ORDER DIRECTING TRANSMISSION OF SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD

This is a proper person appeal from an order of the district court denying appellant Alan Daniels' motion for sentence modification. The record on appeal does not contain a transcript of Daniels' sentencing hearing on May 14, 2002. A transcript of this proceeding is necessary for this court's review of the appeal.

Accordingly, if the transcript has been prepared and filed with the district court, the clerk of the district court shall transmit, as a supplemental record on appeal, a certified copy of the transcript to the clerk of this court within 10 days from the date of this order. If the transcript has not been prepared and filed below, the district court shall order its prompt preparation.¹ If such an order is required, the clerk of the district court shall have 15 days from the date of this order within which to transmit a copy of the district court's order to the clerk of this court. The clerk of the district court shall then have 10 days from the date the transcript is filed within which to transmit a certified copy of the transcript to the clerk of this court as a supplemental record on appeal.
