Justice Michael Cherry Becomes Supreme Court Chief Justice

5/7/2012 10:45:00 AM

Leadership at the Nevada Supreme Court changed on May 7 when Justice Michael A. Cherry assumed the administrative post of Chief Justice that has been held since September 5, 2011, by Justice Nancy Saitta.

"It is an honor to become Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and I will strive to maintain the high standards that Nevadans have grown to expect from our Chief Justices," said Chief Justice Cherry, who will hold the post until January 2013.

Succeeding Chief Justice Nancy Saitta

Leadership at the Nevada Supreme Court changed on May 7 when Justice Michael A. Cherry assumed the administrative post of Chief Justice that has been held since September 5, 2011, by Justice Nancy Saitta.

"It is an honor to become Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and I will strive to maintain the high standards that Nevadans have grown to expect from our Chief Justices," said Chief Justice Cherry, who will hold the post until January 2013.

Justice Saitta acknowledged the challenges that will face the courts during Chief Justice Cherry's term.

"Serving as Chief Justice was a very memorable and fulfilling experience. Of course, the difficulties that all courts are facing given today's economic climate will continue to be a challenge," Justice Saitta said. "I am, however, confident that the Nevada judiciary will continue to work diligently to protect access to justice. "

"Chief Justice Cherry will bring his own focus and energy to the job and help our courts and judges continue to excel," she said. "All of the justices work together and look forward to supporting the Chief."

"Chief Justice Saitta elevated the public profile of the Nevada Judiciary and helped the courts continue to fulfill their constitutional role despite increasing caseloads and diminishing resources," Chief Justice Cherry said. "I have no doubt the Supreme Court will meet tomorrow's challenges."

He noted that the Supreme Court will be addressing many cases involving Nevada's construction and foreclosure crises.

"During the past few years, there has been an increase in cases involving foreclosure mediation and construction defects," Chief Justice Cherry said. "Before I joined the court there were not many of these types of cases, but they have increased dramatically."

The Chief Justice is administrative head of the state's legal system, speaking publicly for the Court and representing the Nevada Judiciary nationally.

The Chief Justice presides when the Supreme Court sits as the full court, but does not serve as a member of a three-justice panel to hear cases. The Chief Justice, however, does substitute for other justices on panels who must recuse because of conflicts. This gives the Chief Justice roughly half the caseload of other justices in addition to the extensive administrative and public duties.

Chief Justice Cherry began his judicial career when he was elected District Court judge in Clark County in 1998. He was elected to the Supreme Court in 2006.

He has been an attorney in Nevada since 1970, starting his career as a Deputy Clark County Public Defender before becoming a partner in the law firms of Manos & Cherry and later Cherry, Bailus & Kelesis.

Throughout his career, Chief Justice Cherry has given his time and efforts to civic and religious organizations.

He has been active in the American Cancer Society, the March of Dimes, drug treatment centers including WestCare, the Adelson Clinic, and youth education organizations such as Project REAL. He also served as president of District Four B'nai B'rith (covering 10 western states and western Canada), and was active in the Jewish Federation and Jewish Family Services. He also was past president of Congregation Ner Tamid in Las Vegas.

In 1981 Chief Justice Cherry was named as Special Master of the MGM Grand Hotel Fire Litigation and in 1983 he assumed the duties of Special Master of the Las Vegas Hilton Fire Litigation. As Special Master, Judge Cherry served as liaison between plaintiffs' attorneys, defense attorneys and the court during these multi-million dollar cases. His work as Special Master gained him nationwide recognition and the procedures he established are now a part of most mass disaster litigation.

In 1997 Chief Justice Cherry was named to lead the newly created Clark County Special Public Defender's Office to handle major homicide cases and conflict cases from the Clark County Public Defender's Office. He led a staff of six attorneys and served in that capacity until his election to the District Court bench.

At the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Cherry chairs the Indigent Defense Commission that is examining how the justice system deals with criminal defendants who cannot hire their own attorneys. He also is the supervising justice over the Senior Justice and Judge Program.

