EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR THE STATE OF NEVADA

IN AND FOR THE STATE OF NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JUSTIN ODELL LANGFORD,

Defendant

Case No.: C-14-296556-1

NOTICE OF APPEAL

COMES NOW Justin Odell Langford, to file his notice of appeal, challenging the denial of his motion to correct illegal sentence due to lack of personal jurisdiction. Judge Peterson entered the order of denial on Feb. 22, 2024 . the ruling is being challenged based on an abuse of discretion by judge Peterson when the case law alone proves the statute was illegally amended. Court records from 8th judicial district court in another case where Judge Erika ballou Stated it was amended in 2009 by the legislative counsel bureau. The version the defendant was convicted under was not a valid version passed by the Nevada legislator as required by Nevada constitution article 4

Dated this 22nd of February, 2024

04/13/2023	 Minute Order (1:00 PM) (Judicial Officer: Kierny, Carli) Minute Order - No Hearing Held; Journal Entry Details: MINUTE ORDER STRICKEN This matter is before the Court on 4/19/23 on Defendant's Motion to Vacate Conviction, and Defendant's Ex Parte Motion for Appearance by Telephone or Video Conference. After reviewing Defendant's Motion and the State's Opposition and determining that the time to file a Reply has passed, the Court finds that additional oral argument would not assist the Court and will rule on the pleadings pursuant to NRCrP 8(2) and EDCR 2.23. The Motion to Vacate is hereby DENIED. Petitioner is not entitled to relief under NRCrP 60, as this is a civil rule that does not apply to denial of a post-conviction Writ of Habeas Corpus. Additionally, the Court finds that Defendant's request for relief is untimely under NRCrP 60(c)(1). Therefore, his Motion must be denied, and this minute order will serve to vacate the 4/19/23 hearing on the Motion to Vacate Conviction. Additionally, this minute order renders Defendant's Ex Parte Motion for Appearance MOOT, as the matter has already been decided; the 4/19/23 hearing on that matter is also hereby vacated. This error is due to the sheer volume of pro per motions filed by Defendant, to include at least 55 pro per motions, appeals, writs, and notices under this case number; and approximately 25 pro per motions, appeals, writs, and notices under an associated civil case number (A-18-784811-W). THE COURT FINDS, NRS 171.010 is a valid statute and grants the Nevada Courts jurisdiction over any individual who has committed a crime within Nevada. It was derived from section 58 of the Criminal Practice Act of 1911. That section was first printed in the Revised Laws of Nevada 1912 at section 6908 and subsequently appear in the Nevada Compiled Laws 1929 section 10705; further

The law was repealed and re-enacted in 1957 when the Nevada Legislature enacted the Nevada Revised Statutes. 1957 Nevada Statute, chapter 2 sections 1 and 3, as with all other statutes within the Nevada Revised Statute, NRS 171.010 is a valid law as it was enacted by the Nevada Legislature and subsequently codified by the legislative counsel and reproduced in the Nevada Revised Statutes; further

The Nevada Revised Statutes constitute the official codified version of statutes of Nevada and may be cited as prima facie evidence of the law in all of the courts of this state; therefore

THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS that DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO CORRECT
ILLEGAL SENTENCE shall be and is denied.

- The Court noticed that it inadvertently filed its minute order denying relief on Defendant's Motion for Relief from Judgment in response to Defendant's Motion to Vacate Conviction. This error is due to the sheer volume of pro per motions filed by Defendant, to include at least 55 pro per motions, appeals, writs, and notices under this case number; and approximately 25 pro per motions, appeals, writs, and notices under an associated civil case number (A-18-784811-W).
