FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

(EXEMPT FROM ARBITRATION:
DECLARATORY RELIEF REQUESTED)

BUSINESS COURT REQUESTED
PURSUANT TO
E.D.C.R. 1.61(a)(2)(iv)

COMES NOW Plaintiff Las Vegas Sun, Inc. ("Plaintiff"), and complains against Defendants DR Partners, doing business as Stephens Media Group, and Does I through X ("Defendants") as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for declaratory relief pursuant to NRS 30.040. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under Article 6, Section 6 of the Nevada Constitution.

Electronically Filed
06/22/2015 11:13:54 AM

CLERK OF THE COURT

1 2. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants, and each of them, pursuant to 2 NRS 14.065 because the acts and omissions complained of herein were committed, in part, within 3 the State of Nevada, County of Clark, and, thus, Defendants, and each of them, had and continue to 4 have sufficient minimum contacts with this forum such that the exercise of personal jurisdiction
5 over them will not offend traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

6 3. Venue is proper in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County, Nevada, under 7 NRS 13.010, because all of the actions alleged herein were undertaken in Clark County, Nevada, 8 and affect property located in Clark County, Nevada. Venue is also proper pursuant to 9 NRS 13.040.

10 THE PARTIES

11 4. Plaintiff is a Nevada corporation that is a member of Greenspun Media Group, 12 LLC, which publishes various newspapers and magazines in Clark County, Nevada.

13 5. Defendant, DR Partners, doing business as Stephens Media Group ("Defendant"), is 14 and at all times material hereto was a Nevada general partnership having its principal place of 15 business in Clark County, Nevada.

16 6. Plaintiff alleges that Defendants named herein as Does I through X are individuals, 17 corporations, limited-liability companies, partnerships, associations or other persons or entities
18 who are responsible in some manner or capacity for the acts alleged herein, but whose names are 19 unknown to Plaintiff at this time. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to include the 20 names of Does I through X when the identities of such Defendants become known to Plaintiff.

21 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22 7. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the 23 above paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

24 8. Plaintiff publishes a daily newspaper called Las Vegas Sun ("The Sun") for 25 circulation in the Las Vegas metropolitan area.

26 9. Defendant was the publisher of the Las Vegas Review Journal ("LVRJ") in Las 27 Vegas, Nevada.

28 ///

1 10. In 1989, Plaintiff entered into a joint operating agreement (the "1989 JOA"), 2 attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit 1, with Defendant's predecessor, Donrey of 3 Nevada, Inc.

4 11. The 1989 JOA became effective, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. section 1803(b), only after 5 it was determined by the Attorney General of the United States that the 1989 JOA would effectuate
6 the policy and purpose set forth by Congress in the Newspaper Preservation Act.

7 12. Under the 1989 JOA, the LVRJ was required to, among other things, print The Sun,
8 and handle all advertising and circulation functions for both print newspapers. The 1989 JOA
9 ensured that The Sun would be in existence and publication until at least 2040.

10 13. Thereafter, Defendant assumed all of the rights and obligations of the 1989 JOA
11 from its predecessor, Donrey of Nevada, Inc.

12 14. In 2005, Plaintiff renegotiated the 1989 JOA with Defendant.

13 15. At this time, Plaintiff and Defendant entered into the valid and existing written
14 Amended and Restated Agreement ("2005 Amended JOA"), attached hereto and incorporated 15 herein as Exhibit 2, which forever amended the terms and conditions of the 1989 JOA.

16 16. The 2005 Amended JOA was approved by the Attorney General of the United 17 States in the same manner as the 1989 JOA, and was found to effectuate similarly the policy and 18 purpose set forth by Congress in the Newspaper Preservation Act. The 2005 Amended JOA
19 requires that The Sun continue in publication until at least 2040.

20 17. The 2005 Amended JOA required the LVRJ to print both the LVRJ and The Sun
21 together in its facilities and to fund and execute payments to all costs, including capital
22 expenditures of operations, with the exception of operation of The Sun's news and editorial 23 department.

24 18. Specifically, Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA states: "The Review-Journal
25 and the Sun shall each bear their own respective editorial costs and shall establish whatever 26 budgets each deems appropriate."

27 19. Section 4.2's requirement that Plaintiff and Defendant were required to bear their 28 own editorial costs was not an obligation under the 1989 JOA.

20. Despite the plain language of Section 4.2 requiring otherwise, Defendant has failed or refused to comply with its requirement that Plaintiff and Defendant bear alone their respective editorial costs, thereby breaching Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Declaratory Judgment)

21. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the above paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

22. Plaintiff is a party to the written 2005 Amended JOA.

23. Pursuant to NRS 30.040, Plaintiff, as a party to the written 2005 Amended JOA, is entitled to a declaration of its rights, status, and legal relations under the 2005 Amended JOA.

24. Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA expressly states: "The Review-Journal and the Sun shall each bear their own respective editorial costs and shall establish whatever budgets each deems appropriate."

25. Since Defendant has expensed its editorial costs for the LVRJ, in direct violation of Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA, a justiciable controversy presently exists between Plaintiff and Defendant as to whether Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA requires Defendant to bear its respective editorial costs.

26. A justiciable controversy exists between Plaintiff and Defendant as to the meaning and interpretation of Section 4.2 and the obligations it places upon the Parties' performance under the 2005 Amended JOA.

27. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to a Declaratory Judgment determining the rights, interests, and obligations of Plaintiff as to these justiciable controversies concerning the terms and conditions of the 2005 Amended JOA, and in particular, whether Section 4.2 of the 2005 Amended JOA requires Plaintiff and Defendant to bear their respective editorial costs.

