ALFRED P. CENTOFANTI, III, Appellant, vs. THE STATE OF NEVADA, Respondent.	No. 78193
	Motion for Leave to Allow Appellant to File a Reply to Respondent's Answer (Reply included with this Motion)

COMES NOW, Appellant Alfred P. Centofanti, III, in PRO PER ("Centofanti") and hereby seeks leave of this honorable court to file a Reply to the answer of the Respondent which was filed and served, by mail, on or about February 3, 2021 and received by Centofanti on February 9, 2021.

This Motion is made and based upon the NRAP and the inherent powers of this Court. Centofanti believes a Reply would assist the Court in reaching a decision on the merits. Additionally, Centofanti asserts that Respondent's have misapprehended and overlooked material facts, applicable law, such that a Reply is warranted.

By seeking leave, Centofanti also seeks additional time than is usually allowed for a Reply due to the delays inherent in service and filing by way of mail and further delay in HDSP's legal mail processing.

Centofanti further asserts this request is made in good faith and not for any improper purpose or to delay the proceedings.

Re: Centofanti v. State No. 79193

Dear Clerk:

Enclosed please find a Motion for Leave to File a Reply and Reply (6 page) in the above entitled matter. A certificate of service for both (6 pages) is attached to the Reply and requests Respondent's counsel be served electronically as has been allowed in the past. I have no ability to make copies.

Can I please be provided with a file stamped copy of the Reply and Motion? I am sending the originals of both and cannot make copies to send.

Thank you.
