C. NDOC Regulations Governing Inmate Deposits and Deductions

As the deposit was made in January 2020, it is governed by Administrative Regulation (AR) 258, effective date May 15, 2018. Exhibit B. This regulation was signed by the previous NDOC Director James Dzurenda and not the current Director Charles Daniels. Id. at 23. Pursuant to AR 258, the NDOC may deduct up to 50% of a deposit to pay for costs incurred by the NDOC on behalf of the inmate pursuant to NRS 209.246. Id. at 7. These costs include postage and copy work.

Inmate deductions are made by individuals assigned to the NDOC's Purchasing and Inmate Services Division. Declaration of Venus Fajota, attached as Exhibit C. Director Daniels, Officer Potter, and Officer Garrett are not involved in the banking division, did not make or approve the identified deductions, and are otherwise uninvolved in inmate banking. Id.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

A. Motion To Dismiss Standard

A pleading is subject to certain rules; primary among them is that a plaintiff's complaint must adhere to Nev. R. Civ. P. 8(a), which provides:

A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief... shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief; and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief the pleader seeks. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

the sufficiency of the complaint. See Crucil v. Carson City, 95 Nev. 583, 585, 600 P.2d 216, 217 (1979) ("[T]he pleading of [a] conclusion, either of law or fact, is sufficient so long as the pleading gives fair notice of the nature and basis of the claim."). Nevertheless, even under the notice pleading standard, "[a] complaint must set forth sufficient facts to establish all necessary elements of a claim for relief . . . so that the adverse party has adequate notice of the nature of the claim and relief sought." Hay v. Hay, 100 Nev. 196, 198, 678 P.2d 672, 674 (1984) (internal citations omitted).

The State of Nevada follows a notice pleading standard as to Nev. R. Civ. P. 8(a) and Nev. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(5) allows this Court to dismiss a complaint for "failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted." When reviewing a motion to dismiss under Nev. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(5), this Court "must construe the pleadings liberally and accept all factual allegations in the complaint as true." Blackjack Bonding v. City of Las Vegas Mun. Court, 116 Nev. 1213, 1217, 14 P.3d 1275, 1278 (2000). In doing so, "this [C]ourt must draw every fair inference in favor of the non-moving party." Id. "A complaint will not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond a doubt that the plaintiff could prove no set of facts which, if accepted by the trier of fact, would entitle him or her to relief." Id. (quoting Simpson v. Mars Inc., 113 Nev. 188, 190, 929 P.2d 966, 967 (1997)).

Dismissing a complaint with prejudice is appropriate when it is clear that allowing a plaintiff an opportunity to amend would be futile. See Lucas v. Dep't of Corr., 66 F.3d 245, 248-49 (9th Cir. 1995) (per curiam) (holding a district court does not abuse its discretion by dismissing a pro se complaint if it is clear that the deficiencies cannot be cured by amendment); see also Cook, Perkiss & Liehe, Inc. v. N. Cal. Collection Serv., Inc., 911 F.2d 242, 247 (9th Cir. 1990). (emphasis added)

В. Motion For Summary Judgment Standard

Summary judgment is an important procedural tool by which "factually insufficient claims or defenses [may] be isolated and prevented from going to trial with the attendant unwarranted consumption of public and private resources." Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 327, (1986). Summary judgment should be granted when there is no genuine issue of material facts. Boesiger v. Desert Appraisals, LLC, 135 Nev. 192, 194, 444 P.3d 436, 439 (2019). To survive summary judgment, the nonmoving party "must do more than simply show there is some metaphysical doubt as to the operative facts." Id. (internal quotation and citation omitted).

 $\frac{21}{22}$

IV. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A. The State Of Nevada Is Not A Person

This Court should dismiss the State of Nevada and NDOC with prejudice because states and their political subdivisions are not persons for the purposes of §1983 litigation. "[A] litigant complaining of a violation of a constitutional right does not have a direct cause of action under the United States Constitution but must utilize 42 U.S.C. § 1983." Arpin v. Santa Clara Valley Transp. Agency, 261 F.3d 912, 925 (9th Cir. 2001). "[A] State is not a 'person' within the meaning of § 1983[.]" Will v. Michigan Dep't of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 65 (1989); see also Cuzze v. Univ. & Comm. Coll. Sys. of Nevada, 123 Nev. 598, 605 (2007).

Under both United States Supreme Court and Nevada Supreme Court precedent, states and their political subdivisions are not proper parties for §1983 litigation. Here, Bonham alleges violations of his constitutional rights and thus he must bring his action pursuant to §1983. See Arpin, 261 F.3d at 925. Because Bonham must bring his action pursuant to §1983, he cannot name the State of Nevada nor the NDOC. Lastly, this complaint does not contemplate any declarative relief which in certain limited circumstances make the inclusion of the State appropriate.

Accordingly, these Defendants must be dismissed with prejudice.

B. Bonham Failed To Allege Personal Participation

1. There Are No Allegations Of Personal Participation

"Prison officials are deliberately indifferent to a prisoner's serious medical needs when they deny, delay, or intentionally interfere with medical treatment[.]" Hamilton v. Endell, 981 F.2d 1062, 1066 (9th Cir. 1992). "In order for a person acting under color of state law to be liable under section 1983, there must be a showing of personal participation in the alleged rights deprivation: there is no respondent superior liability[.]" Jones v.

Williams, 297 F.3d 930, 934 (9th Cir. 2002); see also Bacon v. Williams, No. 77135-COA, 2019 WL 4786883, at *1 (Nev. App. Sept. 27, 2019) (upholding the district court's dismissal of an inmate complaint for failing to allege how each defendant personally participated in the alleged violation as required by §1983). The Nevada Court of Appeals further held that denying a grievance is insufficient to demonstrate personal participation. Id (citing cases demonstrating the denial of a grievance is insufficient to establish personal participation).

This Court should dismiss Director Daniels as there are no allegations that Director Daniels participated in the alleged deprivation or withheld any of the deposited funds. Instead, Bonham alleges Director Daniels is liable because Bonham told Director Daniels about the alleged violation and Director Daniels failed to correct it. Complaint at 2. However, the Nevada Court of Appeals has already held this allegation is insufficient to create personal participation. Moreover, the Director is not involved with inmate account management. These automatic deductions are undertaken by Purchasing and Inmate Services.

Likewise, Officers Potter and Garrett are entitled to dismissal for lack of personal participation. Bonham alleges only that they were aware of the alleged violation and failed to stop it. Id. at 2. Bonham even alleges that Officer Garrett is sued because he was in a supervisory position. Id. However, both the Ninth Circuit and Nevada Court of Appeals have noted that there is no supervisory liability in §1983 matters.

