22 situation where she might have suffered unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a
23 result of abuse or neglect, by repeatedly beating the said VICTORIA DUKE with a belt.

24 COUNT 19 - FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING

25 did, on or between December, 2004 and May, 2005, willfully, unlawfully,
26 feloniously, and without authority of law, seize, confine, inveigle, entice, decoy, abduct,
27 conceal, kidnap, or carry away VICTORIA DUKE, a human being, with the intent to hold or 28 detain the said VICTORIA DUKE against her will, and without her consent, for the purpose

1 of committing sexual assault and/or lead, take, entice, or carry away or detain VICTORIA
2 DUKE, a minor, with the intent to keep, imprison, or confine said minor from her parent,
3 guardian, or any other person having lawful custody of the said minor and/or perpetrate upon
4 the person of said minor any unlawful act, to wit: sexual assault.

5 COUNT 20 - LEWDNESS WITH A CHILD UNDER THE AGE OF 14

6 did on or between December, 2004 and May, 2005 then and there willfully, lewdly,
7 unlawfully, and feloniously commit a lewd or lascivious act upon or with the body, or any
8 part or member thereof, a child, to-wit: VICTORIA DUKE, said child being under the age
9 of fourteen years, by Defendant putting the hand of the said VICTORIA DUKE on his 10 genital area, with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust, passions, or 11 sexual desires of said Defendant, or said child.

13 AGE

14 did on or between December, 2004 and May, 2005 then and there willfully,
15 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female child
16 under fourteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: digital penetration, by inserting

DISTRICT COURT
CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA

THE STATE OF NEVADA,

Plaintiff,

-VS-

FREDERICK HAROLD HARRIS JR.,

Defendant.

CASE NO: C-13-291374-1

DEPT NO: XII

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE JURY (INSTRUCTION NO. I)

MEMBERS OF THE JURY:

It is now my duty as judge to instruct you in the law that applies to this case. It is your duty as jurors to follow these instructions and to apply the rules of law to the facts as you find them from the evidence.

You must not be concerned with the wisdom of any rule of law stated in these instructions. Regardless of any opinion you may have as to what the law ought to be, it would be a violation of your oath to base a verdict upon any other view of the law than that given in the instructions of the Court.

If, in these instructions, any rule, direction or idea is repeated or stated in different ways, no emphasis thereon is intended by me and none may be inferred by you. For that reason, you are not to single out any certain sentence or any individual point or instruction and ignore the others, but you are to consider all the instructions as a whole and regard each in the light of all the others.

The order in which the instructions are given has no significance as to their relative importance.

An amended information is but a formal method of accusing a person of a crime and is not of itself any evidence of his guilt.

In this case, it is charged in an amended information that on or between December, 2004 and September 26, 2012, within the County of Clark, State of Nevada, contrary to the form, force and effect of statutes in such cases made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Nevada, said Defendant did, on or between August, 2007 and September 26, 2012 willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously cause a child under the age of 18 years, to-wit: TAHARAH DUKE, being approximately 8 to 12 years of age, to suffer unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect, and/or cause the said TAHARAH DUKE to be placed in a situation where she might have suffered unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect, by repeatedly beating the said TAHARAH DUKE with a belt.

COUNT 1 - CHILD ABUSE, NEGLECT, OR ENDANGERMENT

COUNT 2 - SEXUAL ASSAULT WITH A MINOR UNDER FOURTEEN YEARS OF

did on or between October 1, 2010 and September 26, 2012 then and there willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject TAHARAH DUKE, a female child under fourteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: digital penetration, by inserting his finger(s) into the genital opening of the said TAHARAH DUKE, against her will, or under conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said TAHARAH DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of Defendant's conduct.

COUNT 3 - SEXUAL ASSAULT WITH A MINOR UNDER FOURTEEN YEARS OF

did on or between October 1, 2010 and September 26, 2012 then and there willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject TAHARAH DUKE, a female child under fourteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing his

16 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female child
17 under fourteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing his 18 penis into the genital opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against her will, or under 19 conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said VICTORIA
20 DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of 21 Defendant's conduct.

22 COUNT 23 - COERCION (SEXUALLY MOTIVATED)

23 did on or between December, 2004 and May, 2005 then and there, willfully,
24 unlawfully and feloniously use physical force, or the immediate threat of such force, against 25 VICTORIA DUKE, with intent to compel her to do, or abstain from doing, an act which she
26 had a right to do, or abstain from doing, by Defendant grabbing the arm of the said
27 VICTORIA DUKE and telling her not to tell anyone or he would beat her, one of the 28 purposes for which the Defendant committed the offense was Defendant's sexual

1 gratification.

2 COUNT 24 - ADMINISTRATION OF A DRUG TO AID IN THE COMMISSION OF A
3 CRIME

4 did on or between August 1, 2007 and August 31, 2007 then and there willfully,

16 Defendant's conduct.

17 COUNT 33 - SEXUAL ASSAULT WITH A MINOR UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE

18 did on or between September 1, 2007 and July 30, 2008 then and there willfully,
19 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female child
20 under sixteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing a
21 dildo and/or vibrator into the genital opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against her
22 will, or under conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said
23 VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the 24 nature of Defendant's conduct.

25 COUNT 34 - SEXUAL ASSAULT WITH A MINOR UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE

26 did on or between September 1, 2007 and July 30, 2008 then and there willfully,
27 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female child
28 under sixteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by causing

1 TINA DUKE to place a dildo into the genital opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against
2 her will, or under conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said
3 VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature
4 of Defendant's conduct.

5 COUNT 35 - SEXUAL ASSAULT WITH A MINOR UNDER SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE

6 did on or between September 1, 2007 and July 30, 2008 then and there willfully,
7 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female child
8 under sixteen years of age, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by causing TINA
9 DUKE to place a dildo into the genital opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against her will,
10 or under conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said VICTORIA
11 DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of the 12 defendants conduct.

13 COUNT 36 - SEXUAL ASSAULT

14 did in May, 2009 then and there willfully, unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault
15 and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female person, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual 16 intercourse, by placing his penis into the genital opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against
17 her will, or under conditions in which Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said
18 VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature
19 of Defendant's conduct.

20 COUNT 37 - FIRST DEGREE KIDNAPPING

21 did, on or between August 2010 and August 2011 willfully, unlawfully, feloniously, and 22 without authority of law, seize, confine, inveigle, entice, decoy, abduct, conceal, kidnap, or carry
23 away VICTORIA DUKE, a human being, with the intent to hold or detain the said VICTORIA
24 DUKE against her will, and without her consent, for the purpose of committing sexual assault.

25 COUNT 38 - BATTERY WITH INTENT TO COMMIT SEXUAL ASSAULT

26 did, on or between August 2010 and August 2011, willfully, unlawfully and 27 feloniously use force or violence upon the person of another, to-wit: VICTORIA DUKE,
28 with the intent to commit sexual assault, by grabbing the wrist of the said VICTORIA

1 DUKE and holding it tight while attempting to cause her to perform fellatio on him.

2 COUNT 39 - SEXUAL ASSAULT

3 did on or between August 2010 and August 2011 then and there willfully,
4 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female
5 person, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing his penis into the genital

7 Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or
8 physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of Defendant's conduct.

9 COUNT 40 - SEXUAL ASSAULT

10 did on or between August 2010 and August 2011 then and there willfully,
11 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female
12 person, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing his penis into the genital
13 opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against her will, or under conditions in which
14 Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or 15 physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of Defendant's conduct.

16 COUNT 41 - SEXUAL ASSAULT

17 did on or between August 2011 and December 2011 then and there willfully,
18 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject VICTORIA DUKE, a female
19 person, to sexual penetration, to-wit: sexual intercourse, by placing his penis into the genital
20 opening of the said VICTORIA DUKE, against her will, or under conditions in which
21 Defendant knew, or should have known, that the said VICTORIA DUKE was mentally or
22 physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of Defendant's conduct.

23 COUNT 42 - PANDERING

24 did on or between August, 2007 and December 17, 2011 then and there willfully,
25 unlawfully, and feloniously induce, persuade, encourage, inveigle, entice, or compel TINA
26 DUKE to become a prostitute, and/or to engage or continue to engage in prostitution,
27 Defendant using physical force or the threat of physical force.

28 COUNT 43 - SEXUAL ASSAULT

1 did on or between August 2007 and August 2008 then and there willfully,
2 unlawfully, and feloniously sexually assault and subject TINA DUKE, a female person, to
3 sexual penetration, to-wit: anal intercourse, by placing his penis into the anal opening of the 4 said TINA DUKE, against her will.

5 COUNT 44 - LIVING FROM THE EARNINGS OF A PROSTITUTE

6 did on or between August, 2007 and December 17, 2011 then and there willfully,
7 unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly accept, receive, levy, or appropriate money, without 8 consideration, from TINA DUKE, the proceeds of prostitution activity.

9 COUNT 45 - BATTERY BY STRANGULATION

10 did on or between August, 2007 and December, 2011 then and there willfully,
11 unlawfully, and feloniously use force or violence upon the person of another, to-wit: TINA
12 DUKE, by strangulation.

13 It is the duty of the jury to apply the rules of law contained in these instructions to the 14 facts of the case and determine whether or not the Defendant is guilty of one or more of the 15 offenses charged.

16 Each charge and the evidence pertaining to it should be considered separately. The 17 fact you may find a defendant guilty or not guilty as to one of the offenses charged should 18 not control your verdict as to any other offense charged.

INSTRUCTION NO. 4

A person who willfully, unlawfully and feloniously causes a child under the age of 18 years to suffer unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect or to be placed in a situation where the child may suffer physical pain or mental suffering as a result of abuse or neglect is guilty of child abuse.

As used in these instructions:

“Abuse or neglect” means physical or mental injury of a nonaccidental nature of a child under the age of 18 years.

“Physical injury” means:

(1) Permanent or temporary disfigurement; or

(2) Impairment of any bodily function or organ of the body.

A person who subjects another person to sexual penetration, against the victim's will, or under conditions in which the perpetrator knows or should know that the victim is mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of his/her conduct, is guilty of sexual assault.

A person who subjects a minor under fourteen years to sexual penetration, against the minor's will, or under conditions in which the perpetrator knows or should know that the minor is mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature or his/her conduct, is guilty of sexual assault with a minor under fourteen years of age.

A person who subjects a minor under sixteen years to sexual penetration, against the minor's will, or under conditions in which the perpetrator knows or should know that the minor is mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of his/her conduct, is guilty of sexual assault with a minor under sixteen year of age.

"Sexual penetration" means cunnilingus, fellatio, or any intrusion, however slight, of any part of a person's body or any object manipulated or inserted by a person into the genital or anal openings of the body of another, including sexual intercourse in its ordinary meaning. Evidence of ejaculation is not necessary.

Digital penetration is the placing of one or more fingers of the perpetrator into the genital or anal opening of another person.

Cunnilingus is a touching of the female sexual organ by the mouth or tongue of another person.

Fellatio is a touching of the penis by the mouth or tongue of another person.

Sexual intercourse is the intrusion, however slight, of the penis into the genital opening of another person.

Anal intercourse is the intrusion, however slight, of the penis into the anal opening of another person.

INSTRUCTION NO. 7

Physical force is not necessary in the commission of sexual assault. The crucial question is not whether a person was physically forced to engage in a sexual assault but whether the act was committed without his/her consent or under conditions in which the defendant knew or should have known, the person was incapable of giving his/her consent or understanding the nature of the act. There is no consent where a person is induced to submit to the sexual act through fear of death or serious bodily injury.

INSTRUCTION NO. 8

A person is not required to do more than his/her age, strength, surrounding facts and attending circumstances make it reasonable for him/her to do to manifest opposition to a sexual assault.

INSTRUCTION NO. 9

Submission is not the equivalent of consent. While consent inevitably involves submission, submission does not inevitably involve consent. Lack of protest by a victim is simply one among the totality of circumstances to be considered by the jury.

INSTRUCTION NO. 10

If you find the state failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant subjected another person to sexual penetration, against the victim's will or under conditions in which the perpetrator knew or should have known the victim is mentally or physically incapable of resisting or understanding the nature of his conduct, then the defendant is entitled to a verdict of not guilty of sexual assault.

INSTRUCTION NO. 11

There is no requirement that the testimony of a victim of sexual assault be corroborated, and his/her testimony standing alone, if believed beyond a reasonable doubt, is sufficient to sustain a verdict of guilty.

INSTRUCTION NO. 12

Any person who willfully commits any lewd or lascivious act, other than acts constituting the crime of sexual assault, upon or with any part of the body of a child under the age of 14 years, with the intent of arousing, appealing to, or gratifying the lust or passions or sexual desires of that person or of that child, is guilty of lewdness with a minor.

INSTRUCTION NO. 13

The law does not require that the lust, passions or sexual desires of either of such persons actually be aroused, appealed to, or gratified.

INSTRUCTION NO. 14

To constitute a lewd or lascivious act it is not necessary that the bare skin be touched.
The touching may be through the clothing of the child.

INSTRUCTION NO. 15

Lewdness with a child under the age of 14 years requires an act upon or with the body of a child under the age of 14 years, but does not require physical contact between the perpetrator and the victim.

INSTRUCTION NO. 16

Where a child has been the victim of sexual assault with a minor under the age of 14 and/or lewdness with a minor under the age of 14, and does not remember the exact date of the act, the State is not required to prove a specific date, but may prove a time frame within which the act took place.

Where multiple sexual acts occur as part of a single criminal encounter a defendant may be found guilty for each separate or different act of sexual assault/lewdness.

Where a defendant commits a specific type of act constituting sexual assault/lewdness he/she may be found guilty of more than one count of that specific type of act of sexual assault/lewdness if:

1. There is an interruption between the acts which are of the same specific type;
2. Where the acts of the same specific type are interrupted by a different specific type of sexual assault/lewdness; or
3. For each separate object manipulated or inserted into the genital or anal opening of another.

Only one sexual assault/lewdness occurs when a defendant's actions were of one specific type of sexual assault/lewdness and those acts were continuous and did not stop between the acts of that specific type.

Every person who willfully seizes, confines, inveigles, entices, decoys, abducts, conceals, kidnaps or carries away any person by any means whatsoever with the intent to hold or detain, or who holds or detains, the person:

1. For ransom, or reward; or
2. For the purpose of committing sexual assault, extortion or robbery upon or from the person; or
3. For the purpose of killing the person or inflicting substantial bodily harm upon him; or
4. For exact from relatives, friends, or any other person any money or valuable thing for the return or disposition of the kidnapped person; or
5. A person who leads, takes, entices, or carries away or detains any minor with the intent to keep, imprison, or confine him from his parents, guardians, or any other person having lawful custody of the minor, or with the intent to hold the minor to unlawful service, or perpetrate upon the person of the minor any unlawful act, is guilty of Kidnapping in the First Degree.

The law does not require the person being kidnapped to be carried away for any minimal distance.

The term "inveigle" means to lead astray by trickery or deceitful persuasion.

INSTRUC

If you find the state failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the seized, confined, inveigled, enticed, decoyed, abducted, concealed, kidnapped, or carried away any person by any means whatsoever with the intent to hold or detain, or who holds or detains, any person:

1. For ransom, or reward; or
2. For the purpose of committing sexual assault, extortion or robbery upon or from the person; or
3. For the purpose of killing the person or inflicting substantial bodily harm upon him or her; or
4. To exact from relatives, friends, or any other person any money; or valuable thing for the return or disposition of the kidnapped person; or
5. A person who leads, takes, entices, or carries away or detains any minor with the intent to keep, imprison, or confine him from his parents, guardians, or any other person having lawful custody of the minor, or with the intent to hold the minor to unlawful service, or perpetrate upon the person of the minor any unlawful act.

Then the defendant is entitled to a verdict of not guilty of First Degree Kidnapping.

In order for you to find the Defendant guilty of both First Degree Kidnapping and an associated offense of sexual assault, you must also find beyond a reasonable doubt either:

1. That the movement of the victim was not incidental to the sexual assault; or
 2. That the incidental movement of the victim substantially increased the risk of harm to the victim over and above that necessarily present in the sexual assault, or
 3. That any incidental movement of the victim substantially exceeded that required to complete the sexual assault; or
 4. That the victim was physically restrained and such restraint substantially increased the risk of harm to the victim; or
 5. The movement or restraint had an independent purpose or significance.
- "Physically restrained" includes but is not limited to tying, binding, or taping.

INSTRUCTION 21

Any person who, with the intent to compel another to do or abstain from doing an act which the other person has a right to do or abstain from doing, to:

(A) Use violence or inflict injury upon the person or any of his family, or upon his property, or threaten such violence or injury;

(B) Deprive the person of any tool, implement or clothing, or hinder him in the use thereof; or

(C) Attempt to intimidate the person by threats or force, is guilty of Coercion.

INSTRUCTION NO. 22

If you find the state failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt the defendant used violence upon another person or threatened violence or injury to another person with the specific intent to compel another to do or abstain from doing an act which such other person has a right to do or abstain from doing, then the defendant is entitled to a verdict of not guilty of Coercion.

INSTRUCTION NO. 23

Any person who administers to any other person any chloroform, ether, laudanum, or any controlled substance, anesthetic, or intoxicating or emetic agent, with the intent thereby to enable or assist himself to commit a felony, is guilty of Administration of a Drug to Aid in the Commission of a Felony.

INSTRUCTION NO. 24

Battery is defined as the willful and unlawful use of force or violence upon the person of another.

INSTRUCTION NO. 25

Any person who commits a battery upon another with the specific intent to commit a Sexual Assault is guilty of the offense of Battery with Intent to Commit Sexual Assault.

A person who, with physical force or the immediate threat of physical force, induces an adult to unlawfully become a prostitute or to continue to engage in prostitution, or to enter any place within this state in which prostitution is practiced, encouraged or allowed for the purpose of sexual conduct or prostitution is guilty of Pandering.

“Adult” means a person 18 years of age or older.

“Induce” means to persuade, encourage, inveigle or entice.

“Prostitute” means a male or female person who for a fee, monetary consideration or other thing of value engages in sexual intercourse, oral-genital contact or any touching of the sexual organs or other intimate parts of a person for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either person.

“Prostitution” means engaging in sexual conduct with another person in return for a fee, monetary consideration or other thing of value.

“Sexual conduct” includes sexual intercourse, oral-genital contact or any touching of the sexual organs or other intimate parts of a person for the purpose of arousing or gratifying the sexual desire of either person.

INSTRUCTION NO. 27

The consent of a victim of Pandering to an act of prostitution is not a defense to the crime of Pandering.

INSTRUCTION NO. 29

A person who knowingly accepts, receives, levies or appropriates any money or other valuable thing, without consideration, from the proceeds of any prostitute, is guilty of Living from the Earnings of a Prostitute.

INSTRUCTION NO. 29

“Strangulation” means intentionally impeding the normal breathing or circulation of the blood by applying pressure on the throat or neck or by blocking the nose or mouth of another person in a manner that creates a risk of death or substantial bodily harm.

INSTRUCTION NO. 30

It is a defense to the charge of sexual assault that the Defendant entertained a reasonable and good faith belief that the alleged victim consented to engage in sexual intercourse. If you find such reasonable, good faith belief, even if mistaken, you must give the Defendant the benefit of the doubt and find him not guilty of sexual assault.

A belief that is based upon ambiguous conduct by the alleged victim that is the product of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person of another is not a reasonable and good faith belief.

