ELIZABETH A. BROWN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY CHIEF DEPUTY CLERK

ORDER

On July 25, 2024, the Supreme Court created the Commission to Study Judicial Branch Security (Commission) to study and make recommendations regarding information gathering and sharing, training security officers and judicial officers, identifying and categorizing threats, responding to threats and violence, courthouse security, and interfacing with other branches of government. Given the nature of Commission's work, it will necessarily review documents that reveal sensitive information. Accordingly, the Commission Chair shall have the authority to seal or deem confidential any sensitive materials the Chair deems appropriate.

It is so ORDERED.