2. Summary Judgment Is Appropriate

This Court should dismiss with prejudice because Bonham cannot demonstrate the named Defendants personally participated in the alleged violations. The named Defendants supervise "custody staff" not banking staff. The Defendants do not work in the banking department, did not handle the deposit, did not make any of the deductions, and only became aware of the alleged violation after the fact. Exhibit C at 2:13-19. Accordingly, &lt;sup>1</sup> Custody staff is the generally used term to refer to NDOC employees that work in the correctional institutions and have direct contact with inmates. This is in contrast to banking employees, that oversee the banking division, or the medical employees that oversee medical treatment.

Bonham cannot demonstrate that any of the named Defendants personally participated in the alleged deprivation. Therefore, these Defendants are entitled to summary judgment.

Initially, the party moving for summary judgment bears the initial burden of showing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact. U.S. v. Weiss, 847 F.Supp. 819, 826 (D. Nev. 1994). Once the moving party meets this burden, by presenting sufficient evidence, the burden then shifts to the nonmoving party. Id. at 826-27. The nonmoving party must then "set forth specific facts demonstrating that there is a genuine issue for trial." Id. at 827 (citing Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. at 250). "If the factual context makes the respondent's claim implausible, that party must come forward with more persuasive evidence than would otherwise be necessary to show that there is a genuine issue for trial." Id. (citing Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323-24 (1986).

C. Deducting Nine Dollars Did Not Violate Bonham's Rights

As an initial matter, it appears Bonham is not challenging the deductions for the financial certificate, the legal copies, or the savings account as he alleges he should have received $30.00 from the deposit. Complaint at 3. Thus, Bonham is left with the allegation that deducting the additional $9.00 for postage violated his constitutional rights. Bonham's claim fails as a matter of law.

It appears Bonham bases his claim on the allegation that the legal postage deduction violated AR 258 because, when combined with the copy work deductions, it exceeded 50% of the deposit ($75.00 (legal copies) + $9.00 (postage) = $84.00, which is more than 50% of $150.00). However, AR 258 does not create any substantive rights. Bonham brings claims under the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments.

Although similar, the amendments have differing standards. The Takings Clause limits the government's ability to take property without paying for it.<sup>2</sup> Vance v. Barrett, III

&lt;sup>2</sup> As an threshold matter, there was no seizure or taking as the money was not taken for the government but was instead applied to pay debt Bonham admittedly incurred and authorized. This would be tantamount to a government entity deducting funds to pay for the payee's child support. The government does not keep the funds but instead applies it to an accrued debt.

345 F.3d 1083, 1086 (9th Cir. 2003). While the Due Process Clause requires appropriate procedural protections when the government takes property. Id.

The Ninth Circuit has already held the NDOC may deduct funds to pay for expenses incurred in maintaining and operating inmate accounts. Id. at 1089 ("[w]e have no trouble concluding that the officials may deduct [expenses relating to inmate accounts]). Here, Bonham does not allege the legal copy charges or the legal postage charges were incorrect or unauthorized. Instead, Bonham simply complains the NDOC deducted too large a percentage to pay these debts. As Bonham has not alleged or demonstrated that he did not authorize these charges, the Defendants are entitled to summary judgment on the Fifth Amendment claim.

Likewise, the Defendants are entitled to summary judgment on the Fourteenth Amendment clause. The Due Process Clause requires prison officials create adequate procedurals governing inmate bank accounts. Id. at 1090-91 (discussing that prison administrators must create procedural safeguards, in compliance with statutory authority authorizing the deduction). Here, there is no dispute that NDOC has statutory authority to deduct money from inmate deposits. Specifically, NRS 209.246 states the NDOC Director, with approval from the Board of Prison Commissioners, may establish regulations authorizing the deduction of a "reasonable amount" of money from inmate deposits.<sup>3</sup>

As NDOC has statutory authorization to deduct money to pay for legal postage and copies, the next inquiry is whether there are competent procedural safeguards. Here, the III

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of subsection 1, expenses for medical or dental care, prosthetic devices and pharmaceutical items; and

(b) Photocopying of personal documents and legal documents, for which the offender must be charged a reasonable fee not to exceed the actual costs incurred by the Department;

uncontested evidence demonstrates NDOC's AR's are competent procedural safeguards because they provide both pre and post deprivation guidelines and reviews.

A Court recently found that AR 258, when combined with AR 740's grievance procedures, "provide adequate procedural protections" and thus does not violate the Due Process Clause. Antonetti v. McDaniels, No. 3:16-cv-00396-MMD-WGC, 2021 WL 624241, at * 21 (D. Nev. Jan. 25, 2021); see also Beraha v. Nevada, 3:17-cv-00366-RCJ-CLB, 2020 WL 3949223, at *5 (D. Nev. Apr. 27, 2020).

As a threshold matter, NDOC's alleged violation of its own policy does not create a Due Process violation. The Supreme Court has already rejected the argument that prison regulations create a liberty interest and therefore violations of policy violate the Due Process Clause. See Sandin v. Conner, 515 U.S. 472, 482-84 (1995) (rejecting the argument that a prison regulation creates a liberty interest protected by the Due Process Clause); see also Machlan v. Neven, No. 3:13-cv-00337-MMD, 2015 WL 1412748, at * 12 (D. Nev. Mar. 27, 2015) (aff'd, 656 F. App'x 365 (9th Cir. 2016)) ("Stated differently, prison officials do not offend the Constitution by ignoring prison [regulations]). Thus, the question is not whether NDOC violated its own regulations, but whether NDOC has appropriate safeguards to govern deductions. 4 Multiple courts have already answered in the affirmative

Administrative Regulation 258 provides the first safeguard concerning inmate accounting issues. Inmates with concerns regarding deductions or other banking issues can submit a fiscal inquiry regarding the issue. Exhibit B at 17-18. The inmate's caseworker first attempts to address the issue, and if they are unable to, the issue is escalated to Inmate Services Banking Services (ISBS). Id. at 18. Thus, AR 258 creates at least two safeguards for inmate deductions.

Additionally, AR 740, the grievance process, creates yet another safeguard for inmate deductions. Exhibit D. Inmates who believe the banking division made an error may submit a grievance challenging the action. Exhibit D at 3 (noting inmates may file grievances alleging harms). Grievances go through at least three different levels of review. First, the informal grievance is reviewed by the assigned caseworker. Id. at 9-11. Second, the inmate may appeal and grievance denial to the Warden's office for review. Id. at 11-13. Third, the inmate may appeal the Warden's decision to a Deputy Director for review. The Deputy Director of Support Services reviews second level grievances concerning banking issues. Id. at 13.

As there is statutory authority authorizing the Director to determine the appropriate deduction percentage, and there are appropriate procedural safeguards, Defendants are entitled to summary judgment on all claims.

D. Defendants Are Entitled To Qualified Immunity

This Court should hold Defendants are entitled to Qualified Immunity on all claims. It is a long-standing principle that governmental officials are shielded from civil liability under the doctrine of Qualified Immunity. Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800, 818 (1982).