To constitute the crimes charged, there must exist a union or joint operation of an act forbidden by law and an intent to do the act.

The intent with which an act is done is shown by the facts and circumstances surrounding the case.

Do not confuse intent with motive. Motive is what prompts a person to act. Intent refers only to the state of mind with which the act is done.

Motive is not an element of the crime charged and the State is not required to prove a motive on the part of the Defendant in order to convict. However, you may consider evidence of motive or lack of motive as a circumstance in the case.

2 The Defendant is presumed innocent until the contrary is proved. This presumption
3 places upon the State the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt every material
4 element of the crime charged and that the Defendant is the person who committed the 5 offense.

6 A reasonable doubt is one based on reason. It is not mere possible doubt but is such a
7 doubt as would govern or control a person in the more weighty affairs of life. If the minds of 8 the jurors, after the entire comparison and consideration of all the evidence, are in such a 9 condition that they can say they feel an abiding conviction of the truth of the charge, there is 10 not a reasonable doubt. Doubt to be reasonable must be actual, not mere possibility or 11 speculation.

12 If you have a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the Defendant, he is entitled to a 13 verdict of not guilty.

INSTRUCTION NO. 33

It is a constitutional right of a defendant in a criminal trial that he may not be compelled to testify. Thus, the decision as to whether he should testify is left to the defendant on the advice and counsel of his attorney. You must not draw any inference of guilt from the fact that he does not testify, nor should this fact be discussed by you or enter into your deliberations in any way.

The evidence which you are to consider in this case consists of the testimony of the witnesses, the exhibits, and any facts admitted or agreed to by counsel.

There are two types of evidence; direct and circumstantial. Direct evidence is the testimony of a person who claims to have personal knowledge of the commission of the crime which has been charged, such as an eyewitness. Circumstantial evidence is the proof of a chain of facts and circumstances which tend to show whether the Defendant is guilty or not guilty. The law makes no distinction between the weight to be given either direct or circumstantial evidence. Therefore, all of the evidence in the case, including the circumstantial evidence, should be considered by you in arriving at your verdict.

Statements, arguments and opinions of counsel are not evidence in the case. However, if the attorneys stipulate to the existence of a fact, you must accept the stipulation as evidence and regard that fact as proved.

You must not speculate to be true any insinuations suggested by a question asked a witness. A question is not evidence and may be considered only as it supplies meaning to the answer.

You must disregard any evidence to which an objection was sustained by the court and any evidence ordered stricken by the court.

Anything you may have seen or heard outside the courtroom is not evidence and must also be disregarded.

INSTRUCTION NO. 35

You are here to determine whether the State of Nevada has met its burden of proof from the evidence in the case. You are not called upon to return a verdict as to any other person. So, if the evidence in the case convinces you beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the Defendant, you should so find, even though you may believe one or more persons are also guilty.

The credibility or believability of a witness should be determined by his manner upon the stand, his relationship to the parties, his fears, motives, interests or feelings, his opportunity to have observed the matter to which he testified, the reasonableness of his statements and the strength or weakness of his recollections.

If you believe a witness has lied about any material fact in the case, you may disregard the entire testimony of that witness or any portion of his testimony which is not proved by other evidence.

INSTRUCTION NO. 38

A witness who has special knowledge, skill, experience, training or education in a particular science, profession or occupation is an expert witness. An expert witness may give his opinion as to any matter in which he is skilled.

You should consider such expert opinion and weigh the reasons, if any, given for it. You are not bound, however, by such an opinion. Give it the weight to which you deem it entitled, whether that be great or slight, and you may reject it, if, in your judgment, the reasons given for it are unsound.

INSTRUCTION NO.

Although you are to consider only the evidence in the case in reaching a verdict, you must bring to the consideration of the evidence your everyday common sense and judgment as reasonable men and women. Thus, you are not limited solely to what you see and hear as the witnesses testify. You may draw reasonable inferences from the evidence which you feel are justified in the light of common experience, keeping in mind such inferences should not be based on speculation or guess.

A verdict may never be influenced by sympathy, prejudice or public opinion. Your decision should be the product of sincere judgment and sound discretion in accordance with these rules of law.

INSTRUCTION NO. 40

In your deliberation you may not discuss or consider the subject of punishment, as that is a matter which lies solely with the court. Your duty is confined to the determination of whether the State of Nevada has met its burden of proof as to the Defendant.

INSTRUCTION NO. 41

When you retire to consider your verdict, you must first select one of your member to act as foreperson who will preside over your deliberation, and will be your spokesperson in court.

During your deliberation, you will have all the exhibits admitted into evidence, these written instructions, and forms of verdict prepared for your convenience.

Your verdict must be unanimous. As soon as you agree upon a verdict, the foreperson shall sign and date the verdict form and return with it to this room.

INSTRUCTION NO. 42

Now you will listen to the arguments of counsel who will endeavor to aid you to reach a proper verdict by refreshing in your minds the evidence and by showing the application thereof to the law; but, whatever counsel may say, you will bear in mind it is your duty to be governed in your deliberation by the evidence as you understand it and remember it to be and by the law as given to you in these instructions, with the sole, fixed and steadfast purpose of doing equal and exact justice between the Defendant and the State of Nevada.

NOTICE OF MOTION

TO: CLARK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY

YOU WILL PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that counsel for the Defendant FREDRICK HARRIS has set this matter for hearing in Department XII on the 29 day of MAY, 2014 at the hour of 8:30A.

DATED THIS 28th day of April, 2014

BY: /s/ Betsy Allen
BETSY ALLEN, ESQ
Nevada Bar No. 6878
P.O. Box 46991
Las Vegas, Nevada, 89114

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 Factual Background

3 In the instant case, the Defendant, FREDRICK HARRIS, was convicted of 36 out of 4 45 counts of various charges, including: Sexual Assault on a Minor under Fourteen, Sexual 5 Assault of a Minor under 16, and Lewdness with a Minor.

6 Legal Argument

8 NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

- 9 1. The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter
10 of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.
11 2. If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court may vacate the 12 judgment if entered, take additional testimony on direct the entry of a new 13 judgment.
14 3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 176.0918, a motion for new trial
15 based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made only 16 within 2 years after the verdict or finding of guilt.
17 4. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds must be made
18 within 7 days after the verdict or finding of guilt or within such further time
19 as the Court may fix during the 7-day period.¹

20 A. The Court allowed portions of the statement of co-defendant

21 Lealer Ann Cooks without a finding of reliability

22 NRS 51.035 states, in pertinent part, that hearsay is not admissible unless it falls
23 within an exception. One of these exceptions is a statement against interest. A statement 24 against interest, in order to be admissible, must, at the time it is made:

- 25 (a) Was so far contrary to the pecuniary or proprietary interests of 26 the declarant;
27 (b) So far tended to subject the declarant to civil or criminal
28 liability;

27 ¹ Chief Deputy District Attorney Lisa Luzaich graciously granted the Defense until April 28, 2014 to file the 28 aforementioned Motion.

1 (c) So far tended to render invalid a claim by the declarant
2 against another; or

3 (d) So far tended to make the declarant an object of hatred,
4 ridicule or social disapproval, that a reasonable person in the
5 position of the declarant would not have made the statement
6 unless the declarant believed it to be true. NRS 51.345(1)

7 During the course of Harris' trial, the State opted to elicit particular statements from 8 Detective Madsen, made by co-defendant Lealer Cooks.² These statements were clearly 9 hearsay, as the State asserted that they were a statement against penal interest(an 10 exception to the hearsay rule).

11 However, contrary to defense's objections, the Court opted to allow these 12 statements to be elicited. There was no subsequent finding by this Court with regard to 13 whether the statement elicited was trustworthy under Walker v. State, 116 Nev. 670, 14 76(2000).

15 In the instant case, the statement was made to law enforcement after a lengthy 16 discussion, all of which was recorded. Ms. Cooks stated repeatedly throughout the 17 statement that she did not believe the Duke girls and their claims. Further, part of the 18 statute requires that the report of the abuse have some indicia of reliability and the person
19 must have some belief that the abuse is true.³

21 Lealer was very clear in her statement that she did not believe the victims in this
22 case. To simply characterize that one particular portion as a "statement against interest"

25 ² Lealer Ann Cooks was charged in case number C290726. She is a co-defendant as she is charged with a failure to 26 report the abuse(Child Abuse & Neglect) arising out of the same allegations levied against Mr. Harris.

27 ³ The Defense was not permitted to bring in information that Cooks was concerned about the Tahara Duke being 28 sexually active with some boy at her school, thus the reason for taking her to the doctor.

1 was patently incorrect. It was primarily taken out of context, in light of the entire statement,
2 and it was never subjected to a finding of reliability.

3 For this reason, Harris should received a new trial.

4 B. Harris should receive a new trial because his statement was altered incorrectly
5 and the jury was precluded from hearing material facts.

6 During the course of the trial, the State opted to play Harris' statement to the jury.
7 However, there were parts of the statement that were which should have been played and
8 were material to the defense.

10 During the course of Harris' statement to Henderson PD, he told the Detective that 11 Victoria had disclosed to him that she had had sex while she lived in Utah.⁴ The State 12 opted to take this portion out, claiming it was subject to rape shield.

14 NRS 50.090 provides, in pertinent part:

15 In any prosecution for sexual assault....., the accused may not 16 present evidence of any previous sexual conduct of the victim of 17 the crime to challenge the victim's credibility as a witness unless 18 the prosecutor has presented evidence or the victim has 19 testified concerning such conduct, or the absence of such conduct, in which case the scope of the accused's cross-examination of the victim or rebuttal must be limited to the evidence presented by the prosecutor or the victim.

20 In the instant case, Victoria Duke was VERY clear that she was subjected to a 21 sexual assault almost immediately upon her return from Utah. And furthermore, this sexual 22 assault was her first time having sex.
23

24 In Summit v. State, 101 Nev. 159, 697 P.2d 1374(1985), the Nevada Supreme Court
25 addressed this issue. In Summit, like here, the defense sought to introduce evidence that 26 the victim had prior sexual experience, which would account for her knowledge of sex. The 27

28 ⁴ Victoria claimed that upon her return from Utah, Harris had taken her virginity.

1 District Court denied the request. In analyzing the facts and NRS 50.090, the Court
2 decidedly agreed with the analysis of the Supreme Court of Washington, which held that 3 the trial court must undertake to balance the probative value of the evidence against its 4 prejudicial effect and that the inquiry should particularly focus upon "potential prejudice to 5 the truthfinding process itself," i.e., "whether the introduction of the victim's past sexual 6 conduct may confuse the issues, mislead the jury, or cause the jury to decide the case on 7 an improper or emotional basis." Summit at 1377, citing State v. Hudlow, 99 Wash.2d 1, 59
8 P.2d 514(1983)

10 In the instant case, there was no balancing at all. The Court simply precluded this 11 portion of the defendant's statement. Her claims of Harris taking her virginity were clearly
12 rebuttable through his own statement to police. The purpose of bringing in the statements 13 was not to attack her credibility but simply to show prior sexual knowledge, which would 14 account for her rendition of the acts itself.

16 The state further argued that it was self serving. However, if the court were to 17 accept this reasoning, then every statement a defendant makes would be subject to the 18 State's "eraser" with regard to anything they feel is "self serving." The defendant's
19 statement was put into evidence by the State. Portions were redacted regarding a
20 polygraph(which are inadmissible in this state). However, his statement to the police
21 regarding what Victoria had previously told him was certainly relevant. It did not violate
22 rape shield and should not have been subject to the state's "eraser" for reasons which do
23 not comport with his right to confront witnesses pursuant to the 6th Amendment.
24

25 C. Victoria Duke made material misrepresentations of what she was doing in 26 California.
27

28 During Victoria Duke's testimony, she testified that she was living in California and

1 going to school. However, after Harris' conviction, counsel for the defense became aware
2 of the fact that Ms. Duke was arrested on two occasions for prostitution. Counsel for Harris
3 confirmed this with the two court entities that are listed on the register of actions.

4 Certainly, information about Victoria Duke being a prostitute was exceptionally
5 important in this case. She alleged multiple instances of sexual abuse and then lied about 6 what she was doing in California. Certainly her criminal record would have been relevant to 7 this case.

9 Conclusion

10 Wherefore, The accused, FREDRICK HARRIS, respectfully requests this Honorable
11 Court to grant his Motion for a new trial. Alternatively, he requests the Court to hold a 12 hearing concerning the matters set forth herein.

1 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

3 On April 15, 2014, after hearing twelve (12) days of evidence in this case, and after 4 approximately two (2) days of deliberation, the jury found Defendant Frederick Harris
5 ("Defendant") guilty of the following: eleven (11) counts of Sexual Assault With a Minor
6 Under Fourteen Years of Age; five (5) counts of Lewdness With a Child Under the Age of 14;
7 six (6) counts of Sexual Assault With a Minor Under Sixteen Years of Age; four (4) counts of
8 Sexual Assault; four (4) counts of First Degree Kidnapping; one (1) count of Administration
9 of a Drug to Aid in the Commission of a Crime; one (1) count of Coercion (Sexually 10 Motivated); one (1) count of Battery With Intent to Commit Sexual Assault; one (1) count of 11 Child Abuse, Neglect or Endangerment; one (1) count of Pandering; and one (1) count of 12 Living From the Earnings of a Prostitute.

13 The jury found Defendant not guilty of the following: two (2) counts of Sexual Assault
14 With a Minor Under Sixteen Years of Age; one (1) count of Sexual Assault; one (1) count of 15 Administration of a Drug to Aid in the Commission of a Crime; four (4) counts of Child Abuse,
16 Neglect or Endangerment; and one (1) count of Battery by Strangulation.

17 Defendant filed the instant Motion for a New Trial on April 28, 2014.

18 ARGUMENT

19 I. DEFENDANT'S CLAIMS DO NOT MEET THE STANDARD REQUIRED TO 20 GRANT A NEW TRIAL

21 In criminal cases, NRS 176.515 controls when a motion for new trial may be granted.
22 NRS 176.515 provides:

23 1. The court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a
24 matter or law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

25 2. If trial was by the court without a jury the court may vacate the 26 judgment if entered, take additional testimony and direct the entry of a new judgment.

27 3. A motion for a new trial based on the ground of newly 28 discovered evidence may be made only within 2 years after the verdict or finding of guilty.

1 4. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds must be
2 made within 7 days after verdict or finding of guilt or within such
3 further time as the court may fix during the 7-day period.

4 The trial court has the discretion to grant or deny a motion for new 5 trial. Rippo v. State, 113 Nev. 1239, 946 P.2d 1017 (1997).

6 a. LEALER COOKS' STATEMENT WAS PROPERLY ADMITTED AS A
7 STATEMENT AGAINST INTEREST

8 Defendant argues that a new trial should be granted under NRS 176.515(4) on the 9 grounds that the Court improperly admitted limited portions of Lealer Cooks' ("Cooks")
10 statement to police as a statement against interest under NRS 51.345.

11 The admissibility of evidence is within the sound discretion of the trial court and will not be 12 overturned on appeal unless found to be manifestly wrong. See Cipriano v. State, 111 Nev.
13 534, 541, 894 P.2d 347, 352 (1995). NRS 51.345 states as follows:

- 14 1. A statement which at the time of its making:
- 15 (a) Was so far contrary to the pecuniary or proprietary interest
16 of the declarant;
- 17 (b) So far tended to subject the declarant to civil or criminal
18 liability;
- 19 (c) So far tended to render invalid a claim by the declarant
20 against another; or
- 21 (d) So far tended to make the declarant an object of hatred,
22 ridicule or social disapproval, that a reasonable person in 23 the position of the declarant would not have made the 24 statement unless the declarant believed it to be true is not 25 admissible under the hearsay rule if the declarant is 26 unavailable as a witness. A statement tending to expose the 27 declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the 28 accused in a criminal case is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.

NRS 51.345 (emphasis added).

Defendant's main contention is that this Court erroneously made no finding of reliability under NRS 51.345 and that "the statute requires that the report of the abuse have some indicia of reliability and the person must have some belief that the abuse is true."
Defendant's Motion, p. 4. Defendant takes this portion of the statute above out of context and

1 the requirement of a finding of reliability does not apply to Cooks' statements against interest
2 elicited by the State during trial. It is clear from a thorough reading of NRS 51.345 that the 3 requirement that corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the 4 statement only applies to statements offered to exculpate the accused in a criminal case.

5 Here, the State elicited Cooks very narrow statements against her interest through
6 Detective Nick Madsen to show that Cooks was aware of Taharah's and Taquandah's
7 disclosure of Defendant's abuse, that Cooks took Taharah to a doctor, and that Cooks
8 ultimately did nothing about the abuse. In support of his argument, Defendant cites Walker v.
9 State, 116 Nev. 670, 6 P.3d 477 (2000). However, Walker specifically deals with statements
10 against interest of a co-defendant sought to be admitted to exculpate the accused. The evidence
11 admitted during the instant trial was in no way offered to exculpate the Defendant. Thus, the 12 Court was not required to make a finding of reliability in order to admit the statements. The 13 Court properly admitted these statements because they so far tended to subject Cooks to 14 criminal liability that a reasonable person in Cooks' position would not have made the 15 statements unless the person believed it to be true.

16 Indeed, while Cooks was not charged as Defendant's co-defendant, Cooks was 17 prosecuted with regard to the facts of the instant case. Moreover, Cooks and pled guilty
18 pursuant to North Carolina v. Alford to one (1) count of Child Abuse, Neglect or 19 Endangerment (Category B Felony), in C290726. Specifically, the allegations she pled to 20 were, in part, that she "[kept] Tahara Duke in the home with Frederick Harris after knowing
21 the said Taharah Duke was being molested by Frederick Harris, and her sister had previously
22 been molested by Frederick Harris, and promising but failing to move the said Tahara Duke
23 out of the home resulting in the continuing sexual abuse of Tahara Duke by Frederick Harris."
24 (See Amended Information, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "1"). Cooks was 25 ultimately adjudicated guilty of that offense.

26 Defendant also contends that Cooks' statement was "taken out of context" and that 27 Cooks was very clear in her statement to police that she did not believe the victims in this case.
28 On cross-examination, the Court allowed Defendant to ask Det. Madsen about Cooks initially

1 not believing the girls. Defendant further asked if Cooks gave specific instances to Det.
2 Madsen as to why she did not believe the girls. The Court properly excluded the specific
3 examples that Defendant purported to offer because these statements from Cooks were 4 inadmissible hearsay that did not fall within any hearsay exception. Cooks' statements were 5 not taken out of context and the Court allowed Defendant to follow up with regard to whether 6 Cooks did not initially believe Taharah and Taquandah. The statements were properly
7 admitted and this argument fails to show that Defendant is entitled to a new trial.

8 b. DEFENDANT'S STATEMENT WAS PROPERLY REDACTED TO 9 EXCLUDE INADMISSIBLE HEARSAY

10 Defendant argues that this Court improperly excluded Defendant's statements during 11 his December 18, 2011 interview with law enforcement. The statements that the State redacted
12 that Defendant sought to admit included the following:

13 Q [Detective Aguiar]: Had she [Victoria] ever had sex with 14 anyone before you?

15 A [Defendant]: Not that I know of. I don't know.

16 Q: So you're the first person she's ever had sex with?

17 A: I know she had sex before because when she came in from 18 Utah she had been having sex. She admitted it that she had been having sex with girl and a friend that used to sneak around after school with out in Utah.

