	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Year.
2	MR. EGLET: Love and Logic?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Uh-huh.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. Have to find that one.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah.
6	MR. EGLET: What did you want to be when you were in high
7	school, a teacher?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: No, I wanted to be a child
9	psychiatrist, psychologist.
10	MR. EGLET: And then what made you choose education
11	instead?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I was failing my psychology
13	courses. And I said to my friend, "What are you doing?" She
14	said, "I'm going to be a teacher." I said, "Okay." So it
15	was either nursing or teaching. Then I took that test that
16	tells you what you're going to do. Dumb me, I took teaching.
17	I could be rich and be a nurse, but
18	MR. EGLET: Well, I think they're underpaid too.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah.
20	MR. EGLET: But they make more than you guys.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah, they make way more than 22	me.
23	MR. EGLET: They're underpaid too. Most lawyers become but I can remember taking those -- lawyers because we're not qualified to do anything else, so --

24

.	PROSPECTIVE	JUROR	NO.	925:	Yeah
----------	-------------	-------	-----	------	------

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: -- the same tests. Can you tell us what your five year goals are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: To make sure my daughter graduates and gets to college. And to eventually sell my big house and get a little tiny house so I don't have to go up the stairs anymore.

MR. EGLET: Downsize?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Kids are gone, let's downsize, yeah. We're looking at that right now.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I know.

MR. EGLET: We got one left at home. Two are gone, we got one left. Any clubs or organizations you belong to?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Bunco.

MR. EGLET: What is that?

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: It's a game.

MR. EGLET: Oh, that's -- yeah. That's your game. Okay.

19 And you play that regularly?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Once in a while with the teachers.

MR. EGLET: Once in a while. Okay, all right. We only played it New Year's Eve at his house. That's the only time I've played. Who -- what are the two most important values that you hold dear to yourself and that you've tried to impart

1	upon your children, other than honesty and the faith that you
2	practice?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Empathy.
4	MR. EGLET: Empathy.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: And independence, to be an
6	independent person.
7	MR. EGLET: All right. What situations do you think
8	you're regarded as a leader?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: In the classroom every day.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: With my students.
12	MR. EGLET: But outside of work.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Family situations, my
14	daughter's friends.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Mostly at work.
17	MR. EGLET: The worst tragedy you've had to experience?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: My father passing when I was 19	11.
20	MR. EGLET: When you were 11. When you hear someone's
21	been injured, killed, become really sick, do you ever think to
22	yourself that probably happened to them because of something
23	bad they did earlier in their life?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: No.
25	MR. EGLET: Some people believe that when someone is

٦
4
5
6
7
8
9 10 11 injured, killed, and it's as a result of someone else's actions, that it was probably because of fate or bad luck or God's will so they shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you feel that way?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: No.
MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most in life?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I think Michael Jackson.
MR. EGLET: Michael Jackson?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah.
MR. EGLET: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: He had so many gifts to give.
And when you have such great gifts to give you're always scrutinized. And I feel sad for the gifts he gave and yet what he had to live through.
MR. EGLET: Thank you. Thank you very much.
Ms. Prince.
PROGREGATIVE TUROR NO. 928. Hi

MR. EGLET: Make sure I got this right. Okay.

Ms. Prince, you are a new accounts representative for City

National Bank?

> PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Correct.

MR. EGLET: Do you know me or my firm?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No.

Okay. How long have you been with City MR. EGLET:

ΛVTranz

1	National Bank?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: About seven months. I was
3	with Sun West Bank and the FDIC came in and City National Bank
4	came in and purchased
5	MR. EGLET: Okay.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Sun West Bank. So
7	MR. EGLET: Are you still
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: I became an employee of
9	City National Bank.
10	MR. EGLET: All right. Are you still in one of the Sun
11	West Bank
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Locations?
13	MR. EGLET: locations?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yes.
15	MR. EGLET: All right. And are you still dealing
16	primarily with old Sun West
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yes.
18	MR. EGLET: customers, not City National Bank
19	customers?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: I would have to say 90
21	percent are old Sun West Bank customers, maybe even a little
22	bit more than that.
23	MR. EGLET: The accounts you work with, are they personal
24	accounts or business accounts?

Both.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928:

1	MR. EGLET: Both?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Uh-huh.
3	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. What makes you good at
4	your job?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Attention to detail, the
6	ability to communicate with a wide variety of people,
7	organizational skills.
8	MR. EGLET: And you have children?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No.
10	MR. EGLET: No children.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you want to be in high
13	school?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: A flight attendant.
15	MR. EGLET: Flight attendant?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Uh-huh.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay. Tell us why, travel?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: I thought it was going to be
19	glamorous, yeah.
20	MR. EGLET: Did you ever do that?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No, but I did work for an
22	airline. So I achieved part of my goal.
23	MR. EGLET: Okay. Got the free tickets, that kind of 24	thing?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yes.

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

1

2

PROSPE

MR. EGLET: The standby tickets --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: -- employees?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Standby is not that much fun.

MR. EGLET: Yeah. Okay. Your five year goals?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: To be healthier and almost debt free.

MR. EGLET: Almost debt free.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Probably always have a mortgage, but --

MR. EGLET: Good goals.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Good goals indeed. What are the two most important values that you hold dear to yourself, other than honesty and whatever faith you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Integrity and goodwill.

MR. EGLET: What do you mean by goodwill?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Just being good to others, and I think it will come back to you.

MR. EGLET: Tell us what situations that you're regarded as a leader.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: In my job, I am cross trained to do other jobs in the office. So I'm not sure if it's so much leadership as teamwork and jumping in when you know others need help, and just helping out the office in general.

ΛVTranz

1	MR. EGLET: And if someone offers to send money to the
2	charity of your choice, what charity would that be?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Probably the Red Cross.

MR. EGLET: And why the Red Cross?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Because they help so many people all over the world.

MR. EGLET: What's the worst tragedy you've ever had to go through?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: My grandfather passed away when I was a teenager.

MR. EGLET: Do you ever feel that when someone is injured or killed or becomes very sick that it happened because of -- might have happened because something they did back earlier?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No, never.

MR. EGLET: Some people feel that when someone is injured or killed because of the negligence of someone else that it's God's fate, God -- it's God's will, it's fate, it's bad luck, destiny, so they shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you feel that way?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: No, I disagree.

MR. EGLET: Disagree. Who's a public figure that you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Well, I was going to say Oprah, but --

MR. EGLET: Till I said no --

AVTranz

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yeah, that was the number one
2	answer. So I'm going to go with Bill Gates, just for his
3	philanthropic philanthropy. You know, he gives a lot.
4	MR. EGLET: The Bill and the Linda Gates Foundation.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Yes.
6	MR. EGLET: Pretty amazing.
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Uh-huh.
8	MR. EGLET: Like to see people who've made billions of
9	dollars give it all away.
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Exactly.
11	MR. EGLET: That's great. Okay, thank you.
12	Okay. Ms. Kunkel.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Koonkel [phonetic].
14	MR. EGLET: Is it
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Koonkel.
16	MR. EGLET: Koonkel.
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Yes, close.
18	MR. EGLET: Close enough. All right. Okay. Ms. Kunkel,
19	you work as a valet at the Bellagio.
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Yes.
21	MR. EGLET: How long have you been doing that?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Since it's opened.
23	MR. EGLET: Since
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Almost 13 years.
25	MR. EGLET: Were you a valet before that?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: No.
2	MR. EGLET: And tell us what makes you good at your job.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I've always been active, so I
4	fit in real well there. And I work well with others. So we
5	have a great team. We work really good together. We can make
6	those cars move.
7	MR. EGLET: And do you have children?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I do, two.
9	MR. EGLET: Two. And what made you a good parent?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I'm a good listener and I
11	have real good family values.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us what you wanted to be
13	in high school?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Wanted to be a cosmetologist.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I did.
17	MR. EGLET: And you did for a while.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I did. It wasn't for me.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what are your five year goals?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Focus on family, my faith, good money management, little more focus on retirement plans and make sure I give my kids the tools they need to succeed.

MR. EGLET: What are the two most important values to you and that you've tried to impart in your children?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I'd say family and

1	compassion.
2	MR. EGLET: Tell me what you mean by compassion.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Kindness. I feel for, you
4	know, I could put myself in someone else's situation so when
5	they're talking to me I could I like to put myself into
6	that situation. So I, you know, someone was hurt and I have
7	compassion for how they're feeling.
8	MR. EGLET: Can you tell us what situations that you're
9	regarded as a leader?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I'm a good listener. I don't
11	like to speak before I think about what I'm going to say.
12	Like I said, I like to put myself in other people's situations
13	before I make a judgment on anything.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay. Someone offers to send money to the
15	charity of your choice, what charity would that be?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Two. I would pick the Girls
17	and Boys Club and there's a foundation here called oh, it's
18	an animal organization.
19	MR. EGLET: Pride?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: No. it's they care for
21	foster feral
22	MR. EGLET: Okay.
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: feral animals. I forget
24	the name of it offhand right now.

MR. EGLET: All right. And why those two organizations?

00082

19 20 21

22

23

24

25

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Heaven Can Wait Sanctuary.
2	That's it.
3	MR. EGLET: Heaven Can Wait. And why those two
4	organizations?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I love children and I love
6	animals. So
7	MR. EGLET: What's the worst tragedy you ever went
8	through?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: The loss of my father.
10	MR. EGLET: How old were you?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I was 30, and I thought he
12	was going to live forever.
13	MR. EGLET: Do you ever feel when you hear about someone
14	being hurt or injured, killed or become sick that it probably
15	happened to them because of something bad they did earlier in
16	life?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: No.
18	MR. EGLET: Some people think that when someone is

MR. EGLET: Some people think that when someone is injured or killed that it was destiny or fate or God's will, and so they -- even if it was someone else's fault, they shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it would have happened anyway. Do you agree with that thinking?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Huh-uh.

MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Two. I'd say Ronald Reagan

ΛVTranz

```
1 and Sarah Palin.
```

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: Okay. Tell us why Sarah Palin.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: I love her conservative values. She has the same kind of beliefs I have and she's -- she loves her family and she loves her country, and I love both.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Thank you very much.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Barrett.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Yes.

MR. EGLET: How are you, sir?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I'm good, thanks.

MR. EGLET: Waiting there patiently or out in the hall.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: We all are, so --

MR. EGLET: Can you tell us, I know that you -- you're the owner of a bar and restaurant.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I was. I'm retired now.

MR. EGLET: Oh, you are. Okay. So you retired -- did I not read your questionnaire right? Did you retire before or after you filled out the questionnaire? Were you in the process?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: No, this was before I filled out the questionnaire.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. So you're retired from that business?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Yes. 1 Okay. Was that a local bar in --2 MR. EGLET: PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Yes, it was a local one. 3 Okay. Was it number of bars and restaurants? 4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Just one. 5 MR. EGLET: Which one was it? 6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: It's called Hamburger Mary's. It's over by the Hard Rock. 8 Okay. And have you sold that business? 9 MR. EGLET: PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Our lease ran out, so I 10 11 didn't renew it. MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Can you tell us what made 12 you good at your job? 13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Well, before that I was an 14 accountant for 13 years with the Howard Keys Corporation. 15 16 MR. EGLET: Okay. So that was kind of a totally PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: 17 I was -- that was more attention to detail, 18 different job. being thorough. I'm the kind of person that doesn't like to 19 let anything go. I pursue it to the end. And with the bar it 20 was totally different. It was more like -- the restaurant, it 21 was more like just go with the flow with everything, because 22 -- endurance, because it was a very time-consuming job. 23 MR. EGLET: All right. Do you have children? 24 25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: No, I don't.

MR. EGLET: Can you tell us what you wanted to be when you were in high school?

problem for me. I kind of found out later what I was best at.

In high school I didn't have a very strong idea. So it took me a while to kind of find myself. At the time, I thought I wanted to possibly be a doctor. All over the map, so -- and I started out in college as premed.

MR. EGLET: How'd you do in organic chemistry?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: That was what did me in.

MR. EGLET: Me too. All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I said no more.

MR. EGLET: I understand. Can you tell us, what are your five year goals?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: It's kind of common in Las Vegas. I'd like to sell my house, which is underwater, and just continue. I'm happy with my life now, so just --

MR. EGLET: Any clubs or organizations you belong to?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: No, I'm not really a joiner.

MR. EGLET: The most important values that you hold?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I don't know how to really 22 put it in words, but kind of stick-to-itiveness. I think

23 always try your hardest.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 20

25

24 MR. EGLET: Persistence?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: That and just do your best.

ΛVTranz

The only real disappointments I've had are when I felt I didn't give it everything I should have and [indiscernible].
That and a sense of humor, sense of respect for [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: Are there situations that you think you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I think I'm probably too quiet by nature to lead like large groups, but I am pretty good with small groups. I think I am kind of more of a mediator than a leader. And then I'm practical and get along with most people.

MR. EGLET: Okay. If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what's it going to be?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Probably Juvenile Diabetes Foundation because it's had a big impact on my family and on me.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And the worst tragedy you've ever had to experience.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Probably when I was seven. I had gone with my family to Florida on a vacation and visited relatives, and we were in a car accident which killed my uncle and my oldest cousin. And my twin sister was -- she had a head injury in the accident which left her paralyzed.

MR. EGLET: Okay. So you were all in the vehicle together?

Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943:

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: All right. And were you injured?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I had a broken wrist and a cracked pelvis, but I recovered pretty --

MR. EGLET: How old were you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Seven.

MR. EGLET: You were seven, okay. When you hear someone has been hurt or killed or become sick do you ever think to yourself --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Hardly ever. I think there are the Charlie Sheens of the world that you kind of have to ask yourself; they're bent on destruction. But other than that, no.

Some people feel that when someone gets hurt or killed that it's destiny or God's will, and even if it's someone else's fault they shouldn't bring --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: No.

MR. EGLET: -- a lawsuit.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: No.

MR. EGLET: You don't agree with that. Who's a public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Probably someone like Lincoln, who was a self-made man, who -- largely selfeducated. And I think he placed our country over his own happiness and [indiscernible].

```
MR. EGLET: Your public figure is a lawyer.
                                                        You realize
1 2
     that?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943:
3
          MR. EGLET: Okay, thank you very much.
4
               Ms. Lynch, how are you?
5
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Very well, thank you.
6
                      You've been having conversation with Bailiff
7
                          Everything okay?
     Diamond over there.
8
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Very well.
9
          MR. EGLET: Okay, very good. Can you tell us, you work 10 at Albertsons?
11
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350:
                                       Yes, I do.
12
                      Checker. How long you been doing that?
          MR. EGLET:
13
                                       Thirteen years, sir.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350:
14
                      Okay. And what makes you good at your job?
          MR. EGLET:
15
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I try to anticipate my 16 customers' needs. I anticipate their visits, try to get them 17 out of the store as quick as I can.
18
                       Which store do you work at?
19
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Warm Springs [indiscernible].
20
                              And do you have children?
21
          MR. EGLET:
                       Okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes, I do.
22
                       And what makes you a good parent?
23
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Setting boundaries, 24
25 listening.
```

1	MR. EGLET: And what did you want to be when you were in
2	high school?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Department of Forestry,
4	botany.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. And did you pursue that?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. What happened with that?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I became involved in botany,
9	cactus and succulent, botanizing most of mainland Mexico and
10	the Baja islands.
11	MR. EGLET: You got out of that eventually?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes, I did.
13	MR. EGLET: Okay. And are you happy with your decision
14	to get out of that?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I miss it.
16	MR. EGLET: You miss it?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Learned a lot.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Saw a lot of beautiful
20	things.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us any clubs or
22	organizations you belong to?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Cactus Succulent Society of
24	America.
25	MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPE	CTIVE J	UROR NO.	350: All	kinds (of cactus	succulent societies o	f diffe	rent tow	ns in L.A.	and th	e surround	ling areas, the	shows,	use and	annual sho	ws. We	actually	grew cactus for	shows,	quite a	interestin	g lifes	tyle.
			~	4.37	ua tho tw	moet

MR. EGLET: Yes. Okay. Can you tell us the two most important values you hold and that you try to teach your children.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Respect and trust.

MR. EGLET: Tell me what you mean by trust.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Trusting in yourself to take that next step, the right next -- the next step. Trusting yourself.

MR. EGLET: And can you tell us what situations that you feel that you are a leader.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: At work.

16 MR. EGLET: Work?

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

22

23

24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Giving direction. I was a manager.

MR. EGLET: You're still a manager?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Well, somebody with more 21 seniority tapped my shift, so --

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: It happens.

MR. EGLET: Sure.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: But yeah, I really enjoyed

1 it.

2

3

4

5

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

If someone offers to send money to a MR. EGLET: Okay. charity of your choice, who is that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: It would have to be breast cancer research.

MR. EGLET: Why?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I lost my mother to breast cancer.

MR. EGLET: And is that the answer to the next question? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes, sir.

When you hear someone has been hurt, injured, MR. EGLET: killed or become sick do you ever think to yourself that well, that probably happened to them because of something they did earlier in life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: No.

MR. EGLET: Some people believe that if you are injured or killed that -- by -- as a result of someone else's negligence that it was destiny, fate, God's will. So it was bound to happen anyway so you shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Who's the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I'd have to agree with Sarah Palin.

```
MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
1
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: She loves her country.
2
          MR. EGLET: And --
3
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: She loves her family.
4
                                She's got great spunk, great zest
5
     got great family values.
     for life.
6
          MR. EGLET: Do you watch her reality show --
7
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: No, I do not.
8
                      -- Alaska there?
9
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: No, I do not.
10 11
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Don't have a lot of time for 12 13
     TV, so --
                      Okay. All right. Thank you very much.
14
          MR. EGLET:
               Mr. Johnston [sic].
15
                                       Hello.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956:
16
17
                      How are you?
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Pretty well.
18
                      Johnson, I guess, not Johnston; right?
19
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Yeah.
20
                      Mr. Johnson, you work as a barista at 21
          MR. EGLET:
     Seattle's Best in Borders; right?
22
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Correct.
23
                      Okay. Which Borders do you work at?
24
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: The one on Warm Springs and 25
```

1	Sunset	•

5

6

7

8

9

10

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

2 MR. EGLET: Okay. Now is it Borders that is going out of

3 business or is that the other one, Barnes & Noble?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: No. Borders filed for a Chapter 11 of some sort, so -- ours is fine for the moment.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And tell us what makes you good at your job.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Accuracy and efficiency.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What are you reading there?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: It's a war novel, The 11 | Passage. Very good.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Good idea to bring something in to read when you're -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: [Simultaneous conversation] little sit down time.

MR. EGLET: Right. Can you -- you're single. You don't have any children; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Correct.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And I know you're young, but what did you want to be in high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Computer programmer.

MR. EGLET: A computer programmer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Correct.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Is that still something you want to 25 do, or is that --

ΛVTranz

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: No. I've taught myself a lo
2	about it, took a few temp jobs involving it, but it is a very
3	soul crushing line of work.

MR. EGLET: Soul crushing.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: It is tedious, really, really. I don't think I have the proper mind set to do that for a career.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What are your five year goals?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: I've gotten pretty doughy, so I'm looking to get back in shape. Then probably go back to college.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What do you want to study?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Multimedia, remodeling, film editing, that sort of thing.

MR. EGLET: Okay, great. Any clubs or organizations you belong to?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. You -- what are the two most important values that you hold?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Loyalty, stick by people when they are in need, and tenaciousness or some word of the sort, start something and see it through to the end.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And there situations where you think you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: At work, yeah. I'm generally

1	the one that has the answers that people need as far as caf
2	business, the prestigious line of work it is.

MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what's that going to be?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: It would have to be some sort of cancer research.

MR. EGLET: And why cancer research?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Few people in the family: stepbrother, had an uncle that had pancreatic cancer, got him. And yeah, goes to that.

MR. EGLET: The worst tragedy you've had to experience?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: My best friend killed himself about two years ago.

MR. EGLET: Oh, sorry. Was that here locally? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: And -- all right. Well, I'll let that lie. When you hear someone is hurt or killed or become sick do you ever think to yourself that well, that probably happened because of something they did earlier in their life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Talking like karma or --

MR. EGLET: Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And some people believe that if someone is killed or hurt that it's, even if it's by the negligence of somebody else, that it's probably fate,

ΛVTranz

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

1	destiny, God's will. So they shouldn't bring a lawsuit
2	because it would have happened anyway. Do you agree with prospective juror No. 956: I go out of my way to avoid public figures, anything about them. So I -- that's a tough one. I would -- just an example. People like -- we'll say [indiscernible] celebrity who's done very well for himself, good actor, lots of money, but you never see him on the tabloids, you know, making a scene or having all this drama around him. I admire people like that who do what they do and not bother others.
3	that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: No, sir.

MR. EGLET: Who's a public figure you admire?

MR. EGLET: Not a fan of Charlie Sheen then?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Eh --

MR. EGLET: Okay, thank you, Mr. Johnson.

Ms. Hubbert, how are you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Fine.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Hubbert, you are a room service taker, not a waiter, room service taker.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Order taker.

MR. EGLET: -- at the Cosmopolitan?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: Orderer, okay. And have -- well, that just 25 opened; right?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yes.
2	MR. EGLET: What were you doing before that?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: I actually got laid off. I
4	was unemployed for two years.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. What were you doing before you got
6	laid off?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: I worked at the Bellagio in
8	room service.
9	MR. EGLET: Same thing.
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Uh-huh.
11	MR. EGLET: All right. What makes you good at your job?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Good listener, pay attention
13	to detail, empathy. Lot of people drink, lose a lot of money,
14	they tell you their life story.
15	MR. EGLET: And you're engaged?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yes.
17	MR. EGLET: Congratulations.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Thank you.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. You ever been married before?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yes.
21	MR. EGLET: Have any children?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: No.
23	MR. EGLET: Okay. What are your five year goals?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: To own a house; not here,

To go back to college. That's about it right somewhere else.

24

25

1 now.

MR. EGLET: What do you want to study?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: I was thinking about education, but I didn't do very well with that. So I was looking to try possibly psychology or business.

MR. EGLET: What did you want to be when you were in high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Oh my goodness. A firefighter, police officer, astronaut. Of course none of those worked out.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What are the two most important values that you hold dear and that you try to impart upon your children?

prospective juror No. 293: Loyalty is a big thing with me, standing by the people you care about. And also independence, being independent.

MR. EGLET: Are there situations that you think you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Mostly at work. Since I've had the experience, a lot of the new -- the people who work with me haven't had the experience, so they look to me to help them because I've been in it before.

MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: First one would be cancer research because my grandmother died from cancer and my mother had breast cancer. And the second one would be to the ASPCA.

AVTranz

MR. EGLET: Okay, thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: Worst tragedy you've ever had to experience.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: The -- my grandmother passing away when I was in my teens.

MR. EGLET: When you hear someone's been injured, hurt, killed, becomes sick, do you ever think to yourself that probably happened to them because of something they did earlier in their life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Some people believe that people who are injured or killed, that it's destiny, God's will, fate. So even if it was someone else's fault they shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: No.

MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: It's a tossup. One was Gandhi for the work that he's done. He's a very -- no matter what happened to him, he was very thankful person, a very charitable person. And he never let adversity make him bitter; he always kept a very good outlook.

MR. EGLET: You said there was more than one?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Well, I was tossing it around

```
1 and the other one was Buddha.
2
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: I like his -- mostly the same way with Gandhi, because of the fact that he's a very tolerant 4
3
     -- he teaches tolerance. He teaches peace, respect, and 5 that's something I like.
6
7
          MR. EGLET:
                       Thank you very much.
8
               Ms. Manful.
9
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963:
                                       Yes.
10
          MR. EGLET: How are you?
11
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Very good.
          MR. EGLET: Good. I see that you are -- you work at 12 13
     Wegastitch [sic]?
14
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Webgistix.
15
          MR. EGLET: Webgistix.
16
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963:
                                       Yeah.
17
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
18
                                       I know it's a strange name.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963:
          MR. EGLET: Well, they didn't spell it right for me.
19 20
     It's okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: I didn't spell it right?
21
22 Whoops.
23
                      No, they didn't spell it right, not you.
          MR. EGLET:
```

AVTranz

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963:

Not you.

MR. EGLET:

24

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

14

15

16

17

18 20

23

25

2	MR. EGLET: This is a summary. So they just didn't spell
3	it right. So Webgistix?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Yes.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963:

MR. EGLET: And you are a pack and shipper. It's a packing shipping company?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Right, right. We pack and ship orders for about 100 different companies that sell their products online.

It's Webgistix.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: So it's all internet orders.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And so do you work on a computer, or on --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: I'm physically packing orders --

MR. EGLET: Oh, you're physically doing --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: -- all day long?

MR. EGLET: Are you?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Uh-huh

MR. EGLET: Okay. How long you been doing that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: I've been there a little over a year.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you do before that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Well, I was unemployed for a year and worked -- then before that I worked four years in the

1	gaming industry manufacturing parts for slot machines.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. What makes you good at your job?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Think probably well, I
4	work fast and I'm organized.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. What'd you want to be when you were in
6	high school?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: An accountant.
8	MR. EGLET: An accountant?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: That's what my father did.
LO	MR. EGLET: Okay. And why did you decide not to go into
Ll	that field?
۱2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Well, I ran out of money
13	halfway through school, so had to get a job. And ended up
14	taking a job as a bookkeeper and decided I didn't like it. I
L5	couldn't stand being in an office all day. So
۱6	MR. EGLET: Didn't like the number crunching.
L 7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Yeah.
8.	MR. EGLET: Okay.
L 9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: So
20	MR. EGLET: What are your five year goals?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: To retire.
22	MR. EGLET: To retire. Good goal. All right. Any clubs
23	or organizations you belong to?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Not currently. I was in the
25	Girl Scouts when I was younger and was in the military for

1	three years.
2	MR. EGLET: What branch of the military were you in?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Army.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. And when was that?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: That was back in the early
6	80s.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what are the two most important
8	values that you hold dear?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Respect for others and
10	compassion for others.
11	MR. EGLET: Tell me what you mean by compassion.
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: You know, just caring about,
13	you know, what they're feeling, going through or whatever.
14	MR. EGLET: Is there situations where you think you're
15	regarded as a leader?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Maybe at work. Most of the 17	people that are packing on the line are fairly new.
18	MR. EGLET: Uh-huh.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: And so I'm familiar with, you
20	know, how the customers want things packed, what packing
21	materials to use. So I help other people with, you know,
22	deciding how to pack things.
23	MR. EGLET: Sure. Okay. If someone offers to send money
24	to the charity of your choice, what would you pick?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: That would be Special Olympics.

1

2

3

4

5

6

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

And why Special Olympics? MR. EGLET:

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Because my mom worked with developmentally disabled for years and I got to know a lot of her clients. And I believe in athletics and I like being athletic, and it's good for them.

What's the worst tragedy you've had to MR. EGLET: experience in your life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Watching both my parents die of cancer.

MR. EGLET: How old were you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Oh, I was 23 when my father died, and then my mom died about 5 years ago.

When you hear someone has been hurt, MR. EGLET: Okay. killed or become sick, do you ever think to yourself that well, that probably happened because of something they did earlier in their life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Some people think that when someone is injured or killed by the negligence of someone else that the reason that happened to them was fate, God's will, destiny, so that they shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: No, I disagree.

Who's the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Jimmy Carter.

