vs.
THE STATE OF NEVADA,
Respondent.

No. 58562

TRACIE K. LINDEMAN
CLERK OF SUPREME COURT
BY R. Malone
DEPUTY CLERK

O R D E R

This court affirmed the district court's denial of appellant's post-conviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Centofanti v. State, Docket No. 58562 (Order of Affirmance, June 3, 2013). On June 13, 2013, this court received a proper person motion to file pleadings in proper person and a proper person motion for leave to file additional pleadings in which he requests an extension of time to supplement his petition for rehearing. Appellant is represented by counsel, and neither appellant nor counsel have moved for counsel's withdrawal.¹ See NRAP 46(d). Accordingly, we deny appellant's motion for leave to file pleadings in proper person and his motion for leave to file additional pleadings.

This court also received on June 13, 2013, appellant's proper person petition for rehearing. Because appellant is currently represented by counsel and is being denied leave to file documents in proper person, we decline to file this document. The clerk of this court shall return the proper person petition for rehearing unfiled.

¹Appellant acknowledges in his motion for leave to file additional pleadings that he had not yet contacted counsel at the time the motion was prepared.

Post-conviction counsel shall have 18 days from the date of this order to file a petition for rehearing if counsel deems such a petition to be warranted.

It is so ORDERED.
