Elizabeth A. Brown
Clerk of Supreme Court

PETITIONER'S MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT THE RECORD

On November 2, 2016 at 3:45 p.m., Real Parties in Interest filed their Motion to Supplement the Record with Exhibit A which consists of a Fair Labor Standards Act Narrative dated April 26, 2013. On November 3, 2016, this Court granted the motion "to the extent we will consider it if our review of the petition reveals that it is appropriate."

If this Court decides to consider the document, Petitioner respectfully requests that Exhibit 1, WC Perera 231-232, supplement the record and be considered because this April 26, 2013 document is the DOL Compliance Action Report which followed the Fair Labor Standards Act Narrative. This document shows that the back wages computed by DOL were dropped after the Department changed its enforcement policy by allowing the use of IRS reporting percent tip wages as a tip credit toward minimum wage thus eliminating the back wages computed. DOL closed its limited investigation with no further action. Exhibit 1, WC Perera 232. The Real Parties in Interest furnished this document, WC Perera 231-32, to Petitioner on May 20, 2016.

Western Cab does not believe Exhibit A is relevant to the merits of the Petition. However, if this Court considers Exhibit A, Western Cab requests that the record also be supplemented with the Compliance Action Report, WC Perera 231-32, attached as Exhibit 1.

Respectfully submitted,