1	MR. EGLET: Tell us why President Carter.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Well, because of his work
3	with Habitat for Humanity and he believes in giving back to
4	humanity. I just like him because of [indiscernible].
5	MR. EGLET: Thank you very much.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Thank you.
7	THE COURT: It's come to my attention, Mr. Eglet, that
8	one or more of the jurors may need a break. Let's take a 10-
9	minute break.
10	MR. EGLET: I was wondering. That's fine.
11	[Recess]
12	THE MARSHAL: Please remain seated.
. 13	THE COURT: Okay, we're back in session. Mr. Eglet.
14	MR. EGLET: Thank you, Your Honor.
15	Ms. Meza.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Yes.
17	MR. EGLET: Good afternoon.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Good afternoon.
19	MR. EGLET: Ms. Meza, you used to work for Dr. Desai.
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Yes.
21	MR. EGLET: Are you aware that I am the lead trial
22	counsel for all the plaintiff's firms who are suing him?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I know he's being sued. I

How long did you work -- didn't know you were [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET:

24

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: In the 90s.
2	MR. EGLET: Everybody here know who Dr. Desai is, the
3	Hepatitis C [indiscernible] cases?
4	VOICES: Oh.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. When did you work for him?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Like in the 90s.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you do there?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Some light back office, front
9	office.
10	MR. EGLET: All right. Now you're aware that I've sued
11	nurses, doctors, Dr. Desai, the drug companies, clinics. Are
12	you aware of that?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I didn't know you sued him
16	[indiscernible], but I'm aware he's being sued, yes.
17	MR. EGLET: Right. Are you friends with anybody who
18	works there who was defendant in any
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
20	MR. EGLET: in any of these cases?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
22	MR. EGLET: Any of the nurse anesthetists or physicians,
23	Dr. Desai himself?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No, no.
25	MR. EGLET: Do you have any friends who were working at the clinics at the time they were shut down?

.0

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.

MR. EGLET: So it's been some time since you worked there?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Yes.

MR. EGLET: The fact that my firm and I are lead counsel in those cases, would that have any effect on your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. You wouldn't hold that against us or anything?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. You also indicate -- I'm not sure if it was you or a family member who worked for an insurance company?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I worked for Health Plan of Nevada and Sierra Health --

MR. EGLET: What did you do for them?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I worked in member service giving out medical benefits. And then I worked for Southwest Medical and I worked in patient accounts.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us what makes you good at your job? I know now you're work -- you're in the -- you're with Bally's now; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Uh-huh.

2 PROSPECTIVE JU
3 MR. EGLET: Ok

1

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: What do you do at Bally's?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: PBX.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What makes you good at your job?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I've been there 11 years, so experience. I'm fast, I speak another language, and I listen to the -- what they need and get them there as fast as I can.

MR. EGLET: And do you have children?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Yes.

MR. EGLET: And what makes you a good parent?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Discipline and love.

MR. EGLET: And what did you want to be when you were in high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I wanted to be a psychologist and/or a lawyer.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And why did you decide not to pursue either one of those careers?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Because I'm kind of shy and I don't think I could stand in front of people and, you know, prosecute.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: And I think I'm too emotional to handle listening to --

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: -- problems on a day-to-day basis. I think it would affect me eventually.

The vast overwhelming percentage of lawyers don't spend any time in the courtroom.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Oh.

Sure.

MR. EGLET:

MR. EGLET: So -- can you tell me what your five year goals are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Well, I just started trying to go back to school. I just got a FASFA grant to go back to school. I want to be a sociologist. And own a home, raise my daughter.

MR. EGLET: Do you belong to any clubs or organizations? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.

MR. EGLET: And what are the two most important values that you hold and want to teach your daughter?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: Humility and respect.

MR. EGLET: And in what situations, if any, do you think you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I like change for the good, you know, change. And I try to view everyone's perspective in light of the way they feel and then try to make things better.

MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send money to a charity of your choice, what charity?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I think for like abused and neglected children.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Why that charity?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: I just feel really, you know,

1	bad for that, for children that get abused. They don't really
2	have a voice or, you know. Now that I'm a mother, you know, I
3	just feel sad.
4	MR. EGLET: What's the worst tragedy you've ever had to
5	experience?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: The death of my father.
7	MR. EGLET: How old were you?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: About 37.
9	MR. EGLET: When you hear that someone's been injured,
10	killed or become sick, do you ever think to yourself that that
11	may have happened to them because of something they did
12	earlier in life?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
14	MR. EGLET: Some people feel that when people are
15	injured, killed by the fault or negligence of someone else
16	that they shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it's destiny,
17	God's will or fate; it would have happened anyway. Do you
18	agree with that?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
20	MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: It was a tossup between Oprah
22	and Jesus. I'm going to have to say Jesus.
23	MR. EGLET: Okay. Not so bad, was it?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 983: No.
25	MR. EGLET: All right. Mr. Bombino.

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes, sir.
2	MR. EGLET: How are you this afternoon?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I'm fine.
4	MR. EGLET: Good. Mr. Bombino, you are a teacher
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes.
6	MR. EGLET: as well, Clark County School District.
7	What grade do you teach?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Mainly seniors. I have
9	juniors and [indiscernible].
10	MR. EGLET: You teach high school?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes, I do.
12	MR. EGLET: Wow. That's challenging; right?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Very enjoyable.
14	MR. EGLET: Yeah?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Very enjoyable.
16	MR. EGLET: What school do you teach at?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: At Clark High School. I'm
18	MR. EGLET: Clark.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: [Indiscernible] be a magnet
20	school in [indiscernible] class. We're a math and science
21	magnet.
22	MR. EGLET: Oh, Clark is now?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Clark.
24	MR. EGLET: I didn't realize
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Well, actually we have been

1	for a long time.
2	MR. EGLET: Really?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes.
4	MR. EGLET: I didn't realize that. I went to Western.
5	Clark was our big rival.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Oh sure. They still are.
7	MR. EGLET: They didn't have yeah. We didn't have any
8	high school like they do now. I don't know what most of them
9	are, but Clark was our big rival. That's when Western and
10	Clark were the farthest west out schools. Okay. So tell us
11	what makes you good at your job?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: You have to like kids.
13	That's kind of a very important prerequisite. I think that's 14	one of the qualities I have, plus compassion. They have to
15	know you care.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay. And you don't have children?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No, I do not.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what did you want to be in high
19	school? Did you want to be a teacher?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Lawyer.
21	MR. EGLET: Lawyer. Why did you decide to go into
22	teaching?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I wasn't sure my GPA was good
24	enough to be a lawyer, to go to law school. And that was one
25	concern. The other one was I was mainly going to be a lawyor to	be	a	politician.	I	 politicians	have	а	lot	of	ability	to 2 help people. I wanted to do that. But I got away from that

3 because political work is lawyers in and then play for a

4 while. So if you're in office, fine, you're working. But if you're not, you're not working. The in -- unstability of the 6 job got me away from that.

1

5

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: Plus you have to campaign.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: That too.

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Or work for a campaign. One or the other.

MR. EGLET: Right, right. Interesting. Can you tell us what your five year goals are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I'm towards the end of my career. So as far as my career goes, there really isn't -- I mean I feel that I have the job I've kind of always wanted. So that's not. But I have a very sick mother in Seattle and I'd like to be able to help with her more than I have been doing.

MR. EGLET: Now I know you're born in Spokane.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes.

MR. EGLET: All right. Did your -- do your family live in Seattle, or just your mom?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Actually they lived in Spokane, my entire family. And I went to school in Seattle at

Beck University of Washington.	We eventually moved to Seattle to be with my brother

2 to be with my brother.

1

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

14

15

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: No Husky tie?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No Husky tie.

MR. EGLET: You know cougars eat husky.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Oh, I know.

MR. EGLET: My brother was a UW graduate, so it's okay.

Interfamily rivalry. And so you have fam- -- you're from Washington, you have family --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes

MR. EGLET: -- all over Washington?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yeah. Most of my family's all in Washington or northern Idaho.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And are you a [indiscernible] fan?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Oh, of course. My older

16 brother graduated from there. So did my father actually.

MR. EGLET: Oh, you're gaining points with me. So clubs or organizations?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I belong to the AAA Automobile Club, if you call that a club. You know, I belong to that. I used to belong to some math teacher organizations but I don't anymore.

MR. EGLET: And the two most important values that you would -- that you think are most important to you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Tolerance and compassion.

ΛVTranz

MR. EGLET: Tell me about compassion. What do you mean?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: That kind of ties into well, tolerance. They both kind of tie in because, you know, we're unfortunately, people on political shows, they argue too much and they scream at one another. And instead of actually listening to one another and seeing if they can gain some insight, all they do is yell. And so tolerance goes to tolerate other viewpoints and the compassion goes little along with that too. Even though you don't agree with somebody you have to care and hear them out.

MR. EGLET: Do you watch those political shows on TV?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I used to. I don't watch very many of them anymore because all they do is yell at one another.

MR. EGLET: Right. Okay. And situations you're regarded as a leader, did I ask you that already?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No. Mainly every day I step in front of the classroom.

MR. EGLET: What about outside the classroom?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I'm not a leader --

MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send charity of your --to the charity of your choice?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: AmeriCares.

1	MR. EGLET: Bear Cares?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: AmeriCares?
3	MR. EGLET: AmeriCares?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yeah, A-M-E-R-I, AmeriCares.
5	The reason why is the older President Bush was on the board
6	there, and so was Barbara Bush. I admire them and so I
7	figured it probably is good charity. And they do a lot of
8	worldwide [indiscernible].
9	MR. EGLET: And the worst tragedy you've ever had to
10	experience?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: My dad died about oh,
12	about eight years ago of cancer.
13	MR. EGLET: If you hear someone has been injured, killed
14	or become sick do you think that that may be because of
15	something they did earlier in their life?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No, even though I use the
17	phrase what goes around comes around
18	MR. EGLET: Some folks feel that if you're injured or
19	killed as a result of the negligence of someone else that you
20	shouldn't sue because it's it was God's fate, God's will,
21	fate, destiny; it would have happened anyway. Do you agree
22	with that?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: No.
24	MR. EGLET: And the public figure you admire most?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Kind of a tie between former

1	President Clinton and former and the older President Bush,
2	because they've kind of come together
3	MR. EGLET: They've worked together a lot
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes.
5	MR. EGLET: since they were
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: They've done a lot of good
7	work.
8	MR. EGLET: Yeah.
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: And former President Clinton
10	came from humble beginnings. He was [indiscernible].
11	MR. EGLET: I'm sure they're going to be working on the 12	tragedy that [indiscernible] experienced last Friday in Japan.
13	Thank you.
14	All right. Ms. Ellis, how are you?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: [Indiscernible].
16	MR. EGLET: Okay. You are a teacher too. Can you tell
17	us what grade you teach?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I'm a literacy specialist and
19	I have an intervention grade, K through 5, one. I do the
20	whole gamut.
21	MR. EGLET: And how long have you been teaching?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Twenty years.
23	MR. EGLET: What makes you a good teacher?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I think my commitment. I was
25	there this morning finishing testing, so just my commitment to

1	it.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. And you don't have children?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No. Well, I have 40 every
4	day.
5	MR. EGLET: Understand. All right. Now you have some
6	postgraduate work. You have a master's degree?
7.	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No.
8	MR. EGLET: Working on your master's?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Trying.
10	MR. EGLET: Trying, okay. And it's a master's in 11	education or
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I think I'm going to go for
13	early childhood.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay. What'd you want to be in high school,
15	a teacher?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Teacher.
17	MR. EGLET: Teacher. You're living your dream?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Uh-huh.
19	MR. EGLET: What are your five year goals?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: To get my master's and sell
21	my house.
22	MR. EGLET: Okay. Any clubs or organizations you belong
23	to?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No.
25	MR. EGLET: Ever?

б

PROSPECTIVE	JUROR	NO.	017:	T.	was	а	Brownie.

MR. EGLET: You were a Brownie.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I did student council all through middle school and high school.

MR. EGLET: The two most important values that you -PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I think respect and patience.

It's something that I try to instill every day in my students.

They have a really hard time with respect and having patience with other people and respecting other people, and we talk about it all the time. It's okay not to like someone, but it's not okay not to be -- not to respect them. And they're very quick to -- I don't know how to say it, like jump on somebody for, you know, listening or -- they react really quick before. So it's something I try to instill in myself too, be patient and -- don't have to like everybody, but you do have to be respectful. So --

MR. EGLET: Sure. Situations you think you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I, you know, I heard someone else say it, but I kind of get put in positions at school, like on the leadership team and I'm the head of the response to instruction team. So that's pretty much it. Now outside of school I'm not.

MR. EGLET: Okay. The worst -- strike that. The -- if someone offers to send money to the -- your charity of your

L	choice,	what	charity	would	that	be?
)	ימם	ጎፍይፑሮባ	סווד. שעדי	חוא מר	017.	т.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I think Alzheimer's research.

MR. EGLET: Tell me about why.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Well, my grandfather died three years ago and I thought he'd live forever too. And they -- he was almost 91, so -- but we're not quite sure if it was dementia or Alzheimer's. It was kind of a fine line. But I think as my more and more people get older, that's where it's going. So I just want to learn more about it and have the research for it.

MR. EGLET: Horrible disease.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yes, very.

MR. EGLET: My mother suffers from it, so --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yeah. There's no rhyme or reason and everybody's different, you know, with -- that has it, so --

MR. EGLET: The worst tragedy you've ever had to experience?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Losing my grandfather.

MR. EGLET: And when you hear someone is injured, killed or has become sick do you ever think to yourself that that probably happened because of something bad they did earlier in life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No.

MR. EGLET: Some people feel that if someone is hurt or 6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

21

25

MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure that you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I've really been struggling with that because I don't really have a [indiscernible]. I would probably say, you know, maybe Martin Luther King, Jr. or Ruby Bridges, you know, I've done a lot of that, studying with my children. So I think that's probably -- just, you know -
MR. EGLET: Civil rights movement.

. _ . . .

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Exactly.

MR. EGLET: Have you been to the Civil Rights Museum in Memphis?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: No, I haven't.

MR. EGLET: You should go.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: Yeah.

18 MR. EGLET: It's incredible. Impressive. Thank you very 19 much.

Going to try. Ms. Zwelfell [phonetic].

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Sweevil [phonetic].

MR. EGLET: Sweevil [phonetic]. Ms. Zweifel, how are you today?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Good. How are you today?

MR. EGLET: Good. How are you? Ms. Zweifel, you're

ΛVTranz

8 MR. EGI
9 disabled?
10 PROSPEC

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

11 12

14

16

17

18 19

21

22

23

24

25 currently disabled; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Correct.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what is your disability?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I have arthritis in my back [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: Okay. How long have you been disabled?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: About four years now.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you do before you were disabled?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I was an escrow officer.

MR. EGLET: And what made you good at your job?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Attention to detail, organizational skills, and a people person.

MR. EGLET: And do you have children?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I do.

MR. EGLET: And what makes you a good parent?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Love and it's -- the ability to instill in them the desire to learn. They -- both my children went to college and they graduated, so 20 [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: What did you want to be when you were in high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I wanted to go in the military.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And did you ever do that?

1	1	5
---	---	---

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I did. I was in the United
2	States Navy.
3	MR. EGLET: For how long were you in the Navy?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Two years.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: And then I got married and
7	had kids.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay, very good. What are your five year
9	goals right now?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Right now it's to keep a hold
11	of my house and get in better financial situation.
12	MR. EGLET: That's the goal of a lot of people right now.
13	Do you belong to any clubs or organizations?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I used to, an escrow
15	association [indiscernible].
16	MR. EGLET: And what do you hold as the two most 17	important values to yourself and that you want to impart to
18	your children?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Respect and a desire to 20	learn.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. Any situations that you think you're
22	regarded as a leader?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Not really. I was when I was
24	working because [indiscernible], but I away from work, no.
25	MR. EGLET: The charity that you would want money sent to?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Muscular Dystrophy Association.
MR. EGLET: And why is that?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: I had an uncle who had [indiscernible]
MR. EGLET: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: form of muscular dystrophy.
MR. EGLET: The worst tragedy you've ever had to experience?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: My parents' divorce when I was 20.
MR. EGLET: And when you hear someone has been injured or killed or become sick do you ever think to yourself that well, that probably happened because something bad they did or
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: No.
MR. EGLET: Okay. Some people think that when a person is injured or killed that it was destiny, God's will, fate.
So even if it was caused by someone else's negligence, they shouldn't bring a lawsuit. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Abraham Lincoln.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002:

MR. EGLET:

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: And why President Lincoln?

Who's the public figure you admire most?

1	PROSPECTIVE	JUROR	NO.	002:	Because	he	freed	the	slaves.
2	MR. EGLET:	Okay.	Ms.	Dear	ing.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Hi.

MR. EGLET: What's your public figure?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Sorry about that. I like John F. Kennedy.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Why JFK?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Young, handsome. He was raising young children and had a beautiful, intelligent wife. And he was liked, you know, by a lot of people, but of course

MR. EGLET: Okay. You were the only one left.

Okay. Now I told you that there -- we'd go with this round of individual questioning, but now what we're going to do is we're going to start in to this kind of group discussion I talked about. We're going to jump all around to different people and we're going to talk about different subjects.

The first thing I want to do is I want to give you a hypothetical. Give you the following hypothetical: that you are out in the hallway, one of your fellow juror members comes up to you and says to you, "My knee is just killing me today. I'm just having so much pain in my knee." Somebody you've never met before, they're just here in this jury panel. Would you have any reason to disbelieve what they just said to you?

1	Mr. Dotty Doty.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No, obviously unless there's
3	[indiscernible].
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. But you wouldn't have any reason to
5	disbelieve.
6	Ms. Schmidt.
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: No.
8	MR. EGLET: No? Ms. Kistler?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: No, I would have I'd
10	believe them.
11	MR. EGLET: Okay. Anybody here would anybody here
12	have a reason to doubt what that person is saying to them?
1 3	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. They're just
14	walking up to you? They
1 5	MR. EGLET: Yeah, they're just one of your fellow juror
16	panels and
17	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Who you've had
18	MR. EGLET: you're having a conversation
19	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You've talked to them
20	before, or they just
21	MR. EGLET: You're just having a conversation with them.
22	They just say that to you. Would you have any reason to
23	disbelieve them?
24	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would believe them.
25	MR. EGLET: Okay. Anybody think they might disbelieve

1	them? All right, let me change the hypothet yes,
2	Ms. Dearing.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Well, I thought if they were
4	in a lot, a lot a pain, wouldn't they have a reaction or like
5	they couldn't move or they couldn't sit? I mean wouldn't they
6	look like it?
7	MR. EGLET: So you would think well
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Look at their actions.
9	MR. EGLET: you'd want to look at them to see if they
10	look like their knee was hurting or not?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 841: Right.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. One, all right. Anybody else with 13	comment on that?
14	Ms. Frye, do you agree with that?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah.
16	MR. EGLET: No?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I would believe them.
18	MR. EGLET: You would believe them, okay.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Why would they come over to 20	me and lie if they don't know me?
21	MR. EGLET: All right.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Sir.
23	MR. EGLET: Yes. Mr. Bombino.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I have arthritis in my right
25	knee. And you really can't tell if I'm in a lot of pain or not.

MR. EGLET: Sure.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Because it doesn't affect my walking that much.

MR. EGLET: Okay. So you would have no reason to disbelieve?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Oh no, not at all.

MR. EGLET: All right, let me change the hypothetical. I want you to -- this is the hypothetical now. You're on a jury and a witness takes the stand, is put under oath to tell the truth, sworn to tell the truth, subject to criminal perjury -- penalties for perjury if they don't tell the truth. And they tell you my knee is in a lot of pain today. Would you have any reason to doubt them or disbelieve them?

Mr. Doty?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Wouldn't have any reason, but, I don't know, just my -- I don't know, I wouldn't say tainted, but I guess maybe with -- maybe the movie industry kind of makes it, you know, they've kind of put a bad, least in my mind, kind of a bad light sometimes of, you know, I don't know what they're referring to, you know, like always talk about oh, it's okay, little white lie, this, that or that other. So in that isolated instance, maybe. I mean obviously there's more factors. You would visit it more than just a stated instance. I would need to hear more, explain further why, and --

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: -- but just the mere fact --

MR. EGLET: You would want to know more information. You would be more skeptical than you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Right

MR. EGLET: -- you would be just the person out in the hall.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I guess in that setting, I tend to be -- I don't trust the trust -- the integrity of people in general.

MR. EGLET: All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: In those situations.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Nolte, how do you feel about that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I agree with him.

MR. EGLET: Why is that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Well, I think just there's a big difference between sitting out in the hallway talking to somebody, just having a casual conversation, rather than listening to somebody on the stand. I think you'd have to have more information of the background and what have you, and what's going on with that person.

MR. EGLET: What's the difference do you think?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Even though I don't know them, the difference is that it's a lawsuit.

```
MR. EGLET: Okay. So --
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: You know, these --

MR. EGLET: -- what are you -- you're saying about the person on the stand is different than the person out in the hall?

prospective juror No. 903: The -- well, we're here in court and there's got to be a reason for behind it. I wouldn't have listened to the reason as to what's going on with his pain and how it occurred and what have you. I, at first, I wouldn't have any reasons to disbelieve him, but I would have to listen to all of the information that was put -- presented in front of us.

MR. EGLET: Is the word you're searching for is motive, what is their motive behind saying that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Yeah, I guess, yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Who just said yeah?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I did. You didn't ask -- prospective juror no. 864: You didn't ask us if he just walked up there and said my knee's hurting. It may have been why it took him so long to go from the gallery to the witness box. You never gave us a reason why he might say that. Was he asked a question or did he just say, you know, I'm sorry, my knee hurt. It took too long to get up there. So I would

MR. EGLET: Ms. Kistler?

1	want to know more of the situation on why he was saying his
2	knee hurt.
3	MR. EGLET: Well, let's assume it's like Mr. Bombino
4	said. Let's assume that you can't, by the way they're moving
5	or anything, actually physically see or judge as to whether
6	they're in this pain. It's totally
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Why did he say his knee hurt?
8	MR. EGLET: It's totally subjective in their mind. And
9	then they were asked a question about how they're feeling and
10	they say "Well, my knee's really hurting today."
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Then I would have no problem
12	believing him.
13	MR. EGLET: Okay. You would have no even though they
14	may have a motive?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: How you feeling today? Well,
16	my knee hurts.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: My back hurts.
19	MR. EGLET: Right.
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: It's conversation. It's not,
21	you know, does your knee still hurt because of blah, blah,
22	blah, blah? Yes. Well, then I might doubt what he has to
23	say. But just
24	MR. EGLET: Why would you doubt that?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Probably because depending on what side of the aisle he's on, I would want more proof that his knee would actually be hurting. You know what I mean?

MR. EGLET: And when you mean what side of the aisle, what do you mean by that, whether he's the plaintiff or the defendant?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Correct.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And let's assume it's the plaintiff, person who's injured.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Then I would probably hold judgment until I heard more about the case.

MR. EGLET: Would you have a tendency to be -- to tend to disbelieve that person right off the bat, or -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: No, I wouldn't have -- I wouldn't disbelieve him right off the bat, no.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I'm not a doctor. I can -- I can say my back hurts. Who's going to -- no one has x-ray eyes. They're not Superman. They can't see, see why my back hurts. So I would believe him unless something came up to show that there's no way his knee could have been hurting.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Frye, you're nodding your head.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Oh, I'm not --

MR. EGLET: And I don't know if that's just a nervous habit here, or --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: No.

ΛVTranz

1	MR. EGLET: if you're agreeing or disagreeing, or
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I'm agreeing with a lot. I
3	would want to see more proof.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. You'd want to see more proof than just
5	them saying that?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Uh-huh.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. And why is that?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: For the same reason. They
9	could just be going up there and saying it, probably hurt at
10	one time, for the whole reason they're having a lawsuit.
11	MR. EGLET: Okay.
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: But if they're suffering
13	every day, I want to see proof.
14	MR. EGLET: And what do you mean you want to see proof?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I want to see doctor's
16	reports.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay. So other corroborating evidence?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Uh-huh.
19	MR. EGLET: Somebody else saying it. You want to hear
20	that?
21	Ms. Bell, you raised your hand.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROP NO. 963. I was going to say comething about that, along the lines that yesterday when I went home to sitting in one particular position, it was a little -- I after sitting in this chair for five hours and not being used

23

24

1	had a little discomfort myself. Would I, you know, after
2	just walk up to somebody to tell them that? Would I expect
3	somebody to believe me? Yeah, I would.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. See the problem, these chairs are like
5	perfectly ergonomically designed.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 863: Okay.
7	MR. EGLET: And very, very expensive. The County spent a
8	lot of money on these chairs.
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 863: They spared no expense.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Smith.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I think that the majority of 12	us live in some kind of pain every day, just little pains.
13	Maybe your hands hurt; like I have a neck thing, I slept
14	wrong. I wouldn't come up to somebody and say I think I
15	did somebody and say "Oh, I slept wrong." But it has
16	MR. EGLET: You didn't?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I think I did today, yeah.
18	MR. EGLET: Oh, it was Mr. Bombino.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah, yeah. I just wanted a
20	little rub. No, and for it has to be like a significant
21	pain to come up and say something, you know, that oh, my knee
22	hurts today.
23	MR. EGLET: Right.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: It has to be like a
25	significant pain. I think that generally people don't just

```
4
5
6
7
8 9
```

1.5

give their little ailments, you know, oh, my fingernail kind of hurts --

MR. EGLET: Sure.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: -- a little.

MR. EGLET: You were talking about the first hypothetical now. I'm really kind of focused on the second hypothetical, which is the witness or party on the stand saying this. And, you know, let's assume it's something you can't see as a, you know, somebody who's not medically trained, can't see it, observe it, but they're telling you this. Are you going to have a -- do you think that you would have a tendency right off the bat to initially just not believe them, or do you think you would maybe believe them?

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You said a witness?

MR. EGLET: Well, a party, party.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because they're not supposed to talk to the -- to jurors; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: No, they're under oath.

MR. EGLET: Well, this is while they're testifying.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, I see.

MR. EGLET: The second part of the hypothetical is they're actually put on the stand. They'll be sitting up there in the witness box. That's where the witnesses are going to sit.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Uh-huh.

000

R. EGLET: They're put under oath, sworn to tell the 2 truth, and they're testifying under oath. And so my question is that hypothetical, what's your thought? Do you think you

4 | would --

1

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

21

23

25

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would question it.

MR. EGLET: -- tend to believe them initially, or do you think you would be skeptical and question what they're --

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'd be a little skeptical.

MR. EGLET: Why is that?

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, maybe I'm not understanding.

MR. EGLET: No, no. You're --

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You're saying that --

MR. EGLET: I'm sure you're understanding. I just --

16 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- they're the witness

17 | -

18 MR. EGLET: Right.

19 UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: -- and I'm a juror.

20 MR. EGLET: You're a juror.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And we're not supposed

22 | to talk; right?

MR. EGLET: Well, you're not supposed to talk outside the 24 | courtroom.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They're testifying.

