ORDER

Petitioner has filed an unopposed motion to strike the brief of amicus curiae filed by the Nevada Affiliate of the National Employment Lawyers Association (NELA). In support of the motion, petitioner asserts that the amicus brief makes misrepresentations of fact and raises new issues. Having considered the motion and the parties' briefs, we conclude that striking the amicus brief is not warranted and deny the motion. However, we conclude that petitioner should be allowed an opportunity to raise its concerns in a responsive brief. Accordingly, petitioner shall have 11 days from the date of this order to file and serve a reply to NELA's brief, if deemed warranted. Any reply brief shall not exceed five pages or 2,333 words. Failure to timely file a reply brief will be deemed a waiver of the opportunity to file such a brief. Motions for extensions of time will not be viewed favorably.

It is so ORDERED.
