JOURNAL ENTRIES

- Court reviewed prior sentencing hearing and request for continuance to consider potential withdrawal of plea. Counsel notes Defendant in custody on another matter. Upon Court's inquiry, Mr. Coyer stated Defendant entered a plea in this matter; and pled to a charge higher than the original charge based on negotiations that another matter, a trafficking charge, which would be dismissed in Justice Court pursuant to these negotiations. Further, it now appears the other case in Justice Court was not ripe to prosecute and now may be bound over on that trafficking charge. Counsel expressed concern that perhaps he needed to look into the other case further, which counsel did not view based on the negotiations in this case. Counsel requests to remain on the case and have the plea in this matter reviewed by independent counsel to see if Defendant has grounds to withdraw his plea in this case given the circumstances. Counsel notes if withdrawal of plea not due to ineffective assistance of counsel, Mr. Coyer wants remain in the case, otherwise he will submit to the discretion of the Court. COURT ORDERS, matter referred to the Office of Appointed Counsel for appointment of conflict counsel to review the plea agreement for withdrawal of plea. FURTHER, sentencing in this matter is stayed pending resolution of the review of the review of the plea agreement and outcome.