```
000883
```

1	They're
2	MR. EGLET: They're testifying.
3	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.
4	MR. EGLET: You're listening to them testify.
5	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.
6	MR. EGLET: And they say during their testimony
7	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, during their
8	okay, I thought we were out having a snack and they came up to
9	me. I'm like no, I don't believe them.
10	MR. EGLET: If that happens
11	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [Indiscernible]
12	MR. EGLET: If that happens, we want to know about it.
13	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay? So we don't think that's going to 15	happen and we've only seen that happen a couple of times in 16	24 years of practice and hundreds of jury trials. So but
17	if that happens, please notify the bailiff. Okay?
18	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, you would need
19	proof, yeah.
20	MR. EGLET: Right. So my
21	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Medical proof.
22	MR. EGLET: question is under those circumstances, are
23	you going to do you think you'd tend to just well, I just
24	I don't believe them at this point, I'm going to have to
25	have more proof. Or you initially say would your initial

1	thought, well, I'm going to believe him until somebody shows
2	me proof that it's not true.
3	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.
4	MR. EGLET: Which would you be more inclined to be?
5	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I would need proof, more
6	I mean
7	MR. EGLET: Before you believed him, or do you
8	understand? Do you understand
9	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, I do understand.
10	Yeah, because if it's a if somebody's getting sued, you'd
11	have to show proof of I had back surgery and sometimes it
12	hurts me, sometimes it doesn't. So
13	MR. EGLET: Right. And that's something only you know;
14	right?
1 5	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.
16	MR. EGLET: Ms. Kistler, you said right when I said
17	something. What did you mean?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Well, it's like what I mean
19	is when you said would I believe him until proven otherwise.
20	And yeah, I think I think typically people are most honest.
21	I don't care if they're sitting or not, they're going to be
22	honest. But if it can be proved otherwise
23	MR. EGLET: Okay.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: then you'd have to have
25	MR. EGLET: All right. So your position is initially you're going to believe that person until there's some proof that shows that they're not being truthful?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Basic -- yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Who agrees with what Ms. Kistler just said, that that's the way that they would approach it?

Okay. Who agrees with the other side, that initially they're not going to believe that person because they think that there's this motive that we -- there could be this motive that we talked about earlier and they're going to want to hear proof from other people? Who -- raise your hand if that's the way you feel.

Okay. What -- Ms. Schmidt, what does that mean?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Well, I might believe him, but it's going to be with a grain of salt. Because if, you know, this entire trial is now focused, you know, on somebody's pain. If you think about your pain you're going to hurt more. You know, so I would probably be taking it with a grain of salt. If someone comes up to me and says "Oh, your back must be hurting terribly today," I have a tendency to go, you know, it is, you know, but I hadn't really noticed it.
And I think about it, it actually becomes more painful.

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: So I would be taking that sort of grain of salt, but it wouldn't be that I thought he was lying	ı. I	would	i just	think	that	maybe	his	attention	was brought t	o it	and t	herefo	ore th	e pair	1 was	magn:	ified.

MR. EGLET: Who just raised their hand again in the second scenario? Raise your hand. Who just -- okay.

Ms. Frye, tell me why you feel that way.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Well, I see my husband every day after our accident -- after his accident; I wasn't in the accident. And he wakes up every day in pain. And he's going to the doctor, he's doing everything he can to fix his pain. However, I don't expect that if he ever ended up going to court that someone would just believe him, because he can still walk, he can still do everything he was doing before. He's doing it with pain. I would expect that he has to show proof and that he is going to the doctors and he's getting proof. And --

MR. EGLET: Do you believe him?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Oh, I do believe him. I saw him after the accident. I totally believe him.

MR. EGLET: Mr. Bombino, you raised your hand.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Yes. I think that just because I would try and approach the trial in very analytical things. Whether -- if I heard somebody say well, my back hurts and I was involved in the case, I want to see proof.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Whether I -- my first

C)
C)
C)
C	X)
C	χ)
_

1	impression of that person is that I would believe them or not,
2	if it's a good first impression I kind of want to believe
3	them. But if I don't see proof, I'm going to approach it in
4	that fashion and
5	MR. EGLET: What do you see what do you mean by see
6	proof?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: See a doctor testify, see x-
8	rays, something like that.
9	MR. EGLET: Okay.
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Some sort of, you know,
11	something on the x-ray.
12	MR. EGLET: Sort of doctor
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Something that the doctor
14	read on the x-rays that caused pain.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay. Would it are you saying it would 16	have to be an x-ray, or just the doctor saying this they're
17	in pain, this is why?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Probably more than one
19	doctor.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: You know, probably more than 22	the one.
23	MR. EGLET: Why's that?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Because I guess I want the 25	most proof possible. If I'm going to approach it in an analytical fashion I want to be convinced. If I'm going to -if I'm not convinced then, you know, I'm not going to believe that person whether I think they're right or not.

MR. EGLET: What do you mean by convinced?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Probably if I had a couple doctors testify why they're in pain and some sort of x-ray or something like that that --

MR. EGLET: But when you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: -- that they read and that caused the pain --

MR. EGLET: When you say convinced, I mean can you give me a percentage? Like you have to be like 99 percent sure or is it something less than that? I mean explain what you mean by I have to be convinced.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: Hundred percent sure.

MR. EGLET: Hundred percent. So in order to believe that person, either -- you'd have to be 100 percent convinced?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: I believe that's how, yeah, I would approach the trial.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 992: [Indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: All right. Back to the second scenario where I asked people to raise their hands and -- who said that they would initially be skeptical and not necessarily believe the person who would want to see proof from other sources that they were actually having problems. Who else raised their hand that I haven't talked with about that?

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Me.

MR. EGLET: I talked to you. Anyone else? Are you just being shy or is everybody [indiscernible]? Okay.

All right. In this case, like a lot of cases like this, there are going to be witnesses who testify who are compensated for their time. Both sides are going to have witnesses. They're going to have primarily medical doctors, but there's a couple other type of witnesses too who are compensated for their time, as opposed to just what we call lay witnesses or parties who -- I think they get a witness fee that's less than what you guys get paid every day to sit. So there -- these witnesses are often referred to as expert witnesses, whether it's a medical doctor or an economist or some sort of other type of expert.

The fact that these people are being paid for their time, not only to come and testify here in trial, but for their time for evaluating whatever portion of the case they evaluated to provide expert testimony on, is there anybody here who feels like because these particular type of witnesses are being compensated for their time -- and some of them you're going to hear are being compensated a lot of money for their time. Is that going to make any of you think you know what, I just don't believe that person because, you know, they're getting paid, you know, 5,000, $7,000 to be here and testify today. Anybody feel that way, that they're going to be skeptical of that? Okay.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know, I'm not sure.

MR. EGLET: Why is it you don't know, you're not sure?
UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because of --

MR. EGLET: What concerns you about that?

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, I have been in situations where I know that people have testified or been places that were in it for the wrong reason, dealing with my job. But then at the same time you would think that they're a expert. They're expert for a certain -- for a reason. That mean they know exactly what they're talking about and they need to be paid. So it goes both ways, I guess.

Would I take it personally if you tell me that the person's up there now telling me that someone is injured and we paid him a million dollars and that's why he's up there telling me that this person is hurt for a million dollars?

No, he just got paid. He must be good at what he do to get paid a million dollars.

MR. EGLET: No witnesses are getting paid a million dollars.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know they're not going to be a million dollars, but I'm saying they gotta be good at ĺ)

(Ξ	5
Ć	Ξ	5
Ì	ī	5
ì	ć	5
۰	-	•

1	what they're doing. You only get you only people only
2	paid
3	MR. EGLET: Otherwise we're all
4	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: well when they do
5	well.
6	MR. EGLET: in the wrong business.
7	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's how I look at it.
8	MR. EGLET: No, I understand what you're saying. I
9	understand what you're saying.
10	Yes, Ms. Kistler.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Yeah. I think when I have a
12	hard time the whole thing of compensation is because you're
13	not going to pay a doctor that's going to take that side and
14	he's not going to pay for a doctor that's going to take your
15	side. So my question would be how many people did you run
16	through before you got a doctor to say what you wanted him to 17	say.
18	MR. EGLET: Right.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: So would I be skeptical? A
20	little bit, yeah, because when my accident my doctor's the one
21	that messed me up. So yeah.
22	MR. EGLET: In your accident your what?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: The doctor's the one who
24	messed up my settlement.
25	MR. EGLET: They wanted to mess up your settlement?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: No, he messed up my
2	settlement, the doctor.
3	MR. EGLET: He messed up your settlement. Did we talk to
4	you about your injury?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: No.
6	MR. EGLET: Tell us about your injury.
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I was had my granddaughter
8	in the back seat, my new daughter-in-law in the front seat,
9	and I had a drunk driver hit me four times.
10	MR. EGLET: Four times?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Four times. She backed up,
12	hit me, backed up, hit me, backed up, hit the side of my car,
13	and then hit another car and two other cars.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: But when I turned back after
16	the first time she hit me to check on my granddaughter, I was
17	sitting like this and I hurt my back.
18	MR. EGLET: And can you tell us your what kind of back
19	injury you had?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Lower back injury.
21	MR. EGLET: And
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I went to a chiropractor for
23	almost a year.
24	MR. EGLET: And since you went to a chiropractor, did you
25	ever go to a surgeon of any kind?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: No, that -- they said the surgery wasn't that bad. I just had to keep myself aligned and upright. How is your back now? MR. EGLET: PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I live with back -- that much pain daily, not extremely -- how I can't move? No, I'm fine. I don't do the heavy lifting I used to do and [indiscernible]. How did your doctor screw up your case? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: I guess the attorney asked him the question -- because I asked him the question when I was in the office when he said "I'm releasing you, you're fine." I said, "So I'm back to where I was?" He said, "Anything can throw out your back." He said [indiscernible]. I said, "Oh great." I've been constipated since I was born. I just went to my doctor, he gave me some extra fiber pills and I'm fine. Because he wrote in there the reason my back hurt was because of being constipated, I didn't get the settlement. Okay. So in other words, your doctor didn't say that it was caused by the accident? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: The accident. MR. EGLET: Okay. And --PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: The insurance company hung onto it like a bad joke.

1

2

3

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET:

ΛVIranz

A mad dog.

2 MR. EGLET:

1

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

1.2

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: A bad joke.

Okay. All right. All right, so I can understand.

Anybody else have thoughts about these issues of expert witnesses. Mrs. Schmidt?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Oh, I feel somewhat the way she does, is, you know, of course you're going to find a doctor that agrees with your stance, but I don't think that that would necessarily make me disbelieve him. But I don't think I would make a judgment call until I heard witnesses from both sides. That's all.

MR. EGLET: Sure.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I'd want to weigh it and balance it.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I wouldn't disbelieve them though.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Bell, you raised your hand.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 953: I believe the definition of expert has to come with a classification of pay. believe that the classification of pay goes accordingly.

MR. EGLET: How much they're paid you mean?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 953: Exactly.

.24 MR. EGLET: What do you think about this, Mr. Martinez, 25 these expert witnesses?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Well, I would have to see like evidence on both sides. I don't want to make any calls without knowing, you know, what's going on on both sides.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Harrison?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah, the -- I was about to say the same thing.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Kunkel, what do you think about this?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: They're professionals and they're under oath. I would like to believe they would be telling us the truth.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Anybody feel differently than what's been talked about about these expert witnesses? Anybody have a strong opinion that, you know, I just have a hard time with these people coming in and testifying and being compensated, you know, thousands of dollars, whatever? It'll be thousands by the way. it won't be millions or hundreds of thousands or anything like that, so --

Yes. Yes, Ms. Smith.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Smith. My stepfather-in-law was -- he's passed now -- an expert witness for the Nevada Power Company. And he was paid, like they'd do travel and stuff, but he spent hours reviewing the cases and the facts.

MR. EGLET: Reviewing the records and --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Hours

MR. EGLET: -- documents, yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: And the time compared to the pay, I mean he got his travel paid for and stuff, which I guess is necessary if they're going to call in from another state.

MR. EGLET: Sure.

1

2

3

4

5

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: But the time and, you know, the copies, the faxes, everything, I think it's necessary to get an expert in the field that they're in. You have to compensate them for their time.

MR. EGLET: All right. Anybody else have any other thoughts on this issue?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Just that I think you have to listen to both sides. They're both --

MR. EGLET: Ms. Man --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: -- going to say --

MR. EGLET: I'm just going to say your name for the record. Ms. Manful; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Yes.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: They're both going to say they're right, you know. So I think you just have to listen to both sides --

24 MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: -- and decide for yourself.

ΛVIranz

1	MR. EGLET: Weigh the evidence.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Right.
3	MR. EGLET: Look at the motives
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Right.
5	MR. EGLET: from both sides. Okay.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: Because this expert's going
7	to say he's 100 percent correct, this one's going to say he's
8	100 percent correct, and they're going to have different
9	opinions.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 963: So
12	MR. EGLET: All right, good enough. Good. Who here
13	raise your hand if you believe in personal responsibility.
14	Raise your hand if you believe in that. Anyone here does not
15	believe in personal responsibility? Did you raise your hand,
16	Mr. Doty?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Uh-huh.
18	MR. EGLET: Just did it quick, huh?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Uh-huh.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Does everybody
21	everybody who believes in not only responsibility, but
22	accountability, being accountable for your actions, raise your
23	hands. Anybody disagree with that?

-- that we're going to talk about for a while.

24

25

Okay. Now I want to get into a subject now that's

And I want to hear your views on -- basically all your views on this. So raise your hand if you want to comment about what somebody else says. I may ask a few people to start that I -- is willing to start this conversation, but I want to hear whether you agree, disagree, think some other way, what you think about this.

Over the last couple of decades or so, maybe longer, we've all been hearing a lot about legal reform. And we've all been hearing about -- a lot about verdicts being too high, things like lawyers taking advantage, frivolous lawsuits. People have heard that term, frivolous lawsuits, jackpot justice, verdicts hurting business, verdicts driving insurance rates up. What does all of that -- all of that stuff, what bothers you about all of that stuff that we hear in the press or in the media, or wherever it might be, politicians, whoever's talking about it?

Ms. Schmidt, how -- I know you have some opinions about this so I'm going to start with you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yes, I do, got strong opinions about it. I think the frivolous lawsuits, the jackpot lawsuits are undermining what is probably the best justice system in the world. And it's being undermined and it's being destroyed specifically by these lawsuits.

MR. EGLET: Tell me more about why you feel that way.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Well, and it takes up court time for -- and for some of the lawsuits it's ridiculous. You can tell people have gone, you know, oh goody, it's my chance to make money. They want -- they're going after --

ΛVTranz

MR. EGLET: The lawsuit lottery.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: The lawsuit is specifically brought to court for the purpose of getting money. And if that happens, then that's taking time, money, effort away from lawsuits that possibly should be brought.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: And so -- and I think the -- I'm probably in favor of capping. I think they were trying to cap them too low in Texas, but I am in favor of capping lawsuits because I think it is -- it's become a pastime, a national pastime, let's go sue somebody.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And tell me why you feel that way.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: There's nothing personal that's happened to me. I've never -- like I said, the only lawsuit, I was on the suing side and we didn't -- definitely I feel strongly enough about it that I definitely didn't go after pain and suffering, punitive damages, because I didn't -- I feel strongly that in most cases it's not called for.

It's made lawsuits a way of life for some people. There are lawyers that that's what they do, you know, the old ambulance chaser, only now it's an internet chaser, you know. And it's amazing, you're in a -- I was in a traffic accident and I had four or five lawyers who couldn't wait to represent me, until I told them I would I absolutely refused to go after anything above medical and any court costs involved, and then they weren't interested. And so you can see where it's putting a different type of man going after the law and a different reason for going into the courtroom. I think it's undermining the system.

MR. EGLET: You just said something a moment ago I want to follow up with you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: You said pain and suffering and punitive damages. Do you think pain --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Well --

MR. EGLET: Do you think pain and suffering and punitive damages are the same thing?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: No, I do not.

MR. EGLET: What is it you think pain and suffering damages are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I think it's compensation for pain and for suffering, that you have been through the wringer, in some cases to hell and back, and so you feel like you are therefore entitled to something in recompense for that.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what is it you think punitive damages are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Definitely something -- it's like -- it's as a punishment for somebody having done something wrong.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Well, you understand clearly. You understand.

Who else feels the way Ms. Schmidt does, or similar to the way Ms. Schmidt does? Raise your hand. Okay.

Mr. Doty, tell us about how you feel?

prospective juror No. 905: I think -- well, in every industry, in everything, there's a few rotten people that ruin it for everybody. And so I believe, you know, almost everything she said, that, you know, there's a few unethical people in every, you know, business. And just happen we're talking about law, that, you know, they're driven by greed for money. So they will walk on anybody, take advantage of anybody and do anything they have to do to get that.

Obviously I totally agree there are probably a whole host of good, honest, you know, attorneys in the whole justice system that do it for, you know, altruistic reasons. They're, you know, they're idealists, they believe in the system, the fairness part of it. But because there have been people that are not like that that have kind of put a, you know, a bad taste in a lot of people's mouths or in their minds, not necessarily because we have personal experience from it but just through, you know, word of mouth or the grapevine. They

1	just	hear	sto	ries	and	so	it	just	thro	ws a	bad	light	agair	ı on
2	that	•
3	}		You	hear	the	. Sá	ame	thing	in	corp	orate	world	l. in	eve aspect, you know, law enforcement, you know, everything.

There's always a few knuckleheads that screw it up. And then so it taints everything and everybody's got to be more skeptical, which is unfortunate.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Schmidt, you said something that I want to follow up on. You said that these lawsuits are -- too many of these lawsuits are just about the money, as opposed --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I think frequently they are.

MR. EGLET: What do you --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I don't think they always are. That's not --

MR. EGLET: All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: -- my point. I just think --

MR. EGLET: But --

. 5

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: -- frequently they are.

MR. EGLET: -- the question I have for you, in a civil lawsuit, in a civil lawsuit do you understand that the only compensation or only damage that a jury can put in the verdict for the plaintiff if they decide in plaintiff's favor is money? That's the only -- I mean we can't wave a magic wand and make the person better --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Oh yeah.

MR. EGLET: -- again, we can't put them back in the position they were. Money damages is the only system we have to try to compensate or balance the harms and losses.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yes, I understand that.

MR. EGLET: Do you disagree with that?

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17.

18

19 20 21

22

23

24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: No, I do not disagree with it. I just think it's become inflated and out of control.

MR. EGLET: And is there any particular cases that you think are inflated, kind of out of control, that comes to mind, that bother you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Oh, the first one that pops into mind is the woman with the McDonald's coffee cup.

MR. EGLET: Sure, yeah. I was waiting for -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: That's the famous one.

MR. EGLET: $\operatorname{\text{\rm --}}$ that to come up.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: We all hear about that.

MR. EGLET: Always comes up.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yeah. Yeah, that -- the -- cases that you read about that have caused some of the strangest warning labels, you know, on our -- yeah, do not drive with your windshield thing in place, because somebody actually did start their car. You know, somebody -- it's, to me, it's become frivolous in a lot of cases. Not in all cases. I'm not saying that, but in quite a few cases, yeah. And I do think that greed will frequently be --

MR. EGLET: I had to put a sign on my son's dashboard that says don't back the car up before you open the garage door. Understand.

Yes, Ms. Kistler.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: But see what I don't like is everybody saying frivolous and they're taking the headlines out of the news. And they're not following up on like the lady from McDonalds, because the coffee pot that they put the coffee in malfunctioned. That was hotter than most coffees. Should she have had more diligence because she was ordering hot coffee? Yes. But without the follow-up from the news, you think this woman actually only sued because she spilt some coffee on her. That wasn't the whole case. And I just -- so since I'm not familiar with the entire case because I really didn't -- I can't comment on whether or not that was a frivolous lawsuit.

But something like the guy suing the pizza place because he didn't take the plastic before he put it in the oven or he didn't take the paper thing from underneath the thing and put it in the oven, paper burns; you put it in an oven, it's going to burn. Some things are common sense. And it burnt down his house. But sometimes it's personal responsibility, sometime it may be a malfunction. But just to write them off as saying frivolous, that's not fair. And I just disagree with your pain and suffering too, so --

1

14 15

13

17

18

16

19 20

21 22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: How do you disagree with pain and suffering? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: If I'm -- let's say the accident I had, what if my grandma -- my granddaughter had died instead of being oblivious to the accident. I think the mother and the father should have been compensated for the fact that they lost their child. That's a lot of pain, that's a lot of suffering. Or if she was badly injured and one of them couldn't work anymore. I mean there's different things that have to be taken in account and you just can't sweep everything into one great big bundle and say I don't agree with what the premise is, so therefore it must be frivolous. It seems frivolous to you, it may not be frivolous to me.

MR. EGLET: Who agrees with what Ms. Kistler's saying? Okay.

Ms. Smith, you raised your hand a minute ago and I kind of jumped over you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I was just going to make the comments of a couple feelings. I agree with both of them that yeah, you put your coffee cup in your lap and it burns your It may have malfunctioned, but you have to take some accountability for yourself that you made the choice to do that.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Coffee --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yeah, and in that coffee holder. Also, you know, I have a student in my class who said wow, my parents are going to sue you because, you know, you have too much homework. I mean, you know, our society is that way. And, you know, you smoke cigarettes. Why are you suing the tobacco company because you have cancer and then you get billions of dollars. I mean I agree, you know, with both of them. I was just jumping on the bandwagon.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Tatum.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 035: The whole suing thing is since the school district lately has been like in this big dilemma on money and I know a lot of parents are going through a lot with their homes and things, I notice a lot of kids have been involved in accidents on the school bus. They're fine when we first get on there. They get on the cell phone, talk to their mother, everybody's sick. Everybody has a back injury, neck injury. And it's -- now to me, I think that is ridiculous. Because when you first get on the bus, are you okay? They're fine. But as soon as they talk to their mother or their father they have a injury.

And somebody can just tap a bus -- and, you know, a school bus is one of the safest vehicles on the road. And they tap the bus, no damage on our school bus, no -- not even a mark, but this young man, we had to get the paramedics out, we had to get the fire department out to escort this young man out, and he was fine 15 minutes ago. So I think the parents are teaching their children the wrong thing, because there's times that we do have kids that are hurt, but then we have -the majority of our kids, they're not.

They -- their parents are teaching them dollar signs. Something happened, like she said at the school, I'm going to -- they -- first thing the kids -- they do say we are going to sue you. They talk to their parents, next thing you know there is a lawsuit. That's why my job is so important. I have to get all the information to take to risk management. And we do pay out a lot of money because of different things that have happened.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Rosinski, how do you feel about this issue?

prospective juror No. 918: Well, I honestly think I agree with her wholeheartedly, because it is. It's gone way above and beyond the suing thing. If you're hurt then yes, you do get compensation. If you're not hurt, shame on you. Shame on you for bringing it this far. But if you are hurt -- and after all that you said it was been a while, then yes, you know, help him, help her or help him. But you can't sit up there, take an oath, and lie through your teeth. It's not right.

MR. EGLET: How would you define a -- we've heard the term frivolous lawsuit. How would you define a frivolous lawsuit?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Well, like -- 25

ΛVTranz

154

1	MR. EGLET: What's a frivolous lawsuit?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Okay, a frivolous lawsuit.
3	Say you had a car accident, yes. You got hurt, yes. Okay. A
4	week, two weeks, you go to the doctor. You're in the doctor
5	for a month, two months, you're fine. Yeah, the doctor says
6	okay, you need this treatment, you need that treatment. But
7	then if you are all well, nothing wrong with you even though
8	the doctor says oh, you need another treatment, then that is
9	that's very frivolous. That's a waste of time.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay. What if they're not okay? What if
11	they're
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Then
13	MR. EGLET: permanently injured?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Then if they're not okay,
15	then yes, that is not frivolous. That's something that needs
16	to be done.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Hubbert, how do you feel about
18	this issue we're talking about?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Well, I think that there are 20	frivolous lawsuits. Well, they brought the coffee, which I
21	didn't think was frivolous mostly.
22	MR. EGLET: The McDonalds coffee cup?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yeah. The one I thought was frivolous was the woman suing over the happy meal toys.

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR:

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: That one was -- UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That one was extreme.

prospective juror No. 293: That part I didn't understand, because that -- I mean someone's in -- if someone, as she said, if someone's injured, I won't look at someone and say I don't believe that you're not injured right away, because if someone was in an accident there is a chance that they could have been -- suffered some type of injury. But at the same point, I do think that there is a limit to what they can ask for or what they should get.

MR. EGLET: And what do you mean by you think there's a limit?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Well, I've seen earlier, few years ago on the news, where people were suing for millions of dollars from their insurance company and from the person who hit them. And there may have been moderate damage and they said they had bad neck injury, back injury, leg injuries. And they were suing for well above what I believe they -- because they could still work. I don't know, that doesn't go for everybody of course, but certain people, I think there should be a limit. If they're still able to work and they could still make some type of living, then there should be a cap to what they're able to get.

MR. EGLET: And do you have a cap in mind, or is this -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: It depends on what -- I don't know all the details. So once you know the details, then at that point -- because to be fair and unbiased you have to see both sides.

MR. EGLET: Uh-huh.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: And you have to weigh both sides.

MR. EGLET: I guess what I'm getting at is sometimes -- and some of you mentioned the caps they put on cases in Texas, they thought that those were too low. You know, sometimes the legislatures will go in and take the decision away from the juries and put a certain limit on an amount the jury is allowed to put in their verdict in certain types of cases. Is that what you're talking about, or are you just talking in general that, you know, it has -- in your mind, the jury should look at the case and evaluate it properly? Which --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Evaluate it properly.

MR. EGLET: So you're not talking about the legislature --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: No.

MR. EGLET: -- putting artificial --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Not that part at all, no.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Johnson, what's your thoughts on 25 | this?

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20

21

22

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Hmm, I think there's a lot of high profile ones that are tainting people's judgments and kind of making it harder. People, you know, like the coffee one, everyone knows the coffee one. I don't think a lot of people know all the details about it, but because the headlines are showing so many over the top, ridiculous ones, a few out of thousands and thousands of civil lawsuits going on, people are starting to look at them more skeptical and making it tougher to get, I don't know, a fair assessment.

MR. EGLET: So you think the fact that the press, you know, reports on the more sensationalized or outrageous verdicts, that that skews people's views about these cases and that --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Oh yeah, definitely.

MR. EGLET: -- maybe hurts the legitimate cases?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 956: Oh yeah.

MR. EGLET: Who agrees with Mr. Johnson on that, that that may be the case? Okay.

Ms. Zweifel.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Zweifel.

MR. EGLET: Zweifel, I got it. What do you think about this? I mean you're somebody who suffers from a disability, suffers from injuries. How, you know, I don't know, you know, you have any sort of -- have ever had any sort of claim, but how do you feel about this whole issue?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 002: Well, I think there are some frivolous lawsuits. I do. But there are also legitimate situations where people are injured and through no fault of their own. They should be compensated for that.

MR. EGLET: Mr. Barrett, what's your thoughts on this? I mean you are a business owner, you're an accountant.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I can't remember if the problem with the McDonalds coffee cup thing was so much the case or what she was awarded for it. If I remember, I think she got awarded some incredible amount for --

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Million.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: [Indiscernible].

UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: But I think that's the issue more with me, is that there are frivolous lawsuits. I think of, you know, somebody staging a fall in a department store or something. But those are usually, I think, caught before they get too far. My issue's more with people should be compensated fairly and in line with what they actually have suffered. And how that's measured is it depends on the case. And also I don't have any problem with punitive damages as long as they're reasonable. I think if they go, you know, in the stratosphere, then that's passed on to everybody eventually, you and I --

MR. EGLET: What do you mean by --

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: in one way or the other.
2	MR. EGLET: the stratosphere?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: Well, if they're just way out
4	of line with what was actually suffered. I think that's when
5	legislators step in and, you know, draw the line.
6	MR. EGLET: Other than the McDonalds' hot coffee case,
7	are there some cases that come to your mind that are like
8	that, where you just
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 943: I know I've read about a
10	bunch of them, but I can't really think of anything right now
11,	that just leaps to my mind.
12	MR. EGLET: Anybody else, any cases, whether locally or
13	nationally, that jumps to mind? Yes, Ms. Nolte.
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I remember once one in the 15	media about somebody went to pick up their pants from
16	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, that was
17	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's what I was
18	thinking.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: the dry cleaners. And the
20	dry cleaners
21	MR. EGLET: That's the lawyer in Washington, D.C.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Yeah.
23	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: And they wanted thousands and
25	thousands of dollars

1	MR. EGLET: Yeah, he wanted a million.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: for the pants that only
3	cost him less than a hundred dollars.
4	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He wanted more than
5	that.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: You know, that's frivolous.
7	MR. EGLET: Right. But you know that judge was that
8	case was thrown out.
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I know. I know, but still
10	the media was in there and brought it to everybody's attention
11	across the United States. So
12	MR. EGLET: Yeah.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: It just made the whole
14	situation of filing lawsuits, you know, kind of like
15	sometimes kind of like a laughing matter.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay.
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: You know.
18	MR. EGLET: And so how do you think when things like that
19	happen, whether it's the lawyer with his dry cleaned pants, or
20	I think a few years ago we had this person fake they had found
21	a thumb or a finger in their chili
22	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.
23	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Chili, yeah.
24	MR. EGLET: you know, things like that. How do you
25	think what kind of effect do you think that that has on the legitimate	claims	that	are	brought?

TC4T5T1114CC	~~~~	01100	~-~	~~~~

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Makes you more -- I think it makes you more aware, or sometimes I think you want to be in disbelief sometimes when -- I mean it's something like that.

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: And you have to really hear everything before you can actually believe what's going on.

MR. EGLET: Ms. Prince, how do you feel about this issue, jackpot justice or whatever term --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: I think there are frivolous lawsuits, but I don't believe there should be a cap.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928: Every case is individual. Everyone is unique in their own way. And unless you know the facts in all of them, you shouldn't place judgment until then.

MR. EGLET: Who here thinks that there should be caps placed on the amount of money a jury is permitted to put in a verdict on any sort of particular case? Who thinks that that is the way it should be? Raise your hand.

Okay. Ms. Hubbert.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Oh. Like I was going to say before, it's not necessarily like for every case. Like certain cases, if you can show that what they're asking for is too high than what they should get, then there should be that cap that the jury sets going a little lower.

1	MR. EGLET: But you just said that the jury sets; right?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yes.
3	MR. EGLET: Okay. So I guess my question is who do you
4	think is in the best position to make a determination of how
5	much should be put in a verdict for an injured person who is
6	bringing the lawsuit, how much money should be put in that
7	verdict to compensate them? Do you think it should be the
8	jury who sits and listens to the entire case and all the
9	testimony and sees all the evidence, or do you think it should
10	be some outside legislative body that arbitrarily sets limits
11	for particular kinds of cases? Who do you
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: The jury.
13	MR. EGLET: Anybody disagree with that? Anybody think
14	that the legislature should come and put caps on there?
15	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I definitely do not
16	think the legislator
17	MR. EGLET: You do not.
18	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: legislature should
19	have anything to do with the judicial system at all.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay.
21	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Stay over there.
22	MR. EGLET: Okay.
23	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.
24	MR. EGLET: All right.
25	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because there may be,

1	you know, cases that warrant a huge
2	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [Indiscernible]
3	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: [Indiscernible].
4	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm thinking of what
5	was that case? It was a basis for that movie, A Civil Action,
6	where that company was poisoning
7	MR. EGLET: Yeah.
8	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: the water.
9	MR. EGLET: [Indiscernible] the water and causing cancer
10	to all the residents, right.
11	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.
12	MR. EGLET: Course they didn't end up paying that much on
13	that.
14	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.
15	MR. EGLET: Bankrupted the lawyers and didn't pay that
16	much.
17	Okay. All right. Ms. Ellis, how do you feel about
18	this issue?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 017: I kind of agree that you
20	should just it should be case by case. You should just 21	listen to it. I mean I don't let the things that happen in
22	the media skew my I mean I think if it's warranted suing,
23	it's warranted suing, you know. I don't really have an
24	opinion on it doesn't skew my opinion on, you know, if you
25	should sue someone or not.

1	MR. EGLET: Ms. Colmines, this issue we've been talking
2	about for the last 20 minutes or so, what is your view on
3	this?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I agree with the excuse
5	me, I agree with the [indiscernible] the most part.
6	MR. EGLET: And what part? What is it you agree with?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: That when people get really
8	hurt, you know, it should be the lawyer man thing, but I if
9	you don't get hurt [indiscernible].
10	MR. EGLET: So you think it depends on the nature of
11	their injuries
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: It depends the situation.
13	MR. EGLET: and how it's affected their lives?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Uh-huh.
15	MR. EGLET: Now, Ms. Hubbert, I think it was you who said
16	well, if they can still work, then they shouldn't get that
17	much.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: If they
19	MR. EGLET: Recall that?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yeah. If they I feel that
21	if a person can still make a living, they if they it's
22	proven that they do need compensation, that they deserve that
23	compensation. But if they can still work, they can still make
24	a living, then they can't go after certain damages.
25	MR. EGLET: What certain damages?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Well, it depends. Some people will -- not all, but there's some people that will sue saying that, you know, it wrecked my livelihood, I won't be able to work as well as I did. But in a lot of cases they're -- they can still do -- I don't want to bring up the word fraud mostly per se, but there's been cases where a person says they can't work anymore yet they have them on film picking up heavy furniture or riding a bike or doing all sorts of things. As long as they can still make a living, then they can get compensated for their injuries. If they have pain and suffering, then of course.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: And --

MR. EGLET: So even if they can still work, if they're suffering pain -- having pain and suffering, you still think they should be compensated for that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Anybody feel differently than that, that if they're working they shouldn't get -- I know you feel, Ms. Schmidt, about pain and suffering. But other than Ms. Schmidt, does anyone else feel that they shouldn't get pain and suffering, that that shouldn't be put in the verdict form if they can still work? Anybody else feel that way?

Okay. Let me ask you this question. And I'm going to start with you, Mr. Doty, because I've been starting with

1	you on a lot of things. You're sitting up there in the right
2	corner and you your questionnaire tells us you're an
3	extrovert, so you're willing to talk. Okay.
4	If what problems would you be have would you
5	have, sitting not this jury, just sitting on any sort of
6	jury in a injury case? What problems would you have being on 7	a jury that was asked to give to put in the verdict form in
8	excess of $2 million?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: That's
10	MR. ROGERS: Your Honor, is counsel going to I'm
11	sorry.
12	THE COURT: Counsel approach please.
13	[Bench Conference Begins]
14	MR. ROGERS: I didn't know what he was going to ask for,
15	but if that's close to the amount then he's arguing the facts
16	of the case. He can't put forward the facts and get a pledge
17	from the jury
18	MR. EGLET: I'm not arguing the facts.
19	MR. ROGERS: to award any given amount.
20	MR. WALL: He's specifically addressing the issue of 21	whether a jury can [indiscernible] voir dire
22	MR. ROGERS: This is
23	MR. WALL: Certain jurors obviously

25

MR. EGLET: There's case law all over the country that says that this is absolutely appropriate. And if a juror does 1 have a problem being on a jury that awards millions of 2 dollars, that is per se bias and prejudice and they're 3 excused --4 MR. ROGERS: That --5 MR. EGLET: That is the law in the country. 6 MR. ROGERS: Easy. The question in the questionnaire was 7 generic. This is specific. 8 No, it's not. MR. EGLET: 9 MR. ROGERS: This is $2 million. How do you get more 10 specific? 11 MR. EGLET: In excess of $2 million. I said in excess of 12 $2 million. And it's not -- you know, I'm allowed to test. 13 could have said 10, I could have said 50, I could have said 14 100, I could have said one. I can pick whatever number I 15 want. It doesn't matter what number I want to pick. 16 different. 17 It does if it's factual. MR. ROGERS: 18 MR. EGLET: What do you mean if it's factual? 19 If you --MR. ROGERS: 20 MR. EGLET: I have no idea how much --21 MR. ROGERS: -- are presenting the facts of the case. 22 MR. EGLET: I have no idea how much money we're going to 23 ask in the case. It depends on the evidence that goes in. 24 But I'm putting a number out there and there's nothing wrong

AVTranz

We're entitled to find out if they -- there's a 25

with that.

specific amount that a juror has in mind that they could never go above. The case law which we've cited over and over in briefs to this Court is clear around the country. This is absolutely appropriate questioning and it tests whether a juror is qualified to sit in a case like this.

THE COURT: This is fair game so long as there's no pledge --

MR. EGLET: I'm not asking for a pledge.

MR. ROGERS: All right, thank you.

MR. WALL: I just wanted to add if there's an objection [indiscernible] speaking objection. I was concerned about that. So I guess I would prefer that they take place, at least during voir dire, at the bench.

THE COURT: Well --

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. ROGERS: That's what I did.

THE COURT: -- that's probably appropriate with respect to speaking objections. If you're just stating the nature of the objection, I think that's acceptable.

MR. ROGERS: Yeah.

[Bench Conference Ends]

MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Doty, do you remember the question?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. How do you feel about that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: In my opinion, that's a pretty heavy award. Obviously I'd have to stick to the case and -- yeah, you have to -- I mean you have to be messed up as far as physically, I mean serious disabilities, unless for some reason what you were doing before you could make that kind of money.

MR. EGLET: So you think it should be tied to their ability to work?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I believe so. I don't think any amount -- I don't know, it's kind of hard. It's a hard issue because it's, you know, you're torn. You want to be, you know, just -- have to be just, but at the same time I have strong reservations and feelings of forgiveness at the same time. So I mean it's a tough -- it's give and take for me personally.

So I guess getting back to it, you don't expect somebody to go get, you know, T-boned by a semi truck, no, it's okay, man, and they're in a wheelchair for the rest of their life. No. But yeah, for that amount of money, I would have to be -- there'd have to be a lot of evidence brought forth and a pretty good -- dang good case to why -- what reasons are you asking for that amount of money. That's -- most people don't make that in their lifetime.

MR. EGLET: So is it fair to say that you personally have a -- kind of an idea of if there, you know, there's -- regardless of what the case is about, when it comes to multi-million dollar damages there's only so far you'll go. Is that a fair statement?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah, I guess that's pretty fair. I mean there has to -- if it's warranted, yeah, I would go through. But I believe that an amount that high is -- takes a lot more warranting, if you will, for somebody who's asking for a thousand bucks.

MR. EGLET: And what do you mean by more warranting?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: More evidence, more proof.

Like I say, along the lines of -- yeah, for me, it is tied to what they were making before.

MR. EGLET: Okay. It's tied to their income? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Right.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I mean if they were making -if you're making million dollars a year and -- because of the accident you want couple million, yeah, that's justified. But if you're making $40,000 a year and you're not completely disabled, kind of along the lines of what I heard before, you can still work. And I think just because somebody was injured, that doesn't, you know, you still got to -- maybe you got to suck it up a little bit. Everybody gets hurt regardless.

So I mean [indiscernible] all the questions that were asked before. Everyone gets hurt. And so it's kind of like there's a give and take. That's, I guess, before we had the jury, the different opinions, trying to be fair, unbiased. But yeah, you got to take, yeah, what they were making.

I believe personally you got to suck it up a little bit. Are they just totally wimping out because they had a free ride, where you're getting -- are we talking about frivolous stuff, because, you know, there's a option here? Or, you know, I would think that somebody would have -- like you said, accountability, personal responsibility, to suck it up as best they can to, you know, what would be decided by a jury what should be that level of, you know, kind of getting, you know, getting tenacious and whatnot.

But above and beyond, yeah, you got to take in account what they were doing, what their potential was, how disabled the person was. I mean so it's -- that's a -- I mean you asked a question that you could debate for days.

MR. EGLET: Well, I'm not trying to debate you. I -PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Well, no, not debate, but discuss.

MR. EGLET: Right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: You can discuss and we could talk about, you know, get nitty-gritty and -- yeah, I'm not trying to argue with you by any mention.

MR. EGLET: No, you're not arguing with me. I asked you a question, you're giving your answer. So are the others.

2

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Right.

3

1

I'm not going to argue with anybody about MR. EGLET: I just want to hear what you have to say.

4 5

6

7

8

9

10 11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20

21 22

23 24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: So -- and I would -- you'd have to sit through and see, you know, what reasons, why the person would be asking for that kind of money. And if it's justified and it's -- and I agree with it, yeah, it's fine. So --

MR. EGLET: Let me ask you. You said something in your answer. You said, you know, you talked about -- when you were talking to me, you said -- you mentioned personal responsibility and accountability, and you applied that to this, your discussion here, to the injured person. the person who does the injury?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Absolutely.

MR. EGLET: Do you think that they should be responsible and be held personally accountable?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah.

Okay. Now when you were talking you -- it MR. EGLET: seemed like you kept coming back to how much money they were making, what their income was like. And of course that's, you know, that's obviously part of the element of -- one of the elements of damages in these type of cases. What about the other things that are involved in this? I mean pain and suffering, loss of enjoyment of life. Do you have -- is there, you know, some amount of money in your mind that geez, you know, I don't care how badly the person was injured, how, you know, what the significant loss of enjoyment of their life was. You know, kind of using your words, you know, everybody gets hurt, you got to kind of suck it up. So, you know, it could never be worth X amount of dollars. You kind of feel that way?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: As far as pain and suffering alone is concerned?

MR. EGLET: Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah, I would say so. Because I mean it's all relative.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what's the -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: They're not dead.

MR. EGLET: What's the max --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: So ~-

MR. EGLET: What's the maximum amount you think someone's pain and suffering would be worth?

prospective juror No. 905: I have to think about that for a second. I mean on the flip side, my thought I think about is, you know, along the lines we mentioned before of, you know, losing a life. Okay, yeah, there's some money to be entitled. But really, can even a hundred billion dollars replace that life? So it's kind of like I don't know, it's -- I'd have to sit down and really think about it for a long time. So for the money part of it, at this point I'm kind of drawing a blank. I don't know if I could just think there'd have to be, you know, I'd have to see the person.

7	7	л
	,	4

174
Okay, how much pain have you gone through, you know, how much suffering, what can you what did you used to like to do, what can you not do, and go forward.
But yeah, I guess to be honest, my initial impression until that point, you know, couple 2, $3 million is, I think, is a little bit on the hefty side.
MR. EGLET: Okay. So do you think you would have trouble being on a jury that was asked to put in the verdict form in excess of a million or 2 million or $3 million in the element of damages for pain and suffering
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: If I
MR. EGLET: regardless of PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: was saw everything and I was convinced that it warranted that, probably not.
MR. EGLET: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: So I would have I wouldn't have a problem sitting on the jury, no. But yeah, so I would have to see what was going on.
MR. EGLET: Okay.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: If it came up.
MR. EGLET: But as we started here, you don't have some amount of money in your head, geez, I don't care what this

1	what case it is that I happen to be on a jury, I could never
2	go amount above a certain amount?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No, I guess I do have slight
4	reservation towards that. I mean you can't, you know, you
5	can't go after I don't know what would be there is an
6	amount.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay.
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I mean it would I mean
9	maybe it is, you know, 3 or 4 million.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I who knows.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. So you do have
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I do have a cap.
14	MR. EGLET: There is a limit there that
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: There is a limit.
16	MR. EGLET: regardless
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I mean I guess so, do come
18	as the case developed or whatnot, that limit would start
19	developing.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Schmidt.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I knew
22	MR. EGLET: You knew I was coming back to you; right?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yeah.
24	MR. EGLET: I mean how would you feel being on a jury in
25	an injury case that was asked to put in the verdict form an injury case that was asked to put in the verdict form amount of money in excess of $2 million?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I would be uncomfortable with that if it was just pain and suffering.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

б

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I would really try to listen to the case as it stands, but I would be very uncomfortable with that.

MR. EGLET: Well, the truth of the matter is you're uncomfortable with really any money for pain and suffering; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I really am, I'm sorry.

MR. EGLET: Okay. No, you don't have to apologize to me. I appreciate your honesty. I want to hear what you have to say. And there's nothing you're going to say that's going to offend me or anything. Okay? Believe me. Look, my mother doesn't believe in pain and suffering damages. So it's okay, you know. I mean we all have different viewpoints. It's okay.

So -- but what I'm trying to get at is, you know, I was asking Mr. Doty there, you know, does he have a certain limit on the amount of money that he would be willing to put in a verdict for in an injury case for pain and suffering. The honest truth is with you, you would have trouble putting any money in that line; correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I probably wouldn't if it was

ΛVTranz

1	under say 200,000.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. So 200,000 is a cap
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: For pain and for just flat
4	pain and suffering.
5	MR. EGLET: Just the pain and suffering. You feel like
6	pain and suffering
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Unless it was a very unusual
8	case. You know, I'm not going to say I hate doing
9	anything, you know, solid
10	MR. EGLET: No, I understand.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: black and white. Yeah, I
12	don't deal in absolutes at all. I absolutely don't deal in 13	absolutes. But it would take an awful lot to convince me.
14	MR. EGLET: So you would want a higher standard of proof.
15	You'd want more proof of
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Not necessarily more proof.
17	It would have to be an awful lot of suffering.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: An awful lot of suffering.
20	MR. EGLET: All right. And when you say unusual cases,
21	you're talking about the real exception here; right?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yeah.
23	MR. EGLET: Okay.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Where someone's mutilated.
25	MR. EGLET: Right.