28. Plaintiff has been forced to obtain the services of counsel to prosecute this action and is entitled to an award of attorneys' fees and costs incurred herein pursuant to NRS 18.010, et seq.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court provide the following relief:

A. A Declaratory Judgment in the manner permitted by NRS 30.040(1) determining and declaring Plaintiff's rights, status, and legal relations under the 2005 Amended JOA as alleged and requested above.

B. An award to Plaintiff of its cost of suit, including reasonable attorney's fees; and

C. An order granting to Plaintiff such other and further equitable or injunctive relief to which it may be entitled and which this Court finds to be just and appropriate.

AGREEMENT

This Agreement is dated as of June 12, 1989, between Donrey of Nevada, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Donrey"), and the Las Vegas Sun, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("Sun").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Donrey owns and publishes in Las Vegas, Nevada, an all day newspaper on weekdays, a morning newspaper on Saturdays and holidays, and a Sunday newspaper, each known as the Las Vegas Review-Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Review-Journal"). Sun owns and publishes in Las Vegas, Nevada, a morning newspaper on weekdays and Saturdays and a Sunday newspaper, each known as the Las Vegas Sun (hereinafter referred to as the "Sun"). The Sun presently operates and for a number of years has operated at a substantial loss, and is in probable danger of financial failure. It is the firm belief of the parties that the continued publication of at least two newspapers of general circulation, editorially and reportorially separate and independent, is of paramount importance to the citizens of Las Vegas and its environs. The parties further believe that publication of the Sun can be carried on profitably, and its continued editorial existence and independence thereby assured, if its production, distribution and advertising functions and related non-news and non-editorial activities are conducted and performed by the Review-Journal, through a single staff of Review-Journal employees utilizing Review-Journal's plant and equipment under a joint newspaper operating arrangement (hereinafter referred to as "Agreement"), under which the Review-Journal will act on its own behalf with respect to the Las Vegas Review-Journal and on behalf of the Sun with respect to the Las Vegas Sun.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

TERM

1.1 Effective Date. The term of this Agreement shall begin at 12:01 a.m. on the 10th day (or on such later day as the parties may agree) after the filing of written consent of the Attorney General of the United States to this Agreement under the Newspaper Preservation Act, which shall be known as "the Effective Date". The parties agree to pursue diligently the filing of the application for approval of this Agreement to the Department of Justice and to use their best efforts and take all action necessary to obtain such written consent as expeditiously as possible within the procedures set forth in applicable regulations of the Department of Justice. This Agreement does not constitute any limitation on either party's obligation to engage in good faith labor negotiations if and as required by the National Labor Relations Act, and to implement any understandings it may reach in such negotiations.

Upon execution hereof, each party shall furnish to the other a written opinion of its counsel that all necessary

corporate action has been taken to authorize this Agreement and that, subject to the conditions of the preceding paragraph, this Agreement shall constitute the valid and binding obligation of the respective party. The parties agree to cooperate in coordinating meetings with government officials, community leaders, employees and their representatives, advertisers and others to explain the Agreement.

If, within eighteen (18) months after the filing of the application with the Department of Justice, the application has neither been approved by the Attorney General without a hearing nor been the subject of an order for a hearing, or if, within eighteen (18) months after the Attorney General has issued an order for a hearing, the application has not been approved by the Attorney General, the parties shall discuss the feasibility of continuing to seek approval of the application and either party may, after notification to the other, withdraw from the application. The Review-Journal and Donrey intend to make a request, at the time of filing the application, under 28 CFR Section 48.5 for a protective order withholding from public disclosure their financial and other privileged and confidential commercial information to be filed with this application and restricting access to such materials to the applicants and the Department of Justice. If the request is not granted the Review-Journal and Donrey reserve the right to unilaterally withdraw the application. If the protective order is initially granted but, at a later date, access to or inspection of the protected information is to be afforded anyone other than the applicants, the Department of Justice, or an administrative law judge, and their respective employees, without restrictions as to disclosure acceptable to the Review-Journal and Donrey, then the Review-Journal and Donrey shall have the unilateral right to withdraw the application and dismiss any further hearing or proceedings concerning the application.

Each party shall pay its own costs and professional fees in connection with the formulation and drafting of this Agreement and the preparation and filing of the application to the Department of Justice. From and after the filing of such application all costs and professional fees shall be borne equally by the parties with each party having reasonable approval of costs and fees to be incurred.

1.2 Duration. Subject to the termination provisions set forth in Article 9, this Agreement shall continue for an initial period ending at the close of business on the ~~last day of~~ ~~December of the fiftieth (50th)~~ year following the Effective Date. The Agreement shall automatically renew for succeeding renewal periods of ten (10) years each unless either party shall notify the other in writing at least two (2) years prior to the end of the initial period that it elects to terminate the Agreement at the end of said fiftieth (50th) year, or unless either party shall notify the other in writing at least two (2) years prior to the end of the renewal period that it elects to terminate the Agreement as of the end of said renewal period. The phrase "term of this Agreement" as used hereafter shall mean the initial period and any renewal period or periods.

ARTICLE 2

AGENCY

Donrey of Nevada, Inc. now owns and operates the Review-Journal, together with other unrelated business operations in the State of Nevada. In order to facilitate management, administration, record keeping and tax administration under this Agreement, Donrey, as of the effective date of this Agreement, shall have established a separate Nevada business corporation which shall own or lease all assets related to the operation of the Las Vegas Review-Journal. Donrey shall cause such corporate entity to assume and agree to perform all duties and obligations of the Review-Journal under the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

TRANSFER OF CONTRACTS AND SALE OF SUPPLIES, INVENTORY AND EQUIPMENT BY SUN TO REVIEW-JOURNAL

3.1 Transfer to and Assumption by Review-Journal of Certain Contracts. To enable Review-Journal to perform its functions hereunder on behalf of Sun, Sun shall (as of the Effective Date) transfer certain assets and assign certain contracts to Review-Journal subject to the procedures and conditions hereinafter specified in this Section 3.1.