The defense of qualified immunity protects "government officials . . . from liability for civil damages insofar as their conduct does not violate clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known." The rule of qualified immunity "provides ample support to all but the plainly incompetent or those who knowingly violate the law." "Therefore, regardless of whether the constitutional violation occurred, the officer should prevail if the right asserted by the plaintiff was not 'clearly established' or the officer could have reasonably believed that his particular conduct was lawful." Furthermore, "[t]he entitlement is an immunity from suit rather than a mere defense to liability; ... it is effectively lost if a case is erroneously permitted to go to trial."

Shroeder v. McDonald, 55 F.3d 454, 461 (9th Cir. 1995) (emphasis in original; internal citations omitted).

When conducting the Qualified Immunity Analysis, courts "ask (1) whether the official violated a constitutional right and (2) whether the constitutional right was clearly established." C.B v. City of Sorona, 769 F.3d 1005, 1022 (9th Cir. 2014) (internal citation omitted).

The second inquiry, whether the Constitutional right in question was clearly established, is an objective inquiry that turns on whether a reasonable official in the position of the defendant knew or should have known at the time of the events in question that his or her conduct was Constitutionally infirm. Anderson v. Creighton, 483 U.S. 635, 639-40 (1987); Lacey v. Maricopa Cty., 693 F.3d 896, 915 (9th Cir. 2012). Only where a governmental official's belief as to the constitutionality of his or her conduct is "plainly incompetent" is Qualified Immunity unavailable. Stanton v. Sims, 134 S.Ct. 3, 5 (2013) (per curiam). Governmental officials are entitled to high deference when making this determination, (Anderson, 483 U.S. at 640), requiring the Court to assess whether Qualified Immunity is appropriate "in light of the specific context of the case." Tarabochia v. Adkins, 766 F.3d 1115, 1121 (9th Cir. 2014) (quoting Robinson v. York, 566 F.3d 817, 821 (9th Cir. 2009)). The Ninth Circuit recently clarified that Qualified Immunity applies when "their conduct does not violate clearly established Statutory or Constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known[.]" Emmons v. City of Escondido, 921 F.3d 1172, 1174 (9th Cir. 2019).

In determining "whether a [constitutional] right was clearly established," this Court is to survey the law within this Circuit and under Supreme Court precedent "at the time of the alleged act." Perez v. United States, 103 F.Supp. 3d 1180, 1208 (S. D. Cal. 2015) (quoting Cmty. House, Inc. v. City of Boise, 623 F.3d 945, 967 (2010) (citing Bryan v. MacPherson, 630 F.3d 805, 933 (9th Cir. 2010)). As such, "liability will not attach unless there exists a case where an officer acting under similar circumstances... was held to have violated the [Eighth Amendment.]" Emmons, 921 F.3d at 1174 (citing White v. Pauly, 137 U.S. 548, 551-52 (2017) (per curiam). Although there need not be an identical case, "existing precedent must have placed the . . . question beyond debate." Ashcroft v. al-Kidd, 563 U.S. 731, 741 (2011).

Although Defendants do not concede they violated any constitutional right, to the extent this Court concludes otherwise, Defendants argue such a right was not clearly established at the time of the alleged violation.

The question presented for this Court's review, is whether there is a clearly established constitutional right prohibiting prison officials from deducting more than 50% of an inmate's deposit to pay for an inmate's debt. Defendants contend there is not any authority that clearly establishes the maximum percentage that can be deducted. See Loard v. Sorenson, 561 F. App'x 703, 705 (10th Cir. 2014) (noting Utah deducts 60% of an inmate's wages to pay restitution).

Assuming this Court then concludes that the $9.00 was erroneously deducted, the next determination is whether prison officials were clearly aware that the procedural safeguards in place violated the Due Process Clause. Here, Bonham cannot demonstrate prison officials were on notice that AR 258 and AR 740 did not create adequate safeguards. Bonham cannot do so because at least two other Courts have already concluded that AR 258 and AR 740 were appropriate safeguards. Antonetti v. McDaniels, No. 3:16-cv-00396-MMD-WGC, 2021 WL 624241, at * 21 (D. Nev. Jan. 25, 2021); see also Beraha v. Nevada, 3:17-cv-00366-RCJ-CLB, 2020 WL 3949223, at *5 (D. Nev. Apr. 27, 2020).

V. CONCLUSION

This attempt fails because: (1) Bonham did not demonstrate how each Defendant allegedly participated in the violation, (2) NRS 209.246 authorizes the Director to deduct a reasonable amount from inmate deposits, (3) the NDOC did not seize Bonham's funds as it was applied to Bonham's own debts, (4) courts have already concluded AR 258 and AR 740

- 11. The money deducted from Inmate Bonham's account was deducted to pay for legal copies that Bonham had authorized. As Bonham did not have sufficient money on his account to pay for the copies initially, he incurred a debt when he purchased the copies. Thus, the deduction was used to pay his debt.
- 12. Similarly, the money deducted for postage was used to pay for mail that Bonham wished to mail out. The NDOC did not steal Bonham's money but instead used it to pay off various debts Bonham had incurred, as authorized by NRS 209.246.

28 C.F.R. Part 115

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this Administrative Regulation ("AR") is to set forth the requirements and procedures of the administrative process that Nevada Department of Corrections ("NDOC") inmates must utilize to resolve addressable grievances and claims including, but not limited to, claims for personal property, property damage, disciplinary appeals, personal injuries, and any other tort or civil rights claim relating to conditions of confinement. The provisions of this AR shall be effective on or after the effective date of this AR. The provisions of this AR are not retroactive and do not apply to incidents and/or claims that occurred prior to the effective date of this AR. Only inmate claims arising out of, or relating to, issues within the authority and control of the NDOC may be submitted for review and resolution by way of the grievance process. The inmate must state the action or remedy that will satisfy the claim in the grievance.

On December 31, 2020, Plaintiff Bryan Bonham (Bonham) completed service of the Complaint on Defendants Charles Daniels and the Nevada Department of Corrections. Pursuant to Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure (NRCP), Defendants had until February 15, 2021, to file an answer or responsive pleading.<sup>1</sup>

On February 8, 2021, before the responsive deadline, Defendants filed a motion to extend time to respond from February 15, 2021, to April 1, 2021. Defendants contended good cause supported the extension based upon counsel's heavy workload and that counsel was scheduled to be out of the office for an extended period of time.

Plaintiff filed an opposition to this motion, contending that an answer was due on December 1, 2020,<sup>2</sup> not February 15, 2021. Plaintiff contended he was thus entitled to default judgment as Defendants had not responded.

Having reviewed the briefing, this Court FINDS oral arguments were not necessary and decided this matter in chambers.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

This Court FINDS service was completed for Defendant Charles Daniels and the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) on December 29, 2020. There has been no service completed for Defendants Garret or Potter.