```
2 destroyed.
3
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: You know, we're talking 5 something that you could do the movie of the week -- 6
          MR. EGLET: Right.
7
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: -- on Lifetime with.
8
          MR. EGLET: No, I understand. And other -- but otherwise 9
     -- and I appreciate your honesty. Otherwise what you're 10 telling us is that, you know, $200,000 is kind of the 11 number -- 12
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: It's -- and it would take a 13 lot to even pull that out of me.
14
          MR. EGLET:
                      I'm sorry?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: And it would take a lot to 16 pull even that -- 17
          MR. EGLET: Take a lot to even pull that out of you; 18 right?
             So you --
19
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: I'm afraid so, yeah.
20
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay. That's kind of your limit on -- unless 21 it's the very exceptional case --
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yeah, unless -- 23
          MR. EGLET: -- where somebody's mutilated?
24
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Yeah.
                                             Well --
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: Where a family is 1

25

MR. EGLET:

Okay.

AVTranz

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 844: -- or, you know, there's severe pain, severe suffering, like I said, family's torn apart.

MR. EGLET: All right. So -- and I -- look, I appreciate your honesty. We want to hear that. You're not -- it's okay. We want to know how people feel. That's how we, you know, that's how we figure these things out in this jury selection.

Ms. Kistler, what -- how do you feel about this?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Based by -- I'd go case by case. I would not put a cap on anything. I don't have any money value in my brain. Like I said, it all depends on the case. It all depends on the circumstances around the case.

MR. EGLET: How would you feel sitting on a jury that was asked to put, in an injury case, asked to put in the verdict form in excess of $2 million?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 864: Once again, it would depend on -- I -- how would I sit? I don't -- if that's what we're looking that might be there, not necessarily what we would come, I don't have a problem with it.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right.

It's 5:00. Did you want to break for the day, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Think this is a good time to break for the day. Asking you to return, ladies and gentlemen, tomorrow

AVTranz

1	afternoon at 1:00 sharp please. Reminding you of your duty
2	not to discuss this case, not to form or express any opinion,
3	not to do any research on any subject connected with this
4	case,
5	Have a nice evening. We'll see you tomorrow.
6	[Proceedings Concluded at 4:56 p.m.]
7	,
8
9
10	·
11 12 13 14 15 16
17 18 19 20 21
22
23 24
25

	181
1	ATTEST: I do hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/video recording in the above-entitled
2	case to the best of my ability.
3
4
5
6
7
В
9 10 11 12
13	Erm Doold
14	ERIN GOOLD, Transcriber
15
16
17 18 19 20 21
22
23 24
25
(د	·

AVTranz
E-Reporting and E-Transcription
Phoenix (602) 263-0885 • Tucson (520) 403-8024
Denver (303) 634-2295

In the Supreme Court of Nevada

Case Nos. 58504, 59208 and 59423

JENNY RISH,

Appellant, vs.

WILLIAM JAY SIMAO, individually, and CHERYL ANN SIMAO, individually and as husband and wife, Respondents.

Electronically Filed Aug 14 2012 04:06 p.m. Tracie K. Lindeman Clerk of Supreme Court

APPEAL

from the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County
The Honorable JESSIE WALSH, District Judge
District Court Case No. A539455

APPELLANT'S APPENDIX VOLUME 4 PAGES 706-935

DANIEL F. POLSENBERG

State Bar of Nevada No. 2376

JOEL D. HENRIOD

State Bar of Nevada No. 8492

LEWIS AND ROCA LLP

3993 Howard Hughes Pkwy., Suite 600

Las Vegas, Nevada 89169

(702) 474-2616

DPolsenberg@LRLaw.com

STEPHEN H. ROGERS

State Bar of Nevada No. 5755

ROGERS MASTRANGELO CARVALHO
& MITCHELL

300 South Fourth Street, Suite 170

Las Vegas, Nevada 89101

(702) 383-3400

SRogers@RMCMLaw.com

Attorneys for Appellant

TABLE OF CONTENTS TO APPENDIX

Tab	Document	Date	Vol.	Pages
01	Complaint	04/13/07	1	01-08
02	Summons (Jenny Rish)	08/10/07	1	09-11
03	Summons (James Rish)	08/28/07	1	12-15
04	Summons (Linda Rish)	08/28/07	1	16-19
05	Notice of Association of Counsel	09/27/07	1	20-22
06	Defendant Jenny Rish's Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint	03/21/08	1	23-26
07	Demand for Jury Trial	03/21/08	1	27-29
08	Scheduling Order	06/11/08	1	30-33
09	Order Setting Civil Jury Trial	08/18/08	1	34-38
10	Stipulation and Order to Extend Discovery	05/06/09	1	39-43
11	Notice of Entry of Order to Extend Discovery	05/08/09	1	44-50
12	Amended Scheduling Order	06/10/09	1	51-54
13	Order Setting Civil Jury Trial	08/28/09	1	55-59
14	Stipulation and Order to Continue Trial Date	03/31/10	1	60-62
15	Notice of Entry of Order to Continue Trial Date	04/02/10	1	63-67
16	Notice of Association of Counsel	04/02/10	1	68-71
17	Order Setting Civil Jury Trial	12/15/10	1	72-75
18	Stipulation and Order to Continue Trial Date	12/22/10	1	76-78
19	Notice of Entry of Order to Continue Trial Date	01/04/11	1	79-83
20	Defendant Jenny Rish's Motion in Limine to Limit the Testimony of Plaintiff's Treating Physicians	01/06/11	1	84-91
21	Defendants' Motion in Limine to Preclude Plaintiffs' Medical Providers and Experts from Testifying Regarding New or Undisclosed Medical Treatment and Opinions	01/06/11	1	92-101
22	Defendant Jenny Rish's Motion to Exclude the Report and Opinions Plaintiff's Accident Reconstruction Expert, David Ingebretsen	01/06/11	1	102-114

23	Plaintiff's Omnibus Motion in Limine	01/07/11	1	115-173
24	Defendant Jenny Rish's Opposition to Plaintiffs' Omnibus Motion in Limine	02/04/11	1	174-211
25	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant Jenny Rish's Motion in Limine Enforcing the Abolition of the Treating Physician Rule	02/04/11	1	212-217
26	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion in Limine to Preclude Plaintiffs' Medical Providers and Experts from Testifying Regarding New or Undisclosed Medical Treatment and Opinions	02/04/11	1	218-223
27	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant Jenny Rish's Motion to Exclude the Report and Opinions of Plaintiff's Accident Reconstruction Expert, David Ingebretsen	02/04/11	1	224-244
28	Defendant Jenny Rish's Reply in Support of Motion to Exclude the Report and Opinions of Plaintiff's Accident Reconstruction Expert, David Ingebretsen	02/08/11	1	245-250
29	Defendant Jenny Rish's Reply in Support of Motion in Limine to Limit the Testimony of Plaintiff's Treating Physicians	02/08/11	2	251-256
30	Defendant Jenny Rish's Reply in Support of Motion in Limine to Preclude Plaintiffs' Medical Providers and Experts from Testifying Regarding New or Undisclosed Medical Treatment and Opinions	02/08/11	2	257-262
31	Plaintiffs' Reply to Defendants' Opposition to Plaintiffs' Omnibus Motion in Limine	02/11/11	2	263-306
32	Plaintiff's Motion to Exclude Sub Rosa Video	02/14/11	2	307-313
33	Transcript of Hearings on Motion	02/15/11	2	314-390
34	Plaintiff's Motion in Limine to (1) Preclude Defendant from Raising a "Minor" or "Low Impact" Defense; (2) Limit the Trial Testimony of Defendant's Expert David Fish M.D. and; (3) Exclude Evidence of Property Damage	02/17/11	2	391-441
35	Defendant Jenny Rish's Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion to Exclude Sub Rosa Video	02/18/11	2	442-454
36	Transcript of Hearing	02/22/11	3	455-505
37	Order Regarding Plaintiff's Motion to Allow the Plaintiff's to Present a Jury Questionnaire Prior to Voir Dire	02/25/11	3	506-508

38	Defendant Jenny Rish's Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion in Limine to Preclude Defendant from Raising a "Minor" or "Low Impact" Defense; Limit the trial Testimony of Defendant's Expert David Fish M.D. and; Exclude Evidence or Property Damage	02/25/11	3	509-517
39	Plaintiffs' Reply to Defendants' Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion to Exclude Sub Rosa Video	02/27/11	3	518-522
40	Transcript of Hearing	03/01/11	3	523-550
41	Plaintiffs' Second Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/02/11	3	551-562
42	Defendant's Opposition to Plaintiffs' Second Omnibus Motion in Limine	. 03/04/11	3	563-567
43	Transcript of Hearing on Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/08/11	3	568-586
44	Notice of Entry of Order Re: EDCR 2.47	03/10/11	3	587-593
45	Order Regarding Plaintiffs' Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/11/11	3	594-597
46	Order Regarding Plaintiff's Motion in Limine to (1) Preclude Defendant from Raising a "Minor" or "Low Impact" Defense; (2) Limit the Trial Testimony of Defendant's Expert David Fish M.D. and; (3) Exclude Evidence of Property Damage	03/14/11	3	598-600
47	Notice of Association of Counsel	03/14/11	3	601-603
48	Trial Transcript	03/14/11	3	604-705
			4	706-753
49	Trial Transcript	03/15/11	4	754-935
50	Trial Transcript	03/16/11	5	936-1102
51	Trial Transcript	03/17/11	5	1103-1186
			6	1187-1256
52	Trial Transcript	03/18/11	6	1257-1408
53	Notice of Entry of Order Regarding Plaintiffs' Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/18/11	6	1409-1415
54	Trial Brief in Support of Oral Motion for Mistrial	03/18/11	6	1416-1419
55	Trial Brief on Percipient Testimony Regarding the Accident	03/18/11	6	1420-1427
56	Trial Transcript	03/21/11	7	1428-1520

57	Trial Transcript	03/22/11	7	1521-1662
58	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Trial Brief in Support of Oral Motion for Mistrial	03/22/11	7	1663-1677
59	Receipt of Copy of Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Trial Brief in Support of Oral Motion for Mistrial	03/22/11	8	1678-1680
60	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Traffic Accident Report and Investigating Officer's Conclusions	03/22/11	8	1681-1683
61	Order Regarding Plaintiffs' Second Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/22/11	8	1684-1687
62	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Life Care Expert, Kathleen Hartman, R.N.	03/22/11	8	1688-1690
63	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Witnesses from Testifying Regarding the Credibility or Veracity of Other Witnesses	03/22/11	8	1691-1693
64	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Graphic and Lurid Video of Surgery	03/22/11	8	1694-1696
65	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Duplicative and Cumulative Testimony	03/22/11	8	1697-1699
66	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Plaintiff's Accident Reconstructionist/Biomechanical Expert David Ingebretsen	03/22/11	8	1700-1702
67	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Argument of Case During Voir Dire	03/22/11	8	1703-1705
68	Order Granting Motion to Exclude Plaintiff's Economist, Stan Smith, for Lack of Foundation to Offer Expert Economist Opinion	03/22/11	8	1706-1708
69	Trial Transcript	03/23/11	8	1709-1856
70	Trial Transcript	03/24/11	8	1857-1928
			9	1929-2023
71	Plaintiffs' Amended Pre-Trial Memorandum	03/24/11	9	2024-2042
72	Trial Transcript	03/25/11	9	2043-2179
			10	2180-2212
73	Notice of Entry of Order Regarding Plaintiffs' Second Omnibus Motion in Limine	03/25/11	10	2213-2220
74	Trial Transcript	03/28/11	10	2221-2372
WIS

