우 HARRIS 2 1 LAS VEGAS, CLARK COUNTY, NV, FRIDAY, JULY 19, 2013 2 3 PROCEEDINGS THE COURT: Good morning. 4 5 MS. LUZAICH: Good morning. 6 THE COURT: Everyone ready to go? 7 MS. LUZAICH: Yes. 8 MS. ALLEN: Yes. 9 THE COURT: All right. So I have the 10 second amended criminal Complaint. 11 MS. LUZAICH: I apologize. Ms. Allen 12 pointed out that on Count 1 I made a mistake. I 13 typed this myself. I'm a terrible secretary. The 14 page that the conduct for Count 1 is on page 24 of 15 Volume I, not page 31. 1.6 THE COURT: Okay. And so, Ms. Allen, 1.7 did you want to go through with your argument 18 then? Is that the best way to do it? 19 MS. ALLEN: Actually with regard 20 to the purpose of the preliminary hearing, Your 21 Honor, I begrudgingly have to say I think the State 22 has met slight or marginal evidence. I went 23 through each count. I don't think my issues are properly before this Court. They should be before

1	THE COURT: I don't know why defense
2	attorneys always throw away that argument but go
3	ahead.
4	MS. ALLEN: With regard to witness
5	credibility if that were the case, I would ask the
6	entire case be thrown out because I don't think one
7	of those witnesses were. We don't have that.
8	THE COURT: If you want but to the
9	extent you're making the argument, then what is
10	your argument?
11	MS. ALLEN: Well, my only argument in
12	this case is witnesses' credibility and I think
13	that not one of these witnesses was credible. They
14	clearly back went and forth and made all these
1.5	statements. I think the case should absolutely be
16	dismissed.
17	With regard to the cite that she put
18	in the evidence, that's slight or marginal
19	evidence. I do concede that for purposes of Page 3

20	prelim.
21	THE COURT: From your argument
22	previously I understood that I understand some
23	of your issues with some of the witnesses and I
24	guess the one question I would have is with respect
25	to between the mother and Victoria, the issue about

1	what happened in the apartment seemed to directly
2	conflict with respect to what the mother testified
3	to as to Victoria's demanding to come in and
4	participate.
5	MS. ALLEN: Okay.
6	THE COURT: You have two witnesses who
7	assuming I accept one or both's testimony there was
8	a direct conflict between what occurred at that
9	apartment.
10	MS. ALLEN: You're talking about in
11	the Henderson and I believe you would be talking
12	about the allegations that would be most recent.
13	THE COURT' Right.

	30719HAR
14	MS. ALLEN: They happened I think
15	maybe sometime summer. Is that correct?
16	THE COURT: Yes.
17	MS. ALLEN: Yeah. They were in direct
18	conflict. The mother said Victoria wanted to
19	participate and I think Victoria alleged she was
20	sexually assaulted so they were clearly in direct
21	conflict.
22	THE COURT: What about the testimony
23	about what happened in the car with Victoria
24	between what the mother said and what Victoria
25	said. Was there a conflict?

5 MS. ALLEN: In all candor to the Court 1. as I recall no. I think the mother, I believe the 2 mother said that her testimony was similar to 3 Victoria's in that my client said he was just going 4 to take it. I don't believe that there was -- if 5 there was conflict in that, I don't believe it was 6 directly related to the alleged sexual assault. 7 THE COURT: The one I have the real Page 5 8

9	problem with is what occurred in the last apartment
10	where Victoria is saying that she was required to
11	engage in intercourse and sexual gain with the
12	mother and Mr. Harris and then the mother would
13	seem to have reason, who could be subject to
14	criminal prosecution and is testifying to all the
15	other acts that occurred and her involvement but
16	then saying no, that Victoria charged in and
17	demanded to
18	MS. ALLEN: Participate.
19	THE COURT: engage in sexual
20	intercourse. So that I have a real problem with.
21	Assuming I credibility of a witness I certainly
22	don't disagree there are two witnesses that I
23	believe. That's legally marginal evidence,
24	sufficient evidence to establish enough for a
25	preliminary hearing but if I simply don't believe a

