[PROPOSED] FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

18 AND RELATED CLAIMS

19 20 Before the Court is Plaintiff Steven C. Jacobs' ("Jacobs") Renewed Motion for NRCP 37 21 Sanctions for violating this Court's September 14, 2012 sanctions order. Jacobs filed his renewed 22 motion for sanctions on February 8, 2013. When addressing Jacobs' renewed motion originally, 23 this Court determined that "Jacobs ha[d] made a prima facie showing as to a violation of this Court's 24 orders which warrants an evidentiary hearing." (Order Regarding Pl.'s Renewed Mot. for NRCP 37 25 Sanctions on OST, March 27, 2013, p. 2, on file.) The Court found, "Sands China violated this 26 Court's September 14, 2012 Order by redacting personal data from its January 4, 2013 document 27 production based upon the MPDPA" (Id.) Accordingly, this Court determined that an 28 evidentiary hearing was appropriate. However, before that evidentiary hearing could be held,

1 Sands China sought writ relief before the Nevada Supreme Court, contending that it could not be 2 sanctioned for what it claimed was complying with a foreign law. After the Nevada Supreme Court 3 denied the requested writ petition on August 7, 2014, Las Vegas Sands v. Eighth Judicial District
4 Court, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d 876, 877 (2014), this Court proceeded with the long-planned 5 evidentiary hearing on February 9-12, 2015 and March 2, 2015.

6 James J. Pisanelli, Esq., Todd L. Bice, Esq. Debra L. Spinelli, Esq. and Jordan T. Smith, Esq.
7 of the law firm PISANELLI BICE PLLC appeared for Jacobs. J. Randall Jones, Esq. Mark M.
8 Jones, Esq. and Ian P. McGinn, Esq. of the law firm Kemp, Jones & Coulthard, LLP appeared for 9 Sands China. J. Stephen Peek, Esq. of the law firm Holland & Hart LLP appeared for Defendants
10 Las Vegas Sands Corp. ("LVSC") and Sands China. Steve Morris, Esq. of the Morris Law Group 11 appeared for Defendant Sheldon G. Adelson ("Adelson").

12 Based upon the evidence admitted, the testimony of witnesses, arguments of counsel, and 13 the papers filed on behalf of the parties, and being fully informed with good cause appearing, the 14 Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

15 FINDINGS OF FACT

16 A. THE INITIAL SANCTIONS ORDER.

17 1. On September 14, 2012, this Court entered a Decision and Order following a 18 three-day evidentiary hearing stemming from a lack of candor to this Court by Sands China and 19 LVSC as to the location of, and their access to, discoverable information, claiming that the Macau 20 Personal Data Protection Act ("MPDPA") excused their compliance with discovery.

21 2. Based upon the evidence adduced, this Court found that LVSC and Sands China's 22 "lack of disclosure appears to the Court to be an attempt to stall discovery, and in particular, the 23 jurisdictional discovery in these proceedings Given the number of occasions the MPDPA and 24 the production of ESI by Defendants was discussed there can be no other conclusion that that the 25 conduct was repetitive and abusive." (Id. ¶¶ 32-33.) The Court found "willful and intentional 26 conduct with an intent to prevent" Jacobs and the Court from accessing, and ruling upon, 27 discoverable information in the jurisdictional proceedings. (Id. ¶¶ 35(a)-(b).) Even then – over two 28

1 years ago – this Court recognized that "[t]he delay and prejudice to the Plaintiff in preparing his 2 case is significant" (Id. ¶ 36.)

3 3. As a sanction, this Court ordered that "[f]or jurisdictional discovery and the 4 evidentiary hearing related to jurisdiction, Las Vegas Sands and Sands China will be precluded 5 from raising the MPDPA as an objection or as a defense to admission, disclosure or production of 6 any documents." (Id. at p. 8(a).) They were further sanctioned $25,000 and required to cover 7 Jacobs' reasonable attorneys' fees. (Id. at p. 9(c)-(d).) LVSC and Sands China "did not challenge" 8 this Court's September 14 Order – which precluded their enlistment of the MPDPA in jurisdictional 9 discovery – with the Nevada Supreme Court.¹

10 4. Nevertheless, defying the September 14 Order, Sands China has continued to enlist 11 the MPDPA as a basis for not complying with its discovery obligations and has redacted all 12 so-called personal data – the names and personal identifiers – on all documents produced from 13 Macau. Thus, one of the principal sanctions this Court imposed for the misrepresentations and lack 14 of candor continues to be ignored by Sands China.

15 B. DEFENDANTS' ATTITUDE OUTSIDE OF THIS LITIGATION.

16 5. Sands China urges this Court to accept, at face value, its claims that its response to 17 its discovery obligations and this Court's September 14 Order were undertaken in good faith. Yet, 18 the evidence, including the attitude and response by LVSC and Sands China concerning their 19 obligation to respond to the United States government, paint a contrary picture.

20 6. Sometime after Jacobs commenced this action in October 2010, the United States 21 Securities and Exchange Commission, issued at least one subpoena to LVSC seeking information, 22 some of which was located in Macau.

23 7. LVSC's general counsel, Ira Raphaelson, emphasized the seriousness in which 24 LVSC and Sands China took their obligations relative to the United States government's 25 requirements. In response, the LVSC Board of Directors voted to vest the "full power of the Board"

26
27
28 ¹ Las Vegas Sands v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d 876, 878 (2014).

1 with LVSC's audit committee. That committee was then empowered to engage the O'Melveny and 2 Myers law firm ("O'Melveny") as legal counsel to address the United States' requests.

3 8. Raphaelson expressly recalled conferring with David Fleming, Sands China's 4 General Counsel. As Sands China is 70% owned by LVSC, Fleming reported to Raphaelson.
5 Raphaelson claims that he wanted to ensure that "maximum access" was given to information that 6 Sands China possessed.

7 9. As part of Raphaelson's "maximum access" discussion, O'Melveny lawyers from the 8 United States were sent to Macau and given access to Sands China's files and servers to conduct 9 searches for information. Raphaelson testified that "a number of consents" were obtained under the 10 MPDPA so that O'Melveny would have access to documents and thereby interview executives in 11 Macau. Raphaelson went so far as to indicate that the company was even willing to provide separate 12 independent legal counsel for any Macau personnel if they so desired. Although Raphaelson could 13 not recall the number of consents obtained, Sands China presented no evidence that there was any 14 limitation or restraints upon obtaining such consents relative to O'Melveny's.

15 10. One of those Macau executives was Ben Toh, Sands China's Chief Financial Officer, 16 as well as a member of Sands China's Board of Directors. Toh recalled that he was interviewed by 17 the O'Melveny lawyers sometime in 2011. During that interview, which Toh believes his personal 18 lawyer recorded, he was shown documents. While he could not recall all of the specifics, he did 19 believe that some of the documents were emails which originated in Macau and what he was shown 20 was in an unredacted form. In other words, in contrast to what Sands China and LVSC have 21 repeatedly told this Court in the past, United States lawyers were given access to Sands China's 22 Macau data and were allowed to review it and use it for their purposes.²

23 11. At this point, the evidence shows that U.S. lawyers were allowed to review 24 unredacted documents in Macau, but the record is incomplete as to what those documents were and 25 whether any of them were brought back to the United States. Raphaelson acknowledged that 26

27 ² It should be noted that in a July 19, 2011 hearing, counsel for both LVSC and Sands China 28 represented to this Court that the only people that could go to Macau and review documents were people that "represent Sands China and they have to do it in Macau," and that counsel for LVSC could not access documents. (July 19, 2011 Transcript of Proceedings at p. 7.)