75	Trial Transcript	03/29/11	10	2373-2430
			11	2431-2549
76	Trial Brief Regarding Exclusion of Future Surgery for Failure to Disclose Computation of Future Damages Under NRCP 16.1(a)	03/29/11	11	2550-2555
77	Trial Transcript	03/30/11	11	2556-2681
			12	2682-2758
78	Trial Transcript	03/31/11	12	2759-2900
79	Stipulation and Order for Dismissal With Prejudice	03/31/11	12	2901-2904
80	Trial Transcript	04/01/11	13	2905-2936
81	Minutes of Hearing on Prove-up of Damages	04/01/11	13	2937-2938
82	Plaintiffs' Confidential Trial Brief	04/01/11	13	2939-3155
			14	3156-3223
83	Plaintiffs' First Supplement to Their Confidential Trial Brief to Exclude Unqualified Testimony of Defendant's Medical Expert, Dr. Fish	04/01/11	14	3224-3282
84	Plaintiffs' Second Supplement to Their Confidential Trial Brief to Permit Dr. Grover to testify with Regard to all Issues Raised During his Deposition	04/01/11	14	3283-3352
85	Plaintiffs' Third Supplement to Their Confidential Trial Brief; There is No Surprise to the Defense Regarding Evidence of a Spinal Stimulator	04/01/11	14	3353-3406
86	Plaintiffs' Fourth Supplement to Their Confidential Trial Brief Regarding Cross Examination of Dr. Wang	04/01/11	15	3407-3414
87	Plaintiffs' Fifth Supplement to Their Confidential Trial Brief to Permit Stan Smith, Ph.D., to Testify Regarding, Evidence Made Known to Him During Trial	04/01/11	15	3415-3531
88	Stipulation and Order to Modify Briefing Schedule	04/21/11	15	3532-3535
89	Defendant's Response in Opposition to Plaintiff's Request for Attorney Fees	04/22/11	15	3536-3552
90	Defendant's Amended Response in Opposition to Plaintiffs' Request for Attorney Fees	04/22/11	15	3553-3569
91	Plaintiffs' Brief in Favor of an Award of Attorney's Fees Following Default Judgment	04/22/11	15	3570-3624

92	Stipulation and Order to Modify Briefing Schedule	04/22/11	15	3625-3627
93	Decision and Order Regarding Plaintiffs' Motion to Strike Defendant's Answer	04/22/11	16	3628-3662
94	Notice of Entry of Order to Modify Briefing Schedule	04/25/11	16	3663-3669
95	Notice of Entry of Order to Modify Briefing Schedule	04/26/11	16	3670-3674
96	Notice of Entry of Order Regarding Motion to Strike	04/26/11	16	3675-3714
97	Plaintiffs' Memorandum of Costs and Disbursements	04/26/11	16	3715-3807
98	Minutes of Hearing Regarding Status Check	04/28/11	16	3808-3809
99	Judgment	04/28/11	16	3810-3812
100	Defendant's Motion to Retax Costs	04/29/11	16	3813-3816
101	Notice of Entry of Judgment	05/03/11	16	3817-3822
102	Stipulation and Order to Stay Execution of Judgment	05/06/11	16	3823-3825
103	Notice of Entry of Order to Stay Execution of Judgment	05/09/11	16	3826-3830
104	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Retax Costs	05/16/11	16	3831-3851
105	Defendant's Motion for New Trial	05/16/11	17	3852-4102
			18	4103-4144
106	Certificate of Service	05/17/11	18	4145-4147
107	Subpoena Duces Tecum (Dr. Rosler)	05/18/11	18	4148-4153
108	Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees	05/25/11	18	4154-4285
109	Defendant's Reply to Opposition to Motion to Retax Costs	05/26/11	18	4286-4290
110	Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash Defendant's Subpoena Duces Tecum to Jan-Jorg Rosler, M.D. at Nevada Spine Institute on Order Shortening Time	05/26/11	18	4291-4305
111	Notice of Appeal	05/31/11	19	4306-4354
112	Case Appeal Statement	05/31/11	19	4355-4359
113	Judgment	06/01/11	19	4360-4373
114	Defendant's Opposition to Motion to Quash	06/01/11	19	4374-4378
115	Minutes of Hearing Regarding Motion to Retax	06/02/11	19	4379-4380
116	Notice of Entry of Judgment	06/02/11	19	4381-4397
33771

117	Plaintiffs' Reply to Defendant's Opposition to Motion to Quash Defendants' Subpoena Duces Tecum to Jans-Jorg Rosler, M.D. at Spine Institute on Order Shortening Time	06/06/11	19	4398-4405
118	Transcript of Hearing Regarding Motion to Quash	06/07/11	19	4406-4411
119	Defendant's Opposition to Motion for Attorney Fees	06/13/11	19	4412-4419
120	Order Denying Defendant's Motion to Retax Costs	06/16/11	19	4420-4422
121	Notice of Entry of Order Denying Motion to Retax Costs	06/16/11	19	4423-4429
122	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion for New Trial	06/24/11	19 20	4430-4556 4557-4690
123	Amended Notice of Appeal	06/27/11	20	4691-4711
124	Amended Case Appeal Statement	06/27/11	20	4712-4716
125	Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Documents	07/06/11	20	4717-4721
126	Receipt of Appeal Bond	07/06/11	20	4722-4723
127	Defendant's Reply to Opposition to Motion for New Trial	07/14/11	20	4724-4740
128	Plaintiffs' Reply to Defendant's Opposition to Motion for Attorneys' Fees	07/14/11	20	4741-4748
129	Minutes of Hearings on Motions	07/21/11	20	4749-4751
130	Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash Defendant's Subpoena Duces Tecum to Jans-Jorg Rosler, M.D. at Nevada Spine Institute on Order Shortening Time	07/25/11	20	4752-4754
131	Notice of Entry of Order Granting Motion to Quash	07/25/11	20	4755-4761
132	Plaintiffs' Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Documents	07/26/11	20	4762-4779
133	Minutes of Hearing on Motion to Compel	08/11/11	20	4780-4781
134	Order Denying Defendant's Motion for New Trial	08/24/11	20	4782-4784
135	Notice of Entry of Order Denying Defendant's Motion for New Trial	08/25/11	20	4785-4791
136	Order Denying Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Documents	09/01/11	20	4792-4794
137	Notice of Entry of Order Denying Defendant's Motion to Compel Production of Documents	09/02/11	20	4795-4800
138	Second Amended Notice of Appeal	09/14/11	21	4801-4811

139	Second Amended Case Appeal Statement	09/14/11	21	4812-4816
140	Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorney's Fees	09/14/11	21	4817-4819
141	Notice of Entry of Order Granting Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorney's Fees	09/15/11	21	4820-4825
142	Final Judgment	09/23/11	21	4826-4829
143	Notice of Entry of Final Judgment	09/30/11	21	4830-4836
144	Notice of Posting Supersedeas Bond	09/30/11	21	4837-4845
145	Request for Transcripts	10/03/11	21	4846-4848
146	Third Amended Notice of Appeal	10/10/11	21	4849-4864
147	Third Amended Case Appeal Statement	10/10/11	21	4865-4869
148	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 6 (Bench Conferences)	03/21/11	21	4870-4883
149	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 7 (Bench Conferences)	03/22/11	21	4884-4900
150	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 8 (Bench Conferences)	03/23/11	21	4901-4920
151	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 9 (Bench Conferences)	03/24/11	21	4921-4957
152	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 10 (Bench Conferences)	03/25/11	21	4958-4998
153	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 11 (Bench Conferences)	03/28/11	21	4999-5016
154	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 12 (Bench Conferences)	03/29/11	22	5017-5056
155	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 13 (Bench Conferences)	03/30/11	22	5057-5089
156	Portion of Jury Trial - Day 14 (Bench Conferences)	03/31/11	22	5090-5105

•
1	regarded as a leader do you think?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Some sports, I could say.
з	MR. EGLET: Did you play sports in high school?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
5	MR. EGLET: What'd you play?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I was in wrestling and I was
7	a baseball player.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay. If someone were to offer to send money
9	to the charity of your choice, what charity would that be?
LO	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: It would be the MDA.
Ll	MR. EGLET: Okay. Why the MDA?
L2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Because I just feel really
L3	bad for the kids. And I like to be around kids, and so
14	MR. EGLET: Do you have someone in your family who
15	suffers from multiple muscular dystrophy?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No.
17	MR. EGLET: Have you known someone who suffers from
18	muscular dystrophy? I'm just why cause you said the MDA.
19	That's the organization you're talking about
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
21	MR. EGLET: muscular dystrophy? Okay. You don't know
22	anybody. It's just something that's touched you in your life?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
24	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. What's the worst tragedy
25	that you've had to experience?

ľ
l

Т	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: My mother died of cancer when
2	I was eight years old.
3	MR. EGLET: Have you been raised since then by your
4	grandparents?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah. And half of my life by
6	my dad.
7	MR. EGLET: Half of your life by your dad?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
9	MR. EGLET: Is your dad here in the United States?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: He is.
11	MR. EGLET: How old were you when you moved here from El
12	Salvador?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I was eight years old.
14	MR. EGLET: Eight years old?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay. Cause that's when your mom died?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Yeah.
18	MR. EGLET: All right. So you were living with her in El
19	Salvador?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Mm-hmm.
21	MR. EGLET: Did you is your dad in El Salvador now or
22	is he here in the United States?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Oh, he's here.
24	MR. EGLET: He's here. All right. When you heard when you hear someone's been hurt or killed or becomes seriously ill, how often do you think it might have happened because of bad things that person may have done in their -- earlier in their life? Do you ever feel that way?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No. I really think everyone has their own destiny and some things were meant to happen and some of them aren't.

MR. EGLET: Okay. That kind of -- your answer kind of brings me to my next question is, is some people believe that when someone is killed or hurt, it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will or just plain bad luck, so that that person should not sue anyone or bring a lawsuit because it was bound to happen eventually anyway. Do you agree with that statement or disagree?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: I disagree.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Why do you disagree?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Well, I got a little bit disoriented a little bit with the question. Can you please ask that again?

MR. EGLET: Sure. Sure. There are some people who believe that when someone is killed or hurt, it's usually due to fate or destiny, God's will or just plain bad luck, so that they shouldn't sue anyone who may have been at fault for them being hurt because it was bound to happen anyway. Do you agree with that statement or you disagree?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: No comment really because, I mean, I look at it if it's, like, meant to happen, it happens.

ΛVTranz

And I believe in karma. I mean, if I do good things, it comes back to me. If I do bad things, it comes back to me, too.

MR. EGLET: All right. Very good. Who's the public figure, living or dead, that you admire most and why?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Martin Luther King, Jr.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And why Dr. King?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 005: Because he was just a noble man and I think he did pretty good [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: Okay. Very good. Thank you. Mr. Kim?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yes.

MR. EGLET: How are you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: I'm good.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us -- I know that you -well, actually, I don't know what you do. You left your 16 employment blank. Are you currently employed?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: No.

MR. EGLET: And you're 19 years old, is that correct?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yes.

MR. EGLET: Okay. How long ago was it you graduated from 21 | high school? Was it last year?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: It was -- yeah, springtime.

MR. EGLET: Okay. So last May, I guess. And that was 24 here locally?

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.

AVTranz

1	MR. EGLET: What have you been doing since then?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Well, I started college. And
3	so I'm still in school right now. And then I used I just
4	did part-time jobs before. But then I'm in a program now.
5	MR. EGLET: So you're in college right now?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.
7	MR. EGLET: Are you in the are you at UNLV, the
8	community college?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: CSN.
10	MR. EGLET: CSN? Okay. And what are you studying at
11	CSN?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Business.
13	MR. EGLET: And are you a fulltime student?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Part time.
15	MR. EGLET: Part time? Did you just start this semester,
16	or did you go in the fall?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: This semester.
18	MR. EGLET: This semester. Okay. So you took the fall
19	off?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.
21	MR. EGLET: And you still live with your parents then
22	here in town? What do your parents do?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: My mom's the dealer and my
24	dad's a [indiscernible] for TI.
25	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And what did you want to

1	be when you were in high school, last year?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Honestly, I, you know, I
3	didn't have or I didn't want to be anything. Just I
4	just wanted to [indiscernible].
5	MR. EGLET: All right.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Finish school and go to
7	college and be successful in the world.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay. Very good. What are your five year
9	goals right now?
LO	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: You know, just to finish
L1	school and try to build a good life.
12	MR. EGLET: What clubs or organizations do you belong to?
L3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: I don't really belong to any
L4	clubs or anything.
L5	MR. EGLET: What about when you were in high school? Did
L6	you belong to any clubs or organizations?
L 7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: No.
L8	MR. EGLET: All right. What are the two most important
.9	values that you hold or you think that your parents instilled
0 2	in you other than honesty and whatever faith you may practice?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: I would say, like well,
22	for me it's kind of like I can't really think of any right
23	now. But one was, like, trust, I guess. I just needed to 24	trust [indiscernible].
25	MR. EGLET: Okav. [Indiscernible].

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: No.
2	MR. EGLET: What situations do you think you're regarded
3	as a leader?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Sometimes when my friends
5	just need advice, they seem to always come to me and ask me
6	first.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. Personal advice?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.
9	MR. EGLET: Okay. And I know you're awfully young, but
10	what's the worst tragedy that you've ever had to experience?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Just seeing, like, my grandpa
12	pass away.
13	MR. EGLET: Your grandfather passing away? If someone
14	were to offer to send money to the charity of your choice,
15	what charity would that be?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: I guess something to do with
17	kids, cause I'm really, like cause I go to church. So,
18	like, I really, like, help out with kids and stuff. So I
19	really like just hanging out with kids.
20	MR. EGLET: When you hear someone has been hurt or killed
21	or becomes seriously ill, how often do you think it might have
22	happened to that person because of something they did in their
23	past?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: It's kind of like 50/50.
2 =	Tibe it could have And then I'm just like, on, like, both

1	sides of it that issue.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. And some people believe that when
3	someone is killed or hurt it's usually due to fate, destiny,
4	God's will or just bad luck and so even though it may have
5	been someone else's fault, they shouldn't bring a lawsuit for
6	that. Do you agree with that? Do you disagree with that?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Well, the same with that.
8	Like, there's some, like, you should bring a lawsuit and some
9	that you don't need to.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you give us an example of when you
11	think somebody shouldn't bring a lawsuit?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Like it's not like stuff
13	that where they don't do it, like, unintentionally and
14	stuff. And people just like, I think they over-exaggerate
15	things.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay. So you think some people overւ7	exaggerate when you say over-exaggerate, do you talk about
18	what their injuries are?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: I guess that'd be fine if
22	just, like, they pay for, like, the expenses. But
23	MR. EGLET: Okay.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: [indiscernible].
25	MR. EGLET: And when you use the word you said, don't

21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET:

MR. EGLET: Okay.

do it on purpose.

2 Explain what you mean. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Like, I guess, like, people 3 think, like, they -- or I can't really explain. It's kind of 4 hard to explain, so. 5 Well, do you -- let me just ask you this way. 6 Do you feel that someone who injures another person and they 7 didn't do it intentionally, they were just negligent --8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah. 9 MR. EGLET: -- okay, they didn't set out to hurt the 10 They were negligent and as a result of that 11 negligence, another person got hurt. Do you think that that 12 negligent person should be held responsible or not? Do --13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Oh, yeah. 14 15 MR. EGLET: You do? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah. 16 17 MR. EGLET: Okay. Why? Just because, like, I guess -18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: - I quess it's not -- well it's -- I guess, like, it is their 19 fault, too. But then I feel like --20

Is your -- what are you telling us?

ΛVTranz

I guess they -- I

It's whose fault, too?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: The -- no, that was the person that [indiscernible] the person that made the injury.

1	guess as long as they, like, see if the other person is okay
2	and then they pay for injuries and all that stuff then it's
3	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Okay. Now, who's the
4	public figure living or dead that you admire most?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 899: Honestly, right now I can't
6	think of one.
7	MR. EGLET: You can't think of you know I'm going to
8	come back to you? So you gotta keep thinking, all right?
9	Okay. Okay. Very good. Thank you. Ms. Nolte?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Hi.
11	MR. EGLET: How are you?

MR. EGLET: Good. Good. I know that you work at Pride Mobility and Logistics. And I have no idea what that means.

15 | Can you explain that for us?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903:

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Pride Mobility, we distribute medical equipment such as wheel chairs -- scooters and wheel chairs. And I deal with freight going -- coming in and going out.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And tell us what makes you good at your job.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I'm organized. I'm good at research. And the company needs somebody like that for tracking down lost product that out's there in the field.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And you have children?

ΛVTranz

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I do. I have two.
2	MR. EGLET: Well, what makes you a good parent?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I think just being there,
4	supporting them, loving them. I'm showing them that I'm right
5	behind them, whatever their decisions may be in their life.
6	MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you want to be when you were
7	in high school?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I wanted to be a
9	cosmetologist.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay. And did you pursue that?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: No.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. And how do you feel about not pursuing
13	that career?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Well, I don't feel sad at all
15	about that. I married a wonderful man, a military man, had 16	children and went on with my life as that. You know, I just
17	went to work with whatever I could felt I could handle.
18	MR. EGLET: What are the two most important values that
19	you hold dear, other than honesty or whatever faith you may
20	practice?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Integrity and trust. I feel
22	that basically you really need to trust the people that you're
23	around and stand behind what decisions you make in life.
24	MR. EGLET: All right. And what are the two most
25	important values you've tried to instill in your children?

The same thing, integrity and PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: 1 Stand behind your decisions. 2 MR, EGLET: Okay. What are your five-year goals? Did I 3 4 ask you that already? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: 5 Not yet. MR. EGLET: 6 Okay. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Working toward my retirement. 7 MR. EGLET: All right. A little bit harder in these 8 9 times than it was a few years ago. PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: It sure is. 10 MR. EGLET: Tell us what situations you're regarded as a 11 leader in. 12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Well, I have a lot of people 13 coming to me at work whenever our manager is out. I just seem 14 to fall into answering questions coming forward (sic). You 15 know, when somebody comes in the office and needs something, 16 17 I'm the first one to ask, hey, can I help you. And then following through with them with whatever they need. 18 need any training, I step forward and do the training for 19 them, show them what they need to do. And I feel that the 20 more people that know the work and the situations, the process 21 at work, makes everybody's life a lot easier. 22 MR. EGLET: Very good. And if someone offers to send 23 money to the charity of your choice, what charity would that 24 25 be?

ΛVTranz

MR. EGLET:

Okay.

```
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Celiac Foundation.
1
          MR. EGLET: Which Foundation?
2
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Celiac Foundation.
3
          MR. EGLET: Celias (sic). What is that?
4
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: It's an allergy towards 5 gluten.
6
7
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: So I think more people need 8 to know about gluten-free products and people that suffer
9 10 through celiac disease.
          MR. EGLET: Okay. And have you had someone close to you 11 or -- that has that problem?
12
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: My husband does.
13
                                                         I think I
                                     Okay. Very good.
          MR. EGLET: Your husband.
14 failed to ask you what clubs or organization you belong to.
15
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903:
                                      I don't.
16
                     You don't. Have you ever?
17
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: No.
18
                      Okay. And what's the worst tragedy that 19
          MR. EGLET:
20 you've had to experience in life?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Losing my sister.
21
                      Okay. And how old were you and how old was 22
          MR, EGLET:
23 your sister?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: My sister was 49.
24
```

AVTranz

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: And I was 47.
2	MR. EGLET: And did she pass from an illness or an
3	accident?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: She had a heart attack.
5	MR. EGLET: She had a heart attack. Very young.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Mm-hmm.
7	MR. EGLET: I'm sorry to hear that. When you hear
8	someone who's been hurt or killed or becomes seriously ill,
9	how often do you think it might have happened because of bad
10	things that person has done in their life?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: I don't believe in that.
12	MR. EGLET: Some people believe that when someone is
13	killed or hurt, it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will,
14	bad luck, so that if it's someone else's fault that they
15	shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it was bound to happen
16	anyway. Do you agree with that?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: No.
18	MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most and 19	why?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: Well, actually, I really
21	don't have one. But I feel that a lot of our celebrities out
22	there or movie stars and what have you, I think they need
23	to really set a good example for our young people in the
24	world. And I think that there are some at the top right now
25	that are stepping forward and have stepped forward whenever ther	e's	a 1	natur	al d	isaster	and	st	eppir	ng forw	ard	and	donatin	g and	lead	ling	g us	with	donatio	ons t	:0	help	people	out	in	these crises. 3

1

2

4

5

6

7 ß

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: I assume Charlie Sheen is not at the top of your list.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: No. No, no, no.

MR. EGLET: All right. Thank you very much.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 903: You're welcome.

MR. EGLET: I appreciate it. Mr. Doty.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Doty.

MR. EGLET: Doty. I'm going to get it right before we're done here, I promise. Mr. Doty. Is it D-O-T-Y?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Mm-hmm.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Doty.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yep.

MR. EGLET: Mr. Doty, you are self-employed. And can you 16 17 tell us what you're self-employed as?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Marketing. I have a marketing business and I market [indiscernible] nutritional supplements.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And I notice you look like a pretty fit guy. Are you -- you're into training and stuff like that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Not professionally. through, I guess, my passion to be healthy. And I'm gifted with strength so I enjoy being in a gym. And I have some

ΛVTranz

_	_
⋟	₹
₹	2
	ڔ
•	·I

1	other friends and other people I meet that I help out. And,
2	you know, they tip me a little bit here and there for just
3	for fun. But yeah.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. And how long have you been in this
5	the nutritional supplement industry?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I guess professionally,
7	since I got laid off from the construction industry, about
8	eight months.
9	MR. EGLET: Okay. And do you have a store or do you
10	is this you do this so do you
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: It's relationship marketing.
12	MR. EGLET: Relationship marketing.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah. Cause I don't have
14	realty
15	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: a store.
17	MR. EGLET: What makes you good at your job?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Vision, determination. I
19	enjoy talking to people. I like getting to know people.
20	Here, I think I've I believe I have a genuine interest and,
21	I guess, care and love for that matter for people in general.
22	And so I you know, I enjoy meeting new people. That's what
23	I believe helps out.
24	MR. EGLET: Let me ask you because what you do for a
25	profession and what you're into, do you have any feelings about traditional medicine and traditional medical treatment versus holistic treatment and more natural cures?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yes.

MR. EGLET: Do you have any feelings about that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Tell us about that.

prospective juror No. 905: I believe that the majority of medical costs in the country today are due to poor lifestyles, poor choices. Not that that's necessarily a fact. Everybody has their agency to choose what they want to do. But given the question, yes, I believe that if people were more educated, understood more possibly, maybe had some more support, that yeah, a lot of the -- all the generative diseases would be [indiscernible].

I'm not saying that traditional doctors -- there's always going to be a need for, you know, emergency or triage and that -- you know, things of that nature. But all -- most of the cancers, I believe, a lot of the generative diseases, there's medical literature that -- extensive medical literature that says that proper nutrition, yeah, holistic things throughout life will prevent those things from happening. And so all those things typically don't surface until later in life. But they fly under the radar for a long time, starting in the teen years, even before that. So, yeah. If that's enough explanation.

ΛVTranz

	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
1	MR. EGLET: Oh, yeah. Yeah.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I could go on all night if
3	you want me to.
4	MR. EGLET: No, no, no. I think I know a lot of
5	people who feel the way you do and have some very good
6	arguments. And, you know, I appreciate you sharing that with
7	us. Do you have children? I know you've been married
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Four.
9	MR. EGLET: for seven years. You have four children
10	in seven years?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Mm-hmm.
12	MR. EGLET: Wow, you've been busy.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: I grew up in a large family.
14	And we're close together, and I like that.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: You know, more like a more
17	of a friend relationship with your siblings.
18	MR. EGLET: And you went to University of Utah, but you -
19	-
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Southern Utah University.
21	MR. EGLET: Sorry. Is that that's in Cedar City,
22	right?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yes.
24	MR. EGLET: Okay. Did you actually go to class or did
25	you ski every day?

_	_

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No, I went to class. All I
2	had time for was class, and then four or five hours of
3	football every day. But
4	MR. EGLET: Did you play ball up there?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Mm-hmm.
6	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Very good. And you but
7	you grew up here in Las Vegas. What high school did you go
8	to?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Durango.
10	MR. EGLET: Durango. Okay. So tell us what makes you a
11	good parent.
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Consistency, discipline and
13	love.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay. And when you were in high school, what
15	did you want to be?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Military.
17	MR. EGLET: Military. Okay. And you didn't go that
18	route?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No.
20	MR. EGLET: And what changed your mind?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Because I also had a strong
22	desire to be a good father and a husband. And I think it's
23	difficult, extremely difficult if not impossible no, I
24	wouldn't say impossible, but very difficult to be the best at
25	what you do in the military and at the same time be the best parent and spouse.

Я

So I decided to kind of, I guess it's not a bad thing, but sacrifice that desire that I had to serve, cause I really love the structure, the whole -- you know, the idealistic military life, I guess, that would be -- I'm sure there's other views and opinions. But yeah. So I guess I sacrificed that because I also had a very strong desire to be a family man. So I think it's difficult. It's a challenge I didn't feel like taking to try to do both.

MR. EGLET: What are your goals for the next five years? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: To pay off my house.

MR. EGLET: That's an ambitious goal.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Save a -- yeah. Save a pretty good chunk of money for my children to help towards their college. I'm not going to pay for it. Even if I had the money, I wouldn't. Yeah, I guess -- I mean, does that sound bad? Maybe they're just financial things. But at this point, yes.

MR. EGLET: Tell us why -- you made a comment even if you had the money you wouldn't pay for your kids' college. Why do you -- what makes you feel that way?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Because nothing is free in life. You need to learn. You always hear -- I don't know any personally, but you always hear the stories of the, you know, the spoiled little rich kid that had everything handed to them. And then also, I've read I read a lot of books and, you know, self-development, along those lines, you know. And you hear some of the on the flip side, other cool stories of a father who was extremely wealthy and he would do little tests here and there to raise his children. And I agree with that completely that it falls it's is a good thing. I mean, it's a good tool to have the money. But to just give everything without any kind of teaching, it would be an extreme detriment to a child, in my opinion.

MR. EGLET: Thank you. Clubs or organizations you belong to?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Currently, I would just say my church. I'm involved currently with National Boy Scouts of America, as well. I grew up with that. I went to ROTC in college and high school. Yeah, I think that's all the clubs or organizations that --

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what do you think are the two most important values that you want to teach your children?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Valor would be the first one, and probably tenacity, fortitude, perseverance, you know, kind of along those lines.

MR. EGLET: And are those the same values you -- PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Exactly.

MR. EGLET: -- hold the most important? All right. Can you tell us what situations that you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Within my assignment within the church, I'm actually the leader of all the young men in the -- by the church.

MR. EGLET: Are you in the bishop [indiscernible]? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: We have [indiscernible]?

MR. EGLET: Okay.

prospective juror No. 905: Most of my friends usually come to me for advice, whether it be, you know, lifestyle advice or health advice. My best friend in particular says like -- oh, I don't mind but he's always been questioning, asking, you know, when I am going to give my advice in a gym, people come up to me or, you know, hey, what's -- you know, what are you doing, you know? So yeah, in a lot of ways, everywhere really. I think that my upbringing, the -- I guess the gifts, if you will, that I've been given and whatnot, contribute to that.

MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what charity would that be?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: It would have to be the welfare division of my church. I'm probably biased to that. But I believe that they are the most well-organized and distribute it where it needs to go. All of the positions are volunteers so there's zero overhead to go to pay anything.

)
Ē	5
=	`
Ξ	'
	1 ľ)
~	•

1	So, yeah.
2	MR. EGLET: What's the worst tragedy that you've had to
3	experience?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Well, like the other guy
5	mentioned, I have I've had a good life. But I guess if
6	there was a thing that would be considered a tragedy, probably
7	when I was a kid I got mauled by a dog.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what kind of injuries did you
9	was it pretty severe injuries?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah. I was I'm probably
11	lucky that I'm not blind or dead, but.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: It was an Akita, you know,
14	those big old Japanese bear dogs, whatever they used to call
15	them. I had, like, 60 stitches all over my head, but.
16	MR. EGLET: Did your parents bring any sort of claim as a
17	result of that?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: No.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. When you hear someone has been hurt,
20	killed or becomes seriously ill, how often do you think it
21	might have been because of bad things that that person has
22	done earlier in their life?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Well, I don't believe that
24	people have those things happen because of a punishment.
25	MR. EGLET: Some people believe that when someone is killed or hurt it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will or bad luck so that even if someone else is negligent or responsible for causing their injuries, they shouldn't bring lawsuit cause it because it was bound to happen anyway. Do you agree, disagree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Probably 50/50.