19 Defendant's Transcribed Statement, p. 90, lns. 8-14. Defendant made these statements
20 after he admitted to having sex with Victoria and her mother, Tina Duke, on two (2) prior
21 occasions. Again, the admissibility of evidence is within the sound discretion of the trial court
22 and will not be overturned on appeal unless found to be manifestly wrong. Cipriano, 111 Nev.
23 at 541, 894 P.2d at 352. Defendant argues that the Court did not balance the probative value
24 of these statements against their prejudicial effect and simply precluded this portion of 25 Defendant's statement. Defendant's Motion, p. 6. This Court is very well aware of the law
26 surrounding NRS 50.090 and Summit v. State. These statements were properly excluded by 27 the Court, and as such provide no grounds to grant a motion for new trial.
28 NRS 50.090 states the following:

1 In any prosecution for sexual assault or statutory sexual seduction or for attempt to
2 commit or conspiracy to commit either crime, the accused may not present evidence of any
3 previous sexual conduct of the victim of the crime to challenge the victim's credibility as a
4 witness unless the prosecutor has presented evidence or the victim has testified concerning
5 such conduct, or the absence of such conduct, in which case the scope of the accused's cross-
6 examination of the victim or rebuttal must be limited to the evidence presented by the 7 prosecution or victim.

8 In Summit v. State, 101 Nev. 159, 697 P. 2d 1374 (1985), the Nevada Supreme Court
9 explained the rationale for the rape-shield law codified in NRS 50.090. The Court explained 10 that general use of a female's reputation for morality and chastity would be inadmissible to 11 infer consent or to attack credibility. The Court also explained that the law is designed to 12 protect rape victims from degrading and embarrassing disclosure of intimate details of their 13 private lives and to encourage rape victims to disclose crimes, while being free from 14 unnecessary indignities and needless probing into their sexual histories. Specifically, the Court
15 stated:

16 In 1977 Nevada joined forty-five states and the federal government in passing a "rape 17 shield" statute, limiting inquiry into the sexual history of a complaining witness in a rape or 18 sexual assault case. See J.A. Tanford and A.J. Bocchino, Rape Victim Shield Laws and the 19 Sixth Amendment, 128 U.Pa.L.Rev. 544, 544 (1980). Such laws have generally been designed 20 to reverse the common law rule applicable in rape cases, that use of evidence of a female 21 complainant's general reputation for morality and chastity was admissible to infer consent and 22 also to attack credibility generally. Thus, for example, it had been held: "It is a matter of 23 common knowledge that the bad character of a man for chastity does not even in the remotest
24 degree affect his character for truth, when based upon that alone, while it does that of a
25 woman." State v. Sibley, 131 Mo. 519, 132 Mo. 102, 33 S.W. 167, 171 (1895), quoted in State
26 v. Brown, 636 S.W.2d 929, 933 n. 3 (Mo.1982), cert. denied sub nom., Brown v. Missouri, 27 459 U.S. 1212, 103 S.Ct. 1207, 75 L.Ed.2d 448 (1983). Such statutes as Nevada's have been 28 described as "directed at the misuse of prior sexual conduct evidence based on this antiquated

1 and obviously illogical premise." State v. Hudlow, 99 Wash.2d 1, 659 P.2d 514, 519 (1983).
2 See also People v. McKenna, 196 Colo. 367, 585 P.2d 275, 278 (1978). An additional purpose
3 of such statutes is "'to protect rape victims from degrading and embarrassing disclosure of 4 intimate details about their private lives.'" 124 Cong.Rec. at H 11945 (1978), quoted in Doe
5 v. United States, 666 F.2d 43, 45 (4th Cir.1981). Finally, "[t]he restrictions placed on the 6 admissibility of certain evidence by the rape-shield laws will, it was hoped, encourage rape
7 victims to come forward and report the crimes and testify in court protected from unnecessary
8 indignities and needless probing into their respective sexual histories." State v. Lemon, 456
9 A.2d 261, 264 (R.I.1983). Id.

10 Defendant's own statements that he "knows" Victoria was having sex in Utah, and that 11 Victoria previously admitted to him that she had sex in Utah are clearly self-serving and there
12 is absolutely no indicia of reliability to these statements. Moreover, these statements are 13 protected under NRS 50.090. Defendant argues that the statements should have been admitted
14 to show that "the victim had prior sexual experience, which would account for her knowledge
15 of sex," and "simply to show prior sexual knowledge, which would account for her rendition
16 of the acts itself." Defendant's Motion, p. 5-6. Victoria Duke was twenty-one (21) years old
17 at the time she testified at trial in this case. The victim in Summit was six (6) years old, and 18 the victim in State v. Howard, 121 N.H. 52, 426 A.2d 457 (1981), referenced in Summit, was 19 twelve (12) years old. Defendant's statements are not specific evidence to challenge "the 20 young complaining witness's credibility, by showing that she had other experiences which 21 could explain the source of her knowledge of the sexual activity she described in her 22 testimony." Summit, 101 Nev. at 163, 697 P.2d at 1377. Victoria was an adult at the time she
23 testified, and on cross-examination of at least one of the State's witnesses, defense counsel
24 elicited the fact that Victoria now has a baby. Defendant's own statements that were sought to 25 be admitted at trial simply do not fall under the exception to rape-shield under Summit and the 26 Court properly excluded them. As such, this argument fails and provides no grounds to grant 27 a new trial.

1 c. VICTORIA DUKE DID NOT MAKE ANY MATERIAL
2 MISREPRESENTATIONS AND DEFENDANT’S CLAIM
3 THAT SHE WAS ARRESTED FOR PROSTITUTION WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ADMISSIBLE HAD IT BEEN KNOWN TO EITHER DEFENSE COUNSEL OR THE STATE

4 Defendant states that “information about Victoria Duke being a prostitute was exceptionally
5 important to the case,” and argues that a new trial should be granted because Victoria did not 6 testify that she had been arrested on two (2) occasions for prostitution since moving to 7 California in August 2013, two years after the last incident of sexual assault occurred with the 8 Defendant. Defendant’s Motion, p. 7.

9 Defendant makes the unsupported allegation that Victoria “lied about what she was 10 doing in California.” Id. During trial, Victoria testified that she moved to California in August 11 2013, that she was currently living with her “godmother,” and that she was currently attending
12 school to become a medical clinical admissions assistant. Defendant has absolutely nothing
13 to support his claim that Victoria lied in any of these statements. In fact, the State’s 14 investigator went to Victoria’s school and spoke to an administrator. Additionally, he went to 15 Victoria’s address and spoke to Victoria’s “godmother.”

16 At the time of trial, neither the State, nor the Defense, were aware that Victoria had 17 been arrested on two occasions for prostitution since Victoria had moved to California in 18 August 2013. The State did run Victoria in SCOPE, its local criminal history database, and 19 there were no arrests listed there. If the State had this information, it would have turned it
20 over to the Defense, but the State did not.

21 Assuming Defendant’s representations are accurate, even if the State had this 22 information, Victoria’s (2) prior arrests for prostitution would not have been admissible at 23 trial. The arrests are not relevant because they occurred two years after the last incident of 24 sexual assault occurred with the Defendant. The arrests have no bearing whatsoever with what
25 occurred with Victoria Duke and the Defendant during December 2004 through December
26 2011, which are the dates encompassed by all of the charges involving Victoria.

1 Moreover, Defendant does not even set forth a basis that he would have sought to admit
2 this evidence. The defense at trial was that the victims were making their testimony up; the
3 defense was not a consent defense. Victoria's two (2) prior arrests for prostitution are not
4 relevant to the defense set forth during trial. A prior arrest record for prostitution, if found to 5 be relevant, is still subject to considerations of confusion and prejudice under NRS 48.035 and 6 in the appropriate case, a district court could properly exercise its discretion by refusing to 7 admit such evidence. Drake v. State, 108 Nev. 523, 527, 836 P.2d 52, 55 (1992). Even had 8 this Court found Victoria's arrests to somehow be relevant, the evidence would have been 9 excluded because the probative value of the arrests would have been substantially outweighed
10 by the danger of unfair prejudice, and because of the danger the evidence posed of confusing
11 the issues in the case and misleading the jury. Again, Defendant fails to set forth what 12 probative value, if any, this evidence would have had at trial. This argument fails and is not a 13 basis to grant a new trial under NRS 176.515(4).

14 Insomuch as Defendant's argument is construed as a motion for new trial based upon a
15 claim of newly discovered evidence, NRS 176.515(1) provides that a new trial may be granted
16 on the ground of newly discovered evidence. The standard for a new trial based on newly 17 discovered evidence is that:

18 (1) the evidence must be newly discovered; (2) it must be material
19 to the defense; (3) it could not have been discovered and produced
20 even with the exercise of reasonable diligence; (4) it must not be 21 cumulative; (5) it must indicate that a different result is probable on retrial; (6) it must not simply be an attempt to contradict or discredit a former witness; and (7) it must be the best evidence the case admits.

22 Hennie v. State, 114 Nev. 1285, 968 P.2d 761 (1998). See also, Callier v. Warden, 111 Nev.
23 976, 988, 901 P.2d 619, 626 (1995). In order to obtain a new trial based upon newly 24 discovered evidence, Defendant must present evidence that satisfies all seven prongs of the 25 test set forth in Callier. Defendant has failed to do so.

26 As argued above, Defendant fails to meet prong (2) because they have failed to show how this 27 evidence is material to the defense. Additionally, Defendant fails to meet prong (3) because 28 the evidence very clearly could have been produced through the exercise of reasonable diligence evidenced by the fact that Defendant obtained this information days after the jury's verdict was reached. Defendant also fails to meet prong (5) because the evidence most certainly does not indicate that a different result is probable on retrial considering he has failed to show that the evidence would have been admissible in the first place, and considering the two (2) arrests took place two years after the last incident of sexual assault in this case. Lastly, Defendant fails to show that this evidence is not simply an attempt to contradict or discredit Victoria Duke as a witness, and thus fails to meet prong (6). Because Defendant has failed to meet any of the requirements set forth in Hennie, and he is required to meet all seven (7) requirements to obtain a new trial, he is not entitled to a new trial.

II. DEFENDANT IS NOT ENTITLED TO AN EVIDENTIARY HEARING

The Nevada Supreme Court has previously stated that requests for evidentiary hearings in motions for new trial should be subject to the same rule as applied to post-conviction petitions. See, Rippo, 113 Nev. at 1250, 946 P.2d at 1024. As applied to post-conviction proceedings, "[a] petitioner for post-conviction relief is entitled to an evidentiary hearing only if he supports his claims with specific factual allegations that if true would entitle him to relief. The petitioner is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing if the factual allegations are belied or repelled by the record. The petitioner has the burden of establishing the factual allegations in support of his petition." Thomas v. State, 120 Nev. 37, 44, 83 P.3d 818, 823 (2004). Since Defendant has failed to establish that any of his claims would require relief, an evidentiary hearing is not warranted.

Factual Background

In the instant case, the Defendant, FREDRICK HARRIS, was convicted of 36 out of 45 counts of various charges, including: Sexual Assault on a Minor under Fourteen, Sexual Assault of a Minor under 16, and Lewdness with a Minor.

I. REPLY TO STATE'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

1. The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.
2. If trial was by the Court without a jury, the Court may vacate the judgment if entered, take additional testimony on direct the entry of a new judgment.
3. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 176.0918, a motion for new trial based on the ground of newly discovered evidence may be made only within 2 years after the verdict or finding of guilt.
4. A motion for a new trial based on any other grounds must be made within 7 days after the verdict or finding of guilt or within such further time as the Court may fix during the 7-day period.¹

A. The Court allowed portions of the statement of co-defendant

Lealer Ann Cooks without a finding of reliability

During the trial, the State elicited statements from Lealer Cooks, ultimately choosing to admit them through a detective, not through Ms. Cooks.

Part of the State's argument that there is an indicia of reliability is that Lealer pled guilty to a count of Child Abuse and Neglect, pursuant to the Alford decision. The State glosses over the idea and thought process behind the Alford decision. This United State Supreme Court decision allows a defendant to plead guilty without admitting guilt, in order

1 to avoid a harsher penalty.²² This is not an admission of guilt, merely a way to avoid going
2 to trial. In fact, as this Court is well aware, during a plea canvas, the Defendant is NOT
3 asked to allocute but rather to agree that the State COULD prove the charges against 4 him/her.

5 Therefore, Cooks "indicia" of reliability relied on by the State simply does not exist.

6 B. Harris should receive a new trial because his statement was altered incorrectly
7 and the jury was precluded from hearing material facts.

9 During the course of the trial, the State opted to play Harris' statement to the jury.
10 However, there were parts of the statement that were which should have been played and
11 were material to the defense.

12 Victoria made clear claims that Fred was the first person she had ever had sexual 13 intercourse with. The State claims his statements that she had sex was somehow self-
14 serving, without really explaining how it helped him somehow.

16 While making this statement, Fred was not under arrest, was in his own home and 17 had just admitted to having sex with her. There was nothing self-serving about saying she 18 had had sex previous to him.

19 The State claims that Defendant is trying to somehow circumvent rape shield, NRS
20 50.090. This could not be farther from the truth. Rape shield was meant to protect victims
21 from a Defendant attacking based upon promiscuous conduct. However, when the alleged 22 victim claims that she never had sexual intercourse before, the Defendant is permitted to 23 rebut that for very obvious reasons. Being able to relay specific actions related to sex
24 requires some indicia of knowledge.
26

27
28 ²² See North Carolina v. Alford, 400 U.S. 25 (1970)

1 Summit v. State, 101 Nev. 159, 697 P.2d 1374(1985) addressed this issue. In 2 Summit the defense sought to introduce evidence that the victim had prior sexual
3 experience, which would account for her knowledge of sex. The District Court denied the 4 request. In analyzing the facts and NRS 50.090, the Court decidedly agreed with the 5 analysis of the Supreme Court of Washington, which held that the trial court must 6 undertake to balance the probative value of the evidence against its prejudicial effect and 7 that the inquiry should particularly focus upon "potential prejudice to the truthfinding
8 process itself," i.e., "whether the introduction of the victim's past sexual conduct may 9 confuse the issues, mislead the jury, or cause the jury to decide the case on an improper or 10 emotional basis." Summit at 1377, citing State v. Hudlow, 99 Wash.2d 1, 59 P.2d
11 514(1983)
12

13 This Court did no such balancing. This was not an open and shut case, with 14 confessions and undeniable evidence. There were hugely conflicting statements, a TON of 15 prior inconsistent statements and witnesses presented by the Defense which CLEARLY
16 contradicted the victims. The Court simply precluded this portion of the defendant's
17 statement. Her claims of Harris taking her virginity were clearly rebuttable through his own
18 statement to police. The purpose of bringing in the statements was not to attack her
19 credibility but simply to show prior sexual knowledge, which would account for her rendition
20 of the acts itself.

22
23 C. Victoria Duke made material misrepresentations of what she was doing in
24 California.

25 The Defense became aware that Victoria was arrested shortly before the trial, two 26 times, for soliciting prostitution. While she may have testified that she was in school and 27 living with her "godmother" there was no corroboration for this information.
28

1 In the State's Response, they supplement the record by stating their investigator
2 obtained information that she was in school and living with someone. However, this was
3 not testified to during the trial and should not be considered by this Court.

4 In interviews with juror #8, Kathleen Smith, she indicated that information regarding 5 arrests for prostitution would have made a difference in the verdict. (see attached affidavit,
6 Exhibit A) Victoria Duke materially misrepresented her activities in California. Her mother
7 testified that she was a prostitute during this trial and it was clear from Victoria's testimony
8 that she was disgusted by this behavior. To find out that she was DOING THE SAME
9 THING, and NOT because Fred was supposedly forcing to her do so, is a material issue
10 that should have been presented to the jury.

12 II. SUPPLEMENT TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

13 NRS 176.515 provides in relevant part that:

- 15 1. The Court may grant a new trial to a defendant if required as a matter
16 of law or on the ground of newly discovered evidence.

17 In the instant matter, it has been discovered that there was an extreme instance of 18 juror misconduct. In an interview with Juror #8, Kathleen Smith, it was discovered that 19 during deliberations, Juror # 7, Yvonne Lewis, was not truthful during voir dire.
20

21 This was a forty-six(46) count sexual abuse/assault case. And jurors were asked if 22 they were ever the victims of physical or sexual abuse during questioning during voir dire.
23 Juror #7 did NOT disclose sexual abuse, only disclosing during deliberations, while crying,
24 and calling for the conviction of the defendant. (see attached exhibit A).

25 This is on point with the facts in Canada v. State, 944 P.2d 781, 113 Nev.
26 938(1997). In Canada, the jury in this murder trial was tainted by a juror who failed to 27 disclose during voir dire that his own father was murdered. Other jurors stated that he 28

1 would have voted to convict no matter what and kept referring to his own father's murder.

2 Fred Harris' case was a contentious sexual abuse case. The jurors were picked
3 over meticulously and asked about abuse of all kinds. This particular juror talked about 4 physical abuse from her mother, but failed to disclose sexual abuse of ANY KIND.

5 However, during jury deliberation, she broke down crying and referred to sexual 6 abuse and knowing how it felt to be sexually abused. She also was pushing for Harris'
7 conviction and need to be punished. (See attached affidavit of Harrison Mayo Jr., and
8 notes from Kathleen Smith, including changes she asked for in original affidavit, attached
9 as Exhibit A, B and C).

11 In Lopez v. State, 105 Nev. 68, 769 P.2d 1276(1989) the Supreme Court held that 12 where a juror failed to reveal potentially prejudicial information during voir dire, the relevant
13 inquiry is whether the juror is guilty of intentional concealment. Id at 89, 1290. Lopez
14 states that is the trial court's discretion to determine this information.³ "A new trial must be 15 granted unless it appears, beyond a reasonable doubt, that no prejudice has resulted."
16 Lane v. State, 110 Nev. 1156, 1164, 881 P.2d 1358, 1364 (1994). This Court must 17 consider "whether the issue of guilt is close, the quantity and character of the error, and the 18 gravity of the crime charged." Rowbottom v. State, 105 Nev. 472, 486, 779 P.2d 934,
19 943(1989)

22 In the instant case, Harris was charged with 46 felony counts, most of which were 23 life sentence counts. There were days of jury deliberation, indicating people who were 24 holding out on guilt and finally, a juror who, after lying about sexual abuse, was calling for

26 ³ This court must remember the painstaking process both sides undertook to delve into this information. There was even 27 a juror who reveal sexual abuse for the very first time EVER at the bench. Counsel has done numerous sexual 28 abuse/trials and ALWAYS looks for people who previously have been victims for this exact reason.

1 the punishment of Harris during deliberation. Harris is entitled to an evidentiary hearing to 2 determine the facts and circumstances of this jurors misconduct.

3 Conclusion

4 Wherefore, The accused, FREDRICK HARRIS, is entitled to a hearing wherein Juror
5 # 7 and #8 must be called to testify regarding the information recently provided to Harris.

I, HARRISON MAYO, JR., being first duly sworn on oath, deposes and states as follows:

1. That I was appointed to work with Betsy Allen, Esq., on the case of Fredrick Harris, C291374-1 and the information contained herein is the truth to the best of my knowledge.