Pursuant to NRCP 12, Defendants had until February 15, 2021, to file a response to the Complaint. Defendants then filed a timely motion for an extension of time to file an answer or other responsive document.

Courts may extend a deadline to file an answer if the Defendant demonstrates good cause. NRCP 6(b)(1)(B)(i). Here, the Court finds good cause exists based upon counsel's

Case Number: A-20-823142-C

I. INTRODUCTION

 $\mathbf{2}$

This Court should deny Plaintiff's Motion for Appointment of Counsel and for an Evidentiary Hearing. Plaintiff is an experienced litigator who has cases pending in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Nevada Supreme Court, and the United States Federal Court. Further, this matter is not particularly complex or confusing as it centers on whether the Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights by deducting nine dollars ($9.00) to pay for postage.

II. BACKGROUND

This is an inmate civil rights action centering on whether the Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights by deducting funds to pay for debt Plaintiff incurred. On April 5, 2021, Defendants filed a motion to dismiss, or in the alternative, motion for summary judgment.

Plaintiff now seeks appointment of counsel to assist him with this matter.

III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

A plaintiff in a civil rights action does not have a constitutional or statutory right to court-appointed counsel. Storseth v. Spellman, 645 F.2d 1349, 1353 (9th Cir. 1981). However, 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(1) allows this Court to "request an attorney to represent any person unable to afford counsel." A motion for appointment of counsel is rarely granted unless "exceptional circumstances" exist. U.S. v. 30.64 Acres of Land, 795 F.2d 796, 799-800 (9th Cir. 1986). The plaintiff bears the burden of proving "exceptional circumstances." Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 1017 (9th Cir. 1991).

A finding of "exceptional circumstances" requires a court to evaluate (1) the plaintiff's likelihood of success on the merits and (2) the plaintiff's ability to articulate his claims pro se considering the complexity of the legal issues involved. Id. Neither factor is dispositive, and both factors must be considered before a court decides. Id. The difficulties every litigant faces when proceeding pro se do not qualify as an exceptional circumstance. Wood v. Housewright, 900 F. 2d 1332, 1335-36 (9th Cir. 1990) Wilborn v. Escalderon, 789 F.2d 1328, 1331 (9th Cir. 1986). While almost any pro se litigant would benefit from the assistance of competent counsel, such a benefit does not rise to the level of "exceptional circumstances." Rand v. Rowland, 113 F.3d 1520, 1525 (9th Cir. 1997), opinion restated in pertinent part, 154 F.3d 952, 954 n.1 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc). Rather, the plaintiff must demonstrate that he is unable to articulate his claims due to their complexity. Id. Defendants will analyze both factors, supra, as those factors pertain to the facts and claims Plaintiff's brings against them and show that this Court should deny Plaintiff's Motion.

A. Plaintiff Is Unlikely To Succeed On The Merits

The first factor requires Plaintiff demonstrate the likelihood of success on the merits of his claims in his Motion. Wood, 900 F.2d 1332, 1335–36 (9th Cir. 1990); Wilborn, 789 F.2d 1328, 1331 (9th Cir. 1986). Plaintiff has failed to meet this first factor, making no attempt in his Motion to argue that he is likely to succeed on the merits of his claims.

Indeed, other courts have already found that the NDOC's banking policies do not violate the Due Process cause. See Antonetti v. McDaniels, No. 3:16-cv-00396-MMD-WGC, 2021 WL 624241, at * 21 (D. Nev. Jan. 25, 2021); see also Beraha v. Nevada, 3:17-cv-00366-RCJ-CLB, 2020 WL 3949223, at *5 (D. Nev. Apr. 27, 2020). Accordingly, Bonham is unlikely to succeed on the merits.

B. This Matter Is Not Complex

The parties agree that deductions occurred, that Bonham had incurred debt and that it appears as though the NDOC deducted more than 50% of the deposit. Thus, the question is whether NDOC's policies, when taken as a whole, violate the Due Process clause. Plaintiff has already identified caselaw and prepared a "memorandum" in support of his case, which attempts to preempt Defendants' arguments at summary judgment. See December 22, 2020 filing. Accordingly, Plaintiff has demonstrated an ability to articulate his positions.

FINDINGS OF FACT

On December 31, 2020, Plaintiff Bryan Bonham (Bonham) completed service of the Complaint on Defendants Charles Daniels and the Nevada Department of Corrections. Pursuant to Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure (NRCP), Defendants had until February 15, 2021, to file an answer or responsive pleading.<sup>1</sup>

On February 8, 2021, before the responsive deadline, Defendants filed a motion to extend time to respond from February 15, 2021, to April 1, 2021. Defendants contended good cause supported the extension based upon counsel's heavy workload and that counsel was scheduled to be out of the office for an extended period of time.

Plaintiff filed an opposition to this motion, contending that an answer was due on December 1, 2020,<sup>2</sup> not February 15, 2021. Plaintiff contended he was thus entitled to default judgment as Defendants had not responded.

Having reviewed the briefing, this Court FINDS oral arguments were not necessary and decided this matter in chambers.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

This Court FINDS service was completed for Defendant Charles Daniels and the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) on December 29, 2020. There has been no service completed for Defendants Garret or Potter.

Pursuant to NRCP 12, Defendants had until February 15, 2021, to file a response to the Complaint. Defendants then filed a timely motion for an extension of time to file an answer or other responsive document.

Courts may extend a deadline to file an answer if the Defendant demonstrates good cause. NRCP 6(b)(1)(B)(i). Here, the Court finds good cause exists based upon counsel's

To:

All NDOC Inmates

Subject: Revisions to AR 258 - Inmate Fiscal Procedures for Inmate Banking

As indicated with my memorandum dated November 28, 2018, the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC) has been working diligently to implement the constitutional amendment that expands the rights guaranteed to victims of crime, commonly known as "Marsy's Law". To comply with the constitutional requirements, NDOC revised the deductions and sequence of deductions from immate revenues, including incoming deposits and payroll. The change to the percentages and sequence of deductions will be effective September 1, 2020, and are listed in the tables at the end of this memorandum.

In addition to the changes to deductions discussed above. NDOC is making the following changes to be effective at the same time:

Effects to Savings Account:

- The Savings Account minimum balance is increased from $400 to $550 [AR 258.0], ID(2)].
- The Inmate Savings Withdrawal Request (DOC-515) is no longer required for withdrawals from a Savings Account to a pre-authorized housing partner identified by the Re-Entry program and included in an approved parole or release plan and is exempt from the minimum required balance identified above. Any withdrawal to any other housing or not included in an approved parole or release plan must follow the Inmate Savings Withdrawal Request process and may be exempt from the minimum required balance identified above [AR 258.01, D(5)b).
- The Savings Account may now be used to pay off department debt, even if doing so brings the account below the minimum required balance. Immales may use the limited Savings Withdrawal Request to initiate the process.