Page 6

3	There's plenty of case law that the
4	Nevada supreme court says we absolutely do make

5	that determination. I guess, Ms. Luzaich, if you
6	want to address the issue between what Victoria
7	said happened at the last apartment and what I'm
8	sorry. The mom's name is
. 9	MS. LUZAICH: Tina.
10	THE COURT: What's the last name?
11	MS. LUZAICH: Duke. Okay. So as far
12	as what occurred in the apartment on that one
13	occasion where there was a direct conflict in the
14	evidence the mom is clearly you could tell from her
15	entire testimony downplaying everything that
16	happened because she doesn't want herself to look
17	like a bad mother.
18	We all know she's a bad mother. She's
19	a bad person so she's downplaying everything that
20	happened so when there's a conflict in the
21	testimony like that, I think that you need to let
22	the jury make the decision. Clearly there was
23	sexual conduct that happened in the apartment on
24	that day so I submit to the Court that

1	that do I accept what Victoria said as being
2	truthful. Can I accept what the mother said as
3	being truthful or can I throw out any or some or
4	all of the testimony of either one if I believe
5	that one person is motivated to lie and I'm just
6	not accepting their testimony so I'm just asking
7	for that specific.
8	MS. LUZAICH: Right. That's where I'm
9	going. In that particular situation as far as that
10	count goes I think that you should accept
11	Victoria's testimony. Her testimony overall was
12	very credible about everything.
13	The testimony of Tina is clearly
14	biased in that she knows that she could be
15	charged. She doesn't want to. She's giving us
16	enough evidence to say, look, I'm doing the right
17	thing but she's trying not to make herself look
18.	like a bad person.
19	THE COURT: You think that's where the
20	line was drawn that last incident or that incident
21	at the one apartment that that's where she thinks
22	that portrays her in the worse light that's why
23	she's contradicting what Victoria is saying.
24	It just doesn't make sense to me. I'm

PURSUANT TO NRS 239.053 AND 3.370.6, ILLEGAL TO COPY WITHOUT PAYMENT TO CHERYL GARDNER, CCR 230

just trying to figure out how we get suddenly a

2	otherwise seemed to kind of track each other in
3	pretty much most of the instances where they are
4	testifying but then you get to this one place and
5	you have a direct contradiction between others, I
6	mean their testimony seemed pretty consistent up to
7	that point.
8	MS. LUZAICH: Right. But when you
9	looked at that particular case Tina had told you
10	she was always she was faded were her words.
11	She was always faded when this stuff happens. On
12	that particular occasion Victoria was wanting to go
13	to the welfare office or whatever it was and Fred
14	was supposed to take her so is she coming into the
15	room and demanding let's go, let's go. In Tina's
16	mind it's not really conflicting. She was coming
17	in and demanding just Tina is telling you she was
18	demanding sex so I mean you can
19	THE COURT: Okay. That's what I
20	didn't understand.

MS. LUZAICH: -- make it work in your mind as to why it's a direct conflict about that one little thing. Where is the demanding? Tima's $\rho \, age \, 9$

- 24 telling you she's demanding sex. Victoria is
- 25 telling you she wanted to leave. It makes sense.

It came out that way. She doesn't want you to

2 think she is the worse mother that we know she is.

3 THE COURT: Moms have a hard job no

4 matter what.

5 MS. LUZAICH: Absolutely. I've got a

6 bunch of kids. I know that.

7 THE COURT: What count is the one that

8 would apply to that instance? I mean 'cuz Victoria

9 testified that there was multiple incidents in that

10 apartment where she was forced to engage in sexual 11 intercourse.