2. That I was asked by the attorney, Betsy Allen, to talk to a particular juror with regard to deliberations.

3. That I was asked to talk to this juror due to the fact that Dorothy Harris, Fredrick Harris' mother, was approached at Wal-Mart by this particular juror and discussed the case with her. Further, she apologized for the convictions.

4. That I came to find out that the this juror was named Kathleen Smith and she works in the Regional Justice Center at the Information booth on the first floor.

5. That Ms. Allen and I interviewed this juror, Ms. Smith, and she disclosed that during deliberations, another juror started talking about being sexually abused as a child. She described this juror as being juror number seven(7), Yvonne Lewis. Ms. Smith further said that Ms. Lewis became emotional during deliberations and began crying while she talked about her own experiences of sexual abuse.

1. That I was a sworn juror in the State of Nevada v. Fredrick Harris and the information contained herein is the truth to the best of my knowledge.

2. That I participated in deliberations which resulted in the conviction of Harris on multiple counts of sexual assault.

3. That I was pressured into voting to convict Fredrick Harris by other jurors. I, along with another juror, held out for two days.

4. That I finally gave up because I did not want to be in deliberations forever.

5. That during deliberation, one juror became emotional and began crying. She then talked about her own experience with sexual abuse. This was juror #7, Yvonne Lewis. I recall she put strong emphasis on being sexually abused and physically abused as a child. She sympathized with the victims wholeheartedly and began crying when she spoke of this. TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 2014 AT 10:56 A.M.

[Outside the presence of the prospective jury panel]

THE COURT: Okay. State of Nevada versus Frederick Harris, case C291374. The Defendant is present. He's in custody. Will the attorneys please make their appearances.

MS. LUZAICH: Good morning, Judge. Lisa Luzaich and Kristina Rhodes for the State.

MS. ALLEN: And Betsy Allen and Jonathan MacArthur for Mr. Harris.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MACARTHUR: Madam Clerk, bar number 7072 for Jonathan MacArthur.

MS. ALLEN: Sorry. 6878.

THE COURT: Okay. And everyone has their jury list?

MS. ALLEN: Yes, we do. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: We're ready to bring the jury panel in. There's actually 56 that are coming in now. We have 56 seats.

MS. LUZAICH: Judge, is it your intent to start tomorrow at 9 o'clock? I had asked your chambers last week.

THE COURT: Right. Is that okay?

MS. ALLEN: Oh, you know what. It should be. Just a minute.

MS. LUZAICH: Okay. Wait. Is tomorrow Wednesday?

MS. ALLEN: It is.

THE COURT: Tomorrow's Wednesday.

MS. LUZAICH: I don't mean to be obnoxious. Can we get 10 o'clock? I have a sentencing with speakers.

1 THE COURT: That's fine.

2 MS. ALLEN: And I have Judge Delaney at nine.

3 THE COURT: So, what by 10 o'clock; will that be good for everybody?

4 MS. ALLEN: I think you.

5 MS. LUZAICH: Is that all right? Thank you.

6 [Inside the presence of the prospective jury panel]

7 THE COURT: Thank you very much. You can have a seat.

8 Good morning, Ladies and gentlemen. Do I have a stipulation from the 9 parties as to the presence of the jury venire?

10 MS. LUZAICH: Yes, Judge.

11 MS. ALLEN: Yes, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you. Good morning, Ladies and gentlemen. Welcome
13 to Department 12 of the Eighth Judicial Court. You've been summonsed here today
14 to serve as a jury panel in a criminal case entitled State of Nevada versus Frederick 15 Harris, case C291394.

16 Before I do allow both sides to give you a brief statement of the facts,
17 I'm going to introduce the members of the staff in Department 12 and give you a 18 brief description of what they do.

19 You have all met Officer Amani already. He's the court marshal in 20 Department 12. He is the person that you will have the most contact with.
21 Throughout this process of selecting a jury and after we do have a jury impaneled,
22 myself, the attorneys, the parties, and the staff in Department 12 with the exception
23 of the Court marshal are not permitted to have any communication with you
24 whatsoever outside of the courtroom. So, if there anything that you'd like to address
25 with the Court I ask that you please do it when we're in the courtroom on the record

1 in the presence of both parties.

2 In front of me is the Court Recorder. The Court Recorder is required to
3 take down everything that is being said and done in the courtroom. At some point
4 she'll be called upon by myself to prepare what we call a written transcript which
5 means that she will listen to everything that is said in the courtroom and she will type
6 down a verbatim transcript. So, if you're called upon to respond to the lawyers or to 7 the Court, I ask that you please state your name, the badge number that's been 8 provided to you by the jury commissioner before you do respond to the Court so that 9 we have a clear record of who is speaking at all times.

10 To my right is the Clerk of the Court, Susan. It's Susan's job to keep 11 the official record. She takes the minutes of the Court; she's also the person that 12 will take charge of all of the evidence when it's introduced at the time of trial.

13 To her right is Michael. Michael is a licensed attorney in the state of 14 Nevada. He's the law clerk in Department 12 and he assists the Court with legal 15 issues.

16 With that, I'm going to allow the State of Nevada to introduce 17 themselves. They're going to give you a brief statement of the facts. Both sides will 18 also have the opportunity to give you a list of the witnesses who will be called to 19 testify in this matter. I ask that you pay close attention to the names of the 20 witnesses because at some point I will ask you if you're familiar with any of the 21 witnesses who will be called to testify in this matter.

22 And before I move on, is there anyone that's having any trouble hearing
23 me? Okay. We have ear phones that kind of amplify my voice and the voice of 24 others. We can provide those to you and we'll do that now and you can tell me if 25 that helps. It usually does help. Is that better? Is that better, sir? You can both

1 hear me? Do you need me to start over and repeat what I said? Okay. So, at this
2 time I'm going to allow the State of Nevada to introduce themselves and they can
3 address the jury panel.

4 MS. RHOADES: Thank you, Your Honor.

5 Good afternoon. My name is Kristina Rhoades and this is Lisa Luzaich.
6 We represent the State of Nevada, and the State of Nevada in this case has brought 7 charges against the Defendant, Frederick Harris, by way of Information, and all an 8 Information is a piece of paper. To prove these charges to you over the course of 9 the next several days, we're going to be providing you with witness testimony and 10 potentially some evidence.

11 You will hear about the Defendant between August 2007 through 12 September 2012 being in a relationship with a woman named Lealer Ann Cooks.
13 The Defendant lived with Ms. Cook in a house at 966 Blankenship. Ms. Cooks had 14 guardianship over the five Duke Children. Their names are Taquanda, Taharah, 15 Shabazz, Mahlica, and Victoria. And during that time period they all lived in that 16 house at 966 Blankenship and also during that time period the Defendant physically
17 abused all five children. He is therefore charged with five counts of child abuse, one 18 for each of the Duke children.

19 You will also hear about the Defendant between October 1st 2010 and 20 September 26, 2012 in that same residence sexually abused Taharah Duke, which 21 is the second youngest of the Duke children. He is therefore charged with 22 numerous counts of sexual assault with a child under fourteen and lewdness with a
23 child under 14.

24 You will also hear about the Defendant sexually abusing the oldest of 25 the Duke children. Her name is Victoria Duke again. This abuse first occurred from

1 December 2005 to -- through May -- I'm sorry -- December 2004 through May of 2 2005 at a house on Trish Lane here in Las Vegas, Nevada. The sexual abuse also 3 occurred several times during August 2007 through December 2011 in various 4 locations including an apartment on Walnut Street here in Las Vegas, at that
5 residence at 966 Blankenship, at St. Andrews Club Apartments in North Las Vegas,
6 and at 1100 Center Street in Henderson. The Defendant is therefore charged with 7 numerous counts of first degree kidnapping, sexual assault with a child under 14,
8 lewdness with a child under 14, sexual assault with a child under 16, sexually 9 motivated coercion, administration of a drug to aid in the commission of a crime,
10 sexual assault and battery with intent to commit sexual assault.

11 You will further hear about the Defendant between August 2007 and 12 December 17, 2011 also being in a relationship with the Duke children's mother, 13 Tina Duke. The Defendant is charged with pandering, sexual assault, living from the 14 earnings of a prostitute, and battery by strangulation for abusing Tina Duke, forcing 15 her into prostitution, and taking her money from his prostitution.

16 In order to prove these charges to you, we will be calling some of the 17 following witnesses. We will not be calling all of them. We just want you to know all 18 of their names so that you can let us know if you know any of these people.

19 Henderson Police Detective Christopher Aguilar, Lealer Cook, a Custodian of 20 Records for the Clark County Detention Center, a Custodian of Records for Las 21 Vegas Metropolitan Police Department Communications and Records, Detective
22 Delacanal at the Henderson Police Department, Mahlica Duke, Shabazz Duke, 23 Taharah Duke, Taquanda Duke, Tina Duke, Victoria Duke. Craig Fabert, he is an 24 investigator with the Clark County District Attorney's office. Michele Fisher. She is 25 a forensic interviewer at the Children's Advocacy Center here in Las Vegas. Dr.

1 Nan Kufuor, she is a pediatrician. Detective Nicholas Matsen. He works with the 2 Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. Dr. Neha Mehta. She is a physician.
3 She worked at the Children's Advocacy Center. Dr. Jeff Melchert. He is a detective
4 with the Henderson Police Department. Sholeh Nourbakhsh. She works at 5 Department of Family Services and Child Protective Services. Devon Stokes. She 6 also works at Department of Family Services. Theresa Tibbs who works at 7 Department of Family Services. Cheryl Collie [phonetic]; Vassa Brockaman
8 [phonetic], and Virgil Clark who all work at Department of Family Services, and Rose
9 Smith is a family friend of the Duke children. Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Allen.

11 MS. ALLEN: Yes, thank you. If I may just have one moment.

12 THE COURT: Of course.

13 MS. ALLEN: Thank you. I apologize.

14 Good morning. My name is Betsy Allen and I along with Jonathan
15 MacArthur, who's present, represent Mr. Frederick Harris. If you could stand up.
16 And as the State's stated correctly, there is an Information charging him with in fact
17 all those charges that they listed, however, this is just an Information which means 18 they are just charges.

19 In addition to any of the State's witnesses that they listed, which we 20 reserve the right to call, we do have some witnesses of our own. I'm going to list
21 them and give a little bit of a description just so you know. The first one is Shakira
22 Bailey, and that is Lealer Cook's -- I think you heard the State mention her name --
23 that's Lealer Cook's step-daughter. We have Kamilah Bywaters, Hernandez
24 Cooper, and Kenyoni House. And all three of those are individuals work for the 25 Clark County School District and they will be testifying -- they're testifying on behalf

1 of the Defense that in fact the children never told them those allegations. They
2 allege -- the children allege they told them these allegations. These three teachers
3 will tell you that that never happened. Custodian of Records from the Clark County
4 School District; Sharday Green, that's my client's step-daughter that he raised.
5 Dorothy Harris, which is his mother; Mary Harris is his ex-wife; Moses Harris is his
6 son; Dr. Anita Gondy who saw and treated two of the girls approximately about a
7 year and a half ago; Dr. Emmanuel Nwapa who is a psychiatrist who treated Victoria
8 for psychiatric issues. Any of the CPS records -- people that the State named,
9 Michele Fisher, Sholeh Noubakhsh, Devon Stokes, Bobbie Tibbs, Shelly Warbush.

10 In addition to that, the State -- I apologize -- the Defense will be calling
11 Michael Loving. He is actually a Metro officer who took a purported DV report from 12 Tina Dukes. And my investigator, Harris Mayo. He's a former Metro cop who now
13 works for Nevada Investigative Group.

14 We look forward to showing all of you that end up lucky enough to sit in 15 the box that Mr. Harris is not guilty as per his entry at the beginning of this case and 16 that in fact this was a simple revenge tactic on behalf of --

17 MS. LUZAICH: Objection; this is not opening statement.

18 THE COURT: Sustained.

19 MS. ALLEN: Thank you. I'm finished.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Okay. At this time, Ladies and gentlemen, the clerk is going to call the 22 roll of the panel of prospective jurors. When your name is called if you'd please say 23 present or here.

24 THE COURT CLERK: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 [The Court Clerk calls the roll of the prospective jurors]

1 THE COURT: Anyone whose name was not called by the Clerk of the Court?

2 The record will reflect no response from the panel. If you all will please stand
3 and raise your right hand so the clerk can administer the oath.

4 [The Court Clerk swore the prospective jury panel]

5 THE COURT: Thank you. You can have a seat.

6 We're about to commence what is called voir dire examination. The 7 term voir dire means to tell the truth. During this process, you'll be asked questions
8 bearing upon your ability to sit as fair and impartial jurors. To accomplish this result,
9 various questions will be asked of you by myself or counsel for the parties. On 10 occasion, some of these questions will seem somewhat personal. While we do not 11 wish to unnecessarily pry into your personal lives, the questions are necessary so 12 that counsel and the Court can make an intelligent determination as to your 13 capabilities to serve fairly and impartially. I want you to know that myself and the 14 attorneys and all other persons involved in this case are concerned with having this 15 matter tried by jurors who are completely open minded, neutral, objective, and 16 unbiased in their thinking. Wide discretion is vested in the trial judge to the method
17 of examination of jurors. As I stated previously, I will personally conduct the voir
18 dire, but I will give the attorneys the opportunity to participate in this questioning.

19 It is important that you know the significance of full, complete and 20 honest answers to all the questions we're about to ask you. I caution you not to try 21 to hide or withhold anything which might indicate bias or prejudice of any sort by any 22 of you. Should you fail to answer truthfully or if you hide or withhold anything 23 touching upon your qualifications that fact may tend to contaminate your verdict and 24 subject you to further inquiry even after you're discharged as jurors. Your decision 25 should be based upon all of the evidence presented during the trial and not based

1 upon any preconceived prejudice or bias. I will conduct a general voir dire
2 examination of all of you while you are seated in the audience. After those general
3 questions, the clerk will call the first 32 names using the order provided to us by the 4 jury commissioner to fill the jury box.

5 At some point during the process of selecting a jury, the attorneys
6 for both sides will have the right to ask that a particular person not serve as a juror.
7 These requests are called challenges. There are two types of challenges,
8 challenges for cause and peremptory challenges. A challenge for cause means that 9 as a juror has been excused because his or her answers to some of the voir dire 10 questions indicates that he or she would have a difficult time in giving a fair and 11 impartial hearing to the case. I will ask the attorneys to pass or waive the 12 prospective jurors for a cause challenge when they are done questioning the jury
13 panel. A preemptory challenge means that a juror can be excused from duty without 14 counsel having to give a reason for the excusal. Please do not be offended should 15 you be excused by either of the challenge procedures. They are simply a part of the 16 procedures designed to protect the rights of the parties under our system of 17 government. Again, if you wish to respond to a question individually and in the 18 affirmative, please raise your hand, state your name, and the badge number that's 19 been provided to you by the jury commissioner.

20 Is there anyone on the panel who has ever been convicted of a felony?
21 The record will reflect no response from the panel.

22 Is there anyone on the panel who is not a citizen of the United States?
23 The record will reflect no response from the panel.

24 Is there anyone on the panel who is not a citizen of Clark County,
25 Nevada? The record will reflect no response from the panel.

1 Is there anyone who has such a sympathy, prejudice or bias relating to
2 age, religion, race, gender or national origin that they feel would affect their ability to
3 be open-minded, fair and impartial jurors? The record will reflect no response from 4 the panel.

5 Are there any of you on the panel who are acquainted with the 6 Defendant in this matter? Okay. Your name and badge number.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Robert Newman, badge number 1.

8 THE COURT: You're familiar with Mr. Harris?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: I am.

10 THE COURT: Okay. You know him?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Not personally, but I'm aware of him.

12 THE COURT: How?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Previous trial. I was the jury foreman.

14 MR. MCARTHUR: Your Honor --

15 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't you come down here and approach the 16 bench and I'll have both attorneys.

17 [Bench conference -- begins]

18 THE COURT: He's never had a prior trial?

19 MS. ALLEN: No.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. ALLEN: Never. Of course.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Newman, Badge number 1?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.

24 THE COURT: You served as a juror before?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Jury foreman on his previous trial.

1 THE COURT: He's never been tried before, ever.
2 MS. ALLEN: Ever.
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: You were his attorney.
4 MS. ALLEN: No.
5 THE COURT: So, you recognize Ms. Allen?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Her and him. I recognize the names of the five 7 children.
8 THE COURT: I'm sorry. What?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: I recognize the name of the five children as 10 well as you this morning.
11 THE COURT: Okay. When did you --
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: This was probably about four years back,
13 maybe five years back.
14 MS. ALLEN: What were the charges?
15 THE COURT: What were the charges?
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Sexual abuse of children.
17 MS. ALLEN: Are you sure it wasn't Cecil Hall.
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Uh --
19 MS. ALLEN: Bald guy, Cecil Hall.
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: I don't know if he's involved.
21 MS. ALLEN: He had four or five kids. It was in front of Judge Togliatti.
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Togliatti.
23 MS. ALLEN: You guys acquitted him?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.
25 MS. ALLEN: It's Cecil Hall.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: It's not this guy. Okay.

3 THE COURT: All right. So you understand that's not this guy.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Okay. Sorry about that.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So, it kind of sounds like you recognize Ms. Allen?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about --

8 MS. ALLEN: I'm like --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Sorry.

10 THE COURT: Okay. I know we all just sort of panicked because -- all right.

11 He's never been tried -- he's never been in a jury trial before.

12 MS. ALLEN: Yeah, no, never.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So, you understand that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Okay Yes.

15 THE COURT: So, you're thinking of somebody else?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Apparently, yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would affect your ability to be

18 fair and impartial in this case?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: No.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So, we've clarified it enough for you?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And you believe us that it wasn't him?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And you can continue to sit on this panel?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. You can go back to your seat, but if I could have the
2 lawyers stay here. Thank you. Okay.

3 MS. ALLEN: Oh, my God.

4 THE COURT: I know. I don't even know what to say.

5 MS. ALLEN: Heart attack; I'm like what.

6 MR. MACARTHUR: I think we just inform the jury that he's never been tried 7 before.

8 THE COURT: Is everyone okay with me that saying that the juror was 9 mistaken?

10 MR. MACARTHUR: He recognized her not him.

11 THE COURT: Yeah.

12 MS. ALLEN: Yeah, that's fine.

13 THE COURT: Well now I get the next question. Does he recognize any of 14 the lawyers. We've already been through that.

15 MS. ALLEN: That was Taleen Pankdukt and [indiscernible]. That's fine.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Were you the prosecutor?

17 MS. ALLEN: No, it was Taleen. It was her case.

18 THE COURT: All right. So, everyone's okay with me just saying that the juror 19 recognized you but it clearly was not this --

20 MS. ALLEN: Correct.

21 THE COURT: -- it wasn't this particular person. It was another case.

22 MS. ALLEN: Yes, that's fine.

23 MS. LUZAICH: And admonish him not to talk about it to the other jurors. MR.

24 MR. MACARTHUR: That's fine.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

1 [Bench conference -- concluded]

2 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, Juror number 1, upon further
3 clarification up here, Juror number 1 recognize Ms. Allen as being an attorney in a
4 case that he had previously served as a juror before. So, is there anything about
5 what Juror number 1 would affect anybody's ability to be fair and impartial in this 6 particular case? Okay. And Mr. Newman, I'm just going to ask you not to discuss 7 anything that we discussed up here with your fellow jurors, and you understand that;
8 correct?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #01: Yes, ma'am.