- Elimination of the Gift Deposit program (AR 258.03): NDOC previously allowed inmates to receive up to $500.00 in specially identified deposits twice per year that were not subject to statutory deductions; commonly referred to as Gift Deposits. NDOC does not have any statutory requirement to provide the program and determined the gift deposit program will no longer be authorized in light of the passage of Marsy's Law.
- Transfer of Inmate Funds (AR 258.13, 4): A fully executed Settlement Agreement and Full & Final Release is a legal order and shall be used in lieu of an Inmate Transaction Account Request (brass slip) to satisfy court-ordered obligations/expenses from an inmate's account.

If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact your caseworker or the Inmate Services Banking Section.

SUBJECT: Update on status of Proposed Revisions to AR 258

DATE: 10/09/2020 08:30 AM

Good Morning!

You are recieving this update in response to your letter expressing concerns to the revisions of AR-258.

Yesterday was a truly amazing and historical day! Yesterday, we took the next step in action to stop the implementation of the Directors plan to permanently change AR258 to what we now call the 80% deduction.

As you know, the first step was talking to some of your families, and using word of mouth both inside and outside to educate everyone on what was happening and what we knew of the changes that were happening. We do have new info from vesterday that Director Daniels and John Borrowman from financial services never got this plan approved prior to implementation, which is part of how we ended up where we are.

The second step was an aggressive letter writing campaign from both the inside and outside. All of your letters were critically important in all of this action. You may not realize but as a group, Return Strong Members and the ACLU have done 2 TV interviews and 3 newspaper interviews about this issue and have been approached by 2 reporters about doing regular columns and pieces on NDOC and the issues that are so often swept under the rug. WE DID THAT TOGETHER. Now, people are paying attention to more than just the deductions. THAT HAS NEVER HAPPENED IN NEVADA!!

The third step, members of Return Strong attended and overwhelmed the public comments at the Advisory Commission on the Administration of Justice Meeting last week. You may have never heard of them, but it is a committee of about 60 people who are connected to everything related to criminal justice in Nevada (the Executive Director of the ACLU, Public Defenders office, attorneys, the Attorney General). We showed up and read your letters out loud, one example after another that beautifully and painfully told the story of your plight and the abuse and harm that this 80% restitution was causing. As your family and loved ones, we told the story of the impact it has on us. Together, we caused a RUCKUS. Those leaders on that committee were shocked and outraged and wanted something done about it.

So that meeting, FORCED a meeting of the Board of Prison Commissioners that happened yesterday. That board is made up of the 3 most powerful people in that state of Nevada. Governor Sisolak, Attorney General Aarond Ford and Secretary of State Barbara Cegsveake. We had a plan and we showed up again, but this was the CRAZY thing, it was just the 20 or so people from Return Strong, the word was out and over 100 people were logged onto that meeting. The Governor had been told that there were 7 people in line for public comments but there were so many people they couldn't get their technology to work. Your letters were not accounted for and the ACLU immediately jumped in and got it stratightened out and the Governor tabled the vote and called it off. I was heartbroken, because I knew you all were counting on us. BUT it gets better. The Governor stated that with all of the chaos, they refused to vote until he heard the testimony from your letters and our voices. He said to be fair, he needed to understand before he would move forward. I thought then, we just were going to have to wait.

Then a miracle happen, just thinking about it I am crying again. As the meeting was ending, Governor Sisolak said he wanted to go back to the agenda item regarding inmate deductions because he was not comfortable leaving the temporary AR in place and leaving the 80% in place while they research Marsy's law requirements (which does not support this!!! AT all), talks to all key stakeholders and reads all your letters and listens to all of us. He put Daniles and John Borrowman on the spot and wanted to know what it would take to revert back to the original AR until all of that could be done, and a new meeting and vote could be scheduled. There was some back and forth conversation that was a roller coaster ride. We were celebrating because we thought they were going to suspend the temporary AR, then someone argued that they can't, then the could. YOur Team at Return Strong was a mess! Cheering, then cursing, then crying, then cheering. THEN they voted on whether to suspend the temporary 80% and return to the status quo, meaning back to the original AR. I thought I was going to throw up.

Governor Sisolak was amazing and he went hard for all of us. I want you to know that. Governor Sisolak made the motion and said he voted to yes to return to the original AR. Attorney General Ford voted yes. And the Secretary of State voted yes. To unanimously end the 80% deduction immediately.

We STILL have some fighting to do but we are in a great position and YOU are on the offensive and NDOC and Director Daniels are on the defensive. The alot of questions to answer and the Board isn't favoring what was done or how it was done.

So effective yesterday, your deductions immediately went back to the status quo. Back to what they were before we were all blindsided by this. The original AR is in effect so that should include gift coupons. WE WON!!! (FOR NOW)

NDOC said they needed a few hours to handle the computer side of changing the deductions but it was supposed to be done by last night. I would encourage people to do a $10 test first, before loading money on your account, to be safe.

More info to come, but in the meantime, go back to the people who didn't write a letter because they weren't impacted. Or didn't believe we could take on NDOC and win. Remind them of this, something is different now. And people in power are listening to the problems with the criminal justice system and the prison system in ways they never have. We are ready to fight with you but we can't do it alone. Keep writing letters until I tell you to stop. Talk to someone today. I can't guarantee we will win everytime, but I can guarantee this, if you do nothing, you definitely won't win. You do nothing, you get nothing. And that my friends, is real life.

In Solidarity,

Jodi & the Amazing Team of Bad Ass Women at Return Strong

FROM: JLhocking24@gmail.com TO: 0060575 BONHAM, BRYAN P SUBJECT: Return Strong Monthly Update

DATE: 11/10/2020 09:23 AM

Good Morning,

We haven't forgotten you! The work out here continues every day, without fail. I want to start out today's update with some clarification of what Return Strong! Families United for Justice for the Incarcerated is, and is not, because we get mail regularly that makes it clear there is some confusion on those things. (Which is okay, we kind of dropped out of the sky, and no one knew).

First, what we are is a small group of VERY committed women who believe in justice and the power of collective action (working together rather than individually to elevate issues) and being the voice of for our loved ones to strategically (yes, we obsessively PLAN) fight for change and accountability both within NDOC but also in the criminal justice system at large. One of the main ways that we do that is by elevating your voices and your experiences and stories to shine a light on things that are not seen out here.

We believe that conditions in the culture of America are prime for change in the criminal justice system. The conversations we are having with people in power and the things I am sure you see happening on tv depict conditions that haven't really existed since the civil rights movement. Nevada has traditionally been far behind on that work but that has changed. I know it is hard to imagine or believe but there is a growing hunger to understand how mass incarceration happened and as people learn and understand, they want to do something about it. We are using this opportunity to educatie and move people to fight on behalf of all of you.