1 O'Melveny made at least two presentations concerning its review where members of the Nevada 2 Gaming Control Board, gaming regulatory bodies from Pennsylvania and Singapore, and at least 3 one U.S. federal law enforcement official were present. Raphaelson asserted privilege as to the 4 nature of those presentations, except to affirmatively assert that no documents from Macau, or any 5 summaries thereof, were disclosed.³

6 C. THE CONTRARY ATTITUDE FOR THIS LITIGATION.

7 12. While Raphaelson recalled the "maximum access" discussion with Fleming about 8 O'Melveny's review, Raphaelson said he could not recall the substance of the more recent input he 9 provided to Fleming concerning compliance with this Court's September 14 Order.

10 13. For his part, Fleming testified that he obtained input from not only Raphaelson, but 11 also attorneys Robert Rubenstein, Randall Jones, Mark⁴ Jones, Mike Lackey, Wyn Hughes, and 12 Ricardo Silva in determining his course of action. (Day 1, pp. 152-56.) Based upon the input he 13 received, Fleming claims that he made the decision not to comply with this Court's September 14
14 Order and that the decision is one thus based in "good faith."

15 14. But Sands China's proffered "good faith" defense of its conduct is self-serving and 16 contradicted by actual evidence. Even after this Court's September 14 Order which stemmed from 17 Sands China's and LVSC's efforts to mislead the Court, Macau's Office of Personal Data Protection 18 ("OPDP") – the governmental agency charged with administering the MPDPA – had informed 19 Sands China that its request to transfer data concerning this litigation was incomplete and was based 20 upon the wrong provisions of the MPDPA. (Ex. 102; Day 2, pp. 176-78.) OPDP informed Sands 21 China that its request to transfer could not be considered absent corrections and additional 22 information being provided. (Id.)

23 15. Fleming concedes that he knew that OPDP considered Sands China's requests to be 24 incomplete. Yet, no action was taken to remedy the deficiencies that OPDP noted. (Id.) Fleming 25

26 ³ Jacobs maintains that presentation of information to federal law enforcement officials is a 27 waiver of any attorney-client privilege. At this juncture, the Court will draw no inference from any 28 claim of attorney-client privilege. Jacobs has reserved the right to challenge this claim of privilege by way of separate motion and the Court will address the point at that time.

⁴ It appears the transcript inadvertently states "Mike."

1 initially rationalized this inaction claiming that there was insufficient time in light of the deadlines 2 set by this Court. Nonetheless, even though Sands China was still producing documents as late as 3 January 2015 in redacted form, Fleming concedes Sands China had taken no action to address the 4 inadequacies that OPDP had noted in 2012. Simply put, Sands China did nothing for over two 5 years regarding OPDP's instructions that Sands China's request was defective. Sands China 6 provides no explanation for this conscious inaction, which again contradicts its claims that it has 7 been acting in good faith.

8 16. Similar is Sands China's response when OPDP informed Sands China that it could 9 pursue available remedies in the Macau courts concerning its desire to transfer data. (Ex. 102.)
10 Once again, Fleming acknowledged that he knew of available avenues but he took no action in that 11 regard. This is despite the fact that one of the means in which the MPDPA expressly authorizes a 12 transfer of data "for compliance with a legal obligation" "or for the . . . exercise of defence [sic] of 13 legal claims." (Ex. 341.) Once again, Sands China's conscious inaction for years contradicts its 14 claims of "good faith" in choosing to violate this Court's orders still today.

15 17. Sands China's purposeful choice in not seeking consents is further proof.
16 Sands China concedes that it did not seek consents from any of its Macau personnel. Fleming's 17 only explanation was to claim that it would be too cumbersome to do so. And, in prior arguments 18 to this Court, Sands China has insisted it could face potential liability if it even sought consents 19 because it could be accused of having put pressure on personnel in order to obtain the consent.

20 18. Yet, Raphaelson's revelation that "a number of consents" were obtained when LVSC 21 and Sands China wanted access to information so as to address the United States' investigation 22 contradicts the rationale Sands China has given for its inaction here. As Toh even acknowledged, 23 he believed that he had granted consent for LVSC to access his personal data pursuant to his 24 employment arrangement. And, even though Toh and other Sands China executives were the 25 custodians that Sands China had been ordered to search for jurisdictional discovery, not a single 26 such consent was even sought. Again, the evidence indicates that Sands China can and will obtain 27 consents when it is in its economic interest to do so, but consciously chose not to seek consents 28 where it is a defendant facing potential liability in this action.

1 19. The fact that consents were later obtained from four Nevada residents – Adelson, 2 Goldstein, Leven and Kay – nearly two years after the ordered production is hardly evidence of 3 good faith. Rather, these are best cosmetic. These four executives are United States residents.
4 Their emails are located in Nevada and not even subject to the MPDPA, a fact that Sands China and 5 LVSC have conceded. Obtaining consents from United States residents while knowingly not 6 seeking consents from Macau personnel – several of whom were actual custodians – is only further 7 evidence as to Sands China's lack of good faith relative to this Court's orders and its discovery 8 obligations.

9 20. That reality is further highlighted by Sands China's response to the entry of the 10 September 14 Order. Despite now claiming that the MPDPA imposes serious consequences should 11 Sands China comply, Sands China consciously chose not to challenge the September 14 Order with 12 the Nevada Supreme Court, despite the fact that the Order barred Sands China of any use of the 13 MPDPA in jurisdictional discovery or this Court's yet-to-be-held evidentiary hearing on personal 14 jurisdiction as a sanction for prior misrepresentations. Sands China has filed numerous writ 15 proceedings with the Nevada Supreme Court concerning this Court's rulings, but consciously did 16 not challenge the sanction of barring it from asserting the MPDPA.

17 21. Fleming concedes that he received the September 14 Order, and understood that it 18 prohibited Sands China from using the MPDPA as a basis for not producing documents. He also 19 understood that the September 14 Order precluded Sands China from using the MPDPA as a basis 20 for redacting documents in this litigation. Fleming acknowledged that the order was sufficiently 21 "clear" to him as to what it precluded. (Day 1, pp. 147-48, 150-51; Day 2, p. 179.)

22 22. Yet, despite Sands China's claimed significance surrounding compliance with the 23 MPDPA, the Sands China Board of Directors was never provided a copy of the September 14 Order 24 imposing the sanction that the MPDPA could no longer be used as a shield. (Day 3, pp. 89-93.)

25 23. Nor was the Sands China Board provided copies of this Court's subsequent order 26 requiring production of jurisdictional documents. (Day 3, p. 90.) According to Fleming, he did not 27 involve the Board in making a decision as to complying with this Court's September 14 Order. At 28 best, he may have informed a couple of board members about it. But, the Board was never informed

1 of any potential consequences, despite Sands China's current protest of how the September 14 Order 2 portends serious consequences for Sands China under Macau law.