MR. EGLET: Okay. In the middle?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Yeah, I'm in the middle. I mean, I believe -- I guess a good quote, you know, Forrest Gump, you know, a little bit of destiny and -- you know, mixed together. I don't think we're just total haphazardly going through life. I do believe there is a plan. And certain things in general are going to happen. But, I mean, obviously I don't think that if you're sitting in your home and somebody kicks the door down and goes on a shooting rampage, that has anything to do with that. So there's -- you know, other people have their ability to choose and their choices will have an adverse affect on other people. So it's a case by case scenario.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Who's the public figure --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Theodore Roosevelt.

MR. EGLET: Sorry?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: Teddy Roosevelt.

MR. EGLET: President Roosevelt. Why Teddy Roosevelt?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 905: He was born kind of like an

1	underdog, you know, he was frail. His dad not like his
2	dad. His dad was a, you know, prominent guy, athletic, tough.
3	And he was told, you know, told to take it easy, you're going
4	to hurt yourself. But out of that, we all know the kind of
5	man he became. You know, him and the rough riders going up,
6	you know, the Spanish American War. He appealed to the cowboy
7	because he was that. He was a cowboy, yet he was still
8	accepted in the aristocrats that were where he was born and
9	grown up. And he just was, in my opinion, probably yeah,
10	besides maybe the original founding fathers, one of the top
11 -	two or three greatest American presidents.
12	MR. EGLET: All right. Thank you very much, Mr. Doty.
13	Mr. Martinez.
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Hello.
15	MR. EGLET: How are you, sir?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I'm doing fine.
17	MR. EGLET: Good. Mr. Martinez, I know that you work at
18	the Wynn in the construction warehouse as a construction
19	warehouse attendant, correct?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Correct.
21	MR. EGLET: And have you worked there since the Wynn
22	opened?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: No. Actually, I got hired
24	about I think it was a year after it opened.
25	MR. EGLET: All right. And can you tell us what makes you	good	at	your	job?

-----	------	----	------	------

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I think my hard work and dedication. You know, I've gotta show up to work every day and work hard and be dedicated.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Very good. And I know you've been married for three years. Do you have any children yet?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Yes, I do. I have two daughters.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what makes you a good parent?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I think being -- giving them a stable home, you know, giving them discipline when they have to be disciplined. And, I mean, I think the most important thing, though, is giving them something stable where they can have a mom and a dad.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what are your -- what did you want to be when you were in high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Actually, when I was in high school I didn't really want to be anything but what I was, which was I got involved in the -- in street gangs in California. So I didn't really have any goals.

MR. EGLET: Okay. I know you were born in South Lake Tahoe. Is -- I take it -- did you grow up in South Lake Tahoe?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: No. I actually was born there, but I grew up in the southern California area, so.

ı	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And tell us about your
2	I mean, I don't want a whole long history detail, but how long
3	did you get involved in street gangs? It was just when you
4	were in high school, or?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Yeah. I mean, I was involved
6	with them all the way up to I was about 20 years old, 'til
7	I had my first daughter.
8.	MR. EGLET: How did you get out of that life?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Because of my daughters. I
10	wanted them to have a dad. And the way I was living, I
11	they might not have a dad after that, you know? So
12	MR. EGLET: Very good. Congratulations. Tell us, what
13	makes you a good parent?
14	THE COURT: You asked that already.
15	MR. EGLET: Oh, I asked that?
16	THE COURT: Yes, you did.
17	MR. EGLET: I apologize. I asked that, I've been told.
18	THE COURT: Stable home and discipline.
19	MR. EGLET: Oh, you're right. What are your five year
20	goals?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: To be married and to be there
22	for my daughters.
23	MR. EGLET: And do you belong to any clubs or
24	organizations?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: No.

MR. EGLET: All right. And what are the two most important values that you believe in other than honesty and whatever faith you may practice?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Can you rephrase that again?
MR. EGLET: Sure. I mean, what are the things that are most important as far as values or how you want to live your life, the things that you want to exemplify in your life, what are the two most important values that you hold other than honesty and whatever faith you may practice? And at the same time, what are the two most important values you want to pass on to your children?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: A strong I mean, first of all, love, I think. I mean, if you don't have no love, I mean, you it's hard to get anywhere, you know? And that's all I can probably think about right now.
MR. EGLET: All right. What situations do you think you're regarded as a leader?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Being a parent. I mean, we have to give discipline. You have to give advice, you know?
And they're going to come to you, so I think that's that would be being a leader.
MR. EGLET: Very good. What's the worst tragedy that you've had to experience in your life?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Losing childhood friends

ΛVTranz

because of the road that we took together, you know? And them dying at a early age, they really never got to live what I got to live and have a family and, you know, have a stable home.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Very good. When you hear someone has been hurt or killed or becomes seriously ill, how often do you think it might have happened because of bad things that person may have done earlier in their life? Do you agree with that or disagree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I agree and disagree.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Explain what you mean.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I could have had -- I mean, a lot of -- I could have died doing the things that I was doing, you know. But I mean, there's accidents, you know? So I'm 50/50 with it.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Some people believe that someone -- when someone is killed or hurt that it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will, bad luck, so that even if it was someone else's fault, that they shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it was bound to happen anyway. Do you agree with that or do you disagree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: Oh, I disagree. That's why there's laws, you know? So --

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Thank you. Who is the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 910: I would have to -- I think I heard it earlier. I would have to say Jesus Christ because of

```
MR. EGLET: All right. Thank you very much, Mr.
```

3 | Martinez. Mr. Harrison?

his self-discipline.

1

2

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Mm-hmm.

MR. EGLET: How are you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Doing good.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Now, you are a fulltime student at CC -- CSN, correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: No. I work at CSN.

MR. EGLET: Oh, you work there. I see. I'm sorry. You work there in -- for the College of Southern Nevada. I see that.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. What makes you good at your job?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I'm reliable. I'm a hard 16 worker. Yeah.

MR. EGLET: How long have you been working there?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: It's going on five years.

MR. EGLET: Five years. And since you got out of high school?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Pretty much, yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And I see you lived in Sacramento for a period of time.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah. My -- well, we were stationed over at -- in Sacramento. And then we got -- he got 132

1	my dad got stationed back over here, so.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. So your dad's the (sic) Air Force?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah.
4	MR. EGLET: All right. Okay. And is he still in the Air
5	Force?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: No, he's retired.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us what you are
8	single, so you have no children?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: No.
LO	MR. EGLET: All right. Can you tell us what you wanted
L 1	to be when you were in high school?
۱2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: What I wanted to be? I
L3	wanted to be a firefighter.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. And tell us why you didn't pursue that
L 5	career.
L6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I don't know. The economy
17	got I guess the economy was too bad and school was
18	expensive. So I just went with whatever was available.
9	MR. EGLET: All right. Good. What are your five year
20	goals right now?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: To purchase a home and I
22	don't know. Just keep a job, I guess.
23	MR. EGLET: Well, that's a good goal in this economy,
24	keep your job. It's a good time to purchase a home, not the
5	heat time to gell a home

	· ·
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us what clubs or
3	organizations you belong to or have belonged to in the past?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: None.
5	MR. EGLET: What about when you were in high school?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: None.
7	MR. EGLET: None? All right. What are the most
8	important values that you hold that or that your parents
9	attempted to instill in you?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I guess integrity. I don't
11	know. Reliability.
12	MR. EGLET: Reliability and integrity? Okay.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah. Trust, I guess, so to 14	speak.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And can you tell us in
16	what situations you think you're regarded as a leader?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I'm a I don't know. I'm

Yeah.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912:

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what charity would that be?

mostly a follower. And then once I get to know what I'm PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I don't know. Probably Red Cross.

MR. EGLET: And why the Red Cross?

doing, I usually pick it up pretty quick, so.

18

19 20 21

22

23

24

25

ΛVTranz

2 | the most, I guess.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what's the worst tragedy that you've ever gone through?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Shoot, probably my parents' divorce.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And how old were you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I was 20.

MR. EGLET: You were 20.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. When you hear someone has been hurt or killed or becomes seriously ill, how often do you think it might have happened because of bad things the person may have done earlier in life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I don't know. I'm kind of 50/50 on that. I guess -- some people, I guess, choose the life they want to choose and they go the way they want to go. And other people -- I don't know. I don't know. I guess, yeah. I guess, yeah. I guess, yeah. I would say 50/50 on that. I don't know.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And some people believe that when someone is killed or hurt it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will, bad luck, so that even if it was someone else's fault, they shouldn't sue because it was bound to happen anyway. Do you agree or disagree with that?

ΛVTranz

4 p
5 c
6 h
7 y
8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

25

1

2

3

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I disagree.

MR. EGLET: And tell us why.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Because, I don't know, some people might have, like, I don't know, illnesses before that or something and they, I don't know, wanted to -- if something happened, they probably wanted to sue or something. Or -- yeah. I guess --

MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us the public figure you admire most and why?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Can I say my mom?

MR. EGLET: No. Unless she's a public figure. Do we know her?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Sure. No. Probably --

MR. EGLET: Cause everybody would be saying their mom.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I know. But there's not -no really people (sic) I look up to right now that's in my head, so.

MR. EGLET: Well, is there someone out there that is in the public that you admire for whatever reason?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I can't think of nobody right now.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: I don't know. Probably like a president or something.

MR. EGLET: A president now or some former president?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Probably Clinton.
2	MR. EGLET: Clinton?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah.
4	MR. EGLET: Why President Clinton?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Cause he was a strong person.
6	He got a lot of grief over the whole deal, but I guess
7	MR. EGLET: The Monica Lewinski deal?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah. I don't know.
9	MR. EGLET: But you admire President Clinton?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 912: Yeah. Out of all well,
11	out of the presidents, I guess.
12	MR. EGLET: And he's done remarkable things since he's
13	been out of office. I don't think anybody can dispute that,
14	right? All right. Thank you very much. Ms. Rosinski?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes?
16	MR. EGLET: How are you?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I'm fine.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay. Are you getting tired of hearing these
19	same questions over and over again?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
21	MR. EGLET: Different answers, but same questions.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
23	MR. EGLET: You are employed at the Bellagio as a PBX
24	operator, right?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes, sir.

	,

1	MR. EGLET: And how long have you been doing that?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I've been doing that about 30
3	years.
4	MR. EGLET: Thirty years?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
6	MR. EGLET: Okay. Not all at the Bellagio, though?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: No.
8	MR. EGLET: What makes you good at your job?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I listen to the guests and
10	then I try to help them with what they need.
11	MR. EGLET: Okay. And I know you've been married for 12	well, you were married for 27 years and you've been divorced
13	for a few years, right?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
15	MR. EGLET: Okay. And you have children?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Four of them.
17	MR. EGLET: Four. And what made you a good parent?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Teaching them love and ۱9	respect and care for [indiscernible] I. Family is always
20	important.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what did you want to be when you
22	were in high school?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: A vet.
24	MR. EGLET: A veterinarian?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.

1	MR. EGLET: Okay. And why didn't you pursue that?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I had kids.
3	MR. EGLET: You had kids. You got married, you had kids?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO, 918: I had kids, yes.
5	MR. EGLET: And life happened?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: It did happen.
7	MR. EGLET: How do you feel about not being able to
8	pursue that career?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I wish I could have.
10	MR. EGLET: Yeah.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yeah. I really like animals.
12	MR. EGLET: Do you have a lot of animals?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: My whole family does, yes.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: We have quite a few dogs and
16	cats and birds. Yes.
17	MR. EGLET: Very good. Can you tell us what your five-
18	yéar goals are?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: To be here.
20	MR. EGLET: To be here.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Living. And to watch my
22	grandchildren grow up.
23	MR. EGLET: How many grandchildren do you have?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Five.
25	MR. EGLET: Five. And then how old are they?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: From ten down to I have
2	twins that are four months.
3	MR. EGLET: Okay. Lots of fun.
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
5	MR. EGLET: The clubs or organizations you've belonged to
6	over your life?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: None now. I was in Girl
8	Scouts and Brownies. I also was leaders of them. I was also
9	secretary and treasurer of the Cub Scouts.
10	MR. EGLET: And the two most important values that you
11	hold dear?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Love and respect.
13	MR. EGLET: Love and respect. And what are the two most
14	important values you tried to impart on your children?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Those.
16	MR. EGLET: Love and respect?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Definitely.
18	MR. EGLET: All right. What situations do you think
19	you're regarded as a leader?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: My family, my friends, their
21	friends. They all come to me for help [indiscernible].
22	MR. EGLET: Personal counseling?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Personal, yeah.
24	MR. EGLET: With personal issues?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.

	140
1	MR. EGLET: If someone offers to send money to the
2	charity of your choice, what charity is that?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: There would be two of them.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Juvenile diabetes.
6	MR. EGLET: Okay.
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: And the ASPCA.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay. I know why the ASPCA. Tell us about
9	the
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Juvenile diabetes?
11	MR. EGLET: juvenile diabetes. Why?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: My family is infested with
13	it.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: And we're from the little
16	ones on up.
17	MR. EGLET: Children and grandchildren?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. Understandable. What's the worst
20	tragedy you've ever had to experience?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: My mother died when I was
22	five. My father died when I was 12.
23	MR. EGLET: I'm sorry. Were you raised by grandparents?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Sisters.
25	MR. EGLET: Sisters. When you hear someone has been

```
000745
```

	141
i	killed, hurt or becomes seriously injured, how often do you
2	think it might have happened because of bad things that person
3	did
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Never.
5	MR. EGLET: previous (sic) in their life?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Never.
7	MR. EGLET: Okay. Some people believe that when someone
8	is killed or hurt, it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's
9	will, bad luck, so that even if it was someone else's fault,
10	it's wrong for them to sue.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I disagree.
12	MR. EGLET: You disagree?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I do not agree.
14	MR. EGLET: Who's the public figure you admire most?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: If I pick one, that would
16	have to be Oprah.
17	MR. EGLET: Oprah? Number one answer.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: She helps so much.
19	MR. EGLET: I've been doing this 24 years
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: You're kidding.
21	MR. EGLET: number one answer.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Well, she helps so many
23	people.
24	MR. EGLET: I met her two years ago.
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Did you?

```
000746
```

1	MR. EGLET: And I told her that.
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Very good.
3	MR. EGLET: And she was that I always ask this
4	question and she's the number one answer. She's a very
5	gracious lady. [Indiscernible]. I've been waiting for that,
6	so. I've never had a jury that that doesn't happen, so. All
7	right. Thank you very much.
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: You're welcome.
9	MR. EGLET: I appreciate it. Mr. Leonard?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes.
11	MR. EGLET: How are you, sir?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: A little tired.
13	MR. EGLET: Okay. I know. It's getting late in the day.
14	And you may be the last person for today, so.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: I was hoping you'd say that.
16	UNIDENTIFIED PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We all were,
17	MR. EGLET: Did you hear that, Your Honor?
18	THE COURT: Me, too. Me, too.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. I know that you are the club manager
20	and food and beverage manager Vegas Valley food and 21	beverage manager and club manager. Can you am I getting
22	that right? What do you do?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: I'm a club manager of a
24	gentlemen's club.
25	MR. EGLET: Okay. And you're

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: The name of it is
2	MR. EGLET: Which gentlemen's club?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: The old Seamless Club across
4	the street from the Orleans.
5	MR. EGLET: I'm sorry. Say again?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: The old Seamless Club
7	across the street from the Orleans. I'm sorry. I have the 8	flu.
9	MR. EGLET: Okay. That's okay. All right. And how long
10	have you had that how long have you had that position?
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: With this company, about a
12	year and four months.
13	MR. EGLET: And what did you do before that? Did you
14	have the same position
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Same thing.
16	MR. EGLET: with a different company? And was that
17	that was here in Las Vegas?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Correct.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what was the other company?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: D&I Food and Beverage.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. Very good. And what makes
22	you good at your job?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: I've always been, I guess, a
24	little lucky figuring out what people can and can't do pretty
25	quickly. Sometimes I can almost tell. So usually I have

1	pretty good luck putting people in the proper positions.
2	MR. EGLET: And I know that you were married for a while.
3	Do you have children?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: No.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. What did you want to be when you were
6	in high school?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Race car driver.
8	MR. EGLET: A racecar driver. Okay. And what happened
9	with that ambition?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Just never really pursued it.
11	MR. EGLET: Okay. Do you have any regrets about that?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Not really, no.
13	MR. EGLET: Okay. And it's never too late. My general
14	contractor at the age of 43 just became a racecar driver
15	actually, so. Quite a career change.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yeah.
17	MR. EGLET: What are your five year goals right now?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Probably spend the next five
19	years in Vegas and then the rest in Texas. My brother and
20	family rest of the family is planning on moving to Texas.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. And why are they planning on moving to
22	Texas?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: He likes it there. I visited
24	quite a few times and I like it, too.
25	MR. EGLET: Okay. Very good. And any clubs or

```
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Currently, no.
```

MR. EGLET: Currently, no? What about in the past?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Boxing clubs, things like

5 that.

1

2

4

6

8

10

16 20

22

MR. EGLET: Okay. Did you use to box?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes.

organizations you belong to?

MR. EGLET: Okay. And did you box professionally or 9 | amateur?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Kick box professionally, yes.

11 MR. EGLET: Okay. And how long did you do that?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Until I was about 24.

MR. EGLET: And the two most important values that are 14 | important to you?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Probably honesty and respect.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Other than honesty?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Love.

18 MR. EGLET: Love? Okay. What situations are you

19 | regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: What situations? I'm stuck

21 there now. Can you be more specific? My job makes me that.

MR. EGLET: All right. So in your work, cause you're in 23 management, you're a leader. But let's say outside of work, are there situations in life where you think you're a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: I pretty much keep to myself,

1	so no.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. If someone offers to send money to the
3	charity of your choice, what charity would that be?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Humane society.
5	MR. EGLET: Humane society?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Mm-hmm.
7	MR. EGLET: Are you an animal lover?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes.
9	MR. EGLET: A bunch of dogs?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes, a couple dogs, birds,
11	all that.
12	MR. EGLET: All right. Great. And what's the worst
13	tragedy you've ever had to experience?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: I pass on that question.
15	MR. EGLET: You'll pass on that question?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Please.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay. When you think or when you hear that 18	someone has been hurt, killed or becomes seriously ill, how
19	often do you think it might have happened because of bad
20	things that person may have done earlier in their life?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Boy, that's a loaded
22	question. I think if the I think fate has something to do
23	with it. And [indiscernible] also, so I think 50/50.
24	MR. EGLET: Some people believe that when someone is
25	killed or hurt, it's usually due to fate, destiny, God's will

1	or bad luck and so that even if it was someone else's fault,
2	they shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it was bound to happen
3	anyway. Do you agree with that?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO, 922: I disagree.
5	MR. EGLET: You disagree with that?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes.
7	MR. EGLET: And the public figure that you admire most?
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Jesus Christ.
9	MR. EGLET: And why do you admire Jesus Christ?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: You shouldn't even ask me
11	that one.
12	MR. EGLET: Well, I know. But we like to get an answer
13	why you do, not necessarily why maybe why I would or 14	someone else would. I need to know why you would.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Why I admire Jesus Christ?
16	He forgave us for our sins.
17	MR. EGLET: Thank you. Your Honor, did you want to stop
18	here today?
19	THE COURT: I think this might be a good time to break
20	for the day. I don't hear anybody objecting.
21	UNIDENTIFIED PERSPECTIVE JUROR: No.
22	THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, I remind you of your
23	obligation not to discuss this case with anyone, not to form
24	or express and opinion about this case, not to do any research
25	on any subject connected with this case. Let's ask you to

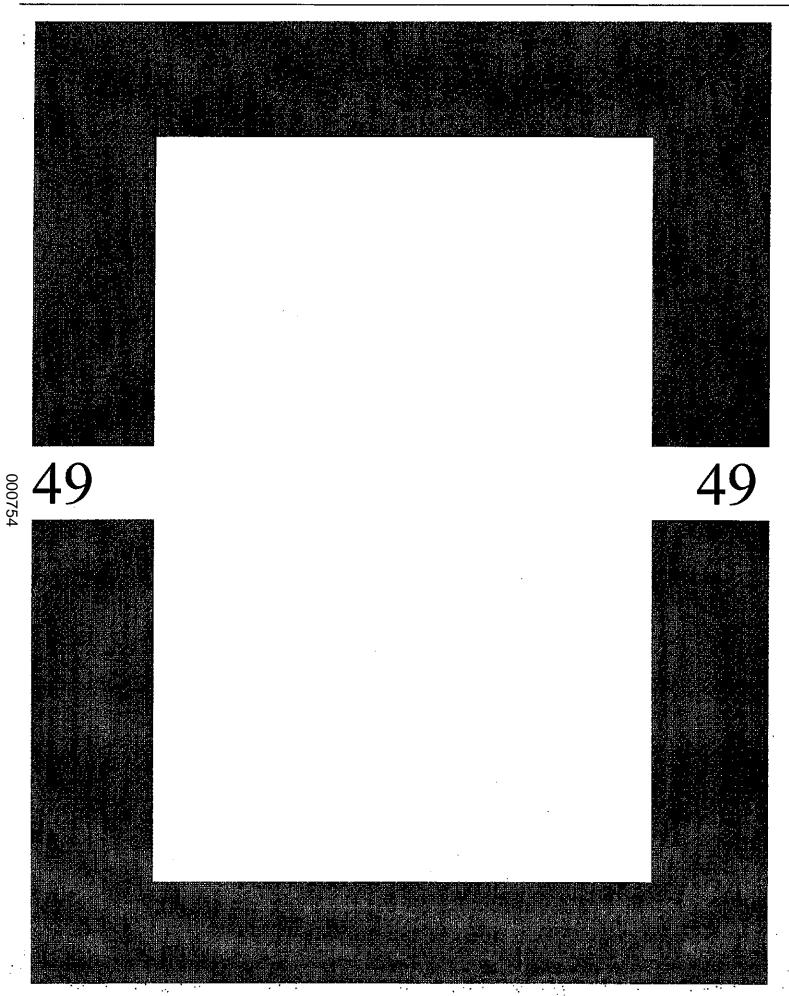

```
000752
```

	148
ı	meet back here promptly at 1:00 in the afternoon tomorrow so
2	that we can resume. Please if you're all here at 1:00, we can
3	resume promptly. Thank you. Have a nice afternoon.
4	JURY PANEL: You, too.
5	[Jury Panel Out]
6	[Proceedings Concluded at 4:53 P.M.]
7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14
15	·
16
17 18 19 20 21
22
23
2 4 25
6D

ATTEST: I do hereby certify that I have truly and correctly transcribed the audio/video recording in the above-entitled case to the best of my ability. LAURA HINTON, Transcriber LIESL SPRINGER, Transcriber

ΛVTranz

E-Reporting and E-Transcription Phoenix (602) 263-0885 • Tucson (520) 403-8024 Denver (303) 634-2295

CRIGINAL

1

1	TRAN Electronically Filed
2	04/15/2011 02:19:30 PM
3	DISTRICT COURT
4	CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA CLERK OF THE COURT
5	CHERYL A. SIMAO and) WILLIAM J. SIMAO,)
6	Plaintiffs,) CASE NO. A-539455
7)
8	v.) DEPT. X)
9	JAMES RISH, LINDA RISH) and JENNY RISH,)
10	Defendants.)
11	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
12	BEFORE THE HONORABLE JESSIE WALSH, DISTRICT COURT JUDGE
13	TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 2011
14	REPORTER'S TRANSCRIPT
15	JURY PANEL VOIR DIRE
16	APPEARANCES:
17	For the Plaintiffs: DAVID T. WALL, ESQ. ROBERT M. ADAMS, ESQ.
18	ROBERT T. EGLET, ESQ. Mainor Eglet
19	For the Defendant STEVEN M. ROGERS, ESQ.
20	Jenny Rish: Hutchison & Steffen, LLC
21
22
23
24 25 5
₹5	RECORDED BY: VICTORIA BOYD, COURT RECORDER

AVTranz
E-Reporting and E-Transcription
Phoenix (602) 263-0885 • Tucson (520) 403-8024
Denver (303) 634-2295

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 2011 AT 1:16 P.M.

THE MARSHAL: Please remain in order. Department 7 is now in session, the Honorable Jessie Walsh presiding.

THE COURT: Please be seated. Okay, outside the presence of the jury. Mr. Eglet?

MR. EGLET: Yes, Your Honor. I discussed this with Mr. Rogers. We have a scheduling problem for Friday. Our -- one of our chief doctors who we're going to be calling it's -- is -- has to -- we have to start his testimony at 12 noon on Friday instead of 1:00 because we've got to have him out of here at 3:45. He's got a flight, I guess. And so I was hoping that we could start at 12 and just have your staff and everybody eat lunch early, and then we'll probably be done by 4 that day then, on Friday.

THE COURT: Mr. Rogers, do you agree?

MR. ROGERS: I don't have a problem with starting at noon.

THE COURT: Very well, that's what we'll do. As long as we can stop at 4, that would be great.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And then the other issue, I think Matt has talked to you about this, Your Honor, is there's a number of people that I haven't addressed this issue. I've actually only gotten to two on the panel. They're the last two people I did who are claiming on their questionnaire significant hardships. I didn't question about that -- them about that because I didn't want to lose the entire panel. So what I'd like to do is I'd like to bring these people in individually, go through their hardship. On paper their hardships look pretty legitimate to me, but I think it's appropriate to question them on them and we could bring them in one at a time. And I guess there's another -- I didn't put on my -- I -- the only ones I put on my hardship are the clear significant financial. People who said they had to take their kids back and forth to school, my view is well, you can get other people to do this.

-

But apparently Ms. Reed, who's in seat number 6 right now, informed Matt --

THE MARSHAL: Not yet.

MR. EGLET: What?

THE MARSHAL: She's not in seat 6 yet.

MR. EGLET: Okay, you're right. She's not in the -she's subject to be called up, I guess. She has a childcare
-- she's a single mother, and apparently from her questionnaire I see her son is in Marine Corps training and is not back yet, and she's the only one who can take her child to and from school and has to pick her up at 2:40 --

THE MARSHAL: 2:15.

MR. EGLET: 2:15 every day. I just thought we'd bring her in, question her, see if there's anybody else she has to pick up her child, and make a decision. Then these other people, I've given Matt -- we need to bring these other people 1 in one at a time to question them on their hardships. 2 3 THE COURT: Mr. Rogers? MR. ROGERS: That's fine with me. I want to go back to 4 5 the scheduling issue. We can maybe discuss that right before 6 we close today if that's all right with you, just because we're having difficulty coordinating our witnesses, but I 7 suspect you want to get to this jury right now. 8 9 THE COURT: I do. MR. ROGERS: Yeah. So is that something we can address 10 11 at the close of the day? 12 THE COURT: Sure. 13 MR. ROGERS: Okay, thanks. 14 [Counsel and Marshal Confer] 15 [Prospective Juror No. 918 Enters Courtroom] 16 THE MARSHAL: This is Ms. Rosinski. 17 THE COURT: Okay, we're on record? 18 THE MARSHAL: [Indiscernible] 19 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Eglet. 20 MR. EGLET: Thanks. Hi, Ms. Rosinski. 21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: 22 The reason we brought you in separately is 23 MR. EGLET: 24 that on your jury questionnaire --25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918:

MR. EGLET: We don't like to do this in front of the entire panel because then it gives other panel members the idea of how to get out of jury service. Okay?
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Oh, okay.
MR. EGLET: But and that's why I didn't question you about this when I was
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: All right.
MR. EGLET: questioning you yesterday, but
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: All right.
MR. EGLET: I noticed on your jury questionnaire that you indicate that you'd have a significant hardship in this case. It would be
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes, I do.
MR. EGLET: significantly hard for you to serve. You indicated that you're the sole provider and that you work part-time and call on-call and if you don't work you don't get paid, that you live paycheck to paycheck and you will not be able to pay your condo payment, your car payment or your other bills if you have to serve on this jury.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yeah. But since then if I can say something?
MR. EGLET: Sure.
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: I've checked into it and my work does pay.