Second we are a large group of family members who believe in the movement and come in, get educated and then stay ready to be called on when needed for collective action. So far, we have seen the impact of that by the fight to revert AR258 back to the status quo (what it was before the change), getting word out regarding the IRS stimulus checks and applying pressure to NDOC to get the information out to you. We have only been in existence a short time, and have made tremendous impact and will continue to do so.

Here are two immediate ways you can help: 1. Make sure all your loved ones know about the group, they can find us on Facebook or email at NevadaStrongFamilies@gmail.com. AND 2. Encourage them to get educated and get involved. They don't have to take on everything, encourage them to get educated and be ready for when we need them to stand with us. 3. Spread the word about the group inside and ask others to spread the word to their families.

We currently have about 200 people on our mailing list, if each of you told 2 more people inside, we would be at 600 by the end of the year. If half of you told familiy members, and they became involved we would have 300 activists out here fighting for you. We can't do this alone.

Now, I want to tell you a little about what we are not. We are not a non-profit organization at this time, so we do not have funding. We do not have staff. All of us on the leadership team (and the Activists that are participating) are volunteers. Most of us are working full time jobs, some multiple jobs and have lives and children and everything that comes with that AND we work on fighting for you every single day. Without fail. OUr activists show up without question when we tell them we need them to show up for something. The take time off their jobs, and drop whatever is happening in life and they show up. Most of us do it specifically because a person we love is inside, and this fight empowers us. Many of us have felt helpless to help you for a very long time. We wrote letters and made phone calls to Rhonda Larsen and Wardens and have been disrespected and laughed at and ignored to the point we couldn't take it anymore. This fight empowers us. Maybe we can't fix the system for our loved one alone, but maybe, there is a glimmer of hope that we can fight together to change it for the greater good.

We are also not a legal service, none of us are lawyers or paralegals, we can't give legal advice and at this time, we do not have the manpower to even read legal paperwork and file it. We also, do not have the financial capabilities to return legal paperwork to you if you send it to us. If you did, we will eventually be able to send it back but at the moments, we do not have funding to do that. We kept your paperwork though and will return it as soon as we are able.

Sensitive But Unclassified

We are not a support group in the traditional sense of the word. We are not hand holders and back patters, we are ass kickers and name takers. We are affiliated with a support group on Facebook: Nevada Strong Prison Wives and Families. Many of our members are part of both groups. There are a zillion support groups available but we are the only activism group that is actively fighting for you in this manner. Many, like Hope for Prisoners and CURE ADVOCATE for you, that is very different. Not right/wrong, personally I believe we need both but I want you to understand how we are different. For those in our group though, we have each others back in real life. Not just on facebook. We hold each other accountable and while you will probably get a hug on a dark day, then you are going to get a boot in the ass and told to dry your face and get back to the fight. I hope people understand adovocacy/support and activism are very different but can absolutely exist together.

We are not a pen pal service. Thank you, and we appreciate that you recognize some amazing women but we are not personally available for pen pals, as all of us are in committee relationships which inspire the work that we are doing. In addition, we are not posting or looking for pen pals for anyone. Not because we don't think everyone deserves love, but because we are focused on reimaging prisons and deconstructing the system of control that currently exists to create something that looks remotely like justice. Personal letters, photos and pen pal requests will not be answered or returned. WE just do not have the resources to handle them. We LOVE your thank you cards though. They were amazing and inspired us to keep fighting.

So, not onto updates!

First on AR-258 that is still being reviewed by the Director's office and Secretary of State Barbara Cegavske's office. The Director had been "encouraged" to allow Return Strong, the ACLU and a few other organizations to work on the draft with him, but he denied us the opportunity to do that.

In addition, at the Prison Board of Commissioner's meeting, NDOC was directed to go back to the old AR-258. It was never specified about the gift coupons but the motion made by the Governor and passed by the BOPC was to return to the status quo. They only reversed the deductions and never reinstituted the gift coupons. We are currently working on getting that corrected and have been told once they receive direction, if told to, they will reinstitute the gift coupons and make it available for the same number it days it was before. Currently no movement, but we are working on it.

We anticipate that there will be changes to AR258 at some point in the near future. Marsy's Law was a ballot initiative that passed in Nevada a few years ago, gives them the right to take "fair and timely restitution" for victims. Marsy's law doesn't give them the right to financially rape inmates and their families. In many other states Marsy's Law has been implemented in ways that are fair to everyone. For instance in South Dakota, inmates work out a budget from their funds and choose the amount to pay to their restitution. In most other states they are only allowed to deduct money from "wages", regardless of what happens, I want you to anticipate there will VERY LIKELY be changes to the AR and deductions, that seems unavoidable, but I am hopeful that as we continue to fight, it will be something reasonable and we will be able to protect a minimum amount of money on your books before deductions can be taken. (We are working on it).

I can't promise we will win everytime, but I can promise if we sit by and do nothing, we will lose everytime.

The next update is regarding the urgency surrounding COVID and the outbreak that is happening. In the past few days NDOC and the DOH have confirmed over 100 new cases and growing daily. Warm Springs has been hit the worst so far. As families, we are very frustrated with the wall of silence regarding what is happening. NDOC was getting away with that when there were only 22 confirmed cases in the state prisons, and they continuously said they had it controlled. I would say that was never true, it has been a nightmare waiting to happen and now it is force. WE are working on getting some accountability and transparency to start. One of the ways that you can help is by providing us first hand accounts as to your observations and experiences in relation to COVID.

I will be sending a survey out, hopefully tonight and would ask that everyone write a letter and provide us with information and data as to what you are experiencing so we can review it next to what NDOC is saying, and what the Department of Health is saying. Something does NOT add up, and we have been tracking information daily to try to figure out exactly what is happening, so tomorrow look for that, and please get the information to us as quickly as possible.

Our last item agenda is for the legislative session and work we are doing around changing laws within the criminal justice system. This is still in process and we are working with a coalition of organizations that are fighting for justice. Soon, I will be sending a survey/letter prompt to get your stories and the impact of multiple issues that we are working on.

Your letters are courageous and fearless and we read them all because they are the key to guiding us on this fight. We don't

Good Morning,

Lots of information to get to you today. I do not have enough characters for it all.

First, some housekeeping. Please include your name and back number/unit on EVERY correspondance!

If possible, no staples/tape when you send us papers. Maybe number the pages 1 of 6 etc. It makes it difficult to scan or copy.

If you are released, and you want to bring your voice into the work we are doing, YOUR voice is powerful because you have experienced all of the things first hand. We want to talk to you. Make sure you contact us either on FB or Call.

AR258 Update:

Yesterday, the BoPC voted to accept a temporary revision to AR258. The deductions will cap/max at 50% (NOT 80-100%), there is no gift coupon and it will be effective at some point this week. They said they would definitely implement by Friday, and it could be as early as yesterday/today.

They did not make a decision regarding returning funds that were taken in September. That will be voted on at the next BoPC meeting, that should happen in April-ish. There are some reasons that provide a precedence for why it should be returned, but I am sure NDOC is going to fight that. IF you have ideas on that WRITE US.