3 24. Consistent with its inaction relative to the effect of this Court's September 14 Order, 4 Sands China presented no evidence that it actually faced any serious consequences should it comply.
5 Although Fleming noted that the MPDPA contained potential criminal sanctions, no evidence was 6 presented that the MPDPA had ever been enforced in such a fashion or that there was any risk of 7 such sanctions when complying with the orders of a U.S. court. Suggestions of potential criminal 8 liability here are but naked self-serving excuses unsupported by actual evidence. Indeed, Sands 9 China presented no actual evidence that its Board members or officers feared any potential reprisals 10 by complying with this Court's Order. Again, Fleming claims that neither the Board nor even the 11 CEO were asked to make a decision on what is now being recast as a serious problem for Sands
12 China.⁵

13 25. Further contradicting Sands China's fear of serious consequences, Fleming 14 acknowledged that Sands China had in fact violated the MPDPA on at least two prior occasions.
15 One of them involved the large data transfer that Sands China and LVSC undertook which was 16 concealed from this Court and had occurred even before Jacobs had commenced this litigation.
17 There were no outstanding court orders compelling the transfer of that data. Yet, for that wholesale 18 transfer, Sands China paid a nominal fine which was roughly equivalent of $2,500 U.S. dollars.
19 (Day 2, p. 229.) For the other separate violation, Sands China was fined the same nominal amount 20 of roughly $2,500 U.S. dollars. (Id.)

21 26. Equally noteworthy is a lack of any efforts by the Macau government, despite 22 Sands China's insistence that it is aware of this litigation as well as this Court's orders, to express 23 any concerns or articulate any supposed Macau interests that would justify noncompliance. The 24 Macau government has made no appearance in this action despite its ability to do so, nor has it 25 sought to intervene in any fashion.

26
27 ⁵ It should be noted that until just one business day prior to the scheduling of the evidentiary 28 hearing on sanctions, Sands China maintained that the identity of the persons involved in the decision making to violate this Court's September 14 Order was privileged. Only on February 6, 2015, did Sands China claim, for the first time, that the decision was made solely and exclusively by Fleming.

1 27. That lack of genuine interest is consistent with other admissions by Sands China. As 2 Fleming himself acknowledged, there are no restrictions upon taking documents or ESI that contain 3 personal data out of Macau as a matter of routine business. When Sands China's executives travel, 4 they are not required to surrender that information at the border of Macau, nor do they. According 5 to Fleming, the OPDP has supposedly given authorization – although no such writing or any form 6 of documentation was actually presented – for data to be carried out of Macau in the ordinary course 7 of business. As Fleming conceded, Sands China could not run its business without doing so.
8 Indeed, Sands China's executives presumably travel from time to time to Las Vegas – LVSC is, 9 after all, the 70% owner of Sands China – and bring with them laptops and other forms of data.
10 And, such data could be subpoenaed in the United States, because Sands China and LVSC have 11 both acknowledged that once documents are outside of Macau, the MPDPA does not apply.

12 28. It is readily apparent that Sands China's attitude towards compliance with this Court's 13 September 14 Order stands in sharp contrast with how it claims to have cooperated with "maximum 14 access" relative to United States government investigations. Relative to this Court's Order and 15 supposed Draconian catch-22 that Sands China now claims exists, Fleming did not even inform the 16 Board of Directors. The Board held no meetings concerning the consequences of noncompliance.
17 (Day 1, pp. 157-58.) Nor did the Sands China Board vote or authorize redactions that were in 18 knowing violation of this Court's September 14 Order. (Id. at pp. 166-167.) Further underscoring 19 its attitude concerning this Court's Order, there is no indication that Sands China disclosed to any 20 regulatory authorities its conscious decision to violate an order of a United States court. (Day 3, p.
21 94.)

22 29. At the end of the day, Sands China made a business decision that it was more 23 preferable to violate this Court's September 14 Order than it was to comply with it. Its after-the-fact 24 claims of a "good faith" defense do not comport with the actual evidence adduced at the hearing
25 before this Court.⁶

27 ⁶ Sands China also asserted attorney-client privilege as to the input Fleming received from 28 attorneys in forming his "good faith" decision to violate this Court's order. Jacobs maintains that making claims of good faith based upon advice of counsel constitutes a waiver of that advice, because it goes to whether the claim of "good faith" is legitimate. At this juncture, the Court will

D. THE PREJUDICE IS UNREMEDIED AND ONGOING.

30. The prejudice that Sands China has inflicted with its noncompliance began before this Court entered its September 14 Order, continues today and has been exacerbated by Sands China's attempts to benefit from its own noncompliance.

31. Despite the entry of this Court's September 14 Order, Sands China continued to cite the MPDPA as a basis for its non-review and non-production of documents. This necessitated Jacobs filing his initial Motion for NRCP 37 Sanctions on November 21, 2012. In response, Sands China filed a motion for protective order on December 4, 2012, once again claiming that it should not have to comply with its discovery obligations because of the MPDPA, a position that had been foreclosed by this Court's September 14 Order.

32. Accordingly, this Court held a hearing on December 18, 2012. Recognizing Sands China's history of disregarding its discovery obligations as well as this Court's ordered production, this Court once and for all entered a final order requiring that Sands China produce all jurisdictional documents no later than January 4, 2013. (Court Minutes, Dec. 18, 2012, on file; Order, Jan. 16, 2013, on file ("Sands China shall produce all information in its possession, custody, or control that is relevant to jurisdictional discovery, including electronically stored information ('ESI'), within two weeks of the hearing, on or before January 4, 2013;").)

33. Despite the fact that Jacobs' discovery requests have been pending since 2011, Fleming concedes that he did not even engage lawyers in Macau – who he understood would have to conduct the document review – until this Court's December 18 pronouncement. (Day 2, pp. 239-40.)

34. Now forced to act, Sands China contracted with FTI Consulting, an ESI vendor, on December 18, 2012, to assist with Sands China's production of documents from Macau in compliance with the Court's production deadline of January 4, 2013. FTI's project manager for this undertaking was Jason Ray. Ray testified that FTI was "engaged to collect and facilitate in the collection of electronic data for a set list of custodians, to process that data for culling and search draw no inference or conclusion on the claim of privilege and its potential waiver. Jacobs may proceed by way of separate motion on this point if he so chooses.

1 analysis, to select documents that were potentially relevant for human review, and to support the 2 human review and ultimate production of those documents from Macau. (Day 2, pp. 14-15, 24.)

3 35. The document review was done in the Venetian Macau where FTI set up its 4 technology processing center. FTI gathered data that was collected by Venetian Macau IT personnel 5 and did some additional data collections from servers, individual computers, laptops, and desk tops 6 of only approximately 6-9 custodians. All of the data was then processed and loaded into FTI's case 7 review tool called "Ringtail." (Day 2, pp. 20, 73-74, 77.)

8 36. FTI was informed by one of Sands China's attorneys – Kristina Portner of the law 9 firm Mayer Brown – that FTI was given "explicit authorization" to see the metadata of the 10 documents for purpose of searching and review management. Purportedly, this approval was given 11 by the OPDP. FTI did not communicate with OPDP or see any written authorization. (Day 2, pp.
12 21-22, 68-69.)

13 37. As a result, FTI could view some personal data that is contained within the metadata 14 even though FTI could not look at documents. Metadata can contain personal data including email 15 addresses, names of senders, names of recipients, and the name of folders where data is stored.
16 (Day 2, pp. 22, 62-64.) No evidence or explanation was provided as to why this review of personal 17 data could occur but others supposedly could not.

18 38. Searches in Ringtail are run based upon "search term families," which are groups of 19 individual criteria that are then applied to a data set of documents. Each criterion can have 20 associated with it a Boolean search of any level of complexity. In other words, search term families 21 are built with Boolean search terms. Then, the Boolean search term families are run against the 22 index of data which produces a search result of relationships that are in the database and reportable, 23 i.e. this document contains one or more criteria from the Boolean search term family. (Day 2, 24 pp. 20, 80-82.)

