12 Pursuant to NRAP14(d), “A motion for an extension of time within which to file the 13 docketing statement will be granted for good cause.” This case was docketed on July 31, 2020.
14 Counsel was under the mistaken belief that the trial transcripts have already been filed from the 15 listing of documents on the Eighth Judicial District Court Portal. But the listings under the title
16 “jury trial” were actually minutes from the days of trial instead of actual transcripts. The mistake
17 was entirely Counsel’s fault. A motion requesting for extension was made on August 28, 2020,
18 more than a week tardy. The Court granted the motion extending the deadline to September 21,
19 2020. Another extension was requested when the trial transcripts weren’t ready by September 21,
20 2020 and the new due date for the Docketing Statement is October 21, 2020.

22 The trial transcripts were filed on October 12, 2020. However, counsel needs more time to 23 review the trial transcripts, one thousand, two hundred, and sixty eight (1268) pages in length.
24 Counsel is respectfully requesting an additional two weeks to file the Docketing Statement. This 25 motion was made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.