10 MR. MACARTHUR: Your Honor, if I may. At the bench there were two parts
11 to that. Permission to approach?

12 THE COURT: Sure.

13 [Bench conference -- begins]

14 MR. MACARTHUR: We don't want to dispel the perception that he may have 15 been tried before.

16 MS. ALLEN: Oh, yeah.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 MR. MACARTHUR: Because he's never been --

19 THE COURT: oh, okay. You don't think -- all right. That's fine.

20 MS. ALLEN: Yeah, because he's never been trial ever.

21 MR. MACARTHUR: This is his first felony charge.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MS. ALLEN: No; it's not his first felony charge. He's never been tried.

24 MR. MACARTHUR: This is his first felony charge.

25 THE COURT: Well I don't want to --

1 MS. LUZAICH: No; it's not his first felony charge. He's never been to trial.

2 THE COURT: -- I just kind of --

3 MR. MACARTHUR: I'm unaware of this.

4 THE COURT: But I'm okay with me saying he's never been tried.

5 MS. ALLEN: He's never been tried --

6 MS. LUZAICH: He's never been tried to a jury.

7 MR. MACARTHUR: Okay.

8 MS. ALLEN: Thank you.

9 [Bench conference -- concluded]

10 THE COURT: Also I just want to make it clear that Mr. Harris has never been 11 tried to a jury for anything. So, clearly Mr. Newman just -- he recognized Ms. Allen 12 and that was the connection.

13 Okay. Are there -- anyone else that's acquainted with the Defendant in 14 this matter? The record will reflect no response from the panel.

15 Anyone familiar with the defense attorneys other than what you've told 16 us, Mr. Newman. Anyone else that's familiar with the defense attorneys? Okay.
17 Right here. Your name and badge number.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR#40: Kathleen Smith, Badge number 40.

19 THE COURT: And who are you familiar with?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: Jonathan MacArthur.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And how do you know him?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: I know him from when he was running for 23 Justice of the Peace and as well I work at the court house. I work at the information
24 desk so I know a lot of the attorneys that come to the courtroom.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about that that would affect your ability

1 to be fair and impartial?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about the fact that you're an employee here in 4 the courthouse that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: No.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Ms. Smith, do you know any of the other
7 attorneys?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: I've seen her before, you know.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Do you mean Ms. Allen?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And how about the prosecutors?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: No, I don't recognize 'em.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. Anyone else that's familiar with 14 the defense attorneys? The record will reflect no response from the panel.

15 MR. MACARTHUR: Your Honor, I'm sorry. What was the number 16 associated?

17 THE COURT: Forty. Okay. Are there any you who are acquainted with the 18 Deputy District Attorneys that have been assigned to prosecute this matter? Okay.
19 The record will reflect no response from the panel.

20 The District Attorney's office employs many deputies and other
21 personnel. Is there anyone on the panel who has such a close relationship with 22 either the District Attorney, Mr. Steve Wolfson, his deputies or other members of his 23 staff that you feel might affect your ability to serve as a fair and impartial juror in this 24 particular case? The record will reflect no response from the panel.

25 Are there any of you on the panel who are acquainted with any of the

1 witnesses whose names were previously mentioned by the Deputy District Attorney
2 or defense counsel? Okay. Go ahead, ma'am. State your name and badge
3 number.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: Badge number 32.

5 THE COURT: Badge number 32, Helen Stephens.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Do you mind standing up?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: I'm familiar with Dr. Gondy.

9 THE COURT: Okay. How so?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: I worked at University Medical Center in 11 department of surgery where I was working with her quite frequently.

12 THE COURT: I can hardly hear you. If you just hold it closer, I might be able 13 to hear you.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: I worked at the department of surgery --

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: -- at UMC and Dr. Gondy was there as a R-5,
17 resident five, just before she graduated. I was around her quite often. We're not 18 friends or anything, just work acquaintances.

19 THE COURT: Anything about that that would affect your ability to be fair and
20 impartial in this case?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: No, I don't believe so, no.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Well you're the only one who can tell me. Is there 23 anything about the fact that you knew her would affect your ability to be fair and 24 impartial?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: No, ma'am, no.

1 THE COURT: When was the last time you worked with her?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: I've been retired seven years.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, it's been at least seven years since you've seen
4 her?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #32: Yes, yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Thank you very much.

7 Anyone else who is familiar with any of the witnesses? Go ahead.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: Melinda St. Clair, Juror number 14. I think one
9 of the CPS workers, Shelly. I can't remember her last name. I think she got 10 married. It was years ago though.

11 THE COURT: Okay. So, you think you know one of the CPS workers?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: She was a case with my nephew.

13 THE COURT: Okay. What does that mean? Your nephew which would be --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: I had custody of him and she was the worker
15 on the case.

16 THE COURT: She was your CPS worker?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: No; she was his CPS worker.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But you said you have custody of him?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: I had custody of him, yes.

20 THE COURT: So, there was an open case?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: Yeah, and he was returned to his mother and 22 stuff. But I'm not sure it's the same Shelly. I can't her last name.

23 THE COURT: Okay. How long ago was this?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: It was about seven years ago.

25 THE COURT: Anything about that that would affect your ability to be fair and

1 impartial?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: No.

3 THE COURT: If it is the same Shelly and you recognize her and it's the same
4 one that was a CPS worker for your nephew, is there anything about your 5 experience with her that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: No, no.

7 THE COURT: I mean, you don't even know if it's the same one?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: I'm not sure.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #14: You're welcome.

11 THE COURT: Anyone else? Okay. We have a juror in the back. Your name
12 and badge number, please.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Maria Boulton, Badge number 79.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Dr. Nwapa. He's seeing my son for some 16 issues.

17 THE COURT: He's treated your son?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Currently or past?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Currently.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So, your son is currently a patient of that doctor?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

23 THE COURT: All right. How often?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Like every six months.

25 THE COURT: Anything about that that would affect your ability to be fair and

1 impartial?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And you know that you -- do you have any pending

4 appointments with this doctor?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: I think next month, I believe, for my son.

6 THE COURT: So, next month?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Is it within the next two weeks?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: No.

10 THE COURT: All right. And how long has he treated your son?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: I think about six months ago.

12 THE COURT: For the first time?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: About twice.

14 THE COURT: So, you've been to see the doctor twice?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Is your son a minor?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

18 THE COURT: So, you go in with your son?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Most of the time it's my husband. I just met

20 him once.

21 THE COURT: Okay. You've only met him one time?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Anything about this relationship that would affect your ability to 24 be fair and impartial in this case?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: No.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #79: You're welcome.

3 THE COURT: Anyone else that's familiar with any of the witnesses who will 4 be called to testify in this matter? The record will reflect no further response from 5 the panel.

6 This case we do expect to last a couple weeks which means we expect
7 it to last through this week and then we expect it to probably go the full week next
8 week. And I know that that's -- I know everybody has busy schedules and you have 9 lives and I know that that's a lot to ask of people to be here for two weeks.

10 So, my next question is going to be, is there anyone that serving for that 11 amount of time would be such an undue hardship or burden on you such it would 12 make it impossible for you to be here? And let me tell you what the schedule will be 13 so you can think about it before you want to answer. Tomorrow we're starting at 10
14 o'clock and we'll go till five; Thursday we will be starting at 10:30 and go till five;
15 Friday will be generally 8:30 to five. And then on Mondays, Tuesdays and 16 Thursdays we will generally start at 10:30 unless I tell you otherwise and go to 5
17 o'clock. Wednesdays and Fridays are what I call more full days and I like to start at 18 8:30 with the exception of tomorrow. Tomorrow we'll be starting at 10 o'clock. So, I
19 can give you a general overview of what our schedule is. Unless I tell you 20 otherwise, that's what I -- that's the schedule I generally like to adhere to.

21 So, I'm going to start over here in the jury box. Is there anyone that 22 serving for that amount of time would be such an undue hardship such it would 23 make it impossible for you to be here? Okay. We'll start with Mr. Philips.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Chad Philips, Juror number 2. I umpire
25 baseball and I have a full schedule for the next two weeks and there's no possible

1 way I can get more than three days off.

2 THE COURT: Well what would happen if you're not there?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: I won't be able to make any money and pay
4 my bills.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So, that's what I need to get to. Is that what you do for 6 a living, you umpire baseball games?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: That's correct.

8 THE COURT: At what level?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: High school and college.

10 THE COURT: So, you umpire for UNLV and CSN?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Lower level college.

12 THE COURT: Well what other teams we have in Vegas besides CSN and 13 UNLV?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: The season hasn't started yet, I'm not exactly
15 sure, but as for high school --

16 THE COURT: Okay. But high school baseball going right now; right?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And so that's what you do for a living?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: That's correct.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And if you were asked to be here for two weeks -- well
21 when do the games -- I guess high school games are in the afternoon; correct?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Three o'clock, yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. They start right at three?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Yep.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So, why don't we get to -- you said you would -- if you

1 don't umpire you don't get paid?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: That's correct.

3 THE COURT: Is that what you do full time?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: That's right.

5 THE COURT: You don't have any other job?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: No.

7 THE COURT: Okay. If you missed umpiring for the next couple weeks,
8 would you be able to meet your financial obligations?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: No.

10 THE COURT: Are you married?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: I'm engaged.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So, you're the only breadwinner in your home?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: My fiancé makes very little money.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, you live together?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. What does she do?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: She works for Spirit Airlines.

18 THE COURT: Okay. But you don't believe you'd be able to meet your 19 financial obligations if you were required to be here?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: I don't believe so. It would be very difficult.

21 THE COURT: How many games do you umpire a day? Is it every day?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Well this next couple weeks is the busiest
23 portion of the schedule and I have several out of town games which pay very good
24 because I get paid to travel.

25 THE COURT: Oh, so you actual travel out of town as well?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: Yeah. And I've already had to take today and
2 tomorrow off so -- I mean, the schedule is already made through May -- through
3 April, I mean. I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: Okay, sir. Thank you. Thank you for being here. Anyone else
5 in the box? You can just pass it on down. Ma'am, you in the red shirt. I like to kind
6 of go in order. So, do you want to respond to that question? I just like to go in order
7 It's easier for me to keep track.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I'm an independent contractor.

9 THE COURT: Name and badge number.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Oh, I'm sorry. Jeneen Miller.

11 THE COURT: Badge number 7.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Seven, yeah.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I'm an independent contractor and if I don't 15 work I don't get paid.

16 THE COURT: What do you do?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I'm a massage therapist in a casino.

18 THE COURT: Okay. If you're -- when do you work? What are your hours?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and 20 Monday.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So, you'd only have to -- I mean, you understand we're 22 -- the courthouse is closed on the weekends.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Right.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Do you work during the day, at night?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: On Friday I work during the day and I'm also

1 on call at Southern Highlands.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So, how would it affect you financially if you were asked
3 to be here during the day?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I'm the breadwinner of the family so it would 5 affect us.

6 THE COURT: All right. Would you able to pay your bills?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: No; not for two weeks.

8 THE COURT: Okay. You would be unable to meet -- you won't be able to 9 pay your rent?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: My mortgage.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Are you married?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I'm married.

13 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Yes; he's a massage therapist.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And without your income --

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Right.

17 THE COURT: All right. But you said you're independent contractor. Do you
18 get paid a certain amount?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: I only get paid per massage. So, if I don't 20 make any massages I do not get paid.

21 THE COURT: Okay. I understand that. But what I'm trying to get at, do you
22 know how much money you're going to make every week?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: It's up and down, but it's pretty good. And if I
24 don't work I --

25 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask you this. Do you have appointments the

1 next two weeks?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: No. It's cold sales.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Except for the on call and Southern 5 Highlands.

6 THE COURT: All right. But you're telling me if you're required to be here you
7 won't be able to make your mortgage?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Exactly.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #007: Thank you.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #008: Christina Quattrone, Juror number 8. I am a 13 journalism student at CSN full time. I have midterms coming up on Monday and I'm 14 also acting manager editor of a staff of 15 students. So, our next pieces are due on 15 the 2nd. So, I have to edit their grammar mechanics and everything. My editor in 16 chief she could help me, but most of the kids come to me.

17 THE COURT: I'm more concerned about your midterms.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #008: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: When are you taking those?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #008: On Monday and on Wednesday next week.

21 And I just accepted an internship for Disneyworld so I can't miss school or else that 22 internship could be in jeopardy.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else on that back row? Anyone
24 else in the box? Go ahead. Ms. Sinclair, Badge number 14. St. Clair. I'm sorry.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes. Melinda St. Clair, Badge 14. I'm a

1 caretaker for my stepfather. He has chemo. He has appointments on Monday and
2 he has another one on Friday.

3 THE COURT: This Friday?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: The 31st and then on the 4th.

5 THE COURT: So, is that next Friday?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Next Monday and next Friday.

7 THE COURT: Okay. What time on Monday?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I believe it's 11:30.

9 THE COURT: What if you can't take him?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: It's a really important appointment.

11 THE COURT: I don't doubt it for a minute that it's important. Okay. I clearly 12 think that's important.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: There's no one else to take him.

14 THE COURT: So, if you're not able to take him he misses his chemo
15 treatment?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: My sister has to come from Utah to bring him.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Would you be able to make those accommodations if 18 you're required to be here?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I can if I have to but --

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: -- he basically wants me to take him because 22 I have all the information.

23 THE COURT: Sure. I understand that. But if you are required to be here --

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I could be here.

25 THE COURT: -- would you be able to make other arrangements?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I can make arrangements, yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. I appreciate you being here. Anyone else
3 in the box? Okay. I'm moving over to the left side. Anyone on this first row? Okay.
4 If you don't mind -- it's easier if you stand up so I can see you better.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: Hello. My name is Cordero Gomez, Juror
6 number 29.

7 THE COURT: Good morning.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: Good morning. I work at the DMV. I just got 9 that job. I'm still on probation. My days off are Tuesday and Wednesday so luckily
10 it fell on a day off. But I am married. I'm the sole breadwinner. My wife works part
11 time at UNLV and she's a full time student. I just graduated so I have student loans
12 coming up.

13 THE COURT: You work for the state of Nevada.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: I work for the state of Nevada.

15 THE COURT: You get paid if you're here.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: I do get paid if I'm here?

17 THE COURT: No, I'm asking you.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: Oh. Sorry. No; it's still furlough and I don't 19 get annual until I've been there six months so I wouldn't get paid time off.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So, how would this affect you financially?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: It would be pretty severe. I don't think I would 22 be able to make my rent such as it is.

23 THE COURT: Okay. And your wife doesn't work at all?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: She works part time but it's student work at 25 HR at UNLV which isn't very much and very few hours, and we have two kids.

1 We're married and no support from grandma besides babysitting occasionally.

2 THE COURT: No support from who?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: Grandma, my mother. So, like our extended

4 -- her parents and my parents they don't like give us any money or anything like that.

5 So, we're pretty independent.

6 THE COURT: Okay. That's a good thing; right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: Yeah, it's a great thing.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: But for the record, I would love to do jury duty.

10 I just don't think that as of right now I would be financially able.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. I appreciate that, sir.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #029: No problem.

13 THE COURT: Thank you for being here. If you can just pass it down to your 14 next fellow juror. Ms. Stephens, Badge number 32.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: No, Valeria McIver, Badge 31.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry. Go ahead.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: I actually attend full time at UNLV.

18 THE COURT: You're a full time UNLV student?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: Yes.

20 THE COURT: What are you studying?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: Accounting.

22 THE COURT: Where are you in the semester?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: What do you mean?

24 THE COURT: Would you be able to miss two weeks of school?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: No; I have midterms next week.

1 THE COURT: Midterms next week. Okay. Of course I get a bunch of
2 students when midterms are due. Okay. What year are you in school?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: It's my junior year.

4 THE COURT: All right. So, you have one more year till you --

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: For my bachelors.

6 THE COURT: So, are you taking pretty much 400 level -- is that what they 7 call 'em still?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. Thank you for being here.

10 Anyone else? On this first row, first row. Okay. We're going backward.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #027: I'm Roselinda Daggett, 27. And my husband
12 had a barrage of tests last week. We go to the doctor Monday and he may have to 13 have surgery for -- on his heart, for his heart. So, I'm worried about that. I don't 14 know if I'd be able to be here and take care of him.

15 THE COURT: How severe are his health issues?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: We don't know. We'll find out Monday when 17 we go to the doctor.

18 THE COURT: Why do you think he might have to have surgery?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #031: Because the doctor said he has a heart
20 disease and that's why he put him through all these tests so that we can find out
21 how soon he has to go in, possibly next week.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else? Over here on the first row
23 on the left. Okay. First row over here on the right.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Your Honor, my name is Patrick Hoover,
25 Badge number 34. My hardship is not financial but physical.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: I'm a recovering cancer patient and as a side
3 effect of some of the treatments I've had have been very difficult for me to sit those 4 kind of hours. And even in a shorter trial, I require breaks very frequently.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Kind of tell what. Can you give me a little bit more?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Well the --

7 THE COURT: The kind of treatment that you had was it --

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: It was radiation treatment for prostate cancer.

9 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: And the side effects to --

11 THE COURT: I'm sorry that you have to tell me that. I apologize.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: That's okay. The side effects of the treatment
13 is that I have to use the restroom quite often.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Are you okay right now?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: I'm fine.

16 THE COURT: All right. You'll let me know if --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: And it's really not -- I mean, it's just the 18 longevity of this particular trial. I would like to maybe get on maybe a short trial, but 19 this one is just going to be difficult and the breaks is another concern that I have.

20 THE COURT: How often -- if we took hourly breaks.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Hourly would probably be fine.

22 THE COURT: So, if we took hourly breaks you could be on the panel?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Well I wouldn't say for the duration of this trial
24 but for a shorter trial I would imagine I could do that.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Why do you think the duration would affect you?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Well it's just besides the breaks it's just hard
2 on me to sit that long --

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: -- for long periods of time.

5 THE COURT: How long are you post-treatment?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: I'm five years. I still have five years to go.

7 THE COURT: What does that mean?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Well it's a ten year process where testing
9 happens.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Post --

12 THE COURT: So, you're not currently under any type of treatment?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: Other than blood tests, no.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Are you just tired? What is it?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #034: It's tired and it's just hard, physically hard on 16 me to sit for those long hours at a time without being able to get up and move 17 around.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you, sir. Thank you for being here.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: Hi. My name is Evan Casey. My badge
20 number is 35. I'm also a private contractor. I work as a stylist model and producer
21 for an all purpose production company here in town as well as individually teaching
22 classes for different studios. And for me, I have to be able to work during the day in 23 our office and I also have to be able to be available in the evenings, but our call
24 times are about 4 o'clock and for me to get out of downtown to places on The Strip I
25 need to be, I wouldn't be able to do those. I'm the only person. I live alone. I'm a

1 single woman and I can't pay my rent if I'm here.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So, you don't get paid if you're not working and missing
3 two weeks --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: And additionally I have an appointment with a 5 graduate advisor.

6 THE COURT: It's okay; okay, honey.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: I'm sorry. As soon as I heard that it was 8 something to do with children, I started shaking. I have a long history with Child
9 Protective Services and the state and I get very emotional.

10 THE COURT: All right. But it pretty much sounds to me like it would be a -- 11 we don't need to go into that.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: I'm very sorry.

13 THE COURT: It would be a financial burden such that you couldn't be here?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: Yes, for me it would be.

15 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: No, I'm very sorry.