3.1.1 Delivery of Contracts and Data to Review-Journal.

Upon consent of the Attorney General as specified in Section 1.1, Sun shall furnish to the Review-Journal:

3.1.1.1 Circulation Contracts. All subscription, bulk sales, circulation, dealer and sub-dealer, and delivery agent lists and contracts related to the Sun in the possession or control of Sun, and all books and statements of account, records and other information relating to or concerning routes, daily draws by editions, distribution, delivery, sales returns, or prepaid subscriptions of the Sun in any territory, but not including the Sun's general books of account.

3.1.1.2 Contracts for Supplies. All contracts and other available information as may be reasonably necessary to form business judgments respecting such contracts, then held by Sun for the purchase of newsprint, film, ink and supplies for the Sun's mechanical departments, and all other similar contracts (other than those relating to the Sun's news and editorial departments) which would be helpful or beneficial to the Review-Journal in fulfilling its obligations hereunder.

3.1.1.3 Advertising Contracts. A list of all contracts then outstanding for publication of advertising in the Sun, which list shall indicate in each case the date of the contract, the name and address of the advertiser, the amount of space used up to that time, the amount unpaid and owing the Sun for advertising run to that time, the amount prepaid as of the Effective Date, the frequency of insertions, the rate, the expiration date, and any special conditions, records, requirements or publication orders with the date thereof, and any special instructions, agreements or commitments made by the Sun with the advertiser with respect thereto, and all insertion orders for advertising subsequent to the Effective Date. Sun shall make available to the Review-Journal at the Review-Journal's request copies of any or all such contracts.

3.1.2 Analysis of Contracts and Assumption by Review-Journal. As soon as possible after such information and documents shall have been furnished to the Review-Journal, and in any event prior to the Effective Date, Review-Journal shall designate in writing to Sun those contracts that Sun shall assign to Review-Journal and which Review-Journal shall assume as of the Effective Date (excluding all portions which Sun had a duty to perform prior to the Effective Date); provided, that with respect to advertising contracts Review-Journal shall have no obligation to assume any advertising contract that is on a trade-out basis, and Review-Journal agrees that it will not refuse the assumption of any advertising contract solely on the basis of the contract rate. However, for advertising contracts containing rates which Review-Journal determines to be unreasonable, Review-Journal shall have the right to charge to Sun the difference between the contract rate and a rate determined by Review-Journal to be reasonable, effective ninety (90) days after the date of assumption and continuing for the balance of such contracts. Subject to the foregoing, Review-Journal shall use its best efforts to maximize its designation of such contracts to be assigned to and assumed by Review-Journal. Review-Journal pre-assumption analysis of such contracts and information may include consultation with the contracting parties, and Sun agrees to assist Review-Journal in that process. Sun shall remit to Review-Journal (a) all dealers', vendors' and carriers' cash deposits (to the extent that the same shall not be due and owing to such depositors on the Effective Date) and (b) all sums in respect of prepaid subscriptions and prepaid advertising received by Sun but not earned prior to the Effective Date. As to any assigned and assumed advertising contracts, Review-Journal shall have the right to make adjustments, such as rebates or short ratings of any of same so long as this shall not alter indebtedness due Sun prior to the Effective Date without Sun's approval. All such contracts to be assumed by Review-Journal shall be assigned to Review-Journal by Sun as of the Effective Date, and such contracts shall be assumed by Review-Journal as of that date and thereafter shall be performed by Review-Journal, and Sun shall be relieved from any and all performance obligations under such contracts accruing after the Effective Date.

3.2 Newsprint. Review-Journal shall procure, as of the Effective Date and thereafter, a supply of newsprint adequate to produce the Newspapers as defined in Section 5.1 below; provided, that Review-Journal shall have the purchase and assumption obligations specified in Section 3.3 as to Sun newsprint.

3.3 Sale of Supplies, Inventory and Equipment. As of the Effective Date, Review-Journal agrees to purchase Sun's inventory of newsprint and supplies common to or usable in the operations of both newspapers (i.e., newsracks, production film, rubber bands, plastic bags, etc.). Upon the consent of the Attorney General as specified in Section 1.1, Sun shall deliver to Review-Journal a schedule identifying all supplies, inventory (on hand or in transit) and equipment owned or leased by Sun and used or available to be used in the production and distribution of the Sun. On or before the Effective Date, Review-Journal shall designate in writing which of the scheduled items of supplies, inventory and equipment it wishes to purchase or sublease, as the case may be.

Collections from particular subscribers shall first be applied to circulation accounts receivable unless otherwise agreed by Sun. As to any Sun advertising or circulation contracts assumed by Review-Journal under Section 3.1 above, Review-Journal will remit to Sun the portion of the receipts thereunder reflecting advertising run or circulation delivered by Sun prior to the Effective Date but not payable until on or after that date, and such portion shall not be Agency Revenues.

ARTICLE 8

NONLIABILITY PROVISIONS

8.1 Defense of Claims and Indemnification. Any claim, demand, suit, action, obligation or other liability asserted against or sustained by Review-Journal and Sun, or either of them, in respect of any third party ("Claims") shall be dealt with as provided in this Article 8. For all purposes of this Article 8, the term "cost or expense" shall include reasonable attorneys' fees.