MS. LUZAICH: That is Count 38, he

13 grabbed her hand and he wanted her to perform,

14 well, suck his dick her words, my words perform

15 fellatio in the Complaint but there wasn't ultimate

16 contact in that case. It was battery with intent

17 because he wanted her to.

	30719HAR
18	THE COURT: So that was 38, battery
19	with intent to commit sexual assault.
20	MS. ALLEN: Are you sure? 40, Count
21	40.
22	MS. LUZAICH: Is it?
23	MS. ALLEN: Yeah.
24	MS. LUZAICH: Oh, what is it? Okay.

1 MS. ALLEN: I don't think that makes
2 sense.
3 MS. LUZAICH: I'm pulling -- I was
4 talking without the transcript in front of me.
5 (Off the record discussion
6 between both counsel.)

7 THE COURT: So the allegations are 8 with respect to what occurred in --9 MS. LUZAICH: Count 38.

10 THE COURT: -- the Henderson

11 apartment.

HARRIS

MS. LUZAICH: Nowhere does it say Page 11

13	Henderson for sure.
14	MS. ALLEN: It was in Henderson.
1 5	THE COURT: It's in that time period
16	the August 2010.
17	MS. ALLEN: Yeah, that was in
18	Henderson. Civic Street or something.
19	MS. LUZAICH: I don't think so.
20	Nowhere in the transcript does it talk about where
21	it was but when I was charging it, I charged that
22	incident for Count 38, the battery with intent.
23	THE COURT: So the one time where
24	there's a contradiction between Victoria and her
25	mother is you're saying it's only Count 38 and
	PURSUANT TO NRS 239.053 AND 3.370.6, ILLEGAL TO COP WITHOUT PAYMENT TO CHERYL GARDNER, CCR 230

11

1.	you're saying
2	MS. ALLEN: Well, it seems to me that
3	38, 39, and 40 all relate to her mother.
4	THE COURT: Are those the same day
5	though?
6	MS. LHZATCH: No.

30719HAR 7 MS. ALLEN: There's no date. 8 THE COURT: It was over a year. 9 MS. ALLEN: Yeah. There's no date. MS. LUZAICH: Battery with intent, 10 11. Count 38. That's the one that I charged that she 12 wanted to go to the welfare office. He and Tina 13 were in the room having oral sex. He wanted her to 14 give him oral sex. He grabbed her wrist and that's 15 where even Tina's talking about she came in the room demanding, Count 39 and 40 I mean things 16 17 happened multiple times. Technically I could have 18 charged 150 counts and I was trying to be 19 conservative in the counts that I charged. 20 MS. ALLEN: There was no -- so --21 but -- I'm sorry. Okay. I agree with 22 Ms. Luzaich. She's correct. I think it's just 23 Count 38. That's the incident that I think we're 24 all talking is that mom testified in my 25 understanding I remember Lisa asking her didn't she

2 and I think she said yes. I mean I think she said 3 yes, and then on this one Victoria says no, that --4 well, that's not how she testified. She said she wanted to see what's going on and they wanted her 5 6 to and she said no and got herself out of the 7 situation. 8 THE COURT: Okay. So he just --9 that's on page 136. Volume II, 136, line 17, 18. 10 Okay. Subject to trying to figure out what that contradiction between the mom and Victoria meant 11 12 with respect to whether that meant we do believe 13 all or part of either one's testimony based on now 14 an explanation of how the two could be, both could 15 be truthful, did you have any other argument you 16 wanted to make -- you don't have any grounds of any 17 of the count duplications they're all --18 MS. ALLEN: No. I went through. They 19 were all based on specific incidents testified to. 20 Again for purposes of slight or marginal evidence I 21 believe the State's met its burden. 22 With regard to credible evidence, 23 these are people who told doctors, teachers, reporters, clearly there's going to be problems 24 25 with that.