17 THE COURT: Are you okay?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: Yes, I'm fine. I'm so sorry. I did not mean to 19 do that. I also have an appointment with a graduate's advisor this week that I've 20 waited over a month and a half for.

21 THE COURT: Are you a student too?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: I actually am trying to get back into school. I
23 have two degrees and I'm trying to finish so I can work toward my Ph.D in history.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: I can't be a model forever; right?

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #035: Thank you.

3 THE COURT: You can pass it down. Anyone else over here?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: Vivian Jones, 38. I'm a heart survivor and -- if
5 somebody else cries I will cry.

6 THE COURT: That's okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: And I'm on Coumadin.

8 THE COURT: I don't want you to cry so --

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: Okay.

10 THE COURT: It sounds like you're a heart survivor. Okay. Are you in good 11 health?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: I spent a lot of time in the hospital and doctors
13 -- because of the Coumadin and I have a mechanical valve, and I just don't think I'm 14 healthy enough to do it.

15 THE COURT: You don't believe you're healthy enough to do it?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: Not enough to miss my appointments and not 17 --

18 THE COURT: You're currently under medical care?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #038: Yes, after open heart surgery, yeah, I have to 20 be on Coumadin so I have to go once a week, once a month depending on how my 21 levels are.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, Ms. Jones. Thank you for being here.

23 Anyone else on that front row? I'm going to get to you in the back. I promise I'll get 24 to you.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Hello. Diana Hayes, Juror 44. I travel

1 extensively for work and after this particular jury was selected and I agreed, my
2 company has booked me a trip. I'm a 6:30 flight tomorrow to New York City for the 3 remainder of the week.

4 THE COURT: What do you do?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: I'm a regional manager in retail.

6 THE COURT: And so if you're here you can't make your plane; right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: That's accurate.

8 THE COURT: Okay. How would that affect you?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: This obviously would affect our company.
10 They've already paid for the flight. I did bring a boarding pass and the itinerary.

11 THE COURT: But they knew you had jury duty?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: They did not know I had jury duty. I already -- 13 I was scheduled for the last week of February. I postponed that because that was a
14 training meeting in Akron, and then I re-scheduled for this week and then they -- a 15 booking came up after that.

16 THE COURT: You knew. I mean, obviously you knew and you could have 17 told your employer?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: I could not have told my employer. They 19 booked it -- I did not know they were doing that. It's a training. It's a one time thing.

20 THE COURT: But you had notice that you had to be here and you've already 21 postponed being here one time; correct?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Correct.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. But -- so if you can't be there tomorrow
24 somebody else has to take your place; right?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: No; I'm the only one that goes. I cover a

1 region --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Las Vegas, Utah, Hawaii. I go for the training,
4 come back and train.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So, the training will have to take place another time if 6 you're here; right?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: No; I -- it's the only time they do the training.
8 It's in New York. It's with a vendor. And so I am the one that doesn't get the 9 training. It's not that I am giving the training. I'm getting the training.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. Thank you for being here.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: I'm Ruben Hernandez-Diaz, 81. I am on call
14 at Del Taco. I work Friday, Saturday and Sunday and I will be at Sands April 1st, 15 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

16 THE COURT: You will be where April 1st?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: Oh, at Sands Expo.

18 THE COURT: Okay. How would that effect -- I mean, everybody here I
19 assume has something they have to do every day for the next two weeks. Okay.
20 So, what I'm trying to get at, do you have things that it would be impossible for you
21 to be here?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: Well the people I work, I'm employed there.
23 So they need someone to work.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, if you're not there somebody else will have to take 25 your place; right?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: Well now I got -- I accepted it so I have to go.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Well if you're here under Court order you understand
3 you have to be here; right? You would comply with a Court order to be present in 4 Court?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: Yes but --

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #081: -- I have a schedule and those hours are very 8 important for me to get more experience.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you for being here. Anyone else on the back
10 row? Okay. Officer, there's --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Danielle Ross, number 75.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I am a single mother and I take my son to and 14 pick him up from school. My mother --

15 THE COURT: How old is he?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: He's 13.

17 THE COURT: So, middle school?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Do they start at 8 o'clock still?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: They start at eight, yes, and get out at three.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, you'll be able to take him to school in the 22 morning?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Do you pick him up?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I do.

1 THE COURT: Do you work?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I do. I leave work to go get him. That's my 3 lunch break basically.

4 THE COURT: All right. If you were required to be here, would you have --
5 would you be able to make other arrangements to have him picked up?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: My mother doesn't drive anymore and my 7 father works.

8 THE COURT: I just need to know if you'd be able to make other
9 arrangements.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: No, I wouldn't, unfortunately.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Do you live within walking distance?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: It's a few blocks but I don't like him to walk
13 home by himself.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And so what happens when you get home, then what 15 happens?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: He stays.

17 THE COURT: Do you go back to work?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I do.

19 THE COURT: All right. And there's nobody in the whole neighborhood and at 20 school that he's able to catch a ride with?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I could probably find somebody at school that 22 he can get a ride with.

23 THE COURT: Okay. So, that's all I'm trying to find out. I know you have --
24 obviously you have obligations. We would not start -- you'd be able to take him
25 every morning. My only concern is would you be able to make arrangements for the

1 afternoon?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I can try.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. I appreciate that. Thank you for being
4 here. All right. Third row over here. All right.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #113: Hi, Your Honor. I am Juror number 113. I am
6 a owner operator of my business and I travel, commute every day about a hundred 7 miles each way Monday through Saturday, and it would be very difficult for me to 8 find somebody that can take my place. My wife doesn't work and we have four 9 children at home. So, it would be just very difficult to make the arrangements to do
10 that. I wouldn't have anyone that could take my place.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you. Thank you for being here.

12 Anyone else that wishes to respond to that question? The record will 13 reflect no further response from the panel.

14 Are there any of you who believe that for any other reason you would 15 be unable to serve as a juror in this particular case? Okay. Go ahead, sir. Mr. Lau, 16 Badge number 3.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: My English is not very good. My English is 18 not very good. I don't think I --

19 THE COURT: How long have you lived in the United States?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Thirty years.

21 THE COURT: Thirty years.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah.

23 THE COURT: And you're a United States citizen; yes?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Do you work?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Retire.

2 THE COURT: Do you work?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Retire.

4 THE COURT: Oh, you're retired. I'm sorry. What did you do before you
5 retired?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Restaurant.

7 THE COURT: You worked in a restaurant?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah.

9 THE COURT: What'd you do in the restaurant?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: A cook.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And you've been able to understand everything I've 12 said.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah, I understand but I don't fully understand
14 the conversations but [indiscernible] I can't --

15 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything that you don't understand, you'll raise 16 your hand and let me know so we can clarify it for you; correct?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Okay.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Okay.

20 THE COURT: All right. Go ahead, sir. Your name and badge number. Go 21 head.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #022: My name's Alexi Pumarejo, Badge number
23 22.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #022: I don't know if this is going to be a follow-up

1 question but I don't know that I can be impartial in this case.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't I just have you -- I'm going to have you
3 approach the bench. This is Mr. Pumarejo, Badge number 22. And I could have the 4 attorneys approach as well.

5 [Bench conference -- begins]

6 MS. ALLEN: Out of curiosity, are we going to break today?

7 THE COURT: Oh, yeah, for lunch? Oh yeah of course.

8 MS. ALLEN: Okay. I just didn't [indiscernible].

9 THE COURT: Okay. The record will reflect a juror is present, Badge number 10 22 and all four lawyers are present. You indicated you didn't think you could be 11 impartial?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I don't think I can.

13 THE COURT: Because?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I never suffered child abuse myself 15 but --

16 THE COURT: Okay. Come on here so everybody can --

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I've had very close relations who'd 18 had so I've dealt with a lot of that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Who?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: A former girlfriend, fiancé that I was 21 with for five years.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: Who suffered extensive child abuse
24 and rape and such.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: And so the entire time I was kind of
2 dealing with that and with her issues, and just seeing that I don't know that I can --
3 that I could be completely impartial and just listen to the facts. It would be hard for 4 me.

5 THE COURT: But you know what's happening. Your life is different than 6 what's going on in this courtroom?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I understand; yes, of course I
8 understand that.

9 THE COURT: Are you a person that would be able to separate that and judge
10 this case solely upon what you see and hear in the courtroom?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I could certainly try, but what I'm 12 saying is I'm not -- if the question is whether you know that you can be completely
13 impartial --

14 THE COURT: Sure.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: -- I don't know that I can be, but I 16 can try but --

17 THE COURT: Who are you going to be unfair to?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: The Defendant.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And so just because the Defendant's sitting there and 20 the charges you don't think you can be fair to him?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I don't know. I'm not sure. I mean,
22 I want to be completely honestly. So, I'm not sure that I can be. To be honest,
23 when I first heard the prosecution's statement of the charges, I --

24 THE COURT: You know they're only allegations though; correct?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I understand fully and intellectually,

1 yes.

2 THE COURT: And you understand as he sits here today he is innocent;
3 correct?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: Of course. That's our system.

5 THE COURT: All right. But that differs from your personal beliefs because of 6 the charges?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: Yes; I just think it would be -- it
8 might be difficult for me to -- after hearing all the evidence to be fully impartial. It's 9 just a feel that I wanted to make aware and make the Court aware of.

10 THE COURT: So, you can't set aside your personal experiences?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #022: I don't know that I can.

12 THE COURT: Okay, sir. Thank you. Go have a seat.

13 [Bench conference -- concluded]

14 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else that wishes to respond? Okay. Officer,
15 yes, someone back there. Go ahead. You can stand up and start talking. I can 16 hear you.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: I'm Rochelle Herst, Badge 54. I
18 potentially have a bias to you about a bias.

19 THE COURT: You want to approach the bench?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. It's Rochelle Herst, Badge number 54. If I can have the 22 attorneys join me. The officer will escort you up here.

23 [Bench conference -- begins]

24 THE COURT: Okay. The record will reflect -- just a minute -- Ms. Herst is 25 present, Badge number 54 and all four lawyers are present. Go ahead.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: I'm a case worker with Desert
2 Regional Center working in the children's division. So, I've had children with CPS
3 and adults and kids with disabilities. So, I just thought I'd let you know --
4 THE COURT: Okay.
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: -- of my bias.
6 THE COURT: What's your bias?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Well like he probably did it, but you
8 know, I could be proven wrong but --
9 THE COURT: Okay. Well no one's here to prove you wrong. First, Desert
10 Regional; what is that?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Desert Regional Center. We work
12 for the state agency that works with children with disabilities and adults from zero to 13 death.
14 THE COURT: Okay.
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: A case worker for the last 16 years
16 there.
17 THE COURT: Okay. What I'm concerned about is you said I think he 18 probably did it.
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Yeah.
20 THE COURT: You've already formed an opinion?
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: I have.
22 THE COURT: Based on what?
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Just working with children for many 24 years and children don't usually say things that they don't mean.
25 THE COURT: Okay. So, regardless of what goes on in here --

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: I could be persuade --

2 THE COURT: Well here's the thing. We're not here to change -- I mean,
3 we're not here to change an opinion you've already formed. We need people that 4 have not formed any opinions.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Right.

6 THE COURT: Have you formed an opinion?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Just by the little bit I've heard, yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And you understand you haven't heard anything? You
9 haven't heard any evidence.

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Just [indiscernible] but no, right.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand as he sits here today he's innocent?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Yes.

13 THE COURT: But you don't agree with that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: No.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So, our system says he's innocent. Your personal 16 belief doesn't accept that.

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Just by looking at the children, yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Have you shared that opinion with anyone else on the 19 panel?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: No.

21 THE COURT: And I'm going to order you not to discuss these opinions or 22 anything that's discussed up here with any of the members of the jury panel.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Absolutely.

24 THE COURT: And you'll comply with that; correct?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #054: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 [Bench conference -- concluded]

3 THE COURT: Anyone else that wishes to address the Court? Okay. We 4 have someone in the back row. You can stand up. I can hear you, sir.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: My name's Anthony Bonde, 123. I
6 have a tendency to prejudge. So, I don't think it would be fair to the families
7 involved and I wouldn't want myself to be, you know, to make a decision on my --
8 based on my prejudgment.

9 THE COURT: All right. You've made a -- you haven't heard any evidence;
10 correct?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: No, I haven't.

12 THE COURT: And you've made a judgment based on what?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: From what I've heard so far.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, you understand what the attorneys say is not 15 evidence. It can't even be considered by you.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Okay.

17 THE COURT: Can you accept that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I can accept that. I just want to be 19 fair and let you know the type of person that I am, that I do prejudge people. If I was 20 in their shoes I would want to know about me also.

21 THE COURT: Okay. But can you follow the rules in this courtroom? And one
22 of the rules I'm going to tell you is can you keep an open mind, can you wait until 23 forming opinion until you have heard all of the evidence from both sides and after 24 you've been instructed on the law by myself?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I would definitely try, yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. You can think about it. But what I'm asking you to do is
2 listen to everything that's presented by both sides --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: True.

4 THE COURT: And then it's my job to instruct you on the law that applies and
5 then to follow the law and apply it to what you've heard in the courtroom. Are you a 6 person that can do that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I will definitely try, yes.

8 THE COURT: Are you a person that can do that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I believe so.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And you haven't formed any opinions today; correct?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: So far I have, yes.

12 THE COURT: You've already formed an opinion?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Mm-hmm.

14 THE COURT: Based on nothing.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Based on -- yes, I have.

16 THE COURT: All right. But you understand now that I've told you, the 17 attorneys what they say is not evidence and can't be considered by you. The 18 attorneys get to ask questions --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Mm-hmm.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And you can consider their questions only as it applies 21 meaning to the answer that's given by the witness.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Do you agree with that?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

25 THE COURT: And would you follow that rule?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I will try, yes, I will.

2 THE COURT: Well I need to know if you'll do it not whether you'll try to do it.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: I will.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, whatever your personality is, can you set that aside
5 and follow the rules that's given to you by myself?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Okay.

7 THE COURT: Will you do that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. And you understand as this gentleman sits here today,
10 he's an innocent man; do you understand that?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So, he deserves a jury panel that actually believed not 13 only believed -- not only recognizes that but also believes in it and believes in our 14 system, that as he sits here today he is presumed innocent; do you understand 15 that?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And do you believe that?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Pretty much; yes, I do. Okay.

19 THE COURT: Will you accept that?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes, I will.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Does that conflict with your personal opinions? I mean, 22 everybody here, everybody in this whole room, everybody in the whole United 23 States of America is they're accused of a crime is entitled to that same presumption;
24 do you agree with that?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

1 THE COURT: And do you agree with the fact that this gentleman is entitled to
2 it?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

4 THE COURT: You're entitled to it?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

6 THE COURT: I'm entitled to it, he's entitled to it; do you agree with that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes, I do.

8 THE COURT: Okay. And you'll follow the law as given to you by the Court?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm never going to tell you to let your personality 11 traits interfere with what the law is?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Can you do that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Sure.

15 THE COURT: And can you wait until you've heard all of the evidence and 16 after being instructed on the law before reaching a conclusion as to what the 17 appropriate results should be?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #123: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Anyone else that wishes to address the 20 Court? The record will reflect no further response from the panel.

21 Is there anyone on this panel -- you know what. It's about time. We're 22 going to take a lunch break at this time. And so I just need to give you're an 23 admonishment before you leave. When you come back, I'd just like you to pay
24 attention to where you're sitting because when the Court marshal brings you in I'm 25 going to ask you to sit in the same seats that you're sitting in and we will resume

1 again at 1:45.

2 During this recess, you're admonished not to talk or converse amongst 3 yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial or read,
4 watch or listen to any report of or commentary on the trial or any person connected
5 with this trial by any medium of information, including without limitation, newspapers,
6 television, the internet or radio or form or express an opinion on any subject
7 connected with this trial unless the case is finally submitted to you. You are further
8 admonished you may not communicate with anyone including your fellow jurors
9 about this case or on your cellphones through email , Blackberry, iPhone, text
10 messaging, through Twitter or any blog or website, through any internet chat room
11 or way of any other social networking website including but not limited to Facebook
12 MySpace, LinkedIn and YouTube. Thank you very much and you are excused.

13 [Recess taken at 12:05 p.m.]

14 [Proceedings resumed at 1:54 p.m.]

15 [Inside the presence of the prospective jury panel]

16 THE COURT: Will the parties stipulate to the presence of the jury venire?

17 MS. LUZAICH: Yes.

18 MS. ALLEN: Yes, Judge. I'm sorry.

19 THE COURT: Okay. We left off on this question. Has anyone on this panel 20 ever been engaged in law enforcement work or have a spouse or close relative who 21 has ever been engaged in law enforcement work? And we'll do the same thing. I'll 22 start over here. Okay. Left side. Go ahead, ma'am.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: Elizabeth Spaur, Juror number 49.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: My husband was a police officer in

1 Glendale, but he left in, gosh, 1990.

2 THE COURT: So, he hasn't been for a long, long time?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about his -- were you married to him at the 5 time?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: No. I didn't even know him at the 7 time.

8 THE COURT: Okay. What does he do now?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: Right now he's retired.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: After he left law enforcement he 12 went into medical equipment repair.

13 THE COURT: Anything about his former employment that would affect your 14 ability to be fair and impartial in this particular case?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #049: No.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. If you'd pass it down to the juror to the 17 right.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #045: I'm Nabor Torres, Juror 45. My 19 brother-in-law works as a dispatcher for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's 20 Department.

21 THE COURT: Anything about his employment that would affect your ability to 22 be fair and impartial?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #045: No.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else on the left side? Okay. Over here on 25 the right. Go ahead.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #034: Patrick Hoover, Juror number 34.
2 My brother was a forensic chemist for LAPD, Long Beach PD, and Washington
3 State Troopers for his entire career.

4 THE COURT: Anything about -- is he retired now?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #034: He's retired.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about his employment that would affect your
7 ability to be fair and impartial?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #034: No, not at all.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. And, Mr. Hoover, you'll remind me if you
10 need a break; right?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #034: Yeah, I will.

12 THE COURT: Just if you raise your hand I'll know. Okay.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #034: Thank you.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: Yvonne Lewis, number 37. I was a
15 dispatcher over ten years ago for police, fire and EMTs in Arizona.

16 THE COURT: How long did you do that?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: About a year and a half.

18 THE COURT: How'd you like it?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: I loved it.

20 THE COURT: Okay. What do you do now?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: Now I run dental offices.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Why'd you leave dispatch?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: The chief of police was impeached
24 and --

25 THE COURT: Oh, so the chief of police was an elected official?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: It wasn't elected. It was a
2 township.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: So, yeah, he was impeached and
5 there was a lot of bad stuff so I --

6 THE COURT: You hightailed it out. Okay. Anything about your former 7 employment that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #037: No.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: My husband served 30 years --

11 THE COURT: Your name and badge number.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: Oh, sorry. Diana Hayes, 44.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: My husband of 30 years law
15 enforcement with the National Park Service.

16 THE COURT: Okay. What was his job title?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: National Park Ranger.

18 THE COURT: So, he worked for the Federal Government?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: Yes.

20 THE COURT: What does he do now?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: He is retired six years.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about his former employment that would affect 23 your ability to be fair and impartial?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR NUMBER #044: No.

25 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else that wishes to respond to that

1 question? The record will reflect no further response from the panel.