8.1.1 Claims Related to the Joint Operation. Review-Journal shall defend and shall control the defense or settlement of any third party Claims related to the joint operations or to its performance or non-performance under this Agreement (including but not limited to Claims arising from any advertising published in, or excluded from, any of the Newspapers -- except as provided in Section 8.1.2 -- and Claims in respect of feature, news and editorial content furnished by Sun hereunder arising as a result of any act or omission on the part of Review-Journal other than republication in the form furnished by Sun), devoting reasonable efforts to minimizing any resulting liability and related cost or expense. Any such liability, and the cost or expense related thereto, shall be an Agency Expense, except to the extent any such Claim shall be covered by insurance. Review-Journal shall give written notice to Sun of any material Claims arising under this Section 8.1.1.

8.1.2 Other Claims. Except as specifically provided in Section 8.1.1. or elsewhere in this Agreement, neither party hereto shall be charged with or held responsible for any third party Claims (except to the extent certain Sun contracts shall be assumed by Review-Journal under Article 3), arising before or after the Effective Date by reason of any act or omission on the part of the other party, and the responsible party shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom, including all related cost or expense. The responsible party shall defend, settle, pay or discharge any such Claim and shall indemnify and hold harmless the other party against any such Claim, and from any liability, cost or expense arising therefrom. 8.1.3 Insurance. For the purposes of this Article 8, each party shall separately maintain and pay for, as an item of news and editorial expense, insurance to the extent reasonably available protecting against losses from libel, invasion of privacy, copyright or trademark infringement and other matters related to the gathering or preparation of news and editorial matter for publication, in such amounts as the parties may agree upon from time to time, but in no event less than Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000), and the other party shall be named as an additional insured.

8.2 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure or delay in performance under this Agreement, occasioned by war, riot, government action, act of God or public enemy, damage to or destruction of facilities, strike, labor dispute, failure of suppliers or workers, inability to obtain adequate newsprint or supplies, or any other cause substantially beyond the control of the party required to perform, provided that in the event partial performance under this Agreement is feasible, notwithstanding the occurrence of one or more of the foregoing, performance shall be allocated between the newspapers by the Review-Journal, in its sole judgment, and if it is feasible to publish only one newspaper product, Review-Journal shall exercise its best efforts to produce a jointly published newspaper in which the Sun portion shall be determined by Review-Journal, notwithstanding the provisions of Appendix A hereto, provided, that the Sun portion shall not be less than two (2) pages.

ARTICLE 9

TERMINATION

9.1 Events of Termination. This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect unless and until it may be terminated by the occurrence of one of the following events of termination:

9.1.1 Voluntary Termination. Voluntary termination under the provisions of Section 1.1.

9.1.2 Bankruptcy or Default. If either party hereto makes an assignment of its assets for the benefit of creditors, is adjudged a bankrupt or has a receiver appointed for its business by a court of competent jurisdiction (provided, that such adjudication shall continue unstayed on appeal or otherwise in effect for a period of ninety (90) days after the entry of the decree related thereto before such adjudication becomes an event of termination, and further provided that the appointment of the receiver must continue unvacated, not set aside, not stayed or otherwise in effect for a period of ninety (90) days after such appointment before such appointment becomes an event of termination), or if either party defaults in the performance of any of its material obligations hereunder and does not cure such default within sixty (60) days after receiving written notice thereof from the other party, then such other party may, at its election, and in addition to all other remedies available to it at law or in equity, terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' written notice by the Sun and sufficient notice by the Review-Journal to enable the Sun to arrange for the separate production of the Sun, but not to exceed six (6) months; provided, that in the event of default, the other party shall have the additional option to cure such default and, on demand, be reimbursed by the defaulting party for all costs and expenses related thereto.

9.1.3 Change of Controlling Interest. In view of the nature of the relationship established by this Agreement and the fact that the Sun is published under the direction and control of Herman M. Greenspun and Brian L. Greenspun, the Review-Journal shall not be required to carry out the terms of this Agreement or be associated with another party to which it objects. Accordingly, ownership or control of the Sun shall not be transferred to any other entity or person without notice to and prior approval by the Review-Journal, provided that the Review-Journal will not object to any transfer of the ownership or control of Sun to any entity under the immediate direction and control of Herman M. Greenspun, or Brian L. Greenspun, or any other lineal descendant of Herman M. Greenspun. If, following an approved or permitted change of control of Sun, a subsequent change of control occurs, notice as hereinabove shall be given and the Review-Journal may exercise the rights provided herein.

9.1.4 Loss Operation. If there are any two (2) consecutive years in which the Agency does not have an operating profit (Agency Expenses in excess of Agency Revenues), despite the Review-Journal's good faith efforts to produce an operating profit, the Review-Journal may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice.

9.2 Mechanics of Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, Review-Journal shall take appropriate action to transfer to Sun: (a) all then current circulation contracts, agreements or lists concerning bulk sales, subscriptions, dealers and sub-dealers, distributions, deliveries, sales returns and prepaid subscriptions of the Sun's daily newspaper, and of all jointly published newspapers, plus all pertinent portions of then current records and data pertaining thereto, and all sums received by Review-Journal in respect of prepaid subscriptions and cash deposits relating to daily Sun circulation, and a pro rata portion of all sums received by Review-Journal in respect of such subscriptions and deposits relating to the jointly published newspaper circulation, and (b) all then current advertising contracts and all pertinent portions of then current records and data relating to advertising to be published in the Sun and in all jointly published newspapers. Review-Journal shall further provide Sun with the originals and all copies of all contracts relating solely to circulation and advertising of the daily Sun, and copies of all other contracts referred to in the immediately preceding sentence.