1	THE COURT: But for the purposes of
2	this hearing the only people that are heard from
3	were the children and the mom and based on that
4	standard I do find that there's slight or marginal
5	evidence excepting some, at least some of the
6	testimony and of course I don't have the rest of
7	the picture of other people contradicting it or
8	independent evidence that they weren't there at
9	that time or that type of thing so based on that I
10	do find that there is sufficient evidence.
11	Now, the one I have is annotated but

5	MS. ALLEN: Yes.
6	THE COURT: He can remain silent. He
7	has no obligation to testify, correct?
8	MS. ALLEN: Correct.
9	THE COURT: Sir, you understand that
10	you have a right to testify or not testify at a

12	whether you do or not, correct?
13	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.
14	THE COURT: You're choosing not to

16	THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.
17	THE COURT: So based on review of all
18	of the testimony of the witnesses, the volumes of
19	testimony that we've had transcribed, and arguments
20	of counsel, I do find that there is sufficient
21	evidence to bind the defendant up on the counts as

24	regard to bail.

1	MS. ALLEN: Just very briefly. I
2	understand my client is being bound up on a considerable number of charges and they're all very
4	serious and I don't belittle the idea that most of
5	these are life sentences. I understand all that,
6	but in looking at the bail statute and how the
7	Court should grant bail with the factors that
8	should be considered, the two things I'd like the
9	Court to consider when I ask for the number that
10	I'm going to ask for is the probability that, Your
11	Honor, my client would run or flee jurisdiction and
12	family that he has here.
13	Clearly he's got family here. They've
14	been at every single court appearance. He has nowhere to go. His son is here. This is where he lives. As the Court knows by looking at his Page 17

18	history. He's not going anywhere.
19	The other thing I would ask the Court
20	to do and this is in line with the argument that I
21	made with regard to or what I was talking about in
22	the Complaint in binding this case up, the other
23	factor the Court can look at is the probability of
24	conviction in this case and this is, unlike a lot
25	of cases that I have, but the credibility, I believe the Court can take into consideration the 1 credibility of these witnesses in determining his 2 bail so with that in mind I would ask the Court to 3 set the bail at $75,000. 4 I know that number may not seem 5 enormously large considering the charges in this 6 case but you also heard the testimony of the people 7 in this case and how incredible it really was. If 8 the Court's concerned, I'd ask the Court to impose 9 intensive supervision. He was installing phone

17	MS, LUZAICH: No way the base is going
18	to let him on base with this pending.
19	MS. ALLEN: I know that he installs
20	phone lines. He may not be able to go back to
21	Nellis, but his boss has told him he will work with
22	him and get him back into the work force.
23	THE COURT: Who is his employer?
24	THE DEFENDANT: P-O-I-S-S-O-N

1	THE COURT: What I set the bail at
2	before was $500,000 plus house arrest and stay away
3	from all the named victims. So you're arguing my
4	conditions would still hold. You're arguing for
5	reduction of the $500,000 to $75,000.

6	MS. ALLEN: Correct.
7	THE COURT: And your argument is that
8	the Court should consider the, that the probability
9	of conviction based on credibility of the witnesses
10	who testified that therefore the Court should
1.1	consider a reduction based on that and the fact
12	that Mr. Harris has five misdemeanor convictions
13	and one 1993 felony gross misdemeanor conviction
14	that was aiming a firearm at a human.
1 5	When I previously heard arguments on
16	bail in setting bail it was the misdemeanor
1.7	convictions were possession of dangerous drugs,
18	disorderly conduct, contempt of court. And that
19	the defendant, that the charges were initially
20	considered a year ago and he
21	MS. ALLEN: Exactly. He was accused

7	THE COURT: What was the conclusion of
8	the family court?
9	MS. ALLEN: I think the guardianship

12	children were taken into CPS custody. They were
13	taken away from mom too so
14	THE COURT: Ms. Luzaich.
1 5	MS. LUZAICH: First of all the family
16	court technically has nothing to do with him

16	The Court's prior order still stands.
17	It's a $500,000 bail. If defendant posts the bail,
18	he'll be subject to house arrest. He has an order
19	to stay away from all the named victims and also to
20	stay away from any minor children. Actually I
21	guess that was the prior order. There was an order the witnesses who testified, and that order will continue to stand with this modification.