25 39. Attorneys from Mayer Brown provided FTI with the Boolean search terms to be run 26 against the index. FTI, as an ESI vendor, is not familiar enough with the case to create its own 27 search terms for responsive documents. There is an iterative process reporting with counsel on the 28 results of those searches and the search terms change over time based upon the results of the search.

1 Searches can be modified to be more or less expansive to generate more or less responsive
2 documents. (Day 2, pp. 20, 81-83, 86.)⁷

3 40. Most often, the Boolean search terms consist of the names of individuals. (Day 2, 4 pp. 82, 89-90, 94, 280.) The significance of this point cannot be understated here since Sands China 5 later redacted all of the names from the responsive documents prior to producing them to Jacobs.

6 41. While Sands China initially claimed that Jacobs had not provided any input on the 7 appropriate search terms, the evidence at the hearing demonstrated otherwise, including that Jacobs 8 had provided additional search terms, some of which Sands China incorporated and others which 9 were ignored without explanation. (Ex. 215.)

10 42. The search terms were run in December 2012 and identified approximately 11 70,000 responsive documents for review. (Day 2, p. 93.)

12 43. The review of the documents was conducted in a second conference room at the 13 Venetian Macau because FTI employees and Sands China's counsel in this case were purportedly 14 not permitted to see any of the documents that were being reviewed or handled. (Day 2, pp. 20, 112-15 113.)

16 44. Sands China's review for relevancy and responsiveness was conducted by Macau 17 attorneys and "Macau citizens." As Ray explained, because Sands China had not sought to hire 18 reviewers until a week before Christmas, Sands China could not find a sufficient number of 19 "competent Macau lawyers" to conduct the review. (Day 2, pp. 98-103, 106, 143-44, 238.) Thus, 20 non-lawyer paralegals, legal secretaries, and "other people" with supposed "legal knowledge" were 21 used to make relevancy determinations in Macau.⁸ No lawyers involved in this litigation reviewed 22 documents in Macau for relevancy or responsiveness.

25 ⁷ FTI assisted Sands China with two productions from Macau. The second production was 26 completed in March/April of 2013. The second search was an expanded search of terms and 27 additional custodians. (Day 2, pp. 88, 148-149.) Jacobs proposed additional search terms for this production. (Day 2, pp. 151-171.) Not all of Jacobs' proposed changes were incorporated. The documents from the second search were not produced to Jacobs until January 2015. (Day 2, p. 286.)

28 ⁸ This revelation is in contrast to Sands China's representations to the Court and to Jacobs made in its so-called "Report on its compliance with the Court's ruling of December 18, 2012."

1 45. The lack of transparency in Sands China's procedures is highly problematic.
2 Sands China presented no evidence of any training of the so-called Macau reviewers or their 3 qualification to be making relevancy/responsiveness determinations for discovery in a Nevada
4 lawsuit. Ray concedes that FTI did not do any subject matter training for the Macanese reviewers 5 and he did not know if anyone provided any subject matter training. FTI only provided training on 6 how to use the computerized review tool. (Day 2, pp. 98-103, 106.)

7 46. As the Macanese reviewers were also redacting the documents at the same time they 8 were reviewing for relevancy and privilege, no one involved in this litigation was allowed to see 9 what in fact was being redacted and what documents were being exclude from the production. (Day 10 2, pp. 103-104.) According to Sands China and Ray, the Macau reviewers were supposed to be 11 redacting information from which the identity of a person could be known, which principally meant 12 person's names were redacted.

13 47. Once the review was complete, the redactions were burned onto the document 14 images and then the images and metadata were packaged for production. This production was then 15 sent to Mayer Brown electronically. (Day 2, pp. 113-114, 119.) According to Ray, the Macau 16 reviewers determined that only 15,000 documents out of the some 70,000 documents identified by 17 the search terms were sufficiently relevant/responsive to be produced. (Day 2, p. 110.)

18 48. The redaction of all names and personal identifiers from the documents exacerbates 19 an already problematic review process. There is no question that this is a politically-charged case, 20 one which involves allegations of possible wrongdoing by important Macau figures as well as 21 investigations concerning Macau and Chinese officials. The lack of transparency – with 22 unidentified Macau reviewers making determinations as to types of documents that should be 23 subject to disclosure in a highly-charged United States litigation – highlights the prejudice from 24 Sands China's noncompliance. Even in hearings before this Court, Sands China and LVSC have 25 objected to the introduction of emails and other matters claiming that they are sensitive and/or 26 potentially embarrassing. Yet in the same breath, Sands China claims that the Court and Jacobs 27 should just trust that unidentified Macau reviewers are capable of making relevancy/responsiveness 28

1 determinations and that they are making those determinations regardless of the sensitivity or 2 potential embarrassment to Macanese or other officials concerning their production.

3 49. The Court can have little confidence in such a nontransparent process. And, no 4 litigant should be required to accept it, particularly under the circumstances of this case. The 5 redactions made to the documents – eliminating all names and other identifying information about 6 identities – casts doubt as to fairness and thoroughness of the entire search, vetting and production 7 process. Because many of the search terms were in fact names, the veracity and completeness of 8 the search cannot be tested against the documents that were flagged for production as Sands China
9 has made it impossible for Jacobs to know the identity of any of the names in the redacted 10 documents. Thus, because several of the search terms are in fact names of people, the search terms 11 themselves are redacted. Such a process is ripe for abuse and fails to meet the standards of fairness 12 for discovery in a Nevada court.

13 50. Because in many instances the actual search terms are redacted, Jacobs cannot 14 himself even run searches against the redacted documents.

15 51. The Defendants themselves confirmed that redacted documents are effectively 16 useless in terms of evidentiary value, particularly emails since those contain the identity of the 17 sender, recipient and other names, all of which Sands China has redacted and made inaccessible.

18 52. For instance, the video deposition of former Sands China and LVSC Board member, 19 Mike Leven, was played to the Court as the Defendants declined to make Leven available as a 20 witness. As Leven then testified, he was shown a number of the redacted emails and would not 21 have "the slightest idea" what the documents were about or how they pertain to this case because of 22 the redactions. Leven conceded that he could not make heads or tails out of the documents because 23 all of the names and identifying was missing. (Day 3, pp. 152-154.)

24 53. Toh, who testified live via videoconference, confirmed the same. Toh was similarly 25 shown a number of the emails as well as a copy of Board meeting minutes where all the names were 26 redacted. Toh confirmed that he could not recall these events and could not even identify who was 27 involved or to what they necessarily pertained. Again, documents with all of the names redacted, 28 particularly email, are effectively rendered useless from an evidentiary standpoint.

1 54. Sands China highlighted the extreme prejudice to Jacobs with its own conduct at the 2 Court's hearing. When Jacobs offered redacted and thus indecipherable documents into evidence, 3 Sands China objected, noting that Jacobs could not lay a foundation. Unremarkably, with the 4 identity of the senders, recipients, or the names of any people that are discussed in the emails all 5 redacted, it is virtually impossible to lay any foundation which only confirms that Sands China's 6 production has been rendered useless.

7 55. As if that were not enough, Sands China then sought to gain advantage from its own 8 noncompliance. It took the position that unless Jacobs would stipulate to the admission of 9 documents that Sands China wanted into evidence, it would object to Jacobs' ability to introduce 10 any of the redacted documents due to the lack of foundation. Simply put, Sands China itself 11 demonstrated the extreme prejudice to Jacobs, demonstrating how it would exploit its own violation 12 of this Court's September 14 Order to extract advantage for itself.

