DEPUTY CLERK

To Whom It May Concern,

I have four rental properties in Las Vegas, Nevada. If this Mediation Rules is imposed, I will end up not paying my mortgage payments. All my rental properties will end up in foreclosure and the banks will own them. The banks will sell the properties and evict the tenants anyway.

If this happens to all the rental property owners, Las Vegas will be in recession again.

Thank you for your consideration.

Stay safe,

Tim Sevilla
Rental Property Owner
