PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT on February 4, 2013, the district Court entered an order staying the production of privileged documents required under the district court's January 18, 2013 order, which is the subject of the writ petition filed on January 24, 2013. (Doc. # 2013-02469). The district court stayed its order "for a period of six months, which may be renewed, depending upon where we are in the proceedings and where the Nevada Supreme Court is on the writ proceeding." LVSC/SCL0586:16-19; see also LVSC/SCL0591:1-3. A Supplemental Appendix including a copy of the order, and notice of entry of the order, and the transcript of the hearing on the motion to stay is being filed concurrently with this notice.

The documents in the Supplemental Appendix are also submitted under Nev. R. App. P. 31(e). The district court's said "the reason that I am granting the stay is because the issues related to Mr. Jones's review of the documents for his testimony at the sanctions hearing is not truly relevant to my jurisdictional hearing." LVSC/SCL0586:12-15. This was confirmed in the written order, which states: "Plaintiff will suffer no prejudice because, among other reasons, the [privileged] documents which were ordered to be produced are not necessary for the evidentiary hearing on jurisdictional issues." LVSC/SCL0590 ¶ 2. This reasoning supports petitioner's argument, set forth on page 28 of the emergency writ petition, that the January 18, 2013 Discovery Order and the motion practice that led to the order appears to be contrary to the plain terms of the stay this Court imposed in its August 26, 2011 Order, which stayed the underlying district court action "except for matters relating to a determination of personal jurisdiction." LVSC/SCL0128.