13 56. Again, these redacted documents are those that the unidentified Macau reviewers 14 determined were relevant/responsive to jurisdictional discovery. Yet, Sands China has effectively 15 destroyed the evidentiary value of all of the redacted documents, particularly the emails, through its 16 willful violation of this Court's September 14 Order.

17 57. The prejudice that Sands China inflicts is compounded by the unlevel playing field 18 it achieves. According to Sands China, it (and only it) gets to know the true contents of the redacted 19 documents. It gains the advantage of knowing what the documents truly reveal and what additional 20 and/or corrected search terms would yield. Because of the redactions – which Sands China has 21 made in violation of this Court's September 14 Order – Jacobs is deprived of that same knowledge 22 or the ability to test the veracity of Sands China's purported search.

23 58. Sands China's continuing misuse of the MPDPA in violation of this Court's 24 September 14 Order has perpetuated the already unprecedented delay of this action to Jacobs' 25 prejudice. This action has now been pending for over four years and merits discovery has been 26 stayed until this Court is able to resolve Sands China's personal jurisdiction defense. Yet, that 27 process has been stalled by Sands China's obstruction of jurisdictional discovery, including its 28 ongoing violations of this Court's September 14 Order.

1 59. Again, by the time this Court entered its September 14 Order, Fleming acknowledges 2 he knew the effect and what was required. As he testified:

3 Q. Okay. And when you saw it did you understand that it 4 precluded you - - or, I'm sorry, it precluded the company from redacting any documents pursuant to the MPDPA?

5 MR. RANDALL JONES: Mr. Fleming - -

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, of course I did. I told Her Honor exactly that 7 a few minutes ago.

8 BY MR. BICE:

9 Q. All right. So you were - - you did not misunderstand as to which documents it applied; correct?

10 A. Of course not.

11 Q. You know that it applied to all of the documents that were then 12 located in Macau; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 (Day 1, p. 148.)

15 60. Fleming confirms that Sands China was not confused nor was the order somehow 16 ambiguous. Yet, Sands China and LVSC proceeded to make self-serving claims of confusion as to 17 the effect of the Court's order in pursuit of additional delay. After this Court announced that it 18 would convene this evidentiary hearing to consider further sanctions for the ongoing 19 noncompliance, Sands China and LVSC petitioned for writ relief to the Nevada Supreme Court, 20 including making the claim that sanctions were unwarranted because the September 14 Order did 21 not actually apply to the documents that were then located in Macau. Yet, as Fleming 22 acknowledges, Sands China knew otherwise. Nonetheless, as Sands China's general counsel, 23 Fleming authorized the contrary argument to the Nevada Supreme Court in support of the claimed 24 confusion.

25 61. Fleming also concedes that he recognized that the September 14 Order did not permit 26 redactions to be made under the MPDPA. Nonetheless, he was not going to comply with this Court's 27 order and would proceed to make redactions. Fleming then claimed under questioning by 28 Sands China that he had been led to believe that redactions were permitted. He claims that he could not recall who told him that this Court had authorized the redactions to be made. Yet Fleming

1 acknowledges that he was going to make the redactions notwithstanding the terms of this Court's 2 September 14 Order and that this Court's supposed approval of redactions merely gave him more 3 comfort. Of course, this Court gave no such authorization for redactions under the MPDPA and 4 Sands China has failed to disclose who purportedly made such a representation.

5 62. Sands China could have saved the Court and the parties substantial time and money 6 by being forthright that it did not intend to comply with this Court's September 14 Order. Instead, 7 Sands China made erroneous claims of confusion that its own general counsel acknowledges did 8 not actually exist. It used those manufactured claims of confusion to seek further delay of this case.

9 63. Undue delay in the prosecution of any case is prejudicial, but acutely so here. The 10 extraordinary amount of time that has been consumed dealing with Sands China's MPDPA excuses 11 has made proper access to documentary proof all the more critical. Witnesses have left LVSC and 12 Sands China. As LVSC's own general counsel acknowledges, memories fade with time. One key 13 witness, former Sands China Board member, Jeffrey Schwartz, died during this latest delay of this 14 case. And, Raphaelson was unaware of any attempts to preserve evidence from Schwartz prior to 15 his passing.

16 64. The long-running delay of this action – the duration of which is unprecedented in 17 this Court's experience – stems from Sands China's continuing enlistment of the MPDPA as a basis 18 for noncompliance with its discovery obligations. The result has been the permanent loss of 19 evidence in this case, which in and of itself underscores why a reliable and thorough production of 20 contemporaneous documents is all the more necessary here. This Court resolved the MPDPA's use 21 against Sands China nearly two and a half years ago. Yet, it continues to be enlisted as a tool of 22 delay and obstruction to this very day.

23 E. SANDS CHINA'S PURPORTED MITIGATION IS INEFFECTIVE.

24 65. Sands China claims that it has endeavored to mitigate some of the prejudice – 25 prejudice that arises only because of its noncompliance – by searching for and producing some of 26 the relevant/responsive documents in an unredacted form by locating copies that were already 27 outside of Macau.

1 66. After its initial production in early 2013, Sands China later produced "replacement
2 images," i.e. unredacted (or less redacted) duplicates of SOME documents originally produced 3 redacted from Macau that were later found in the United States. However, what "replacement" 4 images were ultimately located and produced hardly addresses the prejudice to Jacobs.

5 67. Even by Sands China's own count, at least 7,900 documents from its production 6 remain redacted with the names and identities of all participants in those documents removed.
7 Bluntly stated, at least 7,900 documents – which its Macau reviewers determined were 8 relevant/responsive to jurisdictional discovery assuming that that process was not already flawed –
9 remain effectively unproduced to Jacobs. The identity of all participants in those documents 10 remains redacted and they are effectively unusable as confirmed by Sands China's own witnesses.

11 68. Sands China claiming how it located certain of the documents outside of Macau and 12 later produced them in an unredacted form does not mitigate the prejudice to Jacobs. Thousands 13 and thousands of relevant and responsive documents remain unproduced in violation of this Court's 14 September 14 Order.

15 69. There is no undoing the prejudice to Jacobs from this continued nonproduction.
16 According to Sands China, it has done everything possible to locate all duplicates that could exist 17 outside of Macau and all documents that are still redacted remain that way because it is not going 18 to comply with this Court's sanction, which precluded Sands China from using the MPDPA.

19 70. What is more, what replacement documents Sands China could locate and produce 20 were not done in a timely fashion so as to be used during jurisdictional discovery depositions, which 21 were completed in early February, 2013. As part of its undertaking relative to locating potential 22 copies outside of Macau, FTI was not made aware of the depositions that had already occurred, nor 23 did FTI alter its schedule so as to accommodate the remaining depositions. (Day 2, p. 147.)

24 71. Sands China's reference to the amount of money it has expended in redacting and 25 searching for duplicates outside of Macau is not evidence of good faith so as to mitigate against the 26 imposition of serious sanctions. To the contrary, the fact that Sands China would expend what it 27 claims are $2 million so as to not comply with this Court's September 14 Order only highlights how 28 even significant monetary sanctions will not bring Sands China to cease its misconduct. A litigant

1 that will spend millions so as to not comply with its discovery obligations will not be dissuaded by 2 lesser monetary sanctions.

3 72. The evidence elicited from FTI's Ray confirms that Sands China could have 4 expended at least $2 million less in discovery costs had it simply complied with this Court's 5 discovery orders. Instead, because of time constraints brought on by its own noncompliance, 6 Sands China claims that it incurred an additional $2 million in expenses with FTI as a product of its 7 efforts to continue to use the MPDPA as a shield against discovery in violation of this Court's 8 September 14 Order. (Day 2, pp. 47-50.)