I will say that at first I was PISSED. No lie, but I had to remind myself of two things:

First, if we didn't fight, nothing would have changed. You would have continued with the 80& since September and never had any relief. A smart guy told me that the only people who never lose, are those who don't ever fight. Facts!

Second the fight isn't over. WE have several options still in play and are working on them. Legal action, fighting for constitutional ammendments (which isn't likely but it is an option), the legislative process (we are working with lawmakers on laws that would supercede this action taken on the AR's and provide you some protection) and the fact that this is a temporary AR. So the game isn't over. We don't quit until every possible relief is exhausted. You with me?

COVID-19 Meetings with the Task Force:

There are many things that we have put on the table, and currently-there has not been alot of action but the wheels move to slow for my liking and this is a marathon.

We addressed PPE issues and provided potential solutions to the Task Force re: N95 masks and hand sanitizer stations being installed in high traffic areas on the tier and near phones, chow halls when they open back up.

We have fought for a waiver for all medical co-pays related to the pandemic as well as free remedies for symptoms: tylenol, cough drops/medicine etc. Nevada is currently the ONLY state that hasn't waived medical copays during the pandemic.

We have asked for all programming days since March to be restored both retroactively and granted for going forward until full programming can be implemented. (In process, waiting for a final decision that is taking forever).

We are fighting for compassionate release. IF YOU are over 65 and have completed 50% of your sentence, have a terminal or life threatending illness, are disabled or have other factors that may qualify you for compassionate release please WRITE US immediately and include the details of your situation. Including if you you have a home to release to in Nevada if you were released. If you write regarding this, I will be responding to you individually if I need more information. If possible please give me a family member/friend that I can contact out here if I need to reach you quickly. WE ARE GOING TO WALK THROUGH THIS TOGTHER. NDOC makes it nearly impossible, so we are helping where we can.

We are fighting for a rapid release program. It doesn't exist yet but we are gradually gaining an ear of people who could make it happen. Most of you have already contacted us about this but if you are under 1 year to expiration and have non violent felonies, make sure you write and give me details of a potential release plan, if you have one. If you MIGHT qualify for one of the home confinement programs (305 is for DUI's only, 317 is for other felonies -non violent unless it has been over 5 years since last violent) and 184 is for people who have underlying drug and alchol issues that are related to their conviction) We ARE working on them, but making them move is slow. More info coming. If you have a pending application, please let us know as we are working on driving them through the process.

Coming next week a survey and update on bills that are being worked on by us and our allies during the legislative session to impact systematic change in the area of criminal "in" justice.

Writing us is always the best option because it gives us first hand accounts of what is happening with you. PLEASE keep writing about what you see happening with COVID. It is driving the work that is happening, the results are slow, but they are coming.

Last thing, Return Strong is still growing! We have 436 Members out here and 372 members inside AND we now have been asked to help develop a group of family activists in New York who want to fight for reform there also. Make sure you tell your loved ones, plug in. They need to be part of this to make it happen. Our power is getting educated and then getting activated and moving our agenda.

ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This is a pro se appeal. Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County; David M. Jones, Judge.

Review of the documents submitted to this court pursuant to NRAP 3(g) reveals a jurisdictional defect. Specifically, appellant claims to be appealing an order granting respondents' motion for summary judgment, but no such order appears in the documents transmitted to this court or in the district court docket entries. It appears a hearing was held on May 11, 2021, at which the district court granted respondents' motion, but no written order has been entered. See NRAP 4(a)(1); Rust v. Clark Cty. School District, 103 Nev. 686, 747 P.2d 1380 (1987) (explaining that the district court's oral pronouncement from the bench, the clerk's minute order, and even an unfiled written order cannot be appealed). Accordingly, this court lacks jurisdiction, and

Burname Court or Memba

ORDERS this appeal DISMISSED.

| The revisor then proceeds to point out the difference that exists       |

| Compilation, revision or code. He makes it apporent that the            |
| 66 STATUTES OF NEUADA / SESSION LAWS 99 are of a different authority    |
| Than that of compilations, revisions and codes the 60 NRS99 are         |
| apparently a 66 REVISION 19 which was First published in 1949.          |
| The 66 NRS 19 appear to be nothing more than a reference Book,          |
| like the nevad reporter.  |
| The Revisor does not say that the statutes referenced herein 611        |

| There are thus many confusing and ambiguous statements made             |

FOREWORD

By the provisions of chapter 304, Statutes of Nevada 1951, amended by chapter 280. Statutes of Nevada 1953, and chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1955, the legislature of the State of Nevada created the statute revision commission comprised of the three justices of the supreme court, authorized such commission to appoint a reviser of statutes to be known as the director of the statute revision commission, and charged the commission to commence the preparation of a complete revision and compilation of the laws of the State of Nevada to be known as Nevada Revised Statutes, Reference is made to chapter 220 of Nevada Revised Statutes for the further duties and authority of the statute revision commission relating to the preparation of Nevada Revised Statutes, the numbering of sections, binding, printing, classification, revision and sale thereof.

The commission employed as director Russell W. McDonald, a member of the State Bar of Nevada, who, with his staff, undertook and performed this monumental task with such methods, care, precision, completeness, accuracy and safeguards against error as to evoke the highest praise of the commission and the commendation of the bench and bar of the state.

As the work progressed, Mr. McDonald submitted drafts of chapter after chapter as recompiled and revised, and the members of the commission individually and in conference meticulously checked all revisions. In the vast majority of cases these revisions were promptly approved. Many required further conferences with the director. Some were modified and redrafted. As the several chapters were returned with approval to the director, they were in turn delivered to the superintendent of state printing for printing, to the end that upon the convening of the 1957 legislature Nevada Revised Statutes was ready to present for approval. By the provisions of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957, Nevada Revised Statutes, consisting of NRS 1.010 to 710.590, inclusive, was "adopted and enacted as law of the State of Nevada.'

STATUTE REVISION COMMISSION

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S PREFACE

History and Objectives of the Revision

Nevada Revised Statutes is the result of the enactment, by the 45th session of the legislature of the State of Nevada, of chapter 304, Statutes of Nevada 1951 (subsequently amended by chapter 280, Statutes of Nevada 1953, and chapter 248, Statutes of Nevada 1955), which created the statute revision commission and authorized the commission to undertake, for the first time in the state's history, a comprehensive revision of the laws of the State of Nevada of general application. Although revision was not commenced until 1951, the need for statutory revision had been recognized as early as 1865 when an editorial published in the Douglas County Banner stated:

One subject which ought to engage the early, and serious consideration of the Legislature, about to convene, and one which should be acted upon without delay, is the revision and codification of the laws of Nevada. Amendment has been added to amendment, in such manner as to leave, in many instances, the meaning of the Legislature, that last resort of the jurist, in determining the application of the law, more than doubtful * * *. The most serviceable members of the Legislature will be those gentlemen who will do something toward reducing to order our amendment-ridden, imperfectly framed and jumbled up statutes at large.