MR. EGLET: Oh, okay.

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Okay. So
2	MR. EGLET: Wonderful. All right, so then you're okay to
3	serve?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Yes.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay, great.
6	Thank you, Your Honor.
7	THE COURT: Okay, thank you. That's all we needed to
8	know.
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Okay.
LO	MR. EGLET: Thank you.
11	THE COURT: I'd ask you not discuss this interchange
L2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Oh, I
L3	THE COURT: with the other jurors.
L 4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 918: Okay, thanks.
۱5	[Prospective Juror No. 918 Exits Courtroom]
١6	MR. EGLET: Is she still with us?
լ 7	THE MARSHAL: She's still with us.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay. Mr. Leonard will be next.
19	THE MARSHAL: Okay.
20	[Prospective Juror No. 922 Enters Courtroom]
21	THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.
22	MR. EGLET: Thank you.
23	Good afternoon, Mr. Leonard.
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Hi.
2.5	MR EGLET: The reason we brought you in separately and I didn't ask you these questions yesterday is because we like to do these questions outside the presence of a jury so we don't give the other juror members the idea of how to get out of jury service. That's why I didn't ask you these questions yesterday. And -- you ready?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Trying to get this phone off.

For some reason -- I apologize -- it will not shut off.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Sorry.

MR. EGLET: On your jury questionnaire you indicated that you had a significant hardship. And I notice that reading it prior to jury selection that your supervisor at the club has just been let go; you've been elevated to that position. There's no one to replace you and that you work nights until 10 a.m. every morning, and you have the flu. Okay. Under those circumstances, I take it you're going to have to be working at night and not sleeping and then coming here to jury service; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yeah. A little bit, yeah.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Under those circumstances, do you feel it's going to be a significant hardship under these circumstances?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Yes.

MR. EGLET: We have no objection to him being excused, Your Honor.

ΛVTranz

1	THE COURT: Mr. Rogers?
2	MR. ROGERS: No, no objection.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: No, Judge? Thank you.
4	THE COURT: You may be excused, sir.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 922: Thank you.
6	[Prospective Juror No. 922 Exits Courtroom]
7	THE MARSHAL: Corporal Michael Webster, who's the next on
8	the list.
9	[Counsel Confer]
10	MR. EGLET: Who's the next one, Webster? Okay.
11	THE MARSHAL: Yeah, Sellers is excused already. He 12	doesn't answer up I'll [indiscernible] and the next one up
13	will be Ms. Reed.
14	MR. EGLET: Oh, Webster's not here?
1 5	THE MARSHAL: He hasn't answered up yet.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay.
17	THE MARSHAL: But he might be downstairs getting
18	something.
19	[Pause]
20	[Prospective Juror No. 043 Enters Courtroom]
21	THE MARSHAL: Maria Reed.
22	THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.
23	MR. EGLET: Thank you.
24	Good afternoon, Ms. Reed.
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Good afternoon.

n

_

MR. EGLET: Reason we're questioning you you're not i trouble or anything. The reason we're questioning you individually is because there's some stuff on your questionnaire that we don't want to question you in front of the rest of the juror members because it might give them the idea of how they get out of service. So we like to do these questions individually. In your jury questionnaire you indicated that for you to serve on this jury it would be a significant hardship because you're a single mother and you have a 13-year-old daughter you have to pick up from school every day, and that your son is in training with the Marine Corps, who normally could help you; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: My question is is there anyone else? Do you have any other family members here in Las Vegas?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: They're in California.

MR. EGLET: I'm sorry?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: They live in California.

MR. EGLET: Do you have any friends or neighbors or anyone, or your daughter's friends or anyone?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: It's just when she goes to her friend's house or -- they need the car. And I don't [indiscernible] you know, they go in the car. [Indiscernible] instead of doing their homework.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: So like after school I have to make sure that I'm home with her.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: If the -- if her brother is home I have no problem, but he doesn't come back until next month --

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: -- from training.

MR. EGLET: So your -- it sounds like your concern isn't so much of having someone to pick her up every day. Your concern is being there in the afternoons when she's home. You're concerned about her not having your supervision?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yeah, because I'm the only one --

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: -- that takes care of her right now.

MR. EGLET: Is there any after school program she can go in that you're aware of during this period of time?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Sometimes she does -- like I have to pick her up later because she does the honor society.

MR. EGLET: Uh-huh.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Until like 5 or 6.

MR. EGLET: And that's my question. Is there an after school program at her school where she can stay late every day

_	and so she's got teachers there supervising her?
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: I have no
3	MR. EGLET: What school does she go to?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Canarelli, by Jones and
5	Robindale.
6	MR. EGLET: I'll pass the juror to Mr. Rogers for
7	questioning.
8	MR. ROGERS: Okay. You mentioned that after school,
9	since you're not around, she goes to a friend's house?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No, because after school, if
11	I won't be there, I won't let anyone she won't be home by 12	herself. She has to go to like her classmate's house until 13	if I'm going to be here until I get home. They go to the 14	park. That's my concern.
15	MR. ROGERS: Instead of getting to their work?
16	[Prospective Juror Nods Affirmatively]
17	MR. ROGERS: Right. Does the friend have a parent who's
18	available to supervise, to watch
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: They're not
20	MR. ROGERS: over the children?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: They're working. They're at
22	work.
23	MR. ROGERS: And I'm sorry, how old is your child again?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Thirteen.
25	MR. ROGERS: So in the eighth grade?

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: She's in
2	MR. ROGERS: Okay. Let me make sure I've got everything
3	straight. So after school, if you're not around she goes to
4	the park with her friend or to a
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Yes.
6	MR. ROGERS: friend's house? And there are no parents
7	to
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: No.
9	MR. ROGERS: watch over them?
LO	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Just, you know, just them
l1	kids. And I don't like her going with her friends in the park ŀ2	like just like that, you know. I don't know what they do,
L3	but if they because there's boys there too, you know. I
L 4	don't like that.
15	MR. ROGERS: All right. Okay, thank you.
۱6	THE COURT: With the thanks of the Court, ma'am, you may
L7	be excused.
L 8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 043: Thank you.
L9	THE COURT: You're welcome.
20	[Prospective Juror No. 043 Exits Courtroom]
21	MR. EGLET: You're excusing her, Your Honor?
22	THE COURT: Yes.
23	[Pause]
24	[Prospective Juror No. 055 Enters Courtroom]
25	THE MARSHAL: This is Elaine Krause.

1	THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.
2	MR. EGLET: Thank you, Your Honor.
3	Good afternoon, Ms. Krause. How are you?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Good.
5	MR. EGLET: Ms. Krause, we are we ask these questions
6	outside the presence of the jury, these particular questions,
7	because we don't want the whole panel figuring out how to get
8	out of jury service. Okay? But we noticed on your jury
9	questionnaire you indicated that you had a significant
10	hardship, that your husband lost his job three weeks ago and
11	if you don't work you don't get paid.
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Correct.
13	MR. EGLET: Have you checked with your employer to find
14	out if you get paid for jury service?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Actually I have three
16	part-time jobs. And one I would get paid, the other two I
17	would not.
18	MR. EGLET: Okay.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: I did federal four weeks ago,
20	and so now this is my fifth day in a month.
21	MR. EGLET: Oh, you did federal jury service four weeks
22	ago?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: I wasn't chosen, but I did
24	have federal.
25	MR. EGLET: Went through this process?

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

25

Ļ	PROSPECTIVI	E JUROR	NO.	055:	Yes.

MR. EGLET: Okay, fine. Can you tell us what this would mean to your family financially if you sit on this jury?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Well, no paycheck, because my husband, he is getting unemployment, but it's not anywhere near what he was making after 27 years. And he got no pension, no nothing. And so it would be extreme hardship.

MR. EGLET: Are you going to be able to make your mortgage, your car payments, things like that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Not if I sat here for three weeks, I could not.

MR. EGLET: Thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: I'm willing to do -- I could do a week, but --

MR. EGLET: We understand.

THE COURT: Mr. Rogers.

17 MR. EGLET: Do you have questions?

18 MR. ROGERS: No objection.

19 MR. EGLET: No objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: The Court is inclined to thank and excuse

21 you, ma'am.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 055: Thank you very much.

23 [Prospective Juror No. 055 Exits Courtroom]

24 [Pause]

[Prospective Juror No. 056 Enters Courtroom]

1	THE MARSHAL: This is Donald Anderson.
2	THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.
3	MR. EGLET: Thank you.
4	Good afternoon, Mr. Anderson. How are you?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Good.
6	MR. EGLET: Mr. Anderson, the reason we called you in
7	separately is that we don't want to ask these questions in
8	front of the jury because the panel because it gives
9	everybody else the idea of how to get out of jury service.
10	Okay? We noticed in your jury questionnaire that you
11	indicated that this would be a significant hardship for you
12	financially to serve on this jury because of lack of income.
13	Could you elaborate on that please?
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Yeah. I work yes. What
15	it is is I am on a commission basis. Work for a property
16	management firm and I'm on just a weekly salary. They're not
17	paying for any of this whatsoever, you know, time off. If I
18	take it, tough luck.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. And so you wouldn't get paid for three
20	weeks if you were on this jury?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Correct.
22	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what kind of financial hardship
23	would that put on you and your family?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Lots.
25	MR. EGLET: Would it

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

18 19

21

24

25

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: As of right now, it would really hurt just because, you know, how the bills are running.

MR. EGLET: Sure.

prospective juror No. 056: I have had some hardship problems. I was working for a different real estate agency and I've almost lost my house, but now I'm actually almost through a loan mod to get it back.

MR. EGLET: And I suspect not working for three weeks would hamper that loan modification?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Yeah. That would put me right back into the hole.

MR. EGLET: We have no objection to Mr. Anderson being excused, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Rogers?

MR. ROGERS: Me either, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Well, with the thanks of the Court, sir, you may be excused.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 056: Thanks.

[Prospective Juror No. 056 Exits Courtroom]

20 | [Pause]

[Prospective Juror No. 298 Enters Courtroom]

THE MARSHAL: This is Gerardo Marquez-Quintero, badge

23 number 1298.

THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.

MR. EGLET: Thank you.

ΛVTranz

~~~	afternoon,	34	A
(incom	arcernoon.	IVIT"	Ollincero

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Hello.

MR. EGLET: How are you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Good, thank you. How are you?

MR. EGLET: Thank you for coming in. We are bringing you in to question you separately on this one issue so -- we don't want the rest of the jury to figure out how to get off jury service.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Okay.

MR. EGLET: Okay? And -- but we noticed that in your questionnaire that you wrote that this would be an extreme hardship for you to serve on this jury. You indicated that you work for USPS, but you're not a regular carrier, that you sub, and that you're scheduled to work Friday of this week and three days a week. And I -- you don't get paid for attending jury duty; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Right, that's correct.

MR. EGLET: And can you tell us what kind of financial hardship this would place on you and your family?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Okay. I'm already behind on one payment of my mortgage, my house. And I also work for Walmart, but it's not like a full-time deal. And then my wife works, but I mean we, as it is, we don't make enough money to make our mortgage payment. And then -- I mean and the driving too. It's --

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

21

MR. EGLET: All right. So if you had to be on this jury for three weeks, you wouldn't be able to make your mortgage payment?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Right.

MR. EGLET: Okay. I have no objection, Your Honor.

MR. ROGERS: Me either, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You may be excused, sir --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Okay.

THE COURT: -- with the thanks of the Court.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 298: Thank you very much.

12 MR. EGLET: Thank you.

13 | [Prospective Juror No. 298 Exits Courtroom]

14 [Pause]

15 | THE MARSHAL: The next one will be Harvey, Scott.

16 MR. ROGERS: Oh, Scott Harvey.

17 [Pause]

18 [Prospective Juror No. 331 Enters Courtroom]

19 THE MARSHAL: This is Scott Harvey, badge number 1331.

20 | THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.

MR. EGLET: Thank you.

22 Good afternoon, Mr. Harvey. How are you?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: Good afternoon.

MR. EGLET: Thanks for coming in. We're asking -- we asked you to come in because we're going to ask you about something we don't want the other jurors to hear because they might get the idea how exactly to get out of jury service.

And, you know, we try to prevent that. But in your questionnaire you indicated that this would be a significant financial hardship to you. You indicated that you run your own business with seven employees as -- some of it wasn't legible to us, a sales and --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: I'm sorry.

MR. EGLET: -- service manager.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: Nervous writing things.

MR. EGLET: That's okay. And you're the customer contact person for the auto shop, and that you would lose significant income if you had to serve on this jury for three weeks. You also indicated in your questionnaire that you didn't think you could be fair and impartial because you lost your son, your 18-year-old son in a wreck, in a car wreck; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: That's true.

MR. EGLET: Okay. You still feel that way, that in a car wreck case you don't think you could be fair and impartial?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: My son was killed in July of 2000. I had a daughter that was injured three years ago in a car crash, two back surgeries.

MR. EGLET: You've had two back surgeries?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: No, my daughter has.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: I mean it's just, especially the thing with my son, even yesterday while I was sitting back here in the chair thinking about the situation, every time I did I'd picture my son on the side of the road and just -- it drives me crazy.

MR. EGLET: And your financial situation.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: I own an auto repair center. I am the contact. I am everything that happens there. I have a trainee in because I didn't expect this to go on, having somebody a little more adept. But it's like we did almost $4,000 worth of sales yesterday morning, yesterday afternoon we did 233. It's just --

MR. EGLET: Do you want to question him?

MR. ROGERS: No.

MR. EGLET: No objection, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Court is inclined to thank you and excuse

18 you, sir.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

24

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: Thank you.

20 MR. EGLET: Thank you.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 331: Appreciate it very much.

22 [Prospective Juror No. 331 Exits Courtroom]

23 [Pause]

[Prospective Juror No. 361 Enters Courtroom]

THE MARSHAL: This is Aphixa Inthichack, badge number

ΛVTranz

1361. Have a seat in one of the folding chairs.

THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.

MR. EGLET: Thank you.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

Is it okay if I call you Aphixa, because I don't think I can --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: That's fine.

MR. EGLET: -- pronounce your last name.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: It's all right, I get it all the time. It's okay.

We brought you in, Aphixa, because we MR, EGLET: Okay. had some questions for you that we didn't want to ask you in front of the rest of the panel members --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361:

MR. EGLET: -- because we didn't want to give them any idea of how to get out of jury service.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Okay.

MR. EGLET: On your jury questionnaire you indicated that this would be a significant financial hardship for you to serve on this jury. You said that you just started a new job as a -- and that you need money to take care of your daughter and pay the bills for you to live. Could you elaborate for us on your financial hardship.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Yes. I know that it's hard to get a job here, but I got really lucky. I got a job at Texas Station recently. And it's only on-call, so I only work

2	get really paid much on my paycheck. And I just started, so
3	for me missing it, it just it looks kind of it looks
4	bad. Although I have jury duty and they understand it, but it
5	just looks bad though, you know, because I just started and
6	I'm missing like all this work and they really need me there.
7	So
8	MR. EGLET: What is I guess my question isn't so much
9	them, because
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Oh, me?
11	MR. EGLET: as a juror, they, you know, they can't
12	penalize you for serving on a jury.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Oh, I understand that, yeah.
14	MR. EGLET: But what is this going to mean to you and
15	your family financially?
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: I can even go to jail if I
17	don't pay my child support. I probably won't have a roof over
18	my head if I don't make my rent. And I got to pay for my car
19	too, so I might have to start taking the bus.
20	MR. EGLET: Would missing three weeks cause any of those a certain amount of days of the week. You know, so I don't 21

22

23

24

25 things --

put me in a tough spot I would say.

MR. ROGERS:

MR. EGLET: Any questions?

I have no questions.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Yes. It would dramatically

1	MR. EGLET: No objection, Your Honor.
2	THE COURT: With the thanks of the Court, sir, you may be
3	excused.
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 361: Thank you.
5	THE COURT: You're welcome.
6	[Prospective Juror No. 331 Exits Courtroom]
7	[Counsel and Marshal Confer]
8	THE MARSHAL: Deborah D'Agostino, 1350, but she's
9	MR. WALL: Well, because of what what'd she tell you?
10	She told you
11	THE MARSHAL: She can't do this. She you saw her cry.
12	She was just she was ready to go down. You want to speak
13	to her or not?
14	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: No, I don't want to.
15	MR. EGLET: No, not really.
16	MR. WALL: Not really.
17	MR. EGLET: I mean
18	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: You trust her?
19	MR. EGLET: Basically
20	THE MARSHAL: Well, she was fine yesterday and then she -
21	-
22	MR. EGLET: . We saw her in the elevator
23	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: I know
24	MR. EGLET: she was fine.
25	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: She did, but I mean

1	THE MARSHAL: I know. They told me that, but then when
2	they came to the door, she was
3	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: Oh, no, she did. I saw
4	that when we walked in. I made a comment to David that
5	THE MARSHAL: She was just disturbed.
6	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: she was that she
7	THE MARSHAL: I can't do this. I spent a hundred dollars
8	in cabs from Nellis and
9	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: Oh, she took cabs?
10	MR. EGLET: What's her badge number again?
11	THE MARSHAL: 1
12	MR. WALL: 1350.
13	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: 1350.
14	THE MARSHAL: 1-3-5-0.
15	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: Isn't there a there's
16	not a bus?
17	THE MARSHAL: Yeah, she has she's listed here as
18	Deborah D'Agostino, but her badge is listed as Deborah Lynch.
19	So but that's her maiden name, Lynch. So
20	MR. ROGERS: I'm trying to where is she?
21	MR. EGLET: She does claim a hardship
22	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: She's 1350.
23	MR. EGLET: of transportation costs.
24	THE MARSHAL: She's on page 4 of 4, sir.
25	THE COURT: She's the second one down on page 4 of 4.

_	_
	)
Ξ	)
Ξ	5
_
	1
-

1	MR. ROGERS: Okay.
2	THE MARSHAL: Second name.
3	[Counsel Confer]
4	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: She's 1350. You're not
5	finding her name because it's wrong.
6	MR. ROGERS: Oh.
7	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: 1350 is the badge number.
8	MR. EGLET: The badge number's 1350. In her jury
9	questionnaire she does say hardship, transportation costs. I
10	guess she's having to take a cab it sounds like.
11	THE MARSHAL: Hundred bucks the last two days.
12	MR. ROGERS: Oh, I misunderstood. Okay. That's
13	THE MARSHAL: But she's also she just broke down in
14	front of the door when I opened the door this afternoon with 15	everybody and she just came up she was in tears and she
16	just I said calm down.
17	MR. ROGERS: Well, do you guys do you want to let the
18	judge question her
19	UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: Yeah, I totally
20	MR. ROGERS: find out what's going on?
21	THE COURT: Let's bring her in. We could have her
22	examined by now.
23	[Pause]
24	[Prospective Juror No. 350 Enters Courtroom]
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Here?

THE MARSHAL: Just be -- anywhere in that area. The potential juror is listed as Deborah D'Agostino on page 4 of 4, badge 1350. Her badge actually reads Deborah Lynch. She has explained to me that D'Agostino is her married name; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes.

THE MARSHAL: And Lynch is her maiden name.

THE COURT: Ma'am, we called you in separately from the others because I understood that there may be some hardship issues and I wanted to explore those apart from the others. So can you tell us what they are?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: I just -- I can't sleep ever since this has been going on. I don't like to be enclosed in areas and questioned in front of people. It makes me a nervous wreck.

THE COURT: Are there also some transportation issues?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Yes. I've been taking a cab every time and I -- it's cost me over a hundred dollars, and I don't make that much.

THE COURT: Either side want to question her?

MR. EGLET: No, Your Honor. No objection.

MR. ROGERS: No questions, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: With the thanks of the Court, ma'am, you may 24 be excused.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 350: Thank you.

ΛVTranz

24

25

1	THE COURT: You're welcome.
2	[Prospective Juror No. 350 Exits Courtroom]
3	THE MARSHAL: And Michael Webster showed up.
4	[Pause]
5	[Prospective Juror No. 959 Enters Courtroom]
6	THE MARSHAL: Okay. This is let's see, this is
7	Michael Webster, badge number 959 on page 2.
8	THE COURT: Whenever you're ready, Mr. Eglet.
9	MR. EGLET: Thank you, Your Honor.
10	Good afternoon, Mr. Webster.
11	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: How you doing?
12	MR. EGLET: Mr. Webster, we called you in separately
13	outside the presence of the jury because you indicated on your
14	questionnaire that you have a financial hardship that in
15	fact this was when we thought it was a seven or so, eight
16	seven or eight day trial. You said missing seven days of work
17	will put me behind on my mortgage and utility bills. Can you
18	elaborate for us what this would mean to you financially
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: Well, I work
20	MR. EGLET: if you had to serve on the jury for three
21	weeks.
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: I work overnight, from 10 at night to 7 in the morning. And the way it's set up, I guess I wouldn't have no conflict with my schedule. So I would have to come in, do jury duty and then go to work. So it's either

I com	e to	jury	duty	or I	can	call	off	and m	niss	work,	, bı	ıt I can't	call	too	many	days	and,	you	knov	v, mis	ss mc	ney k	y t	hat
way.	So t	hat v	vould	be my	y cor	ıflict	t.

MR. EGLET: So what time do you get off in the morning?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: 7 a.m.

MR. EGLET: 7?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: Uh-huh.

MR. EGLET: That would give you -- wouldn't give you enough time to get more than about three or four hours sleep then?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: That's basically about it, if that, because --

MR. EGLET: All right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: -- in order for me to even get sleep, I have to try to pay bills or, you know, make a little grocery here and there, come back and get sleep.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And would you be able to afford financially to not go to work?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: No.

MR. EGLET: What would that mean to you financially?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 959: I'd be behind. If I miss payments on my motorcycle bill, for instance, I'm going to lose my motorcycle. If I'm late on my house I'm going to lose my house. So that would be my conflict right there. Like I say, I would have to come to jury duty and still go to work.

AVTranz

And right now I'm actually tired right now. I barely got sleep yesterday. Because when I was here yesterday I got off 7 that morning and I came here for 11:30, so I only got a few hours of sleep. And I lasted through the day, but I was tired.

MR. EGLET: Understand. No objection, Your Honor.

MR. ROGERS: No objection.

THE COURT: You may be excused, sir. Thank you.

[Prospective Juror No. 959 Exits Courtroom]

[Pause]

[Prospective Juror No. 396 Enters Courtroom]

THE MARSHAL: Please take one of the folding chairs on the floor. This is Lina Tennille, badge number 1396. Sit closer to the attorneys; they're not going to bite.

MR. EGLET: Good afternoon, Ms. Tennille. How are you?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: I'm good, sir.

MR. EGLET: Thank you for coming in individually. The reason we're -- we brought you in individually is we have some questions we want to ask you about your jury questionnaire.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Okay.

MR. EGLET: And we don't want to do it in front of the rest of the panel because so they're not getting any idea of how to get off jury --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Okay.

MR. EGLET: -- service. Okay? I see in your jury

1	questionnaire that you indicated that this would be a
2	significant financial hardship for you to serve
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Yes.
4	MR. EGLET: because your employer does not pay for
5	jury service.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: No.
7	MR. EGLET: And that you just started last year
8	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Yes.
9	MR. EGLET: 2010 in this job? And that you already
10	have some credit issues and this could cause them to get
11	worse?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Yes.
13	MR. EGLET: Could you tell us how this would affect
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Yeah.
15	MR. EGLET: financially if you had to serve.
16	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Because my mother is
17	[indiscernible] severe pneumonia. And the medicine
18	[indiscernible]. I have to help with the buying of those
19	medicine. So honestly, I send money [indiscernible].
20	MR. EGLET: So how would this if you had to miss three
21	weeks of work, how would this affect you financially?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: It would really affect me
23	because they are they're expecting money [indiscernible].
24	MR. EGLET: And you wouldn't be able to pay those?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396:

	٠

1	MR. EGLET: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. No objection.
2	MR. ROGERS: No objection, Your Honor.
3	THE COURT: You may be excused, ma'am, with the thanks of
4	the Court.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 396: Thank you, ma'am.
6	THE COURT: You're welcome.
7	[Prospective Juror No. 396 Exits Courtroom]
8	THE MARSHAL: Mr. Rogers has a person he wants to
9	MR. ROGERS: All I have yes, thank you. All I have is
10	a shorthand. And I'm not sure what criteria we're using to 11	select the people we're talking to about hardships, but
12	Ms. Frye, who is badge
13	THE MARSHAL: She's number 10
14	MR. ROGERS: 50.
15	THE MARSHAL: 50.
16	MR. ROGERS: Right. I saw the her hardship by my note
17	appears to be similar to one of the ones we've just addressed
18	and it has to do with her child.
19	MR. EGLET: Yeah, but she hasn't bought I mean the 20	only reason we brought the other lady in is because she was 21	bothering Matt. I didn't bring her in because of the
22	childcare.
23	MR. ROGERS: Oh.
24	MR. EGLET: So she approached him. I just brought people in for significant financial hardships. Until somebody says hey -- speaks up and says I don't have anyone in front of us to pick up our kid, I mean people have family members, neighbors, wherever. So she was here yesterday for the whole day; somebody picked up the kid. So --

MR. ROGERS: Is this the criteria we're using, is if the juror approaches the marshal then we -- I'm not sure how we're --

MR. EGLET: No, I --

MR. ROGERS: -- going through this process.

MR. EGLET: I wanted to bring the ones in who talked about severe financial hardship, that they're going to -- wrote in there they can't pay their bills, they can't pay their mortgage, they don't get paid for jury service. There were two people that I'm aware of said they had childcare purposes. One of them is the one that approached Matt and said she really wants to come in, and we agreed to let her come in.

MR. ROGERS: Okay.

MR. EGLET: But I don't -- no, I don't normally agree on that in trial; people can make arrangements.

MR. ROGERS: So your criteria then for this process is whether they approach the marshal or complain of severe financial hardship. Okay, got it.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

THE COURT: Well, let me say this. Let me say this. I

AVIranz

24

25

MR. EGLET:

MR. ROGERS:

Uh-huh.

Correct.

2	began yesterday, but it's the Court's view that if somebody's
3	got a childcare issue and not everybody has family that can
4	pick a child up. Some people really are sort of on their own
5	without immediate family nearby. But I think until that
6	person is over here in the box and I don't think this
7	person is is Jacqueline Frye been placed over here among
8	the 24?
9	MR. EGLET: Not yet, Your Honor.
10	THE MARSHAL: Not yet.
11	THE COURT: Until she shows up over here and it becomes
12	an issue, then I don't know that we need to address it. But I
13	see that as a valid issue.
14	MR. ROGERS: Okay.
15	THE COURT: At least as valid as the economic hardship
1 6	issues.
17	THE MARSHAL: Okay. So we need to recap who's not coming
18	back.
19	MR. ROGERS: All right.
20	THE MARSHAL: So that we can start getting our calendar -
21	- our seating arrangements. And so the first person we
22	excused was Kenneth Leonard, 922. From the first page I mean.
23	Correct?

mean probably we could have addressed these issues before we

1 THE MARSHAL: On the second page we excused Mr. Sellers. 2 MR. EGLET: Uh-huh. 3 THE MARSHAL: Top of the page. We excused Michael Webster, number 959. We excused -- that's it for that page. 4 Page 3 we excused Maria Reed, top of the page; correct? 5 6 MR. ROGERS: Yes. 7 THE MARSHAL: Elaine Krause, 1055; Donald Anderson, 1056; 8 Marquez Quintero, 1298; Scott Harvey, 1331. Jerome Lewis at 9 the bottom of the page did not respond on summon; I'll try one Deborah D'Agostino on page 4, 1350; Aphixa 10 more time. Inthichack, 1361; and Lina Tennille, 1396. Is that all of our 11 excusals? That's my understanding. 13 MR. EGLET: 14 MR. ROGERS: Yes. 15 THE MARSHAL: Okay. 16 MR. EGLET: So --So we have to discuss how we want to fill 17 THE MARSHAL: 18 these seats now. 19 MR. EGLET: -- we need to figure out who's going in what 20 seats? 21 THE MARSHAL: Yes. 22 THE COURT: Well, we need to replace Leonard first of 23 I think we should replace -- two that were released yesterday, Your Honor.

THE MARSHAL: Well, we have the two that -- there were 24

3 4 5 6 MR. EGLET: 7 THE COURT: 8 replaced --9

MR. ROGERS:

Correct.

1

2

10

11 12

13

14

16

17

18 20 21

22

23

24

25

THE COURT: Which ones were they? MR. ROGERS: That's --THE MARSHAL: It was Ken -- Jonathan Kim and the defendant [sic) Jose Villafane. Yes, seats 5 and 6, Your Honor. So which one was released -- well, we MR. EGLET: Villafane was first and then Jonathan Kim was THE COURT: Okay. THE MARSHAL: -- let go after that. THE COURT: So seats 5, 6 and 12, in that order we need to replace then. THE MARSHAL: Okay. MR. WALL: Actually 5, 6, 12 and 15, and 19. THE COURT: Right. 5, 6, 12, 15 and 19, in that order. THE MARSHAL: All right. So in seat number 5, who's the 15

19 next one up?

MR. EGLET: Should be Trina Tatum.

THE MARSHAL: Ms. Tatum; right?

MR. EGLET: Yes.

MR. WALL: Right.

THE MARSHAL: Okay, so that'll be Tatum. Okay. And seat number -- the next one will be seat number 15.

36 1 MR. WALL: No. UNIDENTIFIED PLAINTIFF ATTY: 3 THE MARSHAL: Oh, 6. THE COURT: 6. 4 THE MARSHAL: I'm sorry, you're right, 6. 5 Next name 6 should be Colmines. 7 MR. EGLET: So she goes into seat 6? 8 THE MARSHAL: Correct. Okay. So now the next seat 9 should be 15; is that correct? MR. WALL: 12. 10 11 THE COURT: 12 THE MARSHAL: Who's in 12? No --MR. WALL: Mr. Leonard. 13 14 THE COURT: Leonard was in 12. 15 THE MARSHAL: Okay. 16 That should be Jacqueline Frye. THE CLERK: 17 Jacqueline Frye, okay. THE MARSHAL: Jacqueline Frye goes into --18 MR. EGLET: 19 MR. WALL: 12. 20 MR. EGLET: -- seat 12. Seat 12, okay. Okay, now we get 21 to 15; right? 22 MR. WALL: Correct. 23 THE CLERK: Now we need Kunkel. 24 THE MARSHAL: Kunkel, number 15. 25 MR. EGLET: Kunkel goes into 15; is that right?

