ORDER DENYING MOTION

On March 17, 2015, this court entered an order temporarily staying the March 6, 2015, order in Eighth Judicial District Court Case No. A627691, and setting a schedule for briefing on the stay and the related writ petition. Real party in interest has now filed a motion to lift or modify the temporary stay. We deny the motion. We note that the expedited briefing schedule set forth in our March 17 order was designed to accommodate this court's review of the district court's order prior to the 15-08472

scheduled April 20, 2015, district court hearing, so that, if this court determines that the hearing should proceed, the hearing is not delayed.¹

It is so ORDERED.

¹We further note that we did not intend our March 17 order to relieve petitioners of their duty to conduct the searches identified by the district court; our order stayed the production of the documents resulting from such searches, as well as the payment of contributions to specified organizations. All parties should be prepared to immediately comply with the district court's March 6 order if the stay is lifted.