2 Is there anyone on this panel who believes that they may not be able to
3 follow all the instructions of the Court on the law even if the instructions differ from 4 your personal conceptions of what the law ought to be? Anyone who believes they
5 cannot follow the law as given to you by the Court? The record will reflect no
6 response from the panel.

7 Okay. At this time, we're going to go out in the hallway so that we don't 8 have to excuse you. The Court will still be in session. The Court marshal will be in 9 here. I just want to remind you that the recording will still be going and the Court will 10 still be in the session, and just give us a couple minutes.

11 [Sidebar -- not recorded]

12 THE COURT: Officer, we're going to get ready to seat 'em in the jury box.
13 So, if you'll have everyone come out of the jury box. Do the parties stipulate to the 14 presence of the jury panel?

15 MS. LUZAICH: Yes.

16 MS. ALLEN: Yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. At this time, the clerk's going to call the first 32 to sit in 18 the jury box. So, what's going happen are some of you are going to move out and 19 so I'm going to let the clerk go. Juror number 1.

20 THE COURT CLERK: Robert Newman, seat number 1.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Philips, if you'll step down, and Mr. Lau, if you'll 22 move to seat number 2.

23 THE COURT CLERK: Wai Lau, seat number 2. Then it'll be Jayson
24 Kamaunu --

25 THE COURT: So, Ms. Miller and Ms. Quattrone, if you'll step out of the box.

1 THE COURT CLERK: Jason Kamaunu, seat number 3.

2 THE COURT: You know, since we're using every single seat in the
3 courtroom, when I ask you to step in the back if you don't mind standing for just a
4 few minutes and then there will be some open seats for you to sit down. I don't 5 make you stand very long.

6 THE COURT CLERK: Steven Yowell, seat number 4; Timothy Geiger, seat
7 number 5; Melinda St. Clair, seat number 6; Ian Urquico, seat number 7. Second
8 row, Mona Stammetti, seat number 8; Nicholas Carlyn, seat number 9; Angel Diane
9 Marie Haber, seat number 10. Thank you. William Lambert, seat number 11;
10 Robert Allen, seat number 12; Eric Greenwood, seat number 13; Helen Stephens,
11 seat number 14; Monica Randolph, seat number 15; Yvonne Lewis, seat number 16;
12 Kathleen Smith, seat number 17; Lisa Mandel, seat number 18; Eugene Kordoban,
13 seat number 19; Diana Hayes, seat number 20; Nabor Torres, seat number 21;
14 Robert Bell, seat number 22; Dana Capitanio, seat number 23; Wilfred Bocage; seat
15 number 24; Elizabeth Spaur, seat number 15; Nicole Fried, seat number 26; Mindie
16 Barlow, seat number 27; Robin Powell, seat number 28; Millie Hiatt, seat number
17 29; Tracy Ence, seat number 30; Jennifer Hernandez, seat number 31; Godfred
18 Padernilla, 32;

19 THE COURT: All right. Now everyone else that's standing up, you can sit
20 wherever you want just not on that -- this front row. Okay. So, just find an open
21 seat. And every single seat will be taken. You know what, Officer? You're probably 22 going to have to get a chair because I don't want 'em to sit in this front row.

23 [Colloquy between the Court and the Court Marshal]

24 THE COURT: Let me ask the parties. Which would be the easiest four to 25 move up here? To me, it would have been 15, 16, 17, 18.

2 THE COURT: Okay. 15, 16, 17 and 18, if you'll come up here, and then
3 everyone slide down. Sorry. We have to use every seat.

4 [Colloquy between the Court and the Court Clerk]

5 THE COURT: She's 30. Okay. Where's number 31 and 32. Officer, where's
6 -- okay. Here's what I need. Jennifer Hernandez, you're sitting right here next to 7 Ms. Ence, and you're number 32. Okay. Now everybody can find a seat, just not in 8 the front row. That row is fine. Everyone should be able to find a seat now.
9 Perfect, perfect. Thank you very much. Thank you for our cooperation.

10 Mr. Newman, how long have you lived in Clark County?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Thirty-four years.

12 THE COURT: Your employment, training, and education background.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: I am a branch sales manager of Bank of the 14 West; high school, some college.

15 THE COURT: How much college?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: About freshman year.

17 THE COURT: Okay. So, one year. And I'm sorry. Will you state -- you're a 18 sales manager for --

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Sales manager for Bank of the West.

20 THE COURT: Okay. That's what I thought you said. What do you sell?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: New accounts, loans.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Divorced.

24 THE COURT: Do you have any children?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Four.

1 THE COURT: Are any of your four children old enough to be employed?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: No.
3 THE COURT: Okay. They're all minors?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Minors.
5 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know of any reason why you could not be a
6 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: No.
8 THE COURT: Thank you. Have you ever served as a juror before?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Yes.
10 THE COURT: Was it one time?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: One time.
12 THE COURT: And that was here in Clark County?
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Correct.
14 THE COURT: It was criminal?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Yes.
16 THE COURT: And you were selected to be the foreperson?
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Yes.
18 THE COURT: And without telling us what your verdict was, were you able to 19 reach a verdict?
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: Correct.
21 THE COURT: Anything about that that would affect your ability to be fair and
22 impartial in this case?
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: No.
24 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
25 impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #001: No, no, ma'am.

THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you. Thank you for being here.

Mr. Lau.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

THE COURT: Lau; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

THE COURT: How long have you lived in Clark County?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #002: More than thirty years.

THE COURT: Thirty years?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah.

THE COURT: Your education background.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Education?

THE COURT: Mm-hmm.

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Nine years.

THE COURT: Nine years. And you told me you're retired now; is that correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. And before you retired you worked in a restaurant as a cook; correct?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Are you married?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

THE COURT: Is your wife employed?

PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: No, retire.

THE COURT: She's retired as well?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah.
2 THE COURT: Do you have children?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah, I have two.
4 THE COURT: Two children?
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.
6 THE COURT: Are they old enough to work?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: They are -- yeah, working, yeah.
8 THE COURT: Okay. What do they do for a living?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: My son.
10 THE COURT: Uh-huh.
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: That one's a pharmacy.
12 THE COURT: Okay. Pharmacy --
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: And doctor.
14 THE COURT: I'm sorry.
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Medical doctor.
16 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know of any reason why you could not be a
17 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: What's that?
19 THE COURT: Do you know of any reason why you could not be a completely
20 fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah, because I'm citizen and then
22 [indiscernible].
23 THE COURT: Okay. Do you understand my question?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Not quite understand what you just said.
25 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know of any reason why you could not be a

1 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this jury panel?
2 Do you know of anything that would prevent you from being a juror on this jury
3 panel? Do you understand my question?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Not quite.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know of any reason --

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yes.

7 THE COURT: You understand so far?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: Yeah, any reason, yeah.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Why you could not be a completely fair and impartial 10 juror?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #003: I don't know.

12 THE COURT: Okay. You're not understanding my question now? Okay.
13 What I'm going to ask you to do is I'm just going to ask you to step out of the box
14 and you can go sit -- leave the microphone there. And I'm going to ask Danielle
15 Ross, Danielle Ross, you're going to become Juror number 2. Thank you, Ms.
16 Ross. Can you tell me how long you've lived in Clark County?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: For a little over 20 years.

18 THE COURT: And your education background?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Three years -- well all through college, three 20 years of college.

21 THE COURT: Okay. What'd you study in college?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I was a hotel major with a dance minor.

23 THE COURT: And you're single?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I am.

25 THE COURT: Yes?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Yes.
2 THE COURT: And you have one child?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Yes.
4 THE COURT: And he's a minor; correct?
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: Correct.
6 THE COURT: Do you know of any reason why you could not be a completely
7 fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve?
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: No.
9 THE COURT: Thank you. Have you ever served as a juror before?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: No.
11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.
12 Mr. -- can you pronounce your name for me?
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Kamaunu.
14 THE COURT: Thank you. How long have you lived in Clark County?
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Eleven years.
16 THE COURT: Your education background.
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Completed high school.
18 THE COURT: What do you do for a living?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: I work for Southern Wine and Spirits. I'm the 20 night warehouse foreman.
21 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Married.
23 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?
24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Yes.
25 THE COURT: What does she do?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: She manages a dental office.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any children?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Five.

4 THE COURT: Are any of 'em adults?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Yes; one.

6 THE COURT: Okay. One is? What does that child do for a living?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: She just moved out to Hawaii to go to school.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, she's attending college in Hawaii?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know of any reason why you could not be a
11 completely fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: No.

13 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #009: No.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you, sir. Thank you for being here.

16 Ms. Ross, I don't think -- did I ask you what you do for a living? I didn't 17 think I did. Can you tell us what you do for a living?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I work for a destination management
19 company.

20 THE COURT: What do you do?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #075: I'm a account executive, sales.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

23 Stephen Yowell.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes.

25 THE COURT: How long have you lived in Clark County?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Twenty-one years.

2 THE COURT: Your employment, education background.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Three years of college and I'm a pit manager
4 at a local casino.

5 THE COURT: How long have you done that?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Probably 12 years.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And what'd you study in college?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Electronic engineering.

9 THE COURT: Your marital status?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Married.

11 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes.

13 THE COURT: What does your wife do for a living?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: She's a paralegal.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know what law firm she works for?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes.

17 THE COURT: And what would that law firm be?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Parker and Associates.

19 THE COURT: Parker and Associates. Do you know what kind of law they 20 practice?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Construction defect.

22 THE COURT: Okay. And you understand if you're selected to serve on this 23 panel you can't discuss the case with anyone including your fellow jurors until you've 24 been discharged to deliberate upon your verdict which means you can't go home
25 and ask your wife any questions about the case.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes.
2 THE COURT: Do you understand that?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes.
4 THE COURT: Or anyone else for that matter. You understand that; correct?
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes; correct.
6 THE COURT: And you would comply with that order?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes, I can.
8 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any children?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Yes; I have three.
10 THE COURT: Okay. Are any of them adults?
11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: Two of 'em are adults.
12 THE COURT: Are they employed?
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: The oldest is employed getting ready to join
14 the Navy in August and the other one is in college.
15 THE COURT: Do you know of any reason why you could not be a completely
16 fair and impartial juror if you were selected to serve?
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: No.
18 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #011: No, ma'am.
20 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

7 THE COURT: Your marital status?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Married.

9 THE COURT: Is your wife employed?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Retired.

11 THE COURT: What did she do before she retired?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Housewife.

13 THE COURT: So, she'd have to retire from being a housewife?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: She's a volunteer for a senior center.

15 THE COURT: You were giggling before I even asked you that. Do you have 16 any children?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: I have two, a 45 year old and 40 year old.

18 THE COURT: And can you tell us what they do for a living?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: One works in telephone poling and the other
20 one is at home ill.

21 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Yes.

23 THE COURT: How many times?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Once.

25 THE COURT: Was that civil or criminal?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Criminal.

2 THE COURT: Were you selected to be the foreperson?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: No.

4 THE COURT: Without telling us what your verdict was, were you able to
5 reach a verdict?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Anything about that that experience that would affect your 8 ability to be fair and impartial juror in this case?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #012: No.

10 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
11 impartial juror if you were selected to serve?

24 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: A radiator repair shop.

1 THE COURT: Oh, okay. How long have you done that?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Since 2010.
3 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Married.
5 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Unemployed right now.
7 THE COURT: Do you have children?
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: We have five.
9 THE COURT: Are any of your kids old enough to be employed?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: All of them.
11 THE COURT: All five?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.
13 THE COURT: Okay. I want you to start at the top and tell us what each does 14 for a living.
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: My oldest works at Walmart in the back doing 16 returns.
17 THE COURT: Okay.
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: The second one, he cuts concrete.
19 THE COURT: Okay.
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: The other one lives in Georgia. I'm not sure 21 what he does.
22 THE COURT: You don't know what he does?
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: He's my stepson.
24 THE COURT: Okay. The fourth one.
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: She's a stay at home mother.

1 THE COURT: Okay. The fifth one.
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: She's in college in Texas.
3 THE COURT: Okay. Is that all? That was five.
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: That was all five.
5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Have you ever served as a juror before?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No.
7 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
8 impartial juror if you were selected to serve?
9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No.
10 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.
11 Mr. Ian --
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #015: Urquico.
13 THE COURT: Urquico.
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.
15 THE COURT: Is that right?
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.
17 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. How long have you lived in Clark County?
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Thirty-two years.
19 THE COURT: Your education background.
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I didn't complete high school and I'm a

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: Unemployed.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have children?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: Five.

9 THE COURT: Five kids. Are any of your five kids old enough to be 10 employed?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: Two.

12 THE COURT: Can you tell us what those two do for a living?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: Well one's not working. She's a full time
14 student for nursing school and the other one just graduated cosmetology school so 15 she's not working yet either.

16 THE COURT: Did she graduate from the school that you work at?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Have you ever served as a juror before?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: No.

20 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
21 impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #024: No.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: Uh-huh; elementary.

21 THE COURT: Your marital status.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: Married.

23 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: Yes.

25 THE COURT: What does your husband do?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: He's a budget analyst for NS Tech.
2 THE COURT: Do you have any children?
3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: Yes; three.
4 THE COURT: Three.
5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: Yes; minors.
6 THE COURT: Okay. Have you ever served as a juror before?
7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: No.
8 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
9 impartial juror if selected to serve on this panel?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #51: No.
11 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.
12 Robin Powell, Mr. Powell. How long have you lived in Clark County?
13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: Fourteen years in total; seven most recently.
14 THE COURT: Your education background.
15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: One year of college.
16 THE COURT: What'd you study?
17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: I think it was photography.
18 THE COURT: So, you had fun. What do you do for a living?
19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: I own a consulting firm.
20 THE COURT: What do you consult?
21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: Gaming industry; casino business.
22 THE COURT: Gaming.
23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: And intellectual property that we own.
24 THE COURT: Your marital status.
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: I lived with a partner and we have four children.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: Three are in college and one is working.

3 THE COURT: Four children. You have three in college.

4 THE COURT: Whoa. Okay. And one works. What does that child do?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: She works in the casino business in

6 Mississippi.

7 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: No.

9 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
10 impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: No.

12 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Again, thank you for being here.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #52: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Ms. Millie Hiatt.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: Yes.

16 THE COURT: How long have you lived in Clark County?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: Fifteen years.

18 THE COURT: Your education background.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: High school graduate.

20 THE COURT: What do you do for a living?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: I am now retired. I worked for 17 years for a 22 casino company as a product developer buyer.

23 THE COURT: Your marital status.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: Widow.

25 THE COURT: Do you have any children?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: I have two. My son is a firefighter in California
2 and my daughter is a property manager in Florida.

3 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: I was an alternate once when I lived in
5 California but we never got to trial. They settled before --

6 THE COURT: Okay. Was it civil or criminal?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: It was criminal.

8 THE COURT: Anything about that experience that would affect your ability to 9 be fair and impartial in this case?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: No.

11 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
12 impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #53: No reason.

14 THE COURT: Thank you. Ms. Tracy Ence. How long have you lived in Clark
15 County?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Fifty-five years.

17 THE COURT: Your education background.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Bachelor of science in dental hygiene.

19 THE COURT: What do you do for a living?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: I'm a dental hygienist.

21 THE COURT: Your marital status.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Married.

23 THE COURT: Is your husband employed?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Yes.

25 THE COURT: What's he do?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: He works for a trust company.

2 THE COURT: And what does he do for the trust company?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: He's a manager.

4 THE COURT: Do you have children?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Five children.

6 THE COURT: Are any of them old enough to be employed?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: Yes; they all are.

8 THE COURT: Can you tell us what each does for a living?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: The oldest is a business development officer
10 for a aerospace company; the second is a -- works at the school in their resource --
11 learning resource center. She's a school teacher but isn't practicing that right now.
12 The third is a school teacher on maternity leave; the fourth is a college student, and 13 the fifth is a senior in high school.

14 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: No.

16 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
17 impartial juror if you were selected to serve on this panel?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #56: No.

19 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you for being here.

20 Ms. Hernandez. Good afternoon. How long have you lived in Clark
21 County?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Two years.

23 THE COURT: We got you too right at the two year deadline. Your education
24 background.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: High school diploma; current student.

1 THE COURT: Where do you go to school?
2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: UNLV.
3 THE COURT: What are you studying?
4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Business administration.
5 THE COURT: What year are you in?
6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Sophomore.
7 THE COURT: Okay. Do you have a problem with midterms?
8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: No.
9 THE COURT: You don't have 'em next week?
10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: I'm actually taking a semester off right now.
11 THE COURT: Oh, okay. So, you're not currently enrolled?
12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: No.
13 THE COURT: All right. Do you work?
14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Yes.
15 THE COURT: What do you do?
16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Retail sales.
17 THE COURT: Your marital status.
18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: Single.
19 THE COURT: Any children?
20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: No.
21 THE COURT: Have you ever served as juror before?
22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: No.
23 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
24 impartial juror if selected to serve on this panel?
25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #67: No.

1 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

2 Okay. Mr. Padernilla.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you. Have long have you lived in Clark County?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: Seven years and 11 months.

6 THE COURT: Your education background.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: BSN graduate; registered nurse.

8 THE COURT: Okay. What area do you work in? Do you work in a hospital?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: I work as a charge nurse in a long term care.

10 THE COURT: A charge nurse in a long term care.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: That's it.

12 THE COURT: Okay. So, you're in charge of all the other nurses? Isn't that 13 what a charge nurse means?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: Yeah, yeah. That's right.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So, you have -- you also have a four year degree in 16 nursing; correct?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: Five years.

18 THE COURT: Five years.

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: [Indiscernible].

20 THE COURT: Okay. Your marital status.

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: Divorced.

22 THE COURT: Do you have children?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: No.

24 THE COURT: Have you ever served as a juror before?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: No.

1 THE COURT: Any reason why you could not be a completely fair and
2 impartial juror --

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: No.

4 THE COURT: -- if you were selected to serve on this panel?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #74: No.

6 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Thank you very much.

7 Okay. I just have a few questions and these questions are going to be 8 for the jury panel as a whole. So, if you want to answer this question, raise your 9 hand and remember to state your name and badge number before responding.

10 Have you or anyone close to you such as a family member or friend
11 ever been the victim of a crime? Have you or anyone close to you such as a family
12 member or friend ever been the victim of a crime? Okay. Remember, these are 13 only for the 32 that are in the box. So, if you're not in the box, you don't have to 14 answer right now, but you'll have to answer if you get in the box. So, thank you very 15 much for paying such good attention. Go ahead, sir.

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #30: I got jumped at a --

17 THE COURT: Badge number.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Eric Greenwood, Badge number 30.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: I was with my sons at a Shakey's Pizza in 21 California and a guy pulled a pipe on me and told me he was going to beat me up.

22 THE COURT: And then you did get beat up?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, I ran 'em off.

24 THE COURT: You what?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: I ran 'em off but then the cops came. So,

1 technically I was jumped but nothing came of it.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, they didn't take any of your property?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: And you didn't get hurt?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, ma'am.

6 THE COURT: But the police came?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Did they ever catch the person?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: They did.

10 THE COURT: All right. Did you have to go to Court and testify?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, ma'am.

12 THE COURT: What happened as a result of them catching the perpetrator?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: They just came to my house and showed me
14 the pictures of the fellows and I was to identify the ones that did it.

15 THE COURT: There were more than one?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: One drove a truck, like a getaway truck, and 17 the other guy was the guy that pulled the pipe on me.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And so you identified them?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Yes.