9 73. In short, this Court's prior $25,000 sanction and the additional sanctions imposed by 10 the September 14 Order have proved insufficient to deter Sands China from continuing to act in 11 derogation of Jacobs' rights.

13 1. The purpose of an evidentiary hearing, like that of a trial, is to determine the actual 14 truth. Because the goal is the search for the truth, "our rules of discovery are an avenue to achieve 15 that goal. The discovery process seeks to make a trial into a fair contest with the basic issues and 16 facts disclosed to the fullest practical extent." Whitley v. C. R. Pharmacy Service, Inc., 816 N.W.2d 17 378, 386 (Iowa 2012). Indeed, as another court has aptly noted:

18 Our adversary system for the resolution of disputes rests on the 19 unshakable foundation that truth is the object of the system's process 20 which is designed for the purpose of dispensing justice. However, 21 because no one has an exclusive insight into the truth, the process 22 depends on the adversarial presentation of evidence, precedent and 23 custom, and argument to reasoned conclusions – all directed with unwavering effort to what, in good faith, is believed to be true on the matters material to the disposition. Even the slightest accommodation of deceit or lack of candor in any material respect quickly erodes the validity of the process.

24 United States v. Shaffer Equipment Co., 11 F.3d 450, 457 (4th Cir. 1993). It is for that very reason 25 that the right to discovery is broad because "wide access to relevant facts serves the integrity and 26 fairness of the judicial process by promoting the search for the truth." Shoen v. Shoen, 5 F.3d 1289, 27 1292 (9th Cir. 1993).

2. Sands China's ongoing noncompliance is incompatible with and undermines the search for truth. By its September 14 Order, this Court has already imposed sanctions upon Sands China, including precluding it from further using the MPDPA as a basis for not complying with its jurisdictional discovery obligations. As the Nevada Supreme Court confirmed, Sands China "did not challenge" the September 14 Order precluding Sands China's use of the MPDPA here. Las Vegas Sands v. Eighth Jud. Dist. Ct., 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d 876, 878 (2014).

3. The Nevada Supreme Court explained that "the mere presence of a foreign international privacy statute itself does not preclude Nevada courts from ordering foreign parties to comply with Nevada discovery rules. Rather, the existence of an international privacy statute is relevant to the district court's sanctions analysis in the event that its order is disobeyed." Id.

4. Again, this is not a case where a party is simply disregarding an order to produce documents. Sands China has already been sanctioned once, and that sanction was that it could no longer rely upon the MPDPA as a basis for noncompliance. That sanction is binding upon Sands China.

5. Furthermore, even if this were a case where a prior sanction had not already been imposed for misrepresentations to the Court, the five factors noted by the Nevada Supreme Court – citing Societe Nationale Industrielle Aerospatiale v. United States District Court, 482 U.S. 522 (1987) and the RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF FOREIGN RELATIONS LAW § 442(1)(c) (1987) – warrant the imposition of serious sanctions for Sands China's continuing noncompliance. Those factors include:

(1) "the importance to the investigation or litigation of the documents or other information requested"; (2) "the degree of specificity of the request"; (3) "whether the information originated in the United States"; (4) "the availability of alternative means of securing the information"; and (5) "the extent to which noncompliance with the request would undermine important interests of the United States, or compliance with the request would undermine important interests of the state where the information is located."

6. There is no requirement that the unproduced documents be critical or the sole source of proof for the case. Documents are nonetheless considered sufficiently "important" to the litigation to outweigh any foreign privacy statutes provided that the documents "directly relevant."

1 Richmark Corp. v. Timber Falling Consultants, 959 F.2d 1468, 1475 (9th Cir. 1992). "A court need 2 consider only the relevance of the requested documents to the case; it need not find that the 3 documents are vital to a proper [cause of] action." Chevron Corp. v. Donziger, 296 F.R.D. 168, 4 204-05 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (quotations omitted) (emphasis added).

5 7. Here, Sands China cannot dispute the relevancy of the unproduced documents to the 6 ongoing jurisdictional dispute. After all, even with questions as to the completeness of the 7 Macanese review, the reviewers deemed these redacted documents to be sufficiently 8 relevant/responsive to be produced regarding jurisdictional discovery. On top of that, access to all 9 of the responsive documents is important to the ability of any party to test the adequacy of the 10 search results, a process which has been defeated by the redactions undertaken in violation of this 11 Court's September 14 Order.

12 8. Jacobs' jurisdictional discovery requests were specific. The Court had previously 13 ruled upon the scope of Jacobs' jurisdictional discovery requests and approved them. (Order Re: 14 Pl.'s Mot. to Conduct Jurisdictional Discovery & Def.'s Mot. for Clarification, March 8, 2012, on 15 file.); see Pershing Pac. W., LLC v. MarineMax, Inc., No. 10-CV-1345-L DHB, 2013 WL 941617, 16 at *7 (S.D. Cal. Mar. 11, 2013) (finding discovery requests sufficiently specific where "the Court 17 has imposed limitations on the scope of production for several of the Requests."). Sands China did 18 not present any evidence that Jacobs' discovery requests were not specific or that it somehow did 19 not understand or that these documents were not relevant to those requests. To the contrary, Sands 20 China's representative from FTI, Ray, confirmed that the redacted documents were relevant.

21 9. It appears that most of the documents with MPDPA redactions originated and are 22 based solely in Macau. However, that fact does not mitigate against sanctions or their importance.
23 To the contrary, because Sands China claims that it is not subject to jurisdiction in Nevada, access 24 to its documents in Macau is all the more warranted.

25 10. "[T]he alternative means must be 'substantially equivalent' to the requested 26 discovery." Richmark Corp., 959 F.2d at 1475; see In re Air Crash at Taipei, Taiwan on Oct. 31, 27 2000, 211 F.R.D. 374, 378 (C.D. Cal. 2002) ("However, defendant has not shown that the ASC 28 report is substantially equivalent to the requested documents.").

1 11. Jacobs does not have any "substantially equivalent" means of obtaining the redacted 2 documents. Sands China concedes that the thousands of documents which remain redacted are 3 located only in Macau and that it has been unable to locate any other source to produce them. Jacobs 4 has no other method of obtaining the personal data identifying the decision-makers, attendees, 5 senders, recipients, of subject(s) of the documents and communications. Sands China's redaction 6 logs are of no assistance as they contain only generic descriptions of individuals and Jacobs' 7 jurisdictional theories require that the precise identities of the relevant individuals be known. The 8 redaction logs are in no way "substantially equivalent" substitutes.

9 12. Only four consents were obtained and then only well after the deadline for 10 production in January 2013. Sands China made no effort at all to obtain consents from the 11 Macau-based custodians. See United States v. Vetco Inc., 691 F.2d 1281, 1290 (9th Cir. 1981) ("It 12 is not substantially equivalent because of the cost in time and money of attempting to obtain those 13 consents."). Again, Sands China admits that at least 7,900 documents from its production remain 14 redacted with the identity of authors, recipients and participants undisclosed and incapable of 15 determination.

16 13. The balance of national interests is the most important factor. Richmark Corp., 959 17 F.2d at 1476. The United States has a "substantial" interest in "vindicating the rights of American 18 plaintiffs" and a "vital" interest "in enforcing the judgments of its courts." Id. at 1477. "[T]he 19 United States has a substantial interest in fully and fairly adjudicating matters before its courts, 20 [and] [a]chieving that goal is only possible with complete discovery." Chevron Corp., 296 21 F.R.D. at 206 (internal quotations omitted).

