POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Time for Serving and Filing Briefs.

The appellant shall serve and file the OPENING brief within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date on which the appeal is docketed in the Supreme Court. The respondent shall serve and file his answering brief within thirty (30) days after service of the brief of the appellant. After service of respondent's brief, any OPENING brief must be served and filed within thirty (30) days. . . . By written stipulation timely filed with the Supreme Court, the parties may extend the time for filing any brief for a total of thirty (30) additional days unless the court otherwise orders. Applications for extensions of time beyond that to which the parties are permitted to stipulate are not favored, and will be considered only on motion for good cause clearly shown, or ex parte in cases of extreme and unforeseeable emergency. The Supreme Court may shorten the periods prescribed above for serving and filing briefs, either by rule for all cases or for classes of cases, or by order for specific cases."

Mr. Harris' Opening Brief is currently due on May 2, 2016. This is the second request for an extension of time. Mr. Harris is facing a life sentence. The issues presented in this appeal are expected to be voluminous and factually complex. Moreover, the trial in this case was lengthy and the undersigned was not trial counsel. 3350

The undersigned has been diligently reviewing Mr. Harris' file, including the jury trial transcripts. The undersigned has completed Mr. Harris' appendix which is approximately 3,500 pages. However, additional time is needed to continue reviewing voluminous file and to draft the Opening Brief. Thus, it is essential and necessary that the undersigned be permitted additional time.

Therefore, counsel respectfully request that this Court permit him thirty (30) days in order to properly brief these issues.
