MOTION FOR COURT'S REVIEW OF THE ORIGINAL EXHIBITS

9 COMES NOW, Appellant, Dustin Barral, in pro se, requesting that this
10 honorable court review the original exhibits in the Appellants case.

11 This is made based upon all papers and pleadings in this case.

12 According to NRAP 30(d) it states "The court will not permit the 13 transmittal of original exhibits except upon a showing that the exhibits are 14 relevant to the issues raised on appeal, and that the court's review of the 15 original exhibits is necessary to the determination of the issues." For the 16 following reasons, the Appellant, believes this court should direct the 17 district court clerk to transmit the original exhibits and for this 18 court to review the exhibits:

19

REASONS

20 It should be noted to this court that the Appellant still has not 21 recieved an Order of Denial from District Court. It's been 6 weeks his 22 denial and he still does not know the exact issues/reasons why he
23 was denied. So the basis of this motion is based on the court

24 minutes he was sent. In the minutes from Nov 7th, 2022 the judge
25 said she denied his motion based on the State's Opposition.

26 According to the State's Opposition pg 6 line 24 it states "Defendant's 27 repeated same assertions are nothing more than bare, naked claims."

28 Also on pg 6 lines 25 through 28 the State says that the Appellant is

1 trying to make the State prove that the Nevada Revised Statutes are
2 unconstitutional. These are untrue assumptions. The Appellant never
3 once shifts the burden to the State. There are over 150 pages of 4 original exhibits that not only show that his claims are neither bare
5 or naked but these 150 pages are the proof of his argument and burden.
6 2. The State in its Opposition never acknowledges the existence of over 150
7 pages of exhibits. Those almost 30 exhibits are the foundation for the 8 Appellant's Motion and Memorandum.

9 CONCLUSION

10 For the above reasons this court should approve this motion and 11 direct the district court clerk to transmit the original exhibits for deis
12 court's review in the instant case.
