CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

re: Hermanski v. State, Case No. 41405

Dear Clerk,

Thank you for your letter of September 24, 2003. This is to express my concern to the court that my attorney, Paul E. Wommer, has not only failed to perfect my appeal, but has also failed to comply with the Court's order entered August 21, 2003, wherein the Court directed Mr. Wommer to comply with the Court's order of July 22, 2003.

I believe there are several viable issues in my case which should be addressed by the Court, but apparently Mr. Wommer is unconcerned about my appeal. I would like for the Court to dismiss Mr. Wommer from this case and appoint substitute counsel, but I don't know the proper procedure for doing so. Thus, I am hoping that this letter to the Court will serve as "Notice" that I wish to pursue an appeal, and because I am concerned with Mr. Wommer's failure to pursue my appeal I ask that the Court appoint other counsel.

Thank you very much for your time and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gregory S. Hermanski