```
1
           THE MARSHAL:
                         That's correct.
2
           THE COURT: Yes.
3
           THE MARSHAL:
                         The next seat should be 19; is that 4 correct?
5
           MR. WALL: Correct.
6
           THE CLERK:
                       That should be Larry Hubbert.
7
           THE MARSHAL: Larry Hubbert, seat number 19.
                                                          Right, seat
8
      19's Hubbert. Now we get down to -- that's it.
9
           MR. EGLET:
                       That's it.
10
           THE MARSHAL:
                         That's it, okay.
11
           THE COURT: Are you exhausted, Marshal Diamond?
12
           THE MARSHAL: No, no. I may have just got kick started.
13
      That's it.
14
           THE COURT:
                      Good, good.
15
          THE MARSHAL: Are we ready to go?
16
          THE COURT:
                       I think so. I'm going to step down for two 17 seconds.
18
                         There's some papers here --
          THE MARSHAL:
19
          MR. EGLET: Can we take a two-minute break?
20
          THE COURT:
                      Yeah, let's take a five-minute break.
21
           [Recess]
22
          THE MARSHAL:
                         Same seats, all right.
23
           [Pause]
24
          THE COURT:
                      Please --
25
          THE MARSHAL:
                        Here you are.
```

ΛVTranz

0007

All right. We need some replacements. First 1 THE COURT: 2 we need to fill seat number 5. Madam clerk. Oliver-Tatum, badge number 1036. 3 THE CLERK: [Pause] 4 And next we need to fill seat number 6. THE COURT: 5 Maria Colmines, badge number 1049. 6 THE CLERK: 7 (Pause) And we need to fill seat number 12 please. 8 THE COURT: 9 THE CLERK: Jacqueline Frye, badge number 1050. 10 [Pause] And we need to fill seat number 15 please. 11 THE COURT: THE CLERK: Melanie Kunkel, badge number 1051. 12 13 [Pause] Okay. And finally seat number 19 please. 14 THE COURT: Larry Hubbert, badge number 1293. 15 THE CLERK: Is that Laree [phonetic] or Larry? 16 THE MARSHAL: PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 1045: 17 18 THE MARSHAL: Laree? 19 THE CLERK: Laree? 20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 1450: 21 THE CLERK: Okay. THE COURT: 22 Okay. THE MARSHAL: Think that does it. 23 THE COURT: All right, thank you for returning, ladies 24 25 and gentlemen.

ΛVTranz

```
Mr. Eglet --
1
2
          MR. EGLET:
                       Yes.
3
           THE COURT:
                       -- Mr. Rogers.
          MR. ROGERS: We were going to approach for just a -- 4
           THE COURT:
5
                       Sure.
          MR. ROGERS:
                      -- moment.
7
           [Bench Conference Begins]
                               I got your rulings yesterday on the 8
          MR. ROGERS: Okay.
9 defense objections to the voir dire questions. We'll honor 10 those, but I just wanted to log a running objection.
11 they're going to each new juror I don't want to have to re-12 approach and -- 13
           THE COURT:
                       What do you mean? What are you talking 14 about?
15
                      He wants to -- the objections he made 16 yesterday that you overruled, that he just wants to have a 17 running objection --
18
          THE COURT:
                       Oh.
19
          MR. EGLET:
                      -- to all those.
20
          THE COURT:
                       Sure.
21
                       And I said fine, that's --
          MR. EGLET:
22
          THE COURT:
                       No problem.
23
          MR. ROGERS:
                        Great.
24
          THE COURT:
                       That'll be the order.
25
           [Bench Conference Ends]
```

1	THE COURT: All right. Mr. Eglet, we're whenever
2	you're ready.
3	MR. EGLET: Thank you.
4	We have some new faces up here, so I have to go
5	through and ask those new questions. And I know that one
6	question that, you know, for the ladies, sometimes they don't
7	like that question, what's your date of birth.
8	[Indiscernible] apologize for that.
9	So let me start with Ms. Tatum.
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.
11	MR. EGLET: Good afternoon.
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Afternoon.
13	MR. EGLET: Ms. Tatum, could you tell us your date of 14	birth?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: 5/28/70, May 28th, 1970.
16	MR. EGLET: Okay. And have you been known by any other
17	names?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.
19	MR. EGLET: And those names?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Of course Oliver and Brown
21	and Vorise.
22	MR. EGLET: The second name you said?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Mrs. Trina Brown.
24	MR. EGLET: Brown?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.

1	MR. EGLET: And the last
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: And last was Vorise. It is
3	V-O-R-I-S-E.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. And which one of those is your maiden
5	name?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I believe on the birth
7	certificate is Vorise.
8	MR. EGLET: Vorise, okay. Very good, thank you. And how
9	often do you wash your car?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Twice a month.
11	MR. EGLET: Twice a month. Okay, thank you.
12	Ms. Colmines, did I say that correctly?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.
14	MR. EGLET: Good afternoon, Ms. Colmines.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Hello.
16	MR. EGLET: Would you tell us your date of birth.
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: 10/28/54.
18	MR. EGLET: October 28th, 1964.
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: 5-4.
20	MR. EGLET: '54.
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes, '54.
22	MR. EGLET: Okay, thank you. And any other names you've
23	been known by?
24	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Martinez, Angelino.

MR. EGLET: And which of those is your maiden name?

```
1
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Martinez.
                      Martinez, okay. How often do you wash your 2
          MR. EGLET:
3 car?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Once a month.
4
                      Once a week [sic). Okay, very good.
5
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049:
                                      Month.
6
7
                      Month. Once a month, sorry.
          MR. EGLET:
               Ms. Frye, there you are. Your date of birth?
8
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: February 19th, 1967.
9
          MR. EGLET: February 19th, 1967. And any other names 10 11 you've been known by?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: My maiden name was Ms. Levy, 12 13
     L-E-V-Y.
                                How often do you wash your car?
                      L-E-V-Y.
14
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Once or twice a month.
15
          MR. EGLET: Okay. Ms. Kunkel.
                                           There you are.
16
17
     Ms. Kunkel, your date of birth?
                                      December 7th, 1965.
18
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051:
          MR. EGLET: Okay. And any other names that you're known 19 20 by?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: My maiden, Seigenfuse.
21
22 Seigenfuse.
23
                      Can you spell that for us?
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: S-E-I-G-E-N-F-U-S-E.
24
25
                      Okay.
                             And how often do you wash your car?
          MR. EGLET:
```

```
1
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 051: It gets washed every three months when I take it for an oil change.
2
3
          MR. EGLET:
                      Okay, very good. And, Ms. Hubbert.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO.293:
4
5
          MR. EGLET:
                      Good afternoon.
                                       Ms. Hubbert, can you tell us
6 what your date of birth is?
7
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293:
                                       June 16th, 1971.
8
          MR. EGLET: Okay. And any other names you've been known 9 by?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: My maiden name, Pappageorge, 10 11
     P -- 12
          MR. EGLET:
                      Pappageorge?
13
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Yeah. P-A-P-P-A-G-E-O-R-G-E.
14
                      Okay. And are you related to the Pappageorge
          MR. EGLET:
15 who is with the fire department?
16
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293:
17
          MR. EGLET: And is that your husband?
18
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Oh, no. John -- my Uncle 19
     John used to be with the fire department years ago.
20
          MR. EGLET: Okay. Do you have a cousin or your Uncle 21
     John's son who's with the fire --
22
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Michael. No, my cousin
23
     Michael isn't with the fire department.
24
          MR. EGLET: He's not?
25
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293:
```

ΛVTranz

MF	R. EGLET:	Okay.	All right.	And	any	other	 I'm sorry.	How ofte	n do yo	u wash your	car?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 293: Once every two months.

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right, great.

I'm going to come back in the row and -- so I can keep track of this, it's easier to me to [indiscernible] and start back with the other questions. Ms. Tatum, can you tell us, I see that you work for the Clark County School District?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.

MR. EGLET: And you were a transportation investigator. What is that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I am the person that deals with accidents and incidents that happen on the school bus. If there's a problem on the bus with students, I deal with those students. If there's a problem with a parent who want to move a bus stop, I deal with the parents. I'm the middle person. I get the information and send it in to other people.

MR. EGLET: Okay. When you say accident investigation, as a lawyer I think well, are you the person that goes out to the scene and investigates the accident, takes witness statements and reports and things like that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes, sir.

MR. EGLET: Have you had any special training in accident investigation?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: We have training during our

1	down time. And also like in teacher staff meetings, we have
2	different training. We have training for Metro have came
3	in and trained us, and different things like that.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay. Have you had any training in what's
5	called accident reconstruction, where you have to try to
6	reconstruct what happened in the accident?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.
8	MR. EGLET: Where did you get that training?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: From the our TIs that are 10	higher up than us. They came
11	MR. EGLET: Your TIs?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes. That's short for 13	investigators, transportation
14	MR. EGLET: Okay.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: investigators. We call
16	ourself TIs.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: And so they will we have a
19	session where they ask us to reconstruct an accident. Or if
20	they do an accident they want to know how can we tell who was
21	at fault or, you know, give our information, different things
22	like that.
23	MR. EGLET: Okay. Do you do the accident investigation
24	where there's injuries?

Yes.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036:

MR.	EGLET:	Do	you	get	involved	in	that?
-----	--------	----	-----	-----	----------	----	-------

prospective juror No. 036: Yes, but mainly Metro. We go on scene because we got to take care of our insurance information. If it's an incident that happened or accident that happened that is off school campus, Metro comes if they have students.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: If it's on school campus, school police come. We go and do our own investigation. That way we can submit all information into our risk management.

MR. EGLET: How long have you been doing this for a living?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I've been doing it for five years. I've been at the district for almost 18 years. I drove a school bus for 13.

MR. EGLET: Okay. So you have hands-on experience as well?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes, sir.

MR. EGLET: Okay, very good. Can you tell us what makes you good at your job?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: My personality and the way I talk to people. Even though drivers get into accidents and I'll have incidents with them, I still treat them as human beings. I do not treat them any less though. And so I believe that's a benefit for me, is how I approach and how I

1	talk to them. I'm usually be able to find out information
2	just by talking to them.
3	MR. EGLET: Okay. And do you have children?
4	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes, I do.
5	MR. EGLET: And what makes you a good parent?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Probably my structure. I'm a
7	true believer of discipline. And I have no problem dealing
8	with I have no problem telling my kids that [indiscernible]
9	and plus I like kids.
LO	MR. EGLET: Okay. What are your five year goals?
1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: To own another house.
L 2	MR. EGLET: Own another house.
L3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Yes.
L 4	MR. EGLET: Very good. And any clubs or organizations
.5	you belong to?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: When I was younger I was a
.7	Girl Scout. I also was a police's four when I was younger.
.8	I'm in different clubs and organizations at my church. And
.9	that's about it.
0	MR. EGLET: What are the two most important values that
1	you hold dear and that you've tried to impart upon your
2	children other than honesty and whatever faith you practice?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Structure.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay.
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I definitely believe in

1	structure. And giving.	I love to give,	so I	try	to	teach	my
2	children how to give.

MR. EGLET: All right. Can you tell us what situations you're regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I never thought of myself as being a leader, but I've always been put in leadership roles. I believe it's the way I carry myself and the way I talk to people and the way I communicate with people. And I believe -- I don't take things personally. When someone's angry and or upset, I won't take that cuss out personal to me. So I think that's how I'm able to become a leader. I look past that and go straight to the point of the issue that's going on.

MR. EGLET: All right. If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what charity is that going to be?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: It'll be breast cancer.

MR. EGLET: Why breast cancer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I have no -- I know three wonderful women that have battled with breast cancer and they have so far been able to talk about it. And just to watch their strength, how they was able to overcome breast cancer I think is remarkable.

MR. EGLET: And can you tell me the worst tragedy you've ever had to experience in your life?

ΛVTranz

The death of my father.

2	MR. EGLET: How old were you?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I was four, but just to l

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I was four, but just to lose a father and not to have a father.

MR. EGLET: Now there are -- when you hear someone has been injured or killed or become deathly ill do you ever think to yourself that well, that may have happened to that person because of some bad thing they did earlier in their life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036:

MR. EGLET: Okay. And some people believe that when someone is injured or killed as a result of the negligence or fault of someone else that, you know, it was fate or God's will or bad luck or destiny, and so they shouldn't bring a lawsuit because it was bound to happen anyway. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: That they should not do a lawsuit?

MR. EGLET: Yeah, right.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

MR. EGLET: You don't agree with that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: No.

MR. EGLET: Can you tell me the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: I was thinking about that yesterday when you was asking everybody. I believe it's

1	Michelle Obama.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay. And why Michelle Obama?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Because she's a mother and
4	she's also a educated woman. She have no problem putting her
5	hair back and get on the soccer field and run up and down with
6	her children. That's how I look at myself. And also she is
7	the, to me, the strong figure behind her husband, because her
8	husband wouldn't be who he is without a strong woman behind
9	him.
10	MR. EGLET: Thank you very much.
1.1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 036: Uh-huh.
12	MR. EGLET: Ms. Colmines, did I say that right again?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.
14	MR. EGLET: Colmines?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.
16	MR. EGLET: How are you this afternoon?
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I'm okay.
18	MR. EGLET: I see that you work at the New York New York
19	as a dealer, blackjack dealer; is that right?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes, sir.
21	MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us what makes you good at
22	your job?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I want to tell you that go
24	very slow with me because I [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET:

Okay.

```
000805
```

1	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: So [indiscernible] okay.
2	MR. EGLET: Okay.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: [Indiscernible] and
4	MR. EGLET: Sure. Did you understand my last question?
5	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yeah. Will you repeat again
6	please.
7	MR. EGLET: Sure. What makes you good at your job as a
8	blackjack dealer?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Oh. I like to talk to 10	people, you know, make them feel good when they're winning and
11	stuff like that.
12	MR. EGLET: Okay. Do you have children?
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes, I do.
14	MR. EGLET: And what makes you a good parent?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Good parent would be good
16	mom. I raising my daughter by myself.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay.
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: And lot of love, time, and
19	believing in God.
20	MR. EGLET: Okay. Now you were born in Ecuador?
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.
22	MR. EGLET: Is that where you grew up?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.
24	MR. EGLET: Did you go to high school there?
25	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.

1	MR. EGLET: What did you want to be when you were in high
2	school?
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I want to be business
4	administration.
5	MR. EGLET: Okay. Why did you not go into that field?
6	What why did you go into gaming instead?
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Because when I came I was 24
8	years old and always be the language that I never went to
9	school. And so I [indiscernible] do something.
10	MR. EGLET: What are your five year goals? What do you
11	want to accomplish over the next five years?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Be retired.
13	MR. EGLET: Be retired. Okay, very good.
14	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I've been working straight
15	for 22 years so I'm tired.
16	MR. EGLET: All right. Do you belong to any clubs or
17	organizations?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: What do you mean?
19	MR. EGLET: Well, I mean do you belong to any outside
20	of work, do you belong to any clubs or organizations that
21	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Church, church.
22	MR. EGLET: Just your church?
23	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yeah.

two most important values that you have and you've tried to

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right. And can you tell us the impart upon your daughter other than honesty and whatever faith you may practice.

```
```

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Lovely and thankful.

MR. EGLET: What was the last thing you said, thankful? Okay. Love and thankfulness.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Yes.

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET: Okay. All right, great. Is there -- are there situations where you think that you are regarded as a leader?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I don't know how [indiscernible].

MR. EGLET: Do you know what we mean by leaders? Are there situations at home -- well, obviously with your children you're a leader, but are there situations outside of work or at work where you think you're a leader of other people?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I can't answer. I'm sorry

MR. EGLET: Okay, that's fine.

MR. ROGERS: It's -- try (Spanish word).

MR. EGLET: What?

MR. ROGERS: (Spanish words).

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Oh.

MR. EGLET: Your Honor, I --

MR. ROGERS: That's leader. I just --

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I'm sorry.

MR. EGLET: Oh, okay.

. :	MR.	POGEDS.	That	 т	don't	she	was	getting	it
L	MK.	RUGERS:	THAC	 т	don c	Pirc	Was	9000

THE COURT: Yeah. One at a time, I think. One at a time.

MR. EGLET: Okay, thank you.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I'm sorry.

MR. EGLET: That's okay, that's okay. Not everybody sees themselves in a situation as a leader. And so if you don't, that's fine. We just want to know if you think you're -- any situations where you're regarded as a leader.

If someone offers to send money to the charity of your choice, what charity would you pick?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Kids with cancer.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And why kids with cancer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I lose my niece. She was only 35 years old. So I know what she went [indiscernible], you know. So you can always get it for your kids.

MR. EGLET: All right, very good. Can you tell us the worst tragedy that you've ever had to experience.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: I lost my niece.

MR. EGLET: Your niece. If someone is -- if you hear about someone being hurt or killed or becoming seriously ill, sick, do you ever think to yourself that well, that probably happened to that person because of something bad they did earlier in their life?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: No.

MR. EGLET:	Okay.	Some peo	ple think	that i	f someon	e is injured because	of some	one else'	s neglige	nce hur	ting the	m tha they that it	was just	: fate or	bad luck	or God	l's will,	so they shouldn't b	ring a l	lawsuit b	ecause it	would	have hap	pened eventually anywa	y. Do y	ou agree	with tha	t?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: No.

MR. EGLET: No? Okay. Who's the public figure you admire most, and why?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: God

MR. EGLET: Who?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: Jesus Christ.

MR. EGLET: Jesus Christ, okay. All right. Now can you tell me why Jesus Christ is the person you admire?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 049: He's my savior.

MR. EGLET: He's your savior. Okay, thank you. Okay

Ms. Frye, hi. Ms. Frye, you're a recruiter for American Capital Preservation. Can you tell us what that is?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah.

MR. EGLET: What do you do?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: My husband is in -- is a wholesaler and a retailer in the insurance industry, and we recruit insurance agents to wholesale through us. And I basically am in contact with the people and talk to them and market for him and get insurance agents to come and work with us. We do wholesale and retail.

ΛVTranz

1	MR. EGLET: What kind of insurance do you
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: We do estate and business
3	planning through life insurance. And he also does disability
4	and gosh, health.
5	MR. EGLET: So this is personal financial type insurance
6
7	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yes.
8	MR. EGLET: as opposed to liability insurance?
9	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yes.
10	MR. EGLET: Okay. And how long have your husband and you
11	been had this business?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I we just started this
13	business. He used to run estate for The Hartford for about
14	seven and a half, eight years. And we got out of that and we
15	started this business not too long ago, maybe a few months
16	ago. So we're just in the process of building it right now.
17	MR. EGLET: Okay. He ran The Hartford?
18	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Uh-huh.
19	MR. EGLET: Okay. He left The Hartford?
20	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah.
21	MR. EGLET: Do you know Jeff Clemmons [phonetic]?

ΛVTranz

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I don't have any idea.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I've heard the name.

Is that who, when your husband left, took his 22

23

24

25

MR. EGLET:

position with Hartford, do you know?

18

19 20 21

22

23

24

25

	· ·
2	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: At that point I was working
3	in real estate and I had nothing to do with it.
4	MR. EGLET: Okay, sure. All right. Can you tell us what
5	makes you good at your job?
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I'm a people person. So he
7	puts me in front of the people to get them in. And I'm a
8	talker and social, so that's why I do what I do.
9	MR. EGLET: All right. And you have children?
10	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yes.
11	MR. EGLET: And what makes you a good parent?
12	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Love first, unconditional
13	love, discipline, and stability.
14	MR. EGLET: Okay. And what are your five year goals?
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Five year goals is to get our
16	business off the ground and get that as successful as we were

So you never met --

MR. EGLET:

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Five year goals is to get our business off the ground and get that as successful as we were when we were with The Hartford. And also to get my son through school into law school. He's --

MR. EGLET: Law school.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: -- going to be a lawyer. And my other one will be going into college in five years, so being able to pay for both of them.

MR. EGLET: Yeah, okay. Not cheap.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: No, it's not.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Can you tell us any clubs or

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11 12

13

14

15

16

17

18 19 20 21

22

23

24

25

1	organizations	you	belong	to?
---	---------------	-----	--------	-----

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I'm involved in our synagogue in several different areas.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And what are the two most important values to you and that you've tried to instill in your children other than honesty or your faith?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Well, to be good people, good citizens, do well in school, treat people like they want to be treated.

Okay, good. Can you tell us the situations MR. EGLET: where you think you're regarded as a leader.

They've asked me to head up committees and I get things done when I'm asked to do things.

MR. EGLET: And that's with your synagogue?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah. Or even with school.

In school. MR. EGLET:

Whenever I get involved with PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: the kids' school with them.

If someone offers to send money to the MR. EGLET: charity of your choice, what charity is it going to be?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Would be children with cancer.

Okay. And why children with cancer?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: My son last year was

1	diagnosed with cancer. B	ıt he ['] ıs	okay	now,	thank	God,	but	went
2	through several surgeries	before

MR. EGLET: Doing well now though?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: He's doing okay.

MR. EGLET: I probably don't have to ask you the next question, do I? That's it; right?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: That's it.

MR. EGLET: Okay. When you hear that someone's been hurt or killed or become sick do you ever think to yourself well, that probably happened because of something they did in their past life, earlier life? Okay. Is that a no? You have to say it out loud.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I'm sorry. No, I do not think that.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Some people think that if someone is injured or killed that it's just fate, God's will, bad luck, and that so they shouldn't bring a lawsuit even if it was the fault of someone else. Do you agree with that?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I do not. My husband was just recently hit by a car three months ago and we are actively involved right now in a suit.

MR. EGLET: Okay. It's an actual lawsuit that's been filed?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah. We're working with the attorneys now, yes.

MR. EGLET: Okay. And how severely was your husband injured?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: He had back injuries and he hit his head on the rear-view mirror. Had a knot in his head and a eye injury, but that's all healed. It's his back. It will never be healed.

MR. EGLET: Okay. Has he had to have surgery?

prospective juror No. 050: He does not have to have surgery. We're still in the process of going through all the doctor stuff, because this only happened three months ago. And yesterday he went to the pain management doctor and got shots for now. He refuses to go on narcotics though.

MR. EGLET: And who is the pain management doctor? PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I don't know who.

MR. EGLET: You don't know? It's none of the names of doctors that were mentioned by Mr. Wall, was it?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I don't think so.

MR. EGLET: Okay.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I don't remember.

MR. EGLET: All right. Okay. Who's the public figure you admire most?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: I was thinking about that. I don't really admire that many -- anyone. I mean I've looked up to people. But I think Ronald Reagan was a great president.

ΛVTranz

1	MR. EGLET: Okay. And tell us why you admire President
2	Reagan.
3	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Because he was a good leader,
4	got things done.
5	MR. EGLET: A charismatic guy and got things done.
6	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: Yeah, that's about I was
7	nervous about that question.
8	MR. EGLET: Okay. That's fine. Listen, we've heard,
9	believe me, some of the things we've heard would are pretty
10	that's a very common one. Believe me, we've heard some odd
11	ones before, but that one's very good. Thank you.
12	Okay. Ms. Frye.
13	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: No, that was me.
14	MR. EGLET: That was you. Sorry.
15	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 050: That was me.
16	MR. EGLET: Ms. Smith.
17	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Yes, hello.
18	MR. EGLET: How are you?
19	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Fine. Ready to rock and 20	roll.
21	MR. EGLET: I'm sorry?
22	PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Ready to rock and roll.
23	MR. EGLET: You ready to rock and roll. Okay. You've
24	probably got these questions memorized; right? Okay. You
25	work at City National Bank?

```
PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925:
                                       No.
1
                      Not anymore?
2
          MR. EGLET:
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 928:
                                       That's me.
3
                      I'm just really messing this up. Okay, here
          MR. EGLET:
4 we go. You're a teacher --
5
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925:
                                       I am.
6
                      -- with the school district. What grade do
          MR EGLET:
7 8 you teach?
                                       Third grade.
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925:
9
                      Third grade, okay. How long you been a
          MR. EGLET:
10 11 teacher?
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Sixteen years.
12
                      Okay. And what makes you good at your job?
          MR. EGLET:
13
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925:
                                       I'm creative, flexible,
14 sensitive, sympathetic.
15
                       You have children?
          MR. EGLET:
16
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: I do.
17
                       And what makes you a good parent?
18
          PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: Love and logic.
19
          MR. EGLET:
                       Love and logic.
20
           PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: It's a philosophy.
                                                            It works.
21
          MR. EGLET:
                       Okay.
22
           PROSPECTIVE JUROR NO. 925: It's by Fay and Fay.
23 24 should read it.
                       Did you want to be a -- it's a book?
25
           MR. EGLET:
```