Donrey's rights with respect to CCTV as herein provided shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement, provided, in the event the Review-Journal and Donrey withdraw from the application to the Department of Justice, pursuant to Section 1.1 of this Agreement, or if the Review-Journal terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1.4. within the first three (3) years of the term of this Agreement, Donrey's rights with respect to CCTV shall terminate, and in the event Donrey has received any payments, issuances, or transfers of or with respect to CCTV stock pursuant hereto prior to Donrey's withdrawal from the application to the Department of Justice or the Review-Journal's termination of this Agreement as herein provided, such payments, issuances or transfers of or with respect to CCTV stock shall be refunded or rescinded.

In its use of such Sun trademarks, tradenames, service marks and copyrights as may be required to perform its obligations under this Agreement, Review-Journal shall use its best efforts to comply substantially with all relevant laws of the State of Nevada and of the United States pertaining to trademarks, tradenames, service marks and copyrights in force at any time during the term of this Agreement. Sun shall use its best efforts to maintain in effect said trademarks, tradenames, service marks and copyrights, and shall make applications for the registration and/or renewal thereof if and when required by law. Review-Journal acknowledges Sun's right, title and interest in and to said trademarks, tradenames, service marks and copyrights and all renewals thereof, and agrees that it shall not at any time permit, take, or cause to be taken any action within its control in any way impairing or tending to impair any part of such right, title and interest. Review-Journal agrees to publish such notices in the Sun and the jointly published newspapers as Sun reasonably may request in order to protect said trademarks, tradenames, service marks and copyrights, or any of them. Review-Journal shall not in any manner represent that it has any ownership interest in said trademarks, tradenames, service marks or copyrights or in the registration thereof, and Review-Journal acknowledges that its use hereunder of said trademarks, tradenames, service marks or copyrights shall not create in its favor any right, title or interest in or to same beyond those created by this Agreement.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

WHEREAS, DR owns and publishes in Las Vegas, Nevada, a morning newspaper on weekdays, a morning newspaper on Saturdays and holidays, and a Sunday newspaper, each known as the Las Vegas Review-Journal (hereinafter referred to as the "Review-Journal"); and

WHEREAS, Sun owns in Las Vegas, Nevada, an afternoon newspaper on weekdays, known as the Las Vegas Sun (hereinafter referred to as the "Sun") and a combined Saturday and Sunday paper with the Review-Journal; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and of the mutual covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I REGULATORY FILING AND TERM

1.1 Regulatory Filing. Within ten business days (or on such later day as the parties may agree) the Parties agree to file the Restated Agreement with the Attorney General of the United States under the Newspaper Preservation Act within the Department of Justice and to use their best efforts and take all action necessary to effect the intent of this Restated Agreement. In the event of any action by the United States Department of Justice after the filing of the Restated Agreement which, in the sole opinion of either party, hinders, impairs, seeks to halt or otherwise materially impacts this Restated Agreement, then either party may declare the Restated Agreement null and void, and the 1989 Agreement between the parties shall be reinstituted and remain in full force and effect. The Restated Agreement does not constitute any limitation on either party's obligation to engage in good faith labor negotiations if and as required by the National Labor Relations Act, and to implement any understandings it may reach in such negotiations.

Upon execution hereof, each party shall furnish to the other a written opinion of its counsel that all necessary corporate or partnership action has been taken to authorize this Restated Agreement and that, subject to the conditions of the preceding paragraph, this Restated Agreement shall constitute the valid and binding obligation of the respective party. The parties agree to cooperate in coordinating meetings with government officials, community leaders, employees and their representatives, advertisers and others to explain the Restated Agreement.

Each party shall pay its own costs and professional fees in connection with the formulation and drafting of the Restated Agreement and the preparation and filing of the Restated Agreement with the Department of Justice. From and after the filing of such Restated Agreement, all costs and professional fees in connection with seeking any required approval by the Department of Justice shall be controlled and approved by the Review-Journal and such cost and shall be borne solely by Review-Journal.

1.2 Term. The term of this Restated Agreement shall begin at 12:00 a.m. on June 10, 2005 ("the Effective Date"). Subject to the termination provisions set forth in Article 9, the Restated Agreement shall continue for an initial period ending at the close of business on the 31st day of December of the fiftieth (50th) year from July 1, 1990. The Restated Agreement shall then automatically renew for succeeding periods of ten (10) years unless either party shall notify the other in writing at least two (2) years prior to the end of the then current period that it elects to terminate the Restated Agreement at the end of said period. The phrase "term of this Agreement" as used hereafter shall mean the initial period and any renewal period or periods.

In the event that the newspaper production system used by the Review-Journal is changed and (i) the Sun has utilized a production system that is current with systems commonly employed in the newspaper industry; (ii) the change by the Review-Journal results in any loss of a fully functional interface with the Sun newspaper production system, the Review-Journal shall be responsible to furnish such additional software, hardware and technical services to the Sun as may be necessary to establish such an interface. The Review-Journal shall give Sun ninety (90) days advance notice of anticipated changes to the Review-Journal's production system, including technical specifications for the new or modified system. Either the Review-Journal or Sun may undertake additional promotional activities for their respective newspaper at their own expense. For all promotional activities for the Newspapers paid for by the Review-Journal, the Review-Journal shall be responsible for all promotional copy preparation and placement, provided however, that the Sun shall have the right to approve all promotional copy for the Sun that does not generically and concurrently promote both Newspapers.

Any such liability, and the cost of expense related thereto, shall be borne by the Review-Journal, except to the extent any such Claim shall be covered by insurance.