So the first appearance in district

NOTICE OF MOTION

TO: CLARK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that counsel for the Defendant FREDRICK HARRIS has set this matter for hearing in Department XII on the $\frac{29}{}$ day of $\frac{MAY}{}$, 2014 at the hour of $\frac{8:30A}{}$

POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Factual Background

In the instant case, the Defendant, FREDRICK HARRIS, was convicted of 36 out of 45 counts of various charges, including: Sexual Assault on a Minor under Fourteen, Sexual Assault of a Minor under 16, and Lewdness with a Minor.

Legal Argument

NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

- 1. The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.
- 2. If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court may vacate the judgment if entered, take additional testimony on direct the entry of a new judgment.
- 3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 176.0918, a motion for new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made only within 2 years after the verdict or finding of guilt.
- 4. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds must be made within 7 days after the verdict or finding of guilt or within such further time as the Court may fix during the 7-day period.1

A. The Court allowed portions of the statement of co-defendant Lealer Ann Cooks without a finding of reliability

NRS 51.035 states, in pertinent part, that hearsay is not admissible unless it falls within an exception. One of these exceptions is a statement against interest. A statement against interest, in order to be admissible, must, at the time it is made:

- (a) Was so far contrary to the pecuniary or proprietary interests of the declarant:
- (b) So far tended to subject the declarant to civil or criminal liability;

¹ Chief Deputy District Attorney Lisa Luzaich graciously granted the Defense until April 28, 2014 to file the aforementioned Motion.

- (c) So far tended to render invalid a claim by the declarant against another; or
- (d) So far tended to make the declarant an object of hatred, ridicule or social disapproval, that a reasonable person in the position of the declarant would not have made the statement unless the declarant believed it to be true. NRS 51.345(1)

During the course of Harris' trial, the State opted to elicit particular statements from Detective Madsen, made by co-defendant Lealer Cooks.² These statements were clearly hearsay, as the State asserted that they were a statement against penal interest(an exception to the hearsay rule).

However, contrary to defense's objections, the Court opted to allow these statements to be elicited. There was no subsequent finding by this Court with regard to whether the statement elicited was trustworthy under Walker v. State, 116 Nev. 670, 76(2000).

In the instant case, the statement was made to law enforcement after a lengthy discussion, all of which was recorded. Ms. Cooks stated repeatedly throughout the statement that she did not believe the Duke girls and their claims. Further, part of the statute requires that the report of the abuse have some indicia of reliability and the person must have some belief that the abuse is true.³

Lealer was very clear in her statement that she did not believe the victims in this case. To simply characterize that one particular portion as a "statement against interest"

² Lealer Ann Cooks was charged in case number C290726. She is a co-defendant as she is charged with a failure to report the abuse(Child Abuse & Neglect) arising out of the same allegations levied against Mr. Harris.

³ The Defense was not permitted to bring in information that Cooks was concerned about the Tahara Duke being sexually active with some boy at her school, thus the reason for taking her to the doctor.

was patently incorrect. It was primarily taken out of context, in light of the entire statement, and it was never subjected to a finding of reliability.

For this reason, Harris should received a new trial.

B. Harris should receive a new trial because his statement was altered incorrectly and the jury was precluded from hearing material facts.

During the course of the trial, the State opted to play Harris' statement to the jury.

However, there were parts of the statement that were which should have been played and were material to the defense.

During the course of Harris' statement to Henderson PD, he told the Detective that Victoria had disclosed to him that she had had sex while she lived in Utah.⁴ The State opted to take this portion out, claiming it was subject to rape shield.