From 1861 to 1951 the legislature made no provisions for statutory revision, although during that period 8,423 acts were passed by the legislature and approved by the governor. During the period from 1873 to 1949 eight compilations of Nevada statutes were published. "Compiling" must be distinguished from "revising." Ordinarily, the "compiling" of statutes involves the following steps: Removing from the last compilation the sections that have been specifically repealed since its publication; substituting the amended text for the original text in the case of amended sections; inserting newly enacted sections; rearranging, to a limited extent, the order of sections; and bringing the index up to date.

"Revising" the statutes, on the other hand, involves these additional and distinguishing operations: (1) The collection into chapters of all the sections and parts of sections that relate to the same subject and the orderly arrangement into sections of the material assembled in each chapter. (2) The elimination of inoperative or obsolete, duplicated, impliedly repealed and unconstitutional (as declared by the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada) sections and parts of sections. (3) The elimination of unnecessary words and the improvement of the grammatical structure and physical

The revision, instead of the recompilation, of the statutes was undertaken, therefore, first, to eliminate sections or parts of sections which, though not specifically repealed, were nevertheless ineffective and, second, to clarify, simplify, classify and generally make more accessible, understandable and usable the remaining effective sections or parts of sections.

With respect to the accomplishment of the second purpose of revision specified above, the following revisions, in addition to those mentioned elsewhere in this preface, were made:

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S PREFACE

- 1. Long sections were divided into shorter sections. The division of long sections facilitates indexing and reduces the complications and expense incident to future amendment of the statutes.
- 2. Whole sections or parts of sections relating to the same subject were sometimes combined.
- 3. Sentences within a section, and words within a sentence, were rearranged, and tabulations were employed where indicated.
- 4. Such words and phrases as "on and after the effective date of this act," "heretofore." "hereinafter." "now," and "this act" were replaced by more explicit words when possible.
- 5. The correct names of officers, agencies or funds were substituted for incorrect designations.

The general types of revisions to be made by the reviser, as well as the broad policies governing the work of revision, were determined by the statute revision commission at frequent meetings. Precautions were taken to ensure the accomplishment of the objectives of the program without changing the meaning or substance of the statutes.

Upon completion of the revision of the text of the statutes in December 1956, the commission turned to the solution of a vital problem: Would it recommend the enactment of the revised statutes or would it request the legislature merely to adopt the revised statutes as evidence of the law? The commission concluded that the enactment of the revised statutes as law, rather than the mere adoption thereof as evidence of the law, would be the more desirable course of action. Accordingly, Nevada Revised Statutes in typewritten form was submitted to the 48th session of the legislature in the form of a bill providing for its enactment as law of the State of Nevada. This bill, Senate Bill No. 2 (hereafter referred to in this preface as "the revision bill"), was passed without amendment or dissenting vote, and on January 25, 1957, was approved by Governor Charles H. Russell.

On July 1, 1963, pursuant to the provisions of chapter 403, Statutes of Nevada 1963, the statute revision commission was abolished, and its powers, duties and functions were transferred to the legislative counsel of the State of Nevada.

SCOPE AND EFFECT OF NEVADA REVISED STATUTES

Nevada Revised Statutes, including the supplementary and replacement pages, constitutes all of the statute laws of Nevada of a general nature enacted by the legislature. All statutes of a general nature enacted before the regular legislative session of 1957 have been repealed. See section 3 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957, immediately following this preface.

The revised statutes were the result of 7 years of labor by the statute revision commission and its editorial staff addressed to the problem of eliminating from the accumulation of 95 years of legislation those provisions no longer in force and restating and compiling the remainder in an understandable form. This involved elimination of duplicating, conflicting, obsolete and unconstitutional provisions, and those provisions that had been repealed by implication. It involved a complete reclassification, bringing together those laws and parts of laws which, because of similarity of subject matter, properly belonged together, and an arrangement of the laws within each class in a logical order. It involved the elimination of thousands of needless words and redundant expressions. It was a labor involving almost infinite detail, as well as the problems of classification and the general plan of arrangement.

Nevada Revised Statutes is the law of Nevada. The revised statutes speak for themselves; and all sections of the Nevada Revised Statutes are considered to speak as of the same date, except that in cases of conflict between two or more sections or of any ambiguity in a section, reference may be had to the acts from which the sections are derived, for the purpose of applying the rules of construction relating to repeal or amendment by implication or for the purpose of resolving the ambiguity. See sections 4 and 5 of chapter 2, Statutes of Nevada 1957.

METHOD AND FORM OF PUBLICATION

As required by NRS 220.120, all volumes are "bound in loose-leaf binders of good, and so far as possible, permanent quality." The use of the loose-leaf method makes it possible to keep Nevada Revised Statutes up to date, without using pocket parts or supplements or completely reprinting and rebinding each volume, simply by the insertion of new pages. As required by NRS 220.160, replacement and supplementary pages to the statute text made necessary by the session of the legislature are prepared as soon as possible after each session. Complete reprintings of Nevada Revised Statutes were made in 1967, 1973 and 1979, and after each regular session beginning in 1985.

Replacement pages are additionally provided periodically between legislative sessions as necessary to update the annotations to NRS, including federal and state case law. Occasionally these replacement pages will contain material inadvertently omitted in the codification of NRS and the correction of manifest clerical errors, as well as sections or chapters of NRS which have been recodified pursuant to chapter 220 of NRS for clarification or to alleviate overcrowding.

The outside bottom corner of each page of NRS contains a designation which indicates the reprint or group of replacement pages with which the page was issued. A designation consisting of four numerals contained in parentheses means that the page was issued as part of a reprint of NRS immediately following the legislative session held in the year indicated by the four numerals. For example, the designation "(1999)" means that the page was issued as part of the reprint of NRS immediately following the 70th legislative session which was held in 1999. A designation consisting of four numerals contained in parentheses immediately followed by the capitalized letter "R" and a numeral means that the page was issued as part of a group of replacement pages in the year indicated by the four numerals in parentheses. The numeral following the "R" indicates the number of the group of replacement pages. The groups begin with the number one and increase sequentially by one number so that the later group will always have a higher number. For example, the designation "(2000) R1" means that the page was part of the first group of replacement pages issued in 2000. Similarly, the designation "(2000) R4" means that the page was part of the fourth group of replacement pages issued in 2000.

Each user of Nevada Revised Statutes is urged to make arrangements for the retention of obsolete pages for reference.

CLASSIFICATION AND ARRANGEMENT

One of the first and most fundamental tasks in the revision was the adoption of a sound system of classification. Proper classification, by which the laws or parts of laws are brought together in logical consecutive units, is vital for a number of reasons: It makes the law more accessible and understandable; only through it can all