22 14. When considering Macau's purported interests, the Court must consider 23 "'expressions of interest by the foreign state,' 'the significance of disclosure in the regulation . . . of 24 the activity in question,' and 'indications of the foreign state's concern for confidentiality prior to 25 the controversy.'" Richmark Corp., 959 F.2d at 1476 (quoting RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF FOREIGN 26 RELATIONS LAW § 442 cmt. c) (bold added). In the absence of earlier statements of interest, a 27 foreign government can express its interests by formally intervening in an action or filing an amicus 28 brief. See Chevron Corp., 296 F.R.D. at 206-07 (government can intervene); see also In re Rubber

1 Chem. Antitrust Litig., 486 F. Supp. 2d 1078, 1082 & n.2 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (foreign government 2 offering to submit amicus brief as it had done in other matters).

3 15. Although it has been fined nominal amounts by the OPDP previously, Sands China 4 has presented no evidence that it – or its officers and executives – face actual or serious 5 consequences for complying with an order of a United States court. See In re Air Crash at Taipei, 6 Taiwan on Oct. 31, 2000, 211 F.R.D. at 379.

7 16. Sands China's exchanges of correspondences with the OPDP are not evidence that 8 Sands China faces the threat of serious consequences. Id. ("This letter is not persuasive proof that 9 defendant or its officers or managing agents will be criminally prosecuted for complying with an 10 order of this Court. Nor has defendant presented any evidence regarding the manner and extent to 11 which Singapore enforces its secrecy laws."). Naked or self-serving references to possible 12 prosecution is not sufficient. Linde v. Arab Bank, PLC, 269 F.R.D. 186, 197 (E.D.N.Y. 2010) cited 13 with approval Las Vegas Sands, 130 Nev. Adv. Op. 61, 331 P.3d at 880.

14 17. The United States has an overwhelming interest in ensuring that its citizens, 15 including Jacobs, receive full and fair discovery to uncover the truth of their judicial claims. Nevada 16 has the same interest.

17 18. Sands China did not present any evidence of an official statement of the Macanese 18 government outside of, and before, this litigation regarding its interests in preventing Sands China's 19 disclosure of personal data. Again, Sands China's exchanges of correspondence with the OPDP 20 regarding this litigation do not express a sovereign interest in the redaction of the personal data in 21 this case. See Richmark Corp., 959 F.2d at 1476 (letters from PRC's State Secrecy Bureau sent 22 during litigation do not constitute statement of interest because they were sent in response to the 23 litigation in question).

24 19. The lack of a Macanese interest in this personal data is further evidenced by the fact 25 that Sands China regularly transmits personal data out of Macau during the course of its business 26 and/or was reviewed by non-Macanese citizens in response to internal and U.S. regulatory 27 investigations.

28

1 20. And, despite being aware of this litigation and Sands China's claims of 2 wide-reaching implications for its business, the Macanese government has not moved to intervene
3 or even filed an amicus brief to state its actual interests (if any). Chevron Corp., 296 F.R.D. at 206-4 07; In re Rubber Chem. Antitrust Litig., 486 F. Supp. 2d at 1082 & n.2.

5 21. Sands China's refusal to comply with the Court's September 14 Order is willful. It 6 is not factually impossible for Sands China to produce the documents from Macau in unredacted 7 form as would be the case if Sands China did not possess or control the requested documents.
8 Sands China can direct its vendor to remove the redactions. Richmark Corporation, 959 F.2d 9 at 1481. Sands China has simply elected not to comply.

10 22. Sands China's continued use of the MPDPA in violation of the Court's September 14 11 Order is willful and not supported by good faith.

12 23. Sands China's claim that it "cannot" comply with the Court's September 12, 2014
13 Decision and Order is not accurate. Sands China can comply. Sands China has made the choice 14 not to comply.

15 24. The letters sent to the OPDP do not evidence good faith. Sands China's request did 16 not provide the necessary information and were deemed deficient. After learning that its requests 17 were deficient, Sands China failed to remedy its inadequate request. See Linde, 269 F.R.D. at 199 18 ("Defendant's letters requesting permission from foreign banking authorities to disclose information 19 protected by bank secrecy laws are not reflective of an "extensive effort" to obtain waivers 20 Instead, the letters were calculated to fail.").

21 25. Sands China's continued reliance upon the MPDPA despite the Court's September 14
22 Order appears to be a concerted effort at continued delay and obstruction. Linde, 269 F.R.D. at 200 23 ("Finally, the years of delay caused by defendant's refusals to produce weigh against a finding of 24 good faith . . . It is now apparent that the delay was for no purpose at all; defendant never intended 25 to produce certain documents, regardless of this court's rulings . . .").

26 26. The continued use the MPDPA has inflicted severe prejudice on Jacobs. He has 27 been denied access to proof, he is unable to determine if he has received all of the discovery to 28

1 which he is entitled, important witnesses have died or become unavailable, and his day in Court has 2 been interminably delayed.

3 27. The law presumes that the delay has imposed severe prejudice upon Jacobs. Foster
4 v. Dingwall, 126 Nev. Adv. Op. 6, 227 P.3d 1042 (2010) ("continued discovery abuses and failure 5 to comply with the district court's first sanctions order evidences their willful and recalcitrant 6 disregard of the judicial process, which presumably prejudiced" opposing parties.).

7 28. Because the continuing redactions are willful and designed to deprive Jacobs access 8 to sources of proof – sources which even Sands China's Macau reviewers determined were relevant 9 – Sands China's conduct gives rise to a presumption that the non-produced evidence is favorable to 10 Jacobs and adverse to Sands China. NRS 47.250(3) and (4). Sands China has willfully suppressed 11 the information that it has redacted so as to gain advantage. Therefore, the Court presumes that the 12 concealed evidence would benefit Jacobs and would belie Sands China's defense of personal 13 jurisdiction. Bass-Davis v. Davis, 122 Nev. 442, 134 P.3d 103 (2006) (explaining that adverse 14 presumption arises when evidence has been willfully suppressed with the intent to prejudice an 15 opposing party).

16 29. Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 37 underscores the basis for sanctions. It authorizes 17 sanctions for "willful noncompliance with a discovery order of the court." Young v. Johnny Ribeiro 18 Bldg., Inc., 106 Nev. 88, 92, 787 P.2d 777, 779 (1990).

19 30. In addition to Rule 37, the Court has "inherent equitable powers" to impose sanctions 20 for "abusive litigation practices." Id. (citing TeleVideo Sys., Inc. v. Heidenthal, 826 F.2d 915, 916 21 (9th Cir. 1987)) (citations omitted); see also GNLV Corp. v. Serv. Control Corp., 111 Nev. 866, 22 869, 900 P.2d 323, 325 (1995) (noting that courts have the inherent authority to impose discovery 23 sanctions "where the adversary process has been halted by the actions of the unresponsive party.") 24 As the Nevada Supreme Court warned, "[l]itigants and attorneys alike should be aware that these 25 [inherent] powers may permit sanctions for discovery and other litigation abuses not specifically 26 proscribed by statute." Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779.

