12. Nature of action.

Appellant was charged with Battery Constituting Domestic Violence, Burglary, First Degree Kidnapping, Battery with Intent to Commit Sexual Assault, Battery with Use of a Deadly Weapon Resulting in Substantial Bodily Harm Constituting Domestic Violence, Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Child Abuse, Neglect, or Endangerment with Use of a Deadly Weapon, and Preventing or Dissuading Witness from Testifying or Producing Evidence. A jury found him guilty of Battery (Misdemeanor), Battery Constituting Domestic Violence, Child Abuse, Neglect, or Endangerment, and Preventing or Dissuading Witness from Testifying or Producing Evidence.

13. Issues on appeal.

The trial court erred by denying Appellant's Motion for a Mistrial.

The trial court erred by limiting Appellant's cross examination of the victim, violating Appellant's right to confrontation.

Prosecution committed misconduct in its rebuttal argument.

Trial court erred by admitting impermissible hearsay evidence.

Appellant's right to a fair trial was violated by cumulative errors.

14. Constitutional issues: N/A

15. Assignment to the Court of Appeals or retention in the Supreme Court.

NRAP 17(b)(2)(A), "appeals from a judgment of conviction based on a jury verdict that do not involve a conviction for any offenses that are category A or B felonies are presumptively assigned to Court of Appeals." Since this case involves Category A felonies, this case is not presumptively assigned to Court of Appeals.

16. Issues of first impression or of public interest. This appeal does not present a substantial legal issue of first impression in this jurisdiction or one affecting an important public interest.

17. Length of trial. This action proceeded to trial in the district court and lasted seven (7) days.

18. Oral argument. I would object to submission of this appeal for disposition without oral argument.

19. District Court announced decision, sentence or order appeals from on 07/03/2018.

20. The date of entry of written judgment or order appealed from was 08/29/2018.

(a) There was a written judgment in district court.

21. This was not an appeal from an order granting or denying a petition for a writ of habeas corpus.

22. The time for filing the notice of appeal was not tolled by a post judgment motion.

23. Notice of Appeal was filed on 07/30/2020.

24. The statute governing the time limit for filing the notice of appeal is NRAP 4(b).

25. The statute that grants this court jurisdiction to review from is NRS 177.015(3).