8.1.2 Other Claims. Except as specifically provided in Section 8.1.1. or elsewhere in this Restated Agreement, neither party hereto shall be charged with or held responsible for any third party Claims, arising before or after the Effective Date by reason of any act or omission on the part of the other party, and the responsible party shall defend and indemnify and hold the other party harmless therefrom, including all related cost or expense. The responsible party shall defend, settle, pay or discharge any such Claim and shall indemnify and hold harmless the other party against any such Claim, and from any liability, cost or expense arising therefrom. By way of example under this Section 8.1.2 and without limitation, the entire cost or expense of defending, settling or paying and discharging Claims relating to any feature, news or editorial copy published in, or excluded from the daily Review-Journal or arising by reason of anything done or omitted by the news and editorial department of the Review-Journal in regard to its daily newspaper or arising by reason of any advertising rejected by the Review-Journal or accepted by the Review-Journal in situations where such advertising would be rejected pursuant to Sun guidelines, shall be borne by DR and any such liability, cost or expense on account of claims relating to any feature, news or editorial copy published in, or excluded by Sun from the daily Sun or, or arising by reason of anything done or omitted by the news and editorial department of the Sun, or arising by reason of any advertising rejected by the Review-Journal pursuant to Sun guidelines, or accepted in situations where such advertising would be rejected pursuant to Review-Journal guidelines, shall be borne by Sun, unless such Claims shall be an expense of the Review-Journal by reason of the operation of Section 8.1.1.

8.2 Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure or delay in performance under this Restated Agreement, occasioned by war, riot, government action, act of God or public enemy, acts of terrorism, damage to or destruction of facilities, strike, labor dispute, failure of suppliers or worker, inability to obtain adequate newsprint or supplies, or any other cause substantially beyond the control of the party required to perform, provided that in the event partial performance under this Restated Agreement is feasible, notwithstanding the occurrence of one or more of the foregoing, performance shall be allocated between the newspapers by the Review-Journal, in its sole judgment, notwithstanding the provisions of Appendix A hereto, provided, that the Sun portion shall not be less than six (6) pages.

ARTICLE 9

Greenspun, or any other lineal descendant of Herman M. Greenspun. Notwithstanding the foregoing, controlling interest of the Sun may be transferred to any person that can provide the necessary editorial background and expertise to produce the Sun pursuant to the terms of this Restated Agreement. APPENDIX A

A.1. Intentionally omitted

A.2. Pursuant to Section 4.3. of this Restated Agreement, the number, placement, and characteristics of Sun pages shall be in accordance with the following specifications:

- (a) For Monday through Friday editions, the Sun shall be composed of an open front page with the Las Vegas Sun flag and seven (7) additional editorial pages (or the lineage equivalent thereof) of which three (3) shall be open pages as determined by the Sun. The remaining pages may include advertising, subject to the restrictions in (d) below. For Monday-Friday editions, the Review-Journal shall be composed of as many pages as Review-Journal management determines in its sole discretion.
- (b) For the Sunday edition, the Sun shall be composed of an open front page with the Las Vegas Sun flag and nine (9) additional editorial pages (or the lineage equivalent thereof) of which three (3) shall be open pages as determined by the Sun. The remaining pages may include advertising, subject to restrictions in (d) below. The Review-Journal shall determine the number of pages for a comic section for the Sunday edition which shall consist of strips and features selected by the Review-Journal. The Sunday paper, including comics, shall be composed of as many Review-Journal pages as Review-Journal management determines in its sole discretion.
- (c) For Saturday and holiday editions, the Sun shall be composed of an open front page with the Las Vegas Sun flag and five (5) additional editorial pages (or the lineage equivalent thereof) of which three (3) shall be open pages as determined by the Sun. The Saturday and holiday editions shall be composed of as many Review-Journal pages as Review-Journal management determines in its sole discretion. The remaining pages may include advertising, subject to restrictions in (d) below.
- (d) The Sun shall not include any Review-Journal editorial content. Standard materials such as weather pages, comics, standardized television listings and the like shall not be considered Review-Journal editorial material and may be included in the Sun as additional pages unless the Sun objects in writing thereto. Other than open pages, the Sun may include advertising. No Sun page shall be more than 50% advertising, except for full page ads, and no advertising shall appear "above the fold" in the Sun, except for full page ads. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pages may contain, from time to time, more than 50% advertising due to production issues and advertising demands. Advertising will not be stacked in a pyramid format and shall be evened out in terms of height on the page. The Monday-Sunday editions of the Review-Journal shall include a noticeable mention of the Sun, on the front page of the Review-Journal. The noticeable mention will appear in a box above the Review-Journal's masthead (the "Sun Box") and shall be in the form shown on Appendix B. The Sun Box shall not be smaller in proportion than shown in Appendix B. The Sun Box shall also include the Sun's masthead, and any emblem that is part of the Sun's masthead. The Sun Box shall include a promotion of a story in the Sun and refer readers to the Sun inside. The type face, editorial artwork, font, and editorial promotional content appearing in the Sun Box shall be determined by Sun, in its sole discretion. Any color in the Sun Box shall be restricted to constituent colors used by the Review-Journal on its front page. The Sun Box shall be the left-hand box unless it would be obscured by a spada fold, in which case the Sun Box shall be the right-hand box. In the event of major breaking news or for exigent production circumstances, the Sun Box may be moved below the Review-Journal's masthead. The Sun, on average, will receive as much editorial color as the local news section of the Review-Journal.

A.3. Edition times for Monday through Sunday issues of the Review-Journal shall be established by the Review-Journal in accordance with normal industry standards. Deadlines for the Sun shall be the same as those established for the last local news sections of the Review-Journal. The Sun will be placed as the third section of the Newspapers except on occasions when exigent production circumstances require that it be placed as the fourth section. The Sun will be printed in the same press run as the Review-Journal local news section. The Review-Journal shall be solely responsible for determining the need for replating the Newspapers, and shall treat the Sun and the Review-Journal equally with respect to replating of page one for major breaking national or international news events.