NRS 50.090 provides, in pertinent part:

In any prosecution for sexual assault....., the accused may not present evidence of any previous sexual conduct of the victim of the crime to challenge the victim's credibility as a witness unless the prosecutor has presented evidence or the victim has testified concerning such conduct, or the absence of such conduct, in which case the scope of the accused's cross-examination of the victim or rebuttal must be limited to the evidence presented by the prosecutor or the victim.

In the instant case, Victoria Duke was VERY clear that she was subjected to a sexual assault almost immediately upon her return from Utah. And furthermore, this sexual assault was her first time having sex.

In Summit v. State, 101 Nev. 159, 697 P.2d 1374(1985), the Nevada Supreme Court addressed this issue. In Summit, like here, the defense sought to introduce evidence that the victim had prior sexual experience, which would account for her knowledge of sex. The ⁴ Victoria claimed that upon her return from Utah, Harris had taken her virginity.

District Court denied the request. In analyzing the facts and NRS 50.090, the Court decidedly agreed with the analysis of the Supreme Court of Washington, which held that the trial court must undertake to balance the probative value of the evidence against its prejudicial effect and that the inquiry should particularly focus upon "potential prejudice to the truthfinding process itself," i.e., "whether the introduction of the victim's past sexual conduct may confuse the issues, mislead the jury, or cause the jury to decide the case on an improper or emotional basis." Summit at 1377, citing State v. Hudlow, 99 Wash.2d 1, 59 P.2d 514(1983)

In the instant case, there was no balancing at all. The Court simply precluded this portion of the defendant's statement. Her claims of Harris taking her virginity were clearly rebuttable through his own statement to police. The purpose of bringing in the statements was not to attack her credibility but simply to show prior sexual knowledge, which would account for her rendition of the acts itself.

The state further argued that it was self serving. However, if the court were to accept this reasoning, then every statement a defendant makes would be subject to the State's "eraser" with regard to anything they feel is "self serving." The defendant's statement was put into evidence by the State. Portions were redacted regarding a polygraph(which are inadmissible in this state). However, his statement to the police regarding what Victoria had previously told him was certainly relevant. It did not violate rape shield and should not have been subject to the state's "eraser" for reasons which do not comport with his right to confront witnesses pursuant to the 6th Amendment.

C. Victoria Duke made material misrepresentations of what she was doing in California.

During Victoria Duke's testimony, she testified that she was living in California and going to school. However, after Harris' conviction, counsel for the defense became aware of the fact that Ms. Duke was arrested on two occasions for prostitution. Counsel for Harris confirmed this with the two court entities that are listed on the register of actions.

Certainly, information about Victoria Duke being a prostitute was exceptionally important in this case. She alleged multiple instances of sexual abuse and then lied about what she was doing in California. Certainly her criminal record would have been relevant to this case.

Conclusion

Wherefore, The accused, FREDRICK HARRIS, respectfully requests this Honorable Court to grant his Motion for a new trial. Alternatively, he requests the Court to hold a hearing concerning the matters set forth herein.

Factual Background

In the instant case, the Defendant, FREDRICK HARRIS, was convicted of 36 out of 45 counts of various charges, including: Sexual Assault on a Minor under Fourteen, Sexual Assault of a Minor under 16, and Lewdness with a Minor.

I. REPLY TO STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

12.

- 1. The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.
- 2. If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court may vacate the judgment if entered, take additional testimony on direct the entry of a new judgment.

- 4. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds must be made within 7 days after the verdict or finding of guilt or within such further time as the Court may fix during the 7-day period.¹

A. The Court allowed portions of the statement of co-defendant Lealer Ann Cooks without a finding of reliability

During the trial, the State elicited statements from Lealer Cooks, ultimately choosing to admit them through a detective, not through Ms.Cooks.

