions primarily regarding the manner on which I am to carry out the process of renting the Plaintiffs' and Defendants' units, paying the net rentals to each of the unit owners, and the issuance of monthly statements to each of them. (The Defendants have not been issued monthly reports since I was appointed as Receiver.)

time I calculated it, then from that amount I could pay the outstanding fees due to me and my attorney, and retain a portion of the $1,103.650.99 for the additional work that needs to be performed in order to calculate all the proper amount of fees owing to the Plaintiffs and Defendants from past rentals and ongoing rentals.
