HUMBOLDT COUNTY, NEVADA
JANIS SPERO
CLERK

IN THE MATTER OF
The Sixth Judicial District
Court's Response to Coronavirus
Disease (COVID-19)

On March 12, 2020, Governor Steve Sisolak declared a state of emergency in Nevada in response to the recent outbreak of the Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19). Given the severity of the risk posed to the public by COVID-19, and after consultation with the Nevada Supreme Court Chief Justice Kristina Pickering, the District Court has determined that alterations to court procedure are necessary for the protection of the community.

During this time, the District Court will continue to accept filings and continue to operate managing cases within the parameters set forth in this order.

Effective March 16, 2020, all currently scheduled non-essential District Court hearings are ordered to be conducted by video or telephonic means; decided on the papers; or rescheduled unless otherwise directed by a District Court Judge.

At this time, essential case types and hearings will continue to be heard through in-person appearances, although appearance by alternative means under Nevada Supreme Court Rule Part IX is encouraged when possible. Essential case types and hearings include the following:

1. In-custody criminal sentencings, bail motions, and probation revocation hearings until arrangements can be made to hear these matters by alternative means;

- 7           6. Juvenile delinquency matters;
- 8           7. Abuse and neglect preliminary protective hearings;

- 11          hearings.

21 period of any continuance entered as a result of this order shall be excluded under for purposes
22 of calculating speedy trial under NRS 178.556(1) and NRS 174.511 as the Court finds the 23 that ends of justice served by taking that action outweigh the interests of the parties and the 24 public in a speedy trial. Absent further order of the Court or any individual judge, the period
25 of exclusion shall be from March 16, 2020 through April 17, 2020. The Court may extend the 26 period of exclusion as circumstances warrant.