Part of the State's argument that there is an indicia of reliability is that Lealer pled guilty to a count of Child Abuse and Neglect, pursuant to the Alford decision. The State glosses over the idea and thought process behind the Alford decision. This United State Supreme Court decision allows a defendant to plead guilty without admitting guilt, in order to avoid a harsher penalty.² This is not an admission of guilt, merely a way to avoid going to trial. In fact, as this Court is well aware, during a plea canvas, the Defendant is NOT asked to allocute but rather to agree that the State COULD prove the charges against him/her.

Therefore, Cooks "indicia" of reliability relied on by the State simply does not exist.

B. Harris should receive a new trial because his statement was altered incorrectly and the jury was precluded from hearing material facts.

During the course of the trial, the State opted to play Harris' statement to the jury.

However, there were parts of the statement that were which should have been played and were material to the defense.

Victoria made clear claims that Fred was the first person she had ever had sexual intercourse with. The State claims his statements that she had sex was somehow self-serving, without really explaining how it helped him somehow.

While making this statement, Fred was not under arrest, was in his own home and had just admitted to having sex with her. There was nothing self-serving about saying she had had sex previous to him.

The State claims that Defendant is trying to somehow circumvent rape shield, NRS 50.090. This could not be farther from the truth. Rape shield was meant to protect victims from a Defendant attacking based upon promiscuous conduct. However, when the alleged victim claims that she never had sexual intercourse before, the Defendant is permitted to rebuke that for very obvious reasons. Being able to relay specific actions related to sex requires some indicia of knowledge.

²² See North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970)

Summit v. State, 101 Nev. 159, 697 P.2d 1374(1985) addressed this issue. In Summit the defense sought to introduce evidence that the victim had prior sexual experience, which would account for her knowledge of sex. The District Court denied the request. In analyzing the facts and NRS 50.090, the Court decidedly agreed with the analysis of the Supreme Court of Washington, which held that the trial court must undertake to balance the probative value of the evidence against its prejudicial effect and that the inquiry should particularly focus upon "potential prejudice to the truthfinding process itself," i.e., "whether the introduction of the victim's past sexual conduct may confuse the issues, mislead the jury, or cause the jury to decide the case on an improper or emotional basis." Summit at 1377, citing State v. Hudlow, 99 Wash.2d 1, 59 P.2d 514(1983)

This Court did no such balancing. This was not an open and shut case, with confessions and undeniable evidence. There were hugely conflicting statements, a TON of prior inconsistent statements and witnesses presented by the Defense which CLEARLY contradicted the victims. The Court simply precluded this portion of the defendant's statement. Her claims of Harris taking her virginity were clearly rebuttable through his own statement to police. The purpose of bringing in the statements was not to attack her credibility but simply to show prior sexual knowledge, which would account for her rendition of the acts itself.

C. Victoria Duke made material misrepresentations of what she was doing in California.

The Defense became aware that Victoria was arrested shortly before the trial, two times, for soliciting prostitution. While she may have testified that she was in school and living with her "godmother" there was no coorboration for this information.

In the State's Response, they supplement the record by stating their investigator obtained information that she was in school and living with someone. However, this was not testified to during the trial and should not be considered by this Court.

In interviews with juror #8, Kathleen Smith, she indicated that information regarding arrests for prostitution would have made a difference in the verdict. (see attached affidavit, Exhibit A) Victoria Duke materially misrepresented her activities in California. Her mother testified that she was a prostitute during this trial and it was clear from Victoria's testimony that she was disgusted by this behavior. To find out that she was DOING THE SAMETHING, and NOT because Fred was supposedly forcing to her do so, is a material issue that should have been presented to the jury.

II. SUPPLEMENT TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL. NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

 The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

In the instant matter, it has been discovered that there was an extreme instance of juror misconduct. In an interview with Juror #8, Kathleen Smith, it was discovered that during deliberations, Juror #7, Yvonne Lewis, was not truthful during voir dire.

This was a forty-six(46) count sexual abuse/assault case. And jurors were asked if they were ever the victims of physical or sexual abuse during questioning during voir dire. Juror #7 did NOT disclose sexual abuse, only disclosing during deliberations, while crying, and calling for the conviction of the defendant. (see attached exhibit A).