20 THE COURT: And then what happened after that, if anything?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Yeah, I never really heard. They just said,
22 okay, that's who we thought it was and we'll need you if we need you.

23 THE COURT: And so you didn't follow up on it?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, ma'am.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Were you happy with how the case was handled?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: It was fine because I didn't get injured and
2 they didn't my hurt my kids so I was good.

3 THE COURT: All right. So, were you happy with the way the police handled
4 it?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Yeah, they did fine.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: Anything about that experience that would affect your ability to
9 be fair and impartial in this case?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #030: No, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Helen Stephens, Juror 32. My van was stolen
13 from in front of my home about five years ago. I actually caught the guy later in the 14 afternoon in the neighborhood in the van and I disabled my van by running into the 15 front tire. My father had told me if you ever need to stop a car run into the tire and 16 make it bend in and they won't go anywhere. And the police were called. I had a 17 cellphone. The police were called.

18 THE COURT: You ran into the van?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes, with my rental.

20 THE COURT: With what?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: With my rental.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes; I had lots of claims that year. There was 24 a trial. I was called.

25 THE COURT: So, the police caught the person?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes.

2 THE COURT: They see him.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And that person got arrested?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Got charged?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And it actually went to trial?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes; he went to trial. Actually he had a bunch
10 of stolen cars all over the city and he left his key ring with the little lockbox key for 11 dealerships on there and they were able to trace all these cars and get 'em back.
12 So, he got 15 years.

13 THE COURT: So, did you have to come to Court and testify?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: And was that in this courthouse?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: No; it was in North Las Vegas.

17 THE COURT: Okay. But you never had to come here?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: No.

19 THE COURT: All right. You only had to testify in North Las Vegas?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Right.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Were you happy with the way it was handled?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: I wasn't real happy with the police letting him
23 get away. I told them where he was.

24 THE COURT: How'd he get away? I thought you stopped him.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: He jumped out the van. It crashed into the

1 sidewalk. He jumped out of the van, cussed me out, and ran down a drainage ditch.
2 But he just went back around the corner to the house he was staying at. I told the
3 policeman if he would just wait a minute I was pretty sure the guy was going to 4 come out 'cause he wasn't too bright.

5 THE COURT: He wasn't what?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: He wasn't very smart.

7 THE COURT: Oh, okay.

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: He took the stolen van back to my own
9 neighborhood.

10 THE COURT: Yeah, not very bright.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: So, as I was going back in to my 12 neighborhood, this guy comes walking down the sidewalk in different clothes
13 carrying plastic bags and nodded at me, and I said, well, that's him. I threw on the 14 brakes and he took off running. So, I just went home and called the police again
15 and told 'em.

16 THE COURT: But they eventually apprehended him?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Four days later, yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay. And you were -- I mean, besides that, were you happy
19 with the way it was handled?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: Yes, I was.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience that would affect your
22 ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #032: No, I don't think so.

24 THE COURT: Don't take this lady's car. Thank you.

25 Anyone else? Okay. Pass it down here.

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: I've just had multiple --

2 THE COURT: Your name and badge number.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Oh, sorry. Yvonne Lewis, number 37.

4 I've had multiple cars broken into and property stolen, like a purse and CDs and
5 stuff like that. Neither case was solved or the person caught or anything that I know
6 of came out of it.

7 THE COURT: Anything about those experiences that would affect your ability
8 to be fair and impartial in this case?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: No.

10 THE COURT: Thank you.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Hi. Kathleen Smith, number 40. I was a
12 victim of domestic violence.

13 THE COURT: Okay. When was that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: About two, three years ago.

15 THE COURT: All right. And I'm assuming that was your spouse?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And the police were called?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Did it have to go to trial in the case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Yes.

21 THE COURT: All right. Did you have to go to Court and testify?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Were you happy with the way it was handled?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that case that would affect your ability to

1 be fair and impartial in this case?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: No.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And you're not married anymore?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: We're separated.

5 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Did you ever have to come to this courthouse
6 and testify?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: It was in North Las Vegas.

8 THE COURT: North Las Vegas. Okay. Thank you. Anyone else over here
9 in the box?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Mona Stammetti, number 20.

11 While we were at work our apartment was broken into and a lot of 12 things were stolen, and we've had property taken from our truck.

13 THE COURT: Anything about those experiences that would affect your ability
14 to be fair and impartial in this case?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: I don't think so, no.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those -- because you're the only one 17 who can tell me. So, were they separate events? So, someone burglarized your 18 home?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: They were separate events. It was in 20 California; it was kind of traumatic --

21 THE COURT: Sure.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: -- at the time, and I wasn't happy with the way
23 it was handled.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So, when was your home burglarized? That was in 25 California; correct?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: It was in California in '89.

2 THE COURT: And why weren't you happy?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: In California, Southern California all the cities
4 kind of run together and we found some of my property in a pawn shop.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: And the police told us they wouldn't really do
7 anything unless -- they wouldn't go to the pawn shop and research anything unless 8 they were after something in particular, like they had another reason to go there,
9 they wouldn't follow up on it.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So, you weren't happy with the way it was handled --

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: No.

12 THE COURT: -- I'm assuming it wasn't solved?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: No, it wasn't.

14 THE COURT: Okay. And then you said your car was broken into?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: At Long Beach State. Actually they took the 16 tailgate off my new truck.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And the police were called?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Yes, and nothing ever came of that.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Were you happy with the way that was handled?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: No.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Because?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Because you couldn't hardly even talk to 23 someone. They're just so overwhelmed --

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: -- that they weren't going to do anything.

1 THE COURT: Do you believe the police were overwhelmed?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: I believe so, yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And that maybe this might have been minor to them --

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Yes.

5 THE COURT: -- but it was a huge deal to you?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those experiences that would affect
8 your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: No.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else? Right there.

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #042: Eugene Kordoban, 42.

12 My car was stolen out of my garage in 2004. They found the car after 13 the insurance took possession of it. So, I saw the car to get any personal stuff out of 14 it. There was drug paraphernalia and needles and stuff inside the car. Luckily I
15 went into the -- where you put your glasses, you know, and I opened it up and there 16 was needle in there. Scary, scary. The police handled it as best as they could.
17 They found the car and found him because of a broken taillight which is kind of cool.
18 But I never had to testify because the insurance company had it.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience that would affect your
20 ability to be fair and impartial in this particular case?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #042: None.

22 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: Robert Bell, number 46.

24 I've had multiple -- let's see -- bicycles stolen; my wife's car stolen; our 25 house has been broken into. Nothing ever went to trial. Nobody ever got caught for

1 it.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Did you call the police every time?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: Were you happy with the way they handled the cases?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: No, no. Not much was handled. But when 6 our home was broken into the door was kicked in and my wife was under the 7 assumption that they were still there because all our valuables, our guitars,
8 everything, was all still hanging on the wall that she could visibly. So, she was -- it
9 was well over an hour. She called me. I brought my vehicle back to the yard, got 10 my personal vehicle, came back, beat the cops there by 45 minutes.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: That was a little disappointing.

13 THE COURT: So, you weren't happy about that because you thought the 14 intruders were still in your home?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: Mm-hmm.

16 THE COURT: Were they?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those experiences that would affect
19 your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: No.

21 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #049: Elizabeth Spaur, 49.

23 When I was in college my car was stolen. The police did recover it. I
24 don't believe they ever caught who stole it but my car was recovered with minor
25 damage. And then right after my husband and I moved here to Las Vegas, his car

1 was broken into while we were at the IHOP on Tropicana, and we reported it to the 2 police but nothing was ever happened. They didn't take the car. They just took 3 personal property out of the car.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those experiences that would affect
5 your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in this case?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #046: No.

7 THE COURT: Thank you. Anyone else?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #052: Robin Powell, 52. My house was broken into 9 back '88 and my personal effects were stolen, family heirlooms and stuff like that.

10 THE COURT: Were the police called?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #052: Oh, yes.

12 THE COURT: Did they catch the person?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #052: No.

14 THE COURT: Were you happy with the way the police handled it?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #052: They did as much as they could.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience that would affect your
17 ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #052: No.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Anyone else? Okay. The record will reflect no
20 further response from the panel.

21 Have you or anyone close to you such as a family member or friend
22 ever been the victim of a sexual assault, sexual abuse or domestic violence other
23 than what you've already told us about? Go ahead, ma'am.

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Nicole Fried, number 50.

25 When my mother was younger she was molested repeatedly by her

1 uncle.

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Okay. So, I'm assuming you know that
3 because your mother told you about it?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

5 THE COURT: All right. How old were you when your mother told you about 6 that?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Just recently she told me.

8 THE COURT: And what was the -- I guess the reason for tell you that?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: She just kept it hidden inside for so long and 10 now that I guess I'm older and we're friends now, you know, like mother and 11 daughters are. As the daughter gets older she just divulged the information to me.
12 Now I understand a lot of the issues that she had. I didn't really know when I was 13 growing up, but now I understand like, you know, the reasons why she did a lot of 14 the things that she did.

15 THE COURT: Did she report it?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: She had told her parents and they just didn't 17 do anything about it, old school Italian family, sweep it under the rug kind of a thing.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that that would affect your ability to be
19 fair and impartial in this case?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Possibly, yeah.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well we need to know that.

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Yes, it will?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. How so?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Just because my mother and just from --

2 THE COURT: And I always feel terrible having to ask you these questions
3 because they're so personal. When did your mother disclose this to you?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Maybe about three years ago.

5 THE COURT: Okay. But you understand what happened to your mother and 6 what goes in here are completely separate things?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes, I do.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, you wouldn't want to take out on anybody else what 9 happened to your mother; correct?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah, I wouldn't.

11 THE COURT: All right. And you agree with me as the Defendant sits here
12 today, he's innocent?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Do you agree with that?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And you understand the State of Nevada has the burden of 17 proof. They have to establish each of the material elements as alleged in their 18 charging document by proof beyond a reasonable doubt?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Do you understand that?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah. Everyone's entitled.

22 THE COURT: Okay. If the State fails to meet their burden of proof, what 23 verdict are you going to return if the State does not meet their burden of proof?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Okay. Well then he wouldn't be guilty.

25 THE COURT: Okay. And if they do meet their burden of proof?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Then guilty.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So, how is what happened to your mom interfere with 3 that?

4 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: I guess it wouldn't then.

5 THE COURT: Well I don't know. I'm not trying to talk you out of it. I'm trying 6 to figure out if it's going to really interfere with your ability to be fair and impartial.
7 Here's the bottom line. Everybody comes to this courtroom with life experiences.
8 I'm not going to every find anybody that doesn't have a life experience. Okay. What
9 I need to know is if you're a person that can leave those life experiences at the door
10 and come in here with an open mind and judge this case based solely upon what 11 you see and hear in the courtroom and the instructions on the law which will be 12 given to you at the end of the case.

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Okay. I could do that.

14 THE COURT: Can you do that?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Will you be able to set aside what happened to your 17 mother and not judge this case based upon what happened to your mother?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Okay. And now you said you're friends with your mother?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah, really close.

21 THE COURT: Does she live here in Clark County?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: No, they live in New York.

23 THE COURT: All right. So, I'm assuming you communicate with her by 24 talking on the phone?

25 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Constantly, yes.

1 THE COURT: All right. Every day?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah, every day.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, you understand that if you're asked to be a juror on 4 this case you could not talk to her about this case; do you understand that?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah, yeah, I understand.

6 THE COURT: When you talk to her every day you could tell her you're a juror
7 in a criminal case but you couldn't tell her anything else; do you understand that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Absolutely.

9 THE COURT: And you would comply with that?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yes.

11 THE COURT: But when you're done, when you're discharged as a juror, you
12 could talk to anyone or you don't have to talk to anyone. It's completely up to you;
13 do you understand that?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Well what if you returned a verdict in this case, let's say 16 a not guilty verdict, would you have a problem telling your mom that?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: No, I wouldn't just because it's different from 18 what happened to her.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So, you wouldn't have any fear of any ramifications or 20 your mom being upset with you?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: No, no.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So, we wouldn't have to worry about you trying to return
23 a verdict that would make your mom happy?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: No.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about what happened to your mom that is

1 going to interfere with your ability to give the State of Nevada and this gentleman a
2 fair trial?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: No.

4 THE COURT: Okay. And, again, I'm sorry we had to ask those questions.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #050: That's okay.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Anyone else?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #40: Can you repeat the question again?

8 THE COURT: Have you or anyone close to you such as a family member or 9 friend ever been the victim of a sexual assault, sexual abuse or domestic violence?
10 So, other than what you've already disclosed to me, ma'am, will you state your 11 name just so the -- will you state your name and badge number?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: Kathleen Smith, Badge 40.

13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Again, I see some people that are not in the 14 32 raising their hands. I'm so appreciative everybody's paying attention because 15 you may end up here in the box. But I don't need you to answer these questions.
16 They are just for the first 32. So, is there anyone in the first 32 that needs to 17 respond. Ms. StClair, go ahead.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Melinda StClair, Badge 14.

19 My mom had domestic violence when we were growing up.

20 THE COURT: Your mom was what?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: My mom had some domestic violence. We 22 were growing up with my stepfather. He also molested my two oldest sisters.

23 THE COURT: Okay. The same person?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So, your mom was a victim of a domestic violence?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Did you witness it or did you hear about it?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I seen her black and blue from head to toe.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So, you knew that that was a result of stepdad?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Yes?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Did she ever call the police?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I'm not sure. I was young. I can't remember
10 that part.

11 THE COURT: Okay. How old were you?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Seven, eight.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So, you were really little?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience that would affect your 16 ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No.

18 THE COURT: And then you said something about your older sisters were 19 molested?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah; he molested both of them.

21 THE COURT: Okay. How did you come to find out that?

22 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: They mentioned it later on in life.

23 THE COURT: So, after they became adults?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I guess when they were younger and
25 teenagers and stuff. There was a lot going on and I guess I was left out of it 'cause I

1 was younger.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. Again, you were like seven or eight?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Okay. But your older sisters, are they -- how much older are 5 they than you?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Seven, eight years old.

7 THE COURT: Okay. And they disclosed it?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

9 THE COURT: When they were teenagers?

10 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah, to my mom.

11 THE COURT: Okay. How did you find out about it?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: There was a lot of animosity because my 13 mom didn't believe them.

14 THE COURT: Okay. So, sisters disclosed it to mom; mom, you believe,
15 didn't believe the sisters?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Correct.

17 THE COURT: Okay. But you're so little. Did you figure this all out on your 18 own?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah.

20 THE COURT: Okay. And then what -- did the police ever get called?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I'm not sure. I know that they -- after he beat
22 her black and blue he was gone.

23 THE COURT: Okay. She made him leave?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I'm not sure.

25 THE COURT: Okay. So, stepfather was gone at some point, and even today

1 you don't know why he left?

2 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No. I know that he contacted my mom a few
3 years ago and she told him do not -- do not come see me or I will let my daughters
4 know where you're at.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So, has she since kind of changed her opinion?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: My mom passed away in 2012.

7 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry. I'm sorry. But it sounds like at some point she 8 changed her opinion on whether your sisters were telling the truth or not?

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah, she did. She starting coming to be a
10 little bit smarter than she was then.

11 THE COURT: So, at first she didn't believe it?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Right.

13 THE COURT: And then she came around --

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

15 THE COURT: -- and believed it. Okay. Was it ever reported to the police?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I don't think so.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And it sounds like you kind of know all this because you 18 figured it out?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Right.

20 THE COURT: Did your sisters ever tell you?

21 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: We never have really talked about it.

22 THE COURT: Okay. It's something that's not really talked about?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Right.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those experiences that would affect
25 your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else? Thank you.

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: I also had some domestic violence with my 4 husband.

5 THE COURT: I apologize. Oh, I'm sorry. Okay.

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: It's all taken care of though.

7 THE COURT: All right. Can you just give me a brief statement of what 8 happened.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: We got into a really fight and he went to jail.
10 He got out and went to drug therapy.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Did you call the police?

12 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And they came and got him?

14 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yep.

15 THE COURT: And he was arrested?

16 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yep.

17 THE COURT: And he was charged?

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Yeah. The charges were dropped, I believe.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: He didn't have to go to class or anything.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, he went to jail and he got out but he was never 22 charged with anything?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: He had to go to Court but I don't -- I think they 24 dropped it because he was going to class.

25 THE COURT: What kind of class?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: A drug therapy behavioral -- Nevada
2 Behavioral Center.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So, you think that because he was going to some 4 classes that the government didn't proceed against him?

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Correct.

6 THE COURT: Did you ever talk to him about it?

7 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: Well we're still married.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I'm just wondering.

9 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: But, yeah, we talked about it. You know, we 10 worked our problems out and everything.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about that experience that would affect your 12 ability to be fair and impartial?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else?

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #014: No, thank you.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I'm sorry you had to tell us that but thank you very 17 much. I know I had a lot of hands. Go ahead.

18 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Hello. Yvonne Lewis, number 37. I just grew
19 up in a home with a lot of domestic violence. My mother was actually the aggressor
20 and the cops were called more times than I can remember, and being this little third 21 grade talking to judges and whatnot, that was about it. Once I was old enough to 22 fight back, it stopped.

23 THE COURT: Oh, you mean it was against you?

24 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: My dad and myself. She was a big woman.

25 THE COURT: From your mom?

1 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Yeah.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And so you or your father would call the police on her?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Or the neighbors or whoever saw what was 4 going on, but yeah.

5 THE COURT: And she would get arrested?

6 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Sometimes. Sometimes they would just be
7 separated for a few months and then she'd come back. It was just a, you know,
8 periodic thing. Every couple years she would go crazy and beat somebody up and 9 then leave. But small towns and, you know, things are kind of just -- don't do it
10 again and then they came back.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about those experiences that would affect
12 your ability to be fair and impartial?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: No.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #037: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Anyone else in the box?

17 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: Mona Stammetti, number 20.

18 My mother was sexually molested by her brother.

19 THE COURT: Okay. How did you come to find out about that?

20 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: She told me probably 30 years ago.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Was that her first disclosure or had she told somebody 22 else?

23 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: I know she told my dad. She was married
24 to my dad at the time. And then my best friend was molested by her father. She 25 and her sister were both molested by her father.

1 THE COURT: Anything about those experiences that would affect your ability
2 to be fair and impartial?

3 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #020: No.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Diana Hayes, number 44.

6 My mother was a victim of incest from her father.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Now how did you come to know that?

8 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Probably about ten years ago, my aunt, her
9 sister, and I were talking.

10 THE COURT: And who told you?

11 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: She did, my aunt.

12 THE COURT: Your aunt told you that that happened to your mother?

13 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #044: Right. There's some question whether or not 14 my aunt is my sister.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything about -- I'm sorry -- anything about that 16 experience that would affect your ability -- and again I'm sorry, I'm sorry, Ms. Hayes, 17 -- anything about that disclosure and learning that that would affect your ability to be 18 fair and impartial?

19 PROSPECTIVE JUROR #040: I've heard you ask the other people and I
20 want to say the answer's no, but it's -- I mean, I'm surprised at my own reaction. So,
21 my concern would --

22 THE COURT: Would you rather -- Ms. Hayes, if you want to approach the 23 bench you can. Is that more comfortable? Okay. It's Badge number 44, Ms.
24 Hayes. You can approach the bench.

25 [Bench conference -- begins]