Chief Justice Cherry earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Missouri in 1966 and a juris doctorate degree from Washington University School of Law in 1969. A native of St. Louis, he is the father of two and grandfather of two.

Under the Nevada Constitution, only Justices in the last two years of their current 6-year term of office are eligible to be Chief Justice. This cycle included three eligible justices who agreed to share the leadership duties. Justice Michael Douglas served from January to September 2011 before handing off the position to Chief Justice Saitta.

Attorneys for Petitioners

Respondents' and Jacobs's "Notice[s] of Suggestion of Recusal" is a ploy to forum shop and is untimely. Justice Cherry's public service as an uncompensated director for the Dr. Miriam & Sheldon G. Adelson Clinic for Drug Abuse Treatment & Research, Inc. ("Adelson Clinic"), a non-profit charitable Nevada corporation has at all relevant times been a matter of public record. See Ex. A, 2009 – 2015 Filings for Adelson Clinic.

Presently before the Court in Case No. 64594 ("Suen Case") is Respondents Petition for Rehearing of a Decision filed March 11, 2016 in which Justice Cherry participated. Justice Cherry also participated in the prior 2009 appeal of this case, which concluded in 2010. Also before the Court in Case 69802 ("Jacobs Case") is the tenth writ petition in that case. There was also a direct appeal in the Jacobs Case. The pending tenth writ petition concerns the disqualification of District Court Judge Elizabeth Gonzalez. Without a whisper of objection from anyone, Justice Michael Cherry participated in the two prior appeals in this case and in all prior proceedings in the Jacobs Case.

The Suen Case (No. 64594) was first commenced in 2004 and was the subject of an appeal in 2009, which resulted in a new trial being ordered in 2010.

The Jacobs Case (No. 69802) was filed in 2010. Since early 2011, it has been the subject of 11 proceedings before this Court, in which Justice Cherry participated. Thus more than six years after Justice Cherry joined the Adelson Clinic board, Respondents and Jacobs claim their knowledge of this open and well-known public fact is derived from a March 21, 2016 deposition of Robert Goldstein, a Las Vegas Sands executive who also serves the Adelson Clinic as an uncompensated director. He was previously deposed by Jacobs in 2012. But what has been in the public record since 2009 does not transform Respondents'/Jacobs's untimely suggestion of recusal in 2016 into a meritorious or timely suggestion.

Justice Michael Cherry's civic service to the southern Nevada community through the Adelson Clinic has at all times been an open matter of public record that predates the first appeal in the Suen Case and the first writ petition in the Jacobs Case. See id.; Ex. B, Entity Details from Secretary of State <http://nvsos.gov/sosentitysearch/CorpDetails.aspx?lx8nvq=orUCRQfFiNQikZoX328Dlg%253d%253d&nt7=0#>). Even a simple Google search of "Michael Cherry, Adelson Clinic" discloses Justice Cherry's service to this charitable entity. Ex. C, May 7, 2012 Court Press Release (referencing his "active" participation in various non-profits, including the Adelson Clinic); Ex. D, Bizapedia Profile (listing him as a director for the clinic).

The members of the Court serve the public not only as elected Justices, but also as contributing members of their communities, which the Nevada Code of Judicial Conduct does not disallow or condemn. Rule 3.1 ("A judge may engage in extrajudicial activities, except as prohibited by law or this Code"); Rule 3.7 ("Subject to the requirements of Rule 3.1, a judge may participate in activities sponsored by organizations or governmental entities concerned with the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice and those sponsored by or on behalf of educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organizations not conducted for profit . . . ") (emphasis added). For example, members of the Court may serve on community boards of other social service agencies, access to justice organizations, and law-related activities, all of which rely on contributions and volunteers from the public and members of the bar. Id.; Rule 3.1, Cmt. 2 ("Participation in both law-related and other extrajudicial activities helps integrate judges into their communities and furthers public understanding of and respect for courts and the judicial system").

Accepting Respondents' and Jacobs's suggestion of recusal in the three cases before the Court case would create an undesirable dangerous precedent that would require Justices to isolate themselves from the communities in which they live and work. This laudable type of public service should not result in recusal.