27 31. "Fundamental notions of fairness and due process require that discovery sanctions 28 be just and that sanctions relate to the specific conduct at issue." GNLV Corp., 111 Nev. at 870,

1 900 P.2d at 325 (citing Young, 106 Nev. at 92, 787 P.2d at 779-80). But, the minimum sanction a 2 court should impose is one that deprives the wrongdoer of the benefits of their violations. See 3 Burnet v. Spokane Ambulance, 933 P.2d 1036, 1041 (Wash. 1997) (en banc) ("The purpose of 4 sanctions generally are to deter, punish, to compensate, to educate, and to ensure that the wrongdoer
5 does not profit from the wrongdoing." (emphasis added)); Woo v. Lien, No. A094960, 2002
6 WL 31194374, at *6 (Cal. Ct. App., Oct. 2, 2002) (upholding trial court's imposition of sanctions 7 because not doing so "would allow the abuser to benefit from its actions").

8 32. In cases similar to that at hand, the United States Supreme Court has approved the 9 striking of a party's personal jurisdiction defense. See, e.g., Ins. Corp. of Ireland v. Compagnie des 10 Bauxites de Guinee, 456 U.S. 694 (1982). As another court has recognized under like 11 circumstances, the "sanction striking their personal jurisdiction defense would be appropriate for 12 failure to comply with the order to produce insofar as it required production of documents bearing 13 on their personal jurisdiction defense in this action." Chevron Corp., 296 F.R.D. at 220.

14 33. Additionally, Jacobs is entitled to both adverse evidentiary sanctions for the 15 jurisdictional hearing and serious monetary sanctions. The RESTATEMENT (THIRD) OF FOREIGN 16 RELATIONS Law § 442(1)(b) states that the "[f]ailure to comply with an order to produce information 17 may subject the person to whom the order is directed to sanctions, including . . . a determination 18 that the facts to which the order was addressed are as asserted by the opposing party." "[A] court 19 or agency may, in appropriate cases, make findings of fact adverse to a party that has failed to 20 comply with the order for production, even if that party has made a good faith effort to secure 21 permission from the foreign authorities to make the information available and that effort has been 22 unsuccessful." Id. at (2)(c).

23 34. NRCP 37(b)(2) imposes a similar sanction for disobeying a court's discovery order.
24 It provides that the "designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action 25 in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order." NRCP 37(b)(2).

26 35. "An adverse inference serves the remedial purpose of restoring the prejudiced party 27 to the same position he would have been in absent the wrongful destruction of [or willful refusal to 28 produce] evidence by the opposing party." Chevron Corp., 296 F.R.D. at 222. When properly

1 applied, the adverse inference can remedy at least some of the evidentiary imbalance caused by 2 noncompliance. Linde, 269 F.R.D. at 203.

3 36. As set forth in the findings of fact, this Court does not find that Sands China acted 4 in good faith. Regardless, "[t]he inference is adverse to the [nonproducing party] not because of 5 any finding of moral culpability, but because the risk that the evidence would have been detrimental 6 rather than favorable should fall on the party responsible for its [nonproduction]." Id. at 200 7 (quotations omitted).

8 37. The Supreme Court has announced a number of factors to consider when assessing 9 the propriety of a sanction:

10 The factors a court may properly consider include, but are not limited 11 to, the degree of willfulness of the offending party, the extent to which 12 the non-offending party would be prejudiced by a lesser sanction, the 13 severity of the sanction of dismissal relative to the severity of the 14 discovery abuse, whether any evidence has been irreparably lost, the 15 feasibility and fairness of alternative, less severe sanctions, such as an order deeming facts relating to improperly withheld or destroyed evidence to be admitted by the offending party, the policy favoring adjudication on the merits, whether sanctions unfairly operate to penalize a party for the misconduct of his or her attorney, and the need to deter both the parties and future litigants from similar abuses.

16 Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d at 780.

17 38. After considering all of the above factors, the Court finds that the following 18 combination of sanctions is the only way rectify the undermining of the discovery process caused 19 by Sands China's ongoing and continuing violations of this Court's September 14 Order:

- 20 a. The Court will strike Sands China's jurisdictional defense. Absent striking that 21 defense, Sands China will continue to benefit from its violations of this Court's 22 order. A lesser sanction would not deprive Sands China of the benefits of 23 noncompliance. Nonetheless, because of the directive from the Nevada Supreme 24 Court concerning making findings of fact and conclusions of law as to personal 25 jurisdiction over Sands China, this Court will simultaneously proceed with its 26 scheduled evidentiary hearing so as to create an evidentiary record of personal 27 jurisdiction should the Nevada Supreme Court decide to review it. See Chevron 28

1 Corporation, 296 F.R.D. at 220 (striking personal jurisdiction defense but 2 proceeding to evidentiary hearing to protect the record on appeal).

3 b. At the evidentiary hearing, the Court will impose an adverse inference that 4 the documents that Sands China has failed to produce unredacted as required by this 5 Court's September 14 Order are adverse to Sands China and would further support 6 Jacobs' claims of personal jurisdiction.

7 c. The Court will enter a finding of contempt against Sands China as provided 8 by NRCP 37(b)(2)(D).

9 d. Sands China is sanctioned $10,000.00 per day for every day that it has failed 10 to comply with the Court's January 4, 2013 deadline for production of all relevant 11 jurisdictional discovery without MPDPA redactions that was established at the 12 December 18, 2012 hearing. This sanction is consistent with the sanction imposed 13 by the Ninth Circuit in Richmark Corporation v. Timber Falling Consultants, 959 14 F.2d 1471-82. This sanction will continue day-to-day until Sands China complies 15 with this Court's September 14 Order by removing all MPDPA redactions and 16 refraining from making any further MPDPA redactions.

17 e. Jacobs is entitled to all of his attorneys' fees and costs incurred in pursuing 18 jurisdictional discovery to be awarded after proper application. This award of 19 attorneys' fees and costs is a continuation of that previously granted pursuant to this 20 Court's September 14 Order, as Sands China's actions constitute a continuing 21 violation of that order.

22 39. After due consideration, the aforementioned sanctions are appropriate given 23 Sands China's willful noncompliance, the prejudice to Jacobs from any lesser sanction, the severity 24 and repetitiveness of Sands China discovery misconduct in this action, the feasibility and fairness of 25 other available and lesser sanctions, the lack of effect of the Court's prior sanction, and the need to 26 deter Sands China from further discovery abuses during the remainder of the litigation. These 27 sanctions will not penalize Sands China for any improprieties of its attorneys because the discovery 28

1 abuses and use of the .MPDPA appears to be driven by the client. Young, 106 Nev. at 93, 787 P.2d 2 at 780.

3 THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

4 1. Sands China's personal jurisdiction defense is STRICKEN. However, the 5 Court will still hold the evidentiary hearing on jurisdiction as scheduled on April 20, 2015.

6 2. At the April 20, 2015 jurisdictional hearing, the Court will adversely infer 7 and find that all documents not produced in conformity with this Court's September 14 Order are 8 adverse to Sands China, would contradict Sands China's denials as to personal jurisdiction, and 9 would support Jacobs' assertion of personal jurisdiction over Sands China.

10 3. The Court enters a finding of contempt as provided by NRCP 37(b)(2)(D).

11 4. Sands China is SANCTIONED $10,000.00 for each day that it has, and 12 continues to, redact pursuant to the MPDPA after the Court's January 4, 2013 deadline for 13 production established at the December 18, 2012 hearing. As of March 2, 2015, the amount of 14 Sands China's sanction is $7,870,000.00 ($USD). Such amount is payable to the State of Nevada 15 for its willful violations of a court order.

16 5. Jacobs is awarded his reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred during the 17 entire jurisdictional discovery phase in amount to be determined after proper application.