A.4. If the Review-Journal determines that it is feasible to publish an "extra" edition, such edition shall be a Review-Journal edition and the content of any "extra" edition shall be determined solely by the Review-Journal.

A.5. In the event the Review-Journal determines that the Sun's continued placement in the Review-Journal has a material and substantial negative financial impact on the revenue and profit of the Newspapers it may deliver the Sun separately from the Review-Journal but at the same time, place, and manner as the Review-Journal. The Review-Journal shall provide written notice to the Sun within fifteen (15) days of beginning such separate delivery specifying in detail the factual basis for its determination.

In the event the Sun disagrees with the Review-Journal's determination, it shall within seven (7) days of receipt of notice from the Review-Journal, request that the matter be submitted to arbitration by an arbiter mutually agreed upon by the parties. If Sun requests arbitration, the Review-Journal shall not deliver the Sun separately until sixty (60) days after selection of the arbitrator. In the event the parties are not able to agree upon an arbiter within seven (7) days, an arbiter shall be selected by the Chairman of the Department of Journalism of Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, or a similar journalism school if Northwestern University has ceased operations of its School of Journalism. The parties shall request the arbitrator to render a decision within sixty (60) days of his or her selection, and Sun and the Review-Journal each hereby covenant to cooperate with the arbitrator to facilitate such request.

The arbitrator shall have experience in the senior management of metropolitan daily newspapers. In determining material and substantial negative financial impact, only the following factors shall be considered; advertiser abandonment of the Newspapers specifically due to the Sun's inclusion within the Review-Journal or subscriber cancellations of the Newspapers specifically due to the Sun's inclusion within the Review-Journal. The material and substantial negative financial impact shall be determined by reference to generally accepted standard newspaper industry sources. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final. The cost of the arbitration shall be borne by the non-prevailing party. The Review-Journal's rights under this section shall be cumulative and may not be exercised more often than once every eighteen (18) months.

In the event Sun determines, in its sole discretion, that the Sun's continued placement in the Review-Journal negatively impacts the Sun, the Review-Journal shall, upon fifteen (15) day written notice from Sun, thereafter deliver the Sun separately from the Review-Journal but at the same time, place and manner as the Review-Journal, provided that Sun shall pay any incremental expenditure reasonably incurred because of such separate delivery, which separate delivery shall be effected without any derogation in the publication, production, or delivery of the Review-Journal. Prior to giving its fifteen (15) day written notice, Sun may request and the Review-Journal shall provide a good faith estimate of such incremental expenditures and the parties shall meet and confer regarding the estimate. If the Sun is separately delivered, it will no longer receive noticeable mention in the Review-Journal.

Agency pursued damage control

Deputies show how F&B acted with e-mails about
Nixon's resignation

Continued

WASHINGTON — An FBI memo that says the agency was "pursuing damage control" in the wake of the Nixon resignation is the subject of a new book by a former FBI deputy director. The book, "The Nixon Resignation: A Behind-the-Scenes Story," by John Edgar Hoover, Jr., details the agency's internal communications and the role of the FBI in the resignation process. Hoover, who served as deputy director from 1971 to 1975, says the agency was "pursuing damage control" to protect the FBI's reputation and the integrity of the resignation process. The book is a critical look at the agency's handling of the resignation, and it is expected to be a best-seller.

APPENDIX C
Intentionally omitted

APPENDIX D

Sun shall receive an annual profits payment (the "Annual Profits Payment"), one-twelfth (1/12th) of which shall be paid monthly in advance on the first day of each month during the Term. For the fiscal year beginning April 1, 2005, the Annual Profits Payment shall be Twelve Million Dollars ($12,000,000), provided, however, that payments to Sun shall continue in accordance with the 1989 Agreement until the Transition Date. Each fiscal year thereafter during the term of this Agreement the Annual Profits Payment shall be adjusted as set forth in this Appendix D. Within thirty (30) days following the beginning of each such fiscal year, Review-Journal shall calculate the percentage change (the "Percentage Change") between the earnings, before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA") for the fiscal year immediately preceding (the "LTM EBITDA") and the EBITDA for the penultimate fiscal year (the "Prior Period EBITDA"). The Annual Profits Payment shall be increased, or decreased, as the case may be, by the Percentage Change between the LTM EBITDA and the Prior Period EBITDA.