This is on point with the facts in Canada v. State, 944 P.2d 781, 113 Nev. 938(1997). In Canada, the jury in this murder trial was tainted by a juror who failed to disclose during voir dire that his own father was murdered. Other jurors stated that he would have voted to convict no matter what and kept referring to his own father's murder.

Fred Harris' case was a contentious sexual abuse case. The jurors were picked over meticulously and asked about abuse of all kinds. This particular juror talked about physical abuse from her mother, but failed to disclose sexual abuse of ANY KIND.

However, during jury deliberation, she broke down crying and referred to sexual abuse and knowing how it felt to be sexually abused. She also was pushing for Harris' conviction and need to be punished. (See attached affidavit of Harrison Mayo Jr., and notes from Kathleen Smith, including changes she asked for in original affidavit, attached as Exhibit A, B and C).

In Lopez v. State, 105 Nev. 68, 769 P.2d 1276(1989) the Supreme Court held that where a juror failed to reveal potentially prejudicial information during voir dire, the relevant inquiry is whether the juror is guilty of intentional concealment. Id at 89, 1290. Lopez states that is the trial court's discretion to determine this information.³ "A new trial must be granted unless it appears, beyond a reasonable doubt, that no prejudice has resulted." Lane v. State, 110 Nev. 1156, 1164, 881 P.2d 1358, 1364 (1994). This Court must consider "whether the issue of guilt is close, the quantity and character of the error, and the gravity of the crime charged." Rowbottom v. State, 105 Nev. 472, 486, 779 P.2d 934, 943(1989)

In the instant case, Harris was charged with 46 felony counts, most of which were life sentence counts. There were days of jury deliberation, indicating people who were holding out on guilt and finally, a juror who, after lying about sexual abuse, was calling for ³ This court must remember the painstaking process both sides undertook to delve into this information. There was even a juror who reveal sexual abuse for the very first time EVER at the bench. Counsel has done numerous sexual abuse/trials and ALWAYS looks for people who previously have been victims for this exact reason.

- 1. That I was appointed to work with Betsy Allen, Esq., on the case of Fredrick Harris, C291374-1 and the information contained herein is the truth to the best of my knowledge.
- 2. That I was asked by the attorney, Betsy Allen, to talk to a particular juror with regard to deliberations.
- 3. That I was asked to talk to this juror due to the fact that Dorothy Harris, Fredrick Harris' mother, was approached at Wal-Mart by this particular juror and discussed the case with her. Further, she apologized for the convictions.
- 4. That I came to find out that the this juror was named Kathleen Smith and she works in the Regional Justice Center at the Information booth on the first floor.
- 5. That Ms. Allen and I interviewed this juror, Ms. Smith, and she disclosed that during deliberations, another juror started talking about being sexually abused as a child. She described this juror as being juror number seven(7), Yvonne Lewis. Ms. Smith further said that Ms. Lewis became emotional during deliberations and began crying while she talked about her own experiences of sexual abuse.

- 1. That I was a sworn juror in the State of Nevada v. Fredrick Harris and the information contained herein is the truth to the best of my knowledge.
- 2. That I participated in deliberations which resulted in the conviction of Harris on multiple counts of sexual assault.
- 3. That I was pressured into voting to convict Fredrick Harris by other jurors. I, along with another juror, held out for two days.
 - 4. That I finally gave up because I did not want to be in deliberations forever.
- 5. That during deliberation, one juror became emotional and began crying. She then talked about her own experience with sexual abuse. This was juror #7, Yvonne Lewis. I recall she put strong emphasis on being sexually abused and physically abused as a child. She sympathized with the victims wholeheartedly and began crying when she spoke of this. I do not believe she separated her personal experience from this case. She was unable to make sound judgments on this case based upon the things she said about her own sexual abuse.