In calculating the EBITDA (i) for any period that includes earnings prior to April 1, 2005, such earnings shall not be reduced by any amounts that during such period may have been otherwise been deducted from earnings under section A.1 of Appendix A or sections B.1.16, B.1.17, B.1.18, or B.3 of Appendix B of the 1989 Agreement and (ii) for any period whether before or after April 1, 2005, such earnings shall not be reduced by any amounts paid to Sun as a percentage of operating profit under Appendix D of the 1989 Agreement or under this Appendix D. Any expense of the Review-Journal attributable to a transaction with an Affiliate shall not exceed fair market value. EBITDA shall include the earnings of the Newspapers and the earnings of the Review-Journal's Affiliates derived from publications generally circulated in Clark, Nye, or Lincoln Counties, Nevada or any parts thereof. For purposes of this paragraph, Press Equipment shall mean the press equipment currently owned by the Review-Journal and identified in Appendix D-1 and any additional equipment, whether owned by the Review-Journal or third parties, to the extent that it produces substantially the same product or result, and Other Equipment shall mean all equipment and facilities used for production or operation of the printed Newspapers or other print publications whose earnings are included in EBITDA other than Press Equipment. EBITDA, whether determined for any period before or after April 1, 2005, shall not include (a) any expense for rents, leases or similar expense for Other Equipment (i) if such expense, under generally accepted accounting principles, should be treated as a capitalized lease obligation, or (ii) if such expense is made for the use of any capital asset the use of which is intended to replace any item of Other Equipment that is owned by the Review-Journal as of the Effective Date or (b) any expense for rents, leases, or similar expenses for Press Equipment, including any portion of a printing services contract that is fairly attributable to the use of Press Equipment. All calculations shall be made in accordance with generally accepted newspaper industry accounting principles consistently applied. The Parties intend that EBITDA be calculated in a manner consistent with the computation of "Retention" as that line item appears on the profit and loss statement for Stephens Media Group for the period ended December 31, 2004. Sun shall have the right, exercisable not more than once every twelve months and only after providing written notification no less than thirty days prior thereto, to appoint an certified public accounting firm or law firm as Sun's representative to examine and audit the books and records of the Review-Journal and the other publications whose earnings are included in EBITDA for purposes of verifying the determinations of the changes to the Annual Profit Payments. Such representative shall agree in writing to maintain the confidentiality of all such financial records inspected. The confidentiality agreement shall not restrict the representative from disclosing to the management of Sun information concerning the audit of the Review-Journal, but shall restrict the representative from disclosing any specific individual salary information or advertiser-specific information (e.g., names, prices, contract terms, discounts, total inches) for the other publications whose earnings are included in EBIDTA. With respect to such other publications, the representative may only disclose summary information (e.g., total advertising revenue or total salaries) that is not identifiable with individual advertisers or employees. If as a result of such an audit, there is a dispute between Sun and the Review-Journal as to amounts owed to Sun and they are not able to resolve the dispute within 30 days, they shall select a certified public accountant to arbitrate the dispute. The arbitration shall be conducted according to the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, including such rules for the selection of a single arbitrator if Sun and the Review-Journal are not able to agree upon an arbitrator. Sun and the Review-Journal shall request the arbitrator to render a decision within sixty (60) days of his or her selection, and Sun and the Review-Journal each hereby covenant to cooperate with the arbitrator to facilitate such request. The arbitrator shall agree to be bound by terms of confidentiality to the same extent as the Sun's representative. The arbitrator shall make an award to Sun in the amount of the arrearage, if any, found to exist, together with interest thereon from the date any arrearage was due until paid at the corporate prime rate as quoted by the Wall Street Journal on the first business day of each month. The arbitrator shall also make an award of the fees and cost of arbitration, which may include a division of such fees and costs among the parties in a manner determined by the arbitrator to be reasonable in light of the positions asserted and the determination made.

DR shall be entitled to all of the profits of the Newspapers after the payments set forth above to the Sun during the term of this Restated Agreement.

8. Nature of the action. Briefly describe the nature of the action and the result below:

Nature of the action:

This is a dispute between plaintiff Las Vegas Sun Inc. ("LV Sun") and Stephens Media, as owner and publisher of the Las Vegas Review Journal ("Review Journal"), over the calculation and distribution of profits under a Joint Operating Agreement, as amended and restated in 2005 ("JOA"). The LV Sun alleges that the Review Journal has miscalculated annual profit payments to the Sun under the JOA by treating its editorial costs as a cost of doing business to arrive at profit available for distribution to the Sun under the agreement.

Profit from operations under the JOA is determined annually under Appendix D to the Agreement. If there is a disagreement between the parties over profit and its calculation, Appendix D to the JOA stipulates that the disagreement shall be resolved in arbitration by a certified public accountant in accordance with "the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association." The Sun, however, contends that the dispute is a legal dispute involving the meaning of § 4.2 of the JOA, which does not address the Sun's compensation or its calculation of profit on annual basis.

Result below:

The District Court initially granted Stephens Media's motion to compel arbitration, but thereafter granted the Sun leave to file an amended complaint that on its face would not invoke arbitration. The Sun then filed its First Amended Complaint seeking only declaratory relief as to the "meaning" of § 4.2 of the JOA and "the obligations it places on the Parties' performance" under the JOA. Stephens Media filed a Renewed Motion to Compel Arbitration, which the District Court denied by order dated August 19, 2015.

9. Issues on appeal. State specifically all issues(s) in this appeal (attach separate sheets as necessary):

1. Whether the District Court erred in denying Stephens Media's Renewed Motion to Compel Arbitration, because: (a) this is at its core an accounting dispute over the calculation of profits under the JOA; (b) the parties agreed in the JOA to arbitrate disputes over amounts owed to LV Sun before a certified public accountant in accordance with "the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association"; (c) LV Sun's amended complaint seeks to avoid arbitration by mischaracterizing the accounting for annual profit as a dispute involving the meaning of § 4.2 of the JOA; (d) § 4.2 of the JOA does not address the Sun's compensation or its calculation of profit on annual basis and is irrelevant to the accounting dispute; and (e) even assuming § 4.2 of the JOA is relevant to the dispute, the arbitrator is authorized to decide legal issues in the course of arbitrating an accounting dispute.

10. Pending proceedings in this court raising the same or similar issues: If you are aware of any proceedings presently pending before this court which raises the same or similar issues raised in this appeal, list the case name and docket number and identify the same or similar issue raised:

N/A.

11. Constitutional issues. If this appeal challenges the constitutionality of a statute, and the state, any state agency, or any officer or employee thereof is not a party to this appeal, have you notified the clerk of this court and the attorney general in accordance with NRAP 44 and NRS 30.130?

Was it a bench or jury trial? N/A

14. Judicial Disqualification. Do you intend to file a motion to disqualify or have a justice recuse him/herself from participation in this appeal? If so, which Justice?